VOLUME XXIV

WINTERS, RUNNELS CO., TEXAS, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1927

NUMBER 24

C. Of C. Committees Are Now Being Organized

The Chamber of Commerce, like every other business, has many problems to solve in order to succeed as it should. A summary of the C. of C. work and outline developed during the past three months will be given to the membership as early as possible.

There is one thing absolutely necessary before we can hope to attain the ideals and realize results as we should in community development and that is the completion of our budget. There are number to see yet and a few who have been seen are putting off getting in line with their support. Until this work is finished, the budget cannot be efficiently proportioned and it is hoped that further delays will be avoided. Everybody should be glad to have a part in this great work. A few more firms and individuals have taken their stand for a greater Winters. They are:

R. A. Cramer, cotton buyer.
West Texas Telephone Co.
Community Natural Gas Co.
Gambill's Department Store.
Winters Warehouse Co.
Abilene & Southern Ry.

There are probably others that have not been turned in but they will be published as soon as given to the office. It might be said that every one of the above are sustaining members.

The secretary is very anxious to visit with the various members and firms of the city and confer with each one regarding the program and work, but on account of so much important work in hand he feels that the greater good may be done by keeping on the job and taking care of some of the extremely important projects that have already developed. An examination of his records, which are open to the interested citizens of Winters, will prove without a doubt that there are some very important matters that of necessity must be handled without delay. He will gladly go over any matters with those who desire to learn of the chamber's work; also to have suggestions from any one.

Two propositions from which we cannot hope to realize results from if delayed are the highway proposition through the city, which has been taken up with the city council with fair prospects of going over; while the other is vital matter concerning our community work which is being taken care of this week. Another matter which should be organized as soon as possible is the Better Business Bureau which is a new department of the local chamber. This will interest every business directly as its purpose is to eliminate the various schemes that are introduced in the city by those who are here a day or a week and are gone, taking the good money of the people with them. The Better Business Bureau is also intended to create a better business publicity plan and inaugurate trades and sales days that will bring many additional new people and customers to the city.

For the information of the public, the board of directors has approved

Wingate School Opens Monday

School will open at Wingate Monday morning, October 17th, and we sincerely hope that this is to be a banner year for the schools. The following program will be given in the high school auditorium at nine o'clock, a. m.

Song, America—Audience.
Music, Miss Aleene Gooch.
Address, J. D. Motley, Secretary of Ballinger Chamber of Commerce.
Quartet, C. N. Polk and children.
Reading, Bonnie Bryan.
Announcements for P. T. A. by the president.
Address, County Superintendent, Robt. White.
Quartet, C. N. Polk and children.
Reading Myrtle Hancock.
Announcements, Supt. Cross.
Music, Miss Gooch.

The following faculty has been chosen and we think that we will find them good: Mr. James F. Cross, superintendent; Mr. Ernest Caskey, principal; Miss Alta Remington, Spanish and English; Miss Veo Shrader, 7th and 8th grades; Miss Joe Estelle Alexander, 5th grade; Miss Nora Belle Biggs, 4th and 3rd grades; Miss Bertie McKenzie, primary. Four of these hold degrees, and all the others have had several years in college, and have taught successfully in other places.

Let us all remember that we will get out of our school just what we put into it, and be on hand Monday and on every occasion that is at all possible. There is no reason in the world why Wingate should not have a school equal to any in the county. Let us work toward this end. Why not have a nine months fully affiliated school at Wingate? We can have such a school if we but work for it. Contributed.

W. W. Baden, construction engineer in charge of the work now being done on Highway No. 30, in the Winters precinct, and Secretary Cooper of the chamber of commerce, were making a survey of Main street yesterday in view of having the street hard-surfaced at both ends where the brick pavement stops off on out to the city limits.

The following departments with committee chairmen as listed. Some of the chairmen have already a committee line-up and some have not, but will have soon. There will be about thirty more people included in the committees before the organization is completed. It might be suggested that anyone who is interested in any of these departments may call at the office and examine the outlines of individual departmental activities. The secretary will be glad to go over them and explain fully the details:

Big Crowd Expected at Winters-Santa Game Tomorrow

Probably the largest crowd to ever witness a football game in midseason on Blizzard Field will on tomorrow (Friday) see the Blizzard team of Winters high school clash with the Santa Anna high school eleven in a game that promises to be the best yet of the present season. In our opinion, from what we can hear about the Santa Anna team, we have a rival for district championship in the eleven that Coach Loch will bring over to force the best that the Blizzards have to the surface.

