where many war dead are buried. The long established and well respected Tsa Mo Ga Study Club which is well known for its patriotism and civic pride, hastily organized the membership for a gathering at the county courthouse at 5 p. m. With unfurled flags and posters expressing support for the President of the United States, they marched around the courthouse square singing patriotic songs as they marched in protest to the Viet Nam Moratorium.

Due to the short time available for the organizing of the parade, little publicity was given to this affair and few spectators were present to view this fine expression of patriotism and loyalty to the United States government.

The day was a quiet one in this patriotic little city as the citizens solemnly expressed their loyalty to their government by quietly flying the American flag and the parade about the square.

No support was evidenced in any way for the Viet Nam moratorium. Otherwise, the day passed without incident in the City of Plains.

COWBOYS LOSE AT SEAGRAVES

The Plains Cowboys took a shellacking on the score board last Friday night as they helped Seagraves to dedicate their new stadium. The final score was Seagraves-52; Plains-6. While a losing score is always discouraging no one who watched the game could have been discouraged with the manner in which the game was played, nor the courage displayed by the Cowboys right up to and including the last play.

Due to many injuries suffered by the Cowboys this season they entered the game under severe handicap. With three regulars out of the game it was necessary for Coach Warren to re-organize his squad and call upon the Freshman team for reserves. These Freshmen played a great game and will continue to do so throughout the season, but it is always hard on morale and shaking to the confidence of a team when such changes are required under such stringent circumstances as prevailed last week. Seagraves is rated as the number one team in the state in the class "A" category. With a well experienced and well matured group of seniors and juniors having a reported average weight of 189 pounds, they were a rather formidable opponent for the inexperienced Cowboys. Nevertheless the Cowboys waded into the Eagles with great courage and skillfully carried the ball to a scoring position without hesitation, where they suffered an intercepted pass that could well have resulted in the first score of the game. Instead, the interception resulted in a long run by the Eagles and from there on a quick progression to the first touchdown. The Eagles ran the ball for the extra 2 points.

While the game was Seagraves game from the first touchdown, it was never a walk-away. Plains played a fine defensive game. Time and again they stopped the Eagles, when the outlook appeared impossible. Plains suffered a great loss when Tony Chandler was forced to retire from the game by a serious knee injury early in the second quarter. In spite of this setback and facing a discouraging score board, the Cowboys displayed a courageous comeback and with only two minutes and forty-four seconds left in the first half, Ace Hamm returned the kick-off to the 39 yard line. From here the young freshman quarterback, Joey Lowe, with skillful passing and excellent support from every player on the team, ingeniously engineered his boys again into scoring position where John Lowe carried the ball over the line for Plains first and only score of the game.

The Plains Cowboys made many outstanding plays and furnished the fans with much excitement as they battled the mighty Eagles throughout the game. To extol anyone for this game is impossible, for the success of each play was dependant upon the complete cooperation of every man on the team. This was plainly and nobly evidenced at every turn.

To put it in the words of Coach Warren, "They played a great game. They played their best game of the season. I was very well pleased with these boys".

Gary Livesay playing halfback for his first time threw the crowds of spectators into pandemonium when in the last moments of the game he returned the kick off to Seagraves 30 yard line, and it appeared he would make the break through for a final TD, but when he turned in to escape two huge Eagles, he was captured from the rear by another. It was a great run.

A few of the facts of the game are as follows: John Lowe carried the ball 30 times for 120 yards; Gary Livesay carried 10 times for 37 yards; Louis Howard carried 6 times for 35 yards; and Joey Lowe completed 8 out of 13 passes for 100 yards.

Shelley Simpson played end for his first time. He received two of the passes which appeared all but impossible. John Lowe received three which resulted in fine gains. These Lowe brothers as a combination will be something to watch as the season progresses.

orge's 66 Station and continued until the truck came to a stop at the intersection west of Alma's.

