HOME TOWN Talk

By R. C. THOMAS

Winters and North Runnels are fortunate. We have one of the most efficient, best equipped, and most dedicated volunteer fire departments to be found any place. The dedication of the Winters Volunteer Firemen has been a thing of wonderment down through a good many years. And once a Winters fireman, always a Winters fireman, even though retirement and removal from the area takes an individual away from active participation.

The Winters firemen have a "fine" system for meetings, drills and fire calls missed. And no one is immune. These firemen also are civic minded, too, and work for the betterment of the entire community. Some months ago, they sponsored a movement to provide a special fire fighting truck to be used on rural fires. The people of the community responded wholeheartedly, and the truck was bought and equipped and has been in service for several months.

Further evidence of dedication to the department is the fact that many of the firemen have purchased Citizen Band radios for their personal cars and pickups. The fire trucks also have been equipped with CB radios, in addition to the City radio network equipment, and the constant communication has been of great value. Much of the time, when the fire alarm is sounded, firemen with the CB radios get in their private vehicles, turn the radios to a pre-selected channel, to find out the location of the fire. This prevents firemen from having to report to the fire station and saves much time, and therefore property. But once in a while a Keystone Cops episode results because of the presence of CB radios in vehicles.

Recently, the alarm sounded, calling firemen to fight a grass fire. Firemen with the CB radios started out in their own vehicles. Then the pre-designated airwaves were filled with something like this:

"Where's the fire?"
"Out at Blank's!"
Several firemen responded with "Ten four!" (Message received and understood).
Then:
"You in the fire truck?"
"No, I thought you had the truck."
"No. Maybe So-and-So has the truck."
So-and-So: "No, I'm in my pickup."
"Who's driving the truck?"
"Nobody!"
"Gosh! Guess I'd better go back and get it!"
(Ed. Note: They reached the fire and put it out in short order, regardless. All in a day's work for a Winters Volunteer Fireman.)

Dr. B. J. Humble Of ACC Will Speak At Church of Christ

Dr. B. J. Humble, vice president for Academic Affairs at Abilene Christian College, will speak on "The Restoration Movement," during three services in the auditorium of the Main Street Church of Christ in Winters, Sunday, September 14.

Dr. Humble will speak at 9:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m., and at 6 p.m., Paul Wallace, minister of the church, announced.

The public has been invited to attend these special services.

Dr. Humble was reared in southwest Missouri, attended Freed-Hardeman College in Henderson, Tenn., and Abilene Christian College. He has a master of arts degree from the University of Colorado, and a Ph. D. from the University of Iowa. He also studied at Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and taught Bible and church history in Abilene Christian College for five years before his appointment as dean in 1969.

He has been preaching for 20 years, and has served as minister of congregations in St. Petersburg, Fla., Kansas City, Missouri, and Louisville, Ken. He served as minister of the Woodlawn Church in Abilene from 1964 to 1969.

Railroad? Now A Waiting Game

50 YEARS A MASON—George Garrett of Winters Thursday night was presented a 50-year membership pin, from the Grand Lodge of Texas. Paul Pruitt of Norton, left, District Deputy Grand Master for District 105, made the presentation during the stated meeting of Winters Masonic Lodge 743 Thursday. Garrett's son, George Garrett of Abilene, a member of an Abilene Masonic Lodge pinned the 50-year emblem to his father's coat lapel.

Now begins the waiting game, regarding the railway company's proposal to abandon the railroad from Winters to Abilene. The next step is up to the Interstate Commerce Commission, it was learned this week.

Petitions, letters and other forms of preliminary protests against the proposal by Abilene & Southern Railway Co. to abandon the line have been forwarded to the Interstate Commerce Commission. And it may be some months before a decision is made.

According to information from those heading the protest movement, the ICC will study the protests, and the petition by the railway company, and consider three alternatives:

- Order immediate abandonment;
- Set a modified hearing;
- Set a public hearing.

Sources said the first alternative, an immediate abandonment order, probably will not be considered by the ICC.

If the ICC chooses the second alternative, a modified hearing, the hearing will be reduced to written arguments, filed briefs and depositions by interested parties.

