FOR BETTER ROADS

One Million Dollars on Good Roads.

Actuated by the enthusiastic movement for good roads in Virginia, Congressman Otey of that state has introduced a bill in congress to appropriate $1,000,000 to be expended under direction of the secretary of agriculture in the building and maintaining of good roads throughout the United States. The work is to be done in each state and territory "on such plans and specifications as the secretary may adopt as being best fitted to secure permanent, good and substantial highways in the respective localities." The construction to proceed contemporaneously in all states and territories as far as possible.

Provision is made that after the government has spent $1 per capita in any state or territory, no further expenditure is to be made until the work has been completed to that stage in all parts of the country. Thus, if the law went into effect, something like $500,000 would be spent on roads in the state of Washington, and when this amount was exhausted the work would stop until the $1 per capita had been expended in all the other states.

Congressman Otey believes that this construction of roads by the government would enable the people to learn the best methods of good road making, and perhaps induce states or communities to take up the work of building improved highways.

In a larger sense the aim of the bill is the better dissemination of knowledge by means of mail delivery to every door; to foster education by facilitating school attendance, and to promote more intimate interstate relations. The expenditure would be large, but Mr. Otey maintains that the people demand good roads as part compensation for the burdens of taxation they bear, and putting several millions in good road will be as profitable an investment appropriating it for acquiring outside work, for irrigation or for the improvement of rivers and harbors.

Kansas City's Good Roads

Kansas City is mildly protesting against the use of two thirds of what is known as the "dram shop fund" for the construction of rock roads outside the city, the objection being that it is manifestly unfair that within 10 years the city should have contributed nearly $1,300,000 out of the $1,500,500 expended on the country highways.

However unequal the burden of cost may have been, as between city and country, the results obtained have been of immense benefit. The 200 miles of rock road already constructed have brought much of the country into touch with the city, and when the trunk highways are all macadamized, as they will be in the next two years, there will not be a farm house more than two miles from a rock road.

This facility in reaching town adds to the pleasure and profit of the farmer's family, and makes unnecessary that isolation, which often because of muddy roads, is one of the disagreeable features of country life. With good roads, easy communication and rural mail delivery, the farmer is in close touch with the city, and now wonders how he could have got along so many years with the miserable thoroughfares that so many rural communities put up with.

The city has also enjoyed large benefits from this improvement. Facilities for communication between city and country have given an impetus to trade, for every city reaps a benefit from the visits of the farmers to town. Market gardens are rendered easy of access, which insures a better table for the resident of the city, and a series of beautiful drives is being built up that will be taken advantage of by the hundreds who enjoy the change from the heat and stifling atmosphere of the city to the fresh air along the picturesque highways of the country.

A Boom for Good Roads

From the report of the Automobile Club of America delegate it appears that the good roads convention held at Charlottesville, Va., recently, under the auspices of the National Good Roads association, the United States office of public road inquiry and the Jefferson Memorial Road association was significant as evidencing the rapidly growing recognition of the good roads movement throughout the country. The Charlottesville convention marked the end of the tour of the Southern railway "good roads train" which left Washington last October, carrying road building machinery and road experts, and made official stops at these places: Winston-Salem and Asheville, in North Carolina; Greenville and Chattanooga, Tenn.; Birmingham, Montgomery and Mobile, Ala.; Atlanta, Columbus and Augusta, Ga.; Greenville, Columbia and Charleston, S. C.; Raleigh, N. C.; Danville, Richmond, Lynchburg and Charlottesville, Va.

Conventions were held at all these places, state and country good roads associations formed, and a sample of good road constructed at each place. The train covered some 5000 miles, congregated over 50,000 people and constructed about 34 miles of sample road. At Charlottesville men of national reputation addressed an audience of 2000 or 3000 people throughout the greater part of three days, and nearly a mile of road was constructed, of what is to be known, when it is completed, as the Jefferson Memorial road, running from Charlottesville about three miles to Monticello, the home and tomb of Thomas Jefferson.

Good Roads in Georgia.

In improving its highways the state of Georgia now leads the rest of the south. Nearly 2000 miles of graded roads have been built in the state in the last 10 years, and under a law passed in 1891 the various counties now raise $400,000 annually for road making and road mending. The state law permits the employment of chain gangs of misdemeanor convicts on road making as a relief to hired labor. The convicts are quartered in movable camps and during the winter in county barracks, which have all the conveniences of a well-regulated prison. The only persons in the state who object to this method of improving the highways are the convicts and their opinion does not count.

Camping Party.

The following parties are now happily situated on the banks of the beautiful Colorado about six miles below town as we go to press and that the finny tribe is suffering there is no doubt, for they went well prepared to accomplish that end.

