HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS HONORED WITH BANQUET

On Thursday evening of last week, the First Baptist church honored the Seniors and high school faculty with an elaborate banquet.

The Senior colors, blue and gold were used to carry out the color scheme and added to the attractiveness of the immense hall which was so elaborately hung in beautiful decorations. The color scheme was also used in forming the draperies which hung in graceful folds from the long windows. In harmony with this were the lights which were shaded into a lovely golden glow.

Slender vases in blue holding yellow flowers were seen on the long tables which were laid in snowy linens and silver.

Places were found by pretty place cards tied with ribbons of blue and gold.

Mr. Clyde Robertson acted as toastmaster and during the evening music was furnished by the church orchestra.

The Rev. H. H. Stephens pronounced the invocation after which the following menu was served: Fruit cocktail, baked chicken and dressing, creamed peas, cheese balls, chipped potatoes, pear salad, cream and cake. After dinner the guests were honored with an interesting talk from President J. D. Sandefer, of Simmons College and he was accompanied to Winters by Sam Malone.

WINTERS GOLF CLUB ORGANIZED LAST FRIDAY EVENING

Last Friday evening some eighteen or twenty golf enthusiasts met in the offices of the Winters State Bank and perfected organization of the Winters Golf Club by electing Dr. R. C. A membership committee furnished us with the following list of members which have been secured since that time:

The congregation has been making preparations for this revival for the past month or more and sectional prayer meetings have been held in different parts of the city where an earnest supplication has been sent up to the Master for an out-pouring of the Holy Spirit upon the congregation and the entire population of the city and great things are predicted and expected.

The evangelist will, at each service, deliver a straightforward message to the hearts of men, women and children telling of the wonderful power of the Master to redeem men from the clutches of sin and Satan. You are cordially invited and urged to attend each and every service. The music at the revival will be worth coming miles to hear.

FIREMAN'S BANQUET AT BALLINGER WAS A GRAND SUCCESS

Some twenty odd automobiles loaded to the brim made the trip to Ballinger last Thursday evening to attend the Firemen's Banquet and enjoy the hospitality of the good people of Ballinger—and brother, they didn't fail to dispense said hospitality. To say those attending from Winters had a great time would be putting it mildly, to say the least, and we, as spokesman for the Winters Fire Department and others attending from this city wish to congratulate our neighbors on the success of the occasion and also tender our thanks for one of the most pleasant evenings we have enjoyed in many a day. The following account of this occasion is taken from the Ballinger Ledger:

"To say the firemen's banquet was a success is putting it entirely too mild. It was the largest gathering of the kind ever staged in Ballinger, with something over 300 plates being served during the evening. Those in charge of the decorations, menu and program did their work well and were repaid for their efforts by the enjoyment of those who were fortunate enough to hold places at the table. "Winters came in a body and it was a beautiful sight to see the cars coming down Broadway with the fire

William Douglas Denton, age 22, son of Mrs. Lucy Denton, died in a sanitarium in Ballinger about 2 o'clock Tuesday morning from injuries sustained in an explosion in a well on the Denton farm Monday afternoon.

The remains were prepared for burial and carried to the home of the deceased on Valley Creek Tuesday morning, and the funeral was held at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Interment was made in the Norton cemetery following funeral services conducted by Rev. Scott W. Hickey, Abilene.

The father of the young man died two or three years ago, and besides the widowed mother, a wife and other relatives survive.

The tragedy, according to the report received by The Enterprise, occurred while young Denton was assisting other parties in digging a well on the Denton farm. The young man was planting a charge of dynamite in the well when an explosion took place. He was able to grasp a rope and was being drawn from the well when he lost his grasp and fell to the bottom of the well just as a second explosion took place. He was rescued from the well, and taken to the sanitarium, and while he remained rational up to a few minutes of his death the injuries were of such nature as to make it impossible for the physicians to prolong his life.

Mr. Denton was burned about the lower limbs and arms, and it is believed that the shock and possibly the inhaling of the blast gas produced death.

IRRIGATION WITH CITY WATER MUST BE DISCONTINUED

Notice is hereby given that irrigating with city water must be stopped immediately owing to the existing shortage. Those who fail to observe this order will find their water privileges discontinued.—J. W. Tanner, Acting Mayor.

