Oscar Henard Wins Title Worlds Champion Roper

Oscar Henard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Henard, of Plains, has won the National American Junior Rodeo Association World Championship title for Optional Roping. Henard who is a 1966 graduate of Plains High School, won a beautiful saddle and buckle at the Rodeo in Odessa recently at the national finals.

Optional roping includes team roping, ribbon roping, and double mugging. Oscar was also awarded 6th place for the year in calf roping. Only the top 15 performers in each event could participate in the national American Junior Rodeo Association. Henard competed against 25 to 50 ropers each week to gain a spot in the finals.

Young Henard recently was named All Around Cowboy at the Ft. Sumner Rodeo. He was awarded a saddle at Ft. Sumner.

Oscar was honored in being nominated to run for president of the American Junior Rodeo Association. Handley Driver, Big Spring, was elected president.

Henard will leave this week for Levelland where he will be a student at South Plains College, where he will major in Agriculture Economics. He will be a member of the college rodeo team at South Plains College.

Oscar has been active in showing animals at the Yoakum County Junior Fat Stock Show in past years, showing grand champion animals in 1965 in all categories.

The American Junior Rodeo Association was founded by Alvin G. Davis of Brownfield, Texas. The Junior Rodeos of America have come into prominence during the past fifteen years. Mr. Davis visualized an association made up of both young people who compete and adults interested in the affairs of these young people.

At Levelland, Texas, on June 7, 1952, Alvin Davis formed the American Junior Rodeo Association. Rules were established and forwarded to the interested junior rodeos throughout the United States, Mexico, and Canada. Competing within these rules, boys and girls under the age of twenty pile up points toward world champion junior cowboy and cowgirl.

Equal Dean Strickland, a 1954 Plains graduate has recently been elected the Dumas Junior High School Counselor. He will be working with approximately 900 students. Other duties include driving a school bus, and score keeper for all Junior High ball games.

After finishing high school, he served two years with the Armed Forces in the States and in Germany. He received a B.S. Degree from West Texas State University in 1959 and worked two years as an accountant for American Bakeries in Amarillo.

He has taught math and business in the Dumas Schools for five years. In August of this year he graduated with a Master of Education Degree with a major in secondary administration from West Texas State University. He is a member of the Lions Club, T.S.T.A. and N.E.A., and auditor for the Dumas Teachers Credit Union. He also, is the Superintendent in the Junior Department in the First Baptist Church, and is a food inspector for the city of Dumas.

Jesse T. George Day Set Sat.

State Representative Jesse T. George will be honored at 7:30 p.m. at the Morton High School Cafeteria with a testimonial dinner Saturday night. All of Rep. George's friends in Yoakum County are extended an invitation to attend. Texas's youngest son served as Manager of the Morton Chamber of Commerce prior to returning to Austin this month to re-assume his legislative duties.

Rep. George spoke at the Plains Lions Club two weeks ago, where he explained the proposed Constitutional Amendments to the local Lions. The Yoakum County legislator visits in the county regularly, and maintains a constant contact with people who serve on his legislative committee.

A reception at Brownfield was given recently for George, and Texas Speaker of the House, Ben Barnes, was there to honor Rep. George. Many area personalities are expected to be in Morton at the George dinner Saturday night.

Cowboys Rope Eagles 42-0 Meet Roughnecks Friday

After crushing the Ropes Eagles 42-0 in the season opener last Friday in Ropes, the Cowboys of Plains will face the rugged Roughnecks from Sundown at Roughneck field tomorrow night.

The Cowboys held the Eagles to only 39 yards in the air and a minus 39 on the ground for a total net yards gained to zero.

The Cowboys rolled up an impressive 415 yards net offense, with 44 of the total in the air. On the ground, the efforts of the Plains workhorses garnered 371 yards. It was a good night for Joe Pierce, as he hit the line 14 times for a total of 9 times for 124 yards and three touchdowns.

