From Idaho

The senator from Idaho, William E. Borah, does not desire the nomination from the presidency, his friends say, but still the same he is a presidential possibility. The senator is a republican and "dry."

Jury Fails to Indict Mrs. Payne

Ballinger, Nov. 1.—Mrs. L. P. Payne, 31 wife of a cafe worker here, who admits that she fatally shot Chief of Police W. L. McMillan, 39, one week ago, was not billed by the grand jury in making its report Monday. The jury adjourned for the October term of court. McMillan died here October 27th.

Blizzards Meet San Angelo Here Tomorrow at 4

The Winters high school Blizzards stinging under the 12 to 7 defeat suffered at the hands of Menard last Friday, will attempt a comeback at the expense of the San Angelo high school football team on the local gridiron tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at four o'clock, and unless something turns up, this will be the last game of the season on the local lot, there being only two more games left on the schedule, one with Coleman at Coleman on the 11th, the other with the Ballinger Bearcats at Ballinger on the 18th.

SCHOOL TERM AT POE WILL START MONDAY

Next Monday morning, Nov. 7th, the Poe school will open for the fall term of seven months. The teachers this year for the school are Truett McDonald and Mrs. Gladys McCoy.

Infant Dies Thursday

Bertha, the 5-months-old infant of Felix Cortez passed away Thursday, October 27th. Funeral services were conducted by Bro. R. L. Colley and interment was made in the Winters cemetery.

Little Billie Joe Cypert fell from the counter in his father's restaurant last Saturday night, breaking his arm in two places. He was given immediate medical attention and at last reports was getting along nicely.

Will Pave Dale-Magnolia Sts.

At a hearing of property owners of West Dale street and Magnolia avenue, held with the city council Tuesday evening, the council ordered the paying of these two streets, the class of construction to be the same as that on Main and Dale streets, and the work of signing up the property owners on these streets will start immediately. There is but slight opposition to paving, we understand, and little opposition is expected along this line.

J. S. Barlow, engineer in charge of the paving program for the city, some time ago made his report to the council which was approved.

At the meeting Tuesday evening representative property owners from Parsonage, North Main and Church streets were present and expressed themselves as favorable to paving their respective streets. It was also reported at this meeting that property owners of Truett avenue were favorable to the paving of their street.

While the paving ordinance passed Tuesday evening deals only with West Dale street and Magnolia avenue, it is a well known fact that the City Council is ready and willing to come in with their part of the paving work wherever the property owners signify a desire for paving, and it is thought that once the work is actually started it will spread to all sections of the city.

Big Crowd Attends Singing Convention

The Runnels County Singing Convention held at the First Baptist church here last Sunday was one of the largest in the history of the convention. R. E. Bacon, president, estimated the crowd at around 2,000. This number was not assembled at one time, but represents the total number attending during the day.

There were seven counties represented at the convention, and probably the largest number from local communities in this county ever to attend the convention. Musicians from various parts of the state were here with some of the leading singers of the West. Five quartets were present and rendered several special numbers. Choir directors and song leaders were so numerous that the program was made up largely of single numbers by the leaders. The program started at 11 o'clock a. m., and lasted until late in the afternoon with a brief intermission for lunch. The choir proper was made up of probably one hundred and fifty singers—many others joining in on a number of the selections.

The next meeting of the convention will be held on the second Sunday in April at Wingate, and besides the usual program, officers for the year will be elected. Wingate has some fine singers and appreciates good music, and we predict that they will arrange to surpass in entertainment any previous convention.

J. Q. Lankford of San Angelo was transacting business here Wednesday.

Patrons Asked to Visit the Schools

Next week, November 6th to 12th, American Educational Week, will be nationally observed. While there will be no particular set program in the local schools, Wednesday, Nov. 9th, has been set aside as visitation day and Superintendent Smith states that they will be glad to have patrons visit the schools sometime during the day.

DAVENPORT CASE AFFIRMED BY THE SUPREME COURT

Word was received here yesterday that the state supreme court had affirmed the case of Grattoon Davenport, convicted of the murder of Sam Rodgers, from Tom Green county. Davenport was given a 99-year sentence, but was awaiting the outcome of an appeal on an insanity plea.

