HOME TOWN Talk

By E. C. THOMAS

Take your choice: You can follow the warnings of your aching corns, a trick knee which forecasts bad weather, the little woman's housecleaning fever, or the actions of a groundhog called Punxsutawney Pete in Pennsylvania, who forecast another six weeks of winter. But according to the calendar, spring officially begins on March 20 at 8:43 p. m.

If that groundhog had been in Winters on Feb. 2, he'd have become as confused as the rest of us. Following several days of springlike weather, we had sunshine, then regular old spring thundershowers, which dumped .5 inch of rain in the area. Then an additional .4 inch fell Wednesday, to bring the 1960 total to 4.4 inches (unofficial).

Was just reading the other day that organ grinders have been complaining that they are having trouble getting new hand organs because of a short supply. All this on top of the fact that the organ grinder business, as private enterprise, is also forced to compete with the government in keeping their monkeys on the leash. Most of the monkeys we've heard about lately have their hopes set on a career of space traveling. Just goes to prove that in about any line of endeavor, when you finally get around to thinking things are on an even keel, in steps the government to set you back a couple of steps.

Miss Marta Davidson, student at Winters High School, wrote a letter to the Abilene Reporter-News the other day, trying to get in touch with someone who catches snakes as a hobby. Seems she wants a snake for a project exhibit at the science fair at the school in the near future.

Although Miss Davidson specified she wanted a non-poisonous snake, we may be able to help her. If she will contact Game Warden Cecil Fox at Spur, he may send her a whole crateful of snakes. Don't know if he has kept up with his hobby in the last several years, but we do know that in years past, before he gave up barbering for game wardening, he had an interesting and lively hobby of capturing rattlesnakes alive. He used to go into some of the rugged country up in Dickens County and bring out sacks full of rattlers. We accompanied him a couple or four times on these snake hunting expeditions, strictly as a long-range spectator, and we still get squeamish when we see a towsack in the trunk of a car. We've heard a tale about a time when a little snake got loose in the trunk, and had the run of the car for a while. One thing, Cecil was never bothered too much by free-riders. And he could probably be classified as an authority on West Texas snakes.

So if Miss Davidson would contact him, he just might have a couple or three snakes in the trunk of his car the next time he's in Winters to visit his grandchildren. Game Warden Fox is the father of Mrs. Calvin Holloway of Winters.

Been a little behind and mixed up about the time all this week. Set our watch with the big brass dial over at Smith's Drug the other day, only to be informed later that that thing is a barometer.

According to Capitol Highlights this week, Governor Daniel has said he hopes the Insurance Board will "do something" about the new auto insurance regulations, but declined to say what he hoped they would do. In political jargon, this means, "Let them do what they please. If ever I have to take a position, I can jump either direction, depending on the political expediency of the moment."

Fashion Shop To Hold Open House In Their New Location Wednesday

Moving into their new location without the loss of a single day business was quite a feat in itself and showed good business management on the part of the owners of the Fashion Shop, Mrs. Ralph Burns and Mrs. Frances Campbell. But a visit to the ready-to-wear store will also reveal the good taste in the choice of colors throughout the building and the arrangement of the fixtures to display the merchandise to the best advantage.

Formal opening of the Fashion Shop in the new location on South Main Street will be held Wednesday, February 10, from 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. according to an announcement made the first of the week. The new quarters gives additional space for serving the customers in a more efficient manner.

Work of remodeling the building, formerly occupied by the Winters Postoffice, began early in January.

Bill Moore Seeks Representative Post In This District

To the Voters of the 77th District: At this time I wish to announce to the voters of Coke, Runnels, Concho and Coleman Counties that I will be a candidate for your state representative of the 77th District in the democratic primaries.

In the beginning I wish to state that I am not a politician—just a business man. I feel that the time has come when business men are needed in our state government and for that reason alone I am making this race.

During my many years in West Texas and this district, I have operated wholesale produce houses, cotton gins, grain elevators and feed houses and even had a short experience in the entertainment field in professional baseball. In recent years my time has been taken up with farming and ranching. I have also served my town of Ballinger as its mayor for 11 years, a position which I still hold.

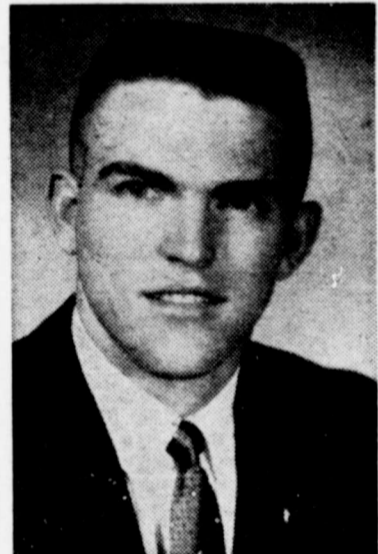

I feel that I know the needs of both the rural and city folks from a first-hand experience. Most of my business career, especially in produce, ginning, grain and feed business has given me a close contact with the farmers and ranchmen of this immediate district. As a long time city official I feel that I received an education in the needs of our towns in regard to water, schools, new industry, paving, sewerage and a general program of modern progress.

