Plains Talk

By Harry W. Cayce

One of the most important finds of historical value in a blue moon was reported to 'Plains Talk'. Presely Duncan, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Duncan, Tatum, and grandson of the late Russ Anderson, pioneer rancher between Plains and Tatum, was in the mountains near Durango, Colorado riding pack horse recently. He saw an object on the ground and dismounted from his horse to pick it up.

What a find it was . . . Presely now has in his possession the pistol belonging to the famous Col. Colt. The side arm is 125 years old and has Col. Colt's name on it. The gun was one of about 50 which were made in 1842.

The pistol is in remarkable condition, and is a collector's item. Young Duncan was offered $6,500.00 for the side arm but did not sell it. He sent the gun to his parents ranch and it has been placed in the bank box for protection.

Through reading 'Plains Talk', Georgia Duncan, the former Georgia Anderson, asked this columnist to write to Colt gun company telling of the find.

Speaking of pistols, I did some research last week which told about how pistols were used to the fullest extent on the South Plains during the 19th century when Comanche war parties lived for the day to add to their scalp collection. When pistols were taken from white men, they were given to the squaws who could be as fierce as an Indian buck, and were considered meaner and more savage than the braves. The Comanche squaws were such a menace that the soldiers were forced to draw no difference when raiding a village. The squaws could use a pistol and fought as bravely as the bucks. No tribe was considered more fierce than the Comanche.

Reports from army records reveal expeditions through this area to hunt down Comanche war parties. Prior to that time, Spaniards were often attacked by war parties on the South Plains.

Legend has it that a wagon train loaded with Spanish gold was attacked near Bronco in the sand hills, and that all of the Spaniards were killed in the massacre. Some people still believe the gold is to be found . . . others say the gold was taken by the Indians . . . but the most popular belief is that the shifting sands have hidden the traces of the raid. Others say, without much evidence to substantiate the claim, that American cowboys found the gold. The only thing that we can be reasonably certain of is that the Spaniards were killed by Indians.

Plains people speak of early days in Yoakum County as being 1900, but much history was recorded before that. This county is on the fringe area of what was one of the earliest civilizations known to man. The Portales Man, which was found a few years ago, shows that man walked the Plains 10, 000 years ago.

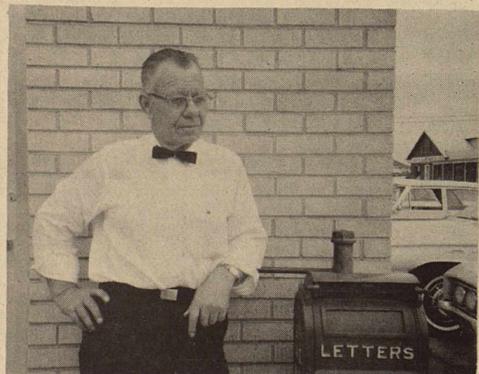

Perhaps through the efforts of the American Studies Department at Eastern New Mexico University we can learn much of the Anthropology of our little area. Much interest has been given to our area, and we know that Folsom and Clovis points have been found in this immediate area, nearly on the town site. Perhaps this was not a nomad land, but was one of the earliest sites of recorded civilization. Only time will tell.

My grandmother, who is 92, remembers when her father told of her relatives venturing on the South Plains. Pioneers could not stay during the early part of the 19th century due to hostile tribes that roamed the Plains. We do know this . . . the machine age came . . . and the iron horse changed the pattern of the American West . . . changed a roaring history of adventure which only lasted for about 50 years, but one which left us legend to tell our great grandchildren about.

Through a detailed study of Indians of the Southwest, courses are now offered on this subject. Through such efforts as were displayed by the late J. Frank Doby, Col. Charles Goodnight, and current students of history we know of our most interesting period of history. The one thing that the West gave to the world . . . the American Cowboy.