The crowd consists of Messdames Sam Baker, Edwin Day, J. H. Miller, Misses Bessie and Aileen Miller, Ida Royalty, Susie and Maggie Sharp, Alma Crews, and Messrs. Will Schleyer, Heywood Miller, Tate Walker, Audie Gustavus and Clavie Royalty.

Meeting Scottish-Rite Masons Galveston, Texas. Convention rates. Dates of sale Aug 9 and 10th.

J. W. Powell spent Tuesday in San Angelo on legal business.

Messrs J. J. Black, Loswell & Son and W. C. Castleberry of Tom Green county were here Monday on school land business. They interviewed Judge Powell.

Miss Maggii Underwood who has been attending the School of Music in Chicago for the past six months came in Friday morning. She is very much pleased with her stay in Chicago and progress in the study of music. Miss Underwood is a pianist of which Ballinger might well feel proud, her skill as a performer on this instrument was recognized among lovers of music before her study in Chicago and no doubt her stay in the Conservatory of music has greatly developed her remarkable talent in that line. Her many friends in Ballinger welcome her return.

An Ohio congregation has become disrupted because their pastor preached in a shirt waist. But as the day was warm and the shirt waist was not all he preached in it seems as if their objections were somewhat far-fetched. — Ex.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

The way a bachelor learns so much he ought not to know is by never telling where he learns it. To save his life a man cannot make his wife distinguish the difference between his being sick and cross.

Many a girl who isn't red-headed but pretends to be, is so smart that that she can fool any man about it till she gets married to him.

The two things that a woman tries to work into the reason for her husband not feeling well are, the weight of his underwear and insomnia.

Whether a woman's gown has seven yards of train to it or consists principally of three feathers and a low shoulder straps, she can manage to spend on it all the money she can get out of her husband or father.

The right kind of wife sets out to save all the money her husband squandered on her when they were engaged

The University of Texas catalogue is a volume of 542 pages, full of information concerning the work and equipment of the State's great educational enterprise. With a system starting with the primary grades and extending through the intermediate, grammar, and high school, with the University as the crowning step, Texas has an educational edifice in line with the best thought of the times and of which any state might well feel proud. The generous endowment provided for the system, if properly supplemented by appropriations from the general revenue, will ultimately put Texas to the forefront in educational affairs. Keep the boys and girls at a home school where they will not be educated out of harmony with the spirit and traditions of their fathers. A catalogue may be had by addressing Registrar Lomax, Austin, Texas.

Over one hundred views of the World's Fair grounds and buildings have been sent out by the Texas World's Fair Commission with the exhibit car of the Texas State Fair, and will be shown in nearly every city and town in Texas.

GREAT THING FOR TEXAS.

Texas State Fair Enthusiastic For Texas Exhibit at St. Louis.

Dallas, Tex., July—The directors and officers of the Texas State Fair and Dallas Exposition are enthusiastic supporters of the movement to have a Texas exhibit at the St. Louis World's Fair. Their secretary, Capt. Sidney Smith, in speaking of the matter said:

"A display of the wonderful products and resources of the great State of Texas can be given at the St. Louis World's Fair that will astonish the world, and we of the Texas State Fair will consider it a reward for, and culmination, so to speak, of our efforts along that line, for the last 17 years—efforts which have had the valuable support of the press of Texas, liberal railway managers, and the drummer, the great evangelist of commerce.

"With all her natural wealth, needing only capital and people to develop it, with so much of her fertile acreage still idle for lack of farmers to cultivate it, and with her many fascinating inducements needing only to be shown to the homeseeker, what state, what country, can be named that needs so much an exhibit at the St. Louis World's Fair?"

"The amount asked for by the Texas World's Fair Commission is a mere bagatelle compared with the benefits Texas will gain by this move, and we know enough about Texas people to feel fully confident that twice that amount can be raised if they can be induced to give the matter its due consideration. To assist in bringing this about, we have practically turned over our advertising car to the Texas World's Fair Commission, which under the management of Louis J. Wortham, has provided views of the World's Fair exhibition places and much matter pertaining to the obligation which is upon the people of Texas to see that their state is adequately represented in the greatest exposition in the history of the world. We ask nothing in return for our expenses, but donate its use and the expenses of our crew in appreciation of what we consider one of the greatest efforts ever put forth in behalf of our State, and with the earnest hope that the necessary funds may be speedily raised and active work begun, for, as little as has been said about it, there is no time to lose.

"The Texas State Fair has also offered the use of its grounds and buildings for the collection of the Texas exhibit, and will render all the assistance in its power in the arrangement and care of this exhibit until it can be shipped to the Texas building at the World's Fair."

The advertising car will be accompanied on its tour through Texas by W. S. Adair, press agent of the Texas State Fair, and Tom Flinty, Jr., press agent of the Texas World's Fair Commission.

