WINTERS, RUNNELS COUNTY, TEXAS, FRIDAY SEPTEMBER 11, 1925

NUMBER 19

First Football Game of the Season this P. M.

When the referee's whistle blows this afternoon at Ashley's Park at 4 o'clock the Blizzards of Winters Hi will face the school team from Clyde in the first football game of what we are confidently expecting to be the most glorious season for the local squad in history. The boys have had about a week's time to overcome the soreness caused from the strenuous workouts during the training camp period and we're expecting a brand of football never before put up by the Winters boys.

Placards are being displayed by practically every business institution of the city informing the public that their places of business will be closed from 4 to 5:45 o'clock this afternoon, and on the card is the invitation to meet them on the side lines at the game, and it is expected that the largest crowd of rooters in the history of an opening football game in Winters will be present to help "Keep the Win in Winters."

F. W. Heckler Commits Suicide Last Sunday

F. W. Heckler committed suicide last Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Paul Haupt, who resides a few miles out in the country.

He was sixty-two years of age and made his home with his daughter and it is thought that mental derangement was the cause of the tragedy.

The family left home early in the morning and Mr. Heckler remained and on returning at night they found him dead and had probably been dead several hours. He had placed the shot gun between the pickets of the fence and fastened the trigger with a wire and pulled the barrel to his breast causing the gun to discharge, resulting in the tragedy.

HOME BUILDERS S. S. CLASS HONOR MRS. MOSELY

Quite a surprise was given Mrs. R. L. Mosely last Wednesday when eight ladies who were members of the Home Builders Sunday School Class of the First Baptist church called on her and presented her with a beautiful picture.

Mrs. Mosely, who has been one of the most faithful members of the class is moving to Plainview and this surprise was planned to show her just how much they appreciated her and to show the class spirit of love for one another. Mrs. J. N. Key presented her with an angel food cake as she was her "capsule" and it was revealed that Mrs. Mosely was Mrs. Key's "capsule."

A very pleasant hour was spent and each one left wishing for Mrs. Mosely every happiness in her new home.

Nance-Brown Expecting New Fords Next Week

Curiosity of a lot of people is going to be satisfied this week. Anyway, indications point in that direction.

Ever since announcement of the new improved Ford cars was made just about every man, woman and child in town has been on the alert for a glimpse of the new cars.

A few of the Touring cars reached dealers during the last week, but not near enough of them were distributed to satisfy the curiosity of the populace. In the first place, every dealer experienced some difficulty in scuring cars—some were only able to get one—and in the second place, after the dealer got the car he had a hard time keeping it—someone wanted to buy it right away.

Several hundred people, however, have been able to get a peep at the new Touring cars and everyone of them is firmly convinced that they sure are attractive automobiles.

Ford dealers of Winters are expecting the coming week will bring them all the new body types, both open and closed. If this transpires, it is certain that the dealer show rooms are going to be the most popular places in town, for everyone is eager to see and inspect all the new models.

Jno. W. Norman and Miss Nettie Norman, of Killen after a pleasant visit with their brother, Harold Norman, returned to their home last Monday.

Seed People Put Over Big Barbecue Wednesday

Last Wednesday at the noon hour the Thoroughbred Cottonbreeding Industries, Inc., of Winters were at home at their breeding block some three miles north of the city to some two hundred people, the crowd being in the main composed of the company's agents and friends from many parts of the State, along with a few specially invited guests and stockholders of this city.

And the feed! O, boy! To say they put it over in grand style doesn't half express it. After the invocation by Bert E. Low of the First National Bank, we gathered around the specially built tables and enjoyed one of the finest meals of our lives, consisting of barbecue, son-of-a-gun, bread, pickles, cake and coffee, topped off with a generous slice of cold watermelon, and then the cigars were passed by President H. O. Jones of the local chamber of commerce, and the company asks that we publicly thank Mr. Jones for this courtesy.

A partial list (we failed to get them all) of the agents of the company present, follows:

C. F. Kaltwasser, Caldwell; W. W. Nordheim; Levi Pullin, Kenedy; E. Robertson, Columbus; H. F. Heldt, J. Grohman, Rosanky; M. I. Harris, Hamlin; J. L. Kuykendall, Loraine; C. W. Simpson, Merkel; W. S. Garrett, Paint Rock; W. J. Godfrey, Comanche; W. H. Stagner, Benoit; Martin Klingeman, San Marcos; Alex Mittendorf, New Brunsfels; J. E. Pritchett, San Marcos.

Among the guests from over the State were, Ben F. Roberts, Haskell; J. H. Turner, Junction; Postmaster J. M. Cape, San Marcos; Judge Will G. Barber, San Marcos, and Albert Steindorf of Woodshoro.

After the bountiful dinner, an inspection was made of the breeding block and the visitors and even the home folks present were loud in their praise of the fine field of cotton, many saying it was the prettiest block of cotton they ever saw.

The company, headed by that prince of good fellows and eminent cotton breeder, W. S. Galloway, are indeed entitled to the praise they are receiving over the success of their first barbecue and get together meeting which, we understand they contemplate making an annual affair.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BANQUET WAS SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR

On last Tuesday evening at eight o'clock one of the largest and most successful banquets ever fostered by the local C. of C. was held in the basement of the beautiful and commodious Methodist church, being attended by some two hundred business men from all over the Winters country. When we say business men that is just what we mean, although about 50 per cent of those present were farmers from the different communities, but we maintain they are just as much entitled to be called business men as the man who lives in town, for they are engaged in the business which produces the wealth of the entire civilized world.