Stories of cattle drives and the chuck wagon days are common place bits of information to any person reaching school age today. But it is nice to go beyond these small particles of information, and evaluate the spirit of the great Western movement. Caesar said, 'I came, I saw, I conquered' . . . so did the pioneers, but not with legions of soldiers. They conquered the land with the spirit and determination to build a free society based upon the ideals of a free enterprise system which in those days was 'Mans work is from sun to sun; Womans work is never done.'

Yes, the American Pioneer woman probably contributed more to the settlement of the West than any other factor. She raised her family, provided the clothing, and put up all of the food for winter. She acted as mid-wife, carpenter, Indian fighter, and then was expected to provide her male counterpart with feminine charm which she was still able to do. These were times when talk was plain and earnest.

★★★ Cotton Talks ★★★

Open Session Aug. 28

By W. M. Overton
ASCS Office Manager

Open meetings to discuss the cotton situation and program alternatives for the 1968 cotton program have been announced by R. T. Price, Chairman of the State ASCS Committee. One such meeting is scheduled for Lubbock, on August 28th, 1967 at the Koko Palace, 5201 Avenue Q.

The meetings will start at 10:00 a.m. Anyone interested in the cotton outlook and program is welcome to attend. The chairman explained that these meetings are of a series of meetings being held in major cotton states to provide farmers and other interested people an opportunity to express their views and recommendations on the cotton program for the 1968 crop year.

Representatives of the Secretary of Agriculture will attend each meeting to discuss the cotton situation, review the various provisions of the cotton legislations, and outline program alternatives for the 1968 crop year.

Lions to Be Host

Members of the Plains Lions Club and their families will treat the faculty of Plains Independent School System to an ice cream supper and social next Tuesday night at the school cafeteria, announced Johnnie Fitzgerald, president of the Lions Club.

The purpose of the social is to give new faculty members an opportunity to become acquainted in the community.

Fitzgerald urged all members of the Lions Club and their families to attend the supper. Assignments will be given the Lions who are to help serve the ice cream supper at the social, reported Fitzgerald.

The local Lion boss said that the social is given each year in order to create a good working atmosphere between many parents and the teachers. Plains does not have a P.T.A., so this meeting helps fill that gap.

Co-op

Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Yoakum County Co-op Gin was held in the school cafeteria in Plains last Thursday night and more than 250 people attended and were treated to a Barbeque dinner.

The annual election of officers was held and a new member was elected to serve on the board. T. J. Bearden replaces Jimmy Cox on the board. H. W. 'Curly' Taunton was re-elected to serve as president of the Yoakum County Co-op Gin Board of Directors. The members of the board are H. W. Taunton, president; Loren Gayle, vice president; Earl Kiser, secretary; Russel Faulkenberry, director; R. M. Jones, director; Foye Powell, director; T. J. Bearden, director; and David Stowe, manager.

One humorous aspect of the meeting was when Amos Smith, manager of the Tokio Co-op Gin, won a door prize during the drawings.

The Yoakum County Co-op Gin is located about four miles west of Plains on the Lovington Highway. The local co-operative serves about 200 customers and has recently re-conditioned all of their gin facilities in preparation for the ginning season.

David Stowe, manager of the co-operative invites all farmers to stop by the gin and let him show them the facilities used in what he says is one of the most modern gins located in the state.

The barbeque is an annual affair and is one of the main social events of the summer in Plains.

Stowe was named manager of the co-operative last spring, and moved his wife and children to Plains from Morton where he was in the ginning business. The Stowes belong to the First Baptist Church.

Explain New Law

Dallas, Aug. 23—A new set of ground rules for the state's 5 1/2 million licensed drivers will go into effect August 28 when a major portion of the new traffic safety laws become effective. After that date, conviction of driving while a drivers license is suspended or revoked will carry with it a jail sentence of 72 hours to 6 months plus a fine of $25 to $500.

Motorists who do not bother to get a driver's license will be faced with fines up to $500 plus the possibility of jail sentences ranging from 72 hours to 6 months for habitual violators.