Advance sale of tickets indicate that some five or six hundred people will witness this contest and preparations are being made to handle the crowd beginning at 3:15 Friday, as at that time the gate to the football field will be open and give the crowd time to assemble. The game will start promptly at 4 o'clock.

Santa Anna has a record of wins that is a credit to any team and if the Blizzards freeze them out with more counters than the visitors make, it will only indicate that they have cured some of the kinks in the team which developed in last Friday's game. No serious injuries are reported from the Blizzard camp and a note of having learned a lesson from the game last Friday when Eden broke around the ends of the Blue and White for a counter before the local squad realized that they were playing a football game, and that note, coupled with determination to play the game this Friday, knowing that it is going to take a fighting team to win, will indicate to fans what chance we have to continue in the 1000 per cent column.

Winters Needs More and Better Lateral Roads

A trip out over the country roads at this time will convince any one of the importance of taking care of them. Our commissioners are doing a great work and looking after the roads in wonderful way, but their funds are limited and they cannot build the best of roads and bring them up to the standard in every respect without more funds. There are many places that, with rains such as we have had the past few days, are low and become impassable for a time after a shower. With these exceptions there are many miles of otherwise good roads. The best road is no better than the bad places. We need to get under the load of better road work and devise some way to enabling our commissioners to carry out their great work.

J. A. Briley who has been making his home in the Fry oil fields the past six or eight months, returned to Winters the latter part of the past week to make his home.

W. S. Wright and daughters, Misses Callie and Eleanor, of Glenn Rose, visited in the home of his brother, D. B. Wright, a few days the first of the week.

Winters Poultry Awarded Many Prizes at Co. Fair

A. D. Lee, poultry fancier, and breeder of S. C. Rhode Island Reds, took the majority of prizes offered in this class at the Runnels County Fair where he exhibited his birds last week.

Prizes won by Mr. Lee were as follows: First prize for old pen; first and second cockerels; second and third prizes for hen; first and third pullet; best parti colored birds of the show; best parti colored male of the show, and the best display at the show.

In all, he received five blue ribbons and three champions.

Crushed Rock is Being Received For Highway

Up to Tuesday fifteen cars of crushed rock had been received for the highway topping job. Cars are rolling in every day and at the present rate the necessary amount of material will be on the ground within a short time.

Mr. W. W. Braden, contractor, has the work organized sufficiently to finish the entire contract in a month or a little better. There is one thing about this new project, and that is we may soon enjoy all the comforts of the better highways—not as permanent as the concrete—but dust, crawling gravel, etc, will be eliminated. The surface will be as good as one could want. The maintenance, of course, will have to be looked after closer than on other types of paving, but this the highway department will do.

Winters Take Close Game from Eden

Coming from behind, after the Eden Bulldogs had scored a touchdown and failed to kick goal, the Winters Blizzards blew over the opposition at the Runnels County Fair last Friday afternoon before a crowd of some fifteen hundred spectators when they carried the ball over for a touchdown, after which Bedford sent the oval squarely between the goal posts for the point that "brought home the bacon."

The failure of Eden to kick the extra point cost them the game, but they fought hard and played a good defensive game from start to finish.

Captain Key of the Blizzards won the toss and chose to receive while Captain Nail of Eden chose to defend the north goal. Nail kicked off to the Blizzards who failed in their efforts to gain, and Bedford got off a bad punt from his own 25-yard line, for only a few yards. On the first play Nail carried the ball for a 20-yard gain around left end. He made eight more and then kicked off of bounds on Winters' three yard line. Bedford got off another very poor punt the ball going out of bounds on the Blizzard 22-yard line. On the first play Green, Eden's speedy quarter, carried the ball around left end for 22 yards and the first touchdown of the game, and the only counter marked up by either team during the first quarter.

In the second quarter a pass for 30 yards from Bedford to Hardegreve, put the ball near the goal line and on a couple of swift line bucks the ball was carried over the line for the Blizzards' first score. Bedford carried the ball over and also kicked goal for the extra point which proved to be the deciding factor in the final score, as neither team could score during the last two quarters.

About the middle of the third quarter, Geo. Hill, 14-year-old second string man, took Bedford's place at quarter and called a very safe game, with the exception of the last play of the game. After completing a pass for some six yards to Hardegreve and the exchange of punts, "Bully" attempted another pass which was intercepted but fortunately the Eden man was downed in his tracks. This last play could have resulted in the defeat of the Blizzards had not Winters' tacklers done their work well. The game ended with the ball in Eden's possession on the Blizzard 40-yard line.

