

COWGIRLS BRAND CATS FOR STATE CROWN

The moment of truth arrived at Gregory Gym in Austin Saturday, as the Plains Cowgirls bombed Tidehaven 15 - 0 and 15 - 4 to win the State Championship in the final Class A contest of the year at the State Volleyball tournament.

Coach Shirley Gross extended her amazing record to six consecutive state titles which is unprecedented in the state record books.

The Cowgirls truly reigned as the best in the west because they had previously defeated 4 A Champion Cooper of Abilene, 3 A runner-up Lamesa, and 2 A runner-up Crane in action during the year.

This is the first year that Class A has competed at the State Tourney. Prior to this year the Class A state title was shared by four teams in Texas.

Coach Gross played every player on the team at the Texas Tourney, and each member of the team was awarded a gold medal for being on the state champ team.

A silver trophy was awarded to the team to bring back to Plains High School. It will be permanently placed in the trophy case at the High School.

Iota Pi Tourney Slated

The Iota Pi is sponsoring a Volleyball Tournament for anyone wanting to enter a Mens or womens team here in Plains on May 11, 12 and 13.

The deadline for entering is May 6. The Iota Pi is asking all clubs, churches and individuals to participate in this community action. Trophies will be given the winning men and women teams of 1st, 2nd and consolation. These games will be played at night. The charge for entering the tournament is $1.00 per player, and this is the price for the whole tournament.

Also, the Iota Pi wishes to thank everyone for their help and attendance at the basketball game played between Denver City Ladies and Plains Ladies. Extra appreciation and sympathy goes out to Harmon Meixner and Paul Gowens for their referring. Everyone enjoyed their humor.

Farmers On Trip

Doyle Newsom, Dickie Green, Alfred Reynolds, Carl Spears, and Roy McGehee returned to Plains from Batesville this week where they have visited cucumber fields to see results of yields which are produced on 72 to 80 inch rows.

While the men were on the agricultural trip they inquired at Del Monte and Cal Packing companies to see if plans are being made to open a larger market for the Blue Lake Beans. Newsom said officials of these firms stated that the matter has been taken under advisement at this time.

The Plains delegation also visited bee hives in Moore, Texas where the bees are used to help in the production of cucumbers. The owner of the Bee farm will bring bees to Plains for the cucumber crops this summer. The bees are used to pollinate the cucumber plants, Newsom said.

Ag Plans Revealed

Secretary of Agriculture, Orville Freeman has announced that he is directing National and State Officials of Department Agencies in major farm states to schedule and hold several conferences in each state so as to learn the current thinking of county, area, and state leaders of farm organizations and individual farmers. The Secretary said it was very much worthwhile to get straight talk, straight from people who are living the experiences that are so often put before him in the form of tables and charts.

We understand that three such meetings will be held in Texas, one of which will be on the South Plains. It will be an excellent opportunity for the farmers and farm leaders to meet and discuss the farm problems.

It was frosting on the cake to be the first team to be placed in the record books as U. L. L. Texas State Champions. The Cowgirls had won most of the other volleyball tournaments which have been staged in Texas, but this one really counted as the big one in the history of the school.

The Cowgirls went by bus from Plains to Austin in a group and returned Sunday night to an anxious community which is proud of the State Champion Volleyball squad.

The Plains Cowgirls had only one senior on the team. The others are juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen.

In the first game of the tourney, the Cowgirls shelled Malakoff and marched on to win the day and bring the trophy home.

Plains Top Farmer & Citizen

Citizen Of Year

C. M. Thompson was named the Outstanding Citizen for 1967 at the Annual Chamber of Commerce Awards Banquet in the School Cafeteria Friday night. An engraved plaque was presented to Thompson by Harry Cayce, on behalf of the Plains Chamber of Commerce.

Thompson is the Work Unit Conservationist in Yoakum Soil Conservation District and has been instrumental in helping the economy of the area by helping develop new crops in the area, said a spokesman from the Chamber. The spokesman continued in explaining how the local conservationist has worked on civic and agricultural projects in Plains.

