HOME TOWN Talk

Even though the tv weather forecasters had said something about more weather on the way, the norther which hit Winters about 4:30 Wednesday morning took a lot of us by surprise. At the time the high winds hit, the temperature was at 40 degrees—by 8 a. m., the mercury had slipped to 25, and fine snow and mist blew in spasms all Wednesday morning.

This has been an unusual winter for North Runnels County; seems that no one hereabouts can remember when the country has ever been as wet as it is right now, with all fields wet and water-filled terraces the common thing.

Wednesday's norther was on the 50th anniversary of another norther and storm, according to at least two Winters citizens.

February 21! It was on Feb. 21, 1918, say Mrs. T. V. Jennings and Fred Young, that this area was hit by a real old blue norther; plenty of snow, mixed with blowing sand; a vicious storm. Fred was in school at the time the storm hit, he says. His class had been invited down to Mrs. Jennings' first grade room to see a George Washington's birthday performance. When the blue norther hit, day became as night, with sand and snow covering the sun, and the temperature skidding.

Fred says that big drifts of snow mixed with sand piled up around the countryside to the top of the fences. He was living in the Franklin community at the time, and as the snow-sand drifts covered a fence he watched over a fence as if it wasn't there—there was so much sand mixed with the snow the animal found sure footing. It got so cold during that spell, he said, the block of a Chevrolet the Young kids drove to school burst.

Marvin Onken lives south of town about five miles. He drives in to Winters every day to his business, and reportedly makes several trips daily back out home. The road he travels to and from home is US 83, now being rebuilt. The wet weather (Continued on page 8)

Blizzardettes Hit Anson, Now To Meet Hamlin

The Winters Blizzardettes defeated Anson 50-45 in the first game of playoffs to determine the district representative in bi-district play. The game was played in McMurry Indian gym Tuesday night before a near capacity crowd.

The victory moves the Blizzardettes into the final play-off round against Hamlin. The game will be played in Abilene Friday at 7:30 at Cooper High School gymnasium in Abilene.

In moving to a must victory the Blizzardettes dominated the game from the opening whistle. Jumping to an early lead they led at halftime 28-19. The lead was stretched to 13 points in the third quarter with the Blizzardettes ending the frame leading by 9. A cold four minutes in the fourth quarter by Winters saw Anson move within four points. Clutch shooting by Dora Snell, Eileen Faubion from the field and Carla Walker from the foul line sent the Blizzardettes home with the win.

Scoring for the Blizzardettes were Eileen Faubion with 20 points, Carla Walker with 18, and Dora Snell with 12. Fine defensive work was turned in by guards Mary Lynn Pritchard, Babs Tatum, and Judy McNeill.

CHURCH OF CHRIST FELLOWSHIP BUILDING

Fellowship Building Open House Sunday Afternoon

The Main Street Church of Christ in Winters has completed construction of a fellowship building at 108 East Pierce Street, just east of the main church building, and will hold open house activities there Sunday, February 25, from 2 to 5 p. m.

The building, containing 2340 square feet, was constructed at a cost of $17,000. C. W. Wade of Winters was the contractor.

Glenn Gray is minister of the Main Street Church of Christ.

The new fellowship building is designed for a variety of uses such as dinners, receptions, Bible classes, and special meetings. Activities which are scheduled on a regular basis are a Men's Sunday morning Bible class, Tuesday morning Ladies' Bible class, and Sunday evening Training class for the young people.

Also included in the facility is a bedroom and bath to accommodate visiting preachers or others who might be working with the congregation.

Other activities planned by the church for Sunday include an area-wide Fourth Sunday Singing, when the Winters congregation will be host. The singing is scheduled for 3 to 4 p. m. The public is invited.

Winters Future Farmer Chapter Joins In Celebrating National F. F. A. Week

Vocational agriculture students in Winters High School join Future Farmers of America members throughout the nation in activities to focus attention on the importance of agriculture during National FFA Week, February 17-24.

"Challenging Youth In Agriculture" is this year's FFA Week theme. The message that these young agriculturists are trying to impart to the nation is simple. They seek to inform the public of the importance of the agricultural industry to America and to the world, the value of good citizenship development, and the role of Future Farmers of America in helping meet the challenges in world food production that faces America today.

"Because of the many predictions of world hunger in the future, many people have stopped listening," said Jimmy Smith, vocational agriculture teacher and FFA advisor in the Winters school. "Now suddenly, the future is here! For the past seven years, our world has not been able to grow as much food as it has eaten. And, finally the bottomless U. S. surpluses have melted away."

"Let us also point out," he added, "that it is estimated that the world as a whole will need 50 percent more food just two decades from now. Meeting these challenges will be in the hands of young agriculturists being trained and developed in such organizations as the FFA." Membership in the FFA is made up of students of vocational agriculture in high school. The organization's activities are designed to help develop rural leadership and good citizenship and to stimulate the students to better achievement in their study and work toward successful establishment in farming and other agricultural occupations.

