WASHINGTON

The nation will bow next Tuesday, February 22nd, in homage to the memory of George Washington, founder and president of the free states of America. Throughout the nation flags will fly, school children will enjoy a holiday, official business will cease while liberty loving Americans do honor to the memory of the Father of Our Country.

Because for all America, George Washington represents a heroic idea—because the United States as a nation strives to live up to that ideal—February 22 must forever be a day set apart, a day of honor and of reverence.

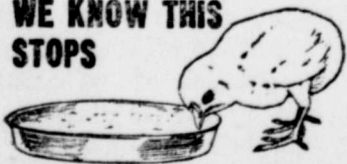

ROOM FOR IMPROVEMENT

Despite the many wonderful inventions of today there is still a large field for improvement and there always will be. For instance, marvelously perfect as the locomotive of today seems, the cab is on the wrong part of the engine for the driver to have a clear view of the track ahead. The latest typewriter still requires the operator to move the carriage back by hand. No one has thought up a way to make grade crossings absolutely safe, except by making the highway over or under the track.

Science has not discovered a way to forecast an earthquake or the eruption of a volcano. No means for preventing disastrous fires have been found. The fly is still doing its deadly work in carrying disease germs. No enlightened sage has thought out a way by which the nations of the earth will understand each other. There is quite a bit to do, if one thinks it over a little.

Those Mexicans are great brewers—of war.

CIVIC PRIDE

Civic pride is but local patriotism. In fact, civic pride is the most common manifestation of patriotism. Every citizen of a community feels a sense of responsibility toward that community, and who is convinced that his community is superior to all others, is a patriot who differs from the national patriot only in that he has brought his patriotism home to himself.

Chevrolet Reports Big Increase In Car Production

Responding to a winter demand for cars unprecedented in the history of the company, the Chevrolet Motor Company in January again shattered all production records for that month by building 73,676 units, almost 30,000 cars more than were made in January of 1926.

The January 1926 production in its turn almost tripled the production of January, 1925.

Under the tentative production schedule for February the company will be prepared to make a total of 84,000 units, which would establish a new monthly production record in the history of the company, exceeding even the record monthly output in September, 1926, of 81,158 cars.

The heavy winter production is the result of demand for "the most beautiful car in Chevrolet history" which Chevrolet buyers have made upon the company's dealers since the announcement of lower prices and numerous refinements in the entire Chevrolet line.

In 1926 the Chevrolet Motor Company led all manufacturers of gear shift cars by building 732,154 cars, an increase of more than 40 per cent over the previous record year. Under a $10,000,000 expansion program initiated in 1926 the Chevrolet Motor Company is equipped for even greater production during 1927.

The new machinery making this enlarged production possible is completely installed in the various

Many Vital New Improvements Since January 1st

Dodge Brothers announce still further improvements of a far-reaching and vital nature in their product.

A new clutch—silent, simple, prompt and sure.

Softer pedal action, easier gear shifting, freedom from wear and absolute SILENCE OF ACTION are the major advantages of this superior design.

Vital betterments in the universal joint, propeller shaft, differential and axle shafts materially increase the car's long life and sturdiness—exceptional as these qualities have always been.

A steering wheel that now responds to the lightest touch, a striking array of smart new color effects for all types and many other new features definitely mark a new era in the history of Dodge Brothers Motor Car.

West Texas C. of C. Legislative Letter

Austin, Tex.—With the first lap of the 40th Legislature negotiated, two unusual things are seen to characterize it; the large number of bills introduced and the few that were passed.

Another unusual feature of the bills introduced was the large number of regulatory measures, seeking to regulate every thing from sewing machines to steam engines. Representative Jacks of Dallas and J. R. Masterson took the lead in this activity, their main objections being ice factories, cotton gins, and public utilities of various sorts. The bills sought to make the public necessity clause in gins, ice factories, etc., cut to regulate rates generally and put all these enterprises under supervision of the Texas Railroad Commission. The proposal brought the largest number of people to the capitol of any legislation offered. It is safe to predict, however, that the regulatory measures will not pass muster, as the public demand has been proven lacking.

