Jim Smith

French president De Gaulle lashed out (Sunday) at people "Who put their own interest ahead of the public interest." And De Gaulle's indignation pointed up an ironic feature of the current international money crisis: Much of the speculative assault on the french franc has come from frenchmen.

Behind the money crisis is the fact that the West German economy is booming--while the french economy is struggling to right itself after the social and economic upheavals last spring. Thus, the West German mark is considered to be worth more, in practical value, than its official value. And the french franc is regarded as really worth less than its par value.

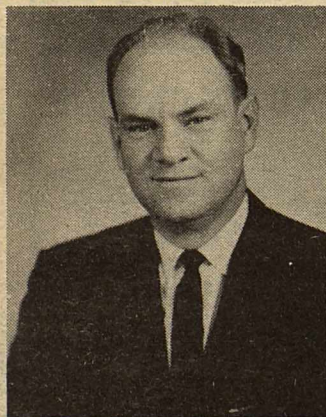

The supposition was that the mark would be re-valued upward and the franc de-valued downward, in keeping with the currencies' true standing. Both governments are resisting this, but the ball game is not over yet by any means.

So the big rush was for speculators on the international money markets to exchange their holdings of francs into marks. Also, francs were being converted into gold.

And a lot of the francs and gold flowing out of france into West Germany came from French citizens. Not speculators or money merchants, but just plains, ordinary-- though wealthy--french businessmen.

France has a history of financial instability and severe taxation, going back to the days of the monarchy. And it has produced a financial mentality that tend to hoarding--keeping enormous sums of money out of production and circulation. If the government should fall--as it has frequently in France--or the Franc de-valued, then the money is available to help the individual citizen ride out the crisis.

After last spring's upheaval, the government extended easy credit terms to french businessmen. It was supposed to help them fight the wage-and-price spiral set off by the large wage increases granted to help quell the near-revolution.

TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli warplanes attacked Iraqi artillery installations in Jordan today and one jet did not return from the 90-minute raid, the Israeli Army announced.

It was the third Israeli air attack on Jordanian territory this week and the first in which any Israeli losses were reported.

The pilot of the French-made Super Mystere fighter-bomber parachuted into Jordan "But we managed to get him out," an Israeli spokesman reported.

He said the Iraqi artillery emplacements attacked were east and west of the Jordanian town of Irbid.

The air strike started at noon and the army said it ended at 1:30 p.m.

SAIGON (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu said today that the South Vietnamese delegation to the Paris peace talks will be in the French capital on Saturday.

Thieu told newsmen meetings will be held in Paris next week to deal with the complex procedural questions prior to the opening of full-scale peace talks.

Asked how long he thought the talks would last, he said he could not guess.

"One cannot predict if the enemy will have good will," he added.

By MICHAEL ROBINSON Associated Press Writer CHICAGO (AP) — The Walker report, which termed street violence during the Democratic National Convention "a police riot," was turned out in 53 days and nights of interviewing and writing by a staff of 212 persons, mostly volunteers.

Daniel Walker, an attorney for Montgomery Ward & Co. and head of the Chicago Crime Commission, was named on Sept. 26 to form a committee to investigate. His selection was announced by Dr. Milton Eisenhower, chairman of the National Commission on Causes and Prevention of Violence.

The following day Walker began selecting his staff. All members were personally selected by him, he said.

"The real leaders" of the staff, Walker stated in a preface to the report, were the assistant directors and team directors.

To those posts he appointed a foundation director, a professional crime investigator, a freelance writer, four bank executives, five lawyers and one corporation executive.

Almost immediately the staff moved into an office suite in Chicago's federal building. A large central room in the suite was subdivided into cubicles for interviews. Each cubicle was equipped with a desk, telephone, and a tape recorder.

Austin--Texas land commissioner Jerry Sadler says that a total of two (M) Million 197,315 dollars was paid today for oil and gas leases on state school lands in Texas.

Sadler said the school land board leased 49,868 acres at an average price of 44 dollars an acre.

The high bidder was Atlantic Richfield, with a bid of 186,782 dollars on 1,440 acres in the Gulf of Mexico off Jefferson County. The same firm also submitted the second highest bid--149,818 dollars for another 1,440-acre tract, also in Jefferson County.

