Roger Babson Says

Hobbies Make Good Investments, Provide Much Needed Relaxation

Babson Park, Mass. Some readers may think this subject is a little out of my line, but so many of my friends have died of heart disease this past winter that I can honestly call hobbies a real investment.

Purpose of Hobbies

A hobby is something which takes your mind off what is troubling you. You may have difficulty sleeping, or you may not have a good appetite, or you may be worried about the trend of the stock market or some unfortunate family affair. The cure is to get your mind on something else. An interesting hobby will do the job. Such a hobby, however, must be a "game" to you which will hold your interest, not a chore.

Postage Stamp Collections

One of the most popular hobbies indulged in by professional men—such as doctors, lawyers, ministers, and politicians—is stamp collecting; the late F. D. Roosevelt was a great stamp collector. It combines knowledge of geography with a possible chance for profit. Those who desire the latter, however, should confine themselves to stamps of one country, preferably those of the United States.

The same professional group turn also to painting—Sir Winston Churchill is a master in this. With a few painting lessons it is remarkable what an amateur can do. Now that "jazz" painting is in style an amateur may do better than a professional! You cannot think of anything else when you paint. It often keeps you out-of-doors, and your paintings are always in demand by friends and relatives.

Carpentry Work and Crafts

These require a workshop somewhere in the house and the purchase of some machinery, which any hardware store will provide. Some executives make furniture for the older members of the family and others make airplanes for the kids, who love to watch. Among other hobbies let me mention golf, photography, leathercraft, flower making, wood carving, Indian lore, shell collecting, rug making, bead work, glass etching, jewelry, weaving, mosaic panels, and carpentry of all kinds. My hobby is gardening—both vegetables and flowers.

Once each year "hobby shows" take place in all the larger cities. For information about these, write Hobby Show Office, 3443 South Hill Street, Los Angeles, California. Also, you might subscribe to a hobby magazine in which you would find advertisements relating to the special hobby you are following or considering. Just reading an issue of a hobby magazine may take your mind off your troubles.

Why Hobbies are Investments

Those who have bought stocks on borrowed money are inclined to get nervous and unsettled when the market goes against them. They are unable to sleep and cannot do their best work. They even buy more stocks when they should sell, and vice versa. These people are in desperate need of a hobby which would take their minds off the stock market and give them a clear judgment as to whether to buy, or sell, or just hold.

As a temporary short-cut to "peace and plenty," many such worried people take drugs called "tranquilizers." These drugs give only temporary relief; while a good hobby would be much more useful and non-habit-forming. Every brokerage office should have magazines on "hobbies" as well as the Wall Street Journal and similar papers on the stock market.

Every reader of this column should have a hobby. Executives and others who are to be retired at 65 years of age should have a hobby before the time of retirement. Otherwise, they will be left with nothing to do, which leads to deterioration and early death. One more thought:—If I were a young man looking for a "profession," I would sell hobbies.

CARD OF THANKS

My wife, Phil and Rex joins me in expressing our heartfelt thanks to those who were so kind and thoughtful to me while I was in the hospital and since I have returned home. Your flowers, gifts, and visits were deeply appreciated. P. L. Harrison. ITC

Local Girls Attend Scout Camp At Brownwood Lake

Camp Wood Lake, the Heart of Texas Girl Scout camp, closed one of its most successful seasons last week. Campers came from 16 of the 17 counties served by the Council and from several adjoining towns outside the Council.

Many new program activities were carried out at camp. For the first time campers could choose the interest group that they wanted to participate in for the week. Each interest group was set up in progressive steps and girls progressed according to their age and experience. Many new program practices were introduced to supplement the year round total education of the Girl Scout camper.

One of the aims of the camp was to give campers experience in the practice of democracy; the camp organization was such that small groups could plan and carry out their own programs through use of the patrol system. A counselor was in charge of each patrol of eight girls to help guide them in planning and carrying out their activities.

Unit activities included singing, interest groups, games, dramatics, hikes, cookouts, overnights, swimming, nature, crafts, boating, canoeing, and exploring the campsite. Over and above the regular activities, special events included a water festival, fireworks display, special flag raising ceremonies, award night, queen contest, Scouts' Owns, wide games, farewell campfire, and an all camp party each week.