HOMECOMING GAME PROMISING

In summing up the prospects for the Homecoming game this Saturday with Wink, Coach Warren expressed great confidence in the Cowboys' ability to win this game. The reorganizing of the team has worked out exceedingly well and the coach undoubtedly discovered talents in his boys which had not previously been shown.

In shifting Livesay to halfback, he has been able to demonstrate a greater ability to carry the ball. As Warren expressed it, he is a fine broken field runner. Simpson at end shows ability to get in the open for pass reception and hold onto the ball when he receives it. Lowe at quarterback is a fine passer and is accurate. Newsom coming in at center not only delivers the ball well, but tenaciously defends his position from intrusion by his opponent.

With the fine cooperation that he has from his team Coach Warren will have much more maneuverability of his players and as his regulars overcome their injuries and return to the ranks the coach will have some fine reserves on hand. The new discoveries can add much to the flexibility of this team and add much to the confidence of the coach as well as each of the players.

At this time it is quite probable that Tony Chandler will be in the game Saturday. Brantley is well on the way to recovery from his injury at Sundown. Though he may not be back for the Wink contest it is expected that he will be in the game with Coahoma. Moore is still having difficulty with his knee and his return is indefinite at this time.

Fortunately, no surgery has been required in any of the cases of injury this season. Wink's win over O'Donnell last week indicates a tough game here this week. They are reported to have some beef in their line with two 200 pound tackles on the lineup.

As Plains moves into the homecoming week there is a great spirit of confidence being

RALPH TOWNES ADDRESSES PLAINS LIONS CLUB

In addition to the tasty turkey and dressing dinner, the Plains Lions Club was entertained by a very interesting historical review of the origin and development of the barbed wire industry. The club was addressed by Mr. Ralph Townes, secretary of the City of Denver City. Mr. Townes displayed his collection of samples of barbed wire which consisted of virtually every type of barbed wire cleverly mounted on two large boards, each approximately 2 1/2 feet wide and standing nearly 4 feet high with a black background and framed with Manila rope, which created a distinctive atmosphere for his fine collection.

Mr. Townes brought an interesting history of the types of fencing and their needs which utilized the natural resources such as rocks, rails, and thorny hedges. None of these were in sufficient supply for the demand of fencing in the development of the treeless plains of the West. Due to the lack of these supplies, barbed wire was developed.

Mr. Townes is very well informed in the history of barbed wire. In his address, he brought the names of the first inventors and dates of their patent and a very interesting history of each of the founders of the barbed wire industry. In connection with much history in the development of West Texas, including the founding of some of the great ranches and their contributions in the development of Texas, including the building of the present State capitol.

Mr. Townes' history showed the barbed wire industry to have enjoyed a spectacular progress from its first founding in 1860 until 1950, when the industry manufactured and sold 482,000,000 pounds of barbed wire in the United States.

The old XIT ranch alone at one time had 1500 miles of barbed wire fences. He related that during the years since the first patent, 1500 different varieties of barbed wire have been developed and 600 patents have been granted. Many of these varieties are displayed in Mr. Townes' extensive collection.

Mr. Townes' hobby is one of the unique aspects of the search for antiques and artifacts.

HIGHWAY BLOCKED BY EARLY MORNING ACCIDENT

The west edge of Plains experienced a hay shower when O. R. Parker of Hagerman, New Mexico, entered the west limits of the city with a large load of hay and applied his brakes for a stop at Alma's Restaurant. As the brakes were applied, the load ropes were severed and the hay started unloading at the south side of Ge-

OUTLOOK IMPROVED

The outlook of THE PLAINS REVIEW was pleasantly improved last week. As we looked from the window we noted a change of the landscape and when we stepped out to investigate, we found Donald Bookout with his park equipment busily engaged in shredding the weeds along the bar ditches in our block.

Further investigation revealed that in addition to having his park in fine condition, Donald had been engaged in shredding and cleaning up the bar ditches over the west part of the city. In addition to preparing the streets for winter, this effort contributes to the appearance of cleanliness and neatness.