With this background, I know that I can represent the people of this district with a real understanding of their needs, based on a sound business legislative program.

I have always felt that our schools and the opportunity for education of all our youth is one of the most important things in every community. I will always fight for better schools and would like to improve our teacher's positions until the jobs would attract the best talent in the land.

My church has always meant much to me and I have always tried to support it with my talents and my money.

Dangers to our freedom listed by Mr. Jordan were, communism, big government and complacency. He stated that freedom programs being set up in schools throughout the country were cited as being the biggest step in recent years to re-establish and defend our freedoms.

During the afternoon session, Mrs. R. L. Akins of Brady spoke on "Here's How to Use Good Parliamentary Law" and Mrs. Ethel Foster's subject was "Here's How I Spent My Summer." Valley Creek Vote Slated Saturday

The fate of a $2 million flood prevention project for the Valley Creek watershed rests in the hands of resident, qualified property owners having property rendered for taxation in the area which comprises parts of Runnels, Nolan and Taylor counties.

Voting will take place Saturday at several points within the watershed area. Three boxes will be available in Runnels County. One will be at the Legion Hall in Wingate with Bill Harman, David Bryan and Carl Green in charge. A North Norton box will be located at the Church of Christ with Kirby Robinson, Dave Compton and Joe Crockett in charge. The other box will be at the Baptist Church at Valley View with Roy Tyree, Dave Forgy and A. C. Newsome in charge.

In Nolan County the box will be located in the Masonic building at Hylton with Buell Moore, Jim Magness and Floyd Wagner in charge.

In Taylor County the box will be located at the community center at Shep with J. H. Christian, Clarence Carpenter and Herbert Ballard in charge.

The Valley Creek Water Control and Improvement District was created by House Bill 944 in the 56th Legislature.

Referendum proposals seek authority to levy a tax of 25 cents on the $100 evaluation for the issuance and retirement of $100,000 in bonds to finance the taxpaying voters' share of 17 to 20 proposed flood detention structures in the Valley Creek watershed.

The money is needed for work plan costs, including engineering, advertising and letting of contracts, operation and maintenance of dams, legal representation, easements and other expenses.

Also proposed is a separate five cents on the $100 tax for maintenance funds when bond money is depleted. This tax will not be collected until the need arises, according to proponents of the project. It is required by law to make certain the structures are kept up, once built, said County Judge W. H. Rampey.

The project has been approved as feasible by agencies of the federal government. Government expenditures for construction of the proposed sites would amount to between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000, according to estimates.

If voters pass the issue the next step will be hiring of engineers to make surveys and perfect plans, say backers of the project. If vetoed, the Valley Creek WCID board of directors would maintain their authority, but their project would fail. They could renew efforts to obtain the needed structures in the future.

conservationist of the Runnels Soil Conservation District, said a 10-year loss (1946 to 1955) due to flood damage on 350 farms in the watershed was estimated at $2,055,900.

Damages to three major highways amounted to $35,000 over the 10-year period, and 40 county roads suffered damage estimated at $125,000 over the same period. Loss to the oil industry runs near $50,000 for a five-year period, Hoffman said.

Taxable values of real estate, with oil and gas values added for the 153,000-acre area, amounts to $2,393,865 in Runnels, $247,990 in Nolan and an estimated $300,000 in Taylor County. This provides $2,941,855 in taxable values not including personal property.

It was estimated by a watershed spokesman that landowners in the district would be paying a tax of about $2.50 on 100 acres.

Roger Babson Says

Khrushchev Thinks The Automobile Is America's 'God'; Much Invested

I thought that a previous column of mine had covered all the facts gathered on my trip to Moscow, but here are a few more things worthy of thought.

America's God

My recent release on "Khrushchev and Christianity" has caused readers to ask me just what Mr. K. thinks is America's "God." I must reply: "The Automobile." Although the first automobile was built only during my lifetime, yet America today has more money invested in autos than in all the churches, hospitals, schoolhouses, and homes of mercy built since Columbus discovered America in 1492.

It has been said that 90 percent of the women of American spend more on lipstick than they contribute to their church. Furthermore, I am told by cosmetics experts that lipsticks are but one of the offshoots of the automobile. Even John D. Rockefeller, Sr. told me personally that automobiles built the magnificent Rockefeller fortune; that when he was at his prime, he considered selling only kerosene.

America's Missionaries

When I was a boy, my mother was much interested in foreign missions. I even helped pack barrels of old clothes for the missionaries, who were then our real ambassadors. Now the ladies of most churches get together once a month to talk foreign missions—and collect perhaps $300 for the cause; yet the value of their automobiles and furs represent $500,000! The whole setup seems cockeyed to Mr. K.

Our real missionaries today are the heads of the U. S. Embassies all over the world (let me say that all were very helpful to me during my recent trip to Berlin, Warsaw, and Moscow.) But most of them were selected for their very important positions because

Dale Sewing Club Met Recently In Mick Rogers Home

Dale Sewing Club held their regular meeting recently in the home of Mrs. Mick Rogers. Quilting was done for the hostess.