The purpose of an established camp is to provide a climax to a girl's year in Girl Scout training, to give girls an opportunity to have fun, to learn about camp, and to meet Girl Scouts from all sections of the Council.

The Heart of Texas Girl Scout Council was able to add new facilities and to operate Camp Wood Lake this year primarily from cookie funds—money raised by the Scouts themselves.

Girls attending from Winters were: Mary Lou Wilkerson, Eileen Faubion, Sandra Crockett, Susan White and Theresa Ray Meyer.

Mayor Daniel Designates Farm Safety Week July 23-29, by Memorandum

Mayor Daniel, proclaimed by President as National Farm Safety Week in Texas by Prize Daniel. The official memorandum, the said, "The nation's economic progress and progress of agricultural population from farm work suffering, distress of life each year among families. Numerous farm accident-prevention program will be during this week by the Bureau, the Texas Ranch Safety Council, Agricultural Extension and the Texas Safety As-

"I urge all Texas farm families to increase their vigilance against needless accidents and further encourage interested organizations and individuals to participate in this program." President Calvin Pigg of the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council said the Council was cooperating with all interested organizations, agencies, groups and individuals to make the week's program as effective as possible. He added that plans in most counties for the observance of Farm Safety Week have been made and noted an increase in youth participation. This, he said, is especially gratifying since youth are often the victims of farm accidents. County extension agents and local 4-H adult leaders are given much of the credit for this

Mrs. J. W. Adcock Left Thursday For Kissingen, Germany

Mrs. J. W. Adcock, the former Lela Mae Guy, left Thursday for Kissingen, Germany where she will join her husband, Sp-4 J. W. Adcock, who has been stationed there with the army for the past two years.

She left Love Field Airport in Dallas Thursday and after a seven hour wait in New York, she boarded a plane for Frankfurt, Germany where her husband will meet her.

The couple was married April 15, in Wingate while Adcock was home on a month's leave. Mrs. Adcock graduated from Winters High School in May.

improvement. The Council is hopeful, Pigg said, that all citizens will cooperate and participate in the local observances, for each is dependent upon agriculture for many of the necessities of life.

"A Breath of Scandal"

All the charm, the romance, the gaiety and the spice of pre-World War I Vienna background the story of Paramount's Technicolor comedy "A Breath of Scandal," starring Sophia Loren, John Gavin and Maurice Chevalier, which bows in to town beginning Sunday and Monday at the Fiesta Drive In Theatre. Angela Lansbury heads a fine supporting cast.

Based on the celebrated play by Ferenc Molnar called "Olympia," this frothy tale of a merry widow-Viennese princess and a brash, young American who fall in love should be as welcome as a breath of spring in these difficult days of world tension. In a vein as light hearted as the Viennese waltzes that highlight it, "A Breath of Scandal" is set in the Court of the Emperor Franz Joseph in Vienna from which the headstrong Princess Olympia has been banished for her scandalous behavior. Olympia, a beautiful, young widow, is bored with her exile in the country and amuses herself by flirting with a good-looking American who is enroute to Vienna on business. The flirtation develops into love, which is complicated by Olympia's involvement with a prince of the Emperor's choosing. However, as any movie fan worth his salt must know, love and the American triumph in the end.

Making the Start is Important

Little streams unite in making a larger stream; in time there is a river which grows even larger as other rivers are absorbed as it makes its way to the sea.

Do not neglect your banking relationship even though your initial contact may be small. It is not the amount but the fact that we are traveling in the right direction which is important. If the account is one of deposits and checks, the reserve will grow even larger through future months and years if additions are made in excess of withdrawals. Most of the large estates grew from small beginnings. Our bank has provided a suitable place for small beginnings and we take pride in seeing our customers succeed and always we want to be helpful.

Joyce Taylor and David Janssen are held captive by outlaw Jimmy Johnson in this scene from "Ring of Fire," new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer story of a man hunt, filmed in color on locations in the Pacific Northwest, the picture is highlighted by such thrilling episodes as a spectacular forest fire and the toppling of a locomotive and coaches from a 200-foot high trestle into a raging river.

MOVIES

"The Night Fighters" That most exciting, romantic, bitter and violent of all lost causes—the anti-British terrorist activities of the Irish Republican Army—forms the background for "The Night Fighters," starring Robert Mitchum and opening on Saturday only at the State Theatre through United Artists release.