Donald's efforts could well afford the inspiration for a fall shredding of all the vacant lots within the city. This certainly would enhance the appearance of Plains, reducing fire hazards and leave an air of progress throughout the city. A shaggy looking town promotes a rather shaggy feeling. Nothing could add more to the pride of the citizens of Plains than to see all vacant lots shredded and cleared of weeds and trash, before the winter season starts in. Pride is contagious, let's keep the cleanup spirit moving.

The City of Plains announced that the new water pump ordered several weeks ago was installed in their number one well this week. Though the old pump which had served for eleven years was removed and overhauled, it did not perform at the proper rate of efficiency required and the installation of the new pump became necessary.

The water mains were flushed last week and much of the sediment which had accrued from the recent reservoir repair and the dissolving of mineral accumulations in the lines from the hard water of passed years was flushed out. The effects of the fresh water on the accumulated deposit are now being felt. As lime coatings are dissolved, leaks in the plumbing appear. All of this has been anticipated, but is rather frustrating as it takes place. With all of the new improvements completed and the flushing of the lines continuing the flavor of the tap water will soon be improved and aside from some plumbing difficulties, Plains will be enjoying the blessings of good soft water which has been so cherished in the past.

It was a bit embarrassing one morning this week when the paper lady delivering the paper on foot asked to use the telephone to call her husband to pull her car out of our driveway. The heavy 3 inch rain had washed a ditch that was impassible, and I had not informed her of the passage we use under such conditions. However, the paper folks are to be commended for the new water proof covering they use when delivering the paper on rainy mornings. It is quite comforting to receive the dry paper on rainy days.

The reporting of the patriotic activities in Plains last week by the Denver City Press was very commendable. Barney Thompson, who is a fine patriotic citizen himself, is also a fine well experienced reporter. His article was of the finest journalistic quality and deserving of wide recognition. A fine article on Patriotism by Bruce Zorn, president of the Brownfield State Bank and Trust appeared in the Brownfield News last Sunday. The 'Great Moritorium' was a flop on the High Plains and a great many BIG NAMES will become quite well aware of the fact when next election rolls around.

"Every man is the builder of a temple, called his body."
Henry David Thoreau

Visitors in the home of Mrs. Sallie Forrest Saturday and Sunday were her children, Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Forrest, recently from Ohio but now living in Dallas; Sallie Lynn Forrest of Dallas; Mrs. James W. Glover of Lubbock, and the T.J. Miller family of Plains.

Mrs. Forrest said, "I am so happy Harold has moved back to Texas." Mrs. Forrest's voice was still bubbling with joy that her children were home when she called me about the visit. Doesn't it give one a happy feeling to hear joy in another's voice or to see happiness in another's face?

Mrs. Harold Forrest is a native Ohioan and it is hoped that she will like our State of Texas well enough to always be happy to make it her home.

"Rain, rain, go away, come again some other day," is the song our farmers are singing at this time. Perhaps the word 'singing' is not the proper word as many are looking down their noses. Some farmers say that it will not hurt the cotton too much as long as it rains gently, but others say that it will cut down the grade of the cotton considerably. Almost every time we have a hurricane in the Gulf of Mexico, there is rain in West Texas.

It is time that those persons who seem to make an occupation out of finding fault with our schools, our religions, our government, and most other things considered by them to be 'square stop to pause for a moment and ask themselves what better system they have to replace the one they are attempting to destroy. For anyone who has traveled to other countries while in the armed forces or otherwise, it is apparent that the United States has done more to assist the poverty-stricken than any other nation. Our country and its government may not be perfect, but maybe it's time for those who disagree with it so violently to purchase a one-way ticket to another country.

