

Culinary Display Best Ever Shown

Culinary art has received a large play at the Runnels County Fair this year with one of the largest exhibits ever shown here. The cooking displayed this year was of a very high quality, and showed much improvement over that shown last year and the previous year. The department was divided into several groups, and a large premium list had to be made up to take care of almost every kind of viand.

Each division had considerable competition this year, and the entire department was well filled.

The "diet" idea probably received a hard jolt by those who view the display of palatable edibles. Judges were busy almost an entire day preparing the final list and making the awards.

Robin Hood Movie Saturday, It's Free

Arrangement has been made by Higginbotham Bros. & Co. to present Douglas Fairbank's great film spectacle "Robin Hood" to the children of Ballinger free of charge, on Saturday, October 19th. The Central Shoe Company of St. Louis supplies the film, which is one of Fairbank's greatest screen successes and of immense value from an educational and historical standpoint, to dealers who carry their Robin Hood shoes.

Plenty of protection for the little tots is promised at the theatre and parents are assured that everything is being done to insure their safety. Higginbotham Bros. & Co. has rented the Palace Theatre for the performance which will be given at 10 o'clock, Saturday morning, October 19th.

Elwood McWilliams will take the part of Robin Hood in an interesting prologue and epilogue to the film. Community recitations will feature the program and souvenirs will be given to every child that attends the show. In addition prizes will be offered for the children.

Tickets for this excellent performance will be given out at the Higginbotham store on Friday evening, Oct. 18, and Saturday morning, Oct. 19. Children who wish to attend this show have only to come to the store at that time and receive tickets free of charge. As the capacity of the theatre is limited, the children are urged to come for tickets promptly at the appointed time as "first come first served" will be the policy. 16-1td-ltw

Senate Committee Probes Sugar Duty

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The United States Beet Sugar Association, representing American sugar interests, has spent "nearly $500,000" in Washington to influence congress and public opinion on sugar questions in the last six years, Harry A. Austin, its secretary-treasurer, testified today at the Senate's lobby investigation.

Austin said his organization had spent $60,000 this year while the new tariff bill with a proposed increase in sugar duties had been pending in congress.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The Senate's lobby investigation turned towards sugar today. Following rumors that huge sums of money had been spent pro and con in the lobby warfare over sugar duties, the Senate committee summoned spokesmen from the organizations of the Cuban sugar cane growers and American beet sugar producers.

A family doctor's laxative is the sensible choice!

YOUR health is too important! You can't afford experiments with your delicate bowels when coated tongue, bad breath, gas, headaches, nausea, feverishness, biliousness, lack of appetite, and no energy, warn of constipation. This applies not only to grown people; it is particularly the case where young children are concerned.

That's why a family doctor's laxative is always the safe choice! Only a doctor knows just what will cleanse the system of men, women or children without harm.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is prepared today under strict supervision from freshest herbs and other pure ingredients, and exactly according to Dr. Caldwell's original prescription.

He was a family doctor for more than forty-seven years. He specialized in the disorders of the digestive tract. He tested this prescription in thousands of cases. Men liked its quick and thorough action; the children liked its pleasant taste; old people praised it because it never gripes.

Today, millions of families rely on Dr. Caldwell's judgment in the selection of their laxative. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is now sold in all drug stores. It is the world's largest selling laxative.

Dangerous Business
Our stomach and digestive systems are lined with membrane which is delicate, sensitive and easily injured. It is dangerous business, then, to use medicines containing harsh drugs, salts or minerals, when we are constipated. In addition to the possibility of injuring the linings of our digestive system, these medicines give only temporary relief and may prove habit forming. The safe way to relieve constipation is with Herbine, the cathartic that is made from herbs and acts in the way nature intended. You can get Herbine at Weeks Drug Store.

Unnecessary Pain!

Nowadays, people take Bayer Aspirin for many little aches and pains, and as often as they encounter any pain.

Why not? It is a proven antidote for pain. It works!

And Bayer Aspirin tablets are utterly harmless. You have the medical profession's word for that; they do not depress the heart.

So, don't let a cold "run its course." Don't wait for a headache to "wear off." Or regard neuralgia, neuritis, or even rheumatism as something you must endure. Only a physician can cope with the cause of such pain, but you can always turn to Bayer Aspirin for relief.

Bayer Aspirin is always available, and it always helps. Familiarize yourself with its many uses, and avoid a lot of needless suffering.

HATCHEL NEWS

Well, the Runnels County Fair is over and we will say in the beginning that it was great; couldn't have been better unless there had been more days of it. We feel very thankful that we won the first premium on community booth. The Hatchel people worked hard getting things in shape for this year's booth. Crops were short and it was quite a job to get enough good products together to win the blue ribbon. Some people have asked what we will do with this money that we won at the fair. The money is turned over to the trustees of our school to use any way they see best to help our school.

