TWENTY FIVE CENTS

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AND COUNTING — Jack Spears celebrates a quarter century of water well drilling. Still going strong, the business got its start in January of '61.

Charlotte Carter Announces Candidacy For Treasurer

Charlotte Carter of Denver City has authorized The Plains Pride to announce her candidacy for the office of Yoakum County Treasurer subject to the upcoming Democratic Primary.

A native of Hobbs, N.M., she graduated in the top 50 students in her 1976 senior class of 500 students.

"I have thoroughly enjoyed the people of Yoakum County," she says. "They are like family to us. We have appreciated their support in our businesses."

"Yoakum County is very special to me for it is my home county. Yoakum County is a very wealthy county, that is why it is so important that we as people select a person that understands the 'Check & Balance System' and how to go about keeping our tax dollars strong and earning the most interest possible. There is a lot responsibility to this."

"I have 12 and a half years experience in accounting. I know how to deal with ten and more digit numbers, I deal with them every day. That is why I would like the opportunity to serve the citizens of Yoakum County with the experience I have in the financial realm."

"A county is what its people make it. I would like to have your support in making Yoakum County a stronger more financial abundant county than it has ever been. With a strong union between the auditor's and treasurer's offices, one helping the other, thus making a stronger county system," she states.

Mrs. Carter began working in the public at 15 years of age, working with Western Auto in Hobbs. She was 17 when offered at job at New Mexico Bank and Trust, now First Interstate Bank of Hobbs, Main Branch.

She moved with her husband, Tom, to Denver City in October 1977 and are part of a family corporation owning Thriftway Foods.

"I look forward to being in Plains and getting to know you better," she states.

Ruby Bruton Seeks Third Term As County Clerk

Ruby (Rucker) Bruton, has authorized The Plains Pride to announce her candidacy for re-election to a third term in the office of County Clerk of Yoakum County.

After one term as District and County Clerk and one term as County Clerk, there is still a great challenge," she says. "I would like the chance to put into action some plans for continued improvement in maintaining and protecting the county's records."

Mrs. Bruton states that all rear property records are not on microfilm and stored for safekeeping. Indexes have been computerized as well as Financing Statements, Fees of Office, Jury Selection and Commissioners Court Minutes Index.

"My plans are to microfilm all other records entrusted to my care by acquiring a microfilm system which would also give other county offices the capability of storing records on microfilm to free up much needed space," she says.

"I am grateful to the Commissioners Court for their cooperation in approving funds to accomplish these goals. I appreciate you, the voters, for giving me the opportunity to serve as your County Clerk and ask for your continued support in the May Primary."

Spears Drilling Company Marks 25th Anniversary Year

Jack Spears Drilling Company is observing an important milestone this month - twenty-five years in the water well drilling business.

Spears and his brother, Don, started out together in 1960 in the pump business in Tahoka. A year later, Jack sold his interest to his brother and purchased his first drilling rig. As a souvenir of his beginning, he still has a copy of the note he made Jan. 3, 1961 at Wilson State Bank.

Spears' first well in Yoakum County was a six inch irrigation well on a half section he purchased in 1966. Moving to Plains, he began farming and drilling water wells.

His first experience came during summers and holidays while he was attending school at Wilson High School. He worked with Dave Flowers, driller from Tahoka. He credits Flowers with teaching him a lot about the business and says it was then he began thinking of drilling as a career.

"About 23 years ago, I had twisted off in the hole and lost the rear end out of my truck, all in one day" he recalls. "Very upset, a farmer by the name of Hy Turner came by. He told me to just get away from the problem for awhile, so I could calm down and he reminded me to never let circumstances upset me that badly. I learned a lesson from that man," says Jack. Now, when things are upsetting, he gets away for a time and things seem to always work out.

Spears and his wife, Maggie, are parents of four children. Tessa is married to Doran Smith and lives in Sedan, Ks. She is the mother of their only grandchild, two-year-old Kessa. Terrie, Billy and Johnny are Plains High School students.

The Spears children have always helped with farm work and the boys began helping their father in the drilling business as soon as they were old enough. Both enjoy the work.

The family shares hobbies. They enjoy football games and like to fish. They also enjoy working with stock shows and the children have participated in shows since they were old enough to do so.

Spears is past director of Yoakum County Farm Bureau, serving four years as president. He has been a member of the school board six years. The family attends First Baptist Church.

Jack Spears Drilling Company is on call 24 hours a day. Both the drilling rig and service truck are equipped with mobile communication. The company has two pump service rigs.

Maggie is bookkeeper for the company.

Spears says he enjoys attending drillers conventions for the opportunity they offer to learn of new technology. He enjoys talking with others in his profession.

Senior Citizens

Here we are at the beginning of a brand new year. I would like to quote an article picked up in Arizona. An honest answer to the questions may help us all be better Senior Citizens.

