5 Enter Queen Race

Mrs. J. E. Cooke, Gene Bennett, and the reigning Rodeo Queen met with the candidates for 1966 Rodeo Queen at Alma's Restaurant Thursday morning for the purpose of distribution of the tickets for the saddle.

The five participants in the contest were present and posed for publicity pictures. Those at the meeting and their sponsors include:

Irita Winn, Roping Club; Beverly Jones, Young Farmers; Sue Spencer, Iota Phi; Jo Ann Kerrick, Chamber of Commerce; and Joyce Warren, from the Lions Club.

Sue Cook explained the duties of the Rodeo Queen to all of the candidates at the breakfast, and Mrs. Cooke distributed the tickets. Some of the mothers were present at the initial meeting and the girls are busy selling their chances now.

Chamber Asks For Games

Cleatus Phelan, president of the Plains Chamber of Commerce, announces that the Chamber is negotiating with the District Commissioner of Little League in order to secure the District Tournament here.

Phelan said that District commissioner Al Gardner, Levelland newspaper publisher will be out of town until today, but that plans are set to discuss the matter with Gardner today.

Last year the District Tournament was held in Denver City, and it was held in Levelland in 1964. Chamber officials were hopeful that the tournament could be brought to Plains this year.

ASC Cotton Transfers

Yoakum County cotton producers may obtain, at the local ASC office, a list of the counties which has approved the transfer by sale and lease of cotton allotments to other counties in the state.

The list will show name of county, County office address and phone number. Most all the counties which approved transfer by sale or lease is located in the east or south part of the state or in central Texas. (77 Counties)

To be eligible to purchase or lease cotton acreage allotments a farm must have had a 1965 allotment and must have a 1967 allotment established and is limited to 100 acres over the 1965 less the 1967 cotton allotment established. The 1967 cotton acreage allotments have not been established at this time in the past the allotments have been approved for the state, counties and farms about November 30, however, it is expected that this year the allotments will be approved by November 1st.

Where and When To File Applications For Cotton Acreage Transfer—With the county ASC office where the farm from which the allotment is to be transferred is located during the period beginning June 1 and ending December 31st.

IRITA WINN

Irita Winn Rodeo Queen Candidate

Irita Winn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Winn, is a candidate for Rodeo Queen this year. She is sponsored by the Plains Roping Club, and she is 15 years old.

Miss Winn is a sophomore at Brownfield High School. She lives between Tokio and the Gomez community. The brunette candidate is a representative on the student council and belongs to the Health Club.

Irita is an active member and worker in the Terry County 4-H Club, and has worked in 4-H for the past 6 years. She also participates in the 4-H Riding Club.

be selling chances on the saddle to be given away August 6th to try to become the next Queen of the Old Settler's Reunion and Rodeo.

Each week The Plains Record will carry a story on each of the candidates. The candidates drew for the order of appearance of their stories in the newspaper. The public is urged to help the candidates in their bid to become the years reigning royalty of the Rodeo.

Among Miss Winn's hobbies are swimming, sewing, collecting records, and horseback riding. Miss Winn will (See Page 5)

The Indians won two in a row to pull into second place in League standings by downing the first place Cubs Friday night in a close contest with a score of 5-4. It was one of the better ball games of the year with fine defensive playing on the part of the Indians that won in the game.

The Tribe trounced the Giants in a score one score all contest with the final count being 23 for the Indians and 16 for the Giants. The Giants were eliminated from hopes of winning the pennant and the Tribe hopes rest on winning all of their three remaining games.

In beating the Yankees Tuesday night the Cubs clinched a tie for first place and if they win one more out of their four remaining games, the pennant will be all wrapped up in a gift package for them.

Friday night sees the Cubs meeting the Tribe in a do or die contest for the Indians. Each team has a 2-2 record with each other. The Giants will be playing to pull out of the cellar while the Yanks still can tie for the crown.

The top ten in batting average are: Tommy Beal, Indian, .559; David Barnett, Cub, .542; Rudy Ramos, Cub, .485; Mike McRae, Giant, .485; Mike Blount, Cub, .452.

Earl Kreig, Cub, .441; Tony Chandler, Yank, .414; Bruce Lester, Indian, .412; Mike Cayce, Cub, .416; Barry Fisher, Giant, .400; Billy Teaff, Giant, .400.

Boys See Sun Color

Four Plains boys reported observing a phenomenon of the elements which they say occurred at about noon on June 24th. Mike McRae, Rickie McRae, Mickey Kennedy, and Bob Blundell said they were going to the store and young Blundell looked up and saw what he described as a 'rainbow around the sun.'

