Talk

By R. C. THOMAS

January, 1961, has already moved ahead of January, 1960, in amount of rainfall received, a starting point from which for another good crop year. Course this is just one month of several, and there are many ways of plowing, planting, growing and harvesting, and it would surely be speculative to say that heavy rains alone will make a crop. But it is more or less taken for granted that without good seeding from winter rains the odds are against making a crop as much as this year.

Even though January has hardly gotten off the ground, this area has received around 4 inches of rain. The gauge of the last of the week fell to the 3.7 inches (final), and another 2 inch fell Tuesday. Only 3.5 inches (final) was received during the first month of January, 1960.

Winter has hardly started, and we can't expect much anything during the next few weeks. We only hope we do not experience such a winter as was seen here a good many years ago by some of the farmers. Last Tuesday, January 10, was the anniversary of the blizzard of 1918," according to some who were here at that time.

Miss Gans and Miss Bedford were among students from many schools in the region who competed for the 112 places on the regional band. Schools included Abilene High, Cooper High, San Angelo, Snyder, Sweetwater, Breckenridge, Ballinger, Coleman, Hamlin, and others.

This is the second year that Miss Gans has been named to the all-state band. This year she competed against 22 other flutists from all over the region.

The all-state band is composed of winners from all over the state of Texas. Each region is allowed eight musicians who, upon winning the regional trials, automatically are declared all-state. Other candidates, numbering 22 from each region, compete in an area tryout at Stephenville on Jan. 21. These students will be named runners-up in the original region contests. The total complement of the all-state band will number 250, and will be divided into two separate bands and will play a concert at the conclusion of the TMEA clinic Saturday evening, Jan. 21, in the Dallas Coliseum.

All bandsmen work eight hours each day in rehearsal preparing for this climactic concert which includes the all-state choir of 350 voices, the all-state orchestra, 150 pieces, and the all-state bands. Winning the right to perform with these groups is the highest honor a high school music student can achieve.

Miss Gans, appearing for the second time with the all-state band, is a member of the Winters High School concert band, holds the rating of rank corporal in the majorette group and is assistant manager of the High School Annual, The Glacier. She is organist for the First Methodist Church, a member of the SnoFlakes, girls' ensemble and the Sub Deb Club. She holds nine first division medals won at university interscholastic league competition; five for performance on the flute and four for performance as a twirler. She also holds the national baton twirler trophy for excellence in twirling.

Miss Bedford is a member of the Student Council, representing the Freshman Class, and is Secretary of the Freshman Class.

Just read where the Government has added Runnels County to the list of areas which are off limits to persons from the Soviet Union. Our friend out on Bluff says he's kinda disappointed about this; he thought that perhaps some day Khrushchev might visit the U. S. again and pay Runnels County a visit. Said he's already been too busy trying to get a living out of the red dirt to visit a zoo, and was hoping that the zoo would visit him.

BUCKY WILKINS

Grandson of Local Woman Co-Writer Of Popular Song

Appearing in the Nashville Tennessee of recent date was a feature story about Bucky Wilkins, son of Mrs. Marijohn Wilkins, and the grandson of Mrs. Karla Melson of Winters. Bucky has visited in the home of his uncle, B. G. Owens on numerous occasions when he was a small boy.

Bucky, 14, and his neighbor, a 15-year-old youth, Bill Scobey, are co-writers of the song, "I Need Sleep," which is a forthcoming record release, according to the story.

The song came into being during the summer vacation when Bucky's dad took Bill and Bucky on a camping trip. Telling the story of how the song came to be written, Bucky stated, "Dad went off to talk to another camper and Bill and I were just sitting there singing. One of us made up the phrase about needing sleep and we decided it might make a pretty good song. So we wrote the words on the back of a magazine cover and had it finished by the time dad returned."

"I Need Sleep" is the story of a typical teenager, who, beset by homework, girls, etc., just can't stay awake in school. Bobby Wright, an 18-year-old singer, recorded the song which will be released next month.