His 22,500-Mile Air Tour Over

Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh is shown placing a wreath on the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia near the end of his 22,500-mile national air tour in the interests of aviation. Following his tour, which was a continual round of speeches, banquets and parades, Lindbergh asked of reporters in New York that he "be left alone for a while."

Pass the Million Dollar Mark Mon.

The Winters State Bank is still holding on to its record of being the biggest and best bank in Runnels county, as was evidenced by the fact that it passed the million dollar mark in deposits last Monday.

A million dollars is an awful lot of money, in fact, it is quite a bit more money than most of us know anything about, but on last Monday the individual deposits of this institution reached $1,016,913.04, proving beyond dispute the leadership of this bank among the financial institutions of this section.

Krauss Opens Drive For More Business

With the approach of each season the thoughts of most people naturally turn to new clothes, and at the present time, just on the eve of the winter season, the Krauss Dry Goods company has announced a gigantic merchandise selling campaign, to begin Friday, November 4, to secure new patrons by offering values that will merit the confidence of the buying public.

In commenting on the campaign, Mr. Krauss said "This campaign will open Friday, November 4th, and with our combination of complete new stocks and enormous buying power, we have determined to enshrine our store in the hearts of the buying public in Winters and surrounding country to the extent of making such price reductions that they will wonder how it is possible for us to sell at such prices."

We direct the attention of our readers to their message in this issue of the paper, and we are sure you will freely admit that the prices are intensely interesting.

Tally No. One Is Down 1,500 Feet

The Tally oil well test six miles southeast of the city is going down at a rapid rate, having reached the 1,500 foot depth Tuesday. According to all information we have been able to secure, this test is encountering the same formations thus far as the McMillan discovery well, 9 miles southeast of the city.

The Tally test is operating with both a day and night shift and if no unforeseen difficulties arise, they will either strike the pay sand or complete the hole to the 3000 feet contract depth within the next two or three weeks.

Guggenheim Assn. Retains Lindbergh

New York, Nov. 1.—Colony Chas. A. Lindbergh has been retained in a consulting capacity by the Daniel Guggenheim fund for the promotion of aeronautics and will not identify himself, at least for the present, with any commercial undertaking. The Guggenheim fund will leave him free to undertake any activity to promote the cause of flying.

It was under the auspices of the Guggenheim fund that Colonel Lindbergh made his tour of the country after making the first flight from the United States to France.

Hats From New York in 48 Hours

The Norman-Smith Dry Goods Co. of this city received a shipment of ladies' hats by air express last Thursday from Samuel D. Lasdon of New York City.

The time required in making the trip by air was forty-eight hours, and four beautiful hats were packed in a small box hardly a foot square. In an attractive window display this progressive firm has exhibited these hats which have created quite a bit of interest and since this shipment of 4,000 women's hats were the first sent out by air express and were distributed to over a hundred large cities in America, Norman-Smith Dry Goods Co. were fortunate in being one of the number to receive one of these shipments.

Mrs. Boyce Gregory of Plainview, came in Tuesday for a visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Satterwhite of Lawn, were shopping here Wednesday.

Two Women Claim Body as Husband

A case that may be reserved for the wisdom of a Solomon was revealed in Dallas this week when two women claimed the body of a man who had been drowned in the Trinity river.

The condition of the body led officers to believe he had been dead two weeks, which fact baffled identification.

Mrs. E. W. Patterson of Plainview is a visitor in the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Woodfin.

Mrs. J. B. Pace of Killeen came in Friday for a few days visit with her daughters, Mrs. R. A. Cramer and Mrs. Carl Davis and other relatives.

Lions Club Met Last Tuesday

The Lions Club held their regular semi-monthly luncheon at the Hotel Winters last Tuesday, President R. E. Bacon presiding over the opening exercises.

J. Frank Paxton was toastmaster for the occasion and introduced Miss Gladys Joseph, who delighted the club with a reading.

Secretary Cooper of the chamber of commerce talked interestingly on the lateral roads and highway situation, followed by Richard Homann, vocational agricultural teacher of the public schools, who told the club of his work along agricultural lines.

E. A. Shepperd told of the paving program to come before the city council that evening, asking the support of the club members in putting over a worthwhile paving program in the city. The club, by unanimous vote, endorsed the program and pledged itself to assist in putting the paving program over.