Tax Survey Provision

The resolution which was passed at the Amarillo convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce last year asking for a tax survey of the state was enacted into a law and has been signed by Governor Moody. The joint resolution provides for a commission of 13 men, 7 legislators and 6 private citizens to be appointed by the Governor. A special legislative session will be called when the committee is ready to report.

Federal Aid to be Restored

The uncertainty of West Texas being represented on the Highway Commission passed with the appointment of Judge W. R. Ely of Callahan and Taylor counties. R. A. Thompson, builder of the Wichita Conservation project, was made highway engineer. Due to the strong personnel of the Highway Commission, federal aid that was temporarily withdrawn from the state will be restored.

Tax University Lands

A measure of peculiar interest to West Texas and one that brought much discussion was that offered by Representative Boggs of San Angelo. It proposed constitutional amendment permitting counties to tax University land in their borders. Boggs was compelled to modify the amendment to a limitation of $1.70 on the $100. The Abilene Morning News made the following pertinent comment on the proposed amendment:

"The people of Texas last fall gave indication that they would favor this measure. They adopted a constitutional amendment permitting counties to tax land in their borders owned by the public schools of other counties. If we remember correctly this amendment got a bigger majority than any of the others in the election. The University of Texas lands are immensely valuable thanks to the discovery of oil. Why shouldn't counties tax them? There are 17 counties containing the land and they can't at present make the University pay a nickel into the treasury for county purposes. It is an injustice that should be righted." The West Texas Chamber of Commerce agrees with the position taken in this editorial.

Decisive Vote

The sensation of the 40th Legislature was the expulsion of two of its members on charge of bribery. Respect for this body will not be lost because of the alleged misconduct of Representatives Moore and Dale. However, if there had been any other action than that taken, there would have been a feeling of distrust. The decisive action of the House who heard all the testimony was in reality a tribute to that body and shows its desire to be above the very idea of suspicion.

Harwell-Hickman Buyers Return From Market

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hickman, buyers for Harwell-Hickman Dry Goods store, came in last Saturday from Dallas, where they bought new spring merchandise.

Mr. Hickman says they found a reduction in prices in accord with the low prices of cotton, and many beautiful new things were purchased for each department of the store. In the ready-to-wear and millinery departments many lovely dresses, coats, hats and other things have already arrived and are on display. They purchased the exclusive line of Nellie Donn wash dresses in lovely prints of fast colors. Many lovely patterns in piece goods and silks are arriving daily and, in fact, new things for every department are on display and priced reasonably.

Gloria Swanson's New Role That of Burlesque Chorine

In "Fine Manners," her latest Paramount starring production, Gloria Swanson adds still another characterization to her large gallery of interesting screen portraits.

Gloria ventures into a field entirely foreign to anything she's ever before attempted. "Fine Manners" finds the star enacting the part of a little burlesque chorus girl.

Pretty, vivacious, happy, and all full of the joy of living, she attracts the attention of a wealthy young society man. He falls in love with her because of the girl's naturalness, so conspicuously absent in the debutantes he knows.

What happens when she is induced to take a course in "Fine Manners," provides the audience with a series of thrilling climaxes, and more than a few laughs. Gloria is better than ever, and aiding the star in her efforts are such fine players as Eugene O'Brien, Helen Dunbar and Walter Goss. "Fine Manners" comes to the Queen Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, February 23 and 24. James Ashmore Creelman and Frank Vreeland are credited with the story. Richard Rosson directed.

THE LIFE OF ABRAHAM LINCOLN

(By Leola Collingsworth, Junior of the Pumphrey School.)

Mr. Lincoln was born in an old log cabin, in the county of Hardin, Ky., February 12, 1809. His father, Samuel Lincoln, came to Massachusetts from England in the year 1637, and settled at Salem. The decedents moved to Pennsylvania and then to Virginia, where they were recognized as people of a good family.

Abraham's father was a roving man, unable to read and write his own name.

He married Nancy Hanks, a woman of good character. The cabin to which they moved was built of logs and contained but one room and a doorway, which was built of split logs. A block of wood was used for a chair, a split log on a pole for a table. The fire place was built of sticks and stone plastered with clay and was well built.

In this cabin Abraham Lincoln was born under such conditions he had little chance for an education. In fact, he only attended school but one year in all his life.

In 1816, when Abraham was seven years old, the family moved to Indiana, where the first winter was passed in a half faced camp, a shed built of logs. Abraham slept in an attic loft.