Filmed in its entirety on location in Ireland, "The Night Fighters" is an adaptation of a book-of-the Month Club novel by Arthur Roth.

Heading the cast of "The Night Fighters," in addition to Mitchum, are Dan O'Herlihy, Anne Heywood, Cyril Cusack, Richard Harris, Ni-all MacGinnis and Marianne Benet. A D. R. M.-Raymond Stross presentation, the film was produced by Raymond Stross and directed by Tay Garnett. Bob Campbell adapted the novel to the screen, and the chief cameraman was Stephen Dade.

Robert Mitchum, playing an Irish gunman of the terrorist I. R. A. might have been born to his role. The lidded scornful eyes, the languid air of desperation, the built-in recklessness, the shoulders that might have been tailored to the wearing of a trenchcoat—these are all the perfect accoutrements of the I. R. A. gunman. That Mitchum was born in Bridgeport, Conn., and that there is a scarcity of Celtic ancestors in his family tree is beside the point.

"Where the Hot Wind Blows" The explosive talents of Gina Lollobrigida and Yves Montand, two of the screen's most exciting personalities, merge in one of the year's most provocative dramas, "Where the Hot Wind Blows," opening Sunday afternoon only at the State Theatre.

Filmed in Sicily, this Joseph E. Levine presentation dramatically traces the story of a small fishing village and its inhabitants, the most powerful of which, Brigante, as played by Montand, holds nothing sacred but his own personal power. His strong arm hold on Porto Manacore applies to all except the village's untamed beauty, Marietta, portrayed by Miss Lollobrigida, who refuses to be controlled by any man.

Montand, one of the entertainment world's most versatile performers, brings to life the Brigante character made famous by author Roger Vailland in his best-selling novel, "The Law," which won France's highest literary honor, the Prix Goncourt, and was a Book-of-the-Month selection in this country. An international singing favorite who rocketed to fame via the song and dance route in France following the end of World War II, Montand received worldwide acclaim for his dramatic performance in "Wages of Fear," which prompted Producer Bar to cast him in the lusty role of the evil Brigante.

"Ring of Fire" Topping even such of their thrillers as "Cry Terror!" and "The Last Voyage," the unique husband-and-wife producing team of Andrew and Virginia Store have come up with a new suspense-spellbinder, "Ring of Fire," filmed in Metrocolor entirely on locations in the vast forest country of Washington and Oregon, with its tense plot of a manhunt climaxed by a spectacular forest fire and coming to the Fiesta Drive In Theatre Friday and Saturday nights.

Starring in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer release are David Janssen, known to millions of TV viewers as "Richard Diamond, Private Eye;" Joyce Taylor, glamorous screen newcomer who scored in "Atlantis, the Lost Continent;" and Frank Gorshin.

Featured are Joel Marston, James Johnson, Ron Myron and Marshall Kent. In "Ring of Fire" Miss Taylor is cast as Bobbie Adams, a wayward girl who has become involv-

Three FFA Members To Receive Lone Star Farmer Degree

Three members of the Winters Chapter of the Future Farmers of America will receive their Lone Star Farmer Degrees this week in Dallas. The boys, all 1961 graduates of Winters High, receiving the degrees are Mike Priddy, Jim Everett and Jerry Don Frierson. They were all outstanding students, not only in Vocational Agriculture, but in other fields as well. The Lone Star Farmer Degree is the highest award made by the Future Farmers of America Association on the state level and is a coveted honor.

Mike had a very outstanding program and earlier this year was named Star Farmer of the Coleman District FFA. He was a candidate for Area IV Star Farmer. His supervised farming program included the following: 32 head of Dorset Breeding Sheep, Quarter Horses, Steers for Beef Production, Oats for Grain, and Cotton for Lint Production. Mike was also an excellent feeder of mutton show lambs. He won many honors with his sheep, his top honor being that of the Champion Dorset Ram at Chicago in 1958. He had numerous champions at Houston, Fort Worth and Abilene Fat Stock Shows. He was named outstanding feeder and chapter worker for the year 1958-59. He also participated in leadership activities. He was a member of Chapter Conducting, Wool Judging and Livestock Judging Teams. While serving as president of the Winters Chapter for the year 1960-61, he was also president of his senior class. At the present time Mike is farming and ranching with his Dad, Mr. J. F. Priddy, Jr. of Winters.

