Give Welcome
To Hostages

Last week, jubilant students at Muleshoe High School joined the world in welcoming back to the Free World 52 American hostages who had been held in Iran for 444 days.

Reproduced below is the story of what transpired at MHS while the hostages were held prisoner:

The freeing of the fifty two Americans held hostage in Iran brought not only national celebration, but local as well. As the former hostages were to arrive home (in the U.S.) on Saturday, January 24, the students at Muleshoe High School wanted to take part in the welcoming the Friday before.

All students were asked to wear red, white and blue clothes, or any combination of the three, to school to show their patronage. The Civics classes took part as well by tying 52 yellow ribbons around a tree in front of the school (one ribbon for each former hostage).

MHS had sent cards and letters to these people during their 444 day imprisonment, so it was only righteous to help bring them home as well. So, from everyone at Muleshoe High School, "Welcome Home!" exhostages.

TYING YELLOW RIBBONS.... A total of 52 yellow ribbons, one for each former hostage, was tied to a tree on the north side of Muleshoe High School Thursday afternoon. The symbolism attests to the 52 Americans who were released by Iran on Tuesday. Pictured are from left Brad Poyner, Clifford Watson on the shoulders of Carroll Precure; Jimmy Gleason, in the tree; and Marvin Lewis, lower center, holding the ribbons. Also participating were Cathy Tutt, Tena Landers, Benny Pena, Julius Briscoe and Mickey Long. They are members of the Student Council at MHS and of Mrs. Jean Allison's civics class.

Special Classes Set For Gifted Students

"Educators have long been aware of the need to provide special instruction to a group of students known as gifted," states Harold Horne, superintendent of the Muleshoe School system.

Muleshoe ISD has made the implementation of the Gifted/Talented program one of the priorities of the Five-Year Plan which was approved by the local board of trustees and submitted to the Texas Ed-

GTE Notifies

Of Rate Change

Friday morning, a mailgram was received from O.D. Hearn, Division Manager for General Telephone Company of the Southwest from Brownfield. Hearn indicated in the mailgram that GTE was filing Friday, January 23, for changes in the local service rates to affect all customers in the state of Texas.

"We will be asking for an increase in annual revenues totaling $44.6 million," he said. "The request is based on financial data for the year ending September 30, 1980. Long distance rates will not be affected."

ucation Agency. During the past two years, a management team of administrators and teachers have been involved in training sessions and faculty members have had inservice training relative to the implementation of this program, he explained.

According to the superintendent, the identification process is presently in full operation in grades three through twelve. Kindergarten, first and second grade students will be observed as candidates for nomination upon entry into the third grade. When the identification and assessment process has been completed and the student has been determined as gifted, he will receive special instruction in the areas of his interest.

The Governor's Advisory Committee on Education has found that the schools in Texas need to develop programs for the gifted and talented students. This committee made specific recommendations to State agencies regarding implementation of instructional programs for this special school population.

Research on gifted and talented persons has shown that no single criterion should be used to determine "giftedness", explained Horne. However

Muleshoe Jaycees Join Celebration

During the past week, the Muleshoe Jaycees have celebrated during National Jaycee Week. Across the nation, Jaycee chapters celebrated the founding of this organization. It was founded in 1910, and since that time, the Jaycees have evolved from a St. Louis Civic Club of 4,000 members, to a national organization of more than 400,000 members, and many affiliates internationally.

Muleshoe Jaycee Vice President Chuck Smith said Jaycees is designed to help the development of each of its members on the basis of individual management and community development. He added that many programs are available to each Jaycee to help him enhance his family spiritual, community, financial and social life.

Jaycees is designed for young men between the ages of 18 and 35. Smith said Jaycees is also a positive experience for each member, with many opportunities available to each member for his own growth and to help his fellow Jaycees and his community.

The Muleshoe Jaycees have been in existence for nearly 30 years. They have made a number of contributions to this community. They were a contributor to the hospital construction; placed trash cans on Main Street; sponsor the Miss Tri County Pageant; help the needy; put out flags on national holidays, and by trying to help improve Muleshoe in any way they can, added the vice president.

"The Muleshoe Jaycees hope to contribute much to the community in 1981," commented Smith. "We also have plans for the years to come. Coming up are such projects as "The Vial of Life", the flag project, Fourth of July and other projects still in the planning stages.

"Several programs are planned for our meetings in the coming months. Anyone interested in joining the Jaycees is welcome. The Jaycees offer many opportunities, so all local young men are encouraged to join. Meetings are every Monday at noon at the XIT Restaurant. Please think about it. Men over 35 are asked to consider associate memberships," he added.