The Winters FFA Chapter has 41 members. Officers are: Randy Sneed, president; Jim Morrow, vice president; Johnny Pritchard, secretary; David Carroll, treasurer; Gary Antille, sentinel; and Dennis McBeth, reporter.

The national FFA organization has approximately 450,000 members, with 9,000 local chapters in the 50 states and Puerto Rico. The organization is in its 39th year in Texas, with over 46,000 members in 968 high schools in Texas. The Winters chapter holds the No. 1 Texas chapter.

The week of George Washington's birthday is chosen each year for the observance of National FFA Week. Although usually recognized as a Revolutionary War general and our first President, Washington's first love was the farm. He was one of the first in the nation to practice contour planting, crop rotation, fertilization, and other soil conservation and improvement methods.

Chaplain George B. Hummer, York, Pa.; Corporal Thomas W. Baker, Galveston; Corporal Thomas Winters; Lance Corporal Jerry G. Lambert, Hubbard; Miss Betty Bess, San Patricio County Fair Queen, Sinton; Corporal Donald Nugent, Dallas; and Sergeant Thomas H. Hewitt, Midland. The group of veterans were treated to a steak dinner and taken on a tour of agricultural exhibits at the show.

Pat Pritchard Asks Re-Election As Commissioner

To the people of Precinct No. 3, Runnels County:

I would like to take this opportunity to ask for re-election as your County Commissioner. I have enjoyed serving you in the past. I have tried to be the best of my ability to do a good job. I feel that my past experience will enable me to do a better job in the future.

I have enjoyed my association at the County court house very much and in helping with the county government.

The men a County Commissioner has working with him or for him can be a great asset to the precinct and to the county. I believe we have those men. They are fine men and good workers.

We have enjoyed more than the state average of miles of good farm-to-market roads in Runnels County.

My wife and I have five children and three grandchildren. Pat, Jr., and his wife live in San Angelo and have a 10-months old baby girl, Marcene and her husband live in Odessa and have two small boys. Mary Lynn is a senior in Winters High School. Joe is a freshman in Winters High School. Martha is a fifth grader at Wingate.

I plan to see each of you before the May 4th primary. Should I miss anyone, I assure you it will not be intentional.

Sincerely,
Pat Pritchard Sr.

Mansell Bros. To Present Special Program Tuesday

Farming Frontiers '68, a new program devoted to the business of farming, will be held here Tuesday, February 27, it has been announced.

The program, featuring motion pictures about the electronic revolution in agriculture, new crop varieties, agricultural research discoveries and new livestock developments, will be sponsored by Mansell Bros., local John Deere farm machinery dealers.

In addition to the program featuring money-making ideas for farmers, other movies will feature TV Newscaster Chet Huntley introducing new farm equipment that will be available for 1968 and a film about Japan, a rapidly growing customer for North American farm exports.

G. W. Sneed, manager for Mansell Bros., said the program will present a number of ideas to help farmers improve the efficiency of their operations. He said a tractor roll-guard with safety canopy and seat belts and other prizes will be awarded at the meeting.

The program will be held at the State Theatre Tuesday, February 27, at 7:30 p. m. Guest speaker will be W. R. (Buddy) Gray of the county ASCS office.

Three Candidates Now For Council

W. S. (Bill) Byrns announced Tuesday as a candidate for Alderman in the city election set for Saturday, April 6.

Byrns' signing was the third for the three vacancies which will occur on the City Council this year. W. L. (Bill) Bean and Homer Hodge, incumbent alderman, had announced last week they will seek re-election to the Council.

Deadline for signing as a candidate in the April 6 election will be 30 days prior to the election.

For the first time this year, the election will be held on a Saturday, as dictated by the new election law which was passed by the Texas State Legislature last year. Prior to this, city elections were held on the first Tuesday of April each year. The new date for city elections will coincide with school elections, and will, in some instances, allow both elections to be held at the same place and with the use of the same election officials. This was said to be the intent of the Legislature when the law was passed.

Election to name two members to the board of trustees of the Winters Independent School District has been called for April 6, also. The school election will be held in the Chamber of Commerce building in Winters, while the City Election will be held at the city fire station.

Car Registration Has Been Slow In Winters Office

Registration of automobiles and other vehicles required to have 1968 license tags has been slow, according to Mrs. Ted Meyer, deputy in the Winters office of the Runnels County Tax Assessor-Collector.

Mrs. Meyer said that her office had issued about 250 passenger car tags, about 50 commercial vehicle tags, and about 200 farm vehicle tags. Few trailers have been registered, she said.

The deputy collector reminded all vehicle owners that April 1 is the deadline for installation of new 1968 tags, and urged that everyone register their vehicles early in order to avoid the last minute rush.

Blizzardettes Defeat Anson Girls To Earn Share Of District Crown

Winters Blizzardettes won a must game from Anson Friday night in Anson by the score of 59-51 to win a share of the district championship. The crown is shared with Anson and Hamlin. In the game the Blizzardettes controlled the opening tip-off and moved to a fast six points before the Anson girls could get the ball into their end of the court. So complete was the early domination of the game by Winters that at one time in the first quarter the score stood 16-3 in favor of the Blizzardettes.