'These are the teeth in the driver license law that have been needed for a long time', Robert F. Miller, President, Texas For Traffic Safety said in commenting on the new laws. He added: 'A person who is unwilling to be licensed or drives while his license is suspended deserves severe treatment. The safety of all other users of the streets and highways demand it. Without effective licensing, how can we be sure that motorists are capable of operating a motor vehicle?'

New minimum driver licensing ages will become effective August 28. After Monday, 18 years will be the minimum

67 Pigskin Forecast Rates Cowboys As Strong Eleven

Coach Rip Sewell's Plains Cowboys possess the threat to materialize into a fine ball club this year, and in many respects should be an improved group over last years Co-District Championship team. The Pokes posses the weight up front to open a gap in any line that they face this year, creating a problem for their opponents with a sweep or pass series of plays built around the wing T formation.

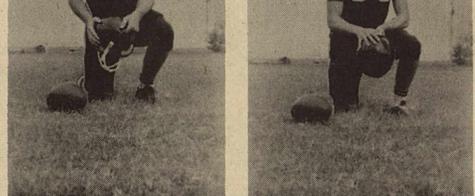

Another reason the Cowboys should be a potential threat to any foe is due to what appears to be a sound kicking game. The field goal, as it has been for a number of years, will be one of the big scoring threats to Cowboy opponents. Kicking duties will be assigned to Dan Field, Hershall Smith, and Teenie Lowe. Punting will be the big question on all high school teams this year, with the change in rules. It appears that Plains will aim for the sidelines to cut down runback opportunities of their rivals.

The defensive line of the Plains team will be a constant threat with a pair of six foot three 200 pound tackles looking down the throats of their foe, Dan Field and Billy Taylor will spearhead this threat. The linebacker posts will be played by Billy Spencer and Mike DeVries.

Plains will have a running attack with Gregg Jones, Billy Spencer and Joe Pierce, and will have Gary Liles and Tony Salas as back up men.

Plains will have 14 seniors on the team, six juniors, seven sophomores, and seven freshmen.

The Cowboys will scrimmage the Eunice Cardinals at Cowboy Stadium late tomorrow afternoon. A scrimmage with Seminole is slated for next week. Coach Sewell said Eunice always has a respectable team and much experience can be gained from the practice.

Boosters Make New 67 Plans

Jack Hayes, president of the Plains Booster Club, announces that the Boosters will meet at the Longbranch Cafe at 8:00 p.m. Monday night for the first meeting before the football season opens.

The Booster president said that another reason to call the meeting Monday night is to elect new officers that they might get started with the team and to afford an opportunity for all of the Booster members to meet Bill Martin, new member of the coaching staff.

Hayes said anybody in the community or area who are Cowboy fans are urged to be long to the Booster Club, and he issued an open invitation for Cowboy supporters to attend the meeting Monday night.

The local Postmaster also urged fans to buy their season tickets which go on sale today at Mr. Taylor's office at the High School.

Game films and other interesting information is given through the season at the Booster Club meetings. The meetings will be at the Longbranch again this year.

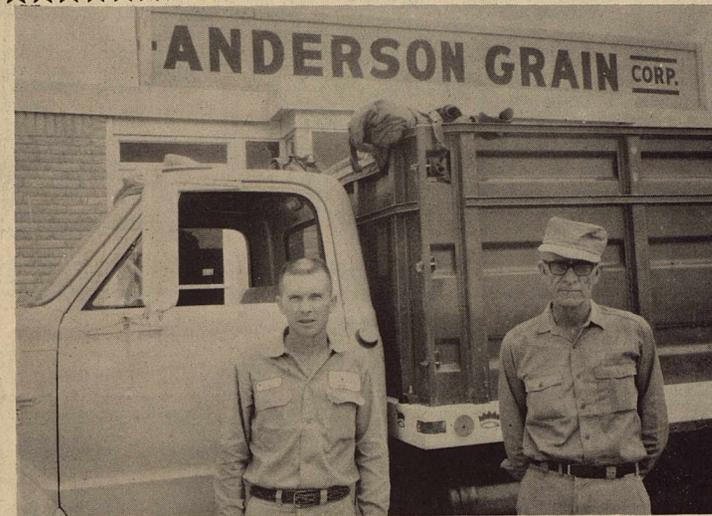

Hayes said we have a fine looking team this year, but they need all of the support they can get, so he appealed to more men in the area to associate themselves with the Boosters and get behind the team.