Bucky, a freshman in high school, has been playing the guitar for several years and appeared in Ozark Jubilee at the age of 10. Since then he has made personal appearances on stages, in clubs and the Grand Ole Opry.

Crowds Braved Cold Rains Saturday To Attend FFA-4-H Livestock Show

In spite of a cold driving rain, which lasted most of the day Saturday, good crowds of interested spectators attended the annual FFA-4-H Livestock Show at the agriculture barn. Approximately 135 head of cattle, sheep and swine, and several capons were exhibited and judged in the day-long show.

The livestock show, produced by the FFA Stock Show Association, was open to all FFA members and 4-H Club members. It is financed through sale of membership in the organization, and is a self-sustaining show.

Trophies and ribbons were furnished by the organization. In the past, trophies sometimes were donated by individuals and businesses interested in the future of agriculture.

An impressive increase in the total amount of money on deposit in Winters is indicated in the quarterly statement published by the Winters State Bank this week. Figures were released following a call for a statement of the conditions of national and state banks. The call was for condition at the close of business December 31, 1960.

An increase of $351,552.19 in deposits has been registered since the last call for statement of condition October 3, 1960. Present deposits of the Winters State Bank total $4,368,808.29, an increase of $135,176.08 over the total deposit on December 31, 1959.

A two-year comparison shows an increase of $236,248.02 in deposits since December 31, 1958.

Big factor in the deposit increase is the fact that this area had three good crops—milo, small grain, and cotton — during 1960. Also, there continues to be quite a bit of oil activity in the area, and local manufacturing and other services have tended to strengthen the financial condition locally.

Loans and discounts for the December 31, 1960 report were listed at $678,252.02, a decrease from the total of $934,348.01 a year ago.

Texans Have Until January 31 To Pay Poll Taxes; Important Elections Coming

By VERN SANFORD
 Texas Press Association

Texas motorists soon will be "seeing red" when they approach highway construction projects.

State Highway Department announced that the signalmen who direct traffic around construction projects will start wearing fluorescent red nylon vests and waving flags of the same bright material. Use of the new material has been adopted as an additional safety measure since it will be more visible, day and night. At night, flares will be used also.

Same signals will be used by the flagmen. Flag-holding arm fully extended horizontally means stop. Movement of the flagman's free arm means proceed.

LAKE SUCCEEDS STEAKLEY

P. Frank Lake is new secretary of state, succeeding Zollie Steakley.

Steakley was appointed associate justice of the State Supreme Court. Lake served as assistant secretary of state under Steakley for the past four years. An attorney, he formerly lived in Tyler. He is a lieutenant colonel in the Marine Corps Reserve, retired; married and the father of four children.

POLL TAXES DUE

Texans have until January 31 to pay the poll tax that will enable them to vote in 1961 elections.

Despite 1961's being an off-year, a major election will be held this year. U. S. Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson ended his 12-year career in the Senate by submitting his resignation to Gov. Price Daniel on the opening day of Congress.

Daniel appointed William A. Blakely of Dallas to serve until a successor is elected this spring. A special election to fill the office for the remainder of the term will be held April 4. If no candidate receives a majority in the first election, a run-off will be held from 30 to 40 days later.

In the last special senatorial election in April, 1957, there were 23 candidates. Same sort of crowded field is expected this year with enough activity to give every poll tax payer his $1.75 worth.

INAUGURATION CEREMONY

Tuesday, January 17, Gov. Price Daniel and Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey will be inaugurated. Since it is a third term for Governor and a sixth for Lieutenant Governor Ramsey, it will be "one of the simplest inaugurations in years," according to the Governor's office. No parade is planned.

NEW INSURANCE CHAIRMAN

Former Dist. Judge Thomas C. Ferguson of Burnet has been named chairman of the State Insurance Board by Governor Daniel. Ferguson succeeds another district judge, Penn J. Jackson, who has returned to his bench in Cleburne.