The Blizzardettes played perhaps their finest game of the season as they threw the district race into a snarl with their victory. Outstanding play by the forwards and near letter-perfect defensive work by the guards was more than Anson could overcome.

Scoring for the Blizzardettes were Carla Walker with 30 points, Eileen Faubion with 17, and Dora Snell with 12 as they hit for 50 per cent of their shots from the field. Guards Mary Lynn Pritchard, Babs Tatum, and Judy McNeill did their usual fine job in the backcourt.

The three-way tie for the championship necessitated a play-off to decide who would represent the district in bi-district competition. The three teams drew to determine who would play whom. Hamlin drew a bye. Winters and Anson were set off to play the first game of the play-off. The winner of this game will play Hamlin to determine the district representative who will play Alpine in bi-district.

Blizzardettes finished regular season play with a 19-5 won-loss record with two of the losses coming in district play against Hamlin and Anson. Leading the scoring were Dora Snell with 400 points in 23 games for a game average of 17.4; Carla Walker with 386 points in 24 games for an average of 16.1; and Eileen Faubion with 341 points in 24 games for an average of 14.2.

$154,500 Spent On Construction In Winters During Past Year

A good barometer of the economic conditions and growth factors in a given community is the rate of residential and commercial construction. A stagnated area will show little if any new construction of any type, while a steady rate of construction is a reflection of a progressive community.

In Winters, a confident attitude toward the future of the community is displayed in the amount of money which has been spent during the past year in permanent construction, in addition to repairs and additions of both residential and commercial structures.

During the past year, according to information obtained from the office of the City Secretary, cost of both types of construction and permanent repairs to existing structures, amounted to $154,500. Of this amount $47,000 was for new residential buildings.

Commercial construction accounted for a whopping $81,000 during the reported year. This included construction of a new building to house additional telephone equipment, an addition to Merrill Rest Home, added structures at Alderman-Cave Milling and Grain Co., a new educational building for the Church of Christ, and a new dental clinic building under construction for Dr. T. L. Russell.

No records can be obtained on the number of existing commercial and residential buildings which have undergone extensive permanent repair or inside changes, but the amount spent in the past year in this area has been estimated at a good many thousands of dollars.

While this activity in the building industry could not be determined in the "boom" category, it is sufficient to say that it has been steady and evidence of a wholesome confidence in the future of the town.

Chicken in a Paper Bag:

Do you save brown bags? Most homemakers do, for they find so many uses for this paperware. Have you ever tried cooking in a brown paper bag? Try it with a broiler or fryer, and you'll see why this is a favorite method of preparing chicken in the bayou country of Louisiana.

Chicken-in-a-bag meals are very economical now, for broilers are plentiful; farm prices promise very attractive retail prices.

Split a ready-to-cook bird in half. Brush the inside and outside with butter. Then sprinkle with a mixture of these seasonings: Celery salt, onion salt, garlic salt, pepper and paprika.

Place in a heavy brown paper bag, allowing plenty of room for both halves of the chicken, and twist shut. Cook on a rack in a 400 degree oven for about an hour and fifteen minutes. And don't worry—the bag won't burn. You can forget about your chicken, until the cooking time is up, for it will turn out succulent and tender. It's a good precaution to place a pan on a lower rack in the oven to catch any drippings from the chicken. Bring the chicken to the table in the paper bag. Make a little ceremony of cutting the paper away from the top with some kitchen scissors so you can carve the bird easily at the table. Serve the chicken with slices of lemon and orange. What color the citrus slices add to the plate and how they enhance the delicate flavor of the chicken!

Fashion looks change as fast as a woman's mind and this year, the look is as varied: a touch of the Thirties and the military ruffles, short jackets and waistlines belted naturally or higher. The scope is wide enough for something for every figure, age and personality.

Return of the Thirties influence has entered the fashion picture. The long skirts and soft blouses look very feminine, says Mrs. O'Connor. The blouses feature tiny yokes, bluff sleeves and are worn with a wide belted semi-full dirndl or skirt. Skirts, as one designer described them, "bounding, swinging, flipping—one for everywhere in every mood." The tendency goes to a slim, trim bodice and ease at the hemline. The military flavor remains with capes, buckles, epaulets and buttoned cuff tabs. The Mao look adds a new twist with its mandarin collars and buttons.

Colors are muted grays, beiges, browns, Victorian pastels and bright prints with fabrics showing texture. Coral or shrimp is new with lots of turquoise and yellow. The big question is hemlines: According to Mrs. O'Connor, two main lengths are being shown. The midi, which is between the ankle and the knee, highlights evening wear. For daytime, hemlines will stay short, but not mini-short, just above the knee.

One Spanish house showed skirts which stop precisely four centimeters above the knee. Buyers frequently misunderstood or completely ignored the term "colorfast" when purchasing textile furnishings for the home. Many overlook the importance of securing colorfastness in home fabrics because it is most commonly associated with the washability of apparel fabrics.