It is a funny thing about life - if you refuse to accept anything but the best, you very often get it.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Plains Chamber of Commerce met Wednesday at Alma's for their regular meeting. Roy Edwards was appointed as Chamber of Commerce Representative for the annual Santa Day program.
Cordell Huddleston was appointed chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Banquet committee. There will be a Citizen of the Year award presented. Don Williams reported that at the recent NFO barbecue there were 297 present and that the organization now has 40 members.
P. W. St. Romain gave a report on the phone lines being laid in the community. He stated that the Romain Lines will soon be laid to the connecting points with the General Lines in anticipation of the when Plains can call Denver City without a toll charge.

DOZING DRIVERS ARE A MENACE
"The trouble with falling asleep at the wheel is that you may never wake up," Paul Graham, President, Texas Motor Transportation Association, warned today as he cited drowsiness as a special menace to highway safety.
"Since the development of the Interstate Highway System and other freeways, drowsiness has become a special problem," Graham said. "With few intersections, little oncoming traffic and no bill boards to distract him, it is easy for the driver to become bored -- and then sleepy. And that is very dangerous."
Anyone who expects to be behind the wheel for any length of time should, above all, be well-rested before starting out, Graham said. "The tired

BUTTERFLIES AND CLEAN AIR -- Governor Preston Smith displays a butterfly perched on his finger to two curious young friends, Karen Lynn Cole (center) and Carren Weir. The butterfly has been chosen as a symbol of Clean Air, and Governor Smith brought the importance of Clean Air to the attention of all Texans by proclaiming Clean Air Week October 19-25. Grandfathers of Karen Lynn and Carren are Senators Criss Cole of Houston and Charles Herring of Austin, who led in legislative efforts against air pollution. Clean Air Week in Texas is jointly sponsored by the Texas Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, the Texas Medical Association, the Texas Air Control Board, and the Air Pollution Control Association.

C. for young people, male or female, who are at least sixteen years of age, United States citizens, high school graduates, and able to pass a rigid investigation of loyalty, reputation, and character. No previous experience is required. Qualified applicants are being sought for the position of clerk, fingerprint clerk, typist, and stenographer.
The entrance salary for a clerk is $4,360 (GS-2) per year, with a raise in 90 days to $4,917 (GS-3) per year, if their work is found satisfactory. Only a twenty word spelling test is required for clerk applicants.

Applicants for the clerk position are considered for the fingerprint clerk position which starts at $4,917 (GS-3) per year. Those individuals found acceptable for the fingerprint clerk position and who progress satisfactorily in such position are considered for promotion to $5,522 (GS-4) per year after six months and to $6,176 (GS-5) per year after one year in fingerprint work and to $6,882 (GS-6) per year one year later. married couples apply at the same time and are found acceptable, every effort is made to afford them appointments at the same time.
The FBI does not come under Civil Service in that the FBI has its own application form, tests, investigates and hires its own employees rather than drawing them from a Civil Service list or register.
Completed applications should be sent to the Special Agent in Charge, FBI, 200 Mercantile Continental Building, Dallas, Texas, 75201, telephone 741-1851, as soon as possible as processing of such applications is in progress.

Sudie Thompson CHDA Says...

Where would Halloween be without the apple? This luscious fruit is as vital to the celebration as witches, broomsticks and jack-o-lanterns.

Apples for dunking are traditional at most Halloween parties.

In Scotland, apples and a siphon were put into a tub of water. Anyone who succeeded in extracting either of them with his mouth, without using his teeth, or in pinning one of the apples with a fork, was destined to have a lucky year.

You can be sure 1969 is a lucky year for apple lovers. The current crop is the largest in 10 years.

Apples offer more than dunking for Halloween parties. They provide tasty snacks to make your gathering a real success. Supplies of all kinds of apples are plentiful. You will find them the perfect solution to easy out-of-hand munching.

For Caramel Apples, combine a one-pound package of diary caramels and 3 tablespoons hot water in top of double boiler. Cook over boiling water, stirring frequently until caramels melt into a smooth sauce.