Operation Christmas Card will be sponsored again this year by the Plains Dirt Gardeners.

A Christmas Card page will be published in the Yoakum County Constitution Review.

Contributions and names will be received by Mmes. Robert Young, Wilson Duke, Bill Overton, Foy Cogburn and other members of the club.

All proceeds after price of the page ad will go for the beautification of the Plains Cemetery.

By GEORGE ESPER Associated Press Writer SAIGON (AP) — An estimated 400 North Vietnamese troops, lying in wait in thick jungle, attacked 150 probing U.S. air cavalrymen near the Cambodian border north of Saigon Tuesday and killed or wounded more than half of them.

Twenty-five of the American troops were killed and 52 wounded. It was the heaviest casualty toll suffered by the elite 1st Air Cavalry Division in a single battle this year.

North Vietnamese casualties were not known, but one Air Cav officer said: "We brought in a hell of a lot of stuff--artillery, rockets and bombers--on the enemy troops. We feel they took a heavy beating, but we don't know."

The officer said rockets fired by the Air Cav helicopter gunships within 40 yards of the besieged American troops apparently touched off a fierce grass fire that may have been responsible for some of the American casualties. He said at least two bodies were burned so badly identification was difficult, but the men may have been dead before the fire.

Austin--The State secretary of the Texas AFL-CIO says that a minimum wage bill to be proposed by Senator Joe Bernal of San Antonio and representative Lauro Cruz of Huston will primarily benefit women.

Roy Evans told a committee of legislators and laymen today in Austin that the two lawmakers plan to introduce a minimum wage bill setting the wage floor at one-dollar and 30 cents.

Evans said women would be the primary beneficiaries and minority groups would be second.

Evans told the committee that public surveys indicate a chance in what he called the "low wage philosophy of Texas." He said the march of Rio Grande Valley farm workers in 1965 changed public attitudes more than any one thing.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Imposing troubles await the Nixon administration in the nation's cities.

The new administration is pledged to reduce urban crime and federal spending but a complex tangle of social forces could keep it from both goals.

The population is booming. More than 115 million additional urban Americans are expected before the turn of the century. The numbers alone threaten a housing crisis and the acceleration of the unplanned sprawl jutting out from virtually every major city.

The nation's urban mayors say they need at least $26 billion more a year to help close the gap between necessary public services and the revenues available to pay for them.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N. M., says he "protested immediately" the proposed Department of Interior increases in livestock grazing fees on federal land when they were announced last month. He said he expects hearings on the proposed increases will begin in January by the Senate Interior Committee.

LOCAL VIEWPOINT OF NATIONAL EVENTS

by John A. McConnell

It's sort of hard to write about truth and fact when both of them are obscured and twisted to fit the fancy of huge political factions and bosses. Now it is no doubt true that there was considerable police brutality in the case of the great Democratic debacle at Chicago. On the other hand we need some facts regarding why "The Mighty Mayor" is being so gloriously exonerated at the expense of his own forces.

The government investigating committee exposed the very inescapable fact that there was police brutality. But where are the truths telling why it all had to happen in the first place? Why did Mayor Daley withhold his forces and permit the assembly of ten thousand souls when he had been thoroughly informed of their intent? With all the unrest that existed in Chicago and known throughout the land-

why did the Democratic planning board in Washington proceed to Chicago for the convention?

It is incredible to believe that with a force of 25,000 police, National Guard and Federal troops that the mayor boasted of having, that 10,000 civilians could not have been dispelled without the riotous melee that ensued, or even prevented from assembling.

Without facts to prove otherwise, it will be assumed that both the "Mighty Mayor" and the Democratic Party had to have a riot on the streets to distract attention from the high-handed and messey method to be carried on inside the convention hall.

Mayor Daley had his connived riot and the Democrats pulled off their Washington-Planned Convention, but it appears to have backfired. It so nauseated the general public that even the report of the recent exonerating committee- like the Warren Committee report- will always remain in doubt.

Let's hope, though the case is whitewashed, there will never be another presidential nomination by a party convention. Let the voters select their own candidates.