The Hatchel community is indebted to some of our good citizens for the many days of hard labor they have given to the gathering together of the necessary products and erection of the booth. We feel proud that we have those in our community who can take the lead and go forward with this work in such a way to place our booth in first place. We take pleasure at this time to call attention to one artistic part of our booth—the name Hatchel—which was prepared by Mrs. Elmer Barnhill. We can't express the appreciation of the Hatchel people for this good work which she so freely gave. It took many hard hours work to complete this sign and we are proud that we have one in our community who is able to render this good service.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Davis and family spent Saturday night with Mrs. J. A. Davis, of Ballinger.

Mrs. W. H. Schleyer, of San Angelo, spent a short time this week with her mother, Mrs. W. A. Guin.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Harrell were numbered among those who were compelled to remain in Ballinger Saturday night on account of the rain.

The Hatchel gin has been quiet for several days on account of the rain but with a few days sunshine business will pick up again. We are proud of our gin this year, as no other can beat it.

Edward Davis and Miss Nona Saulsberry, of Ballinger, visited in the home of T. F. Davis and family Sunday.

The Hatchel school opens Wednesday morning for the '29 and 30 term. We are very fortunate in securing the services of such competent teachers and we feel that every citizen of our little community should do everything they possibly can to make our school one of the best rural schools in the county. It makes no difference how good our teachers are or how long our school term is unless we parents co-operate with the teachers our school will not be the success it should be. Boost the school in every way you can. Don't be a knocker—be in for every thing for the betterment of our community and school.

Next Sunday afternoon is our singing time. We meet at the school auditorium and welcome every singer and anyone else who cares to come. We always try to have an enjoyable program each time so you will want to return. So don't forget to be present, and bring some one with you.

Mr. and Mrs. Wirt Bales are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine baby girl born on October 10. They named the little lady Annie Pearl. Mother and baby are doing nicely.

On next Friday week is our regular P. T. A. nite. We should all be present at this meeting. Some have had the excuse all summer that the P. T. A. would not thrive until school started so school is going and let's take a new hold on P. T. A. work and make our organization one of the strongest rural P. T. A.'s in the county. We can do this if we will just work. That is what it will take to make anything go. So let's be up and doing. Let's make everyone think that Hatchel is the capital of Runnels county. At our next meeting nite we are going to have a very interesting program. We are going to have some good speakers on P. T. A. work, also light refreshments will be served, so don't forget the date, tell all your neighbors and friends and let's start the school term with a sure enough P. T. A.—one with the pep and determination to do things.

There was quite a large per cent of the Hatchel community who were compelled to remain in Ballinger last Saturday nite on account of the fine rain which covered the greater part of this county. I think everyone was quite willing to do this if it would help to bring on this fine rain of which we were so badly in need of. Everything looks now as though the long drought has been broken and that we are going to have plenty of moisture to break land for another year. Some farmers have lots of land broken and some few have grain sown and this blessing came at the time when it sure was needed. Some few were beginning to complain like they always will that we were going to have a dry fall to prepare land but it doesn't look that way now.

WHO'S WHO AT THE FAIR

Edgar Jayroe has been one of the busiest men at the Runnels County Fair. Mr. Jayroe looks after the livestock department and with this division filled to overflowing, he has had his hands full.

Jas. A. Wear and his assistants selling tickets at the grandstand can tell folks something about making change. Thursday night they sold near 4000 tickets to the grandstand in less than an hour, and used $65 worth of nickels in making the correct change.

Elmer Shepperd never stopped a stampede of cattle in his life, but in trying to hold the grandstand crowd back until he could get their tickets Thursday night, he got something of the sensation. Mr. Shepperd lost one good shirt in the deal but he stayed with the job until everything was in.

Officers found a little girl about 9 years old attempting to steal jewelry and purses in the crowd Thursday night. The girl refused to tell who her folks were and where she lived, so she was taken outside the Park and let go her way.

Wm. Hoppe who is looking after the poultry department is doing a fine piece of work. Mr. Hoppe has an excellent show and everyone is invited to inspect the fowls at sometime during the Fair.

E. F. Krebs and C. R. Stephens are the main entrance. These two gentlemen have worked each year at this place with the Fair and are very capable in handling that place. It is a place that is not so pleasant to work, away from the crowd and all entertainment but they are always found on the job meeting the public in a pleasant, and business like manner.

Norton broke the ice this year by bringing a decorated car to the opening of the fair. If this spirit can be developed each year, a great parade representing the entire county can be built up.

Officers are to be congratulated for their work during the Fair. Not an accident has happened so far and traffic has been open all the time with no jams occurring.

