SHERIFF NABS BOGUS TRIO

Olan Heath, Sheriff of Yoakum County lead his deputies into the Tip Top Hotel in Denver City Saturday and arrested three Californians on charges of forging and passing forged instruments. The two men and the woman were carried before Denver City Peace Justice and bond was set at $2000.00 bond. They are being held in lieu of bond in the Lubbock jail for safe keeping.

Sheriff Heath asked that if anybody in the area recognizes the pictures of the accused felons to notify him at once. The Sheriff also warned people in the community to be certain to make proper identification of all strangers who want to give checks. Sheriff Heath warned that check passing is on the increase in the country.

The county's chief law enforcer stated that the three prisoners will be brought before the Grand Jury in June. The prisoners are believed to have passed several hundred dollars worth of forged checks in the county. The Sheriff stated that the checks are still being reported and that he has no idea how high the total amount may reach.

The Sheriff said that the three were well known criminals and were wanted in other states. The Sheriff also said that the notices have gone out and that the trio will no doubt have holds placed on them from other states.

The surprise arrest came after the Sheriff had become suspicious of them and had followed the trio. He saw the California license plates, and Heath followed up his hunch. He found the trio with their suitcase packed and ready to take to the road.

Arrested were: Roy Albert Monjar, 33; Charles LaFawn Elswick, 42; and Barbara Joan Spencer, 33. The Sheriff said that the trio were considered dangerous and he stressed the fact that he hopes that if any body recognizes the pictures to call him without fail.

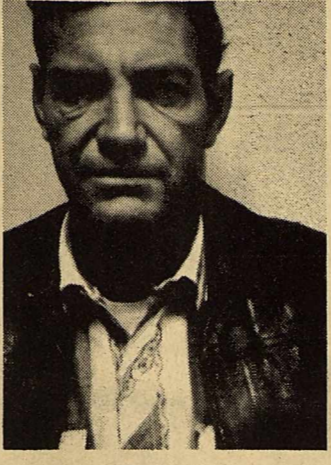

The Sheriff said that he appreciates the fine cooperation that the people in the area are giving to the law officers, and he stated that this is the only way he can enforce the law efficiently. The Sheriff commented that he has declared war on organized crime and will do everything in his power to keep the gangs out of business.

Cotton Deadline

Set Jan. 31st

According to W. M. Overton, local ASCS Office Manager, January 28, 1966 has been approved as the final date for requesting additional released cotton acreage allotment. All farmers should keep this date in mind and file their requests on or before the final date. It is possible the manager stated that due to the number of counties in the east part of the state that did not vote to sell and lease their allotments, we may again receive some released cotton acreage from the eastern part of the state. Therefore all farmers wanting additional cotton acreage should file the request form.

As of this date, January 11, the local ASCS office has received cotton acreage sale, lease or transfer documents for 84 Yoakum County farms. The increase in allotments due to this program has not been tabulated, however, the farmers were limited, under the regulations to 100 acres and the amount transferred would be something under 8400 acres. It is expected that all of the transfer papers will have been received by January 20th and the final tabulation will be made.

The office manager stated that due to the tremendous workload on both transferring and receiving counties all farmers should keep all copies of all documents pertaining to the transfer, just in case some error may be made in either county or mail could go astray.

Felons Cut Phone Lines Near Tokio Gin

Long distance telephone service was out of operation for the Plains area Tuesday afternoon for several hours until repairs could locate and repair the lines between Plains and Brownfield. The wires had been deliberately cut, said Pete St. Romain, president of Romain Telephone Company of Plains. The line was one of General Telephone Company's wires.

St. Romain said that he had dispatched Buster Kennedy to find the break in the line and that he discovered it near Tokio. Romain's repairmen assisted the General Company's crew in repairing the lines.

The price of copper is unusually high at the present time said St. Romain, and he continued in stating that stealing copper wire is wide spread now.

The telephone spokesman stated that the wires are under the F. C. C., and that the Federal law agencies probably would enter the case.

The telephone president also said that the deliberate act of cutting the long distance wires endangered the city of Plains. Several emergency long distance calls could not be made because of the incident.

St. Romain said that the felons probably cut the wires to see if they were in use and planned to return to steal a large roll of wire which would bring almost 50 cents per pound. The break was discovered before the thieves could make off with the copper wire loot.

It is the policy of telephone companies to prosecute felons when apprehended to the fullest extent of the law.