A refreshment plate was served to Mesdames Bill Mayo, Charlie Adami, Lloyd Compton, Walter Kruse, Jessie Jenkins, Reese Jones, Wilbur Phelps, Jim Phelps, Carol Stoecker, Clifton Davis, Clifford Lehman, Tip McKnight, Mick Rogers, Ernest Smith and Miss Effie Lehman.

The club will meet February 9, in the home of Mrs. Bill Mayo.

NOTICE

Veterans of World War I will meet Monday night at 7:30 o'clock at the American Legion Hall. All veterans are urged to attend.

They contributed large sums of money to the political party which won the last national election—whether or not they can speak the language of the country to which they are assigned. Mr. K. feels this is most inefficient.

When Mr. K wants teachers, he pays what is necessary to get the very best. I have been told that top professors get about $40,000 per year in terms of our dollars—and prestige. They are the leading men in every large Russian city. They live in the best suburbs, have the best tables at restaurants and private boxes at the opera. Their children are looked up to as those of our richest families. Yet some of our universities pay more for a football coach than for the head of the Physics Department.

While in Moscow getting facts on education, I was asked what is meant by our term "eggheads." When I tried to explain that this is what our scientists and other men of learning are called, I was not believed. I was then asked if it is true that any American manufacturer will get a better reception at Congressional hearings than University Presidents; and if we allow an average of 30 students to a classroom while Mr. K insists that 17 must be the maximum.

Can Democracy Compete?

I believe democracy is the ultimate form of government. History shows that no dictatorship has very long existed. But I am far from certain whether our present form of democracy can survive. There will inevitably be more rapid basic changes due to the constant leveling down of those who now have property and the building up of those who have not. The masses are on the move and will continue to be. However, the desires of our people must change from glorification of wealth and so-called "success" to love for unselfish service and trained efficiency.

Mr. K's apparent objective is to eliminate private property, but he is not alone. Six means to this end are now being employed in six different countries: (1) By confiscation in Russia; (2) by nationalization in England; (3) by taxation in East Germany; (4) by public executions in China; (5) by unwarranted price and wage legislation in Cuba; and (6) by labor-union demands and inflation as in the U. S.

Meanwhile, let us expend more time and more money developing our children's character, health, education, and other fundamentals which cannot be wiped out by another World War.

Completion of Highway System Could Save 300 Lives A Year In Texas

By—Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

Completion of the Interstate Highway System, including 3,033 miles of topstandard expressways, may save as many as 300 Texans a year from traffic deaths.

State Highway Engineer DeWitt C. Greer says that accident records show that controlled access expressways are three times safer. Also, he said, they move three to four times as much traffic.

Greer estimates that the Interstate Highway System, when completed, will save one life a year for each 10 miles of road.

Target year for getting Texas highways to desired standards is 1975.

By that time, said the state highway engineer, the state probably will have 70,000 miles in the state highway system compared to the present 60,000. There will be 5,500 miles of multi-lane highways compared to 2,168 today.

MORE SPEED?

Whether speeds in excess of 60 miles per hour should be legalized for some of the state's top-notch highways will be subject of study between now and the next Legislature.

Committees of the Texas Good Roads Association are to consider this and whether gasoline taxes should be upped to gain school funds.

Governor Daniel has suggested the possibility of raising money for school improvement and teacher salaries through a higher gasoline tax. TGRA, made up of people interested in road building, has, in the past, opposed draining taxes paid by road users for non-highway purposes.

Higher speed limits have been proposed before for four-lane highways, but have failed to pass the Legislature.

DEFICIT GROWS

Deficit in the state's general revenue fund has reached $78,647,301, an all time high, says State Treasurer Jesse James.

Things should look better after May 1, when corporation franchise taxes will be paid, he adds.

APPOINTEES

Appointed by Governor Daniel to the Texas Commission on Educational Standards are Mrs. W. D. DeGrassi of Amarillo, Horace K. Jackson of Gatesville, Reynaldo Garza of Brownsville, Cullum Greene of Fort Worth, and Mrs. E. P. Lamberth of Dallas. To the Educational Commission, Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey names Everett Collier of Houston, Joe Anderson of Lufkin, Sens. William Fly of Victoria, Floyd Bradshaw of Weatherford, and Ray Roberts of McKinney.

House Speaker Waggoner Carr designated Mrs. Harry Patterson of Houston, John McKee of Dallas, Reps. C. T. Matthew of Yoakum, Leon Thurman of Anson and Maurice Pipkin of Brownsville, as his appointees to the Educational Commission.

NEW GAME HEADS

Frank M. Wood of Wichita Falls has been elected chairman of the Game and Fish Commission to succeed Herb Frenshley of Houston.

New members of the Commission are Carl L. Dupuy of Lufkin, H. A. Walsh of El Paso, J. F. Corley of Houston and W. O. Reed of Dallas.

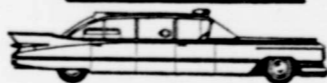

BUG DELAYS DECISION

"Flu bug," besides felling Texans by the thousands, contributed to a delay in deciding one of the state's most talked about issues, the Safe Driving Insurance Plan.

With the other two State Insurance Board members ill, Chairman Penn Jackson said it would be at least several days before the board would announce changes, if any, in the plan.

