by Johnnie Moore

Although supporters of federal medical care under Social Security for the aged were challenged two years ago to find one elderly person needing and seeking hospital care to whom it was denied because of poverty, they have yet to supply the name and address of a single one, according to the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

The challenge was issued in 1962 by Rep. Tom Curtis (R-Mo) at house Ways and Means Committee hearings on the Administration's medicare program, and it has been issued by the congressman at subsequent hearings.

The country has 17.3 million aged. So the fact that not one has been found in two years to have been denied this care because of inability to pay is a tribute to the hospitals and doctors of the country.

It suggests that the real issue is not whether the aged are receiving the hospital care they need, but whether the present system of providing care will be replaced by a compulsory federal system.

Hearings will start again on January 20, and they will undoubtedly turn up facts showing how the present system of providing protection is improving. One of these facts is that more than 90 percent of the aged have protection under health insurance or government programs (such as veterans' benefits, old age assistance, and medical assistance for the aged) compared with only 35 percent in 1952 and the percentage is still growing.

and assisting will be the Rev. Earl M. Robertson also of Plains.

Political Lines Now Drawn

HEATH ENTERS SHERIFF'S RACE

With the passing of the deadline for political hopefuls to be able to announce their intention to seek the various offices on a state and local basis, the battle lines are now drawn and campaigning has now begun in earnest.

Locally there were no candidates who announced on the Republican ticket for any of the posts which are up for grabs.

Three Yoakum County incumbents who are seeking reelection are doing so without any opponents. Elvis W. Craig who is seeking a second term as County Tax Assessor-Collector is not opposed. Neither are Vance Brown and Raymond Bookout who are seeking reelection as Commissioners of Precincts 1 and 3 respectively.

In the other two county-level offices which will be balloted on in the May 2 Democratic Primary, however, three candidates are seeking each of the two offices. In the County Attorney's race incumbent Vernon Townes is bidding for re-election and is being opposed by Don Hancock, Plains attorney and former Yoakum County judge, and also by Claude Freeman, Denver City attorney.

Three men also are seeking the office of County Sheriff. Vester Sanders, presently holding that office is bidding for a second term. Woody Sullivan who is presently Police Chief at Denver City also is seeking the office. And, Olan Heath, who is the deputy sheriff stationed in Plains made his bid for the office at 11 p. m. on Monday, the final date of filing.

Earlier that same day Tom Warren, a Plains area farmer, it was reported, had filed as a candidate for sheriff, but made it known that if Heath should become a candidate that he, Warren, would withdraw from the race in deference to Heath.

Consequently when Heath announced Warren had his name removed from the list of candidates.

A. B. Carpenter, Roy Edwards, Howard E. Ragland and W. A. Bynum are seeking the nomination as State Representative. It is reported that Jesse T. George was to announce, but as yet has not announced with the Plains Record.