J. N. Key, newly elected member of the club, was present and expressed his pleasure in becoming a member of the club.

Program committee for the next meeting: E. A. Shepperd, toastmaster; I. M. Preston and A. F. Roberts.

Miss Erna Stokes is a guest in the home of Dr. and Mrs. P. C. Anders, at Coleman this week.

Extensive Plans Made at Council Meeting Here

The Runnels County Home Demonstration Council met at the Winters chamber of commerce office Saturday, October 29th, at three o'clock, with Mrs. Hollingsworth, the county home demonstration agent, presiding. Roll call was responded to by representatives from six communities. Mrs. Hollingsworth called for a report of concessions at the Fair. This was given by the concession committee. Mrs. Ross Smith was asked to appoint a year book committee, after which Mrs. Hollingsworth discussed community fairs, and urged that each representative present boost the idea in her community. She also requested that each one be thinking of at least twelve demonstrations that they would like to put on for the year and to have their club president turn in a report on this.

Beginning in November sixteen girls' clubs will be organized. There are now sixteen woman's clubs, and these latter will be asked to sponsor the girls' clubs.

Mrs. Hollingsworth read the plan and rules for the living room contest to be put on by Texas A. & M. College and the Semi-Weekly Farm News.

The November meeting of the Council will be held at Ballinger, and officers will be elected at that time. Beginning in January Mrs. Hollingsworth will have an office in Winters ever second Saturday.

Committees represented at the meeting held here were Drasco, Victory, Bethel, and the towns of Miles, Ballinger and Wingate.

13,557 Bales of Cotton Ginned

A report from the gins of the city gathered at 3:30 o'clock yesterday showed that there had been 13,557 bales of cotton ginned in Winters up to that time. Estimates of the total crop to be ginned here this season range around 16,000 and 17,000.

REMAINS OF MRS. WILDER TAKEN TO CORPUS CHRISTI

The death of Mrs. S. E. Wilder occurred at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. M. Johnson, near Moro, October 29th. Decensed was 83 years of age at the time of her death. The remains were prepared for burial and conveyed to Lawn by Spill Bros., where they were shipped to Corpus Shristi for burial.

Goy. Donahey

Among the presidential possibilities from the Democratic ranks is Gov. Vic Donahey of Ohio, twice elected governor of the state. In the event of a deadlock his chances at the convention are looked upon as good.

One Burglary, One False Fire Alarm On Halloween

Monday night about 10:30, while the spooks were parading the town, the fire alarm was sounded and the company made a run out to the school house where some one had piled up a few boards and set them afire and turned in the fire alarm.

Some time during the night a burglar broke into the A. L. Barlow gents' furnishing store and selected himself a winter's supply of clothing taking a new tailored suit of clothes, a new tailored overcoat, a half dozen suits of underwear and one or two pairs of shoes. Entrance to the building was made by tearing the screen from a window and breaking the glass out.

Morgan Shows to Play All Next Week

The J. Douglas Morgan shows will be here all next week, opening Monday night with "The Girl From Child's," New York's latest comedy. This is the first visit of the Morgan Shows to Winters. It is highly recommended as a good show with clean productions and big time type vaudeville.

The Morgan show will feature Elizabeth and Charles Morrill in plays that are new and a big feature play will be offered each night with five high-class acts of vaudeville between acts.

The cast consists of thirty well trained actors and an eight-piece orchestra will furnish the music. The capacity of the tent theatre is 1,200, which will be adequate to accommodate the large crowds which will attend the presentations to be offered during the entire week.

THE SMITHS

It is said that there are still 70,000 blacksmiths in this country. Anyhow, the smiths had a convention recently and denied that they had faded out of the picture. On occasion any of them can shoe a horse, but most of them haven't done it for a month. More likely they are tinkering with motor cars. It wasn't very hard for the village blacksmith to turn his shop into a garage.

BETTER OR POORER?

Better roads will make better merchants, or poorer ones. Things will not go on in the smaller towns as they have in the past. Those who adjust their business, improve their streets, their schools, their churches and the lateral roads leading into their town, will grow and prosper. Others will fade out of the picture and grumble at progress.

BIG INSURANCE

Rodman Wanamaker is now carrying insurance policies to the amount of $7,500,000, which is the heaviest indemnity borne by any man in the world. Any time that he has a cough or a pain the insurance companies are glad to send the doctor out to his house. Mr. Wanamaker is interested in aviation, but the companies do not want to let him get off the earth.