The boys reported that the rainbow was not as colorful as a regular rainbow, and between the rainbow and the sun the shades were from dark to light.

The youths called the editor of The Record, who confirmed the occurrence. The scientific explanation could be a form of an eclipse. No complete explanation was available at press time.

PLAINS PLANS FOR RODEO

Plans have been put into effect to make the Old Settlers Reunion and Rodeo one of the best in the County's history of the event, said Gene Bennett, association secretary. Bennett, who is judge Elect of Yoakum County, said assignments have been made to the organizations helping with the event this year, and that Red Whaley, of Clayton has been contracted to furnish the stock and put on the rodeo. Whaley will furnish all stock, announcers, clowns, 1 riding judge, pickup men, and bucking chute help. The rodeo is slated for the first week-end in August.

The local rodeo association will furnish the arena director, Rodeo Secretary, flag men, barrier judge, timers, calf chute help, unrigging the bucking stock, and police for the arena. All events will be jack pot with a buckle to be awarded in the high average. The annual parade and Old Settlers Bar-B-Q will also highlight the activities of the festivities, Bennett said.

The rodeo secretary said the tickets for the queen's contest have been distributed to the five contestants, and the candidates are now selling the tickets for the saddle which will be given away at the August 6th rodeo performance. The Cowboy Store in Levelland will supply the saddle again this year.

The Chamber of Commerce will be in charge of the parade and the gate. The Lions Club will be in charge of the parking, seating, and the concessions. The Roping Club will be in charge of the cleaning of the area, chute help, taking care of the stock, the Bar-B-Q and butchering. Dick McGinty has been named to make arrangements for the dance.

Gene Bennett will serve as Rodeo Secretary again this year. He has ordered the tickets and posters for the event, and reports that progress is being made to host the best rodeo and reunion in the long history of the event.

OUR 35TH YEAR THURSDAY, June 30, 1966 NUMBER 25

66 Pigskin Forecast Rates Cowboys As Strong Eleven

Talk of football is in the air as Head Coach Rip Sewell discussed the plans and possibilities for the Cowboy schedule for the 1966 season of the defending District 5A pigskin champs.

With fall workouts just around the corner the coaching staff is making preparations to field another strong ball club with the potential of repeating as District Champs.

With 13 lettermen returning to build a nucleus it can be a formidable ball club again this year. With lettermen at every position, Coach Sewell feels confident that the Cowboy's chances for a winning season will be good.

Those lettermen returning are: Linemen: N. C. Clanahan, Jerry Lowery, Dan Field, Billie Taylor, Mokey McCrary, Jimmy Massey.

Backs: Rickey Elmore, Carlton Wilkins, Lynn Rollins, Alton Raines, Gregg Jones, Milton Romans, Calvin Smith. Coach Sewell said he expects strong support from last year's B Team.

Offensively we feel we can throw a more balanced attack at our opponents. With a rejuvenated slightly new defense we feel the Cowboys will compete as in the past, stated Coach Sewell.

The coaching staff again asks for the usual strong support of Cowboy Boosters and area football fans. Let's make the pigskin picks for '66' the Plains Cowboys.

★ NOTICE ★

Most of the business men report they will be closed Monday July 4th. Curry's Drug will be closed and Roy Edwards will be out of town, therefore if medicine is needed the order should be made on Saturday. The clinic will also be closed. Grocery stores and department stores will close for the holiday.

Legion Elects

Wilson Duke was re-elected to serve as commander of the American Legion in Plains for the coming year. Dick McGinty was also re-elected to serve as adjutant for another year, and Tom Warren was elected to serve as Vice Commander. The Chaplain will be Johnnie L. Fitzgerald and the service officer is Jim Story. The sergeant at arms is Buster Kennedy.

The election and installation of officers was conducted at the annual Bar-B-Q by Department Commander Mann. District Commander Els Schmidt also entertained those in attendance with a pistol shooting exhibition.

Commander Duke reports that almost 100 percent of next year's membership has already been signed up, and he added that the response of veterans in the community has been good in placing their membership here. The post commander also invited all veterans interested in joining the Legion to see him or any other Legionnaire.

Blast Wrecks Car

Severe damage was reported to have been inflicted on the late model car of Roy McGehee when a can of hair spray exploded after setting on the dash board in the sun.