This banquet was in the nature of a love feast, or get together affair and the spirit of co-operation manifested between town and country was indeed beautiful and foretells of wonderful progress which is to be maintained in this section. The invocation was given by the Rev. H. H. Stephens, while Bert E. Low, in his usual happy and jovial manner acted as toastmaster.

During lunch Mrs. Ruth Ramsel, in her charming and pleasing manner sang "When Honey Sings the Old Time Songs," and after a storm of applause very beautifully rendered "Massa's in the Cold, Cold Ground." As toastmaster Low put it, Winters has many things it is proud of and not least among them is this talented lady. Mrs. Ramsel was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. E. G. Owens.

"Retrospect" was the subject assigned J. C. Watts, secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce for the past three years, now of the Drasco school, who in his happy manner told of the hard pulls the citizenship of the Winters Country had encountered, but nevertheless out of it all had come a steady march of progress.

Then H. O. Jones, president of the local C. of C., spoke of the future, the things which must be accomplished if the Winters Country is to progress and grow as it has in the past, his subject being "Prospects," and as Mr. Jones sees it, and probably ninety per cent of our entire citizenship agrees with him, an adequate and permanent water supply for the city is the paramount issue. Mr. Jones says with this problem properly solved the other accomplishments to which we set our hands will sink into insignificance.

In speaking to his subject, Mr. Jones, among other things, said: "The Chamber of Commerce has adopted a program for the years work, which the directors believe we can accomplish with the co-operation of the people of our town and community.

"We realize our undertakings must meet with the approval, and conform to the best business judgement of our members, therefore we have mailed out to our members, a request for their suggestion, and from these have made up the more important lines of work.

"A vast majority of those who expressed their wishes on the return cards urged the vital need of an ample and permanent water supply. Closer co-operation and friendly relations with the farmers in our territory. Interest in diversified production, a new modern hotel, a designated highway from Coleman through Winters to the Nolan County line. Co-operation with the city officials in securing a cleaner town with better swept streets and more lights. Improved Post Office facilities. Every road in the Winters territory a good road. More shade trees and flowers, and less weeds.

"These are the things you have asked us to do during the year, and with your aid and co-operation we will undertake as best we can to put them over.

"With the aid and backing of the membership of the C. of C. and the assistance of the town in general, and co-operation that we will get from the rural districts, and the progressive and capable City Officials, all working together, none of these undertakings should prove too much for us.

"Above all we shall seek and hope to have the friendly co-operation of our farmer friends. In fact it is our hope that in our membership, in our council and plans for the year's work there will be no corporate limits, but that all of us, townsmen and farmers, shall unite as neighbors sharing each others problems and working out our destiny together.

"Our plan of work. The directors will have regular meetings and collectively pass upon and co-operate with the standing committees. To carry our program forward the activities of the organization will be carried on through standing committees, the chairman of each committee being a member of the board of directors, the other two members being named by the chairman from the membership. These committees will give special attention to the work of their own committee, and report to the full board of directors for decision or assistance. Members are requested to take up problems or suggestions with the appropriate committee, or with the secretary, who is a member of all committees.

"The following is a list of the different standing committees:

Agriculture—H. W. Lynn, Chairman; Fred Bedford, W. L. Hines.

Membership and Finance—E. Clements, Chairman; Oscar Williams, Albert Spill.

Roads—Geo. E. Sengler, Chairman; S. H. Nance, Jake Davidson.

City Improvements—Roger Adams, Chairman; Jno. Q. McAdams, J. Frank Paxton.

Reception and Entertainment—Buford Owen, Chairman; E. A. Shepperd, Carl Henslee.

Rural Co-operation—C. S. Jackson, Chairman; W. W. Poe, Bert E. Low.

"It is our intention to keep the membership in close touch with the work, by public meetings and otherwise and these committees will feel free to call any or all of you to assist them as they need you. Working in this way together we can not fail to secure lasting results for Winters and the Winters community."

"Community building," an enormous subject, was assigned to the new secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, but we don't believe the subject is any bigger than the man who spoke it. Mr. Farrow is making lifelong friends of our people every day, and in our estimation they are not displacing their friendship. Among other things, Mr. Farrow said:

"I am not a theologian, but I confess to you that I know of no better way of serving Him than by serving His children—by serving humanity. I think the man who can beat a trail to the church door on Sunday, kid himself into believing he is a Christian by doing that, and then fail to contribute to anything that will help build the community and better his fellow-man is anything but a Christian.

"And I don't like the terms 'the bunch from town' and 'the bunch from the country.' Without agriculture we would not be able to build any town. You can let flames lay this town in ashes and so long as the fertility of this soil remains the town will be rebuilt.

"There isn't a greater slogan ever brought home to Texas than that of 'more cotton on fewer acres.' It isn't possible for Winters to grow unless the farmers prosper. There never was a town whose merchants could see goods to 'busted' customers. And before this year is out I want more members of this Chamber of Commerce to be from outside the city limits than from within Winters."