New board chairman is also a former newspaperman, deputy district clerk, member of the Texas House of Representatives, mayor of Burnet and county judge. As he begins his service on the Insurance Board, one of the most pressing problems before it is whether to revise auto insurance rates.

WATER PROGRAM TARGETS SET

Reorganization of the State Board of Water Engineers after the pattern of the State Highway Commission has been proposed by Governor Daniel.

Daniel advocated separating the engineering services under a chief engineer from the semi-judicial functions of the Board. He made the proposal before a pre-legislative meeting of the Statewide Water Committee.

Committee, composed of laymen to help in development of a state water program, endorsed broader lending authority for the State Water Development Board. At present, the Board can grant loans to subdivisions for 1-3 the cost of a water project or $5,000,000, which ever is less. A $15,000,000 maximum is recommended by the Committee.

CHURCH-SCHOOL CONFLICT APPEALED

A group of Bremond citizens is appealing to the State Board of Education in protest of what it regards as a violation of church-state separation.

Bremond School District leases a Catholic Church - owned school building for use as a public elementary school and uses Catholic nuns as teachers.

This arrangement has been a source of local controversy for some years. Finally, a group of Protestant citizens brought the case before State Commissioner of Education J. W. Edgar.

Dr. Edgar said he had no authority to prohibit the school board's hiring nuns, but he strongly urged the district to get a school district owned building.

Seeking more vigorous action, the protesting Protestants appealed to the State Board.

Two elections to approve bond issues to build an elementary school in Bremond have failed. Bremond, a town of about 1,100, is located 70 miles southeast of Waco in Robertson County.

WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER

New Cabinet Picks Are Approved By Most of Congress

By Congressman O. C. Fisher

This is back-slapping, job-seeking time in Washington. There is an air of guarded optimism in the transition, which is in keeping with tradition.

On the one hand, many skeptics express approval of the cabinet selections, indicating moderation, stemming chiefly from such choices as Dillon for Treasury and Rusk to head the State Department.

At the same time, eyebrows are raised and doubts expressed over such appointments as youthful and inexperienced Bobby Kennedy for Attorney General and the hords of college professors, mainly from Harvard, who have been placed in key spots, particularly as economic advisors.

"But," you can hear many comment, "Maybe it will work out."

On the spending side, there is more pessimism in the air. Many budget-busters are dreaming up some spending dillys. A Kennedy-appointed Task Force, headed by free-spending Liberal Senator Douglas of Illinois, himself a former college Professor, in a recent report on how to cope with unemployment, calls for an immediate outlay of $3 billions in grants, loans, etc., to affected areas. This could precipitate a run on the Treasury because nearly every community in the country at one time or another has unemployment problems.

Another Task Force, headed by Professor Hoyde, president of Purdue, demands a federal aid for education program that would cost

$2.5 billion the first year. In addition, several new bureaus agencies, and special jobs as "czars," "expeditors," etc., are proposed, somewhat reminiscent of depression's New Deal days.

But much of this must be cleared through Congress, where the real battles will be fought. The radical - liberals in Congress, in both the House and Senate, are presently jockeying for changes in procedural rules which they claim is needed to speed up action on vast and varied spending proposals that are being offered.

If the Congress relaxes its diligence the free spenders could have a field day this year.

Only time will tell. Let us hope that the new President will, with courage, wisdom and foresight, rise to the occasion. He is faced with a very difficult task. It is the duty of Every American to support and encourage him when they conscientiously can. This is indeed a time for unity.

"The Lost World"
 "The Lost World," Irwin Allen's remarkable production of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's gripping story of a trip to a prehistoric land, filmed in CinemaScope and Deluxe Color, starring Michael Rennie, Jill St. John, David Hedison, Claude Rains and Fernando Lamas, opens Friday and Saturday at the State Theatre.