The explosion blew the windshield out of the car and ruined the interior of the ceiling in the automobile. McGehee said they were fortunate that nobody was in the car, or it would have no doubt killed or seriously injured the driver and other front seat occupants.

Hair spray or any other aerosol can is highly inflammable, and the cans will explode if the temperature reaches a certain degree. People in the community are urged to take all spray cans out of their cars and keep them from extreme temperatures for safety measures, not only to them, but to other members of their families.

McGehee lives in the Higginsbotham Community and is the past president of the Plains Chamber of Commerce.

Let's all help send Charlene Gayle, Sheila Sealy, Caroline Crutcher, Pam Randolph, and Sonja Faulkenberry to Cheerleader School by buying chances on gift certificates from them.

Past Cotton Records Needed by ASC Office

According to W. M. Overton, local ASC office manager the Yoakum County ASC Committee will begin the work of establishing the 1967 projected yields for cotton within the near future. It is the opinion of the ASC Committee and other ASC Officials that if the committee had a record of the cotton produced on each farm for the years 1963, 64 and 65 they could do a better job in establishing the projected yield for the county's cotton farms. Forms have been mailed to all cotton farm operators that may be used to obtain the production records and information needed to help the committee in establishing a fair yield for each farm. This form has a space for listing the 1963, 64 and 65 number of bales produced and the gross weight. This information is to be certified by the ginner and the farm operator. The form also has a space for listing unavoidable losses caused during 1963, 64 or 65; such as drought, hail, etc.

The County Committee may consider, when setting up a projected yield a failure or short crop due to weather hazards. If a farmer made a bumper crop or above average for any of the years they may also consider this fact in approving projected yields. When the yields are set for each farm the average for the county must come within the yield approved for the county by the state. It can be readily seen that the county committee has a tremendous and tedious job

CAYCE'S CORNER

Cayce got a letter this week from his old journalism prof congratulating him for winning a recent award. Dr. Joe Milner is now the head of the Journalism Department at the University of Wyoming. When Cayce took his courses under Joe he taught at Eastern New Mexico University. Joe was the sponsor of the University newspaper, and Cayce was the editor way back when. It was nice of Joe to remember one of his former students, and I send my thanks to him for sending the note.

The Legion Bar-B-Q was a big success. We enjoyed hearing State Commander Mann comment how he had installed officers all over the state, but this was the first time that he had been called to install the new slate under the moon in a cow pasture. It was nice of Ellis Schmid to come down from Slaton to be at the Bar-B-Q, and also of the others who came from as far away as Wichita Falls and Dallas. It looks like the state boys from the Hooch Association are having a bit of luck. We read in the Brownfield paper where the frame of the courthouse shook at its seams when application was made to end prohibition there. The same thing happened in Whiteface last week. Do you suppose the boys are eyeing Yoakum County for a little bit of research. If they did, it would sure hurt the gasoline sales here and would relieve the west bound traffic problem to the state line.

After David Barnett's home run the other night at Little League, an excited spectator yelled what a fine touchdown that was. This reminded us of a fine lady (we won't call her name) during football season who got so excited after Joe Dan galloped about 60 yards to pay dirt, when she said what a nice home run.

Ann's mother from Santa Fe, and her aunt, Moro Morris, from Yuma were here last week, and Aunt Moro kept saying how cold it was here in Plains. Perhaps we should advertise our climate more and we might get some people from Arizona to come our way in the summer. Aunt Moro says it doesn't get over 135 in Yuma. Just think, if we were out there in Yuma, it would only be 120 in the shade.

Helping Hand

Has a bus driver barked at you lately? Has a trolley conductor been rude? Complain to the company or write to your newspaper—but don't sue. Bad manners that merely ruffle your feelings are not enough grounds for a lawsuit. But when bad manners also menace your safety, then the law is concerned indeed. Suppose you need a helping hand getting into or out of a public conveyance. You are entitled to have that helping hand, not just as a matter of courtesy but also as a matter of law.

Consider this case: A young mother, carrying a suitcase, a bundle, and a baby, started to descend the steps of a train. Although two railroad employees saw her struggling, they made no move to help. She fell, suffered injuries, and—later—collected damages from the railroad.

"Where personal assistance is seen to be needed," said the court, "duty demands it should be rendered."

Not only the condition of the passenger but also the condition of the stopping place may create a duty of assistance. Thus, a taxi-cab passenger won a court case partly because the driver let her off—unaided—at a place where the pavement was broken up.