NEXT FRIDAY IS CLEAN-UP DAY

Next Friday, March 27th, is Clean-Up day in Winters, and every citizen is expected to have all the trash, tin cans, etc., around his residence or place of business raked and gathered together and piled up in a convenient place so the city can send the trash man around and haul it off. The city council has agreed to furnish wagons to haul off the trash free of charge, so all you are expected to do is to have it placed in a convenient place so the trash man can get to it.

We have no doubt but that the city will be given a thorough cleaning up, but after it is done how long will it take to become filthy again if papers, trash, etc., are allowed to blow over the city with every wind that blows? To our way of thinking there should be placed at every corner in the business district a trash container of some kind to take care of the papers, trash, etc., which is usually thrown upon the streets and with a little training and the proper encouragement the public will soon be placing this trash into the trash containers instead of throwing it upon the sidewalks and streets to be blown all over the town. What do you think about it?

FORBUS FILLING STATION NEAR COMPLETION

J. E. Forbus, who for several years has owned and operated the Forbus' Wagon Yard is having built a large brick structure and will be one of the prettiest and most modern filling stations in town. Mr. Forbus is doing this for the convenience of his customers and friends.

FAILED TO STOP CAR WITH THREE SHOTS

Last Saturday evening about 11 o'clock a young man in an automobile went through on Main street at the rate of about 75 miles per hour. City Marshall Sam Kirby decided he would like to know just what kind of "corn" the young man was transporting and attempted to stop the car but when the occupant paid no heed to his gestures he pulled out his gun and fired three shots at the car and Sam says he knows the last shot hit the back end of the car, but this only served to give the occupant of the car a desire to put on more speed if possible and when last seen it was going toward Ballinger and according to Sam the young man was certainly "stepping on the gas."

MRS. J. A. SMITH FALLS FROM CAR

Last Tuesday afternoon Mesdames J. W. Smith and Sewell were driving over to Ballinger when Mrs. Smith's baby fell from the car and Mrs. Smith in reaching to rescue the child fell from the car and received several wounds. She was rushed to the local sanitarium and for several hours was unconscious. Her many friends are sorry to learn of the accident and hope that she can soon return to her home.

W. I. McWilliams and Mont Carter of Plainview passed through town Tuesday morning enroute home from Fort Worth where they attended the fat stock show.

Winters Justice Peace Takes Himself A Bride

J. T. Brown, justice of the peace of Winters, passed through Ballinger Saturday enroute to his home accompanied by his bride. Mr. Brown recently went to Limestone county on a visit to his old home, and played a trick on his friends by returning with a bride. He was married at Kosse last week to a lady of many years acquaintance. Mr. Brown is one of the pioneer citizens of the Winters country, having come to this county when the city of Winters had not even been dreamed of.—Ballinger Ledger.

Temporary Injunction Granted Against City

We learn through Judge Thornton that O. C. Murphy and W. H. Avery, owners of the Red Ball service line, together with other service car men have obtained a temporary injunction against the city of Winters restraining the officials from enforcing the recently enacted ordinance placing restrictions on service cars operating through the city.

A hearing of this cause will come up in district court at Ballinger during the March term of court.

SKAGGS DRY GOODS CO. TO STAGE STYLE SHOW AT THE QUEEN TONIGHT

The Skagg Dry Goods Co., "The House That Grows and Keeps Growing," have completed all arrangements for an elaborate showing on living models of all the authentic and wanted styles in ready-to-wear at Queen Theatre tonight. Ladies who are the least in doubt as to what is new and will prevail among the better dressed women for the late spring and summer season are especially invited to attend and enjoy the presentation which this popular store will make on this evening. Whether it be for a style show or for personal wear, the immense stock carried by this big dry goods house proves equal to the occasion.

HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL TEAM TO PLAY ABILENE HIGH FRIDAY, MARCH 27

The Winters Blizzards will journey to Abilene on the afternoon of Friday, March 27th, for a game with the Abilene high school club.

The Blizzards are practicing hard for this game and we're hoping they show the Abilene club "how the cow ate the cabbage." The local club is fast developing some mighty good players and the fans can expect some good exhibitions of the national game when they see this club in action.

Right now the slogan is "Beat Abilene."

BRADSHAW SOON TO HAVE ELECTRICITY

Bradshaw, Texas, March 15.—Bradshaw is to have electricity in a very short time.

Several truck loads of wire, insulators, etc., were left here last week for the purpose of completing the West Texas Utilities Co's line between Abilene and Ballinger. The information gathered from representatives of the West Texas Utilities Co., is the line will be completed and will be ready for the installation of lights in town in 30 days.