WHY THE HURRY?

Most of us know so little about where we are going, we cannot help speculating as to why we are in such a hurry to get there. . . . Wherever we go from here, we will probably be there a long time, and it might be better to take more time for enjoying this world while we are here. And the right kind of enjoyment might help when we are really to leave.

VOTE SLACKERS

Statistics show that women of the United States are greater vote slackers than the men. They clamored long and loud for the ballot, and got it, but in the seven years they have had it the records show that of the votes actually cast, only 37 per cent were cast by women as against 63 per cent cast by men.

IDOL OF FANDOM

Walter Johnson, the dean of American League pitchers and the idol of fandom the country over, has asked and been granted his unconditional release from the Washington Senators. "Old Barney" holds more records than any pitcher who ever toed a big league mound and he gave the Washington club 21 years of wonderful service. He plans to enter business next season, probably as an owner of a minor league club. Johnson, the clean-living, clean-acting baseball player, has hung up his

THIS PROVES IT

When a certain shop in Winters was closed Friday night someone forgot to disconnect a 3-pound Hotpoint iron. The current was on this iron all night burning away the handle. A new handle was put on the iron Saturday and it worked perfectly. While this practice is not recommended it goes to prove the quality of the Hotpoint. We are just wondering if this was tried out on some of the irons said to be just as good as the Hotpoint just what the results would be. Visit the Hotpoint Store.—West Texas Utilities Co.— 1tc

P. T. A. HOLDS MEETING

On Tuesday afternoon, October 25, an enthusiastic group of mothers and teachers met in the high school auditorium where the Parent-Teacher Association enjoyed a delightful program and social hour.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Fred Tinkle, and all joined in singing, "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean." The Lord's Prayer, lead by Mrs. Cooper, was repeated in unison.

Mrs. Gid J. Bryan most ably discussed the subject, "Children's Reading and the Kind," in which she brought out the importance of storing up beautiful thoughts for life by reading the right kind of books when young.

Eld. R. L. Colley made an interesting and forceful talk in which he stressed "Cooperation Between Parents and Public Schools." Miss Joseph gave a delightful reading, "Over the Telephone Wire."

At the end of the program those present were invited into the dining room, where the Home Economic class, under the supervision of Miss Montague, served dainty refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, tea and macaroons. The dining room was gayly decorated in the halloween colors of orange and black.

The interest in P.T. A. work is growing. The mothers and fathers who have not yet attended these splendid meetings are urged to come and encourage those who are carrying on this good work.

There will be a box supper at Harmony Friday night, November 4th. The proceeds from the sale of the boxes will be used to make the first payment on the piano for the new church which will soon be completed.

GOOD REPUTE

Wealthy men, even millionaires, are in much better repute than they were a few years ago. Wealth no longer bars a man from public office but rather stamps him as a man efficient in business and capable of successfully conducting public affairs. Conspicuous among those who are aspirants for the presidency and who are ranked as millionaires are Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, Secretary of Commerce Hoover, Speaker Longworth, Vice-President Dawes, ex-Governor Lowden and Charles Evans Hughes.

By turning on draft you can get a quick fire. By turning it off you can hold fire 24 hours.

With ordinary coal you must keep draft open to prevent fire going out, which wastes coal.

A DOGWOOD FIRE CAN BE REGULATED TO SUIT WEATHER CONDITIONS, materially reducing amount of coal used. Save the difference.

DOGWOOD COAL is not only economical, but you get real satisfaction in burning it. No soot, clinker or unpleasant odor. Very little smoke or ashes.

When you burn DOGWOOD COAL you eliminate damage caused your health and home from impurities in ordinary coal.

Distant Pastures

MYSTERY IS THE LURE of things far away. How easy to believe that the merchant in the distant city can give you more for your money; that the investment offering of a far away, unknown company is better than a home enterprise; that there is some magical benefit in sending your surplus dollars for deposit in banks in some other town. But, after all, distant pastures are no greener than those right around us. The "acre of diamonds" is perhaps in our own back yard.

Deposit your funds at home with a bank you know and can have daily contact with. Do your purchasing at home and loyally help to further home town affairs.