Friendly greeting and words of encouragement and praise were brought by Secretary T. N. Carswell of Abilene chamber of commerce, T. A. Bledsoe of Abilene, Hamilton Wright of Stamford, B. M. Walker of the West Texas chamber of commerce, Secretary J. D. Motley of the Ballinger chamber of commerce, and others. At the close of the program Chairman Low called upon a number of farmers for suggestions of what they thought Winters should do. Among the visitors, local men who were introduced were Melvin Townsend, Miller, Finch, Houston Puckett, O. D. Dillingham, John Key, Ben Freeman, John Heck and D. W. Yager, County Agent C. W. Lehmberg was introduced and urged that

School Opened Monday With Large Enrollment

School opened last Monday with one of the brightest prospects for a successful year we have ever had in the history of the school. The auditorium was filled to overflowing for the opening exercises and the seating capacity was taxed to the limit and standing room was all taken up.

The enrollment was the largest in the history of the school. Six hundred and fifty were enrolled in the entire school.

The high school room will accommodate one hundred and seventy and the enrollment is two hundred and five, but barring the crowded condition the prospects for advancement in the year's work are very good.

There is an increase of sixty over last year in high school and a number of others to enroll later.

An interesting program was carried out at the opening exercises: Invocation—Rev. Hal F. Smith; "The Kind of School Winters Needs,"—J. Frank Paxton, president of the board; "Can Winters Afford that School,"—Jno. Q. McAdams; Piano Solo—Mrs. Farris Callan; "Church and School as Co-Workers,"—Rev. H. H. Stephens; "Football and Grades,"—Bert E. Low; "A Word from P. T. A."—Mrs. Dixon; Reading—Miss Margaret Brown; Reading—Mrs. T. N. Carswell.

Bert E. Low offered a gold watch to the athlete making the best grades during the year. This is a commendable thing to do and anyone desiring to encourage any line of good work will find plenty of opportunity and Mr. Smith will be glad to give information about what you might offer a reward for.

Jews to Celebrate Holidays; Local Stores Will Close

The Jewish New Year, 5686 will be ushered in Saturday, September 19th. This day, the one following and the tenth day of the new year which falls on Sept. 28th are the most sacred days of the year for the Jews throughout the world.

These days are characterized by repentance, prayer and fasting. Every individual who is a Jew takes stock of his moral affairs during the year passed and subjects himself to a mental and moral purification on the threshold of the new year.

Believing in the existence of an impersonal God, in a rational and moral code of ethics and comforting himself in the hope of the immortality of his soul. The Jew reveals his inner self to his maker and prays to God to be forgiven for any transgression that he may have committed either knowingly or unknowingly.

God, the All-Seeing and the All-Knowing, goes over every individual's record during the first nine days of the new year and seals the fate of everyone on the tenth day. Each person is given his due share according to the divine judgement—plenty or poverty, life or death in the various forms, happiness or misery, etc.

In due reverence to the sacredness of these days, the Jewish merchants of Winters will keep their stores closed and will hold appropriate services in the Elks Hall, San Angelo.

A special notice of the closing, appears elsewhere in this and next weeks issues of the Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Sutton and daughter Clytie, of Killen are visiting in the city and assisting the force at Norman-Smith Dry Goods Company to arrange the stock for the opening day next Saturday.

emphasis be placed upon rotation and diversification of crops and the preservation of soil fertility by means of terracing.

Music for the banquet was furnished by the Winters chamber of commerce junior band under the direction of Joe T. Ward. At the close of the program those present extended a vote of thanks to the band and Mrs. Ramsel for the entertainment and to the women of the church for the dinner.

Executive Board of P.-T. A. Plan Years Work

The executive board of the Parent-Teacher Association met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Dixon, last Friday evening for the purpose of making plans for the coming year. Discussion was made on the membership drive which will occur the last of September or the first week in October. Plans were made to have a reception for the faculty of the school this (Friday) evening. It is the aim of the P.-T. A. to reach the standard of excellence this year. This is a live, wide-awake organization and should have the hearty cooperation of the entire citizenship of Winters.

Mrs. B. W. Tatum Buried Last Wed.

One of the saddest deaths it has ever been our duty to chronicle was that of Mrs. Iva Lavada Tatum, young wife of W. B. Tatum which occurred at the family home in the Pumphrey community last Tuesday.

She was seventeen years of age and had been sick for several weeks with typhoid fever.

Interment was made in the Winters cemetery Wednesday evening.

There is no language nor deed within the power of man which is able to soften the heart ache and loveliness of those left behind when this young wife was summoned to her eternal home, yet there is comfort for every heart throbt of pain in the presence of the great Comforter who was sent into the world to keep His people until He comes again in glory and with the reward of the faithful in His hands.

First National Bank at Home to School Children

On last Monday immediately after the opening exercises of the school, the First National Bank gave open house to the school children. This popular institution always do things in a big way and took advantage of this being a legal holiday and the first day of school to receive the children as their guests.

Punch was served by Miss Bonnie Davidson and Miss Modessett as each one entered and then they were ushered on through the bank where they were given a pencil and pen staff by Miss Christine McDuff and book covers by Mr. Deffebaugh.

There were about six hundred and fifty children visited this institution and quite a number of parents.

Miss Gladys Neely will leave Tuesday for Abilene where she will enter McMurry College for the coming term.

GRANDMOTHER GREGORY CELEBRATES 70th BIRTHDAY

One of the loveliest occasions of the year was a surprise birthday celebration, honoring the seventieth birthday of Mother Gregory.

The home was beautifully decorated in festoons of pink and white crepe paper with ferns and cut flowers artistically arranged and a lovely birthday cake iced in white, with dainty pink rose buds holding seventy tiny candles, graced the center of the table.

After everything had been arranged, Mother Gregory was sent for and everyone enjoyed the surprised happy look as she realized just what had been planned for her happiness and greatly enjoyed the happy hours spent with her special friends.