Senator Walter Woodard and wife, Mayor Scarbrough and wife and Secretary Sim O'Neil and wife of Coleman, were at the Fair Thursday night to witness the entire performance. The gentlemen from Coleman were enthusiastic over the crowd and the program here and are enthusiastic over the prospects for the success of the first Coleman County Fair which will start on next Wednesday, Oct. 16.

TEXAN'S POEMS PUBLISHED

"Along the Trail," a book of western poems, has been announced by the Stratford Company of Boston, Mass., which is a compilation of verse by Ulmer S. Bird, native of Robert Lee, Texas, and former student of Simmons University.

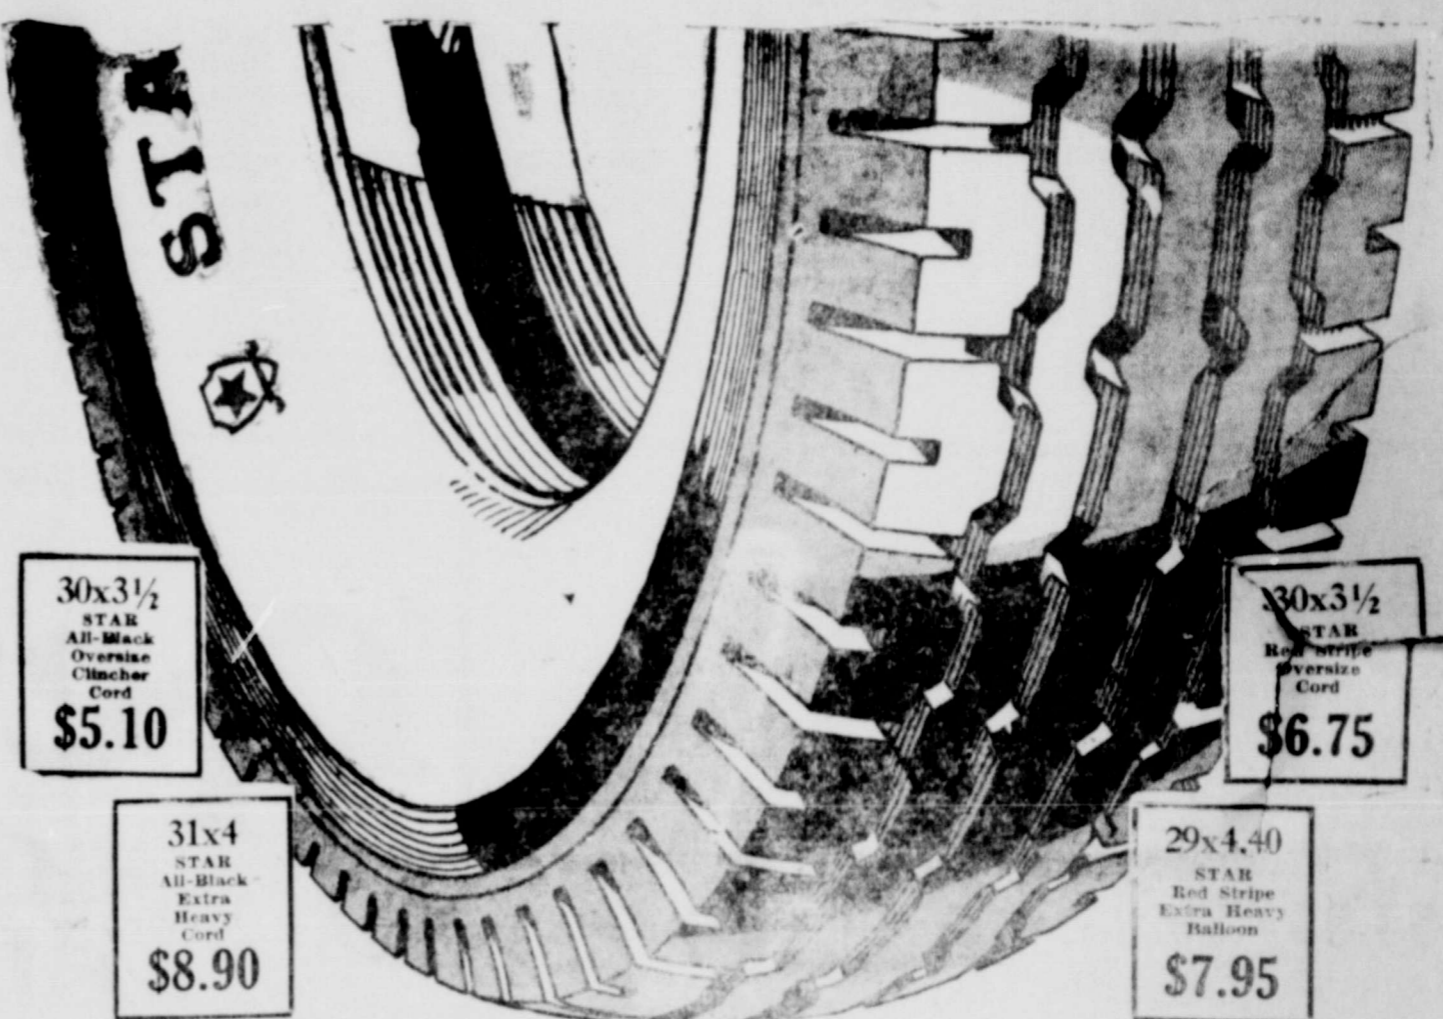

"The beauty of the cactus rose is reflected in the verses," says the Boston Globe, and the Times-Union of Albany, N. Y., says, "If we could write poetry we would want to write the kind that Ulmer S. Bird put into his most recent collection."

Henry Van Dyke, in expressing his appreciation for the volume, said, "Along the trail" is a book of hearty and heartening verse, full of nature and human nature, and with a simple music good to march and to work by, and now and then a quiet, deeper touch that is good to think by." Bird was managing editor of the Simmons Brand in 1922-23. He took his B. A. degree there in 1924. He later went to the Theological School of Princeton University in 1925-26 and returned to take up a Methodist pastorate at Panhandle, Texas, where he now resides. Besides being a poet of distinction while in college, he was an orator representing Simmons in a number of debates and other forensic contests.—Abilene Reporter.

Wix Currie, Horace Gustavus and J. T. Preston were with the Cowboy Band of Abilene here Thursday, playing at the fair grounds.

T. S. Lankford was among the first of the Abilene delegation to arrive Thursday. Mr. Lankford was given a guest badge to the fair grounds but stated that he was not a guest in Ballinger, but one of the real old timers.

The Banner-Ledger

Published Every Friday by The Ballinger Printing Company... Office of Publication, 711 Hutchings Avenue, Ballinger, Texas

The Coleman Democrat-Voice published a fair edition last week which consisted of forty pages.

The behavior of the public in Ballinger during fair week is something to be proud of.

Merchants in some sections of the downtown district were worried Saturday night by the great amount of water that rushed down the streets following the near flood-burst.

Ballinger boosters and the Ballinger Band have done much to advertise the Runnels County Fair this year.

Railroad officials continue to keep a close watch on sentiment here and are against the proposed extension of the A. & S. Officials of the two roads concerned have been spending considerable time in Ballinger and this vicinity.