Stranger than the wildest science fiction dreams is the land of the "lost world" where Jurassic monsters from 150,000,000 B. C. roam at will, where dinosaurs rule the land and man-eating plants reach out at every bend in the trail.

This is the untamed and untouched place that zoology professor Challenger (Claude Rains) takes his unforgettable expedition to. Accompanying him on this journey into the past are Lord Roxton (Michael Rennie), a playboy and big game hunter; Jennifer Holmes (Jill St. John), daughter of an executive who finances the venture; David Holmes (Ray Strickland), Jennifer's brother; Ed Malone (David Hedison), American newsman and professor Summerlee (Richard Haydn), a scientist.

Joining the expedition at a remote trading post on the Amazon are Gomez (Fernando Lamas), who pilots the helicopter to the plateau of "The Lost World," and Costa (Jay Novella) a jungle agent and guide.

Unknown animals menace the party at every turn. A large animal blocks their path upon arrival and knocks the helicopter over a cliff. It is identified by Prof. Challenger as a brontosaurus, but the party plunges deeper into the unknown.

During "So-Called" Recession Year Earnings Held Up Well In United States

Babson Park, Mass. — I notice that Dr. Walter W. Heller (new Chairman of the Council of Economic Advisors for President-Elect Kennedy) is telling the American people that 1960—especially the last half—was a period of recession. However, while the net earnings of many corporations were off, the gross earnings of most of these companies held up very well.

Reasons For Poor Net Earnings And Unemployment

Most of these corporations showed poor net earnings because they were obliged to pay higher wages or give fringes, etc., to their wage workers when there was no increase in their efficiency or output. At the same time, the door to higher prices was closed by stiff competition from domestic manufacturers as well as by the rising flood of low-cost goods from abroad.

I really feel that Dr. Heller will have much trouble to prove that our difficulties are caused by a lack of employment opportunities. Let us face the facts... the union leaders in this country must shoulder the lion's share of the blame. They have priced many goods out of our own and foreign markets by pushing up production costs. I wish Dr. Heller would translate unemployment into dollars. This would be a fair thing for him to do. He also should give proper allowance to appropriations for relief, veterans' benefits, unemployment insurance, and old age and survivors' insurance.

Presidents Do Not Make Conditions

It is true that 1960 did not "roar like a lion!" Those who had forecast the "Roaring Sixties" have thus far been disappointed. It, however, is very unfair for Dr. Heller to blame this on the Eisenhower Administration. Conditions make or "unmake" Presidents; but Presidents can do little to change the business cycle.

On the other hand, if this business readjustment should continue through 1961, and perhaps become worse, it would be very unfair for Republicans to blame it on the Kennedy Administration. Every thoughtful businessman and labor leader knows that "the trees cannot grow to the sky" and that after the abnormal prosperity years since World War II a readjustment is inevitable; the longer it is postponed, the worse it will be. By the way Dr. Heller, who is now 45, was only a kid in 1930—only 15 years old! Yes, and Mr. Kennedy himself was then only 13 years of age.

Certain Areas Deserve Help

Among the 400 cities where the leading newspapers publish this weekly column, some are suffering from real unemployment, such as in areas hurt by the national switch from coal to oil. Yet other sections, such as the Cape Canaveral coast of Florida, are enjoying increased employment due to development of missiles. President Kennedy will make a wise effort to relieve by temporary aid any areas "submerged" as a result of natural causes. A permanent cure will be difficult and will take time. He has, fortunately, not only the unemployment and other legislation passed by Congress in 1930-1940 but also the new small business investment companies instituted by the late Congress.

Hence I urge Republicans to be patient and not blame the new administration for whatever happens in 1961. Many of our industries are dependent upon conditions abroad—in Russia, in China, and in Europe (from which I recently returned). Our export and import figures will be factors in determining business conditions in the United States.

electd President of WAIF's Los Angeles Chapter.