YOUNG FARMERS SLATE PROGRAM

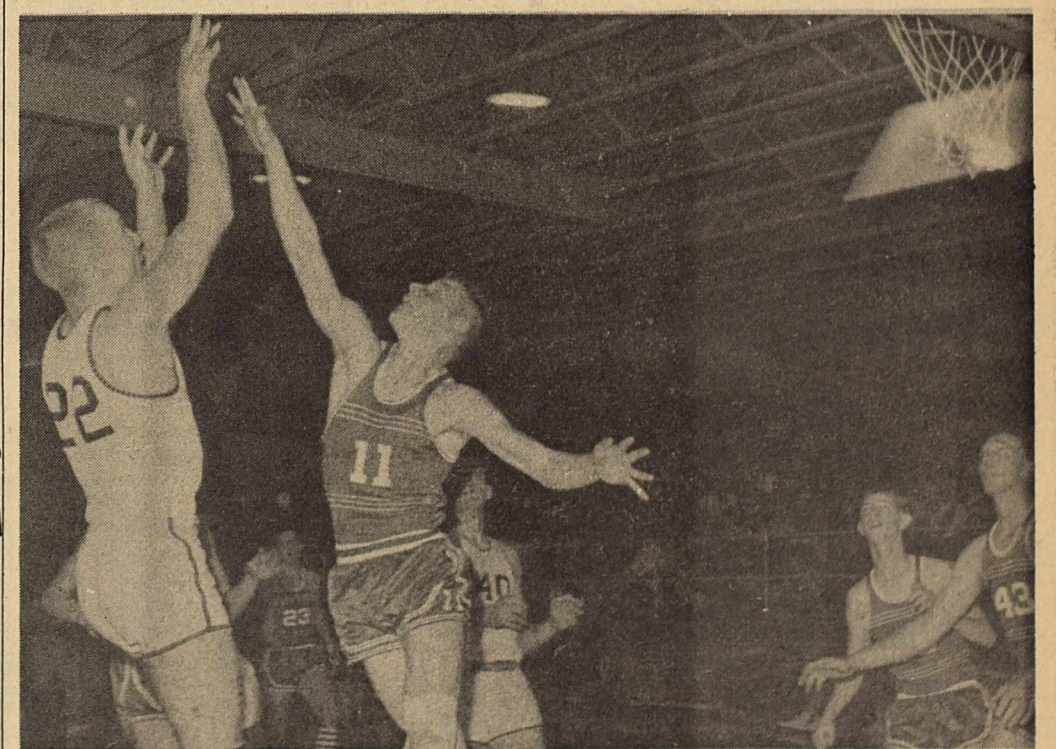

A spokesman for the local chapter of Young Farmers announced today that a special program is on tap for Monday night and that it will be held in Plains School Cafeteria. It will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Highlighting the program will be Mr. Bedford Forrest of the High Plains Research Farm at Halfway, who will present a series of slides and explanations in a four part program which will include Interplanting, Hen Soybeans, Grain Sorghum and Flame Cultivation.

Mr. Frank Moore South Plains Commissioner of the State ASC Committee which convenes each month at College Station, will also be on hand to contribute to the program.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ

A lot of folks try to avoid trouble on their tax return by having Internal Revenue or a private practitioner prepare their tax return. They feel that the Internal Revenue man or their private practitioner is responsible for their return. This is not true. If you sign an income tax return, you are responsible for the return--no matter who prepared it. You must see that your tax return contains all your income. It will also pay you to see that it contains all your deductions.

TWO POINTS AGAINST SEAGRAVES

Cowboys At Home Friday

Plains Cowboys met the Eagles of Seagraves here last Friday night in the second round of conference play.

The Cowboys lead in the tilt all the way through the game until about one minute to the end when Seagraves pulled ahead by 3 points and the game ended with Seagraves taking it by one point, 44-43.

Scoring by quarters was 8, 12, 14, 9 for Plains and 9, 9, 7, 19 for Seagraves.

High point men for Plains were Mike Field with 15 and Dan Smith with 10.

In the B game Plains lost by 5 points, 33-28. J. E. Todd was responsible for 15.

On Tuesday night of this week Cowboys travelled to Wink where they lost 34-28.

The game was a very low scoring affair and by quarter scores ran 9, 7, 6, 6 for Plains and 10, 9, 9, 6, for Wink.

Joe Dan Cooke was high point man for Plains with 11.

Plains B team took their game 41-45, making their season's record so far this year 9 wins and 3 losses.

In both A and B games the Cowboys meet O'Donnell here on Friday night and Tahoka here on Tuesday night.

Plains Junior High and Freshman teams are engaged in a tournament on Thursday and Saturday of this week.

GAINES-YOAKUM SCOTTISH RITE

The Gaines-Yoakum Scottish Rite Association met in Plains at the school cafeteria on Friday January 24, at 7:30 p. m. with 94 members and guests present for an enjoyable ladies night dinner and program.

Vice President Turett Jones of Plains presided at the meeting. Following a delicious meal which was prepared and served by the Plains Eastern Star, those present from the various towns in the tow-county area were presented and guests were introduced.

The program consisted of an imitation of the Jack Parr show given by seven local citizens of Plains. The entertainment was enjoyable and all present agreed they had spent a pleasant evening together.

The next meeting of the association will be at Denver City in March when members meet to observe Maundy Thursday.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: $3 per year in Yoakum and Terry Counties; $4 per year elsewhere.