A recent building of one of the worst advertisements a city can display, Ballinger is fortunate in having her business section as well as her residence section completely filled.

Just what the worth of the rain Saturday night to Runnels county is beyond estimating. Rains are commonly called "million dollar rains" but the precipitation Saturday was literally worth that amount to the county.

Cotton pickers will have a few days of vacation while the water soaked fields are drying out sufficiently to allow picking again.

Ballinger will observe two holidays next month. Armistice Day on Monday, November 11 will be the first and it is probable that an all-day program will be arranged.

With the Runnels County Fair coming to a successful close it is time to begin planning for the Christmas Show Window Fair.

affair can be made better this year by including a large union chorus singing carols and the Ballinger Band in a concert.

SAFETY ON THE ROAD

It is gratifying that the automobile associations and clubs are devoting much attention to an investigation of the basic principles of safety and responsibility in the operation of motor cars.

After years of improvement, railroad accidents were brought down to very small percentages. It will be the same with the motor vehicle.

One fact emerges crystal-clear; the impelling necessity for substantially uniform regulations in these matters.

BALLINGER BOY IS CAPTAIN AT SCHREINER

KERRVILLE, Oct. 14.—Phillip Walker, son of E. D. Walker, of Ballinger, has been approved by the Schreiner Institute faculty as a cadet captain and assigned to charge of Company A of the cadet corps.

Walker was appointed September 20 by Captain C. C. Mason, commandant, in his first special order of the year, subject to the approval of the faculty. That body approved the appointments during a meeting the past week.

Rudyard Kipling claims he's been misquoted in the United States. And we'll bet he can't begin to tell how many times.

Be wise and advertise.

I have even been out, in dress gown and slippers, and wandered

What is More, Jane Sees a Face

Flours seemed to open and shut, and finally, on a crash from somewhere in the dining room, "like a double fist striking the table," Annie Cochran had bolted outside and stayed there.

There is of course one thing I can do. I can meet Mr. Bethel when he arrives and lay my cards on the table. It will take all my courage; I know how I should feel if I had taken a house, and at the moment of my arrival a wild-eyed owner came to turn me away, on the ground that his house is haunted. Or, we will say, subject to inexplicable nocturnal visits.