Officials:—Referee, Earnshaw; umpire, Mullins; head linesman, Maddox; time keepers, Smith and Weaver.

P. T. A. Will Sponsor Lyceum

The Parent-Teacher Association are sponsoring the Lyceum again this year. The drive for the sale of season tickets will begin October 19th, and the P. T. A. needs the co-operation of the entire citizenship.

The course, which consists of five numbers, will cost the P. T. A. $375. Season tickets for adults will be sold for $2.00 and season tickets for children $1.00. Compared to the quality of entertainment of each number, this admission charge is unusually low and the P. T. A. is to be commended for sponsoring this high-class, clean entertainment.

Committees for the sale of tickets have been appointed as follows: Business section, Mesdames Brophy, Jennings, Chapman and McKissack; residence section, Mesdames Lee, Shepperd, and Cooper; high school, Mrs. Rhoden, Mr. Penn and Miss Wells.

The first number will be given on Monday, October 24th, when H. R. Manlove, an impersonator of many faces and an extraordinary comedian, will give a clean program, brim full of fun. Other numbers to be given are the Artelles Dickson company, a high-class musical company; The Kingsberg company in an expose of spiritism, in which Mr. Kingsberg reproduces the mysteries of the seance room and exposes the tricks of the famous mediums; George Emerson Francis, one of the platform's outstanding orators, and Three Wise Fools, a mine character play with a cast of exceptional players. All programs will be given at the high school building.

BOX SUPPER AT ANTELOPE

A box supper will be given at the Antelope Baptist church Saturday night, October 15th. Boxes will be brought by the girls and the boys are expected to bring well filled pocketbooks. The proceeds will be used to help pay the indebtedness of the church.

Jesse Sudberry, who was severely injured two weeks ago at one of the local gigs, and who is now in the sanitarium, is reported as not recovering as fast as had been expected, and may be removed to Waco for treatment.

Floyd Secures Chrysler Agency

Announcement was made the first of the week of the appointment of S. P. Floyd as local representative of the Chrysler line of automobiles, and a large advertisement to that effect appears elsewhere in this issue, to which we direct your attention.

Mr. Floyd states that he will soon have on display at his new location on West Dale street, several of the new model Chrysler cars, and will be pleased to give demonstrations at all times.

And while we are talking about Mr. Floyd, a visit to his new location will reveal the fact that he has one of the most modern, up-to-date service stations and garages to be found in the city. The building, erected especially for this kind of business, is very spacious with plenty of light. The front is a regular drive-in filling station, while the plate glass front displays to advantage the show rooms in which Chrysler and Dodge cars will be displayed.

The office and store room are in the balcony where also will be stored surplus Goodyear tires and other auto accessories. The mechanical department is in the rear of the building, and is under the supervision of M. C. Clifton, who is an experienced mechanic, especially on the makes of cars handled by Mr. Floyd.

Every convenience for the comfort of the customer has been taken into consideration and arranged for, such as a ladies' rest room, and easy chairs for you to rest in while your car is being serviced. Mr. Floyd says he is now fixed up to give real service and invites the public to visit his new place of business in the Pruser building on West Dale street.

Monday Had All Earmarks of a Real Trades Day

Monday was a real business day in Winters. It seemed more like a special day than just a regular Monday. Many of the merchants with their entire force of help were rushed to the limit in waiting on customers. A little glance around the business district showed displays of reasonable merchandise with prices that were partly, at least, respectable for the great crowds lining up for service.

A little cooperative and definitely planned advertising will add greatly to the attractiveness of Winters as a real trading center. A gentleman who has traveled a great deal and thought he knew every important town in Texas, said that Winters was a revelation to him. He said with the great territory surrounding Winters, it should be the best small town in all West Texas—and it is. He was right, not only in this, but in his belief that with special effort of the business people there is no estimate of just what the attainment might be. A fellow will get used to a wart on his nose or beautiful blooming shrubs in his yard, and hardly be conscious of them, but it's a cinch that the other fellow will notice them. Why not do some real thinking about our prospects and see what can really be done in building Winters? Let us get rid of the warts and give special attention to the flowers—this means that to progress we should get obstacles out of the way and get together and work for the general upbuilding of the community.