Delicious ice cream and cake was served to Mr. and Mrs. Van H. Piercy and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Labenske, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Patterson and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tanner, Misses Mildred Labenske and Irene Perry, Mr. Loy Juenger and the honoree Mother Gregory.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Washam of were visiting friends in our last Tuesday. Mr. Wash-cotton here this fall -m will return to son who is a

West Texas Fair Opens At Abilene, Sept 21st

Abilene, Texas.—Speed contests unrivalled in the annals of West Texas history; football clashes with the zest of battle of the old Roman arena; spectacular Hippodrome circus acts before the grandstand throughout the six-day period of the Fair; magic fireworks displays and a "Joy Zone" of choice features; and finally a spell-binding historical pageant, "The Vanishing Frontier." Such is the story in brief of the best line-up of entertainment ever offered a West Texas as a holiday crowd. This is the program that will be turned loose when the West Texas Fair gates swing open here September 21.

As to the automobile races, which draw annually huge crowds of spectators, this year's events will mark a high point, as did the July Fourth races. With increased grandstand capacity, the "dustless" track, one of the finest in the Southwest, for which Abilene is famous, and with the nationally known racers who have signified their intention of competing in the two-day events, the races Wednesday, September 23, and Friday, September 25, give promise of the biggest thrills offered in the entire state during Fair season. Names to conjure with will feature the races program of the West Texas Fair: Red Shafer, West Texas' racing idol, and national figure, will meet Ralph DePalma, that speed wizard; and Frank Lockhart, the boy wonder who bids fair to challenge all records. And that's only a part of the story of the famous races scheduled for Fair dates.

No need to emphasize the call of college football contests to West Texas crowds. There will be plenty of pep and interest in the events scheduled between West Texas colleges and leading high schools.

The greatest single feature of entertainment offered by the Fair association is the brilliant spectacle, outstripping any similar event held in the West, when the colleges and schools of the city co-operate in a magnificent pageant called "The Vanishing Frontier." Gorgeous lighting effects, people from wide sections taking prominent parts; all the glorious history of this section which is the vanishing border-line flashed before the assembled crowds in a magnificent pageant of events. Such is the program for the opening night of the 1925 West Texas Fair, scheduled to bring thousands of West Texans to Abilene.

Mrs. R. W. Powell was a recent visitor in San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Mason of the Wilmeth community were business visitors here last Friday. Mr. Mason has just completed a new gin in that community and ginned the first bale last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Rutledge of Brownwood were week-end visitors in the homes of their daughters, Mrs. R. W. Powell and Mrs. E. V. Hayes.

Manville Bros. Are Coming

Elsewhere in these columns appears an ad, calling your attention to the coming of and extolling the virtues of the above named attraction. And if the advance man, who is in town new putting up bills is to be believed, Mr. Manville has a mighty nice show this season.

This show has played Winters a good many times in recent years and has a rule given general satisfaction and 'tis said that the show is if anything better now than than on former occasions. The plays chosen are all new and of a lighter vein, more on the order of comedies, there are several of the plays that have the ever likable "Toby," comedian and these parts are in the hands of Mr. Vic Walters, one of the best "Toby" comedians on the road today. Mr. Ted Chase is the leading man and is well known in Texas. Miss Ida McColm is the leading lady and is well and favorably known in Winters and has many admirers here. There is an abundance of new, clean vaudeville between the acts and there is a jazz band or orchestra under the direction of Mr. Herb Cook and he calls them "The Bear Cats" and they are just the hottest bunch of jazzers you ever listened to. They entertain you for thirty minutes each evening with songs and the latest popular musical numbers.

The opening play, "Little Miss Fingers," is a bright new three act comedy drama from the pen of Robert Sherman, the author of "Spooks" and several other recent dramatic successes. This will be the play for next Monday night to be followed by others just as good each night.

The tent will be located on the vacant lots just east of the Methodist church.

The prices during this engagement will be, Adults 30c, Children, 15c. One lady will be admitted free next Monday night when accompanied by a paid 30c Adult ticket. Comfortable reserved chairs may be obtained after entering the tent, Adults 20c Children, 10c.

Who Is to Blame For Lawlessness In the Homes?

Who is to blame for lawlessness among children—the father or the mother? Or either?

These interesting questions are brought to mind by the mighty film drama Mrs. Wallace Reid offers at the Queen Theatre on Friday and Saturday, September 11 and 12. "Broken Laws," her newest photoplay deals with Mother Love and the Law.

One of the principal figures is a boy, Bobby Allen, who develops into a tyrant with no regard for law or for other people.

Who was to blame? Bobby's father taught him it was smart to "beat" speed cops. He drank, too, and made light of the constituted law of the land in other ways.

Bobby's mother spoiled and humored him. She could see no wrong in the boy at all, regardless of what he did.

Between the two he had very little chance, and soon got into some very serious trouble.

The answer seems to be that both were to blame. But regardless of the problems presented in "Broken Laws" it is first of all entertainment of the finest kind. A strong, virile drama, played by artists and presented in a most lavish way, Mrs. Reid's latest picture gives every evidence of being more successful than her last, "Human Wreckage."

Mrs. Reid does the finest work of her career as the indulgent mother in "Broken Laws." Splendid work is also done by Percy Marmont, Jacqueline Saunders, Ramsey Wallace, Arthur Rankin, Joan Standing, Pat Moore, Jane Wray and Lincoln Stedman.