Fisher Freed By Jury at Cameron

Cameron, Oct. 31.—Monroe Fisher, 31 was given his freedom by a jury at 9 o'clock Sunday morning after being on trial here charged with the slaying of Albert W. Bonds at Belton on May 11, 1927.
 The jury was given the case Saturday night after the trial had been in progress here for a week. No ballots were taken after the arguments were heard Saturday, but the jury began deliberations Sunday morning and according to unofficial information, reached its acquittal verdict on the first ballot.
 Bonds, when killed, was under indictment for the alleged killing of Wiley Fisher, father of Monroe Fisher, on October 26, 1926.

The Balkins are becoming rivals of Chicago in the matter of assassinations.

Physical Education
Tuesday morning was the beginning of physical education for the students of Winters High. When they were told to march out in front of the building many of them began to wonder why, and to question each other. When they got outside they soon found out, and began to count off. Mr. Baird had charge of the girls, and Mr. Homann was in charge of the boys.

W. H. E. C. Meeting
The Winters Home Economics Club will meet with Miss Montague Wednesday afternoon, for the purpose of organizing the club and plans will be discussed for future meetings.

—Root for the Blizzards—
Class Meetings
The various classes met in regular bi-weekly meetings Monday and many things were discussed, but the most "important" thing was the plans for "Stunt Night" (?) which has been postponed until Thursday night of next week. Watch for further announcements.

—Root for the Blizzards—
Halloween Tea
On last Tuesday afternoon the P. T. A. was entertained with a Halloween Tea in the Home Economics department of the high school, the stars of the Food Class acting as "Host" and "Hostess". The dining room was decorated with orange and black crepe paper, and novelties suggestive of Halloween, carrying out the color scheme of orange and black.

Macaroons and sandwiches were served by Ora Louise Jordan and Kathleen Lamberth, while Miss Wells sat at the head of the table and poured tea.

I think you will agree with me when I refer to this occasion as one of those few bright events in ordinary life that release us from our business cares and afford us opportunities to unbend and mingle in cheerful recreation with our parents and teachers. Hence the hour was one of social enjoyment.

—Root for the Blizzards—
Select Colors, Flowers and Mottos
A few weeks ago the Senior, Junior, Sophomore and Freshman classes met in special class meetings to select their colors, flowers and mottos. They have selected the following:

Senior Class—Colors: Purple, lavender and white; Flower: Lilac; Motto: "Give to the world the best you have, and the best will come back to you."

Junior Class—Colors: Maroon and gold; Flower: Red carnation; Motto: "Keep your face ever to the sunshine, and the shadows will fall behind."

"Be square, be sharp, but never be flat."
Freshman Class—Colors: Purple and gold; Flower: (—); Motto: "We lead; others follow."

—Root for the Blizzards—
The "Tea Kettle" is still boiling, and this probably accounts for the mild weather we are having at present.

—Root for the Blizzards—
Keep Faith
Doubting has never won a battle, Doubting has never won a name, Doubting will never make a friend, It is faith that wins the game.

Blizzards, put faith in every test, It helps you win the game you play, It helps you to the very end, In every problem along life's way.

It's faith in the thing you're doing, It's faith in the things you plan, Keep faith in your heart forever, It means "success to any" man, Keep faith during football season, You'll find it gets you there the same, Keep faith during every battle, For it's faith that wins the game.

Junior Halloween Party
The Juniors assembled at Margaret Nicholson's home about seven o'clock Saturday night, October 29th, dressed in various Halloween costumes. Ray Young came by in his truck and carried the entire party out to the beautiful home of Lucille Neely. The home was cleverly decorated with cats, witches, owls and other Halloween decorations. Various games and stunts under the direction of our class sponsor, Miss Wells, were played with great enjoyment to all present.

Halloween refreshments consisting of waffles, brew, ginger cakes, apples and candy were served to all present. The cheerleaders were: Class sponsor, Miss Wells; Mrs. J. R. Pontreuz and Mr. Baird.

Schubert Club
The Schubert Club met last Wednesday afternoon after school with Mrs. L. T. Smith. During our business session we selected Margaret Nicholson for vice president. We also decided to have a music contest at the end of the school year. Each member is to play some time during the year and then when we have the contest all the pieces that have been played during the year will be played again and the contest will be to see who remembers the most pieces and who they are written by. So far the following have been given: Three waltzes by Schubert—Norwena Crum; Narcissus, by Nevin—Victoria Day.