Towels, table and bed linens and similar furnishings require dyes which keep their colors fresh and bright through repeated washings.

Children's Summer Reading Program Depends On Space At Winters Library

A reading program for the children of this community has not been planned for next summer due to lack of space in the Winters Public Library to conduct such a program. In recent years, plans for the summer program were made in January in order to begin the program June 1.

This lack of adequate space for the children's program has been noted by the board of directors of the library. They stated with regret that because of the lack of space, and because the program has grown so large—to include all children in the community—no plans are being made at this time.

Provision of adequate space for a children's summer reading program has been one of the goals in the current drive to raise money for the library. The board of directors believes that if enough people help in this drive that facilities can be enlarged enough to accommodate the program—if not this summer, then the following summer.

The drive to raise funds for the library continues, with contributions totaling $1631.50 by Wednesday of this week. Latest contributors were Mr. and Mrs. Wade W. White, $15.00.

In speaking of the children's summer reading program—members of the board of directors have pointed out that this project has been an important phase of the Winters Public Library. Between 150 and 200 children participate in the program each summer, and the number is increasing, bring "reading happiness to hundreds in the Winters area," directors said.

Last summer's program was highly successful, Miss Myra Glover, librarian, said. In that program, the children went on a "treasure hunt"—a large treasure map was placed in the library, and when a child read twelve books he found the hidden treasure: a free order at the fountain of Main Drug Co. All the children entering the reading program had an enjoyable time reading and talking about the books as they worked to find the treasure.

The board of directors of the library stated that they appreciate the cooperation of the businessmen who have helped in the summer program—one summer, free movie tickets were given by the State Theatre—and regret a new program will not be offered until more space can be provided. Present facilities in the library will not care for such an extensive program, they said.

Following his discharge in 1944, he worked for the Good-year Tire Co. in San Angelo, later working for the Merchants Freight Line and Sunset Motor Line. He was transferred to Dallas and then to Oklahoma. In 1965 he was transferred to St. Louis, Mo., where he worked for Consolidated Freight Line. He married Mary Lehman July 21, 1951, in San Angelo. He was a member of the Hatchell Church of Christ.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jacob attended the funeral Sunday at Kerrville for Albert Kiefer, former resident of Winters. Funeral service was held at Kerrville Funeral Home chapel.

Million Acres Lost Each Year To New Construction

Each year we bury another million acres of rural land, some of it prime farm land, under new houses, factories, highways, airports, and shopping centers, according to Harvey Kahlden, Soil Conservationist with the local Soil Conservation Service, assisting the Runnels Soil and Water Conservation District. During this same period, we add another 2.7 million people to our population, all of whom must live, be fed and find recreation on the unchanged 2.9 million square miles of land in the contiguous 48 states and 555,000 in Alaska and Hawaii.

In the past few years we have seen water and air pollution in fact every major river basin and airshed in America. These two elements of the environmental crisis have received a large share of public attention and justifiably so. But what is happening to the American land also needs attention. At the turn of the century, if one had divided the total amount of land evenly among the population each American would have had 25 acres. In recent years this has shrunk to 9.7 acres. By the turn of the next century, each American will be able to command only 6.4 acres to feed, clothe, shelter him; to produce the industrial products he needs; to find the recreation he will demand in an increasingly mechanized world. In the year 2000, three Americans will live where only two live today.

Will we face a land shortage? The answer is up to us. If we have wise land use, the answer is no. But if we continue to misuse our land, as we have in the past, we will rapidly become land-poor.

Kahlden said, it is very important that we have a carefully developed long-term land use plan. Today, too much of our land use is dictated by short-run economic considerations. We can no longer afford to be careless and make the same land-use blunders that we made in the past with this priceless and irreplaceable national heritage. If we insist on doing so, we will be properly condemned by future generations.

Kahlden went on to say that we are often using the wrong land for the wrong purpose, not only agriculture but in urban areas. This occurs when large parcels of land are developed, not by design or plan, but whenever a buyer and seller agree on a price. Often the bypassed land is sold or held for speculation and in an effort to reduce real taxes, buildings are allowed to deteriorate, land goes out of agriculture and into weeds and erosion and other conservation problems multiply. Although we have adequate farm land for the foreseeable future, and while there is nothing wrong with using it for intensive purposes, such as housing, we cannot indefinitely continue unplanned urbanization, as we cannot continue to have unplanned agriculture land. Our land use decisions in the next few years will determine whether succeeding generations thank us, or shake their heads sadly over our abuse of the American land.

What are you doing with your 9.7 acres? If you would like to make a long-range plan on your acreage, contact your local Soil Conservation Service.

Blizzard B Team Lost To Anson Friday Night

In a game played Friday night the Blizzard B Team lost their final basketball game of the season to Anson 45-40 to bring their season record to 19-8.

In the game Donny Killough led the scoring with 19 points followed by Johnny Cathey and Reese McCuiston with 6 each.