Board Member Robert W. Strain was in bed with the flu, and Joe P. Biggs, other member, was convalescing from a heart attack.

Services of a Bank

Most of you know but few ever stop to think what the services of a conservative, dependable bank are to this area. If one of us wanted to pay a bill in a distant city, a check can be written for the exact amount and the bank makes the settlement with the party to whom the check was given. Those with no checking accounts who want to pay a bill in a distant city are confronted with the ordeal of buying a bank draft, post office or express money order and pay a fee for it. These settlements are being made by the thousands each week through a well organized check paying system of which this bank is a member. All these transactions are made with perfect safety and with an accuracy made possible by long years of service rendered by this bank.

The people of this area are invited to make use of this check settlement system by opening checking accounts with

Game Magazine Has Article On Black Drum

The drum is a valuable commercial fish, it is very tasty, and is considered by many to be a fine game fish, according to Ernest G. Simmons in his very interesting article, "Drumming Along," in the January issue of TEXAS GAME AND FISH.

Simmons, a marine biologist for the Texas Game and Fish Commission, points out that the drum's position as an edible food is indicated by the fact that they comprise a major portion of commercial food fish sold in South Texas. Some opinions of persons who know the fish, writes Simmons, indicate that the fish is of little value. Nevertheless, "Many a fisherman has enjoyed battling a drum, especially while he thought he had a redfish on the hook."

The magazine's January issue cover carries a lifelike painting of the drum by San Antonio artist, Clay McGaughy.

Other articles of interest in the magazine include one of Texas bison, "Vanquished Lord," by Bob Slaughter; one on the Big Hill Bayou Management Area, called "Modernizing the Marsh," by Ed Holder; an interesting piece on fossil oysters entitled "Neptune's Memento," by Sandra Pounds; one on Lake J. B. Thomas, by Tommy Hart; and a picture roundup of the public deer hunts held in Texas this year.

Liming First Step In Building Soil Fertility

A dollar spent for lime will generally return a profit of 5 to 1 in increased grazing, forage or crop yields.

Liming is the first step in building soil fertility, says John Box, assistant extension agronomist. It supplies essential plant foods, such as calcium and magnesium. Liming makes both manure and commercial fertilizers more effective and, therefore, improves plant yields. Most legumes will not grow in soils that are low or deficient in calcium.

Liming granulates the soil, improves tilth and drainage, and speeds the decay of organic matter and formation of humus. There is no substitute for limestone on acid soils, Box emphasizes. Lime used at recommended rates and according to soil test recommendations will increase your yields and profits per acre.

Today's farmer has to be efficient to meet competition and remain in business. If he plans to be in business tomorrow, he must use every known efficient production practice. He must not fail to have his soils tested and use the lime needed to maintain the right pH for the best crop production.

Proper liming can also help slow erosion by wind and water. How? Liming the soil supplies essential plant nutrients, the agronomist points out. It also makes nutrients already in the soil more available to plants, thus supporting better plant growth. Residues from the increased growth offer protection to the soil from wind and water.

Heavier crop growth breaks up raindrops before they hit the soil, thus reducing the splattering and splashing of soil particles. More organic matter, from crop residues and roots, is left in the soil. This helps to bind soil particles together so that less soil is carried away by run-off water or blown away by the wind. Box adds that now is the time to lime.

LONE STAR AGRICULTURE

This may hardly be the time of the year to be discussing the effects of too much sun, but an American Medical Association spokesman has again pointed out the extremely high rate of skin cancer among Texas farmers and ranchers.

Dr. Stephen Rothman of Chicago, chairman of the AMA's committee on cosmetics, told a clinical session in Dallas that Texas has six times as high a rate of skin cancer as the north and eastern states. He attributed this to the direct rays of the sun in Texas and the fact that many people in the state pursue outdoor livelihoods.

This extremely high rate, he said, could be reduced to a fraction by the daily use of simple sun-protective creams. A number of products are now available, Dr. Rothman reported, which have been found to be absolutely effective in preventing skin cancer if the individual who works in the sun would apply a thin layer on his hands and face each morning.

But his suggestion to the U. S. public Health Service for such a preventive program, the Chicago specialist said met with a response something like this: "If you think you can get a Texas farmer to smear cream on his face every morning, then you just don't know Texas farmers."

Consensus of the clinical session in Dallas was that the sun has been highly overrated as a source of health, and that its bad effects for most individuals may considerably outweigh the good.

For the normal skin, said Dr. Rothman, "I am not sure there is anything good to be said about the sun."

Ironically, he pointed out, the confirmed sun bather, seeking a tan which has become symbolic of youth, is hastening the aging process and prematurely developing for himself an unattractive, old-looking, wrinkled skin. The full effects of sun bathing have not yet been completely assessed, because the fad has not been prevalent for a sufficient length of time to provide the required study.

But Dr. Rothman holds to the theory that modern man, provided with plenty of nourishment and

Machine Processing Of DHIA Records

Electric Data Processing Machines and the use of these machines in processing DHIA records has brought a new concept of dairy record-keeping to dairymen and to the dairy industry, says A. M. Meekma, dairy husbandman, Texas Agriculture Extension Service.