During our program we studied the life of Nevin. Clara Nell McAdams gave a very interesting paper on Nevin. Those present were Clara Nell McAdams, Mrs. Mae Owens, Pauline Hines, Sarah Smith, Victoria Day, Norwena Crum, Katherine Hill, Kathaleen Lamberth, Mrs. Smith, and our new member, Helen Spill—Reporter.

Last Friday evening the students of the Sophomore class met at the home of Miss Ruth Woodrow and in every measure observed Halloween.

With Ruth as a very charming hostess many clever ideas were revealed in both the decorations and games. Hot tea, potato chips, olives and nuts were served to Misses Woodrow, Farmer, Shipman, Stokes, Hinds, Wilson, Thornton, McManis, Looney, Hornburg, Boone, Simpston, and Mrs. Ora Robertson and Mrs. Woodrow. Accompanying the young ladies were Messes. Williams, Hill, Redford, Robertson, Starn, Williams, Wyatt, Unsell, McNeil, Swisher, Dixon, Poe, Harrison and Brunsie.

The prize for the best costume was awarded to Miss Woodrow by popular vote. However, competition was keen and Miss Marnie Wilson for a time seemed favored over Miss Woodrow.

This up and doing class is being sponsored by Mr. Homann, and at present the class is working hard on a Stunt program that will be given in the near future. Watch the Sophomore Class.

Jack Callan Writes From T. C. U.

Fort Worth, Oct. 30.—To the members of the Blue and White: I have been watching with enthusiasm the splendid records which the 1927 Blizzards have been making and hope that the immortal Blue and White shall continue to reign supreme during the entire year. It shall—I know it shall—for every member of that dear old high school on the hill is a fighter for victory. And, after all, it is that predominant spirit of determination so characteristic of W. H. S. that has made its undertakings a success.

Once a student of Winters high always a supporter of the Blue and White. The magnificent intercollegiate football games are thrilling beyond a doubt. There are about fourteen thousand people, including the twenty-five hundred cadets from A. & M. College, that were present at the T. C. U.-A. & M. football game played here on the 22nd. But, in spite of the display of pep, the big crowds, and the marked enthusiasm, I have not forgotten the enthusiastic football contests of Winters High. Of course, I love T. C. U., the "Fighting Frogs," and the colors, purple and white. But I love also the immortal blue and white. Both combinations of colors look and mean the same to me. Both represent enthusiasm and love—both mean grit and fight.

All who have passed through the corridors of Winters High into new fields of activities, whether college or business, know what I mean when I say once a student of Winters High—always a supporter of the Blue and White. Never can any one break from the great spirit of W. H. S., for it becomes a part of his life—a part which cannot be deserted. It is because I love all which those immortal colors represent that I write you.

Naturally, I am interested in The Gale. I have been reading all that has appeared with hopes that some time in the near future the Gale will be a separate publication. This was my high school ideal unaccomplished simply because it requires time and sufficient finances for such an enterprise to exist. Unfortunately, we lacked both, but I feel assured that it will not be many months until the Gale will blow from the north as a separate publication.

Permit me to state for the Senior class of '27, that each member wherever he or she may now be, still loves that dear old high school on the hill, Winters." One last plea—a plea for revenge still yells in the pep squads, still fights on the gridiron, still waves the glorious blue and white, supreme to do their part to "Keep the 'Win' in victory and success.—Jack Callan.

Marion Davies Is Dutch Girl

First—wooden shoes!
 Then—ice skates—and on the same wooden shoes!

These are the extremities of pedal difficulty and ambulatory tribulations encountered by Marion Davies, famous Cosmopolitan star, in playing her latest role, the captivating Dutch heroine in "The Red Mill," which comes to the Queen Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 9 and 10.

As a little Dutch girl, Miss Davies appears in the petticoats, pigtails and wooden shoes of the Netherlands. It took several weeks of practice to learn to walk in them—just as it took diligent practice for her to learn to walk like a boy in "Beverly of Graustark." Then—she had to have skates fastened to them, and skate in the winter scenes in the new spectacle, in which she and several hundred gaily-attired Hollanders appear in a winter festival.

