C. of C. Banquet Draws Good Crowd

It is not possible to give in words a true mental conception of the real spirit of the people who attended the annual meeting and banquet of the chamber of commerce held here Monday evening. The spirit that builds and unifies and adds strength to a community prevailed throughout the meeting.

The crowd began to gather before the hour and were greeted by strains of music furnished by the Nordyke orchestra. Pure white tables covering the entire basement of the Methodist church were beautifully decorated and were laden with delicious edibles that only the good ladies of Winters know best how to prepare.

After the throng had aligned alongside the tables almost completely filling the entire capacity, R. E. Bacon led in singing America. Retiring President R. Q. Adams, acting as chairman, announced invocation, which fittingly attuned the hearts of the assembly in words by Rev. Gid. J. Bryan. Special entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Ruth Ramsel, who sang a solo with Mrs. Buford Owens at the piano, and was encored insistently; Bacon's Ball Bearing Quartette—R. E. Bacon, F. D. Bedford, Clarence Gambill and David Burton—responded with a couple of selections. Mr. Adams introduced E. A. Shepperd as toastmaster, and he assumed the duties in his happy and good-natured way. The board of directors for the ensuing year were introduced, also various other committees and the president. These were as follows: President, Geo. C. Hill; members of the board: F. D. Bedford, C. L. Cooke, A. Krauss, G. E. Nicholson, O. C. Williams, S. H. Nance, J. W. Tanner, E. A. Shepperd, C. S. Jackson, Carl Hensley, Walter Gardner and Jno. G. Key; Majors of the four membership groups: Joe Baker, I. M. Preston, V. Vanzandt and C. S. Jackson. Committees making reports of departmental work of the chamber were: J. F. Paxton, Civic Development and Industry; G. E. Nicholson, Rural Development and Trade Extension; Agriculture, C. W. Lehmborg and R. E. Homann; Highways and Roads, S. H. Nance; Group Work, Joe Baker; and general report by S. W. Cooper, Secretary-Manager. A form of constitution and by-laws was read by Supt. A. H. Smith. All reports were approved as read.

R. W. Haynie, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, brought a short message in which he made favorable mention of Winters and her future and was very complimentary of the class of citizenship and of the prevailing beauty of the "girls" of Winters. Dr. E. D. Salkeld, the principal speaker of the evening, was introduced and in his powerful manner and appealing oratorical delivery, held the minds of the entire assembly for about thirty-five minutes, to his last word, on the great subject, "The Spirit of Service." This address was worth many times the price of a ticket and those

Invitation From Abilene's Mayor

The following telegram was received at this office Tuesday morning from Thomas E. Hayden, Jr.:

Abilene, Texas, Sept. 20.—Geo. C. Hill, Winters, Texas: May I have the honor of extending an invitation through the columns of your paper to the people of your community to visit Abilene Lindbergh Day, September 26th? We are making plans to give everybody a chance to see this most exemplary young man and distinguished citizen who will be here for two hours—ten to twelve o'clock.

McMillan Flows By Heads; Other Tests are Ready

Awaiting a bearing for the drilling engine from Dallas and with the 5-inch pipe hanging 250 feet off the bottom of the hole the Ladd-Sillix et al. No. 1 McMillan is producing by heads from 70 to 140 barrels every 12 hours, according to reports from the well Tuesday morning. The repair part for the engine was expected this afternoon when work will be resumed, declared officials.

H. B. Mays, Wichita Falls operator, is preparing to spud today on his 1,200-acre block three miles east of Ballinger on the Schneider farm. The contract for this well calls for 2,500 feet and will be drilled with a Fort Worth spudder. The location is in section 378 John Wall survey; Alworth et al. are ready to spud their test on the Werner farm 6 1-2 miles northeast of Ballinger on section 160, J. H. Wilson survey. According to reports both locations will be drilling within three days.

The McMillan No. 1 continues to flow very irregular heads at times flowing every 20 minutes and then again lying idle for 3 hours. The longer the head intervals the larger the production has been the rule governing the well's production.

Monday the Humble Pipe Line company loaded three tank cars through the line to its loading rack at Benoit with McMillan No. 1 production. The three cars held a total of 619 barrels which will be shipped to Texas City for refining.

Leases New Filling Station.

J. Frank Smith of Hatchel has leased the Gulf Filling station from Chapman Bros. on North Main street. Mr. Smith says he has a station arranged to give service to the people serving four cars at one time. This station will distribute Gulf products exclusively.

who failed to hear this great speaker missed a real treat. Following Dr. Salkeld, visitors from various communities were introduced. Among those present were Eddie Anderson, reporter for the Reporter-News, and Miss Eula Huff of Abilene; Paul Trimmier, county judge; J. D. Motley, secretary of Ballinger chamber of commerce; C. W. Lehmborg and E. Shepperd of Ballinger; H. O. Harris, superintendent of schools, and Jo. Poindexter, Bradshaw; O. F. Turk, Victory; E. F. Beck, Dr. R. E. Burrus and W. H. Pope, Crews; T. F. Green, Dallas; Mrs. L. B. Maddox, Concordia, Kansas. Judge Trimmier of Ballinger urged the cooperation of Winters and Ballinger and said that if this vicinity should be developed into an oil field there would be urgent need of working together to hold the county to its level of morality and order. J. D. Motley, with that great heart of his which beats for a progressive community life, emphasized the elimination of those things which would interfere, and the encouragement of those things that would be of unifying nature.