Winters People in Wreck Saturday

While on their way to Ballinger last Saturday night, a Studebaker sedan, driven by Houston Williams, collided with the concrete rails of the bridge at the end of the graveled pike, demolishing the car.

Fortunately no one was seriously hurt. Mr. Frederick was cut with glass, and Ralph Houston received a severe gash in the mouth. Mrs. Houston and the others who were in the car were unharmed.

Accounting for the accident Mr. Williams said: "I met another car the headlights of which were so bright they blinded me and I just sideswiped the concrete railing."

Mrs. W. E. Simmons and little sons of Whitesboro, are visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hartzog.

TELL ABOUT IT

A good friend of ours in Winters has a popular article for sale at a popular price. He has been looking for buyers for several weeks yet we didn't learn about it until two or three days ago. Now we are constantly inquiring into everybody's business, listening alertly for something new, but have just found out that he was selling this new article. Of course, he hasn't advertised it or we would have known much sooner. Now if a newspaper man hears about such only after several weeks, what about the general public? It's mighty hard these days to sell anything without letting folks know that it is for sale and worth buying. Even then it's hard to hold business if a competitor is talking up his article of a similar nature through the newspaper.

Any product worth advertising is generally worth buying.

THINK THIS OVER

We are now building highways for the benefit of the commercial trucks and enormous passenger busses. The railroads really have a just cause of complaints. They buy their own right of ways and lay their own road bed and steel, and maintain this investment. When we lay a concrete ribbon in the state and the people pay for it in taxes it certainly should not be turned over to transportation corporations for their sole and separate commercial use. Yet this is almost what we do. The busses and the trucks thick enough on the roads will not only wreck the roads but drive away the traffic for which the roads are built.

A FAMILY AFFAIR

In Vermont two sisters married brothers while a brother married a sister of the two husbands. All are alive today and all are over 85 years of age. Thus proving that life insurance companies may earn their money without a struggle. At any rate here is an old and interesting family combination.

BALANCED RATIONS

We hear much about balanced rations these days from doctors and dairymen. We also need some experts on balanced rations in the fields of work and amusements. This country has a bad case of amusement indigestion. We consume and consume but never are satisfied. Some people work, only to get money to buy amusement. We are over-supplied with means of amusement, and under-developed in the matter of knowing how much we should indulge in mere pastime.

HIGHER COSTS OF PLEASURE

The National Security Co., reports that business men lose 125 millions every year through embezzlements. Last year 125 criminals were sentenced from six months to ten years. The company attributes the chief cause of these crimes to increasingly higher costs of pleasures, luxuries, and dissipation, and the inability of many persons to earn enough money through honest work to satisfy their desires in this direction.

This fall women will dress to match their personality. And what kind of personality does an extra short skirt represent?

KILLING WITH KINDNESS

The American people, with their almost unbalanced hero worship, are doing their utmost to "kill with kindness" Colonel Lindbergh, the lone eagle, who flew across the Atlantic. But, level-headed and sincere thru it all, Lindy manages to keep himself to go serenely on his way.

VANISHING JOYS

The barn-raisin' is practically a thing of the past, and now that combined harvester and thresher threaten to abolish the threshing bee and to do away with good meals that are spread for the threshing gang. There is always something to take the joy out of life.

UP IN THE AIR

The airship is bound to take its place as the most popular medium of transportation. It is the only refuge of suffering humanity from the contractors who are continually keeping the highways torn up for "repairs." The airplane will hold its domain until some fellow finds a way to plant detour signs in the heavens.

THE MARCH TO CUBA

The next encampment of American veterans will be held in Havana, Cuba, by those who participated in the Spanish-American war. The boys had a little trouble getting into the island 29 years ago, and their invasion was vigorously protested by those who had ruled the natives for more than 600 years. This time the boys will be welcomed as honored guests.

FORD IS OPTIMISTIC

Brazil is the mecca of the rubber industry of the world, and the Para region, especially is noted not only for the quantity of rubber raised, but also for the quality. Henry Ford has just purchased 1,200,000 acres of land there and this is proof that he foresees no falling off in the number of worn out tires.

Circus Travels by Chevrolets

Seventy-five Chevrolet trucks transport the Downie Bros. Wild Animal Circus on its summer tours. Andrew Downie, head of the show, who has been identified with circuses for 42 years, standardized on Chevrolets after trying every means of transportation from horse and wagon, canal barges, steam tractors with trailers, to the usual railroad circus train.