Gregg Jones carried the pig skin 14 times for 115 yards and two touchdowns. He also ran two extra point conversions over for four more points making his total 16 for the night.

Rickey Elmore was called on to carry the ball eight times, and he broke through for 59 yards on the ground and 18 via the air ways to net one T.D. and he kicked two extra points.

Cleatus Phelan Appointed Lynn County Attorney

Cleatus Phelan has been appointed to the position of County Attorney in Lynn County. The local attorney will assume the new post at the county seat of Tahoka next Monday. The former County Attorney resigned in Lynn County, and Phelan was named to fill the unexpired term.

Phelan is president of the Plains Chamber of Commerce and is on the board of directors of the Plains Lions Club. Mrs. Phelan is active in the Tsa Mo Ga Club and is a member of the Fine Arts Club. The Phelans belong to the First Methodist Church in Plains.

The local civic leader and attorney announced he will continue operating the Yoakum County Abstract Company in Plains, and will retain law offices here for the time being. Phelan will spend some time in his local law office and abstract company, but will move

The line play of the Cowboys was savage with each player crashing through to set the Eagles for a loss or no gain. It was a big night for the Cowboys, and they cashed in both on offense and defense.

The Pokes will face a class B Regional championship team Friday at Sundown. The Roughnecks had a perfect season last year with the exception of the stinging defeat suffered at the hands of Plains. They will be out for revenge, and will throw seven starters at the District 5A Champs from Plains.

Sundown plays control ball, and has a big line. Coach Sewell says the Cowboys will face a team which should be an improved one over last year.

The Cowboys will be a 14 point favorite to give the Roughnecks a set back, but Sundown will be out for blood, and a win over the highly regarded Cowpokes would be gravy to the Roughneck eleven.

Coach Rip Sewell says Dennis Crutcher might be ready for action in the game tomorrow, and urges all football boosters to see the big game.

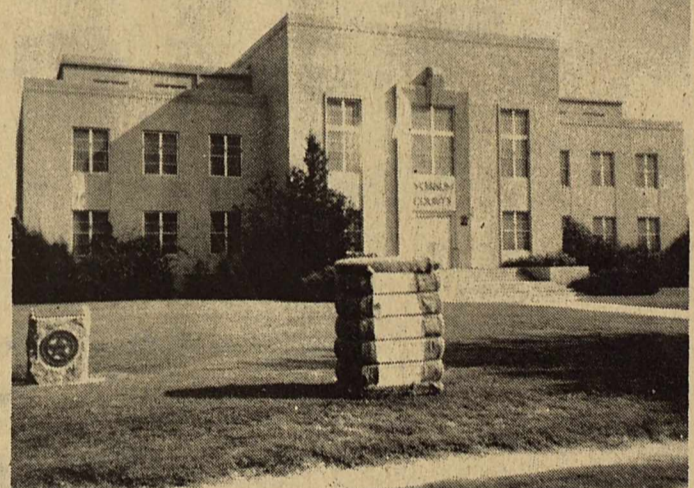

his wife and family to Tahoka as soon as possible.

Phelan was a candidate for judge in the last election, and carried Plains by a sound majority. The couple have been active in civic affairs in the community, and Phelan has steered committees to obtain a better business climate in Plains.

Residents of the community expressed regret that Phelan and his family are moving, but extended congratulations to him on his appointment as County Attorney of Lynn Co.

In a statement to the editor of the Record, the lawyer said the people of the community have been wonderful to him and his family, and it is with regret that his business forces him to make a change.

Phelan and his wife are graduates of Levelland High School and he is a veteran of the Korean War. He is a member of The American Legion and is a graduate of the University of Texas and Sul Ross State College.

While he was a student in college, Phelan was named to Who's Who in American Universities and colleges.

Therman Locke, Tokio farmer, delivered the first bale of cotton for the 1966 harvest year to the Tokio Co-op Gin last week to become the first Yoakum County farmer of this season to gin a bale of cotton. It was a good bale, says Amos Smith, manager of the Tokio Co-op Gin. It weighed in at 520 pounds and graded out to be Midland 29. The county's first bale of cotton was taken to the square of the Yoakum County Courthouse and placed by the War Memorial monument.