This year's recipient of the Outstanding Citizen Award is the immediate past president of the Plains Lions Club. Thompson is also a steward at the First Methodist Church.

Thompson was instrumental in helping to form the first Annual Farm tour in the county for the purpose of letting businessmen and farmers along with ranchers see what the different farm and livestock situations are in the county. The first tour was termed a big success. Murrell Thompson is married and has two sons and one daughter. He has one granddaughter. Both of the sons are married. They are Charles and Murrell. Thompson's daughter, Debbie, is a junior in Plains High School and was on the State Championship Volleyball team this year.

The 1967 Citizen of the Year is a graduate of Oklahoma State University, receiving his degree in Agriculture. He has been with the Soil Conservation Service with the Department of Agriculture. Cont. on Page 2

Cotton Lease-Sale Vote Slated for May 15-17

Cotton farmers in Yoakum County will vote May 15 through 19 to decide whether they want to be able to sell or lease their cotton allotment to farmers in other counties in the state. Ballots to both man and wife will be mailed on May 12, and to be counted the ballots must either be in the ASCS office by the close of business or post marked by midnight May 19th. The referendum will decide only the question of whether cotton allotments may be transferred by sale or lease to another farm outside the county within the next two years. The vote will not affect the transfer by sale or lease from one farm to another within the county. This is already permitted by law. Neither will the vote affect transfers by farm owner from one farm to another owned by him, which now can be made across counties lines, within the state.

If at least two-thirds of the voting growers of upland cotton in the county mark their ballots 'yes', transfers outside the county (within the state) can be made during the authorized period for the 68-69 crops. (A lease is for any specified number of crop years—a sale is a permanent transfer of allotment) If more than one-third of the growers voting mark their ballots 'no' transfers of cotton allotments by sale or lease outside the county cannot be made for the 68 crop year and under the present law another Referendum will be held next year. Ballots will be mailed to all eligible cotton producers listed on the ASCS mailing list. All cotton farmers are urged to vote and return the ballots during the May 15 through 19 voting time. Should any eligible cotton farmers fail to receive a ballot he is urged to contact the local ascs office and a ballot will be issued. The voted ballots received will be counted publicly by the ASCS Committee. The time and place for counting the ballots will be announced in advance and anyone who wants to witness the count will be welcome to do so.

Bob Loe received the Outstanding Farmer award for 1967 at the Annual Awards Banquet of the Plains Chamber of Commerce Friday night. The plaque was awarded to Loe by Roy McGehee, past president of the Chamber of Commerce.

The Outstanding Farmer award is given each year to the person picked by the Chamber members for his contribution to the local economy and for being civic minded as well as his ability of farming.

In presenting the award to Loe, McGehee said: "The Outstanding Farmer picked by the Plains Chamber of Commerce is more than a farmer. This man is very active in civic clubs such as the Lions club. He is always working for the progress of our community in such things as new crops that will provide additional income for our community. He has been active in the vegetable crops and also sugar beets as a new crop. He farms about 1660 acres in cotton, maize, wheat, sugar beets, cucumbers and forage crops for a good size cow and calf herd. He does not have all his eggs in one basket but has a variety of crops that can produce income through out the year. He has both irrigated crops and dry land along with some rangeland for livestock grazing.

As a conservationist he has maintained hundreds of acres each year in cover crops of small grain in the winter and hundreds of acres in forage sorghum to be used as a dead cover along with residue from grain sorghum as protection for his soil and to conserve moisture. He has used tillage to help control wind erosion rather than increase it. Cont on Page 2

Editorial

We believe the time has come when the majority of the people in this great republic should be heard. There was a time when treason was the word used for such incidents as burning the flag of our Country. There was a time when sedition was the term used for the printing of subversive literature which injured our nations cause in a war.

We admit freely that this editorial is being written by a country editor who does not profess to be in the mode of the times and the main current of thought which includes the destruction of draft cards, race riots, the condemnation of our public officials, and slackers who hide behind the name of religion or academic freedom.

There was a time when a young man did not believe it a moral crime to wear the uniform of his country or to respect the Stars and Stripes. There was a time when parents would have busted junior's bottom with a razor strap and would have withdrawn him from college and put him to work if he would have even dreamed of becoming a peacenik.