A Wise and Righteous Law

Is Being Flagrantly Violated in this County Every Day

The Courts are Conscientious and Competent: Public Opinion Must Support Them

Any person who treats sick people for any trouble or disease by any method, whether by prescribing drugs or using a mechanical means or by giving advice, one or all or any method whatsoever, should have knowledge of the human body and its diseases. If he does not know what is the matter with a sick man, he cannot know what treatment is best nor when any particular form or method should be used.

It is against the law in this State for any person to treat or minister to the sick, charging for services, unless he has passed the State Board appointed by the Governor, obtained a license, and registered it with the District Clerk. Any person so treating people by any method or system, whether a regular doctor, a homeopath, eclectic, osteopath, magnetic healer, chiropractor or what not, is violating this law.

Contagious diseases spread because unrecognized, children die that ought to have anti-toxin, cancer goes to incurable stages when early scientific treatment might have cured. In short enforcement of the Medical Practice Act will lessen human suffering and save life.

Human life is sacred. The State owes a duty to citizens which it wants to perform. Public opinion must co-operate with the courts.

The Medical profession of Runnels county, believing in law enforcement and knowing the dangers of ignorance in the sick room, are supporting the courts in performing their sworn duty.

Will you not, as good citizens, give your Courts the same moral support? Signed:

Announcing A New Era of Merchandise,

The Opening On Saturday Morning, September 12, 8 o'Clock

Norman-Smith Dry Goods Co.

OF WINTERS, TEXAS

Charles Broadway Rouss, was the founder of the great merchandise organization bearing his name.

That business can be human, kindly, interesting and helpful was demonstrated in the life and activity of Charles Rouss, the founder of the House of C. B. Rouss, builded upon honesty and a plan of helpfulness to serve young business men and in turn to serve their customers, it grew from a small beginning corporation that has made millions, and today occupies two great buildings in the wholesale district of New York, with an ever growing volume in its colossal trade, not only did this concern help its customers but it also aided and encouraged manufacturers who were honest and ambitious, paying spot cash for their products and assisting them through the critical stage. Today there are great manufacturers who owe their success to the truly benevolent efforts of Charles Broadway Rouss. None who merited this assistance were refused and to this day the house of C. B. Rouse is being repaid in gratitude by having favored access to preferential values though the great business benefactor is long since dead, the business is carried on by his son, Peter Rouss, now owner along the same liberal helpful lines as laid down by the father.

Once a merchant earns the confidence of the house of Rouss, and it demands the most rigid honesty not only to the house but to the customer, he is permitted to share in the special purchases made by the house of C. B. Rouse, now in the Rouss organization.

Lee Hits At 1-Crop Idea

Rotan, Texas, Sept. 1.—R. Q. Lee of Cisco, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce made the final speech of his second campaign here Tuesday before a great gathering of farmers, business men and ladies. All business houses closed and cars blocked the streets for two blocks, where he spoke from a truck on a street corner. He discussed the program of diversified and intensive farming, in behalf of which he has campaigned the entire north half of West Texas and quoted statistics bringing an indictment against the system of one crop agriculture.

"The South is annually sending 55 per cent of her income to the Middle West for food and feed that should be produced here" he declared. He also discussed the necessity for Texas feeding herself at home. He described the operation of the poultry operation in California and in his home county. Many farmers, he declared, look up to the poultry industry as a small business, but Missouri produces more wealth from poultry than from corn and the poultry industry in California produces more revenue than the leading oil fields of Texas.

He declared Texas farmers cultivate their crops in a careless manner and that only by intensive cultivation can agriculture pay.

Rotan, the terminus of the Texas Central Railroad, is a good field for Col. Lee's campaign. The land of Fisher county is not exceeded for fertility by the land of any section of West Texas, and numberless potential irrigation sites exist in the county. Some few small projects are operated in the county with remarkable success. The Clear Fork crosses the county and some wonderful natural basins await a dam to make them great irrigation lakes. Rotan has five gins and a cotton oil mill. Poultry is raised on a small scale, but according to local business men, could be developed into a great industry.

A local merchant told Col. Lee that he had farmer customers who seemed ashamed to market eggs and produce, but that education is bringing them around and that Rotan is ready to launch a diversified program that will make this section come into its rightful position in the agricultural world.

Mr. Lee held numerous conferences with farmers and great enthusiasm was manifested in his work. He left at a late hour for Cisco. He announced that he would not launch another campaign until late in the fall, but will make an address in Comanche Sept. 7.

Miss Laura Helen Coupland, of Winters, visited her uncle, J. W. Carter, Sunday and Monday. She has recently returned from Canton, China, where she spent five years as a missionary.—Anson News.

Rocking chairs $2.75 to $7. Round oak dining table, extension top for $12. Kitchen tables $1.50.—Clements Hardware Co.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Schindler returned home last Sunday from Marlin, where they have been taking the baths and visiting in the home of his brother, S. A. Schindler.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Clark and little daughter, Virginia of Miles were visitors here last Tuesday. Mr. Clark will buy cotton here this fall and will move his family just as soon as arrangements can be made.

Jack Pickford and Nazimova in "My Son"

Nazimovia In Great Picture, "My Son"

Edwin Carewe's picturization of "My Son," which will be at the Queen Theatre, is a mighty achievement for the First National director, Monday and Tuesday, September 14 and 15.