Wash 6 red apples, remove stems and insert a wooden skewer into each apple part way into stem end. Remove sauce from heat and tilt pan. Holding each apple by the skewer, quickly twirl it in sauce, remove from sauce and continue twirling to allow sauce to spread smoothly. Then dip bottom and sides of apples in chopped nuts.

Place apples, skewer side up, on lightly buttered cookie sheet and refrigerate until serving time.

APPLE CANAPES
1/2 cup cream-style cottage cheese
1/2 cup unpared apples, finely chopped
Crackers
Combine cottage cheese with apples and pineapple. Season to taste. Mound on crackers of various shapes. Press a tiny wedge of apple, bright side up, into each cheese mound. Makes 18 canapes.

CHOCOLATE COATED CANDIED APPLES
1 cup honey
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup water
1/4 teaspoon salt
3 tart, firm apples
Cake chocolate

Boil together the honey, sugar, water and salt for a few minutes. Wash, core and pare the apples and cut into half-moon shaped pieces about an inch thick. Drop into the syrup and cook rapidly until apples are transparent and practically all the syrup is absorbed. Lift onto waxed paper to dry.

Bread up cake chocolate (the kind made especially for dipping candies) and put into shallow dish over hot water. As soon as the chocolate begins to soften, remove from the hot water and stir the chocolate until it is all melted. Dip the pieces of apple into the melted chocolate until well coated, then place on waxed paper to dry.

BAKED APPLES. Core apples without cutting through the blossom end. Pare apples one-third of the way down. Place apples in a baking dish. Sprinkle holes lightly with salt. Add 1 tablespoon sugar to each apple. Top with butter or margarine and sprinkle sugar over pared portion of apples. Pour enough water in bottom of dish to keep apples from sticking. Bake uncovered at 400 degrees F. about one hour, or until apples are tender.

EL PASO NATURAL GAS AND ALGERIANS PLAN LNG PROJECT

NEW YORK, --Definitive agreements for the largest liquefied natural gas (LNG) project in history, involving capital expenditures of almost $1 billion and designed to ease U. S. gas supply problems, were signed by El Paso Natural Gas Company and Sonatrach, the Algerian national oil and gas company.

Under the contract, one billion cubic feet of Algerian liquefied natural gas will be imported daily into the East Coast of the United States over a 25-year period, subject to approval of governmental agencies of both countries.

This will mark the first time that energy supplies of this type have been imported into the United States on a permanent basis. The detailed contract signed today finalizes earlier agreements announced in July for the importation of Algerian gas into this country.

Howard Boyd, chairman of the board of El Paso, and Sid-Ahmed Ghozali, president of Sonatrach, told a news conference here today that initial deliveries of the gas will begin in the fall of 1973, assuming prompt governmental approvals.

Mr. Boyd and Mr. Ghozali said their two companies were "particularly pleased to be associated with this pioneering energy-supply venture, with its promise of such significant benefits to the people of the United States and Algeria." Mr. Boyd said negotiations for sale of the gas supplies are now under way with major distribution companies and pipelines serving the eastern part of the United States.

Mr. Boyd noted that a Federal Power Commission staff report issued last week said that U. S. gas supplies are declining to "critical" levels. The FPC forecast that natural gas reserves will diminish from the present level of 14.6 times annual production to 10.2 times annual production by 1973.

"Our studies indicate that this Algerian LNG can be made available shipside at eastern seaboard ports for around 50 cents per thousand cubic feet," Mr. Boyd said, "which will approximate what additional domestic gas supplies would cost if they were available."

Mr. Ghozali said the Algerian national oil and gas firm will invest approximately $600 million in a pipeline, a liquefaction plant, and related facilities in Algeria.

The liquefied natural gas will be sold to El Paso from the liquefaction plant at Arzew, a seaport in Western Algeria, for shipment to the U. S. East Coast.

A fleet of from nine to eleven specially designed ships -- costing a total of about $350 million -- will be constructed to transport the LNG. These ships, which will be the largest of their type ever built, will each have a capacity of from 600,000 to 750,000 barrels (equivalent of from 2.1 billion to 2.6 billion cubic feet of natural gas).