Plains residents must dial the long distance operator in Brownfield in order to place a long distance call. Mobile telephone units were the only outside means of phoning during the break in the long distance lines. At press time it was unknown if the culprits had been apprehended.

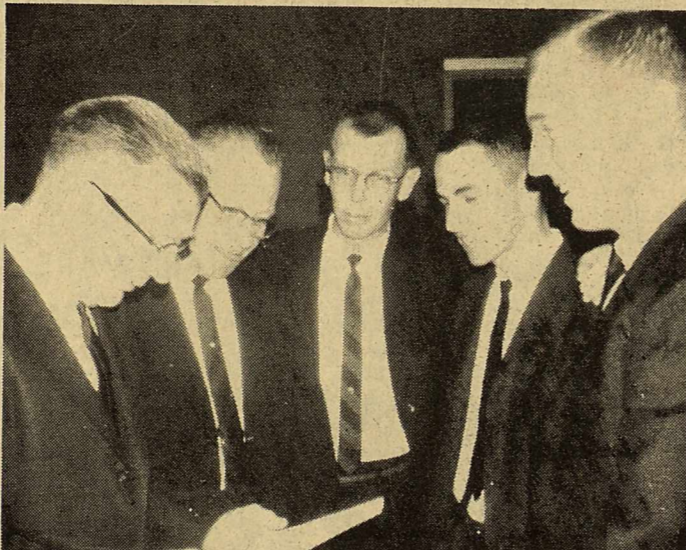

Yoakum Credit Union Slates Annual Meeting

The Yoakum County Credit Union will have its annual meeting upstairs in the Youth Center at the old courthouse building Monday night at 7:30 p. m., said Molly Courtney Clark, Secretary and Treasurer.

Mrs. Clark said that Jack House, past president of the South Plains Credit Union Association will be the featured speaker. A movie in color will also be shown during the meeting.

One member of the Board of Directors will be elected and two members of the credit committee will also be elect-

Booster Banquet Held For Team

Burl Huffman, Texas Tech Freshman Coach was the principal speaker at the Booster Club's annual football banquet in the School cafeteria last Thursday night. Huffman delivered a speech that he is noted for, that being one of humor. He is one of the region's best known humorists.

Coach Rip Sewell presented the Fighting Heart Award, which is voted on by members of the Cowboy football team, to Joe Dan Cooke, Plains All State Fullback and holder of the School record for scoring and rushing in any season. Joe Dan was a popular choice and the crowd loved it as young Cooke walked forward to receive his award.

All lettermen were recognized and honored at the banquet, and all of the team members who had been named to district and area all star teams were also recognized. Coach Sewell acted as master of ceremonies for these events. Jack Hayes, Booster prexy, was the general chairman for the evening's events.

A capacity crowd attended the banquet, and many of the people voiced their satisfaction and enjoyment of the program and the meal. Jay's Cowboy Grill prepared the food for the banquet. The menu consisted of Fried Chicken, Bar B Q, Potato Salad, Hot Rolls, Green Beans, Red Beans, Salad, and Cherry Cobbler.

After the program, Mr. Huffman visited informally with many people in the audience who have heard him speak on different occasions.

Decorations for the evening included arrangements of the Cowboy colors, black and gold, and art work showing the District 5 A Champions.

Veterans' Benefits In County Told

The annual report of the Veterans Affairs Commission shows that during 1965, more than $70,104.00 in Veterans Administration benefits were paid to the veterans and their dependents and survivors in Yoakum County. Mr. Art York, Yoakum County Veterans Service Officer was commended for his outstanding accomplishments during the past year. None of these benefits are awarded automatically. For every benefit paid by the Veterans Administration, a claim or an application must be filed.

The total amount of Veterans Administration benefits paid indicates to a large degree, the type of work that a County Service Officer does. From the amount paid to the residents of Yoakum County, we know that Mr. York has been instrumental in assisting a very large number of veterans during the year just completed.

Judge E.S. Bandy Seeks Re-Election

Judge E. S. Bandy has announced his intentions to seek re-election as Justice of the Peace. Judge Bandy has served as Peace Justice since 1954 and has been a resident of Yoakum County since 1935.

Mr. Bandy built his home in Plains 20 years ago last September. He was an employee of Yoakum County for 14 years.

Judge Bandy and Mrs. Bandy live at their home in Plains. They have four children and 12 grand-children. Their three sons live in Lubbock, Brownfield, and Weatherford, and their daughter lives in California.