A Kansas paper tells of the dangers of newspaper borrowing as follows:

"A man who was too economical to take his home paper sent his little boy to borrow the copy taken by his neighbor. In haste the boy ran over a $4 stand of bees, and in ten minutes looked like a warty summer squash. His cries reached his father who ran to his assistance, and failing to notice a barbed wire fence, ran into that, breaking it down, cutting a handful of flesh from his anatomy, and ruining a $4 pair of paints. The cow took advantage of the gap in the fence and got into the cornfield, and killed herself eating green corn. Hearing the racket the wife ran, upset a four-gallon churn of rich cream into a basket of kittens, drowning them; in the hurry she lost a $7.00 set of teeth. The baby, left alone, crawled through the cream and into the parlor, ruining a brand-new $20 carpet. During the excitement the oldest daughter ran away with the hired man; the dog broke up eleven setting hens, and the calves got out and chewed the tails off four fine shirts."

Mother Always Keeps it Handy.

"My mother suffered a long time from distressing pains and general ill health due primarily to indigestion," says L. W. Spalding, Verona, Mo. "Two years ago I got her to try Kodol. She grew better at once and now at the age of seventy-six, eats anything she wants, remarking that she fears no bad effects as she has her bottle of Kodol handy." Don't waste time doctoring symptoms. Go after the cause. If your stomach is sound your health will be good. Kodol rests the stomach and strengthens the body by digesting your food. It is nature's own tonic. E. D. Walker.

Don't Use Big Words.

In promulgating your esoteric cogitations and in articulating your superficial sentimentalities and amicable, philosophical or psychosological observed beware of platitudinous ponderosity. Let your conversational communications possess a clarified conciseness, a compacted comprehensibility, a coherent consistency and a concatenated cogency. Eshchew all conglomerations of flatulent garrulity, jejune babble and asinine affections. Let your extemporaneous decantings and unpremeditated expectations have intelligibility and veracious vivacity without rhodomontade or thra-sonical bombast. Sedulously avoid all polysyllabic profundity pompous prolixity, posttacious vacuity, ventriloquial verbosity and vaquiloquent vapidity. Shun double extents, prurient jocosity and pestiferous profanity, ob-scurant or apparent. In other words, talk plainly, briefly, naturally sensible, purely and truthfully. Keep from slang, don't put on airs, say what you mean, mean what you say, and don't use big words.—Ex.

J. B. BELSHER, St. Louis, Mo.

Sick stock or poultry should not eat cheap stock food any more than sick persons should expect to be cured by food. When your stock and poultry are sick give them medicine. Don't stuff them with worthless stock foods. Unload the bowels and stir up the torpid liver and the animal will be cured, if it be possible to cure it. Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine unloads the bowels and stirs up the torpid liver. It cures every malady of stock if taken in time. Secure a 25-cent can of Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine and it will pay for itself ten times over. Horses work better. Cows give more milk. Hogs gain flesh. And hens lay more eggs. It solves the problem of making as much blood, flesh and energy as possible out of the smallest amount of food consumed. Buy a can from your dealer.

Lieutenant-Commander H. H.
Hayley, of the Colorado-Concho Ex-Confederate Association, is pushing preparations for the great reunion to be held here August 6 and 7. He began the work of selling privileges for the event on Wednesday the 9th, and as soon as this matter has been disposed of will begin to prepare the grounds for the reception of the old soldiers and their friends. Col. Hayley is particularly anxious to impress upon the public mind the fact that this will not be a barbecue, and that no free entertainment will be provided for visitors, but that those who attend will be expected to bring along their baskets and come prepared to look out for themselves in this respect. A warm welcome will be tended to all visitors, ex-Confederates or otherwise, and Col.
Hayley hopes to have the pleasure of welcoming the largest gathering in the history of the Association.

The privileges so far disposed of are: Newt Johnson, beef; B. F.
Cornelison, feed yard; H. A.

Paris Green and Lady Bugs.

Judge Sterling B. Toney, of the circuit court of Jefferson county, Kentucky, recently rendered an opinion in a curious case. A man was employed last July to sprinkle paris green on potato vines to kill lady bugs, and on account of the heat he opened his shirt with the result that he was poisoned by the paris green. He sued his employer, who entered a demurrer to the petition, and the learned Judge sustained the demurrer for the following reasons. The plaintiff had no right in foro scientiae or in foro exteri, to make an indecent exposure of his person while killing lady bugs; the plaintiff exceeded the scope of his employment in sprinkling the paris green elsewhere than on the potato vines, and his special and exclusive agency was to kill lady bugs basking in the shade of said potato vines; the plaintiff's act in allowing the defendant's paris green to come in contact with his flesh, instead of with the flesh of the lady bugs, was unauthorized and ultra vires; the mental and physical suffering to which the plaintiff complains was the result of his own wrong in misapplying the defendant's paris green to purposes other than those for which he was employed to apply it, and, besides, in damnum absque injuria; the plaintiff, in opening his clothes and exposing himself, to the lady bugs and paris green, was guilty of contributory negligence; the plaintiff knew as well as the defendant that paris green was poisonous, and if he did not know that parisgreen was poisonous, then this suit should not have been brought in his name, but by a committee appointed to represent him.