Furthermore, help that is given must be given with care. When a trolley passenger missed a departing car, the conductor reached down and seized his arm. For 100 feet he dragged the reluctant man along, trying in vain to pull him aboard. When the conductor finally let go, the man hit the ground with a thud. A court held the company liable.

On the other hand, you cannot expect help if your need is not evident. A woman with an arthritic knee, who stumbled while entering a bus, failed to win damages from the company. The court noted that her handicap was not obvious to the bus driver—and that she neglected to ask him for aid.

In short, while the travelling public is entitled to a decent regard for its safety, there are limits. One woman, complaining that a trolley conductor didn't help her alight, based her claim on the undeniable fact that she was fat. But the court turned her down with this comment:

"The mere fact that a woman weighs over 200 pounds cannot make it the duty of the conductor to drop all other duties and help her get off."

Mrs. Morris:
 I subscribe to the Plains paper and I read with interest your letter of June 9th.

We, too, went to Plains, Texas Yoakum County in 1907 and conditions were the same as you found in 1923. We lived 9 miles west of Plains and drove the nine miles to school in a buggy. The second year my father built a house in Plains and we moved in for the school term. At that time the school was on a hill in the south part of town and we lived just below the hill. I believe the cows and horses finally destroyed our house. We moved from Plains to Plainview and we four girls graduated from the Plainview High School.

I have two sisters living in Amarillo and one passed away in 1962. I have been living here in Valdez since 1926. Our town of Valdez was hard hit by the 1964 earthquake and we are moving the entire town 4 miles away. It has been a tremendous undertaking but it is progressing and will be a beautiful town some day. Some are building and some are are building and some are moving their homes. We are building high on a hill.

My family name was J. M. Sanderson. I seldom see a name in the paper that I recognize.

Sincerely,
 Mrs. Owen E. Meals

Special K Bars

Quick and easy. This seems to be the password for today's fast-paced way of living. Our cupboards are filled with convenience foods, both packaged and canned. Our freezers bulge with the foods we store there. But it's still nice to have something "homemade." Special K Bars use three of the convenience products we all keep on the shelf — chocolate morsels, butterscotch morsels, Kellogg's Special K. They are rather like a cookie, yet unbaked. Mothers especially like them because, made in minutes, they are indeed quick and easy. Try some when you long for something homemade. Today, perhaps.

SPECIAL K BARS

1 cup sugar
1 cup light corn syrup

1 cup peanut butter
6 cups KELLOGG'S SPECIAL K

1 cup (6-oz. pkg.) semi-sweet chocolate pieces

1 cup (6-oz. pkg.) butterscotch pieces

Combine sugar and syrup in 3-quart saucepan. Cook over moderate heat, stirring frequently, until mixture boils. Remove from heat. Stir in peanut butter; mix well. Add Special K; stir until well-blended. Press mixture into buttered 13 x 9-inch pan.

Melt chocolate and butterscotch pieces together over hot but not boiling water, stirring until well-blended. Remove from heat; spread evenly over Special K mixture. Cool until firm. Cut into bars.

Yield: 48 bars, 2 x 1 inches.

Sen. Tower Says...

This week we will celebrate Independence Day. In recent days we have observed Memorial Day and Flag Day. We Texans join all Americans on these three important days in flying our U. S. flags, recalling the sacrifices of our veterans and rededicating ourselves to the pursuit of national strength and liberty.

These special days vividly call to our minds the full dimension of the burden and the glory of America's continuing quest to make our world safe for all nations which aspire to self-determination. But, if we review only the past, we miss the significance of these patriotic days. We must, on these days, measure our present individual and national performance against the highest standards of Americanism.

The American fighting men who died at Lexington in 1776 and the American who died defending American interests in Vietnam this week gave their lives for the same ideal of freedom.

Each of these servicemen loved life, but each loved his country more.

Now, as so often in the past, we are depending upon men who deeply believe in the necessity of upholding our national integrity and honor. It is the lot of these few to sacrifice for all of us.

Our servicemen over the years have not shrunk from this sacrifice. But, those patriots we honored on Memorial Day never lived to know whether their devotion was justified. It is up to you and to me to see that their valor is indeed justified.

General Eisenhower once said that "To live for your country is as demanding a duty as to die for it."

Indeed, a free nation really is the sum total of the people who live in it, added to the heritage of those who have gone before. A free nation is what its people make of it, building on a foundation of the past. Let's all do our part in living for America, serving it and strengthening it and protecting it.

Need a Little Help?

This is the title of a bulletin recently published by Farmers Home Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C.