Indeed we have failed as a people and as a government if we permit this rotten mess to continue. Let us write our congressmen and our president urging the prosecution of draft card violators, and flag burners to the limit of the law which we believe to be high treason. Let us put an end to those who incite race riots with legislation which is clearly written in the books. It is indeed a crime to incite a riot, therefore let us insist that Stokely Carmichael and Martin Luther King and their ilk be given a subpoena.

What is more, let us stand for God and Country in our homes and hearts and let our children realize what a wonderful land we live in and that our republic is indeed worth defending with honor and dignity, even if it calls for the supreme sacrifice.

Let us realize that Irishman, German, Swede, Frenchman, Jew, Mexican, Scot, Negro, and Anglo Saxon are deemed equal under the law. Regardless of our race or personal creed let us unite and lift our colors out of the dirt which a minority has seen fit to place it. A negro who calls himself by some title to the tune of Muhammad Ali has refused to be inducted into the service of his country. We recall a few years back, when another Negro by the name of Joe Louis was proud to wear an army uniform and even donated a million dollar gate to the war effort. Which one was a credit to his race and to his country? We trust that the justice Department will ring the curtain down on this incident which we believe is a national disgrace.

CAYCE'S CORNER

We have read long dissertations on the subject of how unimportant the factor of time really is in our lives. We have also read a thesis or two on how nothing is more important than the hour hand. It isn't for us to say, but we do want to tell a little story or two about the recent time change when the country went on savings time and we will let our readers be the judge of the importance of their hour glass, sun dial, or just plain alarm clock, or what ever device they use to tell time.

We hear that some women even use a T.V. program schedule to tell time. Almost any member of the fairer sex could adjust their days schedule with 'As the World Turns' or 'The Continuing Story of Peyton Place.'

Now take our friend Joe Curry. He is a devout man who attempts to attend church services most Sundays and wife Bill is also the same type person. Last Sunday morning Joe announced it was time to go to services. The Curry's left home and walked into the Baptist Church just in time to hear the last amen. Time Marches On!

Then there is the case of the house wife who planned for weeks to attend a tea in Brownfield. She had her beauty appointment changed from Saturday until Monday in order to look like the slick chick from Vogue. She worked on Saturday and Sunday in her flower bed even though the wind blew 40 miles per hour without a bonnet on, all the time thinking how pretty she would look after a visit to Madam Harri du Bush the local beauty queen. Confidently she drove up to the Beauty Salon and walked in and took her seat and had turned to a continued story in Lady's Home journal only to hear Madam Harri du Bush announce in an irritating voice, 'You, dearie, are an hour late! It is unfortunate indeed, because we can't touch you until next Saturday at your regular appointment.' Rather than look like an Ugly Duckling Mrs. Permanent Combs went into immediate negotiations to purchase a wig on the easy pay as you go plan. Time Marches On!

In a neighboring community the honorable Promptu

Timely informed the district attorney, defense council, jury, witnesses, and defendant that as the judge of the court of last resort he would tolerate no tardy culprit in his court, and that court stood adjourned on Friday and would convene at 9:00 a.m. sharp on Monday morning. Judge Timely announced no excuses would be accepted and bench warrants would be issued to anybody who didn't get the word. At 15 minutes until the hour our hero Judge Promptu Timely washed down the last bit of pancake and maple syrup and demanded a refill from the coffee pot. Pouring the coffee and turning her back to the judge Mrs. Timely was putting the pot back on the stove when she casually remarked, well dear I am glad you aren't leaving court this morning and the extra hour you spent in bed should do you good. At least you will be rested when you start your new schedule on Daylightsavings time this week. It was also nice of you to set the clock back when we got home from the lake last night. Promptu what on earth do you mean going to sleep again at the table...get your face out of your plate...Promptu...wake up at once... If I hadn't lived with you for 40 years I would believe you had fainted...Time Marches On!