Hayes praised the Plains coaching staff and said the boys look like they are in good physical shape to start a new season. He also urged fans to attend out of town games and follow the Cowboys all the way this season.

Farmers Union

Carl Lowrey, President of the Yoakum County Farmers Union urges all farmers to attend the ASCS meeting in Lubbock at the Koko Palace, 5201 Ave. Q, Monday August 28th at 10:00 a.m. to discuss the cotton situation and the 1968 cotton program.

This meeting is open to the public and all farmers and anyone interested in cotton is urged to attend.

James Warren Reaps First Load Of Grain

Anderson Grain Company of Plains announces the first load of grain to be cut and delivered in Yoakum County this year to have arrived at the Plains elevator Tuesday afternoon. The grain belonged to James Warren, Plains businessman and farmer.

Warren is the Fina dealer in Plains and is active in community affairs. He is an active member of the Lions Club and belongs to the American Legion. Last year Warren won the contest of his company for naming the Fina new publication. He called it the Fina Shield.

Mr. Warren is a veteran of World War Two. He and his family are active members of the First Methodist Church in Plains. Warren is also a member of the Yoakum County Hospital Board.

The businessman - farmer cut the grain on his farm located west of Plains. The grain was combined and brought to Anderson Grain Company.

The first load of grain was received at the same elevator last year and was grown by Frank Upton. The date of the first load last year was August 16th.

Herbie Pickett, spokesman for Anderson Grain, said the company appreciated Mr. Warren for bringing his first load of grain to the elevator.

Anderson Grain also presented Warren with a check for $50.00 for the bonus for the first load of grain in the county.

War en expressed his appreciation to Pickett for awarding the bonus for the first load.

County Agent Says Watch for Midge

By Leo L. White
County Agent

According to Area Entomologist Don R. Rummel, there is increased activity of the grain sorghum midge occurring in many of the South Plains counties. The heaviest damage is occurring in the area just north of Lubbock.

The best way to keep the midge from damaging a crop of grain sorghum is to plant early and use an early maturing variety. Any crop that blooms after August 15 is in danger of a midge attack.

The bulk of the crop in Yoakum County was planted late this year and the midge could do considerable damage if the migration is in this direction. Rummel advises an automatic spray program in areas where the infestation is high and the yields are expected to be good. The first application of an automatic spray program would be put on when 70% of the heads had emerged from the boot. A second application would follow 3 to 4 days later, and a third application would be necessary if midge activity continues.

When the infestation is light and the yield is expected to be low, then the producer must decide if a treatment will be economical. Rummel says that an average of one midge per head will probably result in an economic loss.

In order to determine the amount of activity the field must be checked every day for a period of 10 days after the heads begin to emerge from the boot. If sufficient damage is likely to occur and the expected yield will justify the cost, then the producer is advised to use control measures.

Mrs. Loe Heads Heart Drive

Many persons find meaning and deep satisfaction in making memorial contributions to the heart fund, for in this way they serve the living and pay thoughtful tribute to the memory of a friend, associate or relative. Memorial gifts are used to support a program of research, and both public and professional education. These gifts will assist our scientists in their determined effort to conquer heart disease.

Mrs. Pearl Loe, Box 65, 1001 East 3rd, Plains, Texas, has been appointed memorial gifts chairman for Plains Heart Association. Any memorial gift sent to her will receive prompt attention by sending an acknowledgment card immediately to the bereaved family, indicating the names of the individual being honored and of the donor or donors.