A very small girl, about four was about five or six feet in length, and seemed perfectly at his ease.

Jim Holland Dead.

Sunday morning the sad news that Jim Holland died at Lampasas at 6 a. m. July 13th, was received. It will be remembered that Jim was an old Runnels county boy and was an employe of J. Y. Pearce at one time. He was a graduate of the department of pharmacy of the University of Texas and some time during the year 1901 purchased a drug store at Lampasas and was working at the same at the time of his death. He was as fine a specimen of manhood physically and morally as you ever meet but the grim monster of death is no respecter of persons, for he takes the strong as well as the weak. The editor of this paper was well acquainted with deceased and knew him to be a fine man in every respect and we join friends and relatives in their sorrow over the demise of this noble young man.

Notice.

All members are urged to attend the K. of P. lodge, under a penalty of a fifty cent fine for failure to attend, next Monday night July 21st. Important busi-

Three New Buildings.

Three new buildings, built of stone, are now ready for occupancy. T. S. Lankford already occupies his and is having the finishing touches put on; when completed it will be a beauty.

Ike Wooden has his building almost ready for occupancy. Harry Scott will reopen his saloon.
It is a better building than the old one; being larger and better finished.

Globber & Shaw will soon have their building completed and it will be occupied as a butcher shop and barber shop.

Although times are hard yet Ballinger continues to improve and we are glad to see this spirit pervading business element; we trust that it will continue. Let the good work go on.

But there is something else that cost me a large amount of money every year, which I wish to have? Please stop my---" Cigars? "Oh no, can't do without smoking. Please stop my---" Ribbons, jewels, ornaments and trinkets? "Not at all. Pride must be fostered if times are ever so hard; but I believe I can see a way to effect quite a saving in another direction. Please stop my---" Tea, coffee and unhealthy luxuries? "No, no, no. Not these. I cannot think of doing such a sacrifice. I must think of something else. Ah, I have it now. My home paper costs me two cents a week, $1 a year. I must save that. Please stop my---" paper. That will carry me through easily. Of course my wife and children want the paper, but I believe in retrenchment and economy.—Bulletin.

The Situation in Coke.

The Rustler is not a pessimistic paper, and does not believe in picturing all the distressing news of the country in dark colors, but it sometimes becomes the duty of the county paper to tell some of the disagreeable facts as they fall out.

The drouth has come, and the thousands of acres of corn planted in Coke will not average more than two bushels to the acre. Most of the stalks have already been cut for fodder. Not one farmer in ten will have enough corn and wheat to supply them with bread six months.

The cotton crop is suffering badly. It is generally conceded now that a half crop is all that can be expected, even if rain falls abundantly within a week. There is a probability of an almost total failure. It is no wonder that our people are curtailing their wants and buying but little—only necessities. Let us all join in and hope that the cotton will yet grow us out. It may do so if the much needed rain comes speedily.—Coke Co. Rustler.

A Specimen of Art.

Saturday evening a well known citizen accompanied his family, who were going away for the summer, to the International and Great Northern depot. Just before the train started his wife slipped her hand into his pocket and drew a five dollar bill.

"Here! What's that?" ejaculated the astonished citizen.

"That," replied his better half smiling sweetly, "is merely a specimen of my drawn work!"—Ex.

"Me?" said the boy, surprised at unsolicited commendation from any source.

"Yes," went on the minister. "I watched you all through the sermon this morning, and you hardly moved."

"Oh," exclaimed the lad, as a light broke upon him. "Well, you see, I was afraid of waking pop up."

Truer words than these by Samuel Smiles, were never penned. Fortune has often been blamed for her blindness; but fortune is not as blind as men are. Those who look at practical life will find that fortune is usually on the side of the industrious, as the wind and waves are on the best side of the navigators. Success treads on the head of every right effort; and though it is possible to over-estimate success to an extent of almost defying it, as is sometimes done, still, in any worthy pursuit, it is meritorious. Nor are all the qualities necessary to insure success at all extraordinary. They may, for the most part, be summed up in these two columns, common sense and perseverance.

Born Six Weeks Apart.

El Paso, Tex., July 14.—A Mexican woman in this city has given birth to two healthy children, the second one born six weeks after the first. The case caused considerable comment among physicians.

