Local Police Investigating Shooting

Police continue investigation of a shooting incident which took place Sunday evening near the Community Center and park, and a man remains in North Runnels Hospital suffering from a bullet wound received during the disorder.

Eli Arispe, about 50, was still in the local hospital Tuesday. He had been shot in the stomach area, according to Police Chief Doc Smith, "with a small caliber rifle or possibly a pistol."

The incident took place about 7:45 p.m. Sunday, following a ball game which had been played on the field near where the shooting occurred. Police Chief Smith said no one had been charged with the shooting; that a weapon had not been located, but that investigation into the events surrounding the shooting is being continued.

Golf Tourney Here Sunday

What could be a record number of four-man teams will play in the ninth annual Commercial-Industrial Golf Tournament, sponsored by the Winters Country Club, to be played on the Winters golf course Sunday, May 4.

Spokesmen for the tournament committee said 14 teams already had signed up for the tourney, with more expected to come in by tee off time Sunday morning.

Winters Gets $2,609 From Sales Taxes

The City of Winters has received $2,609 from the State Comptroller's office, as the city's one percent sales taxes collected in one month, as the system of payment has been changed to monthly periods instead of quarterly periods. The new monthly payments replace the old quarterly rebates which Comptroller Bob Bullock said "were only a step ahead of the Pony Express."

The return of tax payments will be made monthly from now on, it was explained. In a letter to city officials Bullock said the "quicker payments should be an asset to every city's financial operations" and that "because this money belongs to your citizens we have a responsibility to get it to you as quickly as possible."

The City's one percent sales tax is collected at the same time the state's four percent is collected, and the entire amounts are forwarded to the state, and then returned to the city.

Expect To Begin Soon On Housing

Work is expected to begin "within 45 to 60 days" on construction of 12 apartment units in Winters, Roy Clark, of the Bright Company of Fort Worth-Dallas, said Tuesday.

The Bright Company plans to build, "initial", these 12 units, and then begin on a second 12-unit project, Clark said.

This project will be built as a private endeavor, and will not be a "public" housing complex, it was explained. The construction will be directly across from Huffman House, in the 100 block of East Dale Street. All units will be two-bedroom apartments, with private patios and carports, and will be totally electric, it was stated.

Construction will be of brick.

Eleven Winters People On Tour of Europe

ON EUROPEAN TOUR—Although the tour group is large, several residents and former residents of Winters are included in the picture, taken at the Palace of Versailles in France, during a recent tour. Most of the Winters group are on the left and may be identified. They are Rankin Pace, front row left; behind him is Mrs. Pace; Mrs. R.K. Russell, and Mrs. Homer Hodge behind the tall woman in white; Juanita Self, Mrs. Grady Dunnam and Mrs. George Poe, Mrs.

Roy Crawford is about midway in the picture. Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Mayhew are near the right. The Rev. Bob Sanders of Waco, former pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Winters, is second from the right.

Eleven of the 250 people on a recent United Methodist Tour of Europe were from Winters and ten of them were on the bus with Bob Sanders of Waco, late of Winters, as leader.

Leaving the Dallas airport for an all night jet flight across the Atlantic, there was only one stop at Bangor, Maine, before reaching London. The travelers were met at the Gatwick airport early Tuesday morning by the guides who assisted with baggage procedures and escorted them to motor coaches for a drive to the Mt. Royal Hotel in London. On the way they visited the sites of John Wesley's London including his home and Bunhill Fields Cemetery.

Appropriately enough the Winters folk were among the 42 on a Dutch bus called the blue bus and identified by a blue triangle with the passengers luggage carrying the same labe. There were five busses making the European tour and one stayed in London. Our English guide, Jerry Kane, and Dutch driver stayed with us all the way.

There was one family group, Mr. and Mrs. Rankin Pace and Mrs. Roy Crawford were accompanied by their brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J.B. Pace of Hutto.

Others from Winters were Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Mayhew, Mrs. Homer Hodge, Jr., Mrs. R.K. Russell, Geoff Sanders, and Mrs. Grady Dunnam who had as her roommate her sister, Mrs. Odessa Painter of Amarillo. Mrs. George Poe and Mrs. H.B. Self of Abilene, the former Juanita Pentecost, were partners. Mrs. Charles Kruse was a passenger on Ed Otwell's coach with her sister, Mrs. Kate Adams of Seagraves.