H. G. McDonnell of the local highway department came by for a moment Tuesday morning and left an editorial for us to read. We would like to share it with you now. The article comes from the November issue Texas Highways and reads thus:

How often have you heard a motorist blame his accident on the highway?

Complaints often go something like this: "It's too narrow. The curve is too sharp. Too slick. It's too something. Poorly engineered, or worse."

The lead story in this issue deals with the Highway Department's collection and dissemination of accident data on our highways. Accident information is important in analyzing a section of highway and in helping to determine if the problem can be corrected by engineering. But analyzing accident reports does not always provide the answers.

Whatever the causes of accidents, most often the driver knows HE'S not to blame.

But the book of Street and Highway Accident Data published by the Travelers Insurance Companies buries the explanations and excuses under a mass of statistics.

"The principal cause of accidents," it says, "is the person most able to avoid them, the man behind the wheel."

Safety belts, superhighways, mechanical improvements in auto design, padded instrument panels, buckling steering columns, and stiffer license requirements mean little if the driver ignores warning signs and the rules of the road.

But the finger of statistics is not pointed at the engineer, says the book. It's pointed at you, the driver.

"You, who drove your mechanically perfect car in good weather on a straight road--too fast.

"You, who passed on hills and curves.

"You, who drove after drinking.

"You, who violated the rules of the road and failed to yield the right of way.

"You who handed over to your teen-aged sons and daughters the controls of a hurtling ton of steel propelled by 300 horses without giving them a realistic understanding of the forces they were attempting to handle.

"You, who drove too long without rest."

The Book concludes:

"Like the fool who plays Russian Roulette with a six-shooter, the man behind the wheel needs nothing more than his own will-power to avoid the horrible consequences of his action.

"For the best of automobile and highway design, like the best of the gunmaker's art, is of no avail if the weapon--be it auto or revolver--is wielded by a reckless and careless person and if the obvious rules of common sense are blithely ignored by the chance taker."

NY Private Schools Report Applications

NEW YORK (AP) — Private and parochial schools here are reporting an avalanche of applications for next year from families who appear to be anticipating the teacher strike becoming a perennial happening.

"I found it profoundly depressing—the lack of faith in the public school system," said Russell Ames, admissions officer at the Riverdale Country School for Boys in the Bronx.

Ames said applications for Riverdale were up 75 per cent over any previous year in the school's 61-year history.

For example, he said that with only half the applications in now, there are 100 applications for 15 openings in the school's fifth grade, which has a $3,000 tuition.

Ames said he was astounded to have families who have never had members attend private schools coming to him and explaining, "We're going into hock... we're going to work nights" to pay the school's fees.

Questions Arise
After 1968 Harvest

Now that much of the good crop of 1968 is harvested many conservation farmers are thinking of another crop year. One of the first things that comes to mind is what do I need to do now, should I plow and if so what with. Maybe we should be thinking also about what plowing will do now and later on, it can create a problem you know. On the south plains there are few if any weeds that get soil moisture in the winter time. The sandy soil that covers most of the area does not need aeration so our soil scientists tell us like the heavy soils north and east of us do. It is true that most of our soils when wet will let even the smallest roots penetrate therefore plowing to loosen the soil is not of the greatest importance especially in the winter time when crops are not growing. What then should our job be this time of the year? If plowing just must be done we suggest that some type of chisel plow be used that will leave all of the crop residue on the surface for wind protection and moisture conservation. As much as four inches of top soil and one and one half inches of moisture can be saved in one winter by leaving the residue on the land. There has been some Great Plains Conservation Program funds released and there will be some new Great Plains Contract written in the next 90 days. High priority will be given to planting cropland to grass, brush control with some funds for irrigation practices. If you are interested in this kind of conservation on your farm or ranch please call at the SCS office in Plains and we will be glad to assist you.

Feedlot Group Working On Plans

A steering committee for the proposed feedlot project in and around the Brownfield area was appointed recently when those who had indicated an interest in the project by signing up at the banks and Production Credit Association in Brownfield.