When the circus comes to town—if it happens to be Downie Brothers Wild Animal Circus—it comes by Chevrolets. Seventy-five of them—sturdy one-ton trucks—make up the train that transports this entire show—wild animals and all, from the time in early spring it leaves its winter quarters at Havre de Grace, Md., until it returns there late in Autumn.

Andrew Downie, head of the show, fixed on Chevrolet after trying other methods of transportation during his 42 years in the show business. He experimented with horses and wagons, canal barges, steam tractors to which trailers were hitched, motor trucks and railway circus trains.

Now the 75 Chevrolets carry the entire show, consisting of 200 clowns, musicians, tight-rope walkers and other employes, as well as lions, tigers, and the "big top," side shows and complete equipment everywhere on the circuit from inaccessible mountain hamlets to seaside towns. One truck used by General Manager Haran as a summer home provides him with a residence en route. Another carries a complete electric lighting plant.

Last year the circus caravan traveled 7,000 miles of roads of every sort, up mountain trails, and dragging in and out of muddy circus lots, etc.

Not one spring was broken and no trouble was experienced with rear ends, or gears, or clutches, according to statement by the chief mechanic, despite the grueling test that each truck underwent and despite the fact that each truck carried an average load of more than 4,000 pounds.

Dependability, Mr. Downie said, was the big thing that decided him in favor of Chevrolets. His advance guard draws up a traveling schedule which he must adhere to rigidly. His trucks may not break down en route lest he disappoint the youngsters in the next town keyed up for the big parade. Another factor favoring the Chevrolets, he says, is the ease and convenience with which new parts or service may be obtained even in remote country districts.

His is said to be the largest motor circus in the world.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR NOTES

On Sunday afternoon, October 9, the Junior C. E. Society of the Presbyterian church was reorganized under the leadership of Mrs. L. Wilson. There were a number of Juniors present, but we urge every parent in the church to remind their children of the hour of meeting, and see that they are present to share in this great work. The time of meeting will be announced Sunday morning.

INTERMEDIATE G. A.

The G. A. met in regular session Monday night at the church. Since it was our work day, we made dolls for the Cradle Roll Department of our church. These dolls will be presented at prayer meeting Wednesday night. A program was given out by our Counsellor to be rendered on Wednesday night also. YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIAL

The Young People's Christian Endeavor met Tuesday evening in their regular business meeting, after which Misses Evelyn Gannaway and Gertrude Morgan entertained the society with a very enjoyable social at the Gannaway home. A number of games were played and delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to a good number of Endeavorers, and all went away feeling greatly repaid for having been present.

It now looks as if there are several candidates who "choose" that will never be chosen.

Buy With Confidence Feed With Assurance

The most significant phase of the growing preference for Cackelo Poultry Feeds and Milkelo Dairy Feed lies in the confidence with which they are bought—the result of higher standards of quality and the precision with which every detail of manufacture is carried out.

Bought with confidence, these splendid Feeds are fed with pride because of their superior value—in which you immediately sense some unusual factor.

No feeds have ever more truly merited the poultry and cow owner's preference which, day by day, is swinging more and more to Cackelo and Milkelo.

You are surely going to be highly pleased with the results when you once try these good feeds.

"I agree with George White that Luckies are the best"

George White,
Producer of George White's Scandals, writes:

"In the theatre world, Luckies have become almost universal. Stage folks are very critical—voices must be kept in condition, throat irritation is a handicap. In 'George White's Scandals,' most actors and actresses whose voices are important smoke Luckies both for voice protection and finer flavor. For these reasons I prefer them, too."

You, too, will find that LUCKY STRIKES give the greatest pleasure—Mild and Mellow, the finest cigarettes you ever smoked. Made of the choicest tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"IT'S TOASTED"—no harshness, not a bit of bite.

There was Sunday school at both churches here Sunday morning, singing at the Methodist church Sunday afternoon, Epworth League Sunday night, but there was no meeting of the B. Y. P. U. on account of the Harmony Union, who were to put on the program being prevented by illness among their members. After their program the League members went to the Baptist church where a pleasant singing was enjoyed.

Quite a number of the Crews people attended conference at Talpa on last Sunday.