Since Coleen took over the presidency of the unique child adoption organization has made gigantic strides, climaxing the fund raising campaign with an Imperial Ball that brought royalty, in the personages of Queen Frederika and Princess Sophia of Greece to Los Angeles, the first time in the city's history for such an event.

Coleen plans to divide her time now between her two children, her film career, and her charitable enterprises.

"The Dark at the Top of the Stairs"

Counterpointing poignant drama with rowdy comedy as it bares the private truths that lie in darkness between boy and girl and man and wife, Warner Bros.' Technicolor production of "The Dark at the Top of the Stairs" comes Sunday and Monday to the State Theatre.

The screen version of the smash theatrical hit which captivated Broadway audiences for more than a year spotlights Robert Preston in his first screen role since his award-winning stage triumph in the title role of "The Music Man."

Dorothy McGuire, Eve Arden, Angela Lansbury and Shirley Knight are also starred in the powerful drama which centers around the determination of an earthy, self-made man to keep up with changing times and the misgivings of his devoted but domineering wife, possessively dedicated to their young son and daughter.

What Christianity Demands

When Mr. Eisenhower lighted the nation's Christmas tree on Friday night, Dec. 23, he appealed for aid for certain backward nations and races—irrespective of "color or creed." He rightfully stated that, if we take our Christianity seriously, we must be fair and generous with all nations and religions.

My appeal at this beginning of 1961 is that both Republicans and Democrats take their Christianity seriously. That we be fair to the President-Elect, who should not be blamed for what happens in 1961 in Cuba, Russia, or China. The biggest thing for him to fear is the time when China discovers how to make an inexpensive atomic bomb.

Hence I urge Republicans to be patient and not blame the new administration for whatever happens in 1961. Many of our industries are dependent upon conditions abroad—in Russia, in China, and in Europe (from which I recently returned). Our export and import figures will be factors in determining business conditions in the United States.

Collier Randolph Received Scout Award Sunday

Collier Randolph, Explorer Scout, received the God and Country award in a presentation ceremony Sunday evening at the First Baptist Church.

The Rev. B. T. Shoemaker, pastor, gave a brief talk on the significance of the award and summarized the God and Country requirements.

To receive the God and Country award, a scout must spend four months of study in each of the three stages of the program which includes five areas of Christian, study, experience and service.

Bill Robinson, explorer advisor, presented the candidate. There was a salute to the colors and Dick Young gave the Scout promise and law.

Collier, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Randolph, was named outstanding Southern District Scout recently and will be the district representative in the report to the governor during Boy Scout Week, February 7-13.

SC District Farmers Plant 984,000 Acres of Trees

Farmers and ranchers cooperating with the Nation's 2,863 soil conservation districts and others receiving assistance from the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service planted 984,567 acres of trees in fiscal year 1960, the USDA announced.

In addition, they planted 4,346 miles of field windbreaks and 650,000 rods of hedgerows, and established woodland improvement on 1,977,000 acres and woodland protection on 11,500,000 acres. Woodland improvement includes thinning, harvest cutting, brush control, pruning and cull elimination. Protection includes fencing, grazing control, fire breaks, and erosion control.

Cumulative totals for these woodland practices in soil conservation districts at the end of the fiscal year were: Tree planting, 7,750,000 acres; field windbreaks, 38,940 miles; hedgerows, 8,276,000 rods; woodland improvement, 17,446,000 acres; and woodland protection, 60,350,000 acres.

State forestry agencies cooperating with SCS and soil conservation districts in providing services to farm woodland owners, and most of the planting stock came from State nurseries cooperating with the Forest Service, USDA officials said. The States also provided specialized forestry assistance in fire prevention, disease control and marketing where resources were available.

The Great Plains States—Colorado, Kansas, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, North and South Dakota, Oklahoma, Texas and Wyoming—led all regions in field windbreak plantings with 3,630 miles during the year and a cumulative total of 30,584 miles.