Locke has farmed in the Tokio area on his dry land farm since 1937. But this is the first year for him to reap the first bale of cotton of the year.

The Yoakum County farmer presented a bonus check by Amos Smith in behalf of the directors of the gin. He also received a bonus from the Plains Chamber of Commerce which was presented by Cleatus Phelan, Chamber president, and Alf Carpenter, Vice president. Mr. Locke also will receive a bonus from The Plains Record for bringing the first bale of cotton to the gin.

The Locke farm is located about two miles from the Tokio Co-op Gin. He farms 1200 acres of land in the county. Locke is a bachelor, but admits that he is interested in the young people of the community as their parents. He attends all 4-H Play Day events, and as many of the Little League games as any local grandparent would. He can be found in Plains following any of the athletic contests of the young people.

Most people fondly refer to Therman as Fat Locke, and he is one of the most widely known farmers in the area. Last year the Tokio Co-op Gin finished the season with 8,647 bales of cotton to its credit. In all, the gin enjoyed a good year with dividend checks to prove it. The gin is one of the best equipped in all of West Texas and is located about 10 miles east of Plains.

Gets City Sec. Post

Roy McGehee was named City Secretary of the City of Plains in an special meeting of the City Council Monday night. McGehee is a farmer in the Higgenbotham area in Gaines County and will assume his new duties October 1st.

McGehee is a former resident of the Plains area, having served as president of the Plains Chamber of Commerce last year. He is a member of the Hillside Church of Christ in Plains.

The new City Secretary was hired at a salary of $535.00 per month. He will assume his duties October 1st after his grain crop is harvested. McGehee does not plan to move to Plains until his obligation with his landlord is completed, which will be after the cotton harvest.

McGehee is married and has three children. One child attends school in Denver City. The McGehees are well known in Plains and the surrounding area.

The decision to hire McGehee was a unanimous one, and the council expressed confidence that he will make a good city secretary. The vacancy for the position was created when Bob Long resigned last month. Long is still acting as city manager.

McGehee is a graduate of Seminole High School and attended college at Abilene Christian College.

The position of City Secretary is the chief administrative official for the city. The secretary acts as manager over all employees of the city and is in charge of the operations of the office and the utilities. Many residents voiced their approval of the appointment of McGehee to this post.

Student Count Down

The school enrollment at the Plains Independent School District stands at 620 at press time. In comparing the total with last year it is found that the enrollment has decreased this school term. On October 8th last year the enrollment was 655 students. A decrease of 35 students as compared with last year has been recorded.

In Plains High School there are 146 students enrolled this year. There are 96 students in the Junior High System this fall, and in the first six grades there are 378 students.

Plains C. of C. Moves

Mrs. Harvev Romans has been named secretary of the Farm Bureau, and has assumed the duties as secretary of the Plains Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Bob Mason resigned recently as secretary of the Chamber and Mrs. Nancy Wilson resigned as secretary of the Yoakum County Farm Bureau.

The job of Chamber secretary is a part time position, and the Board of Directors of the Yoakum County Farm Bureau voted that their secretary could assume the Chamber duties.

The Chamber of Commerce office was moved this week to the Farm Bureau Building and is no longer located in the Plains Record Building. Dick McGinty and Buster Graham are Farm Bureau Agents in Plains, and will also be at the Chamber office when Mrs. Romans is not there.

CAYCE'S CORNER

After the story last week about our bearded friend who was riding his bicycle rig from Yuma, Arizona to Tahoka, a subscriber, Kenneth Thompson, who is manager of the Wylie Shamrock Station came to the office of the Record and reported that the old gent is his great uncle. Kenneth said the family hadn't seen Walter Morris in many years and did not know that he was still living. Cayce gave Kenneth the photo which was used last week in the paper for the asking, and we are glad that a feature story answered a family puzzle of some years standing.