The new story, staged on a spectacular scale at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios, is an adaptation of the famous Victor Herbert stage hit of the same name. Owen Moore plays the leading male role.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gardner and Mrs. Boardman of Santa Anna, were recent visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Gardner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hickman, and Anna Lee left Monday for Dallas where the latter will undergo and examination by a specialist.

"Valley of Hell" Made In Nevada

Rivaling the caravans of covered wagons which blazed the trail for the 49ers, a cavalcade left Culver City, Calif., recently with Moapa, Nevada, as its objective, but this was the Francis McDonald company, sojourning into the desert by special train to film "The Valley of Hell," the western romance starring Francis McDonald, which is the current offering at the Queen Theatre Friday and Saturday.

Many weeks were spent by the company at the Big Horn Ranch, near Moapa, and it was necessary to transport 150 people, including players, directorial and technical staffs, together with the necessary grooms, horsemen, etc., to care for the 100 head of horses and mules.

Covered wagons, stagecoaches with a history, and other similar equipment added to the bulk of the exodus, which was made particularly interesting because "The Valley of Hell" is the first of a series of eight M-G-M western features to star Francis McDonald, all to be made under the supervision of Isidore Bernstein and the direction of Cliff Smith.

LOCAL Y. M. A. C. PLAYS INITIAL GAME WITH DALE

The local Y. M. A. C. Basketball club opened the season with a game with the Dale school team last Thursday evening on the local court.

The Dale team, with fast passing and bewildering team work for an early season contest, got off to a whirlwind lead and it was with plenty of effort that the "Y" got the big end of a 31 to 24 score at the final whistle.

Duke was high-point man for the "Y" with J. Neely, Scott, Duncan, Baker, Borders, G. Neely and Norman all seeing service.

Hinds and Adami played a consistent game for Dale.

The game was refereed by Chipman of A. C. C.

WINGATE NOTES

By R. E. HOMANN
Of late I have been attempting to answer numerous questions on poultry. Because of the interest shown by the people in this now minor enterprise I shall conduct through this column lessons on poultry. The scope of work covered in these lessons will include selection, breeding, feeding, care and management, prevention and curing of diseases, and a lesson or two on caponizing and the future of the capon industry.

Before we may ever hope to make a success in any enterprise we must first cull out the scrub stock. Those men who today stand as monuments to the furtherance of a breed of livestock were men who selected, mated and bred toward a standard—that standard was one of perfection—a type that was suited for a purpose.

And so, if you expect to make money at the poultry game you must get rid of the loafers, the free boarders, and debt makers.

Culling in a Nutshell
It pays to cull; to eliminate inferior birds; to select best for breeding. How to tell the good from the bad:
Vent—Good: White, large, moist. Bad: Yellow, small, dry.
Ear Lobe—Good: White. Bad: Yellow.
Eye Ring—Good: White. Bad: Yellow.
Beak—Good: White. Bad: Yellow.
Shanks—Good: White. Bad: Yellow.
Span—Good: Wide, thin. Bad: Narrow, thick.
Comb—Good: Large, plump, and bright. Bad: Small, shrunk, dull.
Eye—Good: Bright, bulging. Bad: Dull, flat.
Head—Good: Lean. Bad: Flat.
This effective chart was prepared by the New Jersey Experiment Station and puts the principal external characteristics of good and poor layers in sharp contrast. Cut this out and paste it in your hen house. For further information see your Vocational Agricultural teacher, at high school building.

House of Laughs Built For Movie

A group of literary hodgepokers and serious minded funmakers, have undertaken the task of literally building a house of laughs.

The fortunate poker player who could point to his home as "the house that Jack built" had nothing on Edward Small, who built "McFadden's Flats" for the screen from nothing more weighty than grins, chuckles and uproaring guffaws.

With the aid of a cast of players that is declared to be as nearly a reproduction of the original cast in the stage comedy as present day conditions will permit, "McFadden's Flats"—known to the amusement world as the funniest of plays for more than a quarter of a century—has been put in films.

And instead of seeing the customary canvas drop that served for the stage production of the comedy, the flats have been erected for the screen story to serve as a professional home for such players as Charlie Murray, Chester Conklin, Edna Murphy, Dorothy Dawn and a host of celebrities who were not permitted to draw a serious reathb for several weeks.