Georgia farmers (working with soil conservation districts) led all states in tree planting with 223,568 acres during the year and a cumulative total of more than 2 million acres.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames Lester Graham, Loyd Roberson, Buck Smith, E. C. Whitmire, Jim Everett, D. L. Moreland, Howard Worthington, Gene Virden, Virgil Frierson, Bill Milljorn, Miss Bessie Mae Wheelless and the hostess.

Root Rot Common Plant Problem

Root knot disease occurs in all areas of Texas, but is more common in sandy or loam type soils. It is caused by several different kinds of microscopic nematodes or eelworms that live in the soil. This condition should not be confused with root nodules that form on roots.

Many people discover the disease on old plants at this time of year when replacing shrubs or trees that have died. Half-rotted knots about the size of marbles or smaller may be found on smaller roots of diseased shrubs or trees. Affected shrubs or trees may lack vigor and die slowly over a period of several months or years. A die-back condition of limbs may also be present.

Root Knot nematodes are commonly found on many ornamental plants including boxwood, begonia, clematis, coleus, dahlia, European elm, fig, gardenia, hollyhock, peach, peony, rose, sweet pea, violet and weeping mulberry.

Little Will Present Program Ft. Worth Phtogs

Little, Winters photographer, has been requested to present a program for the Professional Photographers Society of Ft. Worth at their January meeting.

He will discuss the making of quality pictures judged worthy of exhibition.

Member of the state board of photographers of the Texas Professional Photographers Association, Little has served in that capacity for six years. He was one of 40 photographers in Texas whose work was accepted for exhibition at Chicago last summer by the Professional Photographers of America.

During the past six years he and his wife have been awarded 74 awards for prints chosen by exhibition judges as worthy of exhibition in state, regional, and national exhibits. For the past two consecutive years they have received ribbons for top portraits in state exhibits.

Little is a graduate of Winona State University of Photography and attended an advanced course there last year.

His wife, Ruth, will assist him in presenting the program on Wednesday, January 18, in Fort Worth.

Social Security Rates Unchanged

Social Security taxes for 1961 are unchanged. According to B. Ellington, manager of the Anglo Social Security office, the rates for 1961 remain the same as in 1960.

The present tax rate for employees is 3 percent of the first $4,000 of wages paid. This means that the tax is withheld from the employee's wages and the employer contributes another 3 percent, making a total of 6 percent. Self-employed persons pay 4 1/2 percent on their earnings when filing income returns at the close of their tax year.

Ellington pointed out that the information is furnished at the time as there have been numerous inquiries as to the increased rates for 1961. He believes these rates are prompted by the fact that there has been an increase in the Unemployment Tax for persons desiring further information regarding social security are urged to contact the social security office.

In addition to the regular business meeting will include the presentation of a series of relations programs entitled "A Farmer," a film, and a presentation to be given by Dobbins and Hugo Vogelsang. The directors and staff of the Bureau have invited members and non-members, farmers and townspeople to attend this meeting of the organization which is designed to increase general membership and fund parties.

LIFT A CHILD

...and hold him above you.

You don't expect a child to stand toe to toe with a man. You lift a child . . . and hold him above you.

You don't expect a child to understand fully what is right and wrong.

You don't expect a child to comprehend every spiritual ideal.

You don't expect a child to sense instinctively the constant concern of God in his life.

You lift a child . . . you give him the opportunity in his Church and in his Christian home to gain moral and religious insights.

And you hold him above you . . . dedicating your own time and strength to your Church so that you and your child can find together the spiritual foundation on which men should build their lives.