In compiling the excellent 19-8 record, the B team, coached by William Grissom, played some excellent basketball against some tough opponents.

They dropped their season opener to class 4A Pampa. Their second loss was five games later to class 3A Sweetwater which was avenged in a return engagement four games later and in the finals of the Winters B Team Tournament when the Blizzards dropped the Mustangs in what was perhaps their finest game of the season to win the tourney. Only two teams defeated them twice.

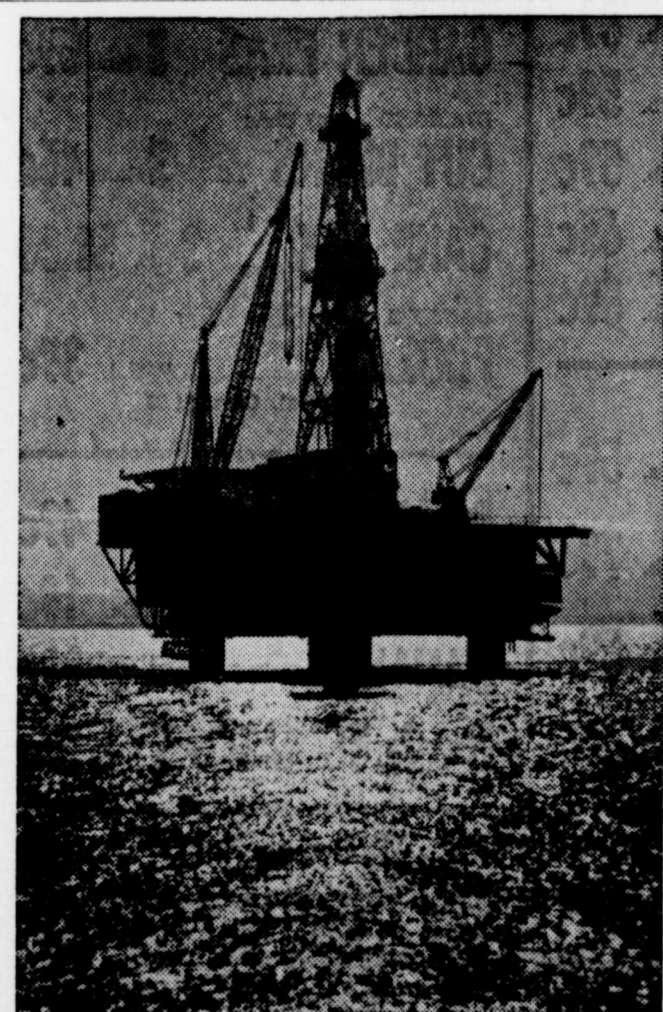

Coleman defeated the Blizzards in the finals of the Novice tourney and again in a game played in Blizzard gym and Anson defeated them twice in district play. The two Coleman losses were avenged as the Blizzards whipped them in a regular season game and in the semi-finals of the Winters Tournament.

L. C. B. MAKES NEW RULES
Texas Liquor Control Board issued new rules for its agents, including a bar against LCB agents bidding for purchase of confiscated cars or trucks. A Dallas LCB agent's purchase of a confiscated truck was one of the incidents that kicked off the Board's current self-examination.

New rules warn agents against revealing any details of investigations, and tighten accounting procedures for keeping track of illicit alcohol that has been seized.

STATE Capital NEWS

By VERN SANFORD

By—Vern Sanford
Texas Press Association

State attention continues to center on the embattled Texas Liquor Control Board.

Speaker Ben Barnes appointed a special subcommittee from the House State Affairs Committee to study possible changes in the election laws. Rep. Dick Cory of Victoria, committee chairman, also heads the subcommittee. Other members are Reps. James Slider of Naples, Bill Clayton of Springlake, Cleve Davis of Houston and Roy Garwood of San Antonio.

Cory stressed that the committee will not investigate Board operations. It will look into the cumbersome liquor laws which have not been modernized since they were first adopted in 1935. Chairman Cory says the panel will be ready with its recommendations — (which conceivably could include legalization of liquor-by-the-drink sales) "whenever Governor Connally calls a special session of the Legislature."

LCB itself has drafted a set of recommendations which include the provision that no private clubs, veterans or fraternal organization can serve liquor over the bar in dry areas without local-option election approval.

A veteran lawmaker, O. N. (Newt) Humphreys Jr., was chosen by the Board to take the vacant job as assistant to Administrator Coke Stevenson Jr. Humphreys, 43, is a native of Brenham. His father was chief of police there. The new LCB assistant chief has been with the Texas Department of Public Safety since 1948 and for 11 years has been head of its intelligence division.

His selection led to speculation that the LCB might in a few months move Humphreys up to administrator. But Stevenson said that he has no intention of resigning while the agency is under fire.

In a unique way, the LCB situation got involved in the governor's race. Lieut. Gov. Preston Smith was critical of the decision by Barnes to name a special committee. Then Eugene Locke of Dallas, one of Smith's opponents in the Governor's race, said the liquor laws obviously need revision and that Smith should have provided leadership toward that end.