Teach your boy a trade and prepare your daughter to make a living for herself, should the necessity arise. If you do that the probability of their bringing disgrace upon you is materially reduced.—Yoakum Herald

And that's no joke. We have too many young ladies who are proud of the fact that they don't know how to do a thing but corner a piano and deal it short arm jabs, or read Laura Jean Libbey's latest effusion. Teach them something which will render them independent.

Richest American Youth.

Marcellus Hartley Dodge, by many millions the richest youth in the United States probably attracts less attention among those who do not know him than any other student interested in the commencement exercises at Columbia university New York, this year. He is still under 20, tall and slender in appearance, with dark eyes and a pallid complexion, that his devotion to his books. Alfred Gywnne Vanderbilt received under his father's will, after all the other bequests had been paid, about $54,000,000. Marcellus Dodge received upward of $60,000,000 under his grandfather's will a few months ago.

His riches haven't changed his manner of life. He still lives in one room just as he has done since he first began to prepare for college. It is too far for him to walk to Columbia, but wherever he has to go within two or three miles of his home he walks simply to save car fare.

He is economical almost to the point of penury. He dressed well, as befits an under-graduate, but never showy. About the only extravagances that he has at present are clothes and books.

A Fishing Party.

A jolly fishing party consisting of John Hoffer Chaperone, L. Markowitz, Harry Thomson, Portus Gay, John and Fritz Ryan, Conda Wylie. Will Dunlap, Henry Tipton with Pete Laxon as chief cook and bottle washer and fisherman spent Friday night Saturday and Sunday on the Colorado river near the fall. A fine time, plenty of fish and mesquitos were reported.

Ice Cream Supper.

The ladies of the Methodist church will serve ice cream and cake in the building next door to Ostertag's furniture store, on Tuesday July 22 from 6 to 11 o'clock, p. m., the proceeds to be used to carpet the aisles of the church. Everybody cordially invited.

Pumphrey.

Now, it has been a whet since last we wrote and some might think that we have dried up and blown away, or else washed away but it is neither. We are the same old seven and nine laboring under the same old complaint, deprivation of intellectual mind, doing nothing, never did, and don't want to do anything; subsisting principally on what little we eat and the interest on what we owe.

Sunday School still continues with very good interest. Beginning with last quarter G. W. Cooper was elected superintendent and Miss Jennie Cooper, secretary.

C. E. Nance. Misses Mattie Church and Virgie Nance and others worshipped at Maro Sunday.

Mr. Iner, formally of this place but now of East Texas piney woods, was visiting here last week.

Mr. Gregory and wife of Blum, Texas, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. Drake of this place

J. E. Evans, of Mills county, is visiting relatives here now.

Thursday and Friday are the days set by the overseer to open his new public road from here to Winters and Wingate. At last we can get away from home without opening wire gates.

W. T. Middleton had business at Audra and Guion Monday and Tuesday.

A good and large crop of maize is now being harvested. Also a large and promising crop of young maize is fast growing. Since the corn crop passed through the harvester all attention has been turned toward the cotton, and up till a few days ago no one could tell that cotton was growing at all.

C. F. Awalt says he will set up the soda water if he backs out again on selling his place at $12.50 per acre. Now ye prospectors from the east come around and lets get the soda or you get the cheapest place in the country.

So far we have had but little rain but we are still in hopes.

All had an enjoyable time at the cream supper at Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Pumphrey's Wednesday night

The Methodist meeting will begin here Saturday at eleven o'clock.

How to Enslave Him.

Max O'Rell, in his book "Her Royal Highness, Woman," gives this advice to wives: "To rule your husband, my dear lady, do exactly as you please, but always pretend that you do as he pleases. That is where your ability comes in. Men are ruled, as children are, by the prospect of reward. The reward of your husband is your amiability, your sweetness, your devotion and your beauty, of which you should take constant care. Always let him suppose that it is for him that you wish to remain beautiful. The woman who believes that she is asserting her independence every time she puts on a hat particularly displeasing to her husband is as clever and intelligent as the Irishman who buys a return trip ticket at a railway office, and, on entering the car remarks to the passengers: 'I have played a good joke on the company. I have bought a return ticket, but I don't mean to come back.'"

The Trust in Snapshot Goods.

Recently a Philadelphia put on the market what is said to be the best quality of photographic paper ever invented and introduced it generally through dealers, relates Victor Smith. A tremendous demand sprung up, but customers who went back for a second supply were informed very cautiously that their dealer no longer handled it. Why not? Oh, well and so. Orders had been received from the trust, and it was either quit selling that paper or go out of business.

Pious Park Entertainments.