Miss Prudence Grundy prided herself in her 50 years of teaching English at Malarkville High she had never once been late to give her students an eight-thirty treat in Milton and Chaucer and other writers whom she considered to be of somewhat less than worthwhile to teach, but the state did require them taught. Miss Grundy arranged her pince nose glasses and picked up her parasol and paraded down the main street thinking of the quiz which she would surprise her students with when books took up in 10 minutes. Miss Grundy was ever so prompt and without fail entered her classroom as the bell rang. All Miss Grundy could think as the exodus of gleeful students evacuated the classroom was this just can't be All Fool's Day. Now what foolish prank are these children about...Yes, time does March On.

 The award came as a complete surprise to Thompson, who had planned to be in Austin instead of Plains Friday to see his daughter play volleyball at the state tournament. Helen Thompson, Murrell's wife, made excuses to keep him in town for the banquet in order to receive the award. Helen frankly admitted that her husband was a bit unhappy until his name was called to come forward and win the Outstanding Citizen Award, because he wanted to be at the State Tournament.
 Thompson belongs to the First Methodist Church, the Lions Club and the Masonic Lodge.

846 Medium Maturity Winner from the Rio Grande to North Texas

"Versatile" describes hybrid 846; it's the top-rated medium maturity hybrid for dryland or irrigated conditions in all parts of Texas and other southwestern states.

A high degree of hybrid vigor enables 846 to outperform most earlier hybrids under stress conditions... and outyield many later maturity hybrids under good growing conditions.

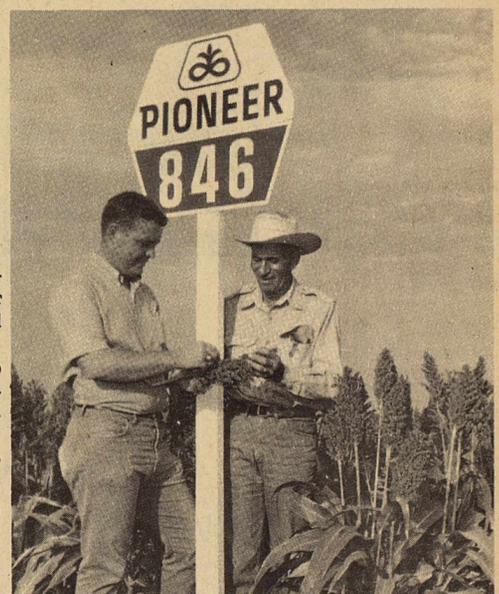

For example, 846 was compared with other hybrids in County Agent-supervised tests on seven Uvalde county farms in 1966. The winning yields ranged from 3,290 pounds to 7,743 pounds per acre—and 846 ranked first for yield on 3 farms, second at 3 others—first or second in 6 out of 7 tests!

Hybrid 846 also ranked first in 1966 in County Agent tests in Bee county (2 locations), Milam county (2 locations), Victoria county, Wilson county, and at 3 of 5 tests in Live Oak county. The previous year, in official Texas A & M yield tests, 846 ranked first at three locations and second at three more.

From 1962 to 1965, Pioneer hybrid 846 was compared with 17 other top-rated competitive hybrids of similar maturity more than 460 times in Texas A & M tests. Hybrid 846 topped these other 17 hybrids in better than 3 out of 4 comparisons—and averaged a cool 354 pounds more grain per acre than these leading competitive entries.

Short, Uniform, Excellent Roots

Relatively short and uniform in head height, 846 boasts strong, deep-anchored roots that make for good standability. Semi-compact heads thresh out well, yielding light red colored grain. Ample head exertion smooths out the harvesting job. Good resistance to charcoal rot and head smut puts extra dependability into 846.

Under good growing conditions, you can expect 846 to bloom from 60 to 70 days* after planting, and be ready for harvest in 100 to 115 days. Regardless of where you farm in the Sorghum Belt... whether you have ample water, limited irrigation, or dryland conditions... there's extra profit for you in planting hybrid 846.

*This range in blooming and maturity dates covers most situations. Unusual conditions or planting dates may decrease or increase the time requirements.