You may be able to get some help. The Government now makes small loans to people in rural communities and farm areas. Arural town is considered to be any town of rural nature, whose population does not exceed 5500 residents.

Opportunity loans are available to those citizens who earn little or no income, or income that will not cover basic family needs, who live in a rural area, and are unable to obtain the needed credit from other sources, including the regular loan programs of Farmers Home Administration and who show a reasonable promise of success in the enterprise to be financed by the loan.

Low-income farm and rural families can receive loans to develop farm or business services that will bring them more food, better clothing and improved housing.

Loans may be made to small cooperatives that serve rural people, thus aiding not only the cooperatives themselves, but bringing more business and money into the community.

Economic opportunity loans may be made in amounts up to $2,500.00, bearing interest at the rate of 4 1/8 percent and may be made payable over periods up to 15 years. Many rural residents in our country today are enjoying better health, and a better standard of living for the first time in their lives by taking advantage of these loans.

Farmers Home Administration throughout Texas, are ready to help needy families take full advantage of the assistance provided for them in the Economic Opportunity Act. Borrowers are provided continuing management aid to help them make a success of their farming enterprise or their new business.

According to the 1960 census, approximately 375,000 rural families, both farm and non-farm, living in rural communities receive a less than adequate income. Of these 306 families reside in Yoakum County.

Any inquiries regarding the assistance available through the Farmers Home Administration or other provisions of the Economic opportunity act should be directed to your local Farmers Home Administration office.

Offices for Yoakum County are located on the first floor of the Old Courthouse, Plains, Texas. Mailing address, Box 547, Plains, Texas, 79355.

Traffic Warning

What will this July Fourth bring traffic wise? If it is similar to the ones in the past it will be deadly, injurious, and destructive. Our forefathers thought back in 1776 after declaring independence that future generations would be free from wanton deaths and destruction. However, they were greatly mistaken to what the future would bring. During the last 190 years since our nation declared its independence there have been eight major wars claiming 1,130,393 American lives. The automobile has been in existence for about 65 years claiming 1,559,950 lives. Thus, the battlefield has been a safer place than the homefront.

The 1965 July Fourth holidays covered a period of three days in which there were 19 persons killed and 372 persons injured in rural traffic accidents in Texas. The 19 persons killed were involved in 14 fatal accidents. These fatal accidents involved 21 hazardous violations and one pedestrian violation. The 372 persons injured were involved in 178 injury accidents. The injury accidents involved 167 hazardous violations and 11 vehicle defects. There were 395 property damage accidents involving 344 hazardous violations, 28 vehicle defects, and one pedestrian violation.

On the rural highways in the local DPS Region there was one fatal traffic accident claiming one human life. This fatal accident involved two hazardous violations. There were 20 injury accidents injuring 48 persons. These injury accispents involved 19 hazardous violations and four vehicle defects. There were 51 property damage accidents involving 40 hazardous violations and two vehicle defects. Remember—Alcohol and Gasoline don't mix.

Soil Conservation

By Wilson Duke

Many farmers in the Yoakum Soil and Water Conservation District have established or are in the process of establishing different kinds of improved pasture grasses. Some are irrigated such as midland bermuda grass, others are dryland grasses such as switchgrass and weeping lovegrass.

Rotation grazing on these pastures and not using a pasture when it is too wet, along with allowing sufficient growth before grazing is started is very important.

Farmers who are getting the most satisfactory results from his pasture are following a rotation grazing schedule by grazing a portion of the pasture from 2 to 3 weeks periods and then move to another part of the pasture for a similar period of time, allowing grasses to recover sufficiently in growth and vigor before grazing again.

Switchgrass for instance, should be grazed to an average height of about 10 inches throughout the growing season, this would also be satisfactory for weeping lovegrass also. For Midland Bermudagrass, it should be grazed to an average height of about 5 inches throughout the growing season.

in setting up these yields. Therefore, since it has been recommended that we obtain production records on all farms, we believe that all farm operators should present some kind of reliable documents showing the cotton produced on each farm. If we have a signed certification by a ginner which has been approved for the 1963 and 64 years we may take these documents already filed and the farmer will need to produce the production records for 1965 only.

Due to the payments being made under the cotton program it is very important that the committee have reliable production records on all farms so that each farmer may receive his fair projected yield. Additional production report forms may be obtained at the local ASC office.

The County ASC Committee believes this production record to be very important and all farm operators are urged to obtain their farm's production records immediately.