In the dramatic papers there is an advertisement signed by the Rev. S. Edward Young, chaplain of the Pastors' Church Alliance of Pittsburg, asking for singers and musicians for the summer for some of the Pittsburg parks. The intention is to give a series of sacred concerts under the management of the Rev. Mr. Young. This is another step of the church toward joining hands with the theatrical world in an effort to give the great public opportunity to attend worthy entertainments.

Good Wages in Salt Lake.

The Salt Lake Telegram says that in that city there are some expert electrical workers who earn $500 a month. Two expert decorative painters are credited with receiving $20 a day and finding employment whenever they desire work. A few plaster-cast men command wages equally high. Bricklayers get $7 a day, while plumbers, tanners, carpenters and stone-cutters all get $4.50 a day. Machinists earn from $3 to $4.50; painters, $3 and $3.50. Restaurant cooks get from $25 to $40 a week.

Hunted for Loose Fingers.

After Senator Tillman has finished a speech, says a Washington correspondent, the senate employs always look under the seats to see if any of his fingers are lying around. For in gesticulating he has a habit of shaking his extended fingers so violently that it seems as if they would fly off.

A Character in His Own Book.

An interesting fact about Clara Morris' forthcoming novel or stage life is that the actress may herself be recognized in one of the characters. She is not the heroine, however. The personality that rather thinly disguises her is that of the actress of experience and some success, who is instrumental in introducing to the stage the heroine, a young girl with whose fortunes on the boards the story chiefly concerns itself.

Repulsive Features.

Blackheads, pimples, greasy faces and muddy complexions, which are so common among women, especially girls at a certain age, destroying beauty, disfiguring and making repulsive features which would otherwise appear attractive and refined, indicate that the liver is out of order. An occasional dose of Herbine will cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver and so establish a clear, healthy complexion. 50c at E. D. Walker's Drug Store.

Two Mormons have been making a canvass of Brownwood during the past few days, circulating their literature. They made house to house visits claiming themselves to be disseminators of gospel truth. They are careful not to say anything about polygamy. While polygamy is the one great central tenet of Mormonism, it is kept in the background, and plausible theories are introduced by their missionaries, presuming upon the ignorance of the people. But a practice which is so pernicious as to exclude a man from a seat in the United States' Congress ought not to find any adherents in a Christian community of such intelligence as the community in which these men are scattering literature.—Brownwood Telephone-Messenger.

Attractive Women.

All women sensibly desire to be attractive. Beauty is the stamp of health because it is the outward manifestation of inner purity. A healthy woman is always bright and happy. When every drop of blood in the veins is pure a beautiful flush is on the cheek. But when the blood is impure, moroseness, bad temper and a sallow complexion tells the tale of sickness, all too plainly. And women today know there is no beauty without health. Wine of Cardui crowns women with beauty and attractiveness by making strong and healthy those organs which make her a woman. Try Wine of Cardui, and in a month your friends will hardly know you.

ANOTHER THRU TRAIN TO KOOL KOLORADO

BEGINNING JULY FIRST, WE SHALL HAVE TWO THRU TRAFFS TO COLORADO EACH DAY.

One will leave Fort Worth at 9:45 a. m., the other, 11:10 p. m.
after the arrival of all evening connections.

For our guests who wish to retire early, a sleeping-car will be ready each evening at 9 o'clock.

Both trains will run thru to Denver. Each will carry thru coaches and sleeping cars, and meals will be served, en route, in cave dining-cars.

Tho this doubles the thru train service to Colorado from this territory, there is still "ONLY ONE ROAD" which has any at all. We have also direct Colorado line; make the best time, and haul nearly everybody who goes. And, using our line, "YOU DON'T HAVE TO APOLOGIZE," you know.

"THE DENVER ROAD."

PASSENGER RTMENT DEAP FORT WORTH TEXAS

N. B.—The rate from all Texas points, is one fare plus two dollars for the round trip, good, returning, till October 31st, on sale all summer, every day. Tickets routed over our line have more stop-over privileges than any other road can offer, too.

Bright's Disease.

The largest sum ever paid for a prescription, changed hands in San Francisco, Aug. 30, 1901. The transfer involved in coin and stock $112,500.00 and was paid by a party of business men for a specific for Bright's Disease and Diabetes, hitherto incurable diseases.

They commenced the serious investigation of the Specific Nov. 15, 1900. They interviewed scores of the cured and tried it out on its own merits by putting over three dozen cases on the treatment and watching them. They also got physicians to name chronic, incurable cases, and administered it with the physicians for judges. Up to Aug. 25, eighty seven per cent of the test cases were either well or progressing favorably.

There being but thirteen per cent of failures, the parties were satisfied and closed the transaction. The proceedings of the investigating committee and the clinical reports of the test cases were published and will be mailed free on application. Address JOHN J. FULTON COMPANY, 420 Montgomery St. San Francisco, Cal.