The boy grew to manhood, living in the out-of-doors, helping on the farm. The amount he earned a day was 25c. In 1818, when he was nine years old, his mother died and the following year his father married Sarah Johnson, who was a widow. She brought to the family a little property, which added to the comfort.

Abraham took up an interest in politics. He was elected in 1842 and served for eight years. In 1842 he married Miss Mary Todd, a young Kentucky lady of a good family. He met her while in Springfield.

Abraham was elected as a representative in 1846. In 1858 he again became a candidate for president and was elected at the third ballot over Stephen A. Douglas and John C. Breckenridge.

Abraham had but a few books of his own. He read every book he could get hold of. This included the Bible, first of all, Aesops Fables, Robinson Crusoe and Pilgrim's Progress. He had a library of some other choice books. He gained a knowledge of Arithmetic by figuring on a wooden shovel with a piece of charcoal, whittling off the surface of the shovel when it was covered with figures. In 1830 Abraham's father settled in Bacon county, and Mr. Lincoln was in the Ford theatre with his young wife and was shot with a gun.

Mrs. C. W. Gregory and Mrs. R. L. Labenske left Tuesday for Dallas, where they will buy new millinery and ready-to-wear for their exclusive ladies' shop.

Lloyd Completes 'The Wise Guy'

Frank Lloyd, who produced the well remembered "Sea Hawk," has just completed a new production for First National which promises to surpass in interest his previous achievement.

This is "The Wise Guy," with James Kirkwood in the title role. The picture is booked to be shown at the Queen Theatre Monday and Tuesday, February 21 and 22.

Others featured in the cast of "The Wise Guy" are Betty Compson, Mary Astor, Mary Carr, George F. Marion and George Cooper. It was especially written for the screen by Jules Furthman.

"The Wise Guy" sees Kirkwood in the role of a crook who turns to evangelism as a means of making money. He traveled from town to town with a big tent-tabernacle, and while he holds the populace of the towns spellbound with his eloquent cant his confederates go through the congregation and strip their pockets. In the end, however, the faking preacher's holy words convince his "gang" and finally even himself, and they decide to go straight.

It is a powerful picture, one of the strongest that Frank Lloyd has ever made, and with a story like the thunder of a cannon.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our deepest thanks to our neighbors and friends for the many kind acts and words of comfort and cheer in our darkest hour, when death claimed our loved one. Especially do we wish to thank Dr. T. V. Jennings and Spill Bros. for the many courtesies and kind acts extended, and our neighbors for the beautiful floral offerings. Mere words cannot convey the depth of our feelings, our hearts are full and we can only express the wish that God will bless each and every one of you and send just such friends to you in the hours of darkness such as that through which we have just passed.—Henry Vogler and Children, Mr. and Mrs. M. Mrs. Henry Vogler Passed Away Suddenly

The sudden death of Mrs. Henry Vogler which occurred at the family home in the Dale community Monday, February 7th, came as a profound shock to relatives and friends.

Deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Hantsche of Roscoe, and was twenty-five years of age at the time of her death. She was born at Yorktown, Dewitt county, April 15th, 1901. With her parents she moved to Winters at the age of six years and two years later moved to Roscoe, Nolan county. She was married at Lorraine November 6, 1921, and she and her husband moved to the Dale community to make their home and she resided there until the Heavenly Father saw best to take her to a better home where there is no sorrow. She was a devoted wife, a kind and affectionate mother and was loved by all who knew her.

Surviving her besides her husband are her parents, twin boys four years old, and five brothers: Henry Hantsche of El Paso; Walter, Ted, Edgar and Alfred Hantsche of Roscoe, an aunt, Mrs. Lizzie Bauseos, Galveston. All were present at the funeral.

Funeral services were held Thursday, Feb. 10, at the Lutheran church conducted by Rev. W. H. Wehmeyer, interment being made in the Fairview cemetery. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Spill Bros.

Many friends and other relatives were here from Roscoe and Lamesa to attend the funeral, attesting the high esteem in which this good woman was held.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved husband, small sons and other relatives.

A visit to Skaggs Dry Goods store will convince anyone that "spring is here." A beautiful array of new spring-like garments are displayed in every department of the store and with each express others arrive.