Members of this committee include Thuman Skains, Woody Swaringen, L. J. Richardson, Hershel Lowe, W. L. Beaty, H. L. King, John Ball, Earl Brown, Jr., Punch Nelson, Ken Muldrow, Jimmie Sherrin, Dr. Tim Faulkenberry and M. R. Paddock.

This group will work toward increasing the pledges to the total of $250,000 which will be needed to begin the project.

At present pledges amounting to $76,500 have been received toward the development of a feed lot in the area. Ones in the Yoakum County area interested in the project may find pledge sheets in the Plains State Bank or contact one of the steering committee.

Dec. 17 has been set as a tentative date for the committee to make a report to the public on the project.

The steering committee will also be responsible for the by-laws of the organization and the duties pertainate to the development of the corporation.

Cairo Discusses Cemetery 'City'

CAIRO (AP) — Modern life is slowly creeping into the centuries-old "city of the dead" on the eastern outskirts of Cairo. The development has once again evoked sharp criticism from many orthodox Moslems but chances are nothing will ever be done about it. The "city" is a neat cluster of villas, many of them with gardens, extending over more than 2,000 acres — which serve as Cairo's main cemetery. To thousands of families it is home, livelihood and even birthplace.

The city of the dead was built in the middle of the 9th century by Moslem princes. It was set aside as a cemetery. Families with burial plots there recruited guards and attendants to care for the graves, and provided housing for the guards at the spot.

Over the centuries, this developed into an actual neighborhood. Wealthier families erected villas with colorful decoration and ornate domes and minarets. Less well-to-do families built more modest houses. These were to serve the families when they visit the graves, but there were also homes for the attendants and guards and their families.

As the number of guards and attendants and their families increased, primary schools were constructed in the cemetery for children of the guards. Small business developed, too, until today the

Varsity Falls To Indians

By PHIL R. PEARSON
The Cowboy cagers were scalped by the Morton Indians in their second contest Tuesday night, by a score of 67-53, on Morton's home court. The local lads had their troubles throughout the evening in the way of ten bad passes, seven walks, five fumbles, and their failure to capitalize at the free throw line. As far as percentages go, the Cowboys did a good job. They hit 22 of 44 field goals for 50 percent, and 41 percent on 9 of 21 free throws.

The team fouled 20 times. A total of two offensive rebounds

Morton Takes Win Over Denver City

By PHIL R. PEARSON
The Morton "B" team was victorious over the Plains "B" team Tuesday night in Morton. Simpson hit four field goals and eight free throws for 16 points and high point honors. Kerby had 6, Moore 5, Fisher 4, and Barnett 2. They hit 12 of 27 for 44 percent on free throws, and committed 15 fouls.

The Indians had two men with 16 points each, Brian and Marina. Lewis scored 8, Patton 7, Crockett and Baker 2 each, and Turney 1. They attempted 21 and hit 10 for 48 percent from the free throw line. They fouled 21 times.

and 24 defensive rebounds were grabbed from the boards.

Bobby Kennedy was the lone Cowboy to register in double figures, with 11 points. Looney was next with 9, Lowe 7, Massey, Taylor, Hains, and Randle 6 each, and Loe 2.

The Morton squad hit a smaller percentage of field goals, 25 of 71 for 35 percent, but they hit 3 more than did the Cowboys. They netted 15 of 27 for 56 percent from the charity stripe, six more than Plains Thompson, Hawkins, and Coffman scored in double figures for the Indians with 24, 10, and 15 respectively. Enbig hit for 6, Holland 5, Solly 4, and Lewis 3. The Indians fouled a total of 18 times.

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — Gary Tucker of Carlsbad continued his hot streak on the bareback broncs Tuesday night, and Billy Hale of Checotah, Okla., took the lead in steer wrestling after the fourth go-round of the National Finals Rodeo.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) The box was labeled "free sample."

A warning said, "Rush. Keep Warm. Cool." A suspicious rustling sound came from inside.

On closer inspection, the 12-inch square box turned out to contain thousands of crickets.

They were offered as a free sample for the Rio Grande Zoo by a cricket farm, in Louisiana.

Zoo Director Bruce Stringer said the crickets would be fed to snakes and monkeys.