The rains kept a great many people from venturing out, especially visitors from the various communities, some of whom have been heard from.

Enlistment in the Greater Winters Campaign Large

The following shows an incomplete return of the first day's work of the four groups that are putting their shoulders together for the upbuilding of Winters and territory. This does not show actual standing of the groups, for they were "hitting the ball" and some did not take time to make complete returns. A fine number of those who will really top the list in their support o. k.'d their assessment, which is to be approved by the home office of their business. These have rallied to the cause heretofore and are sure to retain their standing, and their names will be given soon.

A few have hesitated to assume a responsibility with their neighbors, but these, no doubt, will line up very soon and show by their action that they are with and for Winters, and those who are identified as partners in community building. It seems that we may be compelled to admit that we have some individuals (every town and community has them) who cannot afford to invest a little better than the price of a postage stamp, less than the price of a coca cola, one-third the price of a cigar, or the cost of two or three chews of tobacco, a day for a membership or share in the biggest business in Winters. They will come in after a little thought, for they really do believe in Winters.

The lists of those who have already signed up follow:

The Pushers—Farmers Mercantile Co., A. D. Lee, C. E. Conlee, Krauss Dry Goods Co., H. H. Chandler, M. System Co., Clyde Boone, C. F. Pumphrey, W. E. Dunnam, —Dunnam, E. A. Shepperd, C. S. Jackson, W. W. Hall, Hotel Winters, Tourist Hotel, S. E. Hunt, J. E. Forbus, Higginbotham Bros. & Co., P. G. Garrett, J. J. Gerhart.

The Self-Starters—Winters State Bank, Carl Hensley, Henry Robinson, Jno. W. Norman, Gattis Neely, Faris Callan, Mrs. Noel Reid, Cecil Baxter, A. H. Smith, Mrs. A. H. Smith, Hart Phillips, Star Bakery, J. W. Schindler, G. E. Seagler, Smith Drug Co., F. A. Smith, A. L. Smith, Winters Motor Co., R. L. Stokes, Press Edwards, C. A. Akins, L. E. Low, Tom Herridge, M. S. Patrick, Lilly Belle Troy, T. J. Mitchell, Spill Bros. Albert Spill, Ben Spill, Albert Afflebach, Ernest Adams, Geo. Newby, J. M. Skaggs Dry Goods Co., Mrs. Sue Adams, David Burton, Mrs. R. E. Bacon, Mrs. Ruth Ramsel, Mrs. R. L. Stokes, Mrs. Frank Johnson, Winters Enterprise.

The Live Wires—J. I. Street, Bill Moore, Joe Seller, Freeman Caruthers, Hale Adams, Dr. Fred Tinkle, S. P. Floyd, J. W. Tanner, R. T. Thornton, E. E. Spill, Geo. Rossion, Ralph Lloyd, Magnolia Filling Station, M. P. Renfro.

The Pullers—Farmers Gin Co., T. D. Coupland, H. C. Campbell, J. Cohen, Baldwin Bros., J. W. Patterson, City Drug Co., J. F. Paxton, M. E. Miller, Buster Roberts, Jeff Flynn, Carl Davis, Hub Fisher, —Bowmer, City Hotel, Paul Dittrich, A. L. Barlow, F. D. Bedford, honor member, doubling his assessment; Joe Baker, Dr. J. W. Dixon, Dry & Wilson, B. G. Bryant, City Pressing Parlor.

Moves Shop to Larger Quarters

In order to get more room to display his line of gas heaters and stoves, J. B. Neill, Jr., has moved his shop to the Jordan building, formerly occupied by the Mission Theatre.

New and spacious display windows have been put in and with this additional space, Mr. Neill has connected a number of stoves and heaters with the gas and is in a position to demonstrate the merits of the Reliable Gas Ranges and Golden Glow Heaters to a better advantage.

Carnival and Show For Next Week

The Pure Food Show and Merchants' Carnival will be held here September 29, 30 and October 1st. Merchants of the city will have booths displaying their merchandise. There will be a baby show every afternoon at 2 o'clock, and a style show each evening, Krauss Dry Goods company showing Thursday evening; Skaggs Dry Goods showing Friday evening, and a beauty contest will be held on Saturday evening. Be sure to vote for the girl of your choice. Votes will be cast during the entire three days. A country store is to be one of the main attractions. Free demonstrations will be held at the various booths, where souvenirs will also be given away. The admission will be only ten cents.