The local Peace Justice stated that he is running for re-election in precinct one, and that he is asking the voters to return him to office. The Plains Justice of the Peace stated that he believes his record is a good one, and that if re-elected he will carry out the duties of his office in an impartial manner.

Wilda Hancock Runs For County Treasurer

Wilda Hancock, of Denver City, has announced her intentions to seek the office of Yoakum County Treasurer.

Mrs. Hancock has been a resident of Yoakum County since 1957 and resides at 915 North Ave D in Denver City. She is a native of Greenville, Texas, and has lived in West Texas since 1940. She lived in Lamesa and Seagraves before moving to Denver City.

Mrs. Hancock is a widow and the mother of two small sons, Vincent Ray, age 5, and Vernon Roy, age 2.

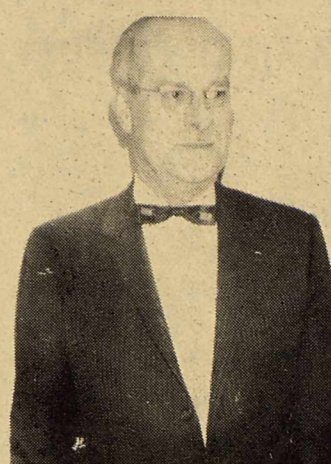

Mrs. Hancock is now employed at Vickies Beauty Shop as a beautician. She is a member of the First Baptist Church and of the Rebecca Lodge.

Dr. A. M. Reynolds, Plains M. D., has signed the lease on the Yoakum County Clinic in Plains, and has announced that the Clinic will re-open this week. Dr. Reynolds now has possession of the clinic. The new Plains M. D. signed the contract for the clinic at the regular meeting of the Yoakum County Commissioner's Court Monday Morning.

The Clinic should be ready today, said Dr. Reynolds and if not it will be ready for use Friday. The Plains physician stated that inventory is being taken and that new equipment should be installed by today or tomorrow.

Mrs. Reynolds will assist the physician at the clinic. She is an X Ray technician and has experience as a nurse. The new doctor asked that if possible people should call for an appointment in order that waiting can be cut to a minimum. The new number at the clinic is 456-5252. Dr. Reynolds home number is 456-5151. Dr. Reynolds has bought the new home on third street and is living neighbors to Mr. and Mrs. Sid Wade.

DR. A. M. REYNOLDS

Dr. Reynolds announced that the office hours in the Clinic will be from 8:30 a. m. until 12:00 noon and from 1:30 until 5 p. m. Dr. Reynolds will make house calls before the clinic opens of a morning, during the noon hour, and after five o'clock.

The new physician stated that the clinic phone number has been changed to 456-5252.

Mrs. Reynolds said that they are glad to be a part of the community and that she is looking forward to meeting the people in the community. The Reynolds have been getting their new home in order and have been busy with the move. They arrived in Plains Sunday.

Dr. Reynolds has joined the Chamber of Commerce and was a Lion in DeLeon for many years. He stated that he is looking forward to attending the Lions Club meeting.

Dr. Reynolds is a pilot and is interested in re-building old guns. He now has a Gyro-copter, which is similar to a helicopter.

The Reynolds are members of the Methodist Church. Dr. and Mrs. Reynolds enjoy playing bridge, and expressed enthusiasm upon hearing of the many bridge groups in Plains.

Firemen Fight Area Fires

The alarm for fire sounded Thursday night and most of last Friday and Plains Volunteer Firemen battled stubborn cotton and cotton burr fires at the Yoakum County Co-Op Gin and the Bacon Gin in Brownfield most of Friday and brought the fire in a cotton trailer at Newsom Gin under control Saturday night.

On Friday fire also swept the burr piles at the C. G. & S. Gin and the Tokio Gin.

Firemen battled the stubborn blazes and fought high winds, and as they neared victory, the water tanks would empty. Finally bulldozers and tractors were brought into the fight and only then were the firemen able to secure their equipment. Without the use of blades the fire would have raged out of control.