It has relieved the DHIA supervisor of much tedious and time-consuming book work. It provides for the dairymen greater accuracy and more complete and up-to-date production and feed information than has heretofore been possible. In short, it represents a major change from past procedures of DHIA record keeping.

While, says Meekma, the supervisor's work will be greatly reduced, it will, at the same time, be more exacting than ever before. His ability to obtain and accurately record information and to interpret processed data will be of utmost importance. Each report submitted must be complete and accurate in every detail.

vitamins, could live in perfect health for many years in a cellar without ever seeing the sun.

BRADSHAW NEWS

"Prayer is the golden key to the power house of God."—Dr. Charles Allen.

Rev. Jerry Henson of Abilene is the new Baptist pastor. Jerry preached his first pastoral sermon for the church Sunday morning. However, Jerry isn't altogether new to this community as he supplied the church last summer in absence of Pastor Dave Filpot.

Mrs. Mary Pike of Welch was a Sunday School visitor at the Methodist church. Mrs. Pike with Betty Lemons of McMurry, Jodie and Frances Stricklin were night visitors.

Visitors at the morning church services at the Drasco Methodist church were Mrs. Pike, Mrs. Nora Ledbetter and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Burrus and Mary of Wingate.

Mr. and Mrs. James Douglas Belew and 3 children of Abilene were visitors Sunday morning at the Drasco Baptist church. Persistent Evangelism is the Sunday School Lesson subject for next Sunday. Meditation: "Evangelism depends upon its motives for success. Not the amount of equipment, but the driving power is important. An automobilist was surprised one day when a rather dilapidated jalopy overtook him on a country road and passed him, leaving him in a cloud of dust. He wondered how so old a car could have so much power. He learned that it was really a new model of a powerful motor being given a road test. Success will not be guaranteed by the ability to make speeches or to organize groups, but by the power in our lives."

A native of Winters, Mr. Wyatt was born August 26, 1922. His father, Sam Wyatt, was a building contractor.

Mr. Wyatt was a member of the First Baptist Church.

Other survivors include two brothers, Roy of Slaton and Lonnie of Littlefield.

Banded Tetras Proves Good Bass Minnow

Experiments by biologists of the Game and Fish Commission have established that the Mexican banded tetras is a top fishing minnow, in areas where the water temperature does not drop below 55F.

Tests were made in a number of small lakes and ponds in south Texas, which indicate that the tetras will reproduce in those areas. However, it also was determined that the tetras is susceptible to cold water.

According to a report made by Alvin Flury, project leader, the increase in white and black bass population in Falcon Lake near Zapata has brought about an apparent scarcity of the tetras in that lake. In 1956, the prevailing price on tetras in Zapata went from $2 to $4 per gallon. By 1959 the price had climbed to from $10 to $12 per gallon. Because of the high predation on the part of both black bass and white bass, the supply of the minnow became so low that a number of the minnow fishermen were compelled to stop operation.

Experimental stocking of this minnow was attempted on 16 farm ponds in the south Texas area. These experiments included lakes that had contained black bass and other types of fish. It was shown in some of these experiments that the tetras can spawn and raise young in small ponds in the presence of young bass and even smaller numbers of adult bass. On one pond that had been stocked with 400 tetras from Falcon Reservoir in February, 1959, the owner trapped 32 gallons of the minnows by May of 1959.

of the district for a job. I have all I can look after at the present time. Encouraged by my fine friends in the counties of the district, I feel that I can render a service that is needed at this time. I have no alliances or obligations with any clique or group and will always be free to vote my convictions in all legislative matters.

As I said in the beginning, I am not a politician or speech maker and will not depend upon my friends for help in making a campaign in the four counties. Of course I want to see as many people as possible during the next three months, but in this first announcement I ask that you give me your careful consideration for the office I seek.

Southern District BSA More Than Doubled In 2 Years

Boy Scouts of America will celebrate their fiftieth anniversary Monday, February 8, during National Boy Scout Week February 7-14. The organization was founded in 1910.

During the past two years, the Southern District of Chisholm Trail Council of Boy Scouts of America has more than doubled in number of active units. Two years ago the district had 17 units and at the present time there are 36 units with 665 boys.

The Southern District completed 1959 with 14 Cub Packs, 303 boys; 14 Scout Troops, 278 boys and eight Explorer Post, 84 boys. Nine scouts in the district have received the Eagle Scout Award.

Highlights in the district during 1959 were junior leader training, rifle and archery meets, spring and fall camporees, council circus, summer camp, cub swim meet, aquatic camp, blue and gold banquet, dad and lad banquet, first aid contest, report to the governor and Order of the Arrow activities. The year closed with a banquet December 28, in Abilene.

J. T. Randolph, chairman of the Southern District and vice president of the Chisholm Trail Council, stated that "as we head into 1960 and launch the Golden Jubilee program which places emphasis on sharing, advancement, fitness and service, experiences that will help today's boys be prepared as citizens, plans are being developed for a full schedule of activities for all three programs in the district."