The F. F. A. boys went to judging contest Saturday in Lubbock. They all seemed to have had quite a good time. This Saturday night is the night of enchantment for all juniors and Seniors. It is the junior-Senior Banquet at Prom. The event will take place in the school cafeteria. All will be decked out in their formals and suits. This is an occasion all will remember.

The annual staff is all excited and growing very anxious for the annuals to come in. They are expected in either this week or next. All anticipate it to be very good, especially the annual staff.

Monday the High School Halls seemed very quiet for it was Senior Sneak Day. The Seniors had quiet a time. T ate out, went bowling, went shopping, and finished it off with a show. Hold it, did I say finished with a show, how about running out of gas? Tuesday, they all looked a little sleepy, but all agreed they had a marvelous time.

Tuesday night the Plains Varsity and 7th grade Cowboy Bands put on a marvelous concert. The bands were decked out in formals and suits. Among the event that night was the announcing of the '67-68' band president. Robert Field who was this year's President was re-elected. The 'Outstanding 8th Grader' reward went to Sue Cleveland. Gallen (Gabbie) Abberdean received the John Phillip Souza award. Caroline Crutcher was named 'Band Sweetheart 66-67'. She was presented red roses and a kiss by her escort Vernan Stach. The other candidates were Phillis Kreig, escorted by Mike Nugent; Suzahn St. Romain, escorted by Robert Field; and Janie Hamm, escorted by Billy Spenser. A hardy congratulations goes out to all, especially to the bands on putting on such a fine concert and doing so well this year.

'Text Book's Diary'

September
Dear Diary,
I was checked out today by one of the teachers. My owner flipped through me and used me during class, then threw me in his locker.

October
Dear Diary,
I've been written in, drawn in, my corners are bent, and think my back is beginning to loosen. I still haven't been taken home for study.

November
Dear Diary,
My owner took me home and studied me for about 10 minutes. There's a big test tomorrow.

December
Dear Diary,
Back to the locker again. Christmas is coming and I'll have a nice, long rest. Oh, my aching pages.

January
Dear Diary,
A new year has begun. The first day after vacation and I was taken out of my dark corner and studied lightly. My owner must have made a resolution. (Mid-term exams are coming up.)

February
Dear Diary,

I am in a strange locker! I think my owner put me in the wrong one. Oh, woe is me. I don't like it here under all these coats, books, boots, and no telling what else!

March
Dear Diary,
I'm still here. Beginning to get used to it, after two months. Some strange person used me today and wrote all over me. I look a fright.

April
Dear Diary,
Home at last! My owner found me and used me for about five minutes. My back is hurting -- it hangs on by only 3 threads now.

May
Dear Diary,
Man, have I been used this month. Something about final exams, and my owner is really cramming. My back finally came off, so it doesn't hurt anymore. My front and back pages are very painful, all torn and dirty.

Cotton Club Meet NOTICE

An organizational meeting for the purpose of forming a Cotton Club in Yoakum County is called for Monday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. in the Club Room at the old courthouse in Plains, announced Mrs. Fern Lowrey.

Mrs. L. E. McDowell, of McAdoo, Texas will meet with the ladies to explain the purpose of the club. All ladies are invited to attend the meeting.

The purpose of the Club will not be to ban synthetics, but to stress the utility of cotton and its importance to this county, Mrs. Lowrey said. She continued in saying that it will urge more cotton products stocked in area retail stores, and to educate the public about cotton and the problems of the industry.

The club will sponsor such projects as a sew it with cotton contest and a cotton queen contest.

Mrs. Lowrey pointed out some facts that she felt the public would be interested in about cotton. Some are that the 23 counties in our area to a high degree base their economy on cotton. If this is lost it would create great hardships on farmers and businessmen alike. While cotton has been building a large surplus, synthetics have increased in consumption 100 per cent in the past seven years.

She continued in saying that buying gives a woman a responsibility to cotton that the men do not have. Mrs. H. W. Taunton and Mrs. Lowrey will help sponsor the meeting.

The Outsiders are playing volleyball every Thursday night. The Junior High Gym is open on Thursday night starting at 8:00. This volleyball is for everyone who like to play. Men and women both play on this night. Come on down and join the fun.