Not only practically all the homes and stores will patronize the electric lights, but arrangements are being made by the local business men to have all the main streets lighted from this power line. Also farmers living near the line are asking for contracts to have electricity furnished their farms.

Miss Emma Dee Randle, dramatic and humorous reader, entertained a large crowd of Bradshaw and neighboring town people last Saturday night. This represented the last number of this season's lyceum.

Miss Randle is an artist in her work, and pleased her Bradshaw audience immensely.

Mrs. C. E. Woodroe who has been ill for several days is reported to be improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Marian Flynt were guests of Mr. Flynt's parents of Ballinger last week end.

Messrs Homer Moseley and J. N. Keys made a business trip to Big Spring last week.

County Meet of the Farm Bureau Association Here

BLIZZARDS TAKE SEASONS FIRST GAME FROM WINGATE

On Friday the 13th day of February it is remembered that Winters defeated Ballinger in Basketball 34 to 7. Considering Friday the 13th, as a lucky day for the local boys the baseball season was opened on that date at Wingate and the blizzards took the game by a one-sided score of 19 to 3. The local boys immediately expressed their wishes to play Ballinger football next fall on Friday the 13th day of November.

The game was played on a very rough ground and that accounted for a number of runs. However, there is always more scores made in early season because the pitchers have not had time to get good control.

Babe Edwards pitched most of the game for the Blizzards and McCoughan received. Both did good for the early season game. Babe was credited with 7 strike outs. One score was made during the five innings he delivered. Robertson relieved Edwards in the box and proved good as a relief pitcher. He pitched two innings and got 3 strike outs. With more exercise both will be fair high school pitchers. Capt. McCoughan is coming through fast as a receiver and promises to make a real catcher with a little more practice. Vancil at third and Lloyd Edwards at short promises to be star infield performers. Each made but one error during the game. Fields, Wilson and Phillips played the out field positions and did not drop a ball. At first Flynt was used and played a good game considering that it was the first game he had ever played. He is willing to work and train and with more experience will make the club a valuable man. Young is relief catcher and Bartlett is capable of relieving any of the outfielders.

A. J. Fisher of the Shepp community was in the city transacting business last Tuesday. Mr. Fisher says he has a mighty good well of water on his farm and is making preparations to use this well to furnish water for irrigation purposes and will irrigate just as many acres as the well will furnish water for. Here's hoping, Mr. Fisher, that you never find the bottom of that well.

Nance-Brown Motor Co. Remodeling Building

Carpenters and painters are busy at work at the Nance-Brown Motor Company remodeling the interior of the building and when this work is complete the "Home of the Ford" in Winters will present a very pleasing effect. Also the remodeling will give them more display and working room.

Messrs. Nance and Brown believe their patrons are entitled to every convenience and service which the public has become accustomed to at the better Ford Sales and Service stations, hence the remodeling. Whether you are in the market for a car now or later, they will be glad to have you call around and get acquainted.

A SURE CURE FOR SPIDER BITES

B. C. Lee, who lives eight miles north of town near Drasco, was in the city Monday transacting business. He tells us that his wife has a gourd which grew in Tennessee which was handed down to her from her great-grandmother that is over one hundred years old. He also handed us the following remedy for a spider bite which he claims is a sure cure:

Beat the white of an egg to a froth; add a teaspoonfull of pulverized alum; bind to the bit and change every four hours if very bad; take a teaspoonfull of alum every three hours till three doses are taken.

Will Pierce is doing some remodeling work both at his shop and residence.

OLIVER NO. 221 PLANTER

The Oliver No. 221 Planter is a two-row corn and cotton planter, which is equipped with variable speeds, distributing both cotton and corn with a plate. Three plates for cotton with three speeds to each plate give nine variations of drop. It plants cotton seed in as small a quantity as desired. Corn can be planted close together or far apart in the row. An adjustable feature allows for planting rows from 32 to 40 inches in width.

General Construction

The frame is of high carbon steel which prevents twisting and protects the drive mechanism from stress which might interfere with proper meshing.

I have some news that I am proud to give my patrons. EDITOR OF MILES PAPER IS DEAD

Miles, March 13.—J. A. Tyler, for the last four years editor and owner of the Miles Messenger, died at his home in this city at 3:50 o'clock this morning. He had been in bad health for several years, and his death did not come as a surprise to the family and friends.