Up at Morton the whole area will honor Rep. Jesse T. George Saturday night and it has been proclaimed as Jesse George Day in Morton. A testimonial dinner has been planned at the cafeteria and all of Jesse's friends in Plains are urged to attend. Jesse called Cayce from Austin Tuesday and asked that an invitation be sent to the good people of the community. It couldn't happen to a nicer person. Jesse is tops in our books.

I want to congratulate Cleatus and Janis Phelan upon their new challenge in Lynn County. We are as sorry as we can be that the Phelans are leaving us, but we know that he will be an impressive county attorney over Tahoka way. The late Adalai Stevenson said upon losing a presidential election (he quoted from Abe Lincoln) that he felt a little like the little boy who stubbed his toe....it hurt to much to laugh and not enough to cry. That is the way most of us feel about losing this fine family to another community.

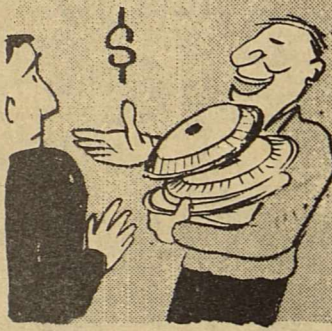

Those who went to Ropes last Friday were treated to a fine showing by our band. Their improvement over last year is impressive, and we are sure the progress will continue all year. We were proud of their half time show and the music was sweet to the ears.

The ladies from Turner and Stanford Valley Home Demonstration Clubs were most generous indeed last Tuesday. They had their Hawaiian feed and Cayce cashed in to the hilt. He put on pounds but surely enjoyed every bite!

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Winning The Reward

Edwards flew into a rage when he found the hub caps missing from his car. Shaking his fist, he spattered:
 "Why, I'd give $100 to know who stole those hub caps!"
 The man next door, hearing these words, took them literally. He did a little quiet sleuthing, and, sure enough, discovered the culprit. But when he claimed a $100 reward, Edwards refused to pay off.
 And in a court test, the judge sided with Edwards. His angry exclamation, said the judge, was obviously just a way of letting off steam, not a serious offer of a reward.
 The legal obligation to pay a reward is based not on the ethics of gratitude but on the principles of contract law. There must be an offer, seriously meant. And there must also be a performance that fits the terms called for in the offer.
 Thus, a reward offered for locating a robber "and" his loot is not earned by one who locates the robber—but not the loot.
 Nevertheless, to encourage the catching of criminals, the law usually gives the claimant the benefit of the doubt.
 For example:
 An alert citizen led police to the hideout of a fugitive killer. But their effort to arrest him resulted in a gun fight in which the fugitive was slain. In these circumstances, was the citizen entitled to a reward offered for the man's "arrest"?
 A court said he was indeed, because—for all practical purposes—he had done the job for which the reward was offered.
 Is everyone eligible for a reward that is offered to the general public? No. As a matter of public policy, certain individuals may be disqualified even if the reward offer doesn't say so.
 For instance, a policeman who does no more than his duty cannot ordinarily claim a reward offered by the victim of a crime. Otherwise, the police might be tempted to give better service to people willing to offer rewards.
 Nor may a reward be claimed by someone who was himself involved in the crime. Thus, a man who helped to find some stolen shoes was denied a reward, when it turned out that he had also helped to steal them.
 As one judge put it:
 "No man shall be permitted to profit by his own iniquity."

"For what avail the plow or sail, Or land, or life, if freedom fail." —Emerson.

It was with solemn thoughts we read anew the above lines this week and wondered just what Mr. Emerson would write if he was with us today. . . . On every hand we are all reaching out for security and the easier way of life. . . . With each seeming gain we exchange a bit of our cherished freedom.

Those who promoted the income tax told the people that it would never need to be very high and it seemed to them such an excellent way to place the cost of government on those best able to pay. The political do-gooders at home and abroad have turned it into a grab basket that seemingly knows no limit.