Mr. and Mrs. Skaggs returned Monday from the market centers of St. Louis and other cities where they purchased a complete line of merchandise for each department of the store. In the ready-to-wear and millinery departments will be found numerous beautiful dresses, coats and hats in every variety of materials and colors and they are very reasonably priced. A complete stock of shoes in the newest styles and color combinations have arrived; also many new patterns in the piece goods and silks department are on display, and courteous salespeople will take pleasure in showing the newest arrivals.

Chevrolet Dealers Are Enthusiastic Over Outlook

The Chevrolet Motor Company, world's largest producer of gear-shift cars, is preparing for the greatest year in its history, according to Mr. T. E. Whitfield of the Whitfield Motor Co., who has just returned from Dallas where he attended the convention of more than 1,000 Chevrolet dealers. The meeting was the eighth of a series of twenty-one meetings that are to be held this winter from coast to coast.

Enthusiasm over the Chevrolet outlook for the year and the widespread popularity of cars was evident everywhere. Dealers from all quarters joined in the opinion that the current year will surpass 1925 when Chevrolet established a record in this territory.

R. H. Grant, vice-president and general sales manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company, presided at the business session in the Pantages Theatre in the afternoon and served as toastmaster at the banquet in the Adolphus Hotel in the evening of February 14th.

Under Mr. Grant's direction, Chevrolet's tremendous sales plans for 1927 were outlined to the dealers and illustrated in the form of playlets. Assisting Mr. Grant in the conduct of the meeting were: H. J. Klinger, assistant general sales manager; D. E. Ralston, regional sales manager; Felix Doran, Jr., Dallas zone sales manager; C. E. O'Meara, Houston zone sales manager; and W. F. Doyle, Oklahoma City zone sales manager; and the following officials from the main office in Detroit: R. K. White, D. G. Frazier, Sidney Corbett, W. G. Lewellen, C. R. Sudmann, Wm. A. Brees, E. A. Mimmicht and Wm. Holler.

Mr. Whitfield declared that the Chevrolet Motor Company is providing its dealer organization with the highest type of merchandising aid and co-operation. Following the meeting the dealers were guests of the company at a banquet in the Adolphus hotel.

Mrs. Whitfield accompanied her husband on the trip, and they were joined at Coleman by the Chevrolet dealer and his wife of that city.

METHODIST W. M. S. COM. PLETE MISSION STUDY BOOK

The Methodist Womans' Missionary Society met at the church Monday afternoon in Mission Study and finished and reviewed the book of "Temple Hills," a very interesting book of rural communities of our church.

The society will take up a new book, "The Moseleum Women," in the near future and hope to have every member of the society take part in the new study.

Next Monday will be Bible study with Mrs. Gid J. Bryan as teacher. A good attendance is desired.—Reporter.

VICTORY SCHOOL NOTES

We are glad to report that Victory has maintained a good record of attendance throughout the long siege of bad weather recently. In most of the grades better work was done and more interest shown this month than heretofore.

Washington at Sixteen Bought "Bullskin" Plantation

With 550 acres of land in Frederick County, Virginia, as a starter, George Washington built up his real estate holdings to 1558 acres before he was 21 years of age. All this land was paid for with money earned as a surveyor.

No mean achievement in Colonial Days—even if 456 acres cost only 112 pounds—or $560.00.

Throughout his life Washington showed a rare ability to handle money and property—making the money bring him possessions that meant added comforts, conveniences, security.

Today's banking facilities make such care easier than ever before for ambitious men and women.

Winters State Bank

In observance of Washington's Birthday this Bank will not be open on Tuesday, February 22nd

Interesting program was given by the Intermediates in honor of the day. Those making the honor roll this month follow: 8th Grade—Alma Jacob, 6th Grade—Mona Currington and Vernon Adams, 5th Grade —Elberteen Williams and Leona Turk, 4th Grade—Pearl Collins and Ellis Iden. Primary room—Kathleen Stanley, Mozelle Harville, Thelma White, Marguerite Adams and Eula Faye Thomas.—Reporter.

Social Activities

Cherry trees, hatchets and other motifs suggestive of George Washington's birthday, were used effectively as decorations when Mesdames J. Floyd Smith, Joe E. Childers and C. R. Robertson were hostesses to the members of the Martha Sunday School Class of the First Baptist Church, at the home of Mr. Smith when they met in a business and social meeting Tuesday evening.