Mustangs Stomp Cowboys

The Cowboy Varsity cagers lost their third contest in as many games by a score 70-39 to the Denver City Mustangs Tuesday evening in Cowboy gym. As in their previous games, the plains Varsity had their problems. They only hit 12 of 52 for 24% on field goals, but netted 58% on 15 of 26 free throws. The Cowboys lost the ball via fumbles 12 times, bad passes 11 times and double dribbles 4 times. They pulled six offensive rebounds, four more than against Morton, and 18 defensive rebounds from the boards. Seventeen fouls were called against the Cowboys.

Scoring were Haines, 2, Massey and Randall 5 each, Taylor and Looney 6 each and Lowe 7, and Kennedy 8 points. Loe played but did not score.

The visiting Mustangs had a much better night than did their adversaries. Four men scored in double figures for Denver City. Hubbard 13, McKinney 12, Cox 11, and Taylor 10 points. Russell hit 7, McKee 5, Richardson and Emler 4 each, Yarbrough 3, and 2 for Looney. They hit 24 of 68 for 35% on field goals, and 50% on 13 of 26 free throws. They fouled 21 times during the game.

The Cowboys next game will be December 9 with Tahoka, in Cowboy Gym.

Trail Ends At Snyder

PHIL PEARSON
The Denver City Mustangs brought their 1968-69 football season to a close in Snyder Friday night, losing by a score of 25-2 to the Iowa Park Eagles.

The loss of Denver City's fullback, John Powell, with a bruised thigh, and the slowing down of halfback Robert Hernandez by the flu bug handicapped the Mustangs considerably.

Both squads fought hard throughout the first quarter, but neither could score. In the waning minutes of period one the Hawks started a 74 yard drive that would eventually terminate in the end zone. The first stanza ended before paydirt could be reached, so the Big Green continued as play resumed in the second quarter. From four yards, halfback Jeff McDonald scampered into the end zone. Iowa Park attempted a two point conversion on a fake kick, but failed. Later in that same period, following a Denver City fumble, the Hawks struck again. This time McDonald scored from 12 yards out.

In the third period Denver City got on the scoreboard via a safety. Iowa Park took possession on their own two foot line after Denver City was unable to push the ball across the stripe. On the first play from scrimmage the ball carrier was hit behind the goal line by Mustangs Jimmy McKee and Dave Emler.

The Mustangs attempted to relieve a fourth and four predicament with a pass, but the gamble failed and Iowa Park controlled the ball once more. Steve Watson stormed to the end zone from seven yards to stretch the Hawk lead to 16 points.

The last touchdown of the game came in the fourth stanza, followed an interception by Hawk Jim Clapp. Steve Barry scored the six pointer on a four yard gallop. Iowa Park received a delay of game penalty, and the ball was moved to the 8-yard line. Jerry Pittman kicked the extra point.

The final score read 25-2 in favor of Iowa Park.

DETROIT (AP) The Stroh's team of Detroit is the oldest continuously sponsored bowling team in the country. They were organized in 1933 and the following spring they won the ABC title in Peoria, Ill.

"B" Team Whips Plains

The Denver City Mustang "B" team romped on the Plains "B" 61-30 in Cowboy gym Tuesday. None of the younger Plains roundballers scored in double figures, while three Colts, Marion and Crawford had 13 each, and Self hit for 11 points. Clinton hit for 8, Carson 6, Smith and Hardin 4 each, and Moose 1 point. Hill, Trantham, and Yarout played but failed to score. The Colts fouled 21 times and hit 7 of 20 for 35% on free throws. They hit 27 field goals.

Scoring for Plains were Fisher 4, Rains 5, Moore 3, Kerby 4, Simpson 4, Cox 1, Flores 1, Barnett 6, and 2 for Livesay. Crooks did not score. The Cowboys hit only 10 field goals, and hit 34% on 10 of 29 free throws, while fouling 14 times.

MRS. BOB COMOLLI

Nancy Tippet Weds Bob Comolli Friday

Miss Nancy Tippet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Tippet of Plains, and Mr. Bob Comolli, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Comolli of Sweetwater, Texas, were married at 6 p.m. on Friday, November 29, at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of members of the two families.