The idea of Social Security caught on so well and seemed such a good way to force folks to have a measure of security for their old years. When we read the summary of a group of experts last week on the amount a young person starting in 1969 and paying in until the year 2000 would receive back by comparison we became a bit more frightened. . . . It seems that only about two of one's original three dollars will ever come back, and these with no interest accumulated at all. This tax, growing from its humble beginning, poses to become a real "taker" from the average paycheck.

We can ponder what would have happened if we had taken some other course except the search for collective security, but one thing is certain, we won't turn back now until if we come to the brink of danger — likely not until danger has actually taken place. . . . In the meantime we can thank the future generations for providing us with a prosperous present.

When we are taking a trip an early start could be a lot safer than a fast start.

Some folks work hard. Others find it mighty hard to work.

If we keep both feet on solid ground we at least won't have so far to fall if we stumble.

If we would make for peace in the world, And show our faith by living it, We could start taking sound advice Rather than always giving it.

Grandfather would sing "Take It to the Lord in Prayer," as he harnessed the horses to drive several miles to the little country church. Too many of his grandchildren put the family car up Saturday night and stay home through the worship hour. . . . If life's problems seem to hang heavy over their heads it might be that they will find time to dash off a hurried note to their congressman.

Ancient Art.. Astrology

By Lou Dycus

What future do the stars hold for you? The pseudoscience, astrology, was accepted over 5,000 years ago. It guided a modern-day mad man to near world destruction and yet it flourishes today.

The ancient art of foretelling the future holds a fascination that seems to linger in the repute of scientific proof of its invalidity.

Astrology, not to be confused with the science of astronomy, has been in existence as early as the second century.

Evidence of its popularity today is noted by the numerous Horoscope books on local newsstands. New editions flood the country the last of December and give the reader a preview of what fate has in store the following year.

The Horoscope is a diagram of the position of the sun, stars and planets at the time of a person's birth. Based on the birthdate, the horoscope supposedly determines individual traits and aptitudes, thereby indicating potential success or failure.

For centuries men and women, alike have checked their horoscopes to see if the 'signs' were good for romance, investment, and political moves. Only 200 years ago every king in Europe and Asia had at least one official astrologer, according to Encyclopedia Britannica. Their duty was to keep abreast of the movement of the heavenly bodies and inform their masters of the future they foretold. Hitler consulted an astrologer before he made a move.

Newspapers across our country print a column giving the daily 'star readings'. Many a cup of morning coffee cools while the readers check the 'signs'.

Persons having birthdays between August 23 and September 22 are called Virgo's. Every woman's Daily Horoscope suggests a full social life would be profitable this week.

In the field of fashion, Virgo women 'like small, jaunty hats that matches her outfit.' The world of science regards all this as strictly non-sense but as long as individuals are anxious and curious about their future, Astronomers will be around.

Autumn Fashion NOTICE

By Sudie Thompson
Autumn, the fashion time of the year is here and we will have the young elegant look, with long, slim graceful, yet simple lines. The key word is 'proportion' and the accent is 'femininity'. Bodies are controlled with a high fit. The Costume look will be featured in all combinations: Coat and dress, jacket and dress, and the three part skirt, blouse, and jacket.

Look for the flared sleeves and more bell-bottoms, for low-hanging and hip hugging belt lines, and also military inspiration, a narrow line with sharply defined top-stitching on double breasted jackets, and shiny brass buttons straight from the cadet corps.

Variety is the word for Fall '66' fabrics. In woollens and worsted look for the smooth surfaces that tailor well and shape gracefully. Tweeds are splashed with color and the combination of tweeds and smooth fabrics make that important costume look. Knits are the fashion bets, in all forms, plain, printed, striped, and textured. Knits are better constructed than ever before.