Sonatrach will provide two of the ships and El Paso will provide the remainder of the fleet.

In addition, regasification facilities costing about $40-

Sonatrach, with others, owns facilities in Western Algeria which since 1964 have been producing the largest quantity of LNG in the world for delivery to England and France. The Algerian firm and French interests are now building liquefaction facilities in Eastern Algeria which will have a capacity of 450 million cubic feet of gas per day.

Sonatrach is a state-owned company charged with responsibility for all Algerian oil and gas activities, including exploration, production, transportation, refining, distribution and marketing. It also has responsibility for the integration of such activities into the national economy, including involvement in the fertilizer and petrochemical industries.

El Paso Natural Gas Company is a diversified natural gas transmission firm which serves customers in 11 western states through a 21,000-mile pipeline network. In addition, it has interests in the fields of petrochemicals, plastics, synthetic fibers, textiles, agricultural chemicals, insurance, wire fabrication, oil and gas production, mining and the utilization of nuclear explosives for industrial purposes.

VETERAN'S WIDOWS ELIGIBLE

Veterans' widows were reminded today that if they have a limited income they may be eligible for a Veterans Administration pension.

Under current law, according to Jack Coker, Manager, Waco VA Regional Office, qualified widows of wartime veterans who have died of causes not related to their service are eligible if their income is no more than $2,000 if they have no children, and no more than $3,200 if they do.

If a widow does not qualify for a pension because of a higher income or because she remarries, her children may still be eligible to receive pensions.

Pensions are based on need, Coker explained. Compensation is paid to the survivors of veterans who die of service-connected causes, and the income of the survivor has no bearing on eligibility or the amount paid.

Persons seeking further information were urged to contact their nearest VA office, Coker said.

WASHINGTON AND SMALL BUSINESS

AS HEARD BY HEARD

Global IOU's

The financial leaders of the western governments are working on what is known as the International Monetary Fund.

While anything pertaining to high finance often zooms into an esoteric atmosphere, what is done in the next few weeks could have a long lasting impact on every business, both large and small.

Basically, the problem is that the world is money short.

In the era of the World War II days, it was agreed at an economic conference in Bretton Woods that the United States, would in effect, become the banker to the world. It was agreed that the dollar would be the recognized currency, and in turn the U.S. leaders at that time promised to hold the value of gold at $35 per ounce, thus promising away the sovereign right of any nation.

These discussions were all predicated on the fact that the U.S. had a stable currency in a world torn by war, backed by a substantial gold reserve. What was left out of the discussions was securing a promise that the U.S. government would pursue fiscal sanity.

But in the past few years, the moment of truth came to all the western world. Not only have government policies resulted in the depreciation of the dollar, but the U.S. gold reserves are gone. In fact, if foreign held dollars were all sent through for cashing into gold, the U.S. could not pay off.

Probably the only reason foreign dollar holdings have not been cashed in is the realization that the pound, franc, lira, et al, might not fare so well either, if the dollar was thus brought down.

And just as the housewife finds that her dollars do not buy the amount of bacon as formerly, in world trade the present dollar is not big enough to finance the volume of trade needed to meet the demands of a burgeoning world population.

So now the idea is basically one whereby the world will do without money, and instead, world trade will be financed by an elaborate system of IOU's. Complex and intricate arrangements are being devised whereby each nation will have the right, when short of cash, to turn over what amounts to promissory notes, with the amount of IOU's each nation can sign determined by a central group decision.

There is a reasonable assumption that for a time this funny money will work, just as the results of the Bretton Woods conference worked for a while. But what comes next? Does the spirit of Louis XV who once said, when faced with a French financial chaos, "After us the deluge" now dominate the entire western world? Such an arrangement will probably give the American government time to get its financial house in order. If it fails to do so during this monetary breathing period, the end result will probably be global chaos.

ionist of Plains will represent the Yoakum Soil and Water Conservation District at the 29th Annual State-Wide Meeting of Texas Soil and Water Conservation District Directors to be held in Dallas, October 21-23, 1969, at the Adolphus Hotel.