Eugene Field's

Views on Ambition and Dyspepsia.

"Dyspepsia," wrote Eugene Field, "often incapacitates a man for endeavor and sometimes extinguishes the fire of ambition." Though great despite his complaint Field suffered from indigestion all his life. A weak, tired stomach can't digest your food. It needs rest. You can only rest it by the use of a preparation like Kodol, which relieves it of work by digesting your food. Rest soon restores it to its normal tone.

Acts Immediately.

Colds are sometimes more troublesome in summer than in winter, it's so hard to keep from adding to them while cooling off after exercises. One Minute Cough Cure cures at once. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Sure cure for coughs, colds, croup, throat and lung troubles. E. D. Walker.

Acting Within His Right.

Alfred Hemenway, of Boston, the law partner of ex Secretary Long, tells this story: "A poorly dressed woman sat alone in a railway station. Attention was called to her by a man who exclaimed: 'Here's a poor woman who has no ticket to her destination. I'll chip in 10 cents for her. Who'll help?' Presently he had a hat full of coin, and announced: 'She has more than her fare, but not enough for a shawl. She needs a shawl; I'll chip in a quarter for that.' Again he made the round and again announced: 'She ought to have a bonnet; I'll chip in half a dollar for the bonnet.' When he made the round a third time, a newcomer entered the station, and turning to the philanthropist said:

"Why Hiram, I'm glad to see you and your wife again."

"How's this?" asked one of the contributors. "Is that woman your wife?" "Yes," drawled the philanthropist. "What right have you to collect money for your wife?" demanded several.

"What right have I to collect money for any other fellow's wife?" was the retort that closed the debate."

Vacation Days.

Vacation time is here and the children are fairly living out of doors. There could be no healthier place for them. You need only to guard against the accidents incidental to most open air sports. No remedy equals De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve for quickly stopping pain or removing danger of serious consequences. For cuts, scalds and wounds. "I used De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve for sores, cuts and bruises," says L. B. Johnson, Swift, Texas. "It is the best remedy on the market." Sure cure for piles and skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. E. D. Walker.

The Falling Irishman.

Father O'Keefe, the Catholic chaplain at West Point, was listening to some raillery one evening concerning the efficacy of prayer. It was all good-humored enough, for his companions at the time were men who held him in deep respect and regard. His argument was that very, very, few of us who are helped by prayer are inclined to give credit for the assistance to the proper source, and often fondly believe that our good fortune is of our own devising. To point his argument he told the tale of a Celt who was engaged as all-round man in one of the big office buildings. Cleaning windows one day on the eighteenth floor, he lost balance and fell, exclaiming as he realized his great peril:

"O Lor'd, help me, a sinner—help me!"

The words were hardly uttered when he caught on a projection from a window on the fifteenth or fourteenth floor, when, assured of his safety as he swung free, he added:

"Oh! well, yez needn't moind."
—Philadelphia Times.

Poisoning the System.

It is through the bowels that the body is cleaned of impurities. Constipation keeps these poisons in the system, causing headache, dullness and melancholia at first, then unsightly eruptions and finally serious illness unless a remedy is applied. De Witt's Little Early Risers prevent this trouble by stimulating the liver and promote easy, healthy action of the bowels. These little pills do not act violently, but by strengthening the bowels enable them to perform their own work. Never gripe or distress. E. D. Walker.

The Perfect Liver Medicine.

Mrs. M. A. Jolley, Noble, O. T., writes: "I have used Herbine for a number of years, and can cheerfully recommend it as the most perfect liver medicine and the greatest blood purifier. It is a medicine of positive merit, and fully accomplishes all that is claimed for it." Malaria cannot find a lodgment in the system while the liver is in perfect order for one of its functions is to prevent the absorption of fever producing poisons. Herbine is a most efficient liver regulator. 50c at E. D. Walker's Drug Store.

—Try McKinly when you want good blacksmithing.

The Boss Worm Medicine.

H. P. Kumpe, Druggist, Leighton, Ala., writes: "One of my customers had a child who was sick and threw up all food, could retain nothing on its stomach. He bought one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, and it brought up 119 worms from the child. It's the boss worm medicine in the world." White's Cream Vermifuge is also the children's tonic. It improves their digestion and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to the health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. 25c at E. D. Walker's Drug Store.

Hard on Both of Them.

An Irishman whose face, says the London Outlook, was so plain that his friends used to tell him it was an offense to the landscape happened also to be as poor as he was homely.

One day a neighbor met him, and asked:

"How are you Pat?"
"Mighty bad! Sure, tis starvation that's starin' me in the face."