Shall I take Halliday into my confidence? I need a fresh brain on the matter, certainly. Some one who will look at the local connection of the murdered sheep with the red lamp, and so with old Horace's death, is the absurdity it must be.

July 4. A quiet Fourth, but in spite of all precautions, more sheep were killed last night, and in fear of my life I have been expecting a visit from Greenough this morning. But perhaps old Morrison—did not recognize me last night.

But to make things more unpleasant all around the fellow this time did not leave his infernal chalk mark! One can imagine Greenough straightening from his investigation, and deciding that his recent talk with me has put me on my guard. Heigh ho!

Otherwise, I have recovered from last night's hysteria. The cleaning of the house for Mr. Bethel begins today and I have decided to let it go on. If on hearing my story he decides not to say no harm will be done; if he refuses, it is in order for him.

June said at breakfast: "Are you letting him come, William?" "I shall tell him all I know, my dear. After that it is up to him."

"What on earth could happen?" I inquired of Annie. "The devil's need to fight that silly lamp. Anyhow, I'm going to destroy it. And as for the other matter, the sheep, the fellow is sticking to sheep, thank God."

She represents, I imagine, the lowest grade of local intelligence, and I dare say she is responsible for much of the superstitious fear of the lamp. But after all, her attitude represents that of a part of the community, and if I destroy the lamp I shall undoubtedly be held responsible for any local tragedies for the next lifetime or two.

In a word, Annie Cochran not only believes that the lamp houses a demon; she believes that to smash the lamp will liberate that demon in perpetuity.

"Incidentally? Yet who am I to laugh at this, who have, in deference to Annie Cochran and her kind, most carefully locked away the red lamp in an attic closet of the other house, there to contain its devil unleashed. Or who am at its moment, somewhat oppressed by a so-called spirit message I have just received, forwarded to me by Cameron's secretary."

"My dear Mr. Porter: "In Mr. Cameron's absence on his vacation I am forwarding the enclosed message at the request of the writer, who appears to have considerable faith in our ability to locate the person for whom it is intended."

"We have had no previous correspondence with the young lady. At least I can find none in our files. But I know you will not mind my saying, in Mr. Cameron's absence, that he has always regarded these out-of-board communications as purely subconscious in origin; in other words, as unconscious fraud."

The enclosed note is very long, and fully detailed. Even the arrangement of the furniture in the room is described, and the lighting of it. How she came to omit a red lamp I cannot tell; I have somehow grown to expect one! But no amount of light handling of the matter on my part can alter the fact that I am not as comfortable about the thing as I might be. The damnable accuracy of it is in itself disconcerting. The name is right, even to my initials; I am living in a lodge, which even my own subconscious mind could hardly have anticipated a few days ago. And I am warned of danger, on a morning when I feel that danger is, as Edith would say, my middle name.

According to the writer, she and the other sitter, who she naively explains was her fiancé, received twice the name, William A. Potter. Assured then that they had it accurately, the "control" spelled out as follows: "Advise you and Jane to go elsewhere. Lodge dangerous."

"It sounds I admit, like a telegraphic message, with one word to spare. One rather looks for the word "love," so often added to get full value for one's money. But it is a definite warning for all that."

So the Lodge is dangerous, and Jane and I advised to go elsewhere. Heaven knows I'd like nothing better.

Our love story goes on, and I am as helpless there as in other directions; Edith proffering herself simply and sweetly, in a thousand small courtesies and as many unattended attentions, and young Halliday gravely adoring her, and holding back.

Today, along with the rest of the summer colony, they made a pilgrim age in the car to the scenes of the various meadow tragedies, ending up with the stone altar, and I suspect matters came very nearly to a head between them. For Edith was very talkative on their return, and Halliday very quiet and a trifle pale.

And tonight, sitting on the sofa of the boat-house while the boy set off Roman candles and sky-rockets over the water, Edith asked me how I thought she could earn some money.

"Earn money?" I said. "What on earth for? I've never known you to think about money before."

"Well, I'm thinking about it now," she said briefly, and relapsed into silence, from which she roused in a moment or so to state that money was a pest, and if she were making a world she'd have none in it.

I found my position slightly delicate, but I ventured to suggest that no man worth his salt would care to have his wife support him. She ignored that completely however, and said she was thinking of writing a book. A book, she said, would bring in a great deal of money, and "nobody would need to worry about anything."

"And you could get it published, Father William," she said. "Everybody knows who you are. And you could correct the spelling couldn't you? That's the only thing that's really worrying me."

"And I honestly believe the child is trying it. Her light is still going to night as I can see under her door."

The sheriff has offered a thousand dollars reward for the apprehension and conviction of the sheepkiller. I understand Livingstone's private offering another five hundred.