Boy Scouts Will Be the First to Greet Lindbergh

The Boy Scouts of Winters and all cities in the seven counties that comprise the Chisholm Trail Area Council have been greatly honored by the committee in charge of the Lindbergh celebration September 26.

Several hundred scouts will report to Executive Ed Shumway at Abilene at 8 o'clock Monday morning, September 26th, at the Kinsolving Landing Field. A large percentage of these scouts will have charge of the parking of the thousands of cars. A few minutes before Lindbergh and the other part of WE land, the scouts will enter the landing field and be the first to greet the "Spirit of St. Louis."

Each scoutmaster in the seven counties of the Chisholm Trail Council have been asked to select three scouts who will act as an Honor Guard for the automobile which will convey Lindbergh through the streets of Abilene. An Honor Guard of scouts will completely surround the car and in front of the official car will be a flag detail of Boy Scouts.

September 26th is also school children's day at the West Texas Fair, and it is expected that every Boy Scout in West Texas will be in Abilene on that day. A large number of scouts are coming from Cisco, Ranger, Eastland and San Angelo.

Every Boy Scout that takes part in the Lindbergh celebration must be in complete uniform and Executive Shumway announces that, unless the scout is in complete uniform, he will not be permitted to take part in the celebration.

Boy Scouts of America is the only boy organization that has been requested to take part in the Lindbergh Day.

Mrs. Carroll Reeves, nee Miss Christine McDuff, a former employe of the First National Bank of this city, but now of Ranger, visited with friends here Tuesday.

Mrs. A. E. Cackey of Florence, Texas, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Davis, returned to her home Saturday.

On to Abilene-- See Lindbergh

Winters will want to make a good showing at Abilene on the 26th. Lindbergh will land about 10 o'clock a. m. and remain in Abilene about two hours.

Miss Naomi Hunt, "Spirit of Winters," Geo. C. Hill and S. W. Cooper the reception committee, are scheduled to leave Winters in time to reach Abilene by 8:30 a. m., and it would be fine if all cars that are going would line up in time to put on a parade. This should be done before the committee is tied up at 8:30. Why not everybody line up and make a real showing for Winters?

Retiring C. of C. President Thanks People for Support

I am glad to see so many loyal business men and citizens coming into the Chamber of Commerce in a substantial way. Many seem to be doing their dead level best to help put over a great program for Winters.

The first day's enlistment campaign was rewarded with grand success. Some are inclined to hold back, but this number is so small in comparison with the large number that are willing to render real service to our community that we should not be discouraged.

Winters must be taken care of. We will have to stand together if we accomplish what we should in extending our trade territory and building a city. In building, we need to think of every citizen and we are glad to know that many firms and individuals are taking out memberships for the ladies as well as themselves. It begins to look like we are going to have to arrange a woman's forum in connection with our chamber of commerce work. We cannot help but believe that those who have not come in readily in the beginning, will do so soon.

In turning the office of president over to my successor I am not inclined to leave off my fullest support to the chamber. The cooperation received during the time I was president is very much appreciated and I want to thank each and every one for what they have done and urge them to continue their hearty support and stand by the new president and board of directors. They are shouldering a great responsibility. The men on whom you placed the responsibility for the new year are men with good business judgment and I feel that they will do all in their power to see that the organization functions for the best interests of Winters. I believe that they will use every means and put forth every effort to see that the money the loyal citizens of Winters are placing in their hands for its upbuilding, shall be used in an economical and legitimate way. There is not a business in the city with a stronger set of business men behind it. They have been liberal in their financial support and I am sure would not be inclined to let their money and ours be used only for the betterment of Winters and Winters territory.

I am now pledging my full support and shall continue to work for the best interest of our community, and hope that by the time our enlistment campaign is closed every business firm will be represented in the cooperative move for our uplift.—Yours faithfully, R. Q. Adams, Retiring President Winters Chamber of Commerce.

Willie A. Cain and Horace Adams left Thursday for Austin where they will attend State University. Both of these young men are graduates of Winters high school and their many friends wish them success in their studies.

Miss Rebecca Roberts from Sweetwater is the new teacher in the grade school taking the place made vacant by Miss Vera Wilson, who has gone to Austin to teach in the schools of that city. Miss Roberts has had varied experience as a teacher and bears the highest recommendations.

W. J. McAdams, contractor, has returned from Corsicana and is back on the job. Mr. McAdams makes his headquarters at Wm. Cameron & Co., Inc.

Intermediate C. A.

The G. A. met in regular session Monday after school at the church. An interesting program was rendered by Group No. 2, with Margaret Nicholson as leader. Refreshments were served by Alta Faye Patterson and Margaret Nicholson to those present. We urge other G. A.'s to be present next Monday.—Reporter.

W. W. Brady, superintendent of construction for Cocke & Turner, road contractors of Marshall, Texas, arrived in the city the latter part of the past week and is making preparation to top the 17 miles of highway throughout the Winters precinct, starting just this side of Bradshaw at the Taylor county line, and extending to a point about a mile north of Hatchel.