Jim Everett's program was also an excellent one. It was built around Registered Quarter Horses. He had some of the top horses in this area. Other than his horse breeding program, he had enterprises including fine wool ewes for breeding and wool production, sow for pig production, and 35 cows for calf production. Jim's leadership record was quite enviable, he was also a member of chapter conducting and livestock judging teams. An outstanding chapter worker and officer, he was a member of the National Honor Society and of the Quill and Scroll. Jim is now engaged and assisting in the operation of his father's, Robert Everett, and his grandmother's ranch at Valentine. He plans to attend Sul Ross College this fall.

Jerry Don Frierson's supervised farming program included enterprises of Corriedale Breeding Sheep, Cotton for lint production, lambs for mutton production, oats for grain and cane for forage production. Jerry did an outstanding job of feeding and fitting weathers and won numerous honors with his breeding sheep. He was also a member of chapter conducting, wool judging and livestock judging teams. The livestock team on which he served won first in Area last year at Stephenville and qualified for the State Contest at A and M College. He was named outstanding feeder this year in the Winters Chapter. Jerry plans to attend college this fall at either Texas Tech or San Angelo Junior College.

The boys will be accompanied to Dallas by their advisor, Leland D. Robinson.

Interest High In National Stubble Mulch Contest

Interest is high in the first National Stubble Mulch Contest. July 15 was the deadline for out-of-state entries, and many have been received by the National Stubble Mulch Committee, reports Jack Barton, extension soil and water conservation specialist. These entries, the first from out-of-state, are Fred A. Eastman of Box 135, Randlette, Oklahoma and H. O. Fitzsimmons, 416 South High, Pratt, Kansas.

Requests for additional information about rules, regulations and entry forms have been coming in at a fast pace. Individuals and organizations from New Mexico, Colorado, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska and South Dakota have contacted the National Committee for entry blanks, Barton says. Stubble mulching has long been associated with the grain fields of the Great Plains, however the principle applies to the management of residues from any crop. The idea of stubble mulch plowing is to plow in such a way so the crop residue is left on or near the soil surface.

Good stubble mulch plowing does several things: leaves crop residue near the surface; helps prevent the formation of compacted layers; controls weeds; helps hold the soil in place and permits more water to enter the soil profile. Residue management is a vital part of any conservation program for any section of the United States. Stubble mulch plowing is a method of managing crop residues, points out Barton.

Persons interested in competing for the National Stubble Mulch Championship should contact Earl Sargent, National Stubble Mulching Contest, P. O. Box 1860, Wichita Falls, Texas or the state extension conservationist. In Texas, Barton says, local county agricultural agents can also supply information on the contest.

RETURNED HOME
Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Baker returned home recently from Abilene where they visited with their granddaughter, Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Cooper. Ralph is the pastor of the Abbott and Vaughan Methodist Churches. They also attended the Baker reunion held July 10-11 at Cleburne Park. Eighty-eight members of the family attended. The family of Mrs. Baker met July 15-16 at Wilkie Harbor at Lake Whitney. Both groups will meet at the same place next year.

FROM HOUSTON
Jeannetta Faye Roper of Houston is visiting in the home of her grandmother, Mrs. S. R. Leslie and Mr. Leslie.

Tax Question Has Narrowed Down To: What Kind of Sales Tax For Texas?

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

After years of tax argument in Texas, debate now seems to have narrowed down to one question.

It is whether to have a sales tax on specified items or one on all but specified items.

First is known as the Pennsylvania-type sales tax. It is favored by Governor Price Daniel as a means of raising $303,000,000 of the $360,000,000 he feels is needed. It would list the items on which a 2 per cent sales tax would be levied. Goal would be to cover all items selling for 50 cents or more except food to be eaten at home, prescription drugs, clothing costing less than $10, feed, seed, fertilizer, books, farm machinery, livestock and gas and electricity used in manufacturing.

Other approach would be a bill like the Senate passed last session. It does not attempt to list all the items to be taxed but applies to everything except the items exempted, including the usual groceries, drugs, farm needs.