Nazimova plays the starring role and gives to the portrayal a finished quality comparable to the finest screen work. She plays the role of "Ana Silva," a Portuguese fisher woman who loves three men. Tony her son, she loves most of all, for he is the image of his father. The drama that comes into the lives of Tony and his mother, brought by Betty Smith, a flippant flapper from the city, is vivid and compelling. The audiences at the local showing were held spellbound by the acting. Especially by the last reel were they affected. In that fast-moving bit of action they saw a mother turn tigress and fell him with an axe handle rather than see her son become a thief.

Jack Pickford plays the name role and proves D. W. Griffith's statement about him: "Jack Pickford is the most natural actor that ever walked in my studio," the "old master" said.

Other splendid portrayals are given by Hobart Bosworth, Charley Murray, Mary Akin, Ian Keith, Constance Bennett and Dot Farley.

San Angelo Boosters to Be Here 15

San Angelo, Texas, Sept. 8, 1925.—The second annual series of friendship trips are under way backed by representatives of over one hundred San Angelo firms. The sixth trip on Tuesday, September 15th, will include visits to Harriett, Miles, Rowena, Ballinger, Winters, where the San Angelo boosters will eat dinner and thence to Wingate, Wilmett, Norton, Maverick and Robert Lee. The party expects to stop at Winters about an hour and thirty minutes, or long enough for the boosters to parade up the streets headed by San Angelo DeMolay Band, after which a few speakers will invite the citizens of Winters to attend the greatest Fair ever planned for San Angelo, which will take place this year on October 26-31st, the week following the Dallas Fair.

This year the San Angelo merchants are also planning a "Trade Week," for the same dates as the ALL WEST TEXAS EXPOSITION. This big shopping event will be planned by the speakers next Tuesday. In general it is a plan to keep West Texas dollars in West Texas and encourage trading at home.

The eight friendship tours planned by San Angelo's boosters will visit fifty-four towns and cities of West Texas and will carry the trippers over sixteen hundred miles. The trips are being made one a week, five of them by automobile and three by special trains on the Orient and Santa Fe. The San Angelo DeMolay

JUNIOR UNION SOCIAL

The Spark Plug Junior Union were entertained on the lawn of the First Baptist church by Mrs. Dry and Mrs. Green last Wednesday evening.

After playing many out door games, a pleasant contest was entered into which called forth much "bow-wow-ing and me-ow-ing" from the Juniors. Iced melon was served to about twenty-five.

We were sorry that none of the boys were able to attend the business meeting that night.

"Time to drop anthracite." Drop it into your coal bin, if you have the price.

Band and other entertaining features will be carried on all of the excursions.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ringo and little daughters, Lucile and Lillie Mae, of Brownwood, were guests in the home of Mrs. R. W. Powell and Mrs. E. V. Hayes the past week-end.

Mrs. Ed P. Eason and son, Ralph, came in Saturday from California where they have been for the past several months. Mr. Eason remained in California and just as soon as Mrs. Eason can arrange several business matters of importance she will return and they expect to make their home in that state. The Eason's have lots of friends here who will regret to know they are leaving Winters and wish for them every success and happiness in their choice of a future home.

The eye opener often closes them permanently.

MODART CORSETS

The Secret of Figure Grooming

Modart is a front fastening garment which makes it easier to adjust. It gives support where support is needed and, by cupping under the body, "stays put" and does not restrict the waist. Modart has a closed back because in this way only can the extreme flat hip and back line be accomplished.

Modart is an especially light, flexible corset made from the finest materials, so designed that it not only gives a general slenderizing effect, but actually reduces the figure.

Master Charles Junior Smith, little son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Smith, of this city, celebrated his fourth birthday last Tuesday afternoon, from four to six, with a gay party, for a number of his little friends and playmates. Mrs. Smith had the spacious home decorated with beautiful cut flowers. The centerpiece on the dining table was the usual bright pink birthday cake with four candles, representing the four short happy years Junior has spent in his fine old world. As the guests arrived they presented their youthful host with their little remembrances, showing their love and thoughtfulness of their friend. Junior received many little gifts, from grandmother on down to the smallest one present. Many games were enjoyed and mirthful sounds rang through the neighborhood as the kiddie played "I Spy," "Droy the Handkerchief," "Pinning the Donkey Tail On" and eating marshmallows on a string. Pictures of several different poses were taken of the happy group. Music selections were rendered on the piano by Miss Totsy Denson, Miss Mildred Smith, Mrs. McFarlane and Mrs. Willie Wheat. Delicious ice cream was served with the birthday cake, lemonade was also served during the social hours. The little friends participating in the pleasures of the afternoon were: Little Misses Dorsine Smith, Dorothy Frances Moore, Merle Shaw, Mary Lee, Johnny Ruth and Dorsey Nell McFarland, Pattie Louise Smith, and Byron Wheat, Clifton Jones, Clay Allen, Beryley Smith and the little host, Charles Junior Smith. BILIOUS ATTACKS

From Which Kentucky Man Suffered Two or Three Times a Month, Relieved by Black-Draught.

Lawrenceburg, Ky.—Mr. J. P. Nevins, a local coal dealer and farmer, about two years ago learned of the value of Theoford's Black-Draught liver medicine, and now he says:

"Until then I suffered with severe bilious attacks that came on two or three times each month. I would get nauseated. I would have dizziness and couldn't work. I would take pills until I was worn-out with them. I didn't seem to get relief. After taking the pills my bowels would act a couple or three times, then I would be very constipated.