Mr. Brady upon arrival in the city called at the offices of the chamber of commerce and asked that the secretary cooperate with him in the matter of securing labor and trucks for the construction work to be done on this road, stating that it was his policy to use local labor as much as possible, and a list of the available labor is being compiled now at the chamber's offices.

Mr. Brady states that the work of fixing the base and applying the asphalt to this stretch of highway is a maintenance proposition of the State Highway Department which calls for an expenditure of some $25,000, and that with favorable weather conditions he hopes to have the work completed within thirty days. He also stated that this work will not interfere with traffic on this road, as plans will be laid so as to take care of traffic at all times and without the necessity of detours.

Abilene Man Joins C. of C.

Mr. Guy E. Paxton, of the Paxton Poster Service at Abilene was in the city this week and upon discovering that the chamber of commerce was putting on an enlistment campaign, remarked that he was for the upbuilding of any city where he did business. He also stated that if the city prospers he would naturally receive his portion of the prosperity. While here he took membership with the chamber of commerce and offered his services and that of his company in putting over any special propositions or campaigns.

R. E. Bacon left this morning for Temple where he will attend a district managers' convention of Wm. Cameron & Co., Inc.

I. N. Wilkinson of the First National Bank is recuperating from an operation for the removal of his tonsils.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Dixon attended the opening of Simmons University at Abilene, Wednesday.

P. H. Newton of San Antonio, brother of Mrs. C. Kornegay, is a guest in the Kornegay home.

Lions Hear Talk By Dr. Salkeld

The Winters Lions Club met at the Hotel Winters last Tuesday at noon and the meeting was presided over by Vice President R. T. Thornton.

After the invocation by Rev. Gid. J. Bryan, the following guests were introduced: Dr. Salkeld, C. P. Floyd, W. W. Briggs, Mr. Queen, C. L. Cooke, Bob Stokes, Fred Bedford, David, Bruton, Clarence Gambill and Horace Hawkins.

By an unanimous vote of the club Dr. Salkeld was elected an honorary member of the organization.

Committees working on the budget of the chamber of commerce gave very interesting and optimistic reports of the work up to that hour.

H. O. Jones was toastmaster, and he introduced the male quartet — Messrs. Bacon, Bedford, Bruton and Gambill—who rendered a couple of appreciated numbers, after which Dr. Salkeld of Abilene made the main address, his theme being "It's not what a man has in money or talent, but the use these things are put to that means everything." The address was a masterful one, delivered in that pleasing and convincing way characteristic of the man.

The program committee for the next meeting is composed of Jno. Q. McAdams, toastmaster, Dr. R. C. Maddox and S. H. Nance.

THANK YOU

The editor of The Enterprise certainly appreciates the splendid aid of loyal subscribers and friends in supplying us news items and personals from week to week. It is the desire of this paper to give all the news all the time and those who lend us their assistance to that end have our unbounded gratitude. In these days of so many people going early and late in automobiles and busses many interesting items escape our attention. Please furnish us with items for publication as early in the week as possible as the office is always rushed with typesetting the last day before publication. You may mail your items or phone No. 63, we'll be happy to get them.

A HOME IS BIG BUSINESS

Insurance statisticians estimate that every child brought up, given the average education and fitted for the activities of life, has cost in the neighborhood of $7,362. The total earning capacity of such a child may be expected to be about $29,000. Multiply these figures by the average number of children of families and it becomes apparent that the man and woman who establish a home have undertaken a big business venture. These statistics recently were cited by a food specialist of the Texas State College Extension Service.

BETTER VALUES

The well balanced ration of pure, high-grade food products is a vital necessity in every home. Because they bring a world of good things to eat to your door, local grocers make the balanced menu possible for every one at prices that invariably are right. You can make your grocery dollars larger by trading in Winters.

SPEED IN THE AIR

Lieut. Williams of the navy is going to try out a mystery plane which it is asserted will fly 300 miles an hour, and hopes to lift the Schneider cup now in possession of an Italian ace.

The greatest speed attained by a plane thus far was 278 miles an hour. Even that is going some. Three hundred miles an hour will be five miles a minute or 440 feet a second. That is going some more. It is difficult to realize just why anybody should want to move around at that speed when there are so many things to see.

GREAT IMPORTANCE

More and better schools are of greater importance in assuring the peace and prosperity of any nation than are more and bigger navies. The greatest value of an education is that it drives out fear and ignorance by giving courage that comes from knowledge. The more we know about men and other things of this world, the less we suspect and fear them. Education alone is not a panacea for all the world's ills, there is no panacea which does not include education.

THE AIR EXPRESS

The nation-wide air express marks a new era in communication. It is now possible to send express packages from coast to coast in thirty-two hours, and from Chicago to Dallas in less than twelve hours. The main trunk line extends from New York to San Francisco. Though not adequate at present to do a great amount of business it demonstrates the possibilities of such service.