Aim of both bills is the same: to raise a lot of money with a lot of retail sales taxes. There is no serious attempt to raise the bulk of the needed money by any other means than retail sales taxes.

To some it might seem a Tweedle De-Tweedle Dum choice. But not to Governor Daniel and to many legislators. A sales tax that applies to everything except exempt items is, in the governor's eyes, a "general sales tax" against which he is dead set.

Objectors to the Pennsylvania tax contend it would be one long pain in the neck, both for state tax collectors and retail merchants, to keep up with what is in the long, long list and what isn't.

Too, they point out that new products are constantly coming on the market and would be tax-free. Atty. Gen. Will Wilson appeared at the hearing as one of the critics of the Daniel (Pennsylvania) plan.

IN THE MILL

Legislature is moving swiftly in its short session, trying to avoid re-ploughing the same ground covered on tax bills last session.

Among revenue raising measures under consideration are these: Governor's Package Bill, by Rep. Charles Ballman of Borger. This would include the Pennsylvania-type 2 per cent sales tax, a provision for a minimum levy of 1 cent per 1,000 cubic feet on gas, a two-factor franchise tax on interstate corporations, a 50 per cent increase in drivers' license fees, a transfer of that portion of gasoline taxes allocated for school at the end of August each year and a leveling of the tax on coin-operated machines at $10 each per year.

Hinson Package Bill, by Rep. George Hinson of Mineola, frequent sponsor of measures favored by the governor. Hinson's bill would include a sales tax on purchases of $5 or more, a corporate income tax, real estate transfer tax, a severance beneficiary tax on natural gas, a utilities tax and a 1 per cent transfer from the permanent school fund. Estimated yield: $368,000,000.

Gas Tax Bill, by Rep. Bob Eckhardt of Houston. Bill is designed to insure that the state would collect a minimum tax of 1 cent on each 1,000 cubic feet of Texas gas. If the present 7 per cent gas production tax did not supply it, the purchaser would have to pay the difference. Estimated yield: $30 million. It is included in the Ballman bill.

Selective Excise Tax, by Rep. Ben Atwell of Dallas. It is similar to the Pennsylvania tax, also, and would yield an estimated $355 million.

Escheat Bill, by Rep. Charles Hughes of Sherman. This is the well-worn proposal to provide enforcement procedures so that abandoned property, bank accounts, etc., would go to the state.

BATTLE OF THE POLLS

Two citizens groups are engaged in a duel of poll taking, each trying to demonstrate more public support for its tax plan.

Citizens for a Sales Tax announced that of 11,000 persons replying to its post card poll, 83.6 per cent favored a retail sales tax.

Citizens for Fair Taxation, a group which supports Governor Daniel's tax program, immediately declared that the CST poll was heavily weighted with Chamber of Commerce members and not a true reflection of public sentiment.

Citizens for Fair Taxation is at work on a poll of its own.

SPENDING BILLS PUSHED
A general appropriations bill and a bill to raise teachers salaries are moving through both houses with little re-hashing. Senate quickly approved a two-year appropriations bill calling for spending of $2,469,000. It is essentially the same as the Senate appropriations bill in the regular session.

Both Senate and House education committees approved bills that would give public school teachers an across-the-board raise of $810 a year. House passed the teachers' bill on the floor, 141 to 1. Senate committee also approved education bills providing for educational films, driver education, assistant principals for larger schools, and five days sick leave a year for teachers.

MONEY NEEDS UPPEP

State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert had a new revenue forecast for legislators at the beginning of the session that showed an expected revenue from existing sources at $24,000,000 less than the January forecast.

Part of the difference between the old and new forecasts was due to some $6,000,000 in additional school and welfare payments authorized during the regular session. Most of the rest of the drop was attributed to a decline in revenue from auto sales taxes and franchise taxes.

Calvert also estimated that the general fund deficit at the end of the fiscal year Aug. 31 will be $64,000,000. This is $1,000,000 more than his January prediction.

LOBBY REGULATIONS OFFERED

At Governor Daniel's suggestion, a bill to impose further lobby controls has been introduced. Daniel has consistently blamed "lobby interference" for the regular session to agree on a tax plan.