Southern District Committee Personnel include J. T. Randolph, district chairman; Randall Jackson, Baird, district vice chairman; Harlod Prater, Coleman, commissioner; J. D. Larson, Coleman, assistant commissioner; Dr. M. D. Mann, Coleman, health and safety chairman; Travis Bohannon, Coleman, camping and activities; Ray E. Martin, Coleman, organization and extension; Robert Sayles, Tuscola, finance chairman; James Day, Clyde, leadership and training; Elzie Cox, Winters, advancement chairman.

The Southern District of the Chisholm Trail Council includes Putnam, Baird, Cross Plains, Clyde, Eula, Coleman, Buffalo Gap, Jim Ned, Santa Anna, Novice, Burkett, Centennial, Talpa, Winters and Wingate.

Mr. Randolph said that the needs for the Southern District are to "involve a greater number of people through the whole structure of the district, so they can assist, with aggressiveness, in carrying out the program of the district."

He also stated that "we need to be more specific and definite in our relationships with sponsoring institutions. The institutions need to know what is involved in sponsoring a scouting unit and that they, not us, own every scout unit in the district. We need to seek out and aggressively go after potential sponsors of scouting units so they may have the valuable help of the Boy Scouts of America to serve their boys."

Mr. Randolph said, "We need to realize that we are no longer a small district. Two years ago we had 17 units; today we have 36 units. Somebody did some planning for us in the past and we need to determine what our long term role will be in the way of service in the future. We need to continue and to add to our list of challenges, activities that are attracting boys to become scouts."

Mr. Randolph stated that these are not all the needs of the Southern District and neither do they all have the same value.

The Southern District Committee personnel expressed thanks to all institutional representatives, Scoutmasters, Cubmasters, Den Mothers, Explorer Advisors, their assistants and others who have helped in the scouting program.

Blizzards Won From Bearcat Cagers, 55-51

By Billy Lynn Little
The issue is settled—it took a heap of doin'—but Coach Jerry English and company have brought the sports crown of Runnels County back home to Winters.

The Blizzards staved off a desperate effort by the fired-up Bearcats, and swept to a 55-51 victory over the Ballinger team there Tuesday night. The game was nip and tuck all the way, with Ballinger jumping to an 11-9 lead in the first period, and the Blizzards coming back to tie it up 23-23 at half-time. By the end of the third period, the Blizzards had pulled to a 40-37 lead, which was, to say the least, very unstable. The entire third period both teams were hot, with the Bearcats hitting 2 and going ahead, and the Blizzards coming right back to even it up.

The Blue held its lead of 3 until late in the game, when Bearcat Billy Jones sank a free throw to narrow the lead to 2 points, 53-51. With 35 seconds left, Johnny Caskey missed a free throw, and the Ballinger club rebounded. The 'Cats brought the ball down court, with the chance to send the game into overtime. The Blizzards rebounded the wild shot, and five Bearcats surrounded the ball handler—meanwhile, under the Blizzard basket, four men stood ready. The ball was whipped into big PeeWee Williams, PeeWee went up for the cinch shot, and with only five seconds left, the score was 55-51, the Bearcats' gallant effort for an upset had failed, and the Blizzards had won the victory.

Well-rounded scoring was again an important factor in the game. Co-captain Jimmy Smith, who fouled out early in the fourth quarter, led the Blue with 12 points. Williams netted 10. Both Smith and Williams made 5 of 6 field goal attempts, for a percentage of 83. Sammy Albro and Casket both had 9 points. Little Johnny, playing as a starter for the second straight game, replacing injured Jerry Dunnam, and Albro, both sank two vital baskets in the see-saw third quarter. William Grissom hit 8, Walter Kraatz 4, and Jerry Dunn 3 to round out the Blue's scoring. Coach Don Edwards' "B" team lost a heartbreaker in a sudden death overtime, 45-43. The score being tied 40-40 at the end of regulation play, in the first overtime both teams racked 3 points, and Ballinger's Bill Wilkins made a freak shot to win the game in the second. Tommy Young was high with 14, while the Butts brothers, Rodney and Joel, had 10 and 9 respectively.

The Blizzards, still tied for the district lead with Cisco, takes on two crucial home games before going to Lobo-land February 12. Coleman's Bluecats, the only district team to down the Blue thus far, move into town tonight (Friday) and the Eastland Mavericks will be here Tuesday night.

If you like to talk, it is delightful to be in the company of someone who likes to listen.

Winters Gets Lower Fire Insurance Rate

The fire insurance key rate for Winters has been lowered one cent by the State Board of Insurance and will mean savings in fire insurance premiums for Winters' citizens.

The fire key rate is the amount of basic insurance premiums paid per $100 of fire insurance. Rates are set by the Board on the basis of inspections made by its examiners of fire hazards and protective techniques. Winters' rate was lowered from 47 to 46 cents. Annually this cut amounts to a saving of about $518 to the residents if their insurance buying stays at the level it was during 1958, when $51,818 worth of fire insurance was bought.

The new key rate was arrived at by charging the city for certain hazards and allowing credit for protective techniques.

Winters was charged for defective water works, elevated tank deficient in capacity, deficient water mains, not enough fire hydrants, a wholly volunteer fire department, no fire alarm system, inadequate building laws, narrow streets and conflagration hazards. Credits were given to the city for having booster trucks, fire prevention taught in the public schools, a maintained arson award, and attendance at the firemen's training school.