MRS. J. A. WILLIAMS

The following relative to the death and burial of Mrs. J. A. Williams is taken from last week's Ballinger Ledger, and is reproduced here because only the bare announcement of her death was made at that time:

Mrs. J. A. Williams, 51, of this city, wife of J. A. Williams, local oil dealer, died Tuesday morning at 1:40 o'clock after an illness of several years. Mrs. Williams had been critically ill for the past few days and death did not come as a surprise. While Mrs. Williams had been suffering over a period of years, at various times she was able to be up and around the home.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the Baptist church, Rev. J. H. McLean, pastor, officiating. Interment was made in Evergreen Cemetery.

Pall bearers were Willie Stephens, M. L. Northington, Archie O'Kelly, J. M. Garlington, M. S. Karmony and B. C. Kirk.

Nancy Cornelia Williams, whose maiden name was Nancy Cornelia McCaughan, was born in Smiley, Gonzales county, 51 years, 9 months and 7 days ago, on December 6, 1875. She lived there until October 24th, 1892, when she became the bride of J. A. Williams.

After making their home in Gonzales county and other places in Texas, the Williamses moved to Ballinger where they have resided for a number of years.

Three children were born to the union, two of which are deceased. A daughter, Delma, died at the age of 12 years, and a son, Pat Williams, was killed during the World War at the age of 23. One son, Oscar C. Williams, is a citizen of Winters.

Pat Williams was killed in action on October 13, 1918, less than one month before the world's greatest conflict ended. His body was returned to Ballinger and was buried in Evergreen Cemetery here.

Mrs. Williams became a Christian early in life and was active in Baptist church work during the time she was physically able.

Deceased is survived by her husband, J. A. Williams; one son, Oscar C. Williams, Winters; three sisters, Mrs. Z. A. Snell, of Ballinger; Mrs. Will Evans, of San Marcos; and Mrs. Morgan Ellis, of Edna. Mrs. Evans was here when Mrs. Williams died.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Krauss and Mrs. E. Burton spent several days in Dallas the past week-end.

Frank Norman and daughter, Nettie, of Killeen, are visiting in the home of his sons, Harold and Jno. W. Norman.

Miss Gladys Modgling of Bronte was a week-end guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Carter.

Fall, oysters, melancholy days and whatnot come next to bat.

Dale News

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kirk were business visitors to Winters the first part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Carter and little daughter, Virginia, spent a pleasant day with Robert and Grandmother Orr, Clyde, Jim Bob, and Alice Nevils last week-end.

Misses Emma, Ella and Hettie Henniger, Leon Henniger, Arthur Green, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cruze enjoyed a fine forty-two party at the home of Carley Adams recently.

Mesdames W. A. Mayo and Charley Hope spent last Friday evening with Mrs. H. A. Green. They both report an enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Watkins, Mack Watkins and Miss Myrtle Mayo spent Friday evening on Bluff Creek fishing.

Arthur Green attended the singing at Hatchel Sunday night. There is a singing at Hatchel every Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Poindexter, Misses Mary Ann and Tootles Poindexter, Master Joe Poindexter and Mrs. Tom Moore of Fort Worth, are now guests in the home of H. F. Lehman of this community.

Frankie and Walter Adami have been picking cotton for Clifford Lehman the past week.

Vera Mayo has been real sick but is now somewhat better.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Green were visitors of H. A. Green and family Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Henniger of Winters were visitors in this community the latter part of last week.

Miss Ethel Hendrick of Winters visited Miss Nora Jaynie Green Sunday evening.

John Phelps is a frequent visitor in Winters.

Odos Blanchard was a visitor of Bill Mayo last week.

Mrs. West Hendrick, Gracie Hendrick of Winters, with Carl Norris of this vicinity visited the oil well Sunday.

Mrs. West Hendrick and daughter, Gracie, of Winters and West Hendrick of this community spent last Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Norris of this community.

Ellis Neckert, Horace Hope, and J. C. and Howard, Jr., Williams, have been riding their horses to Winters schools.

Miss Mildred Gill attended the

APPRECIATION

It is fine to have a "bunch" of citizens like our band boys. When we need some help to put on a program, they are there on the job. On Tuesday night they gave a concert in connection with the lighting of natural gas for the first time in Winters. Their help is greatly appreciated and adds much to the success of entertaining our people.

The public school also carry out the idea of cooperative citizenship which makes things pleasant. On the occasion of the "gas program," Supt. Smith, in his good-humored way, filled the place of master of ceremonies. Miss Hunt is always ready to help and gave an enjoyable number. Also Bacon's Ball Bearing Quartette. Rev. Bryan made the introductory address which was responded to by Mr. Ross Mason, assistant superintendent of the Lone Star Gas Co.—S. W. Cooper, Secretary C. of C.

The New Football Tickets Popular

The new tickets admitting to Blizzard Field for football games during the 1927 season have some advantages over any type of ticket that has ever been issued or sold to Winters Blizzard attractions, and are proving popular over the tickets of last year. This is self explanatory: They are sold in groups of five, each ticket of the five admitting one person to one game. They are divided into two general classes, the student ticket and adult ticket. The purchaser of a block of five tickets is not restricted to the use of all the tickets himself, but may carry other persons with him thereby making it possible to sing at Hatchel last Sunday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

Fred Pruser was in Winters attending to business recently:

Dale school will probably begin the middle of October.