Gov. John Connally's declaration that state legislators have been involved in "influence peddling" efforts with Stevenson, and his refusal to grant special treatment kept his salary down, led to some checking.

A study of the appropriations laws for the past 10 years shows that Stevenson's salary was generally held to about $4,000 less than those of comparable department heads. It was only last Sept. 1 that his salary was brought to within $1,000 of two other agency heads.

SPECIAL SESSION TALKS

With all the 1968 candidates now on the line and campaigns still in low gear, favorite capitol speculation is the date of the upcoming special legislative session.

Governor Connally must call one in order to pass a 1969 budget and a new tax bill. This has to be done before September 1, start of the next fiscal year. Otherwise, there will be no money for continuation of state services.

Big question is when? It has been widely assumed that Connally will wait until around June 3 when the primary elections will be over.

Since the governor said that he may ask legislators to consider liquor-by-the-drink legalization and conflict-of-interests curbs, speculation on the session's date has flared anew. It is felt that he may have an earlier date in mind, like maybe March 4. Senate Secretary Charles Schnabel "predicted" this starting time in a Valentine Day letter to senators. Later he said he wrote with "tongue in cheek" and wasn't really serious.

Arguments run something like this:

FOR JUNE — Legislators won't vote for a big tax bill with elections staring them in the face, and will resent having campaigns interrupted. Early session would put friends as well as foes on the spot and might result in defeat of some. Lawmakers are reluctant to vote for tax measures until the last minute, anyway; and along about July and August, they can't put it off any longer.

FOR MARCH — After their election lame duck legislators would be rebellious toward any tax program or other controversial measures submitted by the governor. More time might be needed to pass a major tax bill than would be allowed by a June session. New Democratic nominee for governor will be known by June, and the legislators may be inclined to look to him for leadership and ignore Connally's proposals.

Only man really in position to know is John Connally. He says he hasn't made up his mind—and might not for several weeks. But adds: "Any date is a possibility."

APPOINTMENTS ANNOUNCED

Governor Connally selected Consumer Credit Commissioner Francis A. Miskell as a member of state Constitutional Revision Commission.

Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall, senate president pro tempore, has been designated state campaign manager for gubernatorial candidate John Hill.

William F. (Bill) Carter, press secretary to the governor, will return to his old job as DPS public information officer on March 1.

James J. Kelly will serve as acting executive director of the Texas Industrial Commission.

Kyle Thompson, capitol bureau head of United Press International, is handling press relations for gubernatorial candidate Eugene Locke.

COURTS SPEAK

Texas Supreme Court has held that Cities should not license door-to-door insurance salesmen (in a case originating in Hillsboro); City of Beaumont and its music commission are not responsible for injuries to a woman who fell while attempting to return to her seat at a concert in the city auditorium; Henderson County district court must consider a land vacancy claim; A jury trial must be held in an Amarillo man's suit against a railroad homeowners rates are figured on a three-region basis due to weather hazards.

If adopted, rates would be effective June 1. Biggest money saving on home owners' premiums would be in 10-county Sherman area where rates are now high.

SHORT SNORTS

Carl V. Ramert of Yoakum has been appointed District Engineer by State Highway Engineer J. C. Dingwall. Texas Industrial Commission named James J. Kelly as acting executive director. Texas Committee on Natural Resources vigorously protested the lease of Meridian State Park property for a nine-hole public golf course. Cotton farmers in Hudspeeth and El Paso Counties have until Feb. 29 to clean their fields of stalks to protect against pink bollworm—Governor Connally approved a regional planning grant of $5,500.

after the driver of a car in which he was a passenger crashed while trying to avoid hitting a train.

High court also agreed to hear arguments on March 27 in a San Antonio case involving a father's right to prevent a divorced wife from legally changing the name of their child.

Court of Criminal Appeals affirmed the death penalty assessed 19-year-old Johnny Rudy Enriquez for murder of a Beeville nurse—one of five persons he was accused of slaying within six hours April 25, 1966. Trail of death extended from Corpus Christi, through Beeville and into Wilson County.

OIL DEMAND

Continued blockage of the Suez Canal and the TAP pipeline in the Middle East again has zoomed demand for Texas oil.

The Railroad Commission increased February oil production allowable from 47 to 49.6 per cent of potential, retroactive to February 1.

Commission set March factor at the same level, responding to demand by producers.

New allowable will permit maximum production of 3,732,485 barrels a day, compared with 3,588,958 under 47 per cent factor.

DRAFT QUOTA UP SHARPLY

Texas draft boards next month must furnish the largest monthly quota of young men for military service in nearly two years.

Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said the local boards have been called on to provide 1,948 men—most since the 2,012-man quota of November, 1966. Low point in the interim was 674 men last February and 1,659 in January.

National call for March induction is 39,000 men. All are for the Army.

FIRE RATE CUT PROPOSED

State Board of Insurance proposed its first cuts in seven years (average of 3.6 per cent) in statewide fire, extended coverage and home owners insurance premiums.