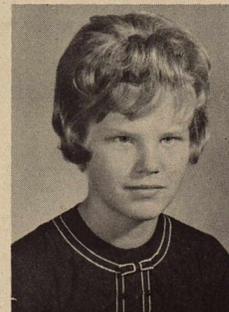

The amount of the contribution is not included on the card to the family, but is shown on the receipt to the donor, as official receipt for tax exempt contribution.

Tickets on Sale

Cowboy football tickets will go on sale today at D. N. Taylor's office at the High School. Reserve seats will be sold on a first come first serve basis this year, stated the High School principal.

Season tickets for all home games will cost $5.00 this year. General admission tickets this year will cost $1.25 for adults and 50 cents for children.

The Cowboy football schedule this year is:

Debbie Chadwick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Chadwick, has been chosen 1967 Drum Major for the Cowboy Band.

CAYCE'S CORNER

Jack Hayes, our faithful postmaster in Plains, did his duty recently and posted the circulars in the Post Office giving pictures of criminals wanted for various offenses. Knowing Jack, he put one poster on the wall that he would have enjoyed putting in the trash can. And sure enough it happened!

Joe Curry came into the Post Office to get his mail and glanced at the bulletin board. The local sage of drugstore lore ranced to the window and announced he was ready to collect the reward.

The reward was for the person pictured on the bulletin board. It read, "Wanted for mail fraud, Jack Hayes."

Of course there is a little matter of different identities, but Jack said, "You might know that Joe Curry would be the first one to stop off at my cage and pop off about the reward." Joe, we would have been very disappointed if you hadn't done just what you did. The other good thing is that our Postmaster is still wanted by the citizens of the community (Joe, Harry etc.), but I wonder what Florine thought when she saw the poster?

My mother is now known as "The Tooth Pick Gal." After complaining for a number of years with chronic cases of the belly ache, and after going to a battery of doctors of which many diagnosis of hypochondria and even pregnancy were given . . . to a woman who is 57 . . . she submitted to exploratory surgery which revealed that she had swallowed a sizable tooth pick some years ago and it had traveled up and down her lower intestines causing severe damage. The tooth pick gal had a large part of her small intestines removed and has collected a souvenir which is a crystalized tooth pick which looks like petrified wood. She will be O. K., but it was a close call.

Bill Curry and Iva McDowell are convalescing at home after undergoing major surgery at Brownfield. We are glad that Bill and Iva are improving and wish them a rapid recovery from their illness.

We have had several reports of vegetable rustling as of late. Some of the better gardens in the area have been almost stripped. I wonder what will happen to the water melon patches? One such report came from the state line where our correspondent, Margaret Box, had her garden picked as clean as a hound dog's teeth. This is neither funny nor intelligent on the part of the garden thieves, because people who plant gardens do so to can their food for the winter. Garden thieves are both petty and moralistically ill. If they are seen cleaning a person's garden, they should be reported at once to the proper authority. In my estimation, there is no difference in stealing from a person's garden than from wiping a kitchen clean.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor:
 In your letters to the editor column last week the "little half-awaken-American" got me so tore up I didn't enjoy the TV news about our boys killing 600 Viet-Cong and only losing 6 American soldiers. Why do people want to scare us so? Why don't they let us enjoy this freedom as long as we can?

Most anybody will tell you that our good days are about over, that the Commies are trying very hard and will take us over sooner or later. What can we do about it. All we can do is vote. Just one little vote. It's common knowledge that our Government, Press, TV, movies, and lots of our schools and Churches are either knowingly or innocently being controlled by the Communists. If there's something one little person can do I'd like to know what it is.

Matters to be discussed at the meeting will include the cotton supply-demand situation; the size of the national cotton acreage allotment; the various levels at which the diversion percentages, diversion payment rates, the price-support payment rate, and the loan rate might be established for 1968; and other miscellaneous problems and decisions of importance.

Anyone who is not able to attend one of these meetings is urged to submit his ideas in writing to the Texas ASCS State Office, College Station, Texas not later than September 8th. All recommendations will be given careful study by the Department. Various phases of the 1968 cotton program will be announced as early as possible.