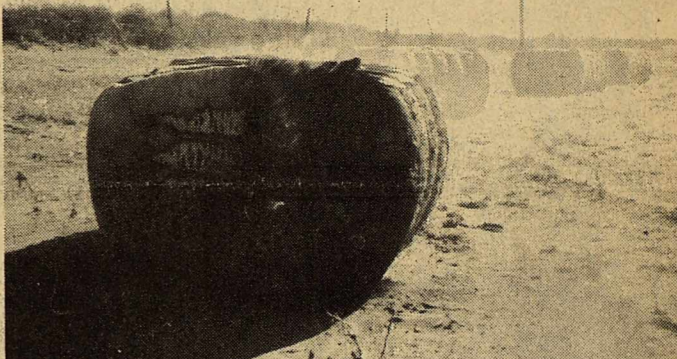

Damage was considered light at all of the Gins, but during the Friday fires the danger was severe. Firemen stated if the wind changed directions that they would lose the advantage, and the blaze would have gotten out of control.

On Monday the country fire alarm was also sounded and the same type fires were fought.

One spokesman at the fire department stated that extreme caution should be used at this time of year because of the wind and the dry climate. He further stated that fire prevention if practiced properly would save money dollars at this time of year.

Volunteer firemen are urged to answer the call if at all possible.

Bales of cotton are pictured west of Plains at the Yoakum County Co-Op Gin burning during recent fire siege. The bales were removed from the gin area and burned themselves out.

Romain Phone System Plans Service Vote

Pete St. Romain, president of Romain Telephone Company in Plains, stated that he will contact the Romain Telephone customers soon to see if they favor direct telephone service with Denver City. If the plan goes into effect it would tie Plains, Denver City, and Higginbotham with direct service.

St. Romain said that a study would be conducted soon in order that the telephone customers would know how much more the service would be each month. He further stated that plans to extend the service would be governed by the majority of the customers polled. Each customer will be advised of the cost and will have the opportunity to express his opinion concerning the question.

Mr. St. Romain said that General Telephone Company has not contacted him concerning their plans in Denver City. Reliable sources reported that a straw vote will be conducted in Denver City soon to determine if they desire the service. In order for the change of service to be effective, the majority of the Denver City customers and the Plains customers would have to approve the plan.

The local telephone representative said that if the majority of the customers of either town rejects the proposal, then the service will not be offered.

Plains now enjoys local service with the telephone community of Higginbotham but Denver City must call long distance.

More information will be available soon concerning the matter. The costs of the operation are unknown until the study is complete.

When asked if he knew the feelings of some of the business people and other citizens of the Plains area, St. Romain said that he would not know until after the poll is taken.

Mothers Set March For Dimes Drive

"As long as millions of American mothers have to ask the terrible question, 'Why was my baby born defective?' There will be urgent work you can do for the MARCH OF DIMES."

The members of Tsa Mo Ga will conduct a mothers march next Tuesday morning January 18, at 10:00 o'clock in the morning. Please give to a worthy cause, said Mrs. Bill Loyd, Tsa Mo Ga president.

Mrs. Loyd stated that the ladies will meet at her house and start the drive from there. The people of Plains have always supported this worthy cause and the ladies of Tsa Mo Ga ask that they continue to give them their wonderful support.

Cemetery Meeting Called

The Cemetery Association is to meet January 20th at the Public Library at 8 P. M. The nomination committee will report and officers will be elected. Dues for 1966 are payable now. Many members have not paid last years dues. Let's not neglect our cemetery. It takes money to care for the cemetery. If it is not supported financially it will never be self supporting.

JUDGE BANDY

Mr. and Mrs. Bandy are members of The First Baptist Church in Plains.

Miss Georgia Gentry, a reader from Weaverville, North Carolina sends the following poem. It seemed a good beginning for our hopes for the new year. It is called:

Lamp lighter
 The little lamps of friendship
 We light along the way
 Go shining on far down the years,
 And brighten every day.

This love that keeps them burning
 In sympathy and trust,
 God help us that no lamp goes out,
 Because we let it rust.

O. R. Sterk, Jr., our banker reader from Quitaque puts it this way:
 "When one has much to put in them, a day has a thousand pockets."

Our traveling salesman reader from Enid, Oklahoma, G. D. Cochrum gives the same thought from his point of view: "Success thinks in terms of giving, not getting. The business man who thinks only of returns soon finds himself without friends among his prospects and customers."

Rev. Evaret Mills, our past eighty year young reader from Lancaster, Wisconsin hits the all-time good note with the little motto to cards which he sent along with a tape recording of his singing and playing the hand saw. We will long treasure the tape. The motto is: "REMEMBER — seven days without prayer makes one WEAK."