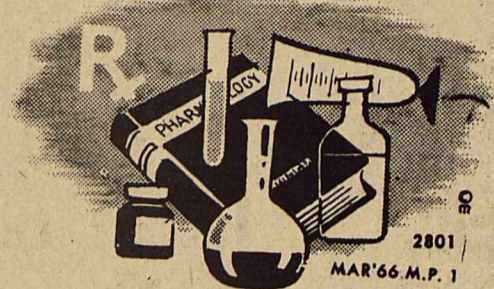

Prints will be decidedly bold with pronounced borders. In cottons and synthetics will be variety. There will be textures, velvety finishes and fine ribbed corduroys for the 'Make it' in sportswear. Dress-up fabrics will be lush elegance of brocades, velvets, soft draping crepes, sheers and laces.

Fall colors may be blended, matched or mixed. Vintage colors are the most exciting new color for Fall '66'. They will be seen in soft orchid, glowing Grape, rich Eggplant, deep wine and Imperial. Spicy Brights light up the New season too and colors like Henna, Spice, and Paprika stand alone beautifully or add new interest to the true blues, Navy and Skipper. Reds are a definite fashion color such as Flag red, and Hollyberry. This year, the greens of Autumn are Woodsy, Pistachio and Oregon are dark enough to replace black. And after dark your own fashion creation can be of pretty pastels with glitter and gold and silver thread.

Members of the Yoakum Co. Young Homemakers would like to take this opportunity to invite you, the public, to their 5th Ceramics Course, to be held Tuesday, September 20th in the Club Room. Painting will begin at 10:30 a.m. and will continue throughout the day and as late as necessary so that those who work will be able to come and paint after working hours.

Cotton Classing

The Lubbock, Brownfield, and Lamesa cotton classing offices of the U. S. Department of Agriculture will use numerical codes to designate grade and staple this season, according to W. K. Palmer, in charge of the Lubbock Cotton Classing Office of the U. S. D. A.

These numerical codes will replace the traditional grade and staple designations and will appear on all class cards 'green cards' returned to South Plains farmers this season.

This numerical code system reduces the grade and staple designations to only four numbers and will be of substantial advantage to growers, gins, and to the cotton merchandising industry.

Virtually all cotton merchandising is now handled by computer systems using these numerical codes. This new system will provide economies in cotton merchandising by eliminating the time formerly used in converting the traditional grade and staple designations to these numerical codes.

The numerical description for grade and staple is made up as follows: The first digit represents grade, the second digit, color, and the last two digits, the staple length. For example, with a classification of 4130 on a class card the '41' would appear in the grade box on the class card and the '30' would appear in the staple box. The '4' indicates that the grade is Strict Low Middling, or 'SLM', the '1' indicates that the color is white and the '30' indicates that the staple is 15/16 of an inch.

Code sheets and explanations have been mailed to all South Plains gins for distribution to their customers. All loan cards and price sheets at gins will include these numerical designations along with the traditional grade and staple designations.

Mr. Palmer also indicated that all micronaire readings on class cards will be stamped this season rather than written.

School For Vets

A veteran who served less than 181 days may be eligible if he was discharged or released because of a service-connected disability.

Vehicle Inspection.

Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety announced today that the 1967 vehicle inspection period has begun.

Garrison said that the new inspection period began on September 1 and will end on April 15, 1967 as prescribed by the Public Safety Commission. The inspection period is the same as in previous years.

'This means that between now and April 15, 1967, each of the five and one-half million Texas registered vehicles will have to secure the new green and white 1967 inspection sticker from one of the 5500 official inspection stations,' he said.

Garrison pointed out that Texas inspection stations can be identified by the routine visits to garages for ordinary maintenance, the necessity of having to wait in line at a inspection will be eliminated.

★★ 4-H Play Day Results Listed ★★

The sixth 4-H Play Day of the 1966 season was held Saturday night in the Plains Roping Arena. There were 30 boys and girls competing in the Play Day events and the 4-H members, leaders and fans saw the new electric timer in operation. The timer was recently purchased by the leaders who are planning to use it on September 24th when 4-H members from other counties will participate in competition with the Yoakum Co. boys and girls in the Second Annual 4-H Invitation Play Day.