Bill Overton local ASCS Office Manager stated that this may be a very important meeting for cotton farmers and others interested in cotton.

age for a regular drivers license unless an approved course of driver education has been passed by the applicant. With driver education, operators licenses can be issued at 16.

There are two exceptions to this provision. A license may be issued at 16 if an approved course of driver education is not taught at the school regularly attended by the applicant. This exception was put into the law to give the schools an opportunity to offer driver education to all Texas teens and will remain in effect until June 1, 1969. A drivers license may be issued at 15 when certain, severe hardship conditions exist.

An instruction permit may be issued by the Department of Public Safety to persons 15 years of age who have satisfactorily completed the classroom phase of an approved driver education course and have passed all but the 'behind the wheel' part of the driver license examination. This provision is in the law to permit the beginning driver to legally get 'behind the wheel' driver training. When a driver with an instruction permit is driving, a licensed operator who is at least 21 years old must accompany and sit beside him.

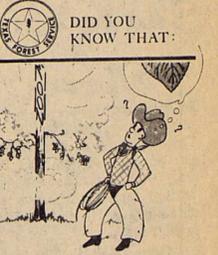

The new law makes changes in other types of driver licenses. Minimum age for a commercial or chauffeur's license will be 18 unless the applicant has completed an approved driver education course and in that case it will be 17.

Provisional drivers licenses will be issued to all persons under 21 years of age. These licenses will be clearly designated as provisional permits to drive.

The new law permits the Department of Public Safety to have re-examined any person believed to be incapable of safely operating a motor vehicle. A drivers license may be denied to a person with a physical or mental disability, or disease, that prevents him from exercising reasonable or ordinary control over a motor vehicle. A license may not be issued to a person unable to understand highway wording or direction signs in the English Language.

These new laws will not be worth the paper they are written on if they are not vigorously enforced in every town and county in the State', Mr. Miller said. 'Well trained policemen in sufficient numbers to patrol the streets and highways must be on the job. We must remember that 3,406 human beings were killed in Texas traffic accidents last year and another 208,310 injured. Traffic law officers Growing trees to a height of 17 feet in six months is no Texas tall tale. Texas Forest Service researchers have obtained this growth from cottonwood cuttings selected for outstanding growth characteristics. The trees are located in the Brazos River bottomland in Robertson County, on land owned by Texas A&M University. The planting is part of the tree improvement research program of the Service, aimed at producing the maximum yield of wood per acre for the production of paper.

can help prevent accidents. Municipal and state budgets must be large enough to provide for the protection Texas needs.

'When the time comes that there is enough manpower on the streets and highways to enforce these laws, there will be fewer accidents, fewer traffic killings and our State will be recognized as the one place where realistic values are placed on the worth of a human life,' Mr. Miller stated in urging all-out enforcement of the new laws.

TRADE AT HOME

Plant the Seed

where you expect to Reap

IT'S what you might call a commonly recognized agricultural principle that if you want to do your harvesting on a particular piece of ground, that's the place to sow your seed.

Using the same general type of reasoning, it is obvious that if you want to harvest a nice crop of prosperity . . . in the form of better business, a better job, a better community in which to live . . . it's advisable to plant your trade dollars where they will produce growth for you, rather than for somebody else.

The homes we live in . . . the jobs and businesses which support us . . . the schools and churches that teach our children and enrich our lives . . . the convenient stores and service establishments that supply our everyday and emergency needs . . . none of these were built, nor are they supported by the dollars that are spent in some other community or city.

September Home Duties

By Sudie M. Thompson
County Home Demonstration Agent
September brings a rash of duties, as every mother knows. And it's time to begin thinking in terms of school clothing again.
Back to school shoppers find more and more items of clothing for both boys and girls made of fabrics which have the permanent or durable press finish. Garments of this finish lighten the load of the busy homemaker. They are satisfactory if laundered and dried properly with an automatic washer and dryer.
These are some recommended washing procedures: Use warm wash for clothes of average soil. Extremely dirty clothes may need a hot wash. To reduce wrinkling, use a cool-down rinse with a gentle spin. Follow with a cold rinse and gentle spin.
Remove clothes from the dryer as soon as it stops to prevent wrinkling. Read hand tags and labels before buying to learn the recommended care methods.