Five House members are co-sponsors of a bill that would require that all contributions of $50 or more to be used to influence legislation be reported. It would also prohibit lobbyists from being on the floor of House or Senate during sessions or calling members off the floor during debate.

Sen. A. R. Schwartz of Galveston has said he will sponsor a companion measure in the Senate.

INSURANCE INQUIRY SET

House has authorized a special five-member committee to look into the reasonableness of a 15 per cent raise in auto insurance rates recently ordered by the State Board of Insurance.

Rep. Will Smith of Beaumont sponsored the resolution to set up the investigation.

Resolution expressed concern that the higher rate might cause many drivers to drop their auto insurance and thus become unable to pay for accident damage.

TEACHER TRAINING HIT

Member of the Commission on Higher Education looked over a 140-page report on teacher education courses being offered in state colleges and decided that there was too much folderol.

A number of legislators also have been critical in recent months, both of the content and the amount of time spent on teaching method courses. State Board of Education has recently reduced the number of method courses required for teacher certification. Commission on Higher Education members expressed hope that the college administrators could and would do for themselves the necessary pruning in education course offerings.

New Social Security Change Effective For Men During August

Beginning for the month of August, men can take their social security retirement insurance as early as age 62, according to District Manager Floyd B. Ellington, of the Social Security Administration.

"This change in the law makes it possible for those who have been forced into early retirement because of unemployment or poor health to draw their social security benefits before age 65. Dependents' benefits can also be paid to a retired worker's child under 18 or disabled, and to his wife while she has the care of such a child or when she reaches age 62."

A worker who starts his payments at age 62 will get only 80 percent as much as he would get if he waits until 65, Ellington explained. The amount is not later increased when he reaches 65. The reduction amounts to exactly five ninths of 1 percent for each month the worker is under age 65.

On the average, the total amount received for the rest of his life will be the same whether a worker takes reduced payments before 65 or if he waits for the higher payments to begin after he is 65.

Dependent husbands or widowers of women workers as well as dependent parents of deceased workers can also receive payments as early as 62, he added.

Applications under these provisions may be filed now. More information about these and other changes in the law can be secured from the Social Security Administration, 204 Continental Building, San Angelo, Texas.

Annual Barbecue of Home Town Talk— Runnels County FB Set For August 24

Date for the annual barbecue and Queen Contest, sponsored by the Runnels County Farm Bureau has been set for August 24, at 6:00 p.m. at the Ballinger City Park, according to B. B. Campbell of Hatchell, second vice president of the county organization and chairman of the barbecue committee.

Mr. Campbell stated that bids are being taken for the preparation of the menu of real Western style open pit barbecue with all the trimmings. The annual event has grown from a small crowd of 175 in 1950 to approximately 2000 in 1960.

Last year's crowd included national and state representatives members of joining counties, citizens and members of the TFB association.

Highlight of the barbecue each year is the queen contest which draws entries of lovely and talented farm and ranch girls from all the communities of the county. Miss Frances Straach of Miles will forfeit her crown won in 1960, to some lucky lady who will represent Runnels County FB at the district contest to follow the county event.

The girls are judged on poise, grace, charm, vivaciousness and judges will be from out of the county. To be eligible to enter the FB contest a young lady need only to be the daughter, or sister of a Farm Bureau member actively engaged in agriculture. She must be single and between the ages of 16 and 22.

Awards will be presented on the county level, and the new queen will receive an expense-paid trip to the district contest where she will compete for that title and eligibility to compete on the state level.

Farm Trailer License Plates Now On Sale

New license plates for farm trailers not used for hire are now available, according to Bob A. Lilly, Texas Farm Bureau legislative director.

Lilly said the Department of Public Safety has advised him that the $5.00 license tags are now in county tax collectors' offices across the state. Owners of farm trailers of between 4,000 and 10,000 pounds gross weight must have these tags displayed on their trailers in accordance with a new law passed during the regular session of the 57th Legislature. The law also provides a 30 m.p.h. speed limit, but exempts trailers up to 10,000 pounds gross from brake requirements.

The DPS indicated that it will give trailer owners a "reasonable" period of time to secure the tags before strict enforcement begins, Lilly said. The law became effective with the Governor's signing of House Bill 1082, the farm trailer bill, on May 29, but the new tags were not available until just recently.