The comic classic will be shown at the Queen Theatre on Monday and Tuesday.

Minister's Pleading

Sweetwater, Oct. 27.—Not yet entirely recovered from a bullet wound inflicted upon him by his 16-year-old brother-in-law, Cecil Moore, a deaf mute, the Rev. A. E. Clawson Wednesday pleaded with a jury in District Court here to let the boy off with as light punishment as possible. The defendant was found guilty of assault with intent to kill and given a two-year suspended sentence.

The Rev. Mr. Clawson was shot with a small calibre rifle, the bullet striking him between the lower right ribs. He is superintendent of the Hylton school.

SOCIETY

Baptist W. M. S. Hold Fifth Monday Social.

On Monday afternoon at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. J. W. Dixon, the Woman's Mission Society of the First Baptist church held its Fifth Monday Social. The house was elaborately decorated with flowers, autumn leaves, witches, cats, bats and halloween colors. The guests were met by ghosts who extended their icy hands, in welcome. Each guest registered left handed, after which they were led by witches through a dark and noisy lane to a witch's den where brew was served. The entire house was bewitched and all during the afternoon witches moved among the guests sweeping cob webs. The following program was rendered:

Prayer—Mrs. Frank Pumphrey.
Duet—Mesdames G. E. Nicholson and A. T. Lindley.
Talk—Mrs. E. Shepperd.
Contest.
Reading—Miss Naomi Hunt.
Violin Solo—Miss Ethel Bob Montague.
Solo—Mrs. C. S. Jackson.
Reading—Miss Gladys Palmer.
Music—Mrs. L. T. Smith.
Contest.
Refreshments, consisting of sandwiches, tea and pumpkin pie were served to sixty guests. Mrs. E. Shepperd, associational W. M. U. president, and Mrs. Kirk of Ballinger, were out-of-town guests.

Dainty refreshments of pumpkin pie topped with whip cream and hot chocolate were served to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baker and twenty members who were present. Plate favors were dainty little halloween motifs.

Martha Class Entertain Husbands at Country Club

The country club was the scene for a halloween party on last Thursday evening, when the members of the Martha Class of the Baptist church entertained their husbands, with Mesdames Frank Johnson, Ralph Lloyd, L. T. Smith and C. E. Gambill as hostesses.

The spacious room was attractively decorated in keeping with the season of halloween. Guests were met at the door by Mrs. L. T. Smith dressed as a "spook" and found their places at the tables where games of "progressive spooks" were enjoyed.

At the conclusion of the games clever little menu cards were passed and the guests ordered their lunch by numbers which caused much surprise and merriment when the orders were served.

The hostesses served dainty refreshments of chicken salad sandwiches with olive faces, baked apples filled with nuts topped with whipped cream, and hot chocolate.

Girls Club Meet and Plan to Have Picnic

On October 27th, the L. T. B. met for the third time with only two of the members missing. They were Ruth Woodrow and Myrtle Mitchell. We had our regular business meeting, then the social committee told what they had in mind. We will assemble Wednesday night, November 2nd, to celebrate our opening picnic. During our regular meeting we received a telegram from one of our old friends inviting our club out to her ranch to spend the week end. We could not accept at this time, but we sure appreciate the invitation.—Reporter.

Mildred and Geraldine Polk

Mesdames Sam and Albert Polk entertained a number of little folks with a Halloween party on last Friday afternoon at four o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Sam Polk, celebrating the birthdays of their daughters, Mildred, who was eleven, and Geraldine, who was nine.

Halloween decorations combined with autumn flowers, were tastefully arranged throughout the reception rooms.

As the guests arrived they were invited into a room where they were greeted by a "witch." Games and interesting contests gave happy diversion until the refreshment hour, when the children were assembled in the dining room which was beautifully decorated in the season's colors.

The center of the table was graced by a mass of cut flowers and at either side were the birthday cakes, one holding nine flaming candles, the other eleven. Festoons of black and yellow crepe paper extended from the light above the table to places for each little guest. The cakes were cut and the hostesses, assisted by Gerald and Harold Dixon, served the cake with ice cream and marshmallow squares.

The guest list included Floy Green,

A temper is something you can lose and have, too.

It's the grape season, and, of course, fermentation is the first law of nature.

Judging from the number of prominent men who "will not run for president" the office certainly is going begging next year.