Thanks

The youngster usually likes to go along on the shopping trip. This may insure a correct fit. Do not buy an item with the idea of letting down the hem or easing out seams. All stitching lines and creases are set permanently and cannot be removed by just pressing. Seams and hems can be taken up, however.
Look for well-known brands or buy from a merchant who stands behind the product. Permanent or durable press finish garments bear many different names, and each company has its own.

A special thanks was given to James A. Cloe of Brownfield for placing a book in the library deposit this weekend. The book was found in Chaps Gulf Station in Brownfield. This book was one of twelve books carried away by a family recently. The library hopes they are playing the game of treasure hunt, and more good citizens of America, like Mr. Cloe, will find the treasure and send it home. The title of the book was "jokes, jokes, jokes," the best loved book of our junior readers.

PUBLIC NOTICE Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT NUMBER FIVE ON THE BALLOT

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of Texas be amended by adding a new section thereto to be known as Section 49-e, as follows:

"Section 49-e. The Parks and Wildlife Department, or its successor vested with the powers, duties, and authority which deals with the operation, maintenance, and improvement of State Parks, shall have the authority to provide for, issue and sell general obligation bonds of the State of Texas in an amount not to exceed Seventy-Five Million Dollars ($75,000,000). The bonds authorized herein shall be called "Texas Park Development Bonds," shall be executed in such form, denominations, and upon such terms as may be prescribed by law, provided, however, that the bonds shall bear a rate or rates of interest as may be fixed by the Parks and Wildlife Department or its successor, but the weighted average annual interest rate, as that phrase is commonly and ordinarily used and understood in the municipal bond market, of all the bonds issued and sold in any installment of any bonds, shall not exceed four and one-half percent (4½%) interest per annum; they may be issued in such installments as said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, finds feasible and practical in accomplishing the purpose set forth herein.

"All moneys received from the sale of said bonds shall be deposited in a fund hereby created with the State Treasurer to be known as the Texas Park Development Fund to be administered (without further appropriation) by the said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, in such manner as prescribed by law.

"Such fund shall be used by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, under such provisions as the Legislature may prescribe by general law, for the purposes of acquiring lands from the United States, or any governmental agency thereof, from any governmental agency of the State of Texas, or from any person, firm, or corporation, for State Park Sites and for developing said sites as State Parks.

"While any of the bonds authorized by this provision, or any interest on any such bonds, is outstanding and unpaid, there is hereby appropriated out of the first moneys coming into the Treasury in each fiscal year, not otherwise appropriated by this Constitution, an amount which is sufficient to pay the principal and interest on such bonds during such fiscal year, less the amount in the interest and sinking fund at the close of the prior fiscal year, which includes any receipts derived during the prior fiscal year by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, from admission charges to State Parks, as the Legislature may prescribe by general law.

"The Legislature may provide for the investment of moneys available in the Texas Park Development Fund and the interest and sinking fund established for the payment of bonds issued by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor. Income from such investment shall be used for the purposes prescribed by the Legislature.

"From the moneys received by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor, from the sale of the bonds issued hereunder, there shall be deposited in the interest and sinking fund for the bonds authorized by this section sufficient moneys to pay the interest to become due during the State fiscal year in which the bonds were issued. After all bonds have been fully paid with interest, or after there are on deposit in the interest and sinking fund sufficient moneys to pay all future maturities of principal and interest, additional moneys received from admission charges to State Parks shall be deposited to the State Parks Fund, or any successor fund which may be established by the Legislature as a depository for Park revenue earned by said Parks and Wildlife Department, or its said successor.

"All bonds issued hereunder shall after approval by the Attorney General, registration by the Comptroller of Public Accounts of the State of Texas, and delivery to the purchasers, be incontestable and shall constitute general obligations of the State of Texas under the Constitution of Texas.