Mr. Bethel and his secretary arrive tomorrow, and the house is about ready for the night in spite of the fact that Annie Cochran moves about it, unoccupied as it is, like a scared rabbit. I shall see him at once on his arrival.

Halliday will finish the boat today, and I understand intends then to start on the sloop. He has found a way to address me instead of the formal "sir" of the first day or two, and now calls me Skipper.

Today, for the first time, I have taken him fully into my confidence. I had been half way debating it, but the matter of the dressing gown decided it. (Note: I find that in the original Journal I made no note of this incident. The facts are as follows:)

At Jane's suggestion I proceeded to the main house to remove such of Uncle Horace's clothing as remained in the closets and so on to a trunk in the attic. Since the night of her experience in the pantry she had not entered the house. Armed with a package of moth-preventive, I was on my way when I met Halliday, and he returned with me.

We worked quietly, for there is something depressing in the emptiness of such garments, and in their mute reminder that sooner or later we must all shed the clothing that we call the flesh.

I located the dressing gown which poor old Horace was wearing when he was found, and discovered that there were bloodstains on it near the hem.

"I'm going to ask you something," I said to Halliday. "A man dies of heart failure, and as he falls strikes his head, so that it bleeds. He lies there, from some time in the evening until seven o'clock in the morning. There wouldn't be much blood, would there?"

"Hardly any, I should say." "And none in this location, I imagine?" I showed it to him, and he looked at me curiously.

"Tell me about it," he said quietly. "As neither one of us knows anything about the heart, or what occurs when a fatal seizure attacks it. It is not possible to say whether the blood would be in his hand, turned out, the light, and then fell. But that he covered himself and managed to drag himself to his feet again, when the full force of the seizure came, and he fell once more, not to rise.

"There is no real reason to believe that he was not alone," he said. "Nor even that he 'saw something,' as Mrs. Livingstone intimates."

But the letter I had found in the drawer interests him. He has made a copy of it, and taken it home to study.

"I appeal to you to consider the enormity of the idea. Your failure to comprehend my own attitude to it, however, makes me believe that you may be tempted to go on with it. In that case I shall feel it my duty, not only to go to the police but to warn society in general."

"I realize fully the unpleasantness of my own situation; even, if you are consistent in your danger. But—"

"But—what?" said Halliday. "But I shall do what I have threatened if you go on with it." He glanced up at me. "It doesn't sound like sheep-killing does it?"

"No," I was obliged to admit. "It does not."

"I've seen Dallas grow from a small town to a great city and I want them all to know about Sargon, and what it did for me.

Wm. D. VAUGHN

"My stomach was out of order for a long time. Although I ate very little, I was often in misery after meals and smothering spells would frequently wake me at night. I was constipated, my blood was thin and my color was as yellow as gold. I had severe pains in my back and sides and my kidneys would get me up during the night.

"Since taking Sargon, I'm in better health than for years. I eat like a hungry school boy and can digest anything. There's not a pain in my body and I sleep good all night. Sargon Pills toned up my liver and ended my constipation. Now my skin has a good healthy color and I feel like a new man." Wm. D. Vaughn, 1910 S. Akard St., Dallas.

HERRING TOPICS

The farmers of this community are almost through gathering the cotton crop and will soon have all of the land ready for another crop.

We are sorry to report Sammy Doyle Faubion on the sick list last week. We hope that he will be able to enter school Wednesday and there are several sick with colds whom we hope will all be better soon.

Everybody in our community attended the fair and all thought it the best it ever had been.

School will open Wednesday. Most of the pupils are ready to start with all of the teachers new. We hope it will be a good school. Teachers are Mr. and Mrs. Moore and Miss Earne Mae Richey.

Misses Willie and Bernice Hale spent the week-end with their brother, Steve, of Ballinger.

Quite a number from this community spent Saturday night in Ballinger on account of the rain.

Misses Bernice and Myrtle Ruth Hale spent Sunday with Misses Ozell and Mona Avent.

The crowds were rather small at church services Sunday on account of rainy weather.

The fog which fell Saturday night and Sunday was very much appreciated by the people as stock water was almost gone and some had been hauling water.

W. A. Hale and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Allcorn.

A Great Discovery
When Pasteur discovered in 1852, that the infection of wounds was caused by malignant bacteria, he performed a service of inestimable value to mankind. Since then medical science has been producing better and better antiseptics, to kill these germs that may enter the small cut and give us diseases such as typhoid, tuberculosis and lockjaw, all you have to do to be sure that these dreadful germs will not infect a wound is wash that wound, however small, thoroughly with Liquid Borzone, the modern antiseptic. You can get Liquid Borzone, in a size to fit your needs and purse, from Weeks Drug Store.