The Dale club members are looking forward to the Runnels County Fair, as many are intending to take exhibits to this fair.

Albert Mayo is ill at the present writing, but nothing serious.

Hello there, Aunt Emma!

Little Grace Shlarston of Philadelphia is two and a half years old and won first prize in her division in this makeup at a recent Wildwood, N. J. baby show.

use one, two, or as many tickets for each game as is convenient or desirable.

Adult tickets will be on sale at the four drug stores in Winters and student tickets may be obtained at the high school building until September 30th, at which time season tickets will be taken off sale and single admission tickets will be the only available entrance tickets after that date.

The one big feature of the new type of admission ticket is that your ticket does not become delinquent should you miss a game, as you can use it for the next game. According to present plans there will be at least five or more games at home from this date.

Another advantage offered this year is that by presenting your last pass of the five you can obtain another group of five at the same price during the season.

Swat the corn borer.

MONEY TALKS

In these days the cash register is the most important adjunct to the prize ring.

Science gives us new facts every day. A chemist has found a solution to dissolve the scurf and scales of dandruff. His instructions are: Apply RID-O-DANDER each night and massage scalp well with finger tips. Apply RID-O-DANDER just before shampooing. Then apply RID-O-DANDER after shampooing to kill germs. The first application stops the itching, a few applications will stop your falling hair. This remedy never fails. Secure it at your druggist, or

Mrs. C. S. Jackson Entertains Honoring Miss Wilson

A most delightful surprise party was that given by Mrs. Jackson on last Thursday evening when she honored his niece, Miss Vera Wilson, who is leaving Winters, having accepted a position in the public schools at Austin.

Imagine the surprise of the honoree, who, thinking she was to spend a quiet evening, when she found a number of her friends gathered in Mrs. Jackson's home to make merry on this, her last evening.

The rooms were artistically decorated with pink and cream roses and lovely hand-painted covers made gay the tables where progressive forty-two was enjoyed. After a series of games Mrs. Jackson presented a basket of love gifts, brought by friends to the honoree, who opened the packages with many exclamations of delight.

Delicious refreshments were served in two courses, carrying out the color scheme of pink and cream. Pink and cream rose buds were given as plate favors.

The guest list included Miss Vera Wilson, Gladys Joseph, Willie Lois Young, Christine Boone, Madie Bell McElroy, Elgie Robbins, Iva Modestette, Ruth Jones, Lora Farnsworth, Evelyn Gannaway, Mesdames Gid. J. Bryan, R. C. Maddox, E. M. Hall, A. H. Smith, Lyle Deffebach and J. H. Rhoden.—A Guest.

Senior Department of S. S. Enjoy Party

The home of Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Stephens was graciously opened to the members of the senior department of the Baptist Sunday school and those who will be promoted to that department, on last Thursday evening, for a social meeting.

Lively games and clever contests held the interest of the guests and some clever work was done in the "Extra, Extra" contest, when every section of a newspaper was featured by editorials, sports page, and other features, and the winner of the contest was presented the paper.

Brick cream and cake was served to thirty-five guests.

Mrs. Chapman and Miss Carr Hostesses at Pretty Party

Mrs. Marshall Chapman and Miss Frances Carr were hostesses to the members of the Literary and Service Club, their husbands and invited guests on Thursday evening, September 15, at the pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. Chapman, when they entertained with a lovely sunflower party.

Summer flowers and dainty ferns with sunflower tallies made most attractive the tables on the lawn where the ever popular game of "42" was played, after which a dainty refreshment plate, carrying out the color motif was passed.

Those enjoying the generous hospitality of the hostesses were Messrs. and Mesdames E. A. Shepperd, J. Q. McAdams, H. O. Jones, J. M. Skaggs, Harris Mullin, L. R. Gaston, L. E. Low, Chas. Chapman, J. Floyd Smith, Marvin Patrick, Frank Williams, G. E. Nicholson, Dr. and Mrs. F. J. Brophy, Misses Loye Kornegay, Gladys Oliver, Bendena Spill, Mrs. Will Pace, Messrs. Lanham Brown, Tom Carr R. E. Homann and Penn.

Martha Class Enjoys Kid Party

Tinkle Park was the scene of a clever party on last Thursday evening when Mrs. Weldon Woodrow, Miss Estella Gillmore and Mrs. C. E. Williams entertained the members of the Martha Sunday school class with a "kid party."

Childish costumes and childish games caused shrieks of laughter and thoughts wandered back to many pleasant memories of the past. As a special feature of entertainment "pals" were revealed and gifts exchanged.

Refreshments of stick candy and lemonade were served to Mesdames C. G. Meeks, R. L. Stokes, Woolridge, Whitley, Pete Davis, A. Harrison, L. T. Smith, L. T. Kemp, Frank Johnson and Griffin Miller.