Rate experts suggested 4.4 per cent reduction in fire premiums, 3 per cent in extended coverage and 3.1 per cent average for home owners.

Fire and extended coverage rates are set statewide, and

Mr. Winter Keeps Grip On Winters

Following a day or two of almost-spring, winter closed in again on the Big Country Wednesday morning early, sending the temperature plummeting from an acceptable 40 degrees to 25 degrees within a couple of hours.

This section of the country, already over-soaked by winters drizzles and ice storms, faced the possibility of more moisture, as high winds sent clouds scudding across the sky.

Already, a total of 8.5 inches of rain has been received in Winters since January 1—this has been the wettest winter for the area in the memory of many. January's rainfall was measured at 5.6, with February accounting for 2.9 inches up to Wednesday of this week.

The Things We Say

By RUBY SHANNON

My grandmother used to raise black Minorca chickens and I remember how strange it seemed for jet black hens to lay such big white eggs.

Some of Grandma's hens didn't lay in the henhouse, however. They preferred an old hollow stump into which Grandma always put a white doorknob or a glass ball for a "nest egg," so the hen would come back there to lay the next day.

"She'll make a nest somewhere else and we might not find it if we don't leave a nest egg," Grandma would say.

Once her doorknob disappeared, but later she retrieved it from the decayed body of an old chicken snake that had swallowed it, with the result of fatal indigestion. Nest eggs are seldom used today in chicken nests. With caged laying pens, there is no need for them. The expression "nest egg" is still heard however with reference to a person's savings.

Like the old hen, when a person has a savings or "nest egg" hidden away in his bank vault, he is likely to return to it and deposit more savings.

Seniors Go to San Angelo

Monday, January 29, thirty-one seniors went to San Angelo. They took the GATB test at the Texas Employment Commission.

The test consisted of placing washers on rivets and then placing them in small holes, placing pegs in holes with two hands and then with a single hand, and a written examination which consisted of math, matching, and word meanings.

After the test was over the hungry busload proceeded to Zentner's for a fine lunch of what ever their pocket books allowed.

After everyone had finished, the new overstuffed crew returned home only to be welcomed by having to go to their seventh period class.

Mr. Richard Carter, Youth Counselor of the Texas Employment Commission, was to be at the high school Thursday, Feb. 15, to give the results of the test to each individual, but bad weather postponed his trip until another, yet indefinite, date.

Junior Class Meeting

By Bill Brock

The Junior Class had a brief meeting Tuesday, Feb. 13, in the Auditorium. The purpose of the meeting was to distribute candy to be sold to raise more money for the Junior-Senior Banquet to be held March 30.

The Juniors want this banquet to be one that the outgoing Seniors will never forget, so please buy a box of candy. It only costs one little ol' buck. It's the best candy you will ever have.

Around WHS

Try-Outs for the FTA one act play were held this week, but so far no results are available. Mrs. Kruse has her hands full (as usual) with this play, FTA State Convention, UIL contests, and a grandbaby on the way.

Miss Grundy has finally broken her eccentric habit of wrapping while working at the door facing while working at the Algebra II graph-board. Tuesday, while explaining a problem in this position, she hunched over and took advantage of the turned back to grab a hold of the hand. A yell was promptly heard all through third floor.

"Lune" Ledbetter certainly played a great game against the Seniors in the Faculty game Thursday.

Something of a miracle occurred Friday of this week. The passing of that day marked 21 consecutive days that Kye Nitsch has not fallen down the stairs. One teacher says the boy's trouble is that he simply cannot walk up or down the stairs and chew gum at the same time. No comment from this writer.

Politics is in the air in high school now. Student Council elections are set for early March. As of now Robert Moore and Randy Pendergrass are in the running for President. Bob Colburn for Vice-President. Babs Tatum for Secretary. Jean Mostad is seeking re-election for song leader, and Cindy Pinkerton for pianist. As the election dates are the same, anyone interested might take time out from the New Hampshire Primary to catch the results of this election.

Faculty Vs. Seniors

Friday night the "Globe-trotting" faculty of Winters High School laid defeat at the door step of the seniors by a narrow margin of 54-52. Prior to the spotlight game, the Junior boys defeated the sophomore boys.

The senior team was made up of Dick McNeil, Kye Nitsch, Jim Morrow, Lanny Bahlman, Jim Vaughan, Benny Fine, Jimmy Fine, Larry Cook, Ronnie Reel, Randall Boles and Danny Killough.

Cheerleaders for the faculty team were: Sophia (Mary) Stanfield, Marilyn (Marguarite) Mathis, Hedda (Tooter) Harrison, Gretta (Nancy) Grundy, Bridgette (Frances) Bredemeyer, and Bonnie (Mary) Bauer.

The team was introduced as 6' 7", 281 pound ex-Southwest Conference Sprint Champ Bear Busher.

At 6' 6" and a massive 116 pounds, the former Captain of the Kilgore Rangerettes Dazzling Davis.