Right away now Uncle Zeb will be having a birthday. I mean the old fellow who grins down at you from the top of this column and has done so for what has added up to a long, long time. Actually, in just a short time he will pass his eighteenth birthday. . . . Looking backward it just doesn't seem possible. . . . Anyway, drop Uncle Zeb a card and tell us how many of those years that you have been a reader. Good or bad, please tell us what is right or wrong with the column in your opinion. Uncle

Zeb and myself both ask this because we have been talking over some changes. Speaking of changes, we have considered quitting writing the column at all for a while. 12 years adds up to over 3600 weeks. Two pages per week makes for an over-all total of over 7000 typed pages. Mostly, writing the column has brought a certain warmth and joy to life, sometimes it creates a problem. We even wonder what most of the readers would think of this change. Another considered change has been in the heading. Around a dozen newspapers run the column all the time and some occasionally. Many more quote from it. Several editors have turned it down because they thought Uncle Zeb was too much of a country boy-type. This happened mostly in the larger city newspapers. They suggested a more dignified and up to date heading, claiming that non-farm folks were not familiar with plowing or corners. One editor in a large city ran the column but not the picture. In his farm edition, fearing that farm folks would resent the picture. Could this be true? Please send us your frank and honest opinions on the above. Sign your letter for sure, but if you request, we will not use your name.

The trouble with opportunity is that it usually comes all wrapped up in a lot of hard work . . .

To call a bit of gossip an idle rumor would be the under statement of the year. To get around so fast nothing could be running at idle speed.

It seems such a surprise that even the government would be suddenly spurred to action by the tobacco report. I believe most anyone who smoked would have known in his heart that it was hurting him to do so. Most of our parents begged us not to take up the habit because of our health. A large percent of us just had to have our fling with it and most of us stayed hooked until we could feel the hurt. The tragic thing about it is that all angles were turned toward hooking youngsters and the women. The promoters even boasted of their accomplishments. Cigarettes were passed out for free on our college campuses. . . . It is a little embarrassing to have to tell those grown-up youngsters they were driving nails in their coffin. . . . Even more shocking is the fact that liquor remains a more dangerous enemy to health and happiness and nothing is being done to protect our children from the appeals of money mad promoters. The danger free filters and the pure spring water slogans continue to deceive our innocent young.

It is said that women get out of the dumps by buying a new hat. Men can get out by taking off their coat, rolling up their sleeves and going to work.

Search Begins For Mrs. Texas

The annual search for "Mrs. Texas", the State's number one Homemaker, was announced today. The winner will have a golden opportunity to compete for the glamorous title of Mrs. America of 1964.

A contest to select "Mrs. Texas" will be sponsored in March 14 by the Fort Worth Press, Ft. Worth. Homemakers in the Ft. Worth area may obtain entry blanks from the Fort Worth Press. Married women from other parts of the state may obtain them by writing Mrs. America Headquarters, Suite 2307, Pan Am Building, New York City.

Deadline for obtaining entry blanks is February 17, 1964. Married women 21 years old and over anywhere in the United States are eligible to enter the 25-year-old contest.

State champions and Mrs. America will be chosen for their ability as homemakers and for their poise, personality, good grooming and participation in community activities.

Mrs. America of 1964 will be selected from among champion homemakers representing each of the 50 states and the District of Columbia during the Mrs. America Pageant next April 2 to 12 in St. Petersburg, Florida.

The pageant will be held in conjunction with the St. Petersburg Festival of States, sponsored by The Suncoasters, and organization of leading businessmen. Miss Ruth Brooker, managing director of Mrs. America, Inc., said Mrs. America of 1964 will win a dazzling array of prizes, including:

A week's all-expense trip for herself and husband to Curacao, in the Caribbean, for a gala government-sponsored "Mrs. America Week" in that Netherlands Antilles island.

A free trip for herself, her husband and family to the New York World's Fair.

Winter Streets Pose Problems

Safe driving on icy and snowy streets and highways demands greater care and effort than driving under normal road conditions. The following are some tips on how to drive safely and help to avoid accidents on ice and snow laden streets and highways.