Captain Frank Dougherty of Lawton, who is a real captain in our books, sends a little booklet of model prayers along with his Best Wishes. We liked the following so very much: "Thy Son, O God, has loved enough to give himself for me. . . I know that He can save me from that which can so easily wreck my life. Help me to be so possessed by Him until I lose myself in surrender to Him. Amen."

One reader, whose name we have misplaced sent us the story of Trotty Vick, the little messenger from the story The Chimes by Charles Dickens. Along with the story was a little booklet full of cheerful and friendly thoughts. The following are samples: "The person you always like to meet when you are looking down, always leaves you looking up." "If we want to stay young at seventy, we need to laugh with the old folks of twenty." "A noble epitaph — He kept his tears to himself but shared his laughter."
 "He is my friend that speaks well of me behind my back." "The most precious of all possessions is a wise and loyal friend."

Another preacher friend, Gil Sheridan, Rt No 3, Box 31, Pelatka, Fla., sends us a copy of a small publication which along with his pastor and their church are sending out to those who are shut-ins especially and to others if desired across our wide country. Gil is a wheel-chair worker with the paper and an assistant to their pastor. Write him for a copy of The Orange Mills Baptist Express. By for now.

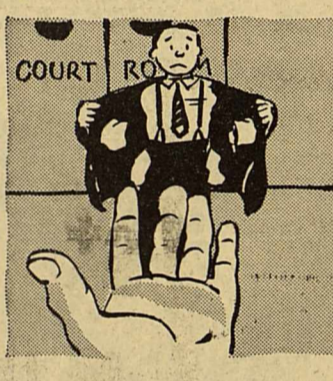

THE FAMILY LAWYER

When Bankruptcy Won't Help

Motorist A, held liable for an accident, was ordered to pay more than his insurance coverage, more than everything he owned. In desperation, he decided to go through bankruptcy. Although this left him poor, at least he was relieved of his overwhelming burden of debt.

Motorist B, in a similar predicament, also tried bankruptcy. But in his case, that didn't help. Even after going through bankruptcy, liability for the accident still hung over him as heavily as before.

The difference in these two cases illustrates an important provision of the Bankruptcy Act. Bankruptcy does cancel most debts, but not all. One debt it does not cancel is liability for "wilful and malicious" injuries inflicted on others.

Motorist A had caused his accident by just driving a bit too fast. The court held this was not "wilful and malicious."

But motorist B had been driving at high speed during a storm, on the wrong side of the road, while under the influence of liquor. The court decided this was indeed "wilful and malicious" conduct — and not even bankruptcy could save him from responsibility for it.

Most often, such questions arise out of auto accidents. But any kind of wilful and malicious act may put the offender beyond the relief of bankruptcy. Consider these cases:

A cantankerous home owner, to scare away some boys, fired at them with an air gun, injuring one of the boys.

A disgruntled boy friend spread slanderous stories about a girl's reputation.

The owner of a dog known to be vicious let it run loose on the streets, where it attacked a passing pedestrian.

In each case, after a judgment for damages, the offender went into bankruptcy in hopes of "getting out from under." But in each case, even after bankruptcy, he was held still liable for the wilful and malicious harm he had done.

A keynote of the Bankruptcy Act is sympathy for the hapless debtor. But, in the wilful-and-malicious cases, the law's sympathy is dampened by behavior that is not just foolish but wrongful.

Besides, the law owes consideration not only to the debtor but also to the person who has been run down, shot, slandered, or bitten.

Editorial For The Record

When the alarm for fire sounds the residents of the community and the surrounding area can feel fortunate indeed that there are enough dedicated men in the community to serve on the Plains Volunteer Fire Department. These men go to fires on their own time and their own expense and frequently are in dangerous situations, but never the less, when the whistle blows they come without fail.

This week has been a hectic one for our firemen. They have battled country fires all week and have done a fine job. We extend to each member of the Volunteer Fire Department our appreciation to them for their devotion beyond the call of duty.

We urge the residents of our community to tell our firemen that they too appreciate the fact that these dedicated men serve as the watchdogs of our community.

We quite often take the fire department for granted, but when the alarm sounds each of us realizes that our firemen are rendering a fine service to the community. We of The Record tip our hat in gratitude to these few men who act as our Volunteer Firemen.