Early Wednesday morning the travelers left London and drove through the Kent countryside in the snow to Canterbury, the Cathedral City of England and the head of the Anglican Church. Continuing to Dover the group boarded a Cross Channel Steamer for the port of Zeebrugge in Belgium. Lunch was on board but the sea was rough and many wished they hadn't eaten.

Arriving on the Continent of Europe, the tourists began their drive to Paris where they visited the magnificent Notre Dame Cathedral, and other such landmarks as the Eifel Tower and the Arch of Triumph, as well as shopping and having refreshments at the sidewalk cafes. Unlike England built of many small villages, Paris is a well laid out city of wide avenues and symmetrical architecture.

Another highlight was a 12 mile trip out from Paris to visit the beautiful palace and gardens of Versailles, the favorite home of the French kings since Louis XIII. The charming guide, Madame Genevieve Ott said that the cobble stones in the courtyard were 300 years old and if one fell and broke his neck he could count it an honor. She also said that one king stabbed himself seven times, she thought that once would have been enough. Paris is a city of 100,000 trees, more than half are water chestnut and the rest are sycamore.

Following dinner and overnight in a modern Ramada Motel, the trip continued through the rolling French countryside of the Champagne and Lorraine district and stop at Metz for a quick look at the amazing 4th century church of St. Pierre auz Nonnains.

We crossed the border into Germany and on the way to our hotel in Ludwigshafen passed many places with familiar names such as Chateau-Thierry, Reims, Verdune, and saw the war cemeteries. All of the bridges across the Rhine were destroyed during the war but most of them have been rebuilt.

On Saturday our first visit was to Worms, the city which played such an important part in the Reformation, as it was here that Martin Luther was excommunicated in the Diet of Worms in 1520. We visited the Reformation monument and the Cathedral of St. Peter where we sang "A Mighty Fortress is our God." Afterwards we drove to the town of Rudesheim for lunch and took a boat trip through the picturesque Rhine Valley, noted for its castles and legends. We heard the legend of the beautiful Lorelei and the song written to her as well as other German tunes.

Sunday morning Dr. Ralph Taylor of High Point, N.C. conducted the worship service following breakfast at our hotel in Muhlentrabe. We continued our drive northwards along the Rhine River, passing through the Capital City of West Germany, Bonn, and on to Cologne where we had time to visit the impressive Gothic Cathedral and browse around the bustling city. After lunch we drove to the Dutch border and on to Amsterdam for dinner and overnight.

There is a saying that "God made the world but the Dutch made Holland", and this is true for they have had to build up their land as it is all below sea level. Amsterdam is also known as the Hippie Capitol of the world. Most of the group made a mad scramble to see all of the sights from wooden shoe factory, to cheese farms tulip fields and Rembrandt and Van Gough museums. There was also a boat trip up the canal through Amsterdam. Some visited Rotterdam, the Delft china factory and the Hague, the capital of the Netherlands. There was so much to see that no one minded another day in Holland when our flight was delayed 24 hours.

First Savings Names President

Joseph R. Kilman has been elected president and a director of First Saving and Loan Association of San Angelo to succeed Virgil R. Savoy who was elected president and a director of Corpus Christi Savings and Loan Association. The announcement was made by Frank A. Hoke, chairman of First Texas Financial Corporation, Dallas-based savings and loan holding company and parent of both First Savings and Corpus Christi Savings. Both new positions became effective May 1, 1975.

Kilman, 40, and a native of Temple, graduated from Baylor University in 1957 with a BBA degree. After some time with the U.S. Army, he joined Oak Cliff Savings and Loan Association, Dallas, another affiliate of First Texas Financial, as a loan officer. In 1967, he became branch manager of the association's Richardson office and served in that capacity until September, 1971, when he joined First Savings of San Angelo as executive vice president.

Kilman is a graduate of the School for Executive Development of the Institute of Financial Education and served as president of his graduating class. He also holds a graduate diploma from the Dallas Chapter of the Institute of Financial Education.

Kilman remains active in civic and community affairs. He is a director of the San Angelo Home Builders Association and of the Ram Club, vice president of the West Texas Therapy Center Board, a member of the Fiesta del Concho committee, and is active in the San Angelo Symphony Society. He has served on the board of directors of the San Angelo Red Cross, as past chairman of the San Angelo Arts Festival, and has been active in the San Angelo United Way. He is a member of the downtown Rotary Club and of the San Angelo Country Club.

Kilman is married to the former Linda Stark of Belton. They reside in the College Hills area of San Angelo with their four children, Carol Ann, 13, Kay, 12, Buck, 10 and Sharon, 8. They are members of the First United Methodist Church.