After a short business session led by Mrs. Raymond Henslee, the class president, and devotional by Mrs. A. L. Barlow, a social hour was enjoyed.

A George Washington contest proved a happy diversion and enthusiasm ran high as each one tried to out-wit the other.

The guest list included Mesdames P. M. Davis, J. H. Mosely, Joe Baker, C. G. Meeks, S. H. Davidson, C. E. Gambill, A. L. Barlow, J. F. Flynt, E. H. Henslee, W. E. Hickman, J. R. Speer, Lillian Quindlen, L. T. Smith.

Mrs. Walter Brian Hostess At Club Meeting.

The members of the Diversity Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Buford Owens Friday afternoon with Mrs. Walter Brian hostess.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. H. W. Robinson, who presided over a short business session, followed by an interesting program from the "Masterpiece of Literature," led by Mrs. Owens.

The topics for roll call were "Miracles of Christ," followed by Victrola music. Excellent papers were read on the "Life of Paul" by Mrs. C. S. Jackson, "Children of the Bible" by Mrs. Carl Davis, "Rebekah's Romance" by Mrs. Hill; "Palestine, Then and Now," by Mrs. Dixon. The round table discussion was led by Mrs. H. W. Lynn.

The hostess assisted by Mrs. Owens served a dainty refreshment plate of chicken salad, potato chips, olives, tea and demonstration of white cake with whipped cream.

The next meeting will be a club social on February 25th, with Mrs. F. V. Gates, hostess.

Junior B. Y. P. U. Enjoy Valentine Party.

The Quindlen B. Y. P. U. Juniors met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Z. V. Dry Monday evening and enjoyed a valentine party.

A color scheme of red, suggestive of St. Valentine's Day, was used as decorations. Comic hearts were pinned on the backs of each person as they entered the room and names were guessed by remarks made about them.

After many interesting games, valentines were given as favors and the hostess assisted by Mrs. C. L. Green served delicious refreshments carrying out the valentine idea.

Those present were: Wayne Stark, J. W. Dixon, Lawrence Green, Billie Kirk, L. B. Sullivan, R. N. Dodson, Graydon Nicholson, Mason Holbrook, Karleen Low, Ruth Patterson, Pauline Hinds, Sarah Smith, Nadine Smith, Willie Lu McDonald, Joyce Henslee, Katherine Dry, Gladys Virginia Green, Wilna Cook, Mamie Gregory, Marguerite Poe, Mary Edith Dinwiddie, Fleda Howell, Jaunita Holliday and Lillian Bell Stokes.

Entertains Ego Amo Te With Valentine Party.

Mrs. Floyd Smith was hostess to the Ego Amo Te Club at a cleverly planned party last Friday evening at her home on Tinkle street.

The living room was artistically decorated with hearts and cupids. As the guests arrived they entered the sewing circle where each one was busily engaged with fancy work, following which a Valentine contest was begun and Miss Gerrilee Gannaway received a box of candy as a prize.

Delicious refreshments of cherry salad on lettuce leaves, wafers and hot chocolate and date whip were served to the following: Mesdames P. G. Garrett, O. C. Williams, J. E. Childers, C. R. Robertson and Misses Gerrilee Gannaway, Francis Lambirth, Christine Boone and Charlsie Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Flynt Entertain Friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Flynt charmingly entertained a number of friends Monday evening at a forty-two party of pretty appointments.

The valentine theme was used in tallies, score pads and other decorations. Four tables were tastefully arranged for a series of games and at the conclusion of the games high score went to A. A. Harrison and Mrs. C. C. Benson.

Refreshments of sandwiches and punch were served to Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Harrison, C. C. Benson, A. G. Easley, Marvin Pumphrey, Mrs. Lillian Quindlen, Miss Trudie Benson, Messrs. Ralph Lloyd, Grady Flynt, Oren Lipps and Goforth.

Young Men's S. S. Class Banquet Girl Friends.

The Young Men's Wesley Bible Class of the First Methodist church entertained their girl friends at their second annual banquet in the basement of the church Monday evening. A delightful three course banquet was spread for thirty with table decorations of valentine design and place cards of a similar mode.