The third alternative, a public hearing, is expected to be the one chosen by the ICC. This hearing will allow all protestants, the petitioner and others to appear before an ICC board to present oral arguments for or against abandonment of the railroad. It is unlikely, it was said, that the hearing would be held in Winters, but probably will be held in a larger city, perhaps Abilene, if this is the alternative chosen by the ICC.

Senator John Tower's office has notified local protesters that the Senator is appealing to the ICC for action favorable to the local situation, according to information this week.

If the public hearing alternative is chosen by the ICC, it was said, the outcome will probably hinge on the economic results caused by abandonment or non-abandonment.

This week it was learned that grain shippers have been having problems in getting enough railway cars to handle the bumper milo crop in this area, and have had to use trucks more than had been desired.

Blizzards Host Merkel Badgers

Taking in stride the 33-0 loss to Clyde last Friday night, and chalking the opener up to inexperience, the Winters Blizzards homestead this week, hosting the Merkel Badgers in a pre-conference contest on Blizzards Field. Kick-off at 8 p. m.

Considerable shifting in the lineup could be expected this week before the second game of the season, as coaches watched action of individual players on the field. Changes were also partly caused by the injury of QB Bobby Joe Poindexter in the Clyde game. Poindexter is not expected to return to the gridiron this season, suffering a broken collar bone, and Marvin Moore, a junior playing his first season with the varsity, will run the squad from the down-under position. He has almost three-quarters of a game under his belt as quarterback, calling signals for the Blue after Poindexter was injured in the second stanza last Friday.

There may be other changes in the lineup, and for sure there was expected to be some hard, muscle-pounding workouts this week, as the coaching staff started a rigid training schedule. With only 20 varsity squad members now to work with, the coaches will attempt to trim them into shape for Friday's encounter with the Badgers. The coaches and others quickly point out that "their spirit is willing," but that the team is a light, inexperienced bunch with only three now in the lineup who played varsity ball last year.

The Merkel Badgers opened the 1975 season against Robert Lee last Friday night, coming from behind to beat the Steers 29-19 after trailing 19-7 at one point.

The Blizzards defeated Merkel 26-13 in the second game of the 1974 season.

Livestock Assn. Member Drive

In a general meeting last week, the Winters Livestock Association made plans for a horse show, a new sponsorship, to be held the day before the annual Junior Livestock Show scheduled for the middle of January, 1976.

The horse show, for Winters FFA and 4-H members, will be held on Sunday, January 11; the annual livestock show will be held Monday, January 12, a student holiday in the Winters schools.

Officers and directors for the association also were elected for the year. E. B. Hope was elected president; Newt Blackerby, vice president; F. R. (Phil) Anderson, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Raymond Schwartz, reporter.

The association began immediately an annual membership drive. R. T. O'Dell, Ted Meyer, Newt Blackerby and Brent Mikeska were named to the membership committee.

Sale of family memberships will enable the Livestock Association to produce the Junior Livestock Show, organized for FFA and 4-H members of Winters and Wingate. Family membership will be $6, and will entitle the member families to attend the barbecue to be held November 3 at the Community Center.

The horse show, for Winters FFA members and Winters-Wingate 4-H members, will be held on the afternoon of January 11. Prior to the show, the Association will serve dinner to the public; tickets will be available at the door. During the horse show, livestock to be in the show the following day, will be on display.

A rules committee for the horse show was named, including Calvin Helm, Dick Dunlap, Bo Evans, Charles Allcorn and Stanley Blackwell.

Council Changes Meeting Time

Winters City Council has changed the meeting time for the two regular monthly meetings. Buford Baldwin, City Secretary, said this week.

The Council will meet on the first and third Mondays of each month, at 5:30 p.m., a change from the 7 p.m. time which has been in effect for some time. For several years, the Council has been changing the regular meetings to Tuesday night during the fall and winter months, but it was decided at the last regular meeting that the meeting days would remain the same, with hours changed.

The new meeting time will be effective with the second monthly meeting scheduled for Monday, September 15, Baldwin said.

Lions Golf Tourney Saturday

Several golfers from out of town, in addition to local players, already have indicated they will take part in the fourth annual Winters Lions Club golf tournament, set for Saturday, September 13, at the Winters Country Club. Golfers will tee off at 9 a.m. for 18 holes of play. Trophies will be awarded teams and individuals.