1. If your car has a conventional, or "old-fashioned" shift start in second gear and engage the clutch very gently with little gas. With an automatic transmission, feed gas very gently to start, holding the accelerator steady as soon as the car moves. Increase gas only if it can be done without spinning the wheels.
2. Drive well under dry road speed. Speed limits set for normal driving conditions are not realistic on slick streets and highways.

3. Keep the car pulling steadily. You need moderate power not speed. To falter or hesitate is, often, to stall or go into a skid. Rolling friction is substantially greater than sliding friction.
4. Make no sudden changes in speed, gear ratio, or direction. Any of these can cause a serious skid. Make these changes, if necessary, most cautiously.

5. To stop or slow down on icy streets, lightly pump the brake pedal in rapid succession. This action permits the front wheels to steer when they roll and gives greater traction on ice for stopping as the wheels are not locked. The intervals of steering will keep the vehicle from skidding off a crowned road into a ditch.

When the car actually is in a skid, steer in the direction in which the rear end is skidding to recover. When the car begins to straighten out, then also straighten out the front wheels.

6. Keep windshield, back windows, outside rear-view mirrors, and all lights clear of dirt, snow, frost, sleet, and mud.

State's Teachers Seek Pay Hike

Texas public school teachers this year will receive a salary almost $600 below the national average, and Texas will drop to 29th place among the states in salaries paid teachers.

That was the statement today made by Mrs. Elizabeth Little of Corpus Christi, state president of the Texas State Teachers Association. She based her statement on an annual national survey by the National Education, "Estimates of School Statistics, 1963-64."

Nationally, the average salary for teachers is estimated to be $5,963 for the current school year. In Texas the figure is $5,390.

This drops Texas to 29th position among the states. It is down from the 24th position Texas held temporarily after the last statewide teacher pay boost was provided effective for 1961-62. There is danger that the state will slide farther behind.

The total amount spent for each school child, including teacher pay, is one measure of how well a State supports education. And here again Texas is below average.

All 50 states will spend an average of $455 for each public school pupil in attendance this year. Texas will spend only $387. This puts Texas in a tie with Vermont for 35th place.

"These are just some of the reasons that TSTA will ask the 1965 Legislature to provide a $45 per month increase in the minimum salary for teachers," Mrs. Little pointed out.

Such a salary increase could not be effective before the 1965-66 school year, the TSTA president pointed out.

Meantime other states will

NEW TEXAS NATIONAL PARK SOUGHT

Texas' Senior U.S. Senator Ralph Yarborough and Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall confer in the Cabinet member's office on the Senator's bill to create a 77,000-acre National Park in the Guadalupe Mountain range in Hudspeth and Culberson counties. The location is in the Trans-Pecos area of Texas. It is 55 miles from the Carlsbad Caverns and 110 miles from El Paso, a gateway to Mexico. "Secretary Udall was very helpful in my long effort to win passage of the Padre Island National Seashore Recreational Area which became law when President Kennedy (shown in the background) signed it on September 28, 1962," Senator Yarborough said, "and he is also supporting the Guadalupe Park bill."

Sometimes freedom doesn't seem very important.

Until you lose it.

Funny thing about freedom. It's our most precious possession. But it's a possession we take for granted. Too many of us don't do anything to preserve freedom. Probably because it's always easier to let the other fellow do it. Well, these men didn't let the others do it, and neither did the thousands of other Americans who lost their freedom, or their lives. In the Korean War and all the other wars that were fought every time our freedom was threatened. Sure, everybody does his part during a war. But as soon as the war is over, we settle back, relax and forget about it. Until our freedom is threatened again.

Well, we can't do that anymore. Today our freedom and our way of life are being attacked in all corners of the world by an aggressive, determined enemy. Communism. We have to fight back or lose the struggle. But not on the battlefield alone. We have to win the hearts and minds of people everywhere. Especially our own people. Our men and women, our boys and girls must believe in freedom. They must want it. And they must know that the freedoms we now enjoy, the freedoms we have fought for, must not be lost by apathy or neglect. By not caring enough.