Lilly said that the Texas Farm Bureau has been attempting to secure passage of a farm trailer law for several years. He explained that the $5.00 license cost was a compromise to forestall a veto of the bill.

The TFB legislative director said that the new law was necessary to permit farmers to continue using their trailers to haul farm products. The DPS had warned that it was planning to begin strict enforcement of trailer licensing laws if a special farm trailer law were not enacted this year. Before the new law was passed, farmers were required by law to obtain commercial licenses for trailers over 4,000 pounds gross weight even though they normally use their trailers for only a few weeks each year.

Farmers who fail to obtain tags will be subject to a fine and also must immediately register their trailer as a commercial trailer and obtain a commercial license plate. A commercial license for a 10,000 pound trailer would cost $55.00.

RETURNED HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sneed have returned home from a vacation trip to California. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reid at Bakersfield, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Claxton and Junior at Modesto, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Broyles in Kern. They also visited Marine Land, Knott berry farm and made a sight seeing tour of Los Angeles and San Francisco.

RETURNED TO CALIF.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Cothran left Monday for the return trip to Westmoreland, California after a two weeks visit with her mother, Mrs. Cora White and other relatives in Winters and Ballinger. Members of the family gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cummings Sunday to honor the California visitors.

It is one of the most beautiful compensations of life that no man can sincerely try to help another without helping himself.—R. W. Emerson.

Camp Cook Charlie Hedrick really knows his onions when it comes to boiling coffee. Figure we had about a gallon of his coffee.

Face-lifting continues in downtown Winters. Fred Young at the Economy Food Store has painted the front of his place, and is repairing and repainting the front of his indoor parking annex. Over on Main Street, the front of the Surplus Store has been remodeled. Bill Bell, just a while ago, built an addition on Bell's Grocery on East Truett, adding several feet of floor space.

Some of those who may be disappointed over the outcome of the Cuban tractor blackmail deal hatched by Castro may rest assured that the Caribbean Commies are getting their share of the American dollar, regardless. The U. N. made an allotment of $1.1 million to Castro to "increase the Cuban ability to produce food." Under protest of the U. S. representative, the United States puts up 40 percent of that amount, or $440,000. This money is probably being used for planting, all right, but not sugar cane—it's probably being used to plant sites for ICBMs.

We just heard it: "He's such a liar, if he should happen to tell the truth, he'd try to lie his way out of it!"

Mrs. Stanley Walker of the Lampasas area, according to the "This Is West Texas" column in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, says that her section of the country is a haven of non-conformists: They raise cows on the Beehouse, and bees on the Cowhouse.

The proponents of the federal aid to education drive have resorted to threats to get their bill down the throats of some reluctant congressmen. They are threatening to stop federal money from going to schools which have been filled by children of federal employees and servicemen, if their pet education aid bill is not passed.

This is just an example of what will happen if control of our schools gets out of the hands of local people. And, make no mistake about it, once federal money starts coming in, the controls must of necessity come along. Our teachers will be told by Washington bureaucrats what they must teach, and how they must teach it.

The public is invited to attend.

July Plentiful Foods List Is Released

Food buyers who shop the Plentiful Foods Route have delectable July eating in store for them, reports the Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A. and M. College. The eight foods on the USDA's Plentiful Foods List are right in spirit with the month—July 4th, summer picnics and Midsummer Turkey Time.

Turkeys and fresh peaches are the featured items. They are supported by a refreshing array of summer vegetables, fresh plums, watermelons, cantaloupes, eggs and shrimp. All will be plentiful throughout July.

These items have been selected by the USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service because supplies at Texas markets are expected to exceed normal demands. The list provides a good shopping guide, and consumers who buy and serve these items often stand to eat better and save more.

Turkeys of all sizes are plentiful. July marketings are expected to be 35 or 40 percent larger than a year ago. Storage stocks on May 1 were a record high. Liberal peach supplies from many Southern States and California will hit markets in July. Southeastern growers expect the largest crop since 1947.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincerest thanks to the many friends who sent flowers, cards and for the visits while I was in the hospital in San Angelo. My family joins me in expressing our appreciation to each of you and especially to the Rev. Ray Elliott for his visit. Mrs. Willis Poe.