Miss Olga Buresh, staff nurse of the state hospital, spent the week-end here visiting with Miss Buresh and Miss Buresh was on her way to Colorado, Texas, to commence a health program at Mitchell county.

Ernest Nance, Bernadene Rudd, and Elvis Nance returned to Brownwood Sunday night after spending the week-end with relatives and attending the Runnels County Fair. The three are students in Howard Payne college at that place.

NEW MANAGEMENT FOR THE LOCAL SANITARIUM
W. M. Campbell and J. C. Nelson took over the management of the Halley & Love Sanitarium Tuesday, October 15. These two men leased the local hospital on October 1st and have moved to Ballinger with their families to make this their home. They will have complete management of the institution for the next five years according to terms of the lease and during that time will operate a standard hospital where any legitimate physician or surgeon can practice.
Mr. Campbell for a time was manager of the Baptist Hospital at Abilene and is thoroughly familiar with hospital management. Mr. Nelson is also experienced in this business. Both men will be assisted by their wives in operating the sanitarium.

30,000 BUNS SOLD HERE DURING FAIR LAST WEEK
During the Runnels County Fair last week the two bakeries in Ballinger sold over 22,000 buns to the cafes in town and to the concession men at the fair grounds. This does not include the sale of buns from wagons from out-of-town who made regular calls at the concession stands at the park and sold much bread.

Meat market men were reluctant to disclose the amount of beef sold and no estimate could be reached, but if all hamburgers were made in the approved style there must have been at least thirty pounds sold to go with 30,000 buns.

TEXAS mother proves her idea is right...

"My little son was bilious and upset," says Mrs. Sam Jones, 1502 West Laurel St., San Antonio. "He had no appetite, his breath was bad, his tongue was coated, and he was nearly always tired and sleepy."

"He seemed to have trouble with his stomach and bowels and I had an idea California Fig Syrup would help him. He brightened up marvellously with the first few doses. At the end of a week, he was a different boy. I have used California Fig Syrup with both my boys every time they have had a cold or upset, and I give it a lot of credit for their wonderful condition."

California Fig Syrup never fails to cleanse the system of bilious, headachy, feverish or constipated children, quickly and gently. It never gripes or sickens. Children love its flavor. A pure vegetable product with the highest endorsement of doctors, it helps Nature give tone and strength to the stomach and bowels.

All drug stores have the generous bottles. The name "California" marks the genuine.

CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP

THE RICH, FRUITY LAXATIVE AND TONIC FOR CHILDREN

It's easy to see from their wonderful condition that the mother of these youngsters knows what to do when their stomach or bowels go wrong. No drugs for her! Nothing but pure vegetable California Fig Syrup. At least a million families are never without a bottle of it in their homes!

Poultry Awards are Made Wednesday

Awards in the poultry department were made late Wednesday afternoon and the judging completed. The show this year was a huge success and many fowls were exhibited. About 300 chickens and 25 turkeys were on display under the direction of William Hoppe who was in charge of the poultry department, and the show moved off with much smoothness. Mr. Hoppe was assisted in the department by E. A. Jeanes, who has been superintendent of this department for the past eight years, but turned it over to the new man this year and assisted him in getting everything started for the exhibit.

The judging was done by T. A. Reeves of Fort Worth, who went through the entire exhibit carefully before making a choice.

One feature of the poultry show was the small number of Rhode Island Reds shown this year, as there was only one pen. Others who have been showing in this division during the past fairs stated that they had shown their birds this year in so many fairs that they thought them too tired and in too poor condition for competition. As a rule more of this breed than any other are shown, making a large show, themselves.

Grier-Chaney Nuptials Celebrated Thursday

On last Thursday evening at eight o'clock Miss Jewel Chaney became the bride of Lawrence Grier in the presence of intimate friends.

The pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe F. Neff on Broadway had been beautifully decorated for the occasion. In the living room the vows were taken by the young couple with the Rev. J. H. McClain officiating, using the impressive double ring ceremony.

Miss Chaney was never more lovely. She wore a dress of blue transparent velvet with accessories of a rich tan shade. Her corsage was of yellow rosebuds and baby's breath.

For traveling she donned a suit of black faille with accessories also in black.

After a wedding trip to Waco, Hillsboro, Dallas and Emhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Grier will be at home here.

Mrs. Grier is an employee of the First National Bank and Mr. Grier is connected with the Texas Company. They have been in Ballinger about the same length of time, two years, and have made many friends here, who wish for them every happiness.

MAVERICK MUSINGS

Well, we finally received that rain and it was a good one, too. Maverick did not get as much rain as some parts of the county but the least amount we have heard of is two inches and that will put the ground in shape to plant fall grain and that is what we need.

A good many people from this place were in Ballinger during the rain Saturday night and a few remained there until Sunday, while a good many came home through the rain.