Which Are You?

*Are you an active member,
 The kind that would be missed,
 Or are you just contented,
 Your name is on the list?*

*Do you attend the meetings,
 And mingle with the flock,
 Or do you stay at home,
 And criticize and knock?*

*Do you take an active part,
 To help the work along,
 Or are you satisfied
 To say, "I just belong"?*

*Do you ever go to visit
 A member who is sick?*

*Or leave the work to just a few,
 And talk about "the click"?*

*There's quite a program scheduled
 That I'm sure you've heard about,
 And we'd appreciate it if you, too,
 Would come and help us out.*

*So let's be up and doing—
 Now's the time to start;
 Don't be "just a member"
 But take an active part.*

*Think this over, Members,
 You know right from wrong;
 Are you an active member,
 Or do you just belong?*

—Anon

We need all the senior people in Yoakum County with us. There's something here for everyone - and we always strive to keep the "Welcome Mat" at the door. So come on in!!!

Some of our group have migrated south this week. Others are going soon. The hole they leave will need to be filled.

Last Friday night was a real nice evening. We had eight guests from Seminole, also three from Plains. How about all you "42" Plains people coming over on Friday nights. Just maybe I could win a game if the game was on home ground. This Friday is Birthday night. Recently we sang "Happy Birthday" to a couple of gentlemen - eighty years of age plus each. We have here at Denver City eleven members past 80 years. And two home bound. These thirteen people represent over 1100 years of making America a great nation. I wonder how many up around Plains there are who are over 80. Someone do a head count and let me know.

Denver City, I'm sure, Congratulates everyone in the city of Plains on the nice new church building and the great crowd you all had for its dedication.

Company Formed To Aid Farmers

A new company, Intelligent Decisions Incorporated, has been formed to help farmers both make business decisions and negotiate operating loans.

The company is headed by David W. Cox, formerly senior Vice President, Finance, of Cotton Incorporated. Several other executives who were associated with Cotton Incorporated are also with the new company, including Dr. Lawrence H. Shaw, formerly C.I. Director of Analysis, and R.O. Cramer, formerly a C.I. consultant. Intelligent Decisions Incorporated offices are located at 5205 Oak Park Road, Raleigh, NC, 27612. A toll free number to the company is 1-800-424-FARM.

Intelligent Decisions Inc. has been designated by IBM as a Value Added Dealer to sell IBM personal computers along with the specialized software and training that the company has developed for improved record keeping and decisions analysis. The company provides hands-on training in the use of both the computer and the software at or near its customers offices, along with the full support available through it as an authorized IBM dealer.

According to Mr. Cox, "The current tight financial times faced by farming in general are actually favorable times for farmers to invest in the IDI system. The costs are fully known in advance and are low relative to the improved financial returns that farmers can get by using the computer." Also, he adds, "Since the system is especially helpful in determining and explaining a farm's operating loan requirements, many farmers are looking at the system as an investment necessary to obtain continuing financing."

The new business grew out of a project begun in 1980 by Cotton Incorporated, which set out to determine how farmers could best use the emerging technology of small business computers. Research showed that farmers not only wanted to use computers for accounting records but for field operational data as well, in order to decide how much of which crops to grow, how to market production, and to determine ways to increase profits. It was also found that most farmers needed help in deciding what programs and equipment to buy, and learning how to use them.

In 1984, Cotton Incorporated offered cotton farmers in several areas of the country help in "computerizing." Earlier this year, according to Morgan Nelson, Roswell, N.M., a C.I. Director since 1974, "The C.I. Board voted to end the effort in light of increasingly difficult financial times that were foreseen. This was unfortunate, since the program showed so much promise to help farmers utilize this valuable new tool." The Board's action led the Cotton Incorporated executives to investigate what could be done with the research results, leading to the founding of Intelligent Decisions, Inc.

The greatest benefit to growers, according to Dick Yraceburo, a Fresno County, California, C.I. Director who has purchased and installed the system, is the fact that, "It's a complete, balanced, and economical package that really helps a farmer not only organize his information but analyze it so that he can make more 'intelligent decisions'."

Young Farmers Meet Monday

Yoakum County Young Farmers met Monday evening in the ag building for a program on "Crime Prevention on the Farm". Sheriff Jim Rice and Deputy Don Corzine directed the program.

Jack London, Yoakum County ASCS Director, spoke to the group concerning the farm program according to information he had received.

Young Farmers made plans to donate time and labor to help re-do sheep pens at the stock show arena. A work day will be set up and announced later.

Next meeting will be Feb. 10 at 8 p.m. in the ag building. Interested persons are invited.

Three Jr. High Students Chosen For All-District Band

Three students from Plains Junior High School have been selected for the Junior High All-District Band South Zone. Earning their positions with the band were Wendie Alexander, Heather Shipp and Tara Shipp.