There are 935 Directors in Texas representing 187 Soil and Water Conservation Districts. Each district is a local governmental agency of the State governed by a five-man Board of elected Directors.

People scheduled to be on the program include Governor Preston Smith, Senator J.P. Word, State Representative Bill Heatly, Clyde Graham, State Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, Eugene Butler, Chairman of Board and Editor-in-Chief, PROGRESSIVE FARMER, Cynthia Brantly, State Winner, 4-H Girls' Public Speaking Contest, Tom J. Vandergriff, Mayor, City of Arlington, and Dr. J.R. Johnston, Chief, Southern Plains Branch, Agricultural Research Service.

REFERENDUM CARRIES

Texas Commissioner of Agriculture, John C. White, certified on October 13, that the grain sorghum referendum had carried with 74.1% of those voting favoring the proposition. He also certified that twelve of the nominees had been elected to the board, that is charged with the administration of the program of research and market development for grain sorghum.

The twelve men elected were: A. W. Anthony, Jr., Frionna; Melvin Barton, Dimmitt; A. R. Dillard, Hereford; John Gilbreath, Hart; Charles Heck, Jr., Nazareth; Ralph B. Mabry, Petersburg; Don Marble, South Plains; K. B. Parish, Springlake; C. C. "Pap" Reed Kress; C. P. Smith, Hale Center; E. C. Witten, Kress; and Larry Witten, Olton.

The Board was called together er on October 13, took their oath of office which was administered by State Representative Delvin Jones. The twelve will serve staggered terms with four rotating off the board every two years. Three officers were elected to serve the board. They are: K. B. Parish, Springlake - Chairman; Melvin Barton, Dimmitt - Vice Chairman and Larry Witten, Olton - Secretary-Treasurer.

The Board established as its official name Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board, (High Plains Area), and set the assessment at five cents per ton which is to begin immediately and will apply to all grain sorghum grown within the 29 county area included in the referendum. This includes seed, production and all sorghum grown for grain. The collection will be made at the point of first sale or processing.

The collection of these funds will set into motion an intensive campaign to develop new uses and markets for grain and research aimed at reducing the cost of production. GSPA Executive Director, Elbert Harp, stated that, "This is a giant step forward for the grain farmers and grain industry of West Texas and one which should add strength to markets, net income, and better production practices in the future."

The new Board moved immediately to set advisory committees in each county that is involved. Mr. Parish, TGSPB Chairman said, "This is a program for the farmers, run by the farmers, and we feel these advisory committees will play an active and important role in our administration of the research and promotion work. We are honored to be elected to this board and want to assure each grain farmer that we will use each dollar that is invested in this work to give the best possible return. Farming is the business of each member of the board and we will be working on the problems of the farmers in this 29 county area."

Harp expressed the appreciation of GSPA to the press, Texas Agriculture Extension Service, county officers, farm organizations and farmers who helped in the referendum.

But Aunt Minnie collected, the court saying the defect was not that easy to see. The judge said a guest was entitled to assume, without making an inspection, that all the rocking chairs on the porch were kept in reasonably safe condition.

In fact, this applies to all seating facilities—in hotels, restaurants, and shops—which the public is invited to use. Nor is it merely a matter of maintenance. Even the design of such facilities must take safety standards into account.

Thus, in another case, a store incurred liability by providing an ultramodern, but unstable, chair for its customers. When a woman sat on the front edge of the chair, it tilted her off to the floor.

In holding the store liable, the court denounced "new-fangled creations which are designed more to please the eye than to provide the stability one expects to find when reposing the anatomy upon a chair."

When the management pointed out that the woman was overweight, the court replied: "A large woman is as much entitled to a safe chair as a small one, and is much more in need of it."