C. R. Robertson was introduced by Doye Campbell as the toastmaster of the occasion. Turney Neely rendered two vocal numbers which were very pleasing. Gattis Neely was called upon to discuss the "Importance of Music to Young People's Work."

Ronald Duncan spoke on "The Purpose of the Banquet," while Doye Campbell humorously treated the subject of "Conversational Subjects of High School Girls." After Doye had concluded, briefly Clifford Rhoden was asked to speak extemporaneously on the "Conversation of College Girls and Teachers." When he sat down without treating the subject to the satisfaction of those present, Gladden Bedford made a motion that Clifford be penalized by having to tell where he met every person present for the first time.

When he failed to get the proper instance he was forced to remove an article of his clothing. Despite the fears of the ladies present, Clifford seemed to have a very good memory as to where he met each person and got no further than his coat and tie.

Lyle Deffebach spoke in conclusion on the "Relation of the Sunday School Teacher to His Class." He fittingly described his pleasure of being associated with this splendid class of young men and briefly accounted for some of the activities of the class.

Mrs. Tinkle Entertains Wesleyan Daughters S. S. Class.

The Wesleyan Daughters Sunday School class was charmingly entertained on last Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Fred Tinkle with a valentine party of pretty appointments.

The lovely home was tastefully decorated in valentine motifs combined with ferns and pot plants.

Several interesting contests were enjoyed and a reading, "A Dairy of the Bible," by Mrs. Van Piercy, was a special feature of the entertainment.

A dainty refreshment plate of angel food cake and cream was served to Mesdames Denton, Kilpatrick, G. A. Edwards, Van H. Piercy, J. W. Pierce, Guy Mullen, A. D. Lee, S. H. Nance, J. R. Jackson, W. F. Latham, A. N. Polk, J. M. Skaggs, J. W. Stehle, R. I. Collingsworth, H. M. Roberts, L. A. Huntsman, W. P. Gardner, Walter Neely and Gid J. Bryan.

Bankers Meet at San Angelo

Messrs. Bert E. Low, Jno. Q. McAdams, H. W. Robinson and Albert Spill attended the convention of the Sixth District of Texas Bankers, which met at San Angelo Tuesday. The following report of the convention is taken from the daily press:

San Angelo, Feb. 15.—Coleman was selected as the next meeting place and C. R. Hallmark, cashier of the First National Bank of San Angelo, was elected chairman and A. B. Demontmollin, assistant cashier of the San Angelo National Bank here, secretary-treasurer, by the Sixth District of the Texas Bankers' Association in convention here Tuesday.

They succeed Bert E. Low, cashier of the First National Bank of Winters, and R. W. Burleson, cashier of the City National Bank of San Saba, respectively.

The association stood silently in tribute to Capt. Charles Schreiner, Kerrville banker, merchant, ranchman and philanthropist, who died last week. Bankers of the larger cities of Texas and the North and East, composing the flying squadron, provided about one-half the attendance, totaling 150. The squadron leaves early Wednesday for Houston to attend the first district convention Thursday. Many of the sixty-five bankers in the nineteen counties comprising the Sixth District were here. Entertainment included a chuck wagon dinner at the Country Club at 1:30, an automobile ride, a banquet and an informal dance at night on the roof garden of the St. Angelus Hotel.

Charles A. Fisk of Amarillo, president of the Texas Bankers' Association, predicted general benefits from the repealing of the guaranty fund law and substitution of a stronger act. He urged restricted credit to cotton farmers to reduce acreage. Sam Gray of Coleman said solution of the farm problem rests with the farmer in raising crops that will make himself sustaining.

Passage by Congress of the Green bill to ship from the banks to the Government, where it belongs, of responsibility of adjusted compensation certificates, was favored by L. D. Thorn of San Angelo. He said the failure of the Government to provide for retirement of the loans on war veterans' insurance policies caused most banks to decline to cash them.

W. L. Aldwell of Sonora said every ranchman who is attending to business is making money at present prices. He warned sheepmen to proceed cautiously, owing to the increasing number of sheep and the decrease in cattle.