The ceremony was held in front of an improvised altar formed by a large center pyramid arrangement of yellow and cream colored Fuji chrysanthemums and cascades of small blossoms. This was flanked on either side by wrought iron floor candelabra in cathedral arrangements. They were decorated with greenery and small yellow chrysanthemums, and held honey gold tapers. Floor palms completed the decor.

The bride wore a floor length gown of ivory saki and guipure lace made in a princess silhouette with a bateau neckline. Twin panels accented with a tailored bow and streamers fell from the back shoulder line. Fabric blossoms and pom poms caught a fingertip veil of silk illusion. The bride's bouquet of white butterfly roses, stephanotis, polished ivy leaves, and white satin ribbon fell in a shower arrangement from the white bible which she carried. The bible came from Jerusalem and has traditionally been carried by the brides in her mother's family.

Miss Tippet was attended by Mrs. William Vance of Clinton, Oklahoma. Her floor length gown was made of yellow crepe and embroidered daisy lace. The empire bodice featured a yoke and elbow length sleeves accented by the lace. A back panel centered by a row of daisies was caught by a soft crepe bow. She carried a cascade bouquet of small pom chrysanthemums and yellow roses tied with velvet ribbon. Her headpiece was of yellow illusion caught with matching flowers.

Grace Van Tine, cousin of the bride, and Jan Comolli, sister of the groom, served as candlelighters. Their empire style champagne gold crepe gowns were accented by matching velvet ribbon at the bust line. They wore wristlets of small yellow chrysanthemums.

The best man was Kent Comolli, the groom's brother. James Tippet, brother of the bride, and John Rhodes of Lubbock served as ushers.

Bob Reynolds of Levelland officiated. Royace Aikin, accompanied by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Carl K. Potter of Fort Worth, Texas, sang "Because", and "The Prayer Perfect."

The bride's mother wore a blue ribbon-knit dress accented by a corsage of pale coral tone orchids. The groom's mother wore an ivory pebble crepe dress and yellow orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a buffet supper was served at the Yoc-Mrs. Eurith Comolli, the bride's table was centered by a tall brass candelabra with crystal prisms holding crystal votives. It rose in a pyramid arrangement from a base of Fuji chrysanthemums and miniature carnations and gold foliage.

West Texas Weather Comparison Made

As the autumn proceeds into the fringes of winter and the first frost appears and the chill winds blow, we hear the predictions of a hard winter and the comparisons of this season with that of previous years. Somehow this year's signs appear to be earlier than the year before and it is not until we have consulted the Weather chart do we know that we are moving along on the usual pattern with little deviation.

A few facts from the local official weather station may prove interesting. Let us take into consideration that these facts are taken from only one point of observation centrally located in the county and do not relate the conditions of any particular community other than that of the observer. However, taken over a period of years they pretty well reveal the general weather conditions for the entire county. At least this is the opinion of the United States Weather Bureau.

For a comparison of November, 1967 and November 1968, may we look at the following data:

For 1967: high 83 degree, high average 61.5 degrees; low 21 degrees, low average 30.6 degrees 9 cloudy days, 5 days rain occurred for a .32" precipitation; no snow. Warmest day-27th, coldest day-4th.

For 1968: high-82 degrees high average-60.6 degrees; low 21 degrees, low average 30.6; 18 cloudy days, 8 days moisture fell for 1.87" precipitation; snow fell on 5 days, hail on 1 day. Total snow fall-4". The first day of the month was the warmest while the 11th was the coldest. The first snow fell on the 8th day of the month. The first frost recorded for 1967 was October the 16th. The first ice recorded for 1967 was October the 27th.

For 1968, the first frost recorded-October the 17th, and the first ice recorded was on the 18th.

For those who felt they had suffered through the coldest November in years, it should be comforting to know that the average this year was nearly 3 degrees warmer than last year, and the low temperature was the same. However, the precipitation was much more favorable. Each month had some moisture: July was first with 4.10", while September was low with .15". The total precipitation for the first 11 months is 18.31". This is nearly two inches above the average per year in Yoakum County.