Mr. Tyler came to Miles twenty-two years ago, and had been engaged in different lines of work here. He was 57 years of age, and is survived by a wife and nine children. It had not been determined later today whether the remains would be buried at Miles or San Angelo. Funeral arrangements were being delayed pending arrival of some of his children.

Husbands and Lovers at Queen, March the 25-26

Carrying out his policy of exhibiting only the best productions for Winters theatre-goers, Manager Hodge has succeeded in getting John M. Stahl's latest masterpiece "Husbands and Lovers," for a two day run at the Queen Theatre, beginning Wednesday, March 25.

It is rated as not only one of the best pictures of the season but one of the finest entertainments to reach the screen this year.

Probably the foremost of the many great qualities to be found in "Husbands and Lovers" is its absolutely true portrayal of life. Based on the intricacies of domestic happiness, the story presents people and situations that are familiar to everyone.

Three main characters, two men and a woman, hold the spotlight but not as the eternal triangle. There is a romantic triangle, to be sure, but it is a new one and is handled in a new way.

Clover, subtle comedy is the outstanding element of "Husbands and Lovers," although the picture contains some dramatic scenes that arouse the emotions as do few more serious plays. Lewis Stone, who also played in Stahl's "Why Men Leave Home" and "The Dangerous Age," heads the cast and Lew Cody and Florence Vidor are among the other members of the all-star cast.

Nature's rules have no exceptions.

'Tis true, the sick-room is none too convenient, pleasant at best.

But you can add much to its convenience and comfort by providing it with up-to-date sick-room necessities, carried in abundance at this store.

When your loved ones are ill it pays to give them every chance such as this.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Pfeffer returned the last of the past week from Navasota where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Pfeffer's mother who was buried at that place Sunday, March 8th. Mrs. Pfeffer had been at the bedside of her mother for some two weeks. Friends and acquaintances here extended sincere sympathy to Mrs. Pfeffer in the loss of her mother.

We understand General Wood is quite willing to have it known Osborne is not a chip off the old block.

Mrs. S. H. Nance of Rising Star spent last week-end with her husband, who is connected with the Nance-Brown Motor Co.

Class Poem

(By Velma Griffis)
They call us the "drags of Winters High,"
Buy why do we have to stay,
At home at night and study;
While the others hit the hay.
And who hollars 'Fish' as we come in the door,
It's the Sophs. everytime, it's the Sophs.
And who takes our paper and asks for more,
It's the Sophs. everytime, it's the Sophs.
If the Juniors make a blunder the whole school forgets,
But we have to suffer many regrets,
And who is to blame if our heads hang in shame,
It's the Seniors everytime, it's the Seniors.

Class Prophecy
Many years had passed; I was alone in a great city, a stranger; not a friend or person did I know.
I walked slowly toward my hotel and in doing so in such an immense city as New York I crossed the street where millions of cars were passing through the narrow and long subways. Turning around I saw a large limousine coming in full speed. I was stung motionless, falling upon the pavement. The car stopped and the driver came to my rescue. Moments had passed and I came to. Looking into the man's kind face, I remembered in the long days which had passed a schoolmate, a pal, when we were Freshmen in a school far away; that good old Winters Hi.—Vernon B. Campbell.
"Vernon" I said, and the tears rolled from our cheeks with joy. I had found one friend which gave me new inspiration and courage in the hopes of making a success for my greatest ambition was journalism.
I had hoped that by coming to New York I could become famous but in such an immense city of selfishness every attempt had been in vain.
Vernon now owned the famous "Rosetta," New York's most famous cafe.
My health became worse and I was now forced to remain in my bed or be taken to a sanitarium of which the latter I did.
Several weeks of bed-ridden suffering had passed—it was a beautiful evening, a tall slender man came into my room and spoke to me. I glanced up and to my surprise I saw J. S. Tinkle, now the noted doctor of Washington, D. C. on a special business trip to New York.

I was now well and was passing the "Ritz" theatre; seeing the names, Lillian Dalton and Edith Hamilton in electric lights; I went in. They were playing Shakespeare's tragedy of "Julius Caesar" for the benefit of Home Mission, with Truett Barber, J. L. Alfred, A. M. Patterson and Dellis Barber playing leading roles as Caesar, Brutus, Cassius and Casca. My heart was filled with new blood, new spirit for I was not alone in that great city. I was writing what I hoped to be a masterpiece; sending it to the "Pumphrey, Connell & Callensworth, Publishers." Receiving no reply I visited the office and to my sudden surprise they were pals of my Golden Freshmen days.