The Winters team won the team trophy last year.

Winters.

Vocational courses being considered include auto body, used car reconditioning, automotive brakes, automotive front end and tire balancing, automotive maintenance and repair of the automobile engine and electrical systems, automotive tune-up, arc and oxyacetylene welding, and refrigeration fundamentals.

Other possible offerings include bookkeeping, filing, office machines, office practice, typing I and II, electronics, television, nurse's aid, brick and rock tending, and building trades (pre-apprenticeship).

The courses, mostly basic in nature, will be open to any person 18 years of age or older who qualifies for the program.

There will be no fees or other charges for the courses, Bill Graves, superintendent of schools, said. Classes will meet twice each week, and instruction will begin within the next three weeks. Inquiries can be directed to the Winters school business office, 754-4618.

Detailed registration information will be published in The Winters Enterprise next week.

Miss McKnight Quannah Teacher

Miss Troylene McKnight of Winters this week joined the teaching faculty in Quannah Elementary School.

Miss McKnight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy McKnight of Winters, is a graduate of Winters High School. She attended Cisco Junior College, and graduated last December from Howard Payne College in Brownwood, where she earned a bachelor of arts degree.

Reddy's helpful tips for your Home Laundry

- ★ Avoid wasting hot water while laundering. Use the cold and warm water setting as much as possible to cut down on the energy needed to heat water.
- ★ Use the water level control on your washer. You should use less hot water for small loads.
- ★ Follow detergent instructions carefully. Oversudsing makes your washing machine motor work harder than it needs to.

Clean the lint filter on your washer and dryer after each load to keep your machine running efficiently.

PP&K Oct. 4 By Ford Sales And Jaycees

Local youngsters will be "dusting off" their footballs and loosening up their throwing arm soon for the 1975 Punt, Pass & Kick competition.

This year the local level of PP&K will be co-sponsored by the Winters Jaycees in conjunction with Dale's Ford Sales.

Nationally PP&K is celebrating its 15th anniversary. It is sponsored by the Ford Dealers of America in cooperation with the National Football League. Since it was started in 1961, the program has attracted more than 11.5 million youngsters - and participation this year is expected to top the 1,200,000 mark.

Participants in the Punt, Pass & Kick program compete only against others their own age. Any youngster 8 through 13 years of age, accompanied by a parent or guardian, may register to compete in PP&K at any participating Ford Dealer. There is no entrance fee and no body contact during competition. No special equipment is needed and participating does not impair a youngster's amateur standing.

Scoring is based on accuracy and range with one point added for every foot of punting, passing and kicking distance, and a point subtracted for every foot off a center line.

Twelve national finalists will compete for the National Championships in their age group during the halftime of the Super Bowl Game in Miami, January 18, 1976. Winners will have their names permanently inscribed in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. Their trophies will be presented by Football Commissioner Pete Rozelle.

Blizzards Lost Season's First Game

Hard luck swamped the Winters Blizzards last Friday night at Clyde, as the little-experienced 1975 Blue team lost the season's opener to the Bulldogs 33-0, and lost their starting quarterback, probably for the rest of the season.

Bobby Joe Poindexter, who started against Clyde in the slot spot, received a broken collar bone in the second quarter, and is expected to be out the rest of the season. The senior was also the No. 1 punter, kick-off man, and extra point kicker.

Coeach Jimmy Stubblefield said Monday that Marvin Moore, a junior, will be moved up to quarterback starter position. He generated the team for most of the game at Clyde Friday night.

Loss of Poindexter leaves only 20 boys on the varsity squad. Coach

Stubblefield said of the 21 boys suited up for last Friday's Clyde contest, only four had ever played varsity football before. Inexperience took its toll against the Bulldogs, and loss of Poindexter in the second had some meaning in the outcome of this first contest of the season. It was a non-conference game. The coach said, however, that he thinks the Blizzards group will do better this week, and will continue to improve as the season progresses.

The coaching staff passes out "stars" to players who turn in outstanding performances during each game. For Friday night's action, Marvin Moore received a star for his work on defense. He got the most tackles, 10 in all. Leroy Jones received a "star" for the "Hit of the Week" against Clyde.