"A neighbor told me of Black-Draught and I began its use. I never have found so much relief as it gave me. I would not be without it for anything.

"It seemed to cleanse my whole system and make me feel like new. I would take a few doses—get rid of the bile and have my usual clear head, feel full of 'pep' and could do twice the work."

Orders Pour In For New Oakland

Never in the history of the Oakland Motor company has such a deluge of orders poured into the factory during the first week after the showing of a new car as occurred the week following July 25, when the new Oakland Six with Harmonic Balancer was introduced to the public for the first time. The substantial price reductions, ranging from $70 to $350, which were announced by Oakland, have caused a near sensation among automobile buyers, resulting in a prompt increase in retail sales.

As a result of the demand for the new cars from every section of the country, the Oakland factories at Pontiac, Michigan are going at top speed to satisfy the requests of dealers who want their allotments doubled.

The daily production schedule was at a higher peak when the cars were announced this year than at the announcement of any previous Oakland cars.

Production on the new cars was well under way early in July. More than 700 cars were driven away from the factory just the week before announcement, for dealers in the mid-western states, the far distant dealers having already received cars.

In spite of this, three days after the new cars were announced, it was found necessary to increase the daily production schedule.

C. W. Matheson, vice-president and director of sales, received countless telegrams from dealers telling of record sales during the first week's display and ordering more cars.

In Chicago 204 retail orders were taken the first two days the cars were shown; 202 cars were sold in Detroit the first three days the new models were on display; 26 cars were ordered in Miami, Florida the first day. Even in the smaller cities, 20 or more orders were taken the first day. At Aberdeen, Washington, the first carload of cars was sold before they could unload, and another order wired to the factory. Ten carloads of cars were shipped by express to Florida three days after the cars were announced.

"Oakland has never produced a car which has received such spontaneous welcome," states Mr. Matheson. "And probably the most gratifying feature was the large number of sales made before the cars were shown, proving that Oakland quality at the new low prices offered a value without parallel.

The beauty of the new body lines and external features are apparent, yet most of the 100 improvements and refinements are in the vital parts of the chassis. The Harmonic Balancer, oil filter and air cleaner are mechanical features that caused much comment. We believe that the Harmonic Balancer will stand out as the great engineering development of the year, comparable to such automotive achievements as four wheel brakes and balloon tires."

Brother of Local Man Was In Air Ship Wreck

Lester Coleman, of Temple, Texas, brother of W. T. Coleman of Winters, was among the survivors of the Shenandoah wreck, according to a telegram received Saturday from Mr. Coleman's brother at Temple.

The following paragraphs concerning the wrecking of the giant air craft are taken from the daily press: "Caldwell, Ohio, Sept. 3.—America's pride of the air, the Shenandoah, tonight lies scattered about the rugged hills of southeastern Ohio—broken and twisted, only a memory.

"In her plunge to earth during the early morning hours she carried to their deaths her commander, Zachary Lansdowne, of Greenville, Ohio, and thirteen other officers and enlisted men of her crew of forty-three.

"Caught in a squall while attempting to ride out a severe storm, the giant ship's massive framework broke in twain more than half a mile up the heavens and plunged in separate parts to the ground.

"Three Texas men were aboard the ill-fated ship and one, Lieutenant Commander Lewis Hancock of Austin, was a victim. The others were: Lieutenant Commander E. R. Rosendahl of Cleburne, who is now ranking surviving officer of the ship, and L. K. Coleman of Temple, neither of whom were injured."

Queen Gets High Flying Laugh Movie

The fastest sight-seeing tour on record occurs in Reginald Denny's latest Universal-Jewel feature, "I'll Show You the Town," coming to the Queen Theatre, Wednesday and Thursday, September 16 and 17.

With just thirty minutes in which to show a wealthy widow the sights of the town, Denny accomplishes the unusual feat in less than a quarter of an hour. The customary rubber-neck-wagon or Rolls Royce, was discarded by the star who rejoiced in the opportunity to ride his old hobby-horse—his airplane. Cissy Fitzgerald, who plays one of the character leads in the production, was given the thrill of her life as Denny's companion in a hurried flight over a metropolitan city.

Incidentally, the airplane used so effectively in "I'll Show You the Town," is Denny's private ship in which he has made several long trips. Denny is an experienced aviator and

J. N. Key has taken over the local Retail Merchants Association and intends to run a bonded credit and collection agency in connection with the association and has secured office rooms over the Winters State Bank.

It seems to us that the organization should be perpetuated and would save the business institutions of the city many thousands of dollars during a year's time. And in Mr. Key we believe the organization has at its head a man who will give competent attention to its affairs, but the service it expects to render cannot be accomplished unless it has the liberal support of our business interests.

"I'll Show You th 'Town," adapted from Elmer Davis' rollicking novel of the same name, is the story of a young professor who is placed in the strange predicament of having to show three different women the sights of the town at the same time, keeping each of the women in ignorance of the other's existence. Denny is supported by a notable cast including Marian Nixon, Edward Kimball, Lilyan Tashman, Hayden Stevenson, Cissy Fitzgerald, Margaret Livingston, Neely Edwards, William A. Carroll, Martha Mattox, Helen Greene and Lionel Branham. The production was made under the direction of Harry A. Pollard.

THE BABY CROP

Last year two babies were born for every person who died in the United States. In several European countries, however, the storks went on a strike. In France the death rate and birth rate were almost a tie. The American quota, some 2,645,000 babies, totaled about 10,580 tons.