Copyright 1960, Keltner Adv. Service, Strasburg, Va.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Dr. John L. Barron Honored On Birthday Jan. 8

It has been a tradition through the years for Dr. John L. Barron to give a party for his many friends on his birthday, but since the doctor has been in ill health for several months, the party was given in his honor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Veterans Urged To Complete Questionnaires

Veterans and dependents of deceased veterans on the Veterans Administration pension rolls are urged by the VA to complete and return promptly the income questionnaires they will receive in January.

The completed cards must be returned to the VA not later than January 31, or under law, payments must be discontinued. J. J. Mims, manager of VA Regional Office in Waco, said. The questionnaire — a tabulating card—together with complete instructions for filling it out will go to every disabled veteran, widow and orphan receiving pension payments from the VA, and to the parents of deceased veterans who are receiving dependency and indemnity compensation.

The cards and instructions will be enclosed with pension checks received on or about January 1, Mims said.

Pension is paid to an eligible veteran whose disability is not a result of his military service and to eligible survivors of wartime veterans.

The income questionnaires are not sent to disabled veterans receiving compensation payments since compensation payments based on disabilities due to military service are not affected by the recipients' income nor net worth.

Here's the VA's advice to receiving the questionnaires:

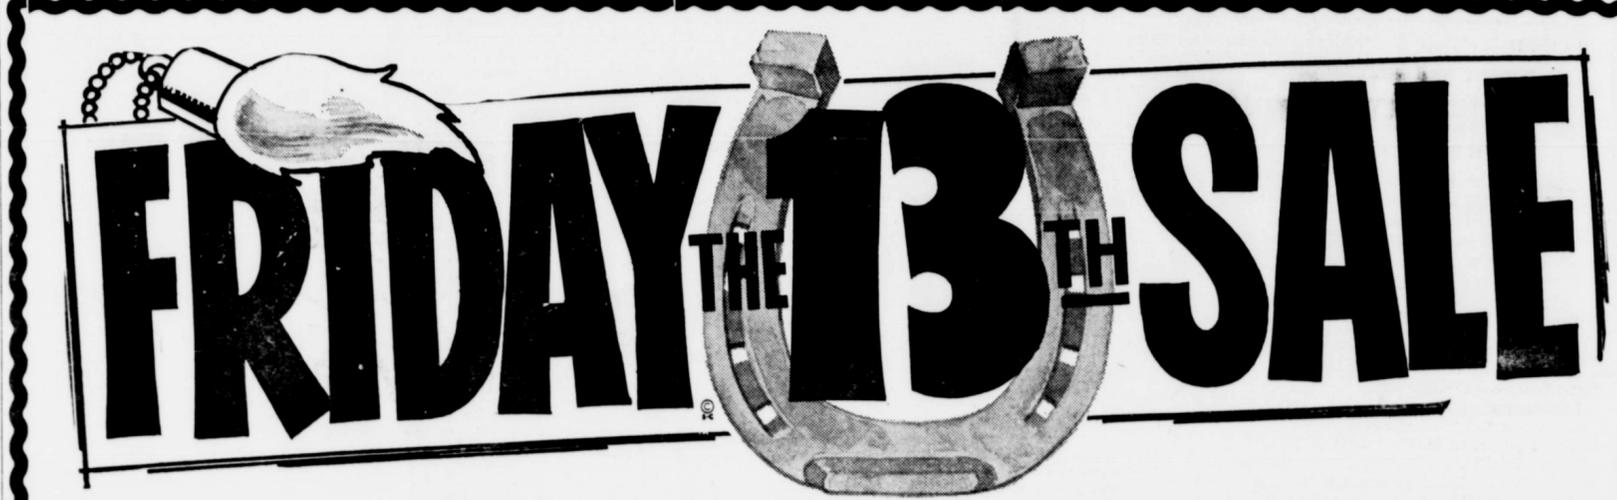

1. Fill out the card completely following the instructions carefully.

2. Do not bend, staple, pin, tear, or mutilate the card, is machine-processed when returned to the VA.

3. Sign the card. Unsigned must be returned for signature.

4. Return the card promptly.