Junior guard Douglas Rogers received a grade of 70 percent for work on offense, as did Mike Helm, for blocking during the evening. Jeff Buxkemper was graded at 66 percent for his defensive work Friday night.

The Bulldogs scored in all four quarters. In the second quarter, they recovered a Blizzards fumble in the end zone to wrap up six points.

PUBLIC NOTICE

SUMMARY OF PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS (S. J. R. NO. 11)
SPECIAL ELECTION NOVEMBER 4, 1975

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the separation of powers, legislative and executive provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article II, Separation of Powers, is amended to:

Provide that the powers of government of the State of Texas are divided among three distinct branches: legislative, executive, and judicial. Except as otherwise authorized by the constitution, members of one branch may not exercise any power properly attached to either of the others.

Article III, The Legislature, is amended to:

Continue the present structure of the legislature consisting of a senate with 31 members and a house of representatives with 150 members. The present organization and procedure of the legislature are continued except that the provision allowing closed executive sessions of the senate is omitted. Provisions on the conflict of interest of members of the legislature are continued, as is the governor's power to veto bills or line items in appropriation bills. The article provides for single-member senatorial, representative, and congressional districts. A compensation commission is created to recommend the compensation and allowances to be received by members of the legislature. The legislative compensation, set by law, may not exceed this recommendation and does not take effect until after an intervening general election. The article provides for annual sessions of 140 days in odd-numbered years and 90 days in even-numbered years, and a veto session of 15 days upon request of three-fifths of the membership of each house. The legislature may meet in organizational sessions prior to the convening of the legislature in regular sessions.

Article IV, The Executive, is amended to:

Continue the present status of the governor and all other statewide officers, and include the commissioner of agriculture as an executive department officer. The governor is limited to two consecutive terms. The governor is authorized to designate chairmen of state boards, and to remove gubernatorial appointees to state agencies for cause unless the removal is vetoed by the senate. The article mandates the legislature to provide a new governor-elect an appropriation so the governor-elect may organize an office prior to inauguration, and permits the legislature to grant powers of fiscal control to the governor. All governmental agencies, with several exceptions, have a life of not more than ten years unless extended by the legislature, and, at the regular session held in odd-numbered years, the governor shall submit to the legislature a report on the organization and requirements, for the administration of elections, and for the protection of the electoral process. The general election for state and county officers is to be held in even-numbered years on a date prescribed by law.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the SEPARATION OF POWERS, LEGISLATIVE, AND EXECUTIVE PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective January 1, 1976, except Article III, Section 5, which becomes effective January 1, 1981.

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the judiciary provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article V, The Judiciary is amended to:

Establish a unified judicial system consisting of the supreme court, court of appeals, district courts, and circuit courts. Existing county courts and county judges are continued until otherwise provided by law. All judges (except municipal judges), district attorneys and district clerks must be elected by the people. The supreme court and the court of criminal appeals are merged into a single court of last resort, and this supreme court is authorized to provide for efficient administration of the judicial system and to balance case loads. Individual rights for a trial by jury and appeal by the accused are continued. The state is granted the right to appeal in criminal cases in limited circumstances, and the legislature is permitted to establish methods of appeal to the courts from decisions of state agencies.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the JUDICIARY PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the voting and election provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VI, Voter Qualifications and Elections, is amended to:

Provide for registration and qualifications for voting including voter residency requirements to be established by law. A citizen of the United States who is at least 18 years of age and who meets the registration and residence requirements provided by law is a qualified voter unless the person has been convicted of a felony and for that felony is incarcerated, on parole, or on probation, or unless the person is mentally incompetent as determined by a court. Voting by the people in all elections must be by secret ballot, and the legislature shall provide by law for residence, registration, and absentee voting tax of two cents on the $100 assessed valuation to provide funds for the State Building Fund. Provides that all real property and tangible personal property must be taxed equally and uniformly in proportion to market value. Existing exemptions from ad valorem taxation are continued. The present deduction of motor fuel taxes for highway purposes and the Available School Fund is retained. The "pay-as-you-go" principle for the operation of state government is retained. The legislature shall establish separate formulas for appraising land to promote the preservation of open-space land devoted to farm or ranch purposes and may establish separate formulas for appraising land to promote the preservation of forest land devoted to timber production. The $3000 exemption from state ad valorem taxation for residential homesteads is continued and the legislature by law may increase this amount. A separate $3000 exemption from ad valorem taxation by political subdivisions is provided for the residential homestead of persons at least 65 years of age and the political subdivision may increase this amount. The legislature by law may exempt from ad valorem taxation certain property owned by veterans' organizations, non-profit water corporations, and persons in need because of age or disability, and economic circumstance. The legislature may also exempt property to preserve historical, cultural or natural history resources. Taxpayers are provided a new method of correcting inequitable tax assessments by paying ad valorem taxes under protest and suing for a refund in a district court. State debt may be authorized by law only if approved by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature and submitted to and approved by a majority of the qualified voters of the state voting on the question. Public funds and public credit may be used only for public purposes and no public funds or public credit may be used to influence the election of a public officer. The article prohibits a retail sales tax on agricultural machinery or parts, fertilizer, feeds or seeds, prescription drugs or medicine, or food, except food sold by restaurants for immediate consumption. An assessment voted by marine food or agricultural producers on their product sales is not a tax if provision is made for the individual producer to receive a refund of the assessment when the producer does not desire to be assessed.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the EDUCATION PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976, except Article VII, Section 9, which becomes effective January 1, 1979.

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the finance provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article VIII, Finance, is amended to:

Provide that state taxes may be levied and collected only by general law and to prohibit any state ad valorem tax on real property or tangible personal property except the ten cent tax provided for in Article VII and a effective January 1, 1979.

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the local government provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article IX, Local Government, is amended to:

Provide that the counties of the state are those that exist on the date of adoption of the local government article and that county boundaries may be changed if approved by a majority of the qualified voters in each affected county who vote on the question. Counties may be merged or county seats relocated if approved by two-thirds of the qualified voters in each affected county who vote on the question. The present elected constitutional county offices are retained and four year terms of office are provided. The voters of a county may create additional offices, eliminate offices, or combine the duties and functions of offices. The voters may also grant ordinance making power to the governing body of the county. Cities and towns having more than 1,500 inhabitants may become home-rule cities. Tax limitations are established for operating purposes for cities and counties and the legislature is required to fix debt limits for cities, towns, counties, and school and community junior college districts.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the LOCAL GOVERNMENT PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective on September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the general provisions of the Texas Constitution. Article X, General Provisions, is amended to:

Provide the basic requirements relating to public officeholders such as the official oath and residency requirements. The provision defining the separate and community property of spouses is retained, and the protection of a homestead from forced sale is continued. The legislature is required to protect certain personal property from forced sale. Current wages for personal service are not subject to garnishment. A private corporation may not be chartered except under general law, and no bank may engage in business at more than one place in this state. The legislature must provide for the regulation of bank holding companies. The present system of local-option elections for the prohibition or sale of alcoholic beverages is continued. The legislature is required to prohibit lotteries and gift enterprises but may permit certain bingo games and raffles. The presently existing provisions for retirement benefits of teachers and other public employees are modified to allow the state to contribute more than 10%.

A policy that the quality of the environment of the State of Texas is to be protected is established, and the legislature is required to implement and enforce this policy. No state funds may be used to remove surface water from the river basin of origin if the surface water is necessary to supply the reasonably foreseeable water requirements of the basin for the ensuing 50 years, unless the removal of water is sufficiently replaced to the point of removal from outside the state or is on a temporary, interim basis. The seaward beaches of the Gulf of Mexico and coastal submerged lands belonging to the state are held by the state in perpetual trust for the people, and subject to reasonable limitations prescribed by law, the public has the free and unrestricted right of use and benefit of the beaches. The provision is continued that, except as otherwise provided by law, a rate of interest in excess of ten percent a year is usurious, and that if a contract does not specify a rate of interest, the rate under the contract may not exceed six percent a year. Discrimination against handicapped persons is prohibited, and a goal of the state is established to provide every resident access to adequate, comprehensive health care.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the GENERAL PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

Revising the mode of amending provisions of the Texas Constitution. The proposed article will be the last article of the constitution. If only Proposition No. 8 is adopted, the article will replace Article XVII of the present constitution. If other propositions are adopted, the article will be appropriately renumbered to remain the last article of the constitution. If all propositions are adopted, the article will be Article XI. Article XVII, Mode of Amending the Constitution of the State, is amended to:

Establish a procedure for constitutional amendments requiring a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature and majority approval by the voters. The calling of a limited or unlimited constitutional convention with voter approval is provided. The question of whether to call a constitutional convention must be submitted to the people every 30 years.