Mrs. Dixon Entertained With Porch Party

Autumn flowers attractively arranged in hanging baskets and vases combined with ferns and field flowers, formed a pretty setting for the gay party that gathered on the porch and lawn at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Dixon last Friday evening, when they entertained the Baker B. Y. P. U. in a farewell party honoring their son, Henry, who is leaving to enter school at Simmons University. Games and contests were enjoyed and the main diversion of the evening was interesting games of progressive Baker U. Score cards were clever little Mother Goose nursery rhymes and partners were chosen by matching the rhymes.

An attractive refreshment plate of brick cream, cake and punch with "Japanese wonder nuts" as favors was passed to Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Stokes, Dorothy and Lawrence Green, Estelle Hornburg, V. Marie Stephens, Brevard Bedford, Harold Stooksberry, Alpha Sullivan, Mildred Boone, Sallie Lou Stokes, Mollie B. Stokes, Leta Rountree, Myrtle Jeffries, Vera Dunnam, Van Sullivan, Gladys Graham, Marvin Bedford, Maurine Pumphrey, Gladys Palmer, Mary Helen Nicholson, and Victoria Dry; Henry and J. W. Dixon, Jr.

Farewell Party Honoring Mr. Kornegay

Miss Naomi Hunt and Miss Veda Wells were the charming hostesses at a farewell party last Monday evening at the home of Miss Hunt, honoring Buck Kornegay, who left Tuesday to complete his senior year's work at A. & M. College.

Miss Wells presided at the punch bowl, and upon arrival the guests were served delicious punch.

Several clever contests were enjoyed and the main diversion was progressive "42". Each table representing a station, starting at Hatchel and completing the journey at Abilene.

Delicious angel food cake and cream was served to Misses Joseph, Gannaway, White, Kornegay, Showalter, Montague, Farnsworth, Jones, Messrs. Lloyd, Hall, Casky, Kornegay, Carlisle and Penn.

Fifteenth Birthday Celebrated.

On last Saturday evening when Miss Alta Fae Patterson returned to her home after purposely being detained at a neighbor's home, she was greatly surprised to find that her mother, Mrs. J. W. Patterson, had assembled a number of her young friends to join with her in the celebration of her fifteenth birthday.

Games and interesting contests gave happy diversion until a late hour when the guests were invited into the dining room where the birthday cake, topped with fifteen lighted tapers, was cut and served with cream.

The guest list included Norvene Cramer, Katherine Hill, Luralee Tinkle, Altus Shipman, Anna B. Faulkner, Margaret Nicholson, Clara Nell McAdams, Frances Smith, Marvin Bedford, S. E. Hunt, Emmett Taylor, Harold Stooksberry, Stewart Williams and Van Sullivan.

Japanese Party Given At Country Club

On Friday evening, September 16, the country club was the setting for a large and beautiful party given to the members of the Diversity Club, honoring their husbands, by Mesdames R. K. Russell, Carl Davis, B. G. Owens and G. C. Hill.

The hostesses had selected all the details of their party to harmonize in a Japanese theme, and pursuant with the customs of that people, the guests, upon arrival, were shown into a room, that by the arrangement of ferns, flowers and lanterns was a veritable Japanese garden, and there they were served hot tea and wafers, by Misses Katherine Hill and Norvene Cramer, who were attractive little Japanese.

The playing room was lighted with lanterns and beautiful cut flowers and pot ferns made a lovely place for the guests to spend the hours playing "42." In a cut for favors, Doug Motley of Ballinger, cut high and H. W. Robinson, Jr., cut low. Both were presented with pretty Japanese wall vases.

The serving tables were laid with artistic Japanese squares, and the refreshments—served in two courses—consisted of chicken salad, cheese apples, olives, saratoga flakes, potato chips, and punch, brick cream and cake. The second course revealed a color scheme of pink and white, and carried pretty little Japanese plate favors on which were engraved the inscription "Honoring Our Husbands, the Diversity Club, September 16th, 1927."

Those present who were club members were Messrs. and Mesdames Walter Brian, Carl Davis, T. D. Dunn, G. C. Hill, C. S. Jackson, R. C. Maddox, B. G. Owens, J. M. Pyburn, H. W. Robinson, Frank Williams, R. K. Russell, Jess Wetzel, H. Tompkins, W. P. Gardner, L. T. Smith, Mrs. A. L. Barlow, and the guests were Messrs. and Mesdames R. E. Bacon, Harold Norman, H. W. Lynn, and Doug Motley, Ballinger; F. V. Gates, San Angelo; and Mrs. L. B. Maddox of Concordia, Kansas, and Mrs. J. H. Rhoden.

Assembly of God Meeting Continues

The revival meeting under the tent on South Main street is still going on though bad weather has broken into the services for two or three nights. The services will continue throughout the week and the closing service will likely be held Sunday night. There will be a baptismal service on Sunday afternoon if conditions permit, though the place has not yet been decided upon, but will be announced on Saturday night if everything is favorable for the baptizing.