Playing the alto saxophone, Wendie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Alexander. Heather and Tara, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Shipp, play the cornet and flute.

Eight students from Plains competed Saturday, Jan. 11 for the All-District honors against students from Brownfield, Frenship, Denver

City, Ralls, Ropes, Abernathy and Seagraves.

Plains Band Director Bill Shipp was pleased with the hard work and attitude of those competing. "This was the first time for all but one of the students to try out. I was proud of the way they performed and hope to take twice as many students next year."

The trio will rehearse with other students selected for the All-District Band Jan. 24-25 for a concert to be presented Jan. 25 in Monterey High School in Lubbock. Concert time is 5:30 p.m. Scheduled to perform will be All-District Junior High Bands from the north zone, south zone and CC-CCC junior highs as well as A, AA and AAA high school All-District Bands and the 4A-5A All-District Bands.

Commissioners Court

Commissioner's Court met in regular session Monday. Kerry L. Musick of Love, Hays and Schaffner, CPAs, presented a report of the audit of 1984 county funds.

The court approved the December report of taxes collected.

Also approved was an order placing Yoakum County officers on a salary basis for 1986.

As recommended by the Hospital Board, bids were accepted for a sterilizer, hospital beds, furniture, call system, phone system and television sets.

Ed Rodgers, on behalf of the Hospital Board, presented recommendations raising salaries of hospital employees consistent with other county employees, Sandra Ford's salary as Deputy III, in-county travel allowance for the administrator and provision of a station wagon for general use including kitchen, maintenance, purchasing, mail, lab, banking and miscellaneous use. Recommendations were approved.

Names of Leon Gooch, Elva Lozano and Diane Peeler were drawn from grand jury lists for the previous year to serve on the Salary Grievance Committee for 1986.

Salary adjustments were approved for Lorraine Walker, Scott Nichols and Dan Beck.

The court also set the extra hire maximum rate for 1986 at $7.75 per hour, clerical; $6.75, road hands; and 20 and a half cents per mile for out-of-county travel. A three percent raise for all regular full time employees and officials was allowed, providing any adjustment necessary to restructure fringe benefits to be in compliance with the new Federal regulations.

Resignation of Ann Wagley as housekeeper at Plains Clinic was accepted.

Free Counseling Is Available

Effective year-round management of spending and credit use can keep consumers from being overloaded with debt. Yet some people find themselves in financial trouble from uncontrolled credit spending over the holidays. If you're facing a financial crisis from credit spending, there are services which can help you work out a plan for getting out of debt, says family economics expert Dr. Marjorie Smith. As part of these services, a counselor studies your financial situation and makes suggestions for more effective money management, explains the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service home economist. For example, the consumer Credit Counseling Service is a non-profit agency which does not charge clients for their services, notes Smith. They have offices in some Texas cities and suburbs which can be located by looking in the phone book. Other types of credit counseling may be available through churches and volunteer groups, banks and savings and loan associations in your local area. If you belong to a credit union, it may offer some counseling services as well, she adds.

Plan Now For 1986 Fertilizer Needs

Farmers should not wait until next spring to begin planning their crop fertilization programs.

By collecting soil samples now and having them tested, crop producers can jump on next year's production, says David Kight, county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Testing soils this fall offers several advantages: (1) Samples can be collected after harvest when seasonal work loads decrease and production problem areas in fields can be identified more easily for specific sampling. (2) Farmers can avoid the typical spring rush in the Soil Testing Laboratory. (3) Test results will be back in time to purchase needed fertilizer when costs are at a low point instead of waiting until spring when prices will likely be somewhat higher.

During these economically stressed times, it is a natural tendency to want to reduce production costs by reducing or eliminating fertilizer usage, says Kight. However, it is not wise to make such a major decision without the benefit of a soil test. If a soil test indicates that fertilizer is needed to attain a desired yield goal, its use is strongly recommended.

To help the crop producer monitor carry-over nitrogen levels in the soil, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service Soil Testing Laboratories at College Station and Lubbock are routinely analyzing soils for nitrate nitrogen. This analysis determines the amount of available nitrogen present in the soil which is then subtracted from the amount of nitrogen required to reach a desired yield goal. This reduced nitrogen recommendation results in a direct savings to the producer without sacrificing yield.

A soil test will also determine which nutrients other than nitrogen are deficient in the soil for a particular crop so the producer can fertilize to supplement the soil supply. Kight emphasizes that it's only profitable to supply nutrients required and in sufficient quantities for a specific crop.

There is no substitute for knowing what your soil bank nutrient balance is as you start planning next year's cropping programs.

Soil testing can provide an economical means of determining your soil's nutrient status and can help you make those major economic decisions with greater confidence. For Soil Test guidelines and collection bags, come by the County Extension Office.