Barnes Circus at Ballinger Next Thursday, 20th

Al G. Barnes circus is coming to Ballinger Thursday, October 20th. Advertising agents have been posting pictorial circus bills in this vicinity, announcing the coming of this excellent show, and advertisements will be found in our columns this week. The management of the Al G. Barnes circus announces the following features this year:

The all new spectacle "entitled, "Aladdin and the Parade of Gold," in which approximately 1,000 people take part, including the Chinese beauty, Lola Lee Chong; the Chinese giant, Liu Yu-Ching, the biggest man on earth; Klinkerts, equestrian mid-gets, fourteen tiny horsemen from Bavaria; San Marcus, the $16,000 equine star; the zebra round-up, with the largest herd in captivity in America; and many other novel features and performances given by American and foreign artists, and animals from all parts of the world.

Two performances are given daily—the afternoon, starting at 2 o'clock and the night performance starting at 8 o'clock. The doors are open one hour previous for the inspection of the largest traveling zoo in America and for the children to see the Chinese exhibit in which Liu Yu-Ching and his suite hold a reception.

WHAT A REXALL ONE CENT SALE IS

It is a sale where you buy an item at the regular price, then another item of the same kind for one cent. As an illustration: The standard price of Klenzo Dental Cream is 50c, you buy a tube at this price and by paying one cent more, or 51c you get two tubes. Every article in this sale is a high class standard piece of merchandise, just the same as is sold every day at the regular price.

This sale was developed by the United Drug Co., as an advertising plan. Rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merit of these goods, they are spending it on this sale in permitting us to sell you a full size package of high standard merchandise for 1 cent. It costs money to get new customers, but the sacrifice in profit is justified, knowing the goods will please you.

One-Cent Sale At City Drug Co.

Following an annual custom the One Cent Sale by the City Drug Co. will start Thursday, October 20th, and last until the following Saturday. In conversation with Mr. Paxton, who has engineered many of these special bargain events by the Rexall people, whom he represents in Winters he said "we have bought more merchandise for our one-cent sale this year than ever before, and the stock is brand new, being received only this week, and contains more staple articles than any other sale of its kind heretofore—articles which will find a ready sale and constant use in the home." He also stated that he stands firmly behind each and every article sold for one cent, the same as he would products selling for $1.00.

SOCIETY

Winters Club Ladies' Entertained at Ballinger.

Mrs. H. W. Lynn and her mother, Mrs. Townsend, were hostesses to the Winters Diversity Club and other guests Tuesday, October 11, at the Ballinger Country Club. Mrs. Lynn was a charter member of the club who recently moved to Ballinger and the courtesy extended was one of the outstanding social events of the club year.

The spacious reception room was made attractive by the use of fall flowers and foliage making a pretty setting for the nine tables arranged for games of progressive forty-two.

Preceding the games the hostesses served a delicious refreshment plate of pressed chicken, potato chips, cheese straws, Saratoga flakes, lemon sherbert and cake to the following guests: Mesdames Walter Brain, J. W. Dixon, Carl Davis, T. D. Dunn, Geo. C. Hill, W. P. Gardner, P. G. Garrett, W. W. McKissick, R. C. Maddox, W. C. Nunnally, B. G.

The reception rooms were lovely with vases of roses attractively arranged.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Grover Davis, and the devotional exercises were conducted by the teacher, Mrs. G. E. Nicholson followed by the reading of the minutes of the previous meeting by the secretary, Mrs. Ray Deas-

on. After an interesting business meeting a social hour followed, and as a diversion two contests were very much enjoyed, after which the hostesses served refreshments of cake and ice cream.

Those present included Mesdames W. E. Coley, Jas. B. Phelps, Tom B. Ray, Z. T. Smith, Ray Deason, G. E. Nicholson, J. H. Northam, S. D. Vinson, G. C. Davis, F. D. Gardner and Ray Powers.

"CORNED BEEF AND—"

(Editor's Note: This is one of a series of interesting cooking articles by 6 famous cooks running exclusively in this paper.)
If the way to a man's heart is through his stomach, surely one of the easiest ways is to serve him corned beef and cabbage. That holds true for pretty nearly every man, except, of course, the dyspeptic, who is always hard to suit.

Corned beef and cabbage is nowhere more deliciously cooked than in New England, where, with a few additional vegetables, it makes its appearance as the "boiled dinner."

What Flavor!
"And the boiled dinner enthusiast will tell you how excellent the blended flavors are," says Miss Lucy G. Allen, head of the Boston School of Cookery. "I delight in the boiled dinner of corned beef with cabbage, beets, turnips, potatoes, and carrots or parsnips. All but the beets I cook in the same kettle."