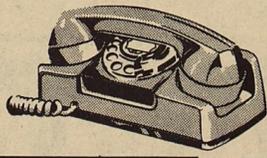

"Should the Legislature enact enabling laws in anticipation of the adoption of this amendment, such Acts shall not be void by reason of their anticipatory nature."

Sec. 2. The foregoing amendment to the Constitution shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on November 11, 1967, at which election each ballot shall have printed thereon, the following words:

"FOR the amendment to the Constitution of Texas adding a new section to be known as Section 49-e of Article III, authorizing the issuance and sale of Seventy-Five Million Dollars ($75,000,000) in bonds by the State of Texas to create the Texas Park Development Fund to acquire lands for State Park sites and to develop State Parks."

"AGAINST the amendment to the Constitution of Texas adding a new section to be known as Section 49-e of Article III, authorizing the issuance and sale of Seventy-Five Million Dollars ($75,000,000) in bonds by the State of Texas to create the Texas Park Development Fund to acquire lands for State Park sites and to develop State Parks."

Well Cowboy fans, it looks like our first big night is September 8th when the Plains Cowboys vs the Ropes Eagles. Everyone seems to be getting ready for school and the big game. There will be a scrimmage Friday night against Eunice. Everyone should come out and give our boys your loyal support.

The Band, under the new director Coy Cook, has been busy practicing playing. Those that tried out for Drum Major were Debbie Chadwick, Sherry Miller, and Kathy Anderson. The new Drum Major that will be leading the 1967 - 68 Cowboy Band is Debbie Chadwick.

The twirlers that will be marching with the Band are Irina Winn, head twirler, Joyce Warren, D'Linda Loyd, and Janie Hamn.

The Cheerleaders and Pep Squad have been working hard learning yells to help boost Cowboy Spirit. At cheerleading camp the cheerleaders won first place for Plains. This year there will be only four cheerleaders. They are: Jana Strickland, Sheila Sealy, Charlene Gayle and Dianne Fitzgerald. We are sorry to say the fifth cheerleader Sonja Faulkenberry has moved to Lubbock.

Another main organization in P. H. S. is the Student Council that helps bring in money which they earn working in the concession stands. Those representing the Freshmen Class are Mike Loe and Earl Kreig. The Sophomore Class representatives are Phyllis Krieg and Clark Parrott. The F. H. A. has a big schedule this year. They will have a Heart Fund and UNICEF Drive. However, this is not all work and no play. The girls have planned various parties and a New Years Banquet.

We would like to welcome the new Ag teacher, Mr. Lehmburg. He will be the F. F. A. sponsor this year.

There was registration today for the student body. The students signed up for classes and prepared for the first day of school on Monday.

I hope you will enjoy the school news this year which you will read in the Cowboy Corral.

Area Youths Return Home

Mike Hughes and Leora Turner returned home Sunday night after attending the Texas Youth Conference in Austin since Thursday. The State Line Home Demonstration Club sponsored them.

The purpose of the youth conference is to find student leaders and teach them skills in community leadership. The program is sponsored by the Texas Law Enforcement and Youth Development Foundation. W. W. Heath, Chairman of the University of Texas Regents, is chairman of the foundation.

Some of the programs promoted by the conference in recent years are tutoring potential dropouts, student-parent-teacher organizations in high schools, juvenile juries, community work groups and respect for law presentations in schools.

1,850 teen-agers (16-19 years old) attended the conference last week in Austin on the University of Texas Campus. Twenty-six young people left Lubbock Thursday morning on a chartered bus.

Mike Hughes served on the nominating committee for the convention.

Lanny Jones of Lubbock was elected Vice-president. He was the only officer from this district.

Denver City sponsored Becky Bennett, Wayne Gist, David Bearden, and Pam Conger.

The State Line Home Demonstration Club has sponsored David Box, Wayne Box, and Jerry Hartman in the past two years.