My story was accepted and happiness was about my life. I fell asleep and dreamed when we were all together in that school on the hill where pep, enthusiasm and good will made the year '1925 the greatest Freshmen year.—Jack Callan.

"Last Man On Earth" At the Mis- sion This Week

If the average man thinks being "The Last Man On Earth" will be a wonderful position, he has but to ask Earle Foxe who plays that unfortunate role in the J. G. Blystone production of that name.

"It's not so good," says Earle. "In the first place, there's too much of the wrong kind of competition. The average man likes to be made a fuss over, naturally, but only when the fuss is limited. If there should be a mob scene every time, he ventured out, as there was in this picture, it would lose its charm.

"And then," he went on, "he misses all the fun of winning a girl for himself. Man wants to be the pursuer, but he hasn't a chance of that when he plunged into the midst of 50,000,000 women each of whom is eager to make him her own particular property.

"There's such a thing as too much popularity and too much notoriety—even for men—and I'm not exactly a modest, blushing violet either. After playing in that picture, I knew just how the Prince of Wales must have felt on his visit to this country, when the women trailed him from morning until night wherever he went."

In the picture, Foxe became a hermit because the "only woman" refused to become his wife. Shortly after he left civilization, the whole civilized world was swept by a plague called masculitis which killed off the entire male population. Ten years later, he was discovered by a girl thug and brought back protesting to the world he had left. His re-entrance caused a mighty furor. As the one surviving man on earth, he was exhibited, admired, bullied, flattered and fought over. During a boxing contest which two girl champions of the world held to decide who should possess him, he caught sight of his old sweetheart in the audience and that changed everything. Of course they were married and lived happily.

But Earle Foxe still insists it isn't a happy role and is mighty glad it wasn't a permanent one for him.

BOYSCOUT MEETING

Next Monday night, March 23 we want all boys from the age of twelve to eighteen years to meet at Tinkle Park.—By Patrol Leader and Assistant Patrol Leader.

B. F. Harwood of Bluff Creek was thrown from his car and received serious injuries causing concussion of the brain but we are glad to report him better.

If you would be friendless, be frank.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. P. Eason and son, Ralph, left Monday for their long contemplated trip to California. They are traveling in their Studebaker car and have full camping equipment, prepared to stop as it pleases them, taking their time and seeing points of interest along the way. They left with no schedule of travel, expecting to go and stop as it pleases them, taking probably three weeks on the way to Los Angeles.
 Mr. Eason stated before leaving that it was like starting out life anew, after being relieved of business cares in Winters, to feel the freedom that is theirs and expecting to take life easy until he connects up with business again. Their Los Angeles address will be 232C West Vernon Ave., where mail will reach them and they will be glad to hear from friends who care to write them there, while away. They will probably be back in Winters in two months, ready to line up with business of some kind here or elsewhere in West Texas.
 "The best country in all the world," as Mr. Eason expressed it.

 could not work and I just dragged she told me to get some and take it.

J. T. Brown Weds At Kosse the 19th.

Kosse, Tex., March 16.—Dear Enterprise—Will you kindly give space to a few lines from our little city. We take this method of introducing to you and the many readers of your splendid little weekly journal, Mrs. Ida Cornelison-Brown—the new wife of Judge John T. Brown of your town. Some few weeks ago, your Hon. citizen—Judge Brown visited his sister, Mrs. F. B. Bratton, and while here he met our much loved and mightily appreciated lady and he would, could not and did not go home without her. So on Thursday the 19th, they drove to Marlin in company with a friend and at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Pringle in the presence of several friends were made man and wife by Rev. F. A. Cooley.

Miss Ida, as she is familiarly called, is one of the best and most appreciated ladies of our town. She was raised in our midst and her friends are numbered by those who know her. That Mr. Brown has taken from our midst unto himself, one of the purest women that ever graced any man's home is admitted by all who know her. She is a lady of high christian character and will be a valuable asset to the uplift and high ideals of your city. May peace and happiness bless their lives.

And when they come to the end of life's journey,

And the last mile-stone of life has been passed,

When the shadows of evening have gathered

And the sun has gone down in the west,

May the light of His love shine brightly;

And guide them peacefully and gentle on

Till they stand in the light of His presence,

And hear the glad plaudit—well done.—A friend.