What can you, as an individual, do? That depends on how much your freedom means to you. Is it worth standing up for? Speaking up for? Acting up for? If your answer is yes, then Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge wants to hear from you. What is Freedoms Foundation? A 15-year-old, nonprofit, nonsectarian, nonpartisan organization devoted solely to the preservation of the American way. Dwight D. Eisenhower is Chairman. James A. AMERICAN HOME ECONOMICS GROUP SETS ANNUAL MEETING

The 55th annual meeting of the American Home Economics Association will be held in Detroit, Michigan, June 23 to 26, according to Mrs. Florence W. Low of College Station, president of the association.

Theme for the meeting will be "The Leadership Challenge" Mrs. Low, who is assistant director for home economics with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says More than 5,000 home economics form all parts of the country are expected to attend the annual meeting which will develop the "Leadership" theme through program sessions on the psychology of leadership, educational leadership, community leadership and world leadership.

GOOD BUYS IN GROUND BEEF

Hamburger or ground beef is a favorite of many menu makers and is one of the thrifty meat buys that almost everyone likes. Cost per pound of ground beef influences your purchase, but while you consider this cost, give thought to the cost per serving, too. And check the color of the ground meat. If too lean ground beef is dry, tasteless and crumbly but has less calories per serving. If too fat, the ground beef will be greasy and there will be a lot of loss during cooking.

If you plan to use the ground meat the same day of purchase or the following day, wrap it loosely in waxed paper or moisture-proof paper. Use it within 2 to 3 days.

Other good meat buys this week are chuck roasts, a variety of popular steak cuts, and stew meat. Pork items include hams of all sizes, loin roasts, sausage and bacon.

Steak is being promoted as a breakfast meat. Thin sliced steaks for breakfast are often featured in many meat departments. Merchandising managers feel the steak promotion is showing promise.

Besides beef, pork and lamb are being featured more for out door cookery. Lamb ribs, boneless leg of lamb for the rotisserie, double thick lamb steaks and chops, spare ribs, boneless ham steaks, and boned rolled leg of pork are suggested items for out door cooking enthusiasts.

More recipe handout materials may be added at meat counters. Customers are continually asking for cooking suggestions, and market managers would like to see more point-of-sale materials.

Smoked pork chops and roasts are gaining new customers.

Industry men say that more will be done with smoked pork to boost pork volume. More specialty packages of chicken are appearing in markets. Family packs which offer one and half-cut-up chickens without wings or backs, and packages of thighs, wings, legs, breasts, backs and necks are becoming more plentiful.

Turkey has been established as a year around item. Turkey parts are gaining favor with customers who want single meals and no leftovers, and turkey rolls are popular with those who don't want to be bothered with carving.

PATENTS ARE BEING SOUGHT
Public-service patents on two methods of producing all-cotton socks have been applied for by the United States Department of Agriculture. In one process now being adopted by industry, over-

HOW FAMILIES SPEND THEIR MONEY

Homemakers may want to take a critical look at last year earnings and expenditures in an attempt to make plans for the year ahead, suggests an Extension consumer marketing specialist.

Since many families do not keep detailed records, it often is difficult to tell with any accuracy just where the money has gone. A look at national expenditures for 1963 may provide an idea about uses of family funds.

The average family with average income spent 19 percent for their disposable income for food. Total expenditures for food in 1964 are expected to increase slightly, especially with predicted rising incomes, but the proportion of disposable income for food is expected to go down. Since 1947, for every dollar increase in consumer incomes, food expenditures have averaged an increase of only 15 cents. This trend is expected to continue in 1964.

Stretch properties are put in the yarn before knitting to the second process. Treatment is in sodium hydroxide as in the first process.

The USDA reports that both methods produce socks in the standard range of stretch sizes 11 to 14, leaving about four inches of stretch in reserve. Knitting may be done on standard machines. Developers of processes are with the USDA's Southern Utilization Research Laboratory, New Orleans.

MAN'S SHIRTS AND SLACKS
Ladies no longer have exclusive use of all-cotton stretch fabrics developed by U. S. Department of Agriculture utilization research. By spring, men will be wearing stretch cotton shirts and slacks. By fall, there should be a variety of other men's clothing made from these new stretch fabrics.

Two companies will market dress shirts made of cotton oxford cloth this coming spring and a third manufacturer will market men's slacks in cotton stretch fabrics according to early announcements. The stretch-cotton invasion of the men's wear field is just beginning. Dozens of other firms are testing fabric for use in socks, sportshirts, under-wear sport jackets, and hunting jackets, as well as shirts and slacks.