"Begorra" exclaimed his neighbor, sympathetically, "it can't be very pleasant for either of yez!"

Cures Sciatica.

Rev. W. D. Riley, L. L. D., Cuba, New York, writes: "After fifteen days of excruciating pain from sciatic rheumatism, under various treatments, I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Liniment, the first application giving my first relief, and the second entire relief. I can give it unqualified recommendation." 25c, 50c and $1.00 at E. D. Walker's Drug Store.

Advice to Young Men.

The following epigrammatical periods are from President Porter of Yale college: Young men you are architects of your own fortunes. Rely on your own strength of body and soul. Take for your star self-reliance. Inscribe on your banner, "luck is a fool, pluck is a hero." Don't take too much advice. Keep at the helm and steer your own ship and remember that the art of commanding is to take a fair share of the work. Think well of yourself. Strike out. Assume your own position. Put potatoes in cart, go over rough road and the small ones go to the bottom. Rise above the envious and jealous. Sight above the mark you intend to hit. Energy, invincible determination, with a right motive, are the levers that move the world. Don't swear. Don't deceive. Don't marry until you can support a wife. Be civil. Read the papers. Advertise your business. Make money and do good with it. Love your God and fellowman. Love truth and virtue. Love your country and obey its laws.—Ex.

A Married Man's Musings.

Changing minds and dresses occupies the entire time of some women.

The first requisite to a happy marriage is the husband's ability to make satisfactory explanations.

When one remembers that Solomon was the fellow who had so many wives he can't help thinking that a good deal of sympathy was wasted on Job, who had only one.

Man may be the lord of creation, but he hasn't yet learned to talk ninety words a minute with his mouth full of harpins.

Even the most truthful of women can't help calling the milk "cream" when the minister stays to dinner.

A sharp wife and a dull razor are the principal causes of profanity.

The extreme penalty for bigamy is two mothers-in-law.

Women have no real sense of humor. When you tell them a joke they give you a blank stare, but if you happen to fall off the step'adder into the tub while papering the bathroom they stand around and cackle like a lot of hysterical hens.

The bride is given away by her father. The bridegroom can be depended upon to give himself away before long.

A good wife is one who lets her husband tell his friends in her presence that he is head of the house.

Wives don't ever bother about getting the consent of the governed.

If talk wasn't cheap my wife would be running up some pretty big bills.

My wife says that an awful lot of married men fool the insurance companies by getting insurance for more than their real value.

The man who marries for peace of mind can generally count on getting a piece of his wife's.

A Runaway.

A little affair that came near being a serious runaway occurred near Hubbard's saloon building Wednesday afternoon.

A team, driven by A. Herring and another party, hitched to a buggy had been tied and when the parties above mentioned started to get in the buggy, they discovered one of the check lines unfastened from the bit and when they pulled up on the line of course the team went in a circle. They circled around some five minutes before they could be stopped. The buggy tongue was broken and the harness broken up considerably was the extent of the damage.

Practice Shoot.

The Ballinger Gun Club had a practice shoot Monday evening with following score:

|                  |    |

Don't forget the Ice Cream Supper to be given by the ladies of the Methodist church Tuesday night in the new Currie building next door to Ostertag's.

The Mayor says the city secretary has made out a full list of all city delinquent taxes since Ballinger was organized to this date and the same is in the hands of an attorney to pass on to the legal form and have the same advertised. There will be a charge of 25c for each lot each year. Delinquent parties can pay said taxes to the secretary before they reach the hands of the printer and save costs.

A. T. Teurpe, of the Oak Creek country, met with an accident that came near resulting in his death last week. He, with some other parties, were driving some cattle to Ballinger to market and in attempting to head off a calf in a pasture near Valley Creek ran his horse into a wire fence, cutting the horse very badly and throwing him some ten or fifteen feet on the other side of the fence. He was considerably bruised up but not seriously hurt.

Babston-Cass.

Last Wednesday night at early candle light at the Baptist church Mr. Chas Babston and Miss Lillie May Cass were united in marriage. Rev. Caperton spoke the words "which made two souls with but a single thought, two hearts that beat as one"

A large crowd assembled at an early hour to witness this happy event and to wish the bride and groom much happiness as they journey down life's pathway together. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom retired from the church to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous feast awaited them. Afterwards they were treated to an elegant serenade by the friends of the bride. The serenade party consisted of Misses Kate Thomson, Maud Erwin, Adelle Underwood and Messrs. Sam Parks and R. G. Erwin.

The bride is well known in Ballinger, having been reared and educated here and has a large number of friends who wish her much joy as she strolls down the stream of time.

The groom was a former citizen of Runnels, but now resides near Midland to which place they will leave in a few days to make their future home. The Banner-Leader wishes them much joy.