Allow ample time for cooking the corned beef, Miss Allen cautions. It should be started at least two or three hours before the vegetables are added. If by chance it becomes tender before the vegetables, it can be removed from the fire and reheated before serving.

How to Buy
Very often you can get a more tender piece of meat if you buy a fresh beef brisket. Ask the butcher to rub in coarse salt and keep it a day or two. Sometimes the corned meat kept too long in brine get hardened.

Use a very large kettle. Put in the meat, cover with boiling water. (If the corned beef has been soaking long in brine, start cooking it in cold water.)
Let the meat boil for five minutes, then reduce the heat and let it cook slowly for two or three hours.

Add the Vegetables
Add cabbage which has been washed and cut into quarters. Then add peeled turnips, whole if small, diced if large, and the carrots or parsnips cut into two-inch lengths. Scrub beets thoroughly, and put in separate kettle, covered with boiling water.
Half an hour before serving add peeled potatoes to the large kettle. The success of the dinner depends upon having each article perfectly done, but not overdone.

To Serve
In New England this dinner is usually served by placing the meat in the center of a large platter, and grouping all the vegetables except the cabbage around the meat. The cabbage is so bulky that it is best to serve it in a separate dish.
Truly this is a most delicious meal. A fitting dessert is a custard or a rice pudding, as these are not too hearty to serve with this substantial dinner.

Golden Gate Custard
This is a recipe contributed by Mrs. Belle DeGraf, home economics counsellor, San Francisco.
1 cup sifted bread crumbs
1 cup milk
1 cup orange rind
1 egg separated
1/2 cup sugar
Add the grated rind of one orange to the juice. Use soft bread crumbs. Sift through coarse strainer. Add milk and orange juice. Beat eggs separately. Add sugar to yolks and then add to custard. Mix well. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour in a pudding dish. Set dish in pan of hot water and bake until firm in center. This takes about 30 minutes, in a moderate oven (350 degrees).

Howell Operating New Meat Market

J. E. Howell has opened an exclusive meat market in the new building just east of The Enterprise office. For some time Mr. Howell has operated a market at Curry's Cash Grocery, and will continue to do so, the new market giving him two establishments.

One of the features of this new market is a Husmannized Sanitary Frigidaire, which is equipped with an electric meat cutter. Mrs. Lawrence Dies Here Monday

On Monday afternoon, October 10, Mrs. Theresa Lawrence, wife of J. L. Lawrence, quietly and sweetly fell asleep at the family home on Church street.

Deceased was fifty-three years of age and had been in ill health for a number of years, coming to Winters several months ago from Gatesville in the interest of her health. She had been confined to her bed for the past week and death came as a relief from pain and suffering.

Surviving her, besides her husband, are two children, Miss Theresa Lawrence, Winters, and Henry Lawrence, Valley Mills; one son, George Lawrence died suddenly a few months ago while on duty at the Winters Ice and Fuel; another son having passed away a short time before the family moved here, and it is thought that grief shortened the life of the invalid mother.

The body was prepared for burial by Spill Bros. and conveyed to Jonesboro, Coryell county, Tuesday morning and laid to rest in the cemetery at that place.

Tenderest sympathy is extended the grief-stricken husband and children in the loss of their loved one.

Mr. and Mrs. John Curry are entertaining a new daughter in their home since Thursday, October 6th. Mother and little lady are doing nicely.

Miscellaneous Shower for Bride

On last Thursday evening quite a number of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. Clyde Collinsworth, where a miscellaneous shower was given the recent bride, Mrs. Emmett Brooks. Music, games and interesting contests gave happy diversion throughout the evening. There was a quartette number by Mrs. Morgan Hudson, Mrs. Essie Pumphrey, Mrs. Clara Bridwell and Mrs. Mae Hudson. Mrs. Hudson received a prize for singing without laughing. Then came the corn contest—a pitcher full of shelled corn, and each guessed at the number of grains it contained. Miss Mabelle Cole won the prize in this contest. Miss Nix gave a reading. Mrs. Addie Busby portrayed a Jew peddler, bringing in a basket containing linens, which she offered to Mrs. Brooks, saying they were worth her time to look them over. She accepted Mrs. Busby's offer and received a nice lot of linens, gifts from the guests present. This was followed by playing "blindfold," and Mrs. Brooks was blindfolded while she was led to a table containing the rest of the things, such as cooking utensils and chinaware. Then the hostess served delicious ice cream, cake and sandwiches. The guest list included Mrs. Clara Bridwell, Mrs. Charlie Hitchins, Mrs. Nina B. Puckett, Mrs. Essie Pumphrey, Mrs. Bettie Bridwell, Mrs. Trudie Holbrooks, Mrs. James Alexander, Mrs. J. R. Woodfin, Mrs. Geo. Loyd, Mrs. E. W. Swearingen, Mrs. C. C. FACTS
—AND THE OPEN MIND

THE MOST important element in business success—and the most difficult—is to be sure that you have all the facts before you act.