Women's Summer Fashions Feminine and Natural

Gimmicks are out—the simple, natural look is in for women's fashions this spring. We'll see a clean, soft, feminine look in clothing, accessories and hair styles. Hair styles will be soft and curly—not frizzy—or simple and straight, showing off clean, shiny hair. Long hair will frequently be pulled back in a simple chignon for a smooth, dressier appearance. Off-the-face looks will be the newest. Bangs, when worn, will be long and sleek, she advised.

Loose, feminine dress styles will look great with the waist nipped in by a belt. And belts may be the single most important accessory for summer-wide crushed styles, obi types and narrow leather ones, Mrs. O'Connor stated.

Shoes will be flatter and simpler. Espadrilles, sandals and slippers will have low heels or wedges. Very little trim and decoration will be seen.

Jewelry will be in extremes—either kept to a minimum, or arms full of bangles. Natural stones, beads and shells will be good choices.

Scarves and more scarves will complete the picture. Wear them over the shoulders with a sundress or around the neck for color. Wrapping the head bandana fashion or turban style will be a substitute for summer hats.

Consumer Food News

Springs cantaloupe, asparagus and tomatoes are hitting Texas supermarkets, but pork prices are up this week. Higher pork prices are due to a lower supply; however, there are scattered features on Boston butt roasts, end chops, quarter-loin cut into chops, and liver—and good values on smoked picnics and frankfurters.

KRUEGER'S KOLUMN

By CONG. BOB KRUEGER
21st Texas District

A few nights ago, as I was looking for direction in these very troubled times, I went to the Lincoln Monument, where the famed Gettysburg address and second inaugural speeches were inscribed on the walls. Lincoln in his Gettysburg address spoke of being gathered on the battlefield of a great war and we, it seems are at the end of what has been a great war for this country, as we view the collapse of the Thieu government in South Vietnam. But in his second inaugural speech, Lincoln also spoke, as our great compassionate and unifying President always did, of the need to avoid divisiveness, and did not seek to point blame, but rather to have a country coalesce with central purpose.

It is important that we in this nation, while viewing the events that were beyond our control in Southeast Asia, avoid the temptation for recrimination. There are some events beyond our control, in our personal and our national lives. Government cannot control the economy—indeed it has tried too much to do so. And there are situations in which we seek to assist other nations, but to leave the prime responsibility to them, in which we cannot control their fates either.

The U.S. gave generously: 2 million American men served there, 150 billion dollars was spent there, and 55,000 lives were given there. But the war was lost because it is clear that the hearts and minds of the South Vietnamese people were not one to support their government. Arms cannot win what hearts have lost, and neither the South Vietnamese nor the American people could remain committed to that war any longer.

250 Visited Girl Scouts' "Fair" Saturday

In consequence, we saw the withdrawal of American troops. If we look to what lies ahead, we must expect that there will be humanitarian aid for South Vietnam, but we must also expect a reassessment of U.S. policy. The Arabs have shown, through their embargo, how economic power can be asserted. With strong military preparedness, as we must always have, and a strong economy, we stand in no danger of losing our position as world leaders. But, in my judgment, our greatest export will always be the exporting of democratic ideals, which this nation has sent out to the world for some 200 years. There are limits to what you can do with transfusions to help the sick; but if you plant the ideals of democracy in other countries, and let them grow, then the future will take care of itself. Lincoln spoke of a country conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. If we can help other nations become dedicated to that proposition, we will have given them the best that we have to offer.

Over 250 people attended the "Country Fair" sponsored by the Winters Girl Scout Association. The quilt made by Troop 237 went to Mrs. Billy Graham for $26. Her daughter, Teresa, is a member of Troop 237.

Mrs. Ollie Cole, community chairman, Winters scouts and leaders wish to thank everyone who participated in the fair. Special thanks go to Mel Swoyer, David Crooks, and Bob Linsey, judges; R.L. Johnson for the use of his goats; Michael Deike for the use of his pigs; Allan Bishop; the Ag. Dept.; and the school for the use of the football field.

JAPAN IN CANADA

World's largest Japanese garden is on the Canadian "frontier." The Nikka-Yuko Gardens at Lethbridge in southwestern Alberta incorporates all five basic types of traditional Japanese gardens, complete with houses, bridges, and bell tower, all made in Japan.

USE THE CLASSIFIEDS

The Gregorian Chant was named for St. Gregory, Pope of Rome from 590 to 604, who had made a collection of the music used in the Catholic services.