ELECTRIC RANGE DEMONSTRATION QUITE A SUCCESS

Mr. Zanzandt, the energetic manager of the Winters Light & Power Co., operated by the West Texas Utilities Co., informs us that the electric range demonstration which the company has been holding for the past ten days, has and is proving quite successful. Since the demonstration has been in progress six electric ranges have been sold and they have quite a number of very bright prospects as a direct result of this demonstration. If you have not been shown the advantages of this modern way of cooking, Mr. Zanzandt says he would be more than pleased to have you call at the offices of the company for an inspection of the complete line of electric ranges which they carry in stock.

Geo. Clark of Abilene and Mr. Alexander of Dallas, connected with the West Texas Utilities Co., were in the city Tuesday and while in conversation with Mr. Lynn of the Winters Oil Mill, made the statement that if the people needed the services of an engineer in determining questions concerning a permanent water supply for the city, the Utilities Co., would be pleased to furnish one of their own engineers for this purpose without cost.

Town Incorporates By 61 To 0 Vote

Lawn, March 16.—Lawn probably broke all records for unanimity Saturday, when in an election to incorporate the measure carried 61 to 0.

A cold disagreeable norther and sandstorm prevented many women from going to the polls, and about 60 per cent of the strength of the town was voted.

Dr. R. C. Maddox says he now has his family moved from Abilene and is now a full pledged citizen of "the busiest little city in the West." Glad to welcome these good people to our town.

BUY IT IN WINTERS

If every person bought their requirements from some firm which does business here, it would have more to do with the growth and progress of this city than any other one thing.

Do you know that almost everything needed by almost everyone living here is sold by some firm doing business right here in this city? How will Winters ever become the hub of a great trade territory that it has every geographical right to become unless every citizen in this city patronize home industry?

This is one of a series of home town talks on diversified lines of business which will be published in this paper. Familiarize yourselves with the industries—find out what they sell—learn who operate them.

Think and talk about Winters if you want to grow. Show that you are for Winters by purchasing your supplies here. Winters merchants and business firms can give you values to be equaled in other cities. Glance over this list of progressive firms which made this campaign possible.

This Picture is That of one of Your Home Institutions

At the Kilpatrick Motor Co., Chevrolet dealer, will be found a complete line of Chevrolet products to meet the ever increasing demand of this territory, for never has there been produced at so low a price—as millions of owners today recognize—a more "Economical Transportation" at so low an upkeep cost. The New Model Chevrolets are, without a doubt, the lowest in the history of the company.

Mr. Kilpatrick, the genial and hustling manager of the local agency, was sales manager of the Witt Chevrolet Co., in Abilene before coming to Winters. On July 1, 1924, he bought out Conroe & Brim and secured the Chevrolet franchise direct and attesting to the quality of the Chevrolet and the result-attaining methods applied to the business by Mr. Kilpatrick, his firm sold sixty new cars from the date they opened until January 1, 1925, and did a total volume of business in this short period amounting to $65,000.00.

Not only does this firm sell Chevrolet cars, but they maintain one of the best and most modernly equipped Repair Shops in this part of the country and employ only the best tried and tested mechanics in this department. The type of service they render their customers is unexcelled. If your car is "in bad" they are prepared to diagnose the trouble and remedy it—and remember, all work receives the attention of competent and courteous workmen who are always ready to serve you.

Here also you will find a gas station, all kinds of motor oils, tires and tubes and auto accessories. Employees take as much pleasure in filling your car with free air or water at this station as they do in filling it with oil or gas.

In presenting this firm to our readers we ask in their behalf that when you are in need of anything in their line, go to the Kilpatrick Motor Company where you will always get all your money is supposed to purchase and your business is always appreciated.

In presenting the first of the series of the "Trade in Winters" campaign, The Kilpatrick Motor Company needs no introduction, for since the day of their establishment to the present time they have rendered the people a type of service second to none, for in this firm will be found men thoroughly conversant and familiar with every detail connected with their business.

CHEVROLET STAND UP UNDER STRENUOUS TRIP IN AFRICA

Within a few months the fly tents and the cooking utensils will have been strapped on the car and that new species of travel—the auto tourists—will be on his way to live in the open and see the hidden glories of this country as they are seen only in a gypsy kind of wandering.

If you chance to be one of them and think that there are many irksome duties connected with primitive living in the open, hark to the tale of a 2,000 mile trip of Mr. and Mrs. L. Blake Jolly in the Broken Hill country of northern Rhodesia, Africa. Mr. Jolly is chief recruiting agent of the Rhodesia Broken Hill Development Company, Ltd., North Rhodesia, Africa.