Nevertheless, a customer cannot expect precautions that are beyond reason. Take this case: A man was trying to sit down at a bar when the stool skidded out from under him. In a damage suit afterward, he insisted that the stool should have been bolted to the floor.

But the court said the use of free-standing stools was too common a practice to be condemned as unsafe. Requiring such stools to be bolted down, said the judge, was simply asking too much.

AGRICULTURE

BRIEF

ON FEEDING LOW QUALITY FORAGES -- The use of low quality forages in the dairy ration increases grain feeding requirements and may increase the dairyman's feed cost by as much as 30 percent or even more, says A. M. Meekma, Extension dairy specialist. If the animal's nutritional requirements are not met, production may drop so sharply as to cause a serious financial bind, adds the specialist.

LIVESTOCK JUDGING CONTESTS PLANNED

by Leo L. White, CAA

A group of interested individuals met in Plains Monday evening to lay the ground work for a livestock judging contest to be held at the Livestock Exhibit Building on January 10th. The planning group consisted of Johnny Sims, vocational agriculture teacher at Denver City, Floyd Gossett, vocational agriculture teacher at Plains, three 4-H Adult Leaders, Clifford Anderson, G. W. Cleveland and Kenneth Blount, and Leo White.

It was determined that many 4-H and FFA livestock judging teams from the immediate area had to travel 200 miles or more in order to participate in a judging contest. An educational event held in the local vicinity would provide the needed experience for the teams with a minimum of travel. Those invited to participate in the contest will be the 4-H and FFA Livestock Judging Teams from Cochran, Hockley, Yoakum, Terry, Lynn, Gaines, Dawson, and Borden Counties in Texas and Lea County in New Mexico.

Approximately 150 individuals are expected to attend the one day contest that is scheduled to begin at 10:00 a. m. and be concluded by 2:00 p. m. Each team will pay an entry fee and appropriate awards will be given to the winning teams and the high point individuals.

The FFA and 4-H people involved with planning and conducting the contest are hopeful that it will result in something worthwhile and will be developed into an annual affair.

FARM BUREAU ANNUAL MEETING

The Yoakum County Farm Bureau meeting will be held Thursday, October 23rd at 8 p. m. in the District Courtroom. Five directors will be elected.

A program for the meeting will be presented by A. B. Carpenter. He will show pictures and give the highlights of the 1968 Farm Bureau tour. The tour took them through London, Japan, Thailand, Australia and many other points. Refreshments will be served. Everyone is welcome.

ASCS NEWSLETTER

by W. M. Overton, Office Manager
1970 PROGRAMS: It is expected that the 1970 feed grain and cotton program will be announced soon.

It is reported that the cotton marketing quota referendum will be the first week in December and it is expected that the programs will be announced prior to that date. Barley will again be included in the feed grain base for 1970; therefore, barley seeded this fall and not destroyed by May 1st of next year will be considered a 1970 feed grain in determining the total feed grain acreage on the farm.

COTTON ALLOTMENT FOR NEW FARMS: The county ASC Office has had a number of requests for information regarding the transfer of cotton allotment to non-allotment farms. Transfers by purchase, lease or ownership will be permissible for the 1970 crop year on non-allotment farms. The maximum amount that may be transferred by sale or lease will be the smaller of the cropland or 100 acres. Land broke out and in a stage of cultivation by January 1st will be considered a cropland.

ACP COST SHARING: Applications for ACP cost-sharing on approved practices may be filed at the ASC office. A small amount of 1969 funds are available and a part of the 1970 allocation may be used prior to January 1st.

Off Her Rocker

Aunt Minnie, vacationing at a mountain hotel, picked out a rocking chair on the front porch and sat down. Unhappily, she failed to notice that one of the runners was missing. Result: she fell off her rocker and suffered injury to her back.

In due course, she sued the management for damages. "Not liable," pleaded the management in court. "She would have seen the condition of the rocker, had she just taken the trouble to examine it."