The best sense to own is a sense of humor

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"
 By C. WILSON HARDER

King Solomon was undoubtedly a very wise man, and quite able in the field of jurisprudence. But despite his wisdom, it is doubtful that he would have even attempted to render decisions on some of the laws passed by the American legislators. Rather, he would probably have fled to a cave in the Judean hills to seek peace.

As a matter of fact, it is perhaps attempted to run up court costs by attempting to make rulings that are today being made at great expense to the taxpayers, the taxpayers of ancient Israel would probably have chased him into the hills.

Perhaps nothing better illustrates the futility of seeking to solve all human problems by legislation than a recent incident in the State of Washington.

As a part of the legal attempt to eliminate discrimination in employment and invoke the newly passed laws. Many states have set up similar commissions, with good salaries, expenses, et al.

Two ladies, aged 35 and 32, complained they have been relieved of their jobs as cocktail waitresses because of discrimination against age. Not so, said the employer. The reason for the dismissal was that the ladies lacked the degree of sexiness needed for the job.

This, of course, led to a full scale study of the situation. The first point to be decided was whether or not aptitude as a cocktail waitress involved sexiness. This point was decided in the affirmative.

Next was to determine how one goes about determining sexiness.

Apparently the august body of commissioners decided that it would be quite a formidable job to define precisely what constitutes sexiness.

The commission debated at what age do women present a sexy appearance.

Their decision was quite profound. They ruled that while some older women do possess a satisfactory degree of sexiness, it is usually more common with younger women. But on the other hand, the commission pointed out, not all younger women have sexiness.

The upshot of the entire proceedings was that they upheld the right of the employer to dismiss the two waitresses, aged 35 and 32, on the grounds they were not sexy enough for the job. However, their ruling did not indicate whether women aged 35 and 32 are considered non-sexy.

Thus, there is one more example put on record for the comfort of payers of taxes to federal and state governments. Their money is being wisely spent. What is more important than having groups of highly paid officials ready at all times to ponder on such weighty questions as to what constitutes sexiness in a cocktail waitress. The ramparts are being watched.

Tsa Mo Ga Coffee Given Explores Folk Music

The Tsa Mo Ga Club held its regular meeting January 10th with Mrs. Bill Loyd, president, presiding. Many and varied songs and pieces of music and dances were named in roll call. The Story of American Folk Music was described by Mrs. Kenneth Hale, Program Leader. It is quite interesting to know how our beloved folk music, songs and dances had their beginning. This background was well presented by Mrs. Dickie Green, back past written history music and songs were used to express peoples emotional feelings. Some sang or chanted their joys, some their troubles.

Young Farmers Host Dr. Ellie

The Yoakum County Chapter of the Young Farmers of Texas hosted an ag meeting on vegetable production and marketing Monday, January 10, at the Plains School Cafeteria.

Twelve farmers enjoyed the information brought by Dr. George Ellie of Texas Tech's Agronomy Department and former assistant Dean of the school of Agriculture.

Dr. Ellie stated that he has been aware of our immediate area's potential for vegetable production for several years and knows of reputable brokers and packers who would be interested in contracting acreage.

He further stated that marketing and production problems can be worked out without great difficulty. Although profit's usually vary from good to fabulous, a producer must be determined and pay closest attention to details.

At present we are working large farms with small per acre profit. This is chance for large profit per acre. Anyone interested can check with Tom Barron, Jr., Young Farmer President, Roy McGehee, Activities Chairman or Bo Stephens of the Plains School Vocational Agriculture Department.

Our Soil, Our Land!

YOAKUM S C D NEWS
BY
C. MURRELL THOMPSON

With the cotton harvest nearing an end we turn to the 1966 crop, and in turning we may get our face full of sand. Many District Cooperators are out in front with a Conservation program to hold their soil and moisture. Each day we see new areas of mulching with cotton burs. Wallace Randolph, Morris Loe, T. J. Bearden, Earl Kiser, Ray Bearden, Bob Loe and C. O. Head are a few who have put out burs this winter. This program is gaining each year as we find out how much soil and moisture can be conserved by using cotton burs as a mulch.

protection against the loss of top soil and moisture. Some of the better examples are Lee Roy McCravey, J. D. Jones, E. H. Frith, Irene McMillian (Cecil Tucker, Operator) Loyd Alsop, Robert and Bobby Chambliss, Curley Tanton, James Williams and R. M. Jones. These good jobs can be seen, in fact, the proud owners would like to show and tell you all about what he has done to protect his soil.