Only 5' 4", but a powerful 217 pounds and a four year letterman as a McMurry Cheerleader Grubby Grissom.

Standing 6' 8" and a mere 288 pounds, one of the nation's foremost race horse jockeys, Jet Jones.

Standing 5' 3" and a gigantic 234 pounds, an all pro tackle, Greenbay Packers, Krusher Key.

At 5' 11" and 101 pounds, he made all state at Bradshaw Tech, Lumpy Ledbetter.

Standing 6' 2" and 210 pounds, a former star at Jacksboro A & M, Naughty Neely.

At 6' 4" and 113 pounds, the all star center for Tea Sipper State, Poison Poe.

6' 5" tall and 87 pounds, member of the Metrecal for Lunch Bunch, Punny Powers.

6' 1" and 201 pounds, captain of the Tech Barn floor sweepers, Smelly Smith.

6' 3" and 233 pounds, the terror of the wrestling world, Savage Swofford.

6' 13" and 298 pounds, all star at the Abilene School of Beauty, Woolly Wilson.

Coach of the Seniors was Freddie Gardner and the Coach of the faculty was Terrie Tatom.

Officials for the game were "Slick" Middleton and "Murly" Joyce, both from the Texas School for the Blind.

Assembly

In a special assembly on February 16, Mr. Jack Hill presented to the student body a program entitled Evelyn Wood Reading Dynamics Institute. He first explained exactly what the course consisted of and then showed a film interviewing many of the people who had taken the course. After the film he again explained how the course operated and how it was common that persons might increase their reading speed to perhaps 6,000 words or even up to 10,000 words per minute. Then it was announced that the Reading Dynamics Program would be given in Coleman and Ballinger and all interested students were able to talk with Mr. Hill and pick up information pamphlets. After the program ended, Mrs. Bredemeyer inquired about starting a program in Winters and was told that the matter would be looked into.

Social Security Beneficiaries To Get Increase

The changes in the social security law signed by President Johnson on January 2 will mean a benefit increase of at least 13 percent in the social security checks of about 2349 men, women and children in the Winters area, according to the San Angelo office of the Social Security Administration.

The social Security Administration's high speed electronic computers are figuring the increases for all 23,700,000 social security beneficiaries around the country and will finish the task in time to include the increases in the checks delivered early in March.

Beneficiaries need not take any action to get the increase, the San Angelo office said. It will be sent to them automatically.

Residents of the Winters area can expect the first increased check on Saturday, March 2, one day earlier than the usual third of the month delivery of social security benefit checks.

Under a recent arrangement with the Treasury Department and the Post Office, social security checks are delivered a day early instead of a day late when the third of the month falls on a Sunday or holiday.

Some social security beneficiaries will receive more than a 13 percent increase. The minimum benefit for workers retiring at 65 is increased from $44 to $55.

The average benefit payable to a retired worker, about $86, will be raised to $98, an increase of $12 a month. The average couple's benefit, now $145, will go up to $165; and the average aged widow's benefit will rise $11, from the current average of $75 to $86.

The last increase in social security benefits amounted to 7 percent, and was effective January 1965.

About three out of every 10 beneficiaries receiving an increased check early in March will be someone under 65, many of them the children of working fathers who have died.

With the increased benefit payments provided under the new amendments to the law, the face value of social security survivors insurance protection is increased to about $940 billion. This is just about equivalent to the value of all the private life insurance now in force.

Under the amended law, maximum payments to families now on the social security benefit rolls will go up from the currently payable maximum of $309.20 a month to $322.40. In the future, the maximum payable monthly to any one family can be as high as $434.40.

Home Town Talk--

has made the route plenty muddy and slippery, and his car picks up lots of mud. Now it is said that the road building contractors are seeking a place for Marvin to stay in town until the road is finished—they say he's hauling off the muddy caliche on the wheels of his car as fast as they can haul it in in dump trucks.

When it's dry, one talks about how dry it is; when it rains, one talks about how much rain has fallen. Wet weather such as we've been having brings the figurers and statisticians running, to come up with some fantastic unbelievable. Someone was wondering how much water there would be if the entire state of Texas received a 1-inch rain, and came up with the following (don't take our word for it, though, we just copied it): It would take 465,704,588 tank cars of 10,000-gallon capacity each to hold that much water. Figuring a tank car 30 feet in length, it would take 2,646,000 miles of track to hold such a train, reaching around the earth 105 times.

Still quoting: 43,560 square feet in an acre, 640 acres in a square mile, and 267,339 square feet to cubic feet by dividing by 12 then multiply 7 1-2 gallons per cubic foot of . . . .

They already lost us when they said 1 inch of rain! We never did get past the 6 times!

CARD OF THANKS

May we take this method of thanking our neighbors and friends for their kind expressions of sympathy in our bereavement. To Mrs. Merrill and the staff of the Senior Citizens Nursing Home, words will never express how much we appreciate the kind deeds and care you showed our mother. All these expressions have been deeply appreciated. Dr. Z. I. Hale and family. Ite.