Blizzards Trounce Ranger Cagers In Friday Game

By Billy Lynn Little

The Winters Blizzards came back to down the Ranger Bulldogs 56-43, after the fired-up Bulldogs had pulled to a 27-24 halftime lead in Ranger Friday night.

The Blizzards took the first quarter led 12 - 11, but the Bulldogs, spoiling for an upset, scored 16 points, all on field goals, to take the halftime lead. The Blue came back to cop a 39-35 third period lead, and from then on were never headed.

Coach Jerry English's crew hit 23 of 60 field goal attempts and 10 of 19 from the charity line.

The Blizzards' scoring was well distributed, with 7 men in the point column. Little Jimmy Smith dropped in 10 of his fourteen points in the second half. PeeWee Williams followed Smith with 12, while William Grissom had 10. Sophomore guard Johnny Caskey, moving into a starting role to replace the injured Jerry Dunnam, fired home 9 points. Dunnam had reinjured his ankle in the Cisco game. Co-captain Sammy Albro hit 7 and Jerry Dunn, and Walter Kraatz both dropped 2.

Coach Don Edwards' "B" team routed the Ranger squad 51-39. Jimmy Dunnam dropped 14 and Tommy Young 12 to lead the scorers.

Labor Service Started

Mrs. B. B. Bedford, secretary of the Winters Chamber of Commerce, said this week action had been taken to use the chamber of commerce as a clearing house for local labor.

It was pointed out that the chamber of commerce would not act as an employment agency, but merely as a central location where laborers could be listed, and persons desiring farm help, yard workers, or help on odd jobs might list their requirements and receive information. There will be no charge for the service.

The service will be started immediately, the secretary said.

During Election Years: Old Man Politics Takes Big Hand In Congressional Bills

By Cong. O. C. Fisher

AFTER ONE MONTH of the New Year, Congress is grinding along—slowly. As anticipated, Old Man Politics is taking a hand in nearly every bill that is being pushed. It's always been that way, on Presidential election years. It is part of our system.

Every four years—and sometimes in between—so-called civil rights bills are in the forefront. A mild sort of bill was reported by a House committee last year and is before the Rules Committee—the cleaning house for bills that reach the floor. But the Rules Committee is not a political committee and is not easily rushed. It is reluctant to advance politically-inspired election-year measures. And so it has taken no action on the bill that is the answer to some of the politicians' dreams.

Over in the Senate, all sorts of concoctions have been offered under the guise of civil rights—vote-getting concoctions. And a bill is expected to pass that body. And the House is expected eventually to approve one. The moderates will attempt to weed out the proposals that would adversely affect freedoms and the rights and responsibilities that were supposed to have been guaranteed to the States in the Constitution.

have been J. Edward Johnson of Dallas, formerly of Brownwood, and W. O. Bankston, also formerly of Brownwood. The latter, a native of Winters, was awarded the Benjamin Franklin Award by the Saturday Evening Post, in connection with the annual convention of the National Automobile Dealers' Association being held in Washington. Bankston, the leading Ford dealer of Dallas, will soon be the subject of a feature life story in the Post.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Spill and children of Tierra Amarilla, New Mexico, who were visiting with friends and relatives in Winters, received word Sunday morning that their home had been destroyed by fire. Disease Cost Cotton Farmers $147 Million In 1959

Diseases took a $147 million bite out of the 1959 Texas cotton crop report 15 cotton specialists located throughout the state.

"Cotton diseases kept at least $79,000 bales of cotton from being marketed," said Harlan Smith, extension plant pathologist, who compiled the information for the Cotton Disease Council.

Besides the $147 million cash loss to producers, there were losses of business to farm labor, railroads, trucking companies, suppliers, compress companies, storage facilities and other phases of the industry. Diseases also were a major factor in grade reduction as well as a limiting factor in yield.

This loss occurred even though 1959 growing conditions were generally good as near record yields were harvested in many areas, Smith said.

Major diseases and estimated loss due to their effect on yield were bacterial blight, 5.91 percent; root rot, 4.43 percent; verticillium wilt, 1.85 percent; seedling disease, 1.75 percent; and root rot, .50 percent. Other diseases causing losses were boll rot, fusarium wilt and ascochyta blight.

These average figures don't give the true picture because in areas where diseases struck the hardest losses ran into ruinous figures, pointed out Smith. For example, root rot was estimated to have caused a 25 percent loss in the Central Blackland area. The amount of root rot increased in many areas compared to 1958 losses. Ascochyta blight, a minor disease in past years, was a problem in several areas for the first time. Root knot, caused by nematodes, appears to be on the increase.

New Car Licenses Now On Sale

New license plates for 1960 went on sale at all county courthouses Monday morning, February 1, State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer announced today. The plates will have white letters and numerals on a black background.

Greer stated that 4.7 million motor vehicle registrations were bought by Texans in 1959, and predicted that 1960 registrations would approach the five million mark.

Greer urged Texas vehicle owners to register early.

The registration deadline is midnight, April 1.