John D. Owens of Dallas, said the collateral in cotton should be protected and that there is no reason why a 20 per cent surplus should demoralize the market when the car-rige in other lines averaged 25 per cent. A. E. Thomas of Fort Worth cited the importance of the oil industry and said that a properly made oil loan is one of the best a bank can make.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Arnold returned Wednesday from Corpus Christi where they had been spending the winter months.

Sane--Considerate

In these trying and stressful times we can well afford to strive to emulate the notable characteristics of the "Father of Our Country" by being safe in our program and in the operation of our business by being considerate of others, acknowledging at all times that they, perhaps, are not situated as well as we.

We strive at all times that our policies first of all be SAFE and then to consider as if we were the one being considered.

What Price, Service!

Far up in the Pacific Northwest, where tumbled mountain ranges toss snow-crowned peaks above the clouds and lonely forests whisper primeval secrets, dwells a race of hard-bitted men whose deeds of daring, whose courage and hardihood, whose determination and devotion to duty have woven about themselves a colorful tradition. An epic figure—the red-coated ranger of the Northwest Mounted Police. What is it they say of him? "He always gets his man!"

And down in the Southwest, where tawny prairies sweep out to limitless horizons and blue northers scream down across the Great Divide, thrives another breed of weather beaten adventurers, whose deeds of daring, whose hardihood and devotion to duty is of no less heroic measure, if less spectacular, than that of the red coated riders of the North.

Consider this, and answer if you can. Which requires the greater courage—to face the blazing muzzle of a forty-five in the hands of a killer and to tempt destruction in the hot, red glory of combat; or alone under the stark, black vault of a starless night, to cling dizzy and sick with cold at the top of a swaying, ice-sheathed pole and with numbed, groping fingers to strain at the swinging wires where unseen death leaps lightning swift at your side?

Let the electric lineman who kept your lights aglow while February storms raged across West Texas answer the question for you.

WHEN he has your MONEY

THE transient peddler who rings your front door bell —he's a stranger to you and you are not even a memory to him after he has unloaded his unknown, unbranded goods on you and left town with your money. He has no further interest in your satisfaction, in your good will, in your future patronage. His is a one-time transaction.

But your local merchant considers your patronage as a trust. He takes your money subject to your satisfaction. He knows he has to build up a steady, repeat patronage or he cannot continue in business.

He is very exacting in the merchandise he carries. It must come to him guaranteed so he can in turn guarantee it to you. He is jealous of his good reputation as a merchant and a citizen—both depend upon his fair dealing—in giving good quality, in giving good values, in making good on unsatisfactory transactions.

His sole interest is not in your purchase of today but in your continued good will and perpetual patronage.

John Deere Farm Implement DEMONSTRATION

IT IS WITH great pleasure that we announce to the farmers of the Winters Trade Territory that we have secured A SPECIAL FACTORY REPRESENTATIVE OF THE JOHN DEERE PLOW COMPANY to come to Winters for—

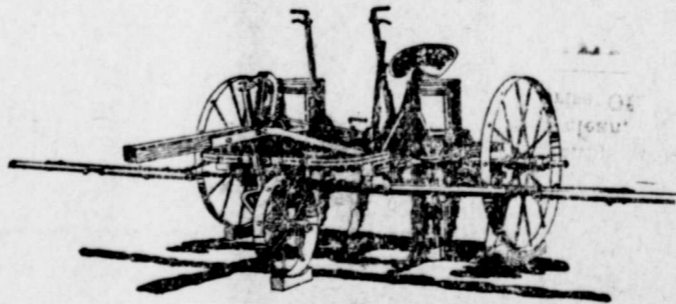

One Week Beginning Monday, February 21st.

WE WANT EVERY FARMER, no matter where you live, whether you are a customer of ours or not, to come and see the varied line of implements, have their uses explained, and see just what may be done with each.

THIS IS TO BE what may be termed a school of instruction in John Deere Implements. This school will be held on the vacant lot directly in front of our store for one week and we want you to come and ask any questions that you wish to, and be our guest for this time, and we will count it a favor if you will come.

EVERY IMPLEMENT that is used in this territory and manufactured by John Deere will be on display.

If you are a user of John Deere implements and have any suggestions as to their improvement, we surely will be glad to have it. Tell us about it.

COME TO OUR STORE
When you and your family are in Winters make our store your headquarters. Use our conveniences and make yourself at home.