Texas Cotton Ginners Against Cotton Plan

DALLAS — A campaign to preserve the state's cotton acreage history and strong opposition to a proposed voluntary diversion of cotton acreage came from the Texas Cotton Ginners' Association board of directors Tuesday in Corpus Christi.

At the organization's closing session of the annual Directors and Allied Industry meeting, the group adopted a 12-point legislative position which favored any legislative program providing for a reasonable income to the grower but which would not force the market to pay any supplemental income.

Association president C. L. Walker, Jr., Temple, and legislative committee chairman Burris C. Jackson of Hillsboro said the resolution particularly opposed any program which would attract cotton into government stocks.

Directors voiced immediate concern over the state's release and reapportionment program for cotton acreage. The ginners' organization favored the present law and opposed the recently proposed voluntary diversion plan which would pay growers for not planting cotton. Jackson told directors the diversion plan had no chance of passage in time for the 1964 crop. But, many growers — believing such legislation might affect their 1964 crop — are not releasing unwanted acreage. In some instances, cotton farmers who have already released acreage are asking for the acreage back from their county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committees.

Another section favored the handling of cotton through normal trade channels since "we believe in the principles of less government control instead of more government control; and a free marketing system."

Basically, the ginners' document pledged support to any cotton program which will permit cotton to move to consumers at a free market price and thus reduce the stocks on hand. This should replace the attempts to solve surplus cotton problems by forcing reduced production. Walker said the deadline for release and request of acreage is February 4 in the southern half of the state and the reapportionment deadline is February 25. Releases and requests must be made by March 4 in the northern zone of Texas with final reapportionment set on March 25. Planting of cotton will start in the Rio Grande Valley around February 10, Walker said. He urged ginners to contact farmers and encourage them to go ahead with release of unwanted cotton acreage.

Should acreage be held, 75 percent must be planted to retain full history credit. Should farmers hold acreage and not plant it, they will lose their cotton history for future allotment purposes, Walker said. This will bring about a similar loss in county and state allotments.

This development threatens to hurt the economy of every community, county and region of the state, Jackson said.

The ginners' organization resolution also opposed any cotton program without a minimum acreage of 16,310,000 acres — the present minimum.

The directors reaffirmed their earlier stand favoring a one price system for domestic and foreign mills and asked that no limitations be placed on government payments to cotton growers. The resolution also asked for quotas to remain in acres and not in pounds or bales.

SCD Report

The bad weather this week slowed down our activities but to get some moisture we are willing to make any sacrifice, almost.

There is more and more interest in taking soil samples and then following the recommendation. Robert L. Rucker who will farm the Benton farm south of Sligo this year took samples on a large part of his farm this week. The farm is now owned by Loran and Muleswhite of Levelland. A conservation plan was worked out with Robert and plans are to go to work on soil conditioning by using cowpeas, high residue crops, cotton burs and an all round conservation cropping system.

The Wayne Buzan and H. B. Price Great Plains contracts were modified to add grass planting to each, 28 acres on the Buzan place and about 10 acres on the B. B. Price place.

New conservation plans were written for the W. M. Bundick Benton place, Boe Stephens and J. E. Wright farm operated by De Roy Anderson, O. H. Clark and Joe Crump places.

The snow stopped all farm work but several good jobs of chisel plowing without cutting cotton stalks or other residue were noted. Robert Chambliss E. D. Campbell and J. B. Ashburn and many, many more.

We cannot over emphasize the watering now of irrigated pastures. Pastures watered now will maintain plant vigor and be ready to grow when weather conditions permit. Price Brookshire, H. B. Price, M. R. Newman, J. D. Jones and many others are watering now. Plan now to chisel in 80-100 lbs. of actual phosphate and 25-35 lbs. of actual nitrogen in March. Plan and have ready a place for all livestock to graze until the grass has made sufficient growth before grazing it. We graze the grass as it comes out we set it back and weaken it thereby lowering the production. Wait until it is high enough as the old cow can get a bite not a nibble. We think a good high to have at the start of the grazing period would be 5" to 8" some are saying 10" to 12".