The wording of the proposed constitutional amendment as it will appear on the ballot is as follows:

"The constitutional amendment revising the MODE OF AMENDING PROVISIONS of the Texas Constitution."

If adopted by the voters, will become effective September 1, 1976.

The Great Green Machine is a money maker.

Machines usually make things. The Great Green Machine is no exception. It makes money. Specifically, it takes your money and turns it into more money. The amount it can make for you depends on how much you have to put into it, and how long you leave it there.

It's against the law to print your own money. But with The Great Green Machine, you get the next best thing.

25-YEAR PINS—These members of Winters Masonic Lodge all have been Masons for 25 years or more. They were presented 25-year pins during the regular stated meeting of the Masonic Lodge last Thursday night. Many of them became Masons in other lodges, but have transferred their membership to the Winters lodge. O. J. Murray, worshipful master of the Winters Masonic Lodge, presented the pins. Those present for the ceremonies were, front row, left to right, Ross Russell, T. A. McMillan, Floyd Milliorn, Rayburn Merrill and Ottis Kirby. Back row, Joe Irvin, W. M. Hays Sr., O. B. Raper, Melvin Mapes and Weldon Mills. Several others were presented 25-year pins, but were unable to be present.

State Capital Highlights

AUSTIN—Senate impeachment trial of 229th District Judge O.P. Carrillo has been postponed until September 29.

Light Turnout For Budget Hearing

Only five Winters residents, in addition to the City Council, turned out for the hearing on the proposed budget for the next fiscal year.

The council adopted the proposal without change.

Council is anticipating tax revenue at $165,000, with the total General Fund revenue at $326,631. Total estimated expenses for the General Fund has been set at $323,516.

Water Department revenue was estimated at $95,560, with expenses pegged at $95,961.

Council figured a deficit in the Electric Department, with $263,900 anticipated revenue against estimated expenses of $285,666.

Senators agreed to the delay since Carrillo faces trial this week in a Corpus Christi federal court on an income tax indictment.

In opening preliminaries, the Senate resolved itself into a court of impeachment and adopted rules for the historic trial—third proceeding of the type in a century involving a Texas public official.

Carrillo's attorneys filed a 170-page answer to the House impeachment resolution of August 5, denying all 10 charges and challenging sufficiency of the allegations. The answer remains as pending business when senators return to Austin late this month to begin taking testimony.

The 51-year-old judge, whose district includes Duval, Jim Hogg and Starr counties, is accused of abusing judicial authority, political conspiracies and use of Duval County personnel and equipment for personal benefit.

Carrillo's motion to disqualify Atty. Gen. John Hill and his staff from assisting the House prosecutors was rejected 23-7.

Senators imposed on the prosecution a duty of proving its charges "beyond a reasonable doubt" to gain a two-thirds vote for removal of the judge, whose troubles date back to a break with the old George Parr political faction in Duval County.

Short Snorts

Garrett Morris of Fort Worth was elected chairman of the new Texas Public Utilities Commission.

The Texas highway traffic toll Labor Day weekend was the lowest since 1966.

Perpetual Care Started At Bluff Creek

A perpetual care program has been started for Bluff Creek Cemetery in South Taylor County, it was learned this week.

Several contributions to the permanent fund already have been made, it was said. Funds will be deposited in the Tuscola State Bank, and only the interest earned will be used for maintenance of the cemetery; the principal will remain untouched. M. C. Shaffer will take care of maintenance at the cemetery, it was said.

Those who wish to make contributions to this perpetual fund for maintenance of Bluff Creek Cemetery may make deposits direct to the fund in the Tuscola State Bank, or contact: M. C. Shaffer, Star Route, Ovalo 79541; Mrs. Ella Gobel, State St., Winters 79567; or P. L. Lail, 3349 So. 20th, Abilene. Contributions also may be left at Spill Funeral Home, Winters.