TO GET them all, from every possible source, is the first objective in General Motors. The Research Laboratories contribute some. These are nuggets, left in the crucible, after hundreds of ideas that looked good have been burned away. The Proving Ground contributes others. Dealers contribute. The public contributes. Every department contributes. Through the whole organization runs a spirit of inquiry and of rigid insistence on proof.

OUT OF such thinking come the new models announced from time to time by Chevrolet, Pontiac, Oldsmobile, Oakland, Buick, LaSalle, Cadillac—all with Fisher Bodies. And by Frigidaire. Each new model is a tested step forward. Nothing goes into it as a result of habit or guess or pride of opinion.

Nothing counts but hard-won facts, gathered and used with an open mind.

Dramatic Scenes In Fine Romantic De Mille Picture

Given but five minutes to live, alone with the man who has been commissioned to kill her, a beautifully gowned Russian aristocrat looks wildly around a gorgeous room, desecrated by plundering revolutionists.

This is one of the great central situations of Cecil De Mille's production "The Volga Boatman," as adapted by Lenore J. Coffee from Konrad Bercovici's great story of Russia in travail, which will be the feature at the Queen Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

William Boyd is the crude Volga Boatman, servant turned master, leader of revolutionists, and Elinor Fair, De Mille's newest "find" is the girl. What transpires in that room and how the unusual situation is built to a climax, provides the high spot of the strongly virile love story De Mille has constructed against the most grippingly dramatic background of current history.

Previous to this climatic sequence De Mille provides pictorial views of the Volga with the huge boats drawn by human mules and striking pictures of the contrast of wealth and poverty before the overthrow. The two strange lovers are carried through an amazing series of adventures before the story is brought to its conclusion.

SPORTS IN AMERICAN LIFE

Sports are claiming and securing a large place in the life of the world today. In America they are becoming more expensive all the time. In fact they are being commercialized to an extent that threatens to rob them of the one thing for which they are supposed to exist. Most sports had their beginning in friendly rivalry, and competition was just as keen before they began watching the gate. Today, while the competitive rivalry, friendly or otherwise, still exists, visions of the almighty dollar overshadow, to some extent the efforts of those engaged. On the other hand, the public seems willing to be jarred looses from their purse strings, and is perfectly satisfied, as long as it get a "run for its money."

More Food is Required for Winter

Therefore more time must be spent in the kitchen. The kitchen is designed as a workshop and should be equipped with all the labor saving devices possible. When you install a HOTPOINT Electric Range in your kitchen you have practically cut your labor and time 50 per cent. You do not have to change clothes to cook a meal on a HOTPOINT Range, as you do not have soot or ashes get on your clothes by coming in contact with a HOTPOINT. This is an ideal time of the year to install that HOTPOINT, as the housewife will spend many dreary hours in the kitchen during the winter months.

One Cent Sale of Penslar Products Was Big Success

"Our Penslar one-cent sale this year was the best we have ever had," said Buford Owens of Owens Drug Store Tuesday.

The Penslar brand of pure drug and sundries have been sold by the Owens Drug Store for the past 12 years, and have given universal satisfaction, but the idea of the Penslar one-cent sale was inaugurated by the manufacturers about three years ago, and this event is an annual custom at Owens, and by Penslar dealers all over the United States.

LOOKING FOR SOMETHING

Most men who begin selecting candidates for important offices twelve months before election either want the office themselves or expect some favor from those whose names they suggest. Nevertheless, we believe it is a good thing to have a pretty general discussion of the available men and their qualifications for office. The larger the group that makes the selection and the more publicity given in the discussion, the greater the probability that a competent man will be selected.

Good Business By Norman - Smith the Past Week

Although the rain put a damper on business to some extent during the past week-end, Harold Norman, of Norman-Smith Dry Goods company, stated that their second anniversary sale opening days were the best they have ever had, for despite the disagreeable weather a large number came to share in the offerings of this store. The anniversary sales of this concern are always big bargain events for anyone, and especially does this store do its best when celebrating its birthday.