THE CONSTITUTION

July 4 is a date known to every school child. September 17 is another date of almost equal importance, but few people realize that it is anything different from the other 365 days. How many remember that it is the anniversary of the signing of the constitution of the United States?

The makers of the American constitution had from some source a wisdom that seemed like divine guidance. With insight into human nature, they put together a system that has worked without any vital change for 138 years.

The purpose of the observance of Constitution week is to counteract the growing disrespect for the law and the increase in crime. If there is to be respect for law it is necessary that the citizens should be informed in regard to the law—and the best point to begin the study is at its fountain head, the constitution of the United States.

YOU SHOULD BELONG

You want to help Winters grow and prosper. Contribute your efforts toward this end through the Chamber of Commerce for there, by organized co-operation, the service rendered by each individual is united with the work of the entire body. The net result is that the work to be done is undertaken by an efficient, powerful unit composed of dozens of individuals, rather than by dozens lined by lack of organization.

One man or one firm sometimes can do a great deal of good, but when banded together with others of like intent, his power for good is infinitely greater.

Don't join the Chamber of Commerce as a favor. This organization does and will do a lot more for you than you can do for it.

THE WIDOW PRECEDENT

Are we starting a new succession to office? Are we to have families who shall occupy position by right of marriage? Will there be an heir-apparent to the Presidency in time?

The prospects for widows seems not so gloomy as it once did. At least in politics. There is some existence what is termed "the Widow Precedent," by the working of which the wife of a public man who dies is advanced to the post herself.

Recently Mrs. Rogers of Massachusetts was chosen to occupy her husband's seat in Congress. Already two women from California, Mrs. Nolan and Mrs. Kahn, are in Washington competing the lawmaking of their husbands. Mrs. Ross of Wyoming sits in the Governor's chair formerly occupied by her husband. Mrs. Ferguson of Texas did not wait for her spouse to die. Mrs. Huck was elected to congress from Illinois, succeeding her father.

Most of the congresswomen made good. More than one woman has been not only the brains but also the ambition and will power of the concern. Many a woman has held on and kept her husband snug until success came.

Chevrolet Company Sets New Record

The two-millionth Chevrolet built September 8 establishes a new record in automotive history.

The Chevrolet Motor Company is the first maker of selective gear shift cars to attain this production.

"Passing the two-million production mark emphasizes Chevrolet's progress," said W. S. Knudson, president of the company. "The present record should not be the last as the company expects to produce close to a half million cars during 1925 which will exceed by a wide margin the 1923 Chevrolet peak production."

When the first "Baby Grand" touring model was turned out at the Flint plant in 1913 Chevrolet production for that year totaled only 5,987 which today would represent less than three days work. The original plant would be lost today among the huge buildings of the organization which include motor, pressed metal and assembly plants at Flint, Mich., six other assembly plants at Tarrytown, N. Y., St. Louis, Mo., Oakland, Cal., Janesville, Wis., Norwood, O., and Buffalo, N. Y., three factories at Detroit for the manufacture respectively of gears, axles and forgings; a transmission plant at Toledo, O., a small parts factory at Bay City, Mich., and an export assembling plant at Bloomfield, N. J. The company occupies 167 buildings, with a total floor space of 6,555,227 square feet. The various plants occupy 345 acres. The first Chevrolet, purchased by the original owner, is still in perfect running condition. At the conservative of 10,000 miles per car, the two million Chevrolets produced since the completion of this first Chevrolet represents 20,000,000,000 miles of transportation or more than 40,000 round trips between the earth and the moon. Placed end to end the 2,000,000 Chevrolets would form a traffic jam 4,655 miles long.

The Chevrolet Motor company at 12 years old is a comparative newcomer in the automotive field. The gigantic strides which it has made are illustrated well by the fact that nearly one million of the two million cars produced so far were made during the last two years.

As the company grew, improved machinery permitted more cars to be built per employe, marvelous precision equipment rendered possible quick and accurate assembling and the resultant increase in production gave the advantage of tremendous purchasing power.

These factors formed an endless chain continually pulling down the cost of manufacture, an advantage which constantly has been passed on to the purchaser. The result is that the two millionth Chevrolet, a Fisher body coach with refinements, improvements and stamina undreamed of a decade ago, now sells at a figure more than $300 below the price of the original Chevrolet touring car which sold for $1,000.

The Company's position in the automotive industry was strengthened further in 1925 when it became one of the units in the gigantic General Motors Corporation. The executive offices are in the General Motors building at Detroit.

Disregarding the idea of yearly models, constant efforts are being made to improve the car. But changes, even of the most minor variety, are made only after long and gruelling tests over the roads of the General Motors Proving Ground at Milford, Mich., not far from Detroit, where seven Chevrolet cars, operating night and day, are making a total mileage of 75,000 monthly.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuft of Minneapolis, Minn., arrived in the city the latter part of the past week and will probably spend the winter in the home of Mrs. Tuft's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Edwards.

Industry is Doing the World's Work

—The people who know most about industry are those who are in industry. In addition to knowing about industry people who are in the public service industry know about the interest that all the rest of the people have in that industry.

—The public utility industry—for instance the service of West Texas Telephone Co., is peculiar in that it can do well only as the people served by it do well. It is an essential service, and experience has shown that an industry which is affected with a public interest serves well only through co-operation between the service and the people served.

—The spirit of co-operation for the benefit of both the service and those served is the spirit that inspires this company to look always to the welfare of its customers and of the community it serves.