Even the worst roads you may have encountered are veritable primrose paths of down compared to the bush country in the land of the tomtom and the teetse-fly. The Jollies encountered every type of annoyance and adventure in their journey of more than two months.

At the time of this trip, the middle of last summer, the Chevrolet touring car they used was the only one in their country and the only car that ever successfully left Broken Hill and go safely through to Lake Tanganyika.

Food for two weeks had to be carried, beside complete cooking and sleeping equipment, while gasoline and extra food had to be sent on ahead by 40 carriers. In addition to the tremendous weight of equipment, four persons were carried in the car through "tracks cut through the brush, full of pits and holes."

The first day out the only road was a native foot-path, at times hardly visible and every few miles a dambo (plain) was encountered, which is very marshy ground with a bog in the middle and which becomes a veritable river in the rainy season. Often a native boy had to be sent ahead to reconnoitre and then the car was piloted through.

Through the diary of the trip contains more than 3,000 words, only the most interesting extracts will be taken.

On July 22, grass from six to seven feet high, intermingled with bushes, was encountered, to say nothing of ant hills and holes which shook the car to its very limit. The sun was so hot that the gasoline had to be completely covered by the equipment.

On the following day the car became stuck in a bog and it was necessary to send back for a dozen natives to push it out. It never rains but it pours, it is said and next 12 foot elephant grass was encountered which filled the radiator with grass seed, so that it was necessary to stop every few miles and dislodge the seeds to prevent the motor from boiling. Later this same day, the party ran across a great bush fire—flames from horizon—and only avoided danger by hitting a large patch of ground where the grass had already been burned.

The next day the only thing exciting was meeting a jackel, wild-cat and python crossed their path and a group of baboons which the superstitious native never killed for fear of bringing bad luck.

"The next day," writes Mrs. Jolly, "my husband went over to the car which had extraordinary little the matter with it."

Mrs. Jolly explained in her diary that they often encountered great patches of burnt timber land. The natives burn down miles of trees to fertilize the ground—a lazy way to prepare the ground instead of hoeing it.

A raft made of old gasoline cans ferried the Chevrolet across a river the next day. Two days later another river was encountered and the wheels of the car went through a bridge up to the axle and it took two hours to unpack the car and get across. About six miles further the same day a second bridge was encountered, and the same strenuous exercise was needed to get the car out of the rotten timbers.

The party camped under Mount Sunza, the highest mountain in northern Rhodesia, after strenuous work on the bridges. In the small settlement where they unpacked for the night there were 40 Airdales that were used to hunt lions.

About two days later they struck a bad belt of teetse-fly and it was all they could do to keep the bites off the dog—the bite of the teetse-fly being fatal to a dog.

The following day the party had to cut down a number of trees and build a 200 foot stretch of corduroy road. They shot some delicious pheasant for lunch.

For 25 miles the next day the car was hardly ever out of low gear, as the journey was continually up-hills, which made the going most difficult.

Killing a zebra, walking five miles to hunt game only to find a solitary pelican, crossing more bridges and helping a sick man to go 100 miles to a doctor constituted the outstanding adventure during the remainder of the trip.

"In conclusion, writes Mrs. Jolly in her diary, "I must pay tribute to our Chevrolet car. It has been simply marvelous and considering the tremendous load and roughness of the country which we have traversed, it is more than a fair test of its power and durability. We have spent extraordinarily little on repairs and it is now in excellent condition after a strenuous trip of more than 2000 miles."

Lions Compliment Methodist People

To Our Methodist Friends:—Whereas, it is the purpose of the Lions Club of Winters to unselfishly stand for and foster the things that are for the upbuilding of our town and community, in business, civic and religious matters.

Knowing that during the last year you have planned, and raised the money with which to build and pay for, your magnificent house of worship, which is a credit to the loyalty and faithfulness of your congregation, a dintinet credit to the high ideals of our community, as well as an accomplished feat not surpassed, and seldom equaled by any congregation.

Now, therefore, we desire to congratulate the ladies of your church on their untiring work and zeal, and your building committee in overcoming the many seemingly unsurmountable obstacles and the membership in helping put this program over.

May you continue to grow and may your usefulness in the cause of the Master be increased many fold with your added working advantages, and may the blessing of the Lord ever be upon you.

These statements being made and published in recognition of the successful accomplishment of a very worthy task, which we believe, will very materially help to make Winters a better town in which to live.