Thirty one trophies will be given away at the Invitation Play Day. One will go to the winner of each event and one will go to the visiting county making the highest number of points. The Yoakum County boys and girls will participate in the Invitation Play Day and, at the same time, they will be participating in a regular Yoakum County Play Day. After the Invitation Play Day is completed, the time made by each local contestant will be recorded for the purpose of determining points. Some class changes will be necessary for the novice riders who will be competing with their regular age group during the Invitation Play Day.

One other change which will be necessary for all local boys and girls is that they must designate which event they will omit for county points. In other words, they will be allowed to enter five events in the Invitation Play and only four events in the regular play day so at the time of entry, they will name the four events which will count points. There is some real close competition in some of the age groups this year. Perhaps the tightest race is between Morris Rushing with 54 1/2 points and Jackie McDonnell with 53. Alton McGinty is ranking third in Senior Boys with 38 points. Some point changes were made in this group because of a mistake after the June 23 Play Day.

In the Senior Girls Rheanell Strickland has 40 points and Sue Cooke has 37 1/4 Jimmy Gray has a fairly long lead in the Junior Boys group with 93 points. Clark Parrott is the close contender with 75. Peggy Rushing has 8 points in the Junior Girls Group and Kathleen McGinty is in second place with 71 points. ## Our Soil, Our Land!

YOAKUM'S C D NEWS

By C.M. Thompson
With Grain sorghum harvest going full speed you might think that little or no conservation work is being done. This is not the case as many hundreds of acres are being prepared for planting and others are being Plained to small grain cover crops. With the good rains in the soil a considerable acreage is being deep plowed and some new land is being broken out to be farmed next year. It is hoped and work is being carried to get a good cover croplanted on this new land or deep plowed land or if this is not possible the land can be left clody or rough which will help to control erosion.

Plains Contract, a large number of rescheduling work on the 115 great plains contracts is being carried out at this time in preparation for next years conservation work.

Carpenter-Fields Europe Bound

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Carpenter and Mr. and Mrs. Ty field plan to leave today with 85 other Texans on a Farm Bureau tour of Europe. The European flight will take the Yoakum County couples to London, Holland, Switzerland, Belgium, Luxembourg, Germany, and France. The tour is called a market builder tour, and a comprehensive look at the European market will be available for those going.

Alf and Elsie Carpenter are well known throughout the area. The Carpenters have farming interests and are in the business here. Alf is a director at the Plains State Bank. Mrs. Carpenter is president of Tsa Mo Ga. Ty and Mattie Field are a well known ranch family and live at Bronco on their ranch at the state line. Ty is a bank director and has served on many boards in the county and area. Mrs. Field is a past president of Tsa Mo Ga Club.

The Texas Farm Bureau's 85 member 'market-builder' tour leaves Love Field today to explore potential markets for Texas farm products in seven European countries.

Walter A. Meyer, TFB market director and tour leader, said the purpose of this second annual tour is to develop a greater appreciation for agricultural export potential from Texas to Europe. The majority of the group is making the trip to get a firsthand look at market possibilities for Texas farm products; some members plan actual negotiations with European importers.

Tour members represent most Texas commodities, including livestock, cotton, feed grains, wheat, nuts, fruits and vegetables.

First stop on the tour is London. Countries included in the itinerary are England, Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg, Germany, Switzerland and France.

Last year's tour developed greater appreciation for the biggest cash market Texas has for agricultural products outside the United States, Meyer said. Over thirty percent of all agricultural commodities produced in Texas are exported, he added.
As a direct result of the 1965 tour, a line of communication was set up between Texas and Karstadt, one of the biggest department-grocery chains in Europe, and fresh Texas beef was shipped to and sold in Germany. Additional contacts were made to move experimental loads of pecans, citrus fruits, canned food and other commodities. Shipping problems involving temperature, preservation and selection of containers are being solved as the result of trial shipments following last year's tour.