Greer stressed the importance of registering all automobiles and trucks in the home county of the vehicle owner. "Take your certificate of title and your last year's registration receipt to the tax collector in your home county. Penalty for improper registration of a vehicle can be as much as $200. Don't risk an illegal registration. Remember, too a portion of all registration fees stays in your home county to benefit your local community," Greer said.

STEP IN IT—STEP OUT IN IT

Get the quiet proof of Chevrolet's superior performance on the road—No other car in the low-priced three can match the borne-on-the-wind sensation you get from a ride in the 1960 Chevrolet. But that's not surprising when you consider to what lengths Chevy has gone to provide for your comfort at no extra cost to you. As you drive, count the ways Chevrolet has been thoughtful:

Supple Full Coil suspension—Coil springs at all four wheels melt bumps as no other suspension can. Taking the punch out of rough roads is their only function—they don't have to anchor the rear axle.

Butyl rubber body mounts—Thicker, newly designed body mounts further insulate you from the road.

Body by Fisher—Only Chevy in its field offers the polish and craftsmanship of Body by Fisher.

Foam cushioned seats—Chevy offers foam cushioned seats in both front and rear in all series but one.

Safety-Girder frame—X-built and not merely X-braced, the Safety-Girder frame affords greater rigidity to minimize twisting and squeaks.

Hydraulic valve lifters—Oil hushed hydraulic valve lifters reduce engine noise to a whisper.

Cushioned steering shaft—A universal joint and cushioned coupling keep those annoying road tremors from the steering wheel.

Precision balanced wheels and tires—Here again Chevy has shown concern for your comfort by eliminating vibration in this vital area—tire life is longer, too.

Easy steering ratio—Chevy's high ratio Ball Race steering takes the work out of steering for you.

Superior weight distribution—Chevy rides better, handles better and stops better because the car's weight is more equally divided between the front and rear wheels.

Wide choice of power teams—Choose from 24 different power combinations to satisfy the itchiest driving foot—more than any other car.

W. Hoffman Guest Speaker At Club Meeting Thursday

W. Hoffman, technician with the Soil Conservation Service of Runnels County, was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Diversity Club held Thursday afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Young.

Mrs. Loucille Roberts introduced Mr. Hoffman, who spoke on "Water, the Number 1 Problem." He stated that "nearly everyone in this country, state and county in the past few years has experienced some problems caused by too much water when we do not want it, or too little water when we do want it." He said "next to air, water is our most important resource for survival. We can live longer without food than we can without water."

He cited some of the published figures on the usages of water. It takes 18,000 gallons of water to make a ton of ingot iron, 65,000 gallons to convert this ton of iron into steel, and 7,000 barrels to produce a barrel of gasoline. On a farm, a pound of beef has required 12,750 gallons of water for the steer and the grass he eats. A slice of bread including the growing grain has used 37 gallons of water.

Mr. Hoffman stated that "From these figures we can see that we are using more water each day and we must take means to increase the conservation, improve the utilization and improve the administration of our water resources."

He showed a map of the Valley Creek Shed Project and explained that soil conservation on the farm, range, and weelands is the big step in managing our water and having a better water supply.

Refreshments were served from a tea table to Mr. Hoffman, Mesdames W. T. Billups, J. W. Dixon, Sam Jones, C. R. Kendrick, Clarence Ledbetter, W. B. Middleton, Noel Reid, Earl Roach, Loucille Roberts and Roy Young.

Former Winters Man Has Been Pastor In the Methodist Church For 35 Years

Rev. Roy L. Crawford, a former resident of Winters and the brother-in-law of Postmaster Rankin Pace, has lived the life of a small town preacher for more than 35 years, according to a feature story appearing recently in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

Since becoming a Methodist pastor in 1925, the Rev. Crawford has never served in a town of more than 2,500 population, and his congregations have never exceeded 275 persons. He and Mrs. Crawford, the former Ava Pace, also originally from Winters were delighted last June when he received the Central Texas appointment to serve as pastor of the Methodist Church at Saginaw, a town of 1400 persons and a congregation of 182.

Rev. and Mrs. Crawford prefer the small community church because of the close association with the church members and with all residents of the community. This, Rev. Crawford believes, is a definite advantage to a minister in better serving the people.

Rev. Crawford served a year as associate minister of First Methodist Church at Brownwood. He began his pastoral service in 1925 as a circuit rider. From then until 1946, when he received his first full time appointment he served the Robert Lee, Joshua, Palmer, Winchell, May, Grafrod and West Circuits. Since 1946, Rev. Crawford has held full time pastorates at West, Moody and Crawford.

Many residents of Winters will remember Rev. Crawford and his wife, the former Ava Pace who were married here January 14, 1917.

J. S. Bourn, wholesale agent for the Texas Company in Winters, was appointed Saturday by Governor Price Daniel to serve on the board of the Runnels County Water Improvement District. His term will end January 1, 1965.

A native Texan, Mr. Bourn was born at Rockwell and finished school before moving to Merkel. He moved to Winters in 1932 and was employed with the Lone Star Gas Company until 1936. He has been with the Texas Company since that time.

Mr. Bourn served twelve years on the city council, president of the Winters Rodeo Association for five years and is a past president of the Winters Lions Club. He is a member of the First Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Bourn have one son, Jimmy, who is in his third year at the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis.