While the meeting hasn't quite come up to our expectations, yet there have been some saved, others have been reclaimed while several have received the Baptism of the Holy Spirit; and in addition to this there are quite a goodly number who really are interested and hungry for the Lord; so the meeting hasn't been a failure by any means and we feel sure that the seed has been sown that eternity alone will reveal the results of.

Taking everything into consideration we cannot feel that it is right for the meeting to close without the establishment of a permanent work of the Assemblies of God in Winters, where the old-time gospel will be preached in its simplicity, and where people may be able to really find the Lord precious to their souls for salvation, healing, and the Baptism of the Holy Spirit. According to the Scriptures, the prophecies concerning the coming of the Lord are all fulfilled, and ought to be held out before the people as an incentive to live each day in such a relationship with the Lord that they will be found ready should He come at any moment. Such is the great need today and such is the work which we desire to bring continually before the people of Winters, and to this end we are going to be willing to sacrifice everything in order that those who really desire such a place of worship may have it. Further announcement will be made at the services on Saturday and Sunday nights. — A. F. Johnson.

Henry Dixon has gone to Abilene to enter Simmons University as a student.

P. T. A. Social Meeting Tuesday
The Parent-Teacher Association will meet at the high school building Tuesday, September 27, at 3:30 p. m. in social meeting.

An interesting program has been arranged as follows:
Lord's Prayer.
How Parents Can Cooperate With the Public Schools—Mrs. J. W. Dixon.

Solo—Mrs. Floyd Smith.
Children's Reading and the Kind—Mrs. Gid. J. Bryan.
Reading—Miss Naomi Hunt.
A good attendance is desired, and all parents are urged to be present.

Mr. James Victor Baird of Waco, has been added to the high school faculty. The crowded condition of the high school made it necessary to increase the teaching force. Mr. Baird is a graduate of Baylor University and comes to our schools very highly recommended.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Perkins of Florence were visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Davis the past week.

J. B. Wilkinson of Midland left yesterday for his home after spending a few days in the home of his son, I. N. Wilkinson.

The Promise in the New Wealth of the Harvest

As the harvest brings its returns to the nation's farmers, conditions for a big and important part of our population are improving. And the farmer's efforts, at the same time they benefit him, add directly to the prosperity of every person in the land.

With the harvest comes a new obligation, also. As the gifts of nature make fruitful the farmer's work—the need for wise handling of our wealth, that every dollar may produce full value, is driven home.

Merkel Badgers Easy for Blizzards

The second game of the 1927 football season was tipped in favor of the Winters high school Blizzards when the Merkel Badgers, on last Friday evening, failed to scratch and let the local eleven score four touchdowns and kick to try for points, all adding up 20 to 0 in favor of the Blizzards. As was predicted the game was a better brand of football than the opener of the season, both from the standpoint of going against a stronger team and of a little more punch in both defense and offense from the home boys.

The scoring was well distributed throughout the four quarters, indicating that Merkel was offering a little more competition, and that the Blizzards were learning to manipulate plays and signals under a strategic situation regardless of what defense was offered.

Winters back gained at all points through the line. Several forward passes were completed by Winters, while Merkel's aerial attack failed. Only two first down were marked to the credit of the visitors, and these were not in dangerous territory.

The sensation of the game was a long pass from Bedford to Hardegree in the last few seconds of play which put the ball on the two yard line and headed the Blizzards for another 6-counter as the final gun fired.

Would You Like to Do on Just Half Enough Water?

Think of how inconvenient it would be for the housewife to have just half enough water in the home. She would probably get by in this haphazard way. Now, the same applies to your lighting. If you are just getting by with one-half enough light, think how it mars the beauty of your home, as well as causing eye-strain that probably never could be corrected.

Now that it is school time again, you should light up the home and not hinder your children's study hour by having just one-half or less light.

Plenty of light is the most reasonable investment you can put in your home. What does the small cost amount to each month when it comes to protecting your eyes, aiding your children in their studies, and beautifying your home?

Our Policies Our Ideals

Our iron-clad policies permit no compromise with the best merchandise and the best service.

To please is of more importance to us than immediate profit. We ask no applause or commendation for this attitude. It is a debt—a duty—a point of honor.

Pride in our leadership, for these years in Winters as well as our responsibility demands that we serve to the utmost of our ability.

The immense—and ever-increasing patronage accorded us attests the fact that the public approves these policies.

Our patrons know that regardless of seasons—regardless of poor crops and decreased prices—regardless of adverse conditions they can always find what they want—when they want it, and at right prices at Higginbotham's. We, as pioneer merchants of West Texas have held fast to this ideal of service for almost a third of a century—and it shall remain our guiding star in the future.

On the basis of such policies and ideals we ask your fullest confidence and continued patronage. All of our big departments are full to overflowing with good things for fall and winter selling. We await your coming.