James Glenn and wife and baby returned from San Antonio Tuesday. They report rain all the way there and lots of high water. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn went thru in a truck, taking a bunch of cotton pickers and expected to return Monday but did not reach here

Cold Can't Cause Them to Disappoint!

Singers can't always keep from catching cold, but they can get the best of any cold in a few hours—and so can you. Get the compound that comes in pleasant-tasting tablets, one of which will break up a cold so quickly you'll be astonished. Pape's Cold Compound is what they call it, and any drugstore you visit will have it—for just thirty-five cents!

See how that dryness and soreness leaves your nose and throat; how the mucous discharge ends and breathing becomes easy. Pape's way is better than "doping," so remember the name.

PAPE'S COLD COMPOUND

until Tuesday noon.

Devon Reynolds and Miss Clifton motored to Sweetwater Saturday evening and met Mrs. Reynolds, who was returning from El Paso. Mrs. Reynolds has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hansen, of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. John Davis are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine young man at their home. He has been named Harold and we predict a wonderful future for the young man.

Homer Gay and family, of Eden, have been visiting in the homes of John Davis and Will Handley.

Mrs. Renza Lee had as her guest Saturday night, Meses, Alto Lee, Ross Lee and George Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Bowden returned Tuesday from near Vernon where they visited relatives. Mr. Bowden says they have a fine cotton crop in that part of the country.

BETHEL NEWS

Our community received a good rain Saturday night and Sunday. Most of the farmers had their cotton picked over and were ready for the rain, especially those who were wanting to sow grain.

Miss Alma Koenig has gone to Coleman to attend the Teachers Institute of that county.

Bob Smith had the misfortune of having his store robbed last Friday night. The safe was taken down the road about a mile from the store and beaten open with sledge hammers and all the cash taken therefrom. However, the checks and other valuable papers were left unharmed in the safe.

There was no Sunday school or preaching at either church Sunday on account of the rain.

Miss Sallie Shelburne has gone to Rusk to spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. J. B. Porterfield.

The school children had Monday and Tuesday as holidays while the teachers were attending institute.

The trustees are having a new room added to the teacherage at Bethel.

J. M. Greenhill and sons, John and Jess, have gone on a trip to East Texas.

Bob Smith is suffering with a very sore arm, caused by his Ford kicking him while trying to crank it.

Rev. Whitaker will preach at the Methodist church Friday night and Saturday night. That will be his last time to preach at Bethel before going to annual conference.

BENOIT NEWS

The rain that fell here Saturday night and Sunday was surely appreciated by all. Our community reports about two and three-quarters inches. The grass has already begun to grow green and the creeks are full.

All the people in our community enjoyed the fair immensely, though many of them had to return home in the mud Saturday night after waiting for Long Branch to run down.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Gibson and little daughter, Laura B., spent Saturday with Tom Gibson.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Cox and daughters, Opal and Addie Ruth, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hill Sunday afternoon.

Miss Dorothy Gibson spent Thursday night with Misses Dora and Mary Evans.

Milton Gibson is helping with a house that F. E. Clayton is constructing.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Martin have returned from Santa Barbara, California, after several months stay there. We are all glad to have them back in Texas. They spent all the week with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Clayton, and motored to Brownwood Saturday afternoon to visit Mr. and Mrs. J.

P. Martin.

Many of our people are contemplating attending the Brunks Comedians' show.

C. J. Curry, of Coleman, was visiting his son, J. C. Curry, of this place, Monday.

Arch Brookshire was transacting business in Ballinger Tuesday.

Cotton will soon all be picked in this community, and the kiddies are rejoicing because this is the last week in the cotton fields, as school starts here Monday, Oct. 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Lewis were shopping in Ballinger Monday.

Uncle Tray says it would be a physical impossibility to hide under a bushel the light some people and think they carry around with them.

It Is An Economic Waste To Feed

COTTON SEED

It is an established fact that one pound of cotton seed meal is equal to more than two pounds of cottonseed. It is also a proven fact that cottonseed hulls contain more digestible nutrients than corn stover and practically as much as prairie hay. Hulls are clean, easy to mix with other feeds and can be fed without waste.

Cottonseed meal can be fed to all farm animals and is an economical way to balance the ration of work animals—feeding less grain and some meal. Horses and mules can be fed cottonseed hulls with grain and mixed with the hulls and no hay is needed.

We want every farmer to bring a load of cottonseed to us and exchange for meal and hulls. We will make exchange on following basis:

For Every 2000 Pounds of Cotton Seed We Will Give

In Exchange:

3000 Pounds Cottonseed Hulls and 700 Pounds Cottonseed Meal.

Swap your cottonseed for meal and hulls and feed them in the above proportion and you will have a better feed and feed that will feed over a longer period and cost you less money.