Submitted by—H. O. Jones, H. W. Lynn, E. A. Shepperd, Committee, Winters, Texas, March 13, 1925.

SHORT COURSE AT DRASCO WAS A GREAT SUCCESS

Several merchants and others attended the Short Course lectures by representatives from the Agricultural and Mechanical College at Drasco last Monday. A. K. Short lectured on "Diversified Farming," Miss Murray on "Incubation and care of baby chicks," Miss Horton, one of the State's Home Demonstration Agents lectured on home work with reference to dietetics, cooking with a pressure cooker, and dress form making. All the lectures were very fine and were heard by a large audience of very earnest listeners. Secretary Motley of Ballinger, County Superintendent White, J. C. Watts and county Agent Lehmborg each spoke a few minutes. One of the very enjoyable features was the noon banquet. In true Drasco style, several long seats were moved to the yard and literally loaded down with choice things to eat.

Visitors are loud in their praise for the many signs of progress and vitality that are apparent in the choice little village. An interesting protracted meeting was in progress in the Methodist church, but it as well as the public school dispensed with the days exercises that all might attend the agricultural meeting.

Jas. W. Smith, of the "M" system store and T. J. Dunn, manager of the Purina department will leave Sunday for Fort Worth where they will attend a school of instruction that is being held in that city, to acquaint the dealers of this product with its value as a food for animals that it is recommended for. Mr. Dunn will get all the information that is possible on the feeding of Purina feeds, and when he returns will be able to give his customers some mighty good advice along this line.

SCHOOL NOTES

Bailey McCaughan was elected last week of this seasons baseball team. The student body, and faculty also has been seized this week by a terrible fever which causes much disaster. The symptoms of this fever are: Heavy eyelids, a sluggish brain, lazy movements, thoughtless statements and a nonchalance attitude to everybody and everything. The doctors call it spring-fever.

The freshman is a wide awake class. Of course, this is no wonder when we know that Vernon Campbell is its president. But to Jack Callan is due the wide publicity of the class. It is he who is so cleverly editing a Freshman weekly in this paper. Perhaps, by the time Jack is a senior in high school we will have a high school paper all of our own.

The Junior class took some more kodaks Sunday. Why is it that the Juniors can't get any good picture? School life is running a little normal this week—normal except for the abnormal rushing of long term themes in English and unthought of outlines in history. Senior's faces are long sometimes and the expressions, "Oh, I've got so much to do," is growing more and more common. School children wonder why father and mother persists in saying: "Better enjoy it while you can. Your school days are the happiest days of your life."

Benton Neely is said to be haunted lately by strange portentions—Auburn says he often awakes the family in the night by exclaiming fervently: "Honorable Judges and Fellow Sweet Warmers!!"

Fireman's Banquet

truck at the head of the parade. There were about 100 in the party, arriving here about 8:00 o'clock. H. H. Carsey and the Ballinger Band were right on the job to welcome the visitors to town and then took the music makers in the game room at the club and made music for the banqueters while they ate. The band was applauded after each number and the visitors and home people enjoyed the musical entertainment given by the boys.

"As soon as hats and wraps were put away the guests marched into the banquet room, where a four-course dinner was served. The meal was prepared by T. D. Commander and served with the assistance of about twenty Ballinger girls.

"J. D. Motley acted as toastmaster and kept the fun going from the introduction of the first speaker until the benediction was said at 11:00 o'clock. We will have to say that the meeting was very informal, in fact it was just an evening of fun and everybody present got one laugh right after another until it was over. Estes M. Lynn welcomed the visitors to Ballinger, and Bert Low responded for the Winters folks. Both speakers mixed jokes with sentiment and steered clear of the dry after-dinner speeches. A number of other speakers from both the two towns responded to their calls making short snappy talks that kept the crowd in a roar and enjoying themselves.

"Miss Olga Zappe in her pleasing way sang the first musical number on the program and was recalled by the appreciated crowd. The American Legion Quartet rendered a number of humorous selections and Mrs. Ruth Ramsel of Winters, sang a group of songs. Mrs. Ramsel has a voice that you love to hear and was recalled for her third encore in which her audience sang the chorus with her while she sang a high obligato that that was indeed beautiful.

"After the banquet everybody mixed together and shook hands and went away feeling that it is good to meet and enjoy the friendly association and one another.

"Guests were also present from Miles, Rowena and Norton."

Mrs. L. A. Creswell left last week for an extended visit with her parents in New Jersey.