Officers of the Muleshoe Jaycees are Galen Bock, president; Kent Kelly, first vice president; Chuck Smith, second vice president; Terry Field, treasurer; Troy Stoegmuller, secretary and reporter; and

The funds support troop and council activities, help local girls participate in

Following an intensive and fast, labor survey conducted by the Muleshoe Industrial Development Foundation and the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture recently, the results were termed 'very gratifying.'

Two Thefts Are Cleared This Week

Muleshoe's acting police chief, Jerry Hicks, said investigation is continuing into the alleged theft of a motorcycle in Muleshoe Thursday morning.

According to police reports, a local man reported a 'crashed' motorcycle to the Muleshoe City Police around 11:15 a.m. Checking with the license plate on the motorcycle, it was found to be owned by Wayne Wauson. Wauson was contacted at his place of employment and said 'he thought his motorcycle was at home.'

However, when Wauson went to his home, his motorcycle was missing from his driveway. He then drove to where the motorcycle had crashed against a tree just south of the city limits of Muleshoe on Highway 214 and identified his cycle.

Investigators found a juvenile, accompanied by two other juveniles, had sought medical treatment at West Plains Medical Center, but refused to give his name or that of his parents. Hospital personnel said the three youths came to the hospital around 9:45 a.m. The injured juvenile left without treatment, but the hospital personnel took down the license number of the car he was riding in.

Officers quickly found two of the juveniles, and later Thursday found the juvenile who has been identified as the rider of the motorcycle. He was ready to undergo surgery on an elbow injury at Lubbock.

No charges have been filed, said the police chief, pending completion of the investigation.

Friday shortly before noon, the Lubbock City Police notified the Muleshoe City Police they were holding a vehicle and a man at Lubbock and requested the police check with the owner of the car to see if the vehicle was stolen.

As the dispatcher checked with Bob Bomer on Route Three, he discovered his car missing from the driveway of their home, telling officers he had not given permission for the car to be used.

At presstime, the recovered car was in Lubbock, and the illegal alien driving

With a return at presstime of 602 survey forms, the results were sent to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce; Texas Industrial Commission and to the Southwestern Public Service Company's Area Development group. This was in addition to the eastern electronics firm who initially requested the survey be conducted.

According to the electronics industry, the survey was requested as they are considering Muleshoe as the location of a major plant. The old eastern company indicated they have plans to relocate to this area, and are considering Muleshoe.

After receiving the results of the labor survey, they said they were very pleased with the conclusive survey as conducted, and said Muleshoe is among the top three locations presently under consideration.

Of the results, 276 males responded, with 291 females responding to the survey. The confidential survey does not reveal the names or addresses of any of the persons returning

Testimony Of Caryl Fallwell of Friona

"I had seen the Pat Walker ads in the newspaper. When I discovered that I was a diabetic, I knew I had to do something about my weight, and because of my diabetes I had to lose with a sensible eating plan. A friend told me that Pat Walker's was the answer to my weight problem, so I decided to call for a free figure analysis. My goal when I started the Pat Walker program was to one day be able to wear a pair of white jeans and a shirt tucked in at the waist. Now that I have lost 60 1/4 pounds and 75 3/4 inches, I can wear my shirt tucked in. My hips now measure less than my original waist measurement, so I will soon be ready for the white jeans."

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Miss Hysinger, Foster

In a candlelight ceremony, Miss Kanetha Lorene Hysinger became the bride of Richard Ken Foster, January 2 at 7 p.m. in the First United Methodist Church in Muleshoe. Rev. Bill Kent read the double ring vows.

Parents of the bride are

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hysinger of Muleshoe. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Foster of the Oklahoma Lane Community.

On the altar was an open Bible with a single candle on each side. Swirl candleabras stood on each side of the kneeling bench and to the front, on the right and left, stood three candleabras. On the far left and right were baskets of white poinsettias. The first and fourth pews were marked by candlelight ribbons and greenery. All the candles were candlelight color. The church windows were lighted by pink candles, encircled with carnations and greenery.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore her mother's wedding gown, that was designed and made by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Bert Stewart of Olton. The floor length gown of candlelight silk organza was adorned with hand embroidered rose appliques and hand sewn seed pearls which gently worked their way down the gown accenting the fitted bodice and bell shaped tucked skirt. The gown featured a softly rounded neckline and long fitted sleeves which ended in petal points over the hand. Each sleeve was accented with tiny self covered buttons leading from the wrist to the elbow. Self covered buttons enhanced the back of the button down gown while the tucked skirt swept into a modified chapel train.

The bride's floor length veil was candlelight and featured a head piece covered by small applique roses and pearl accents.

Her bouquet, which was made by the groom's sister in law, Beverly Foster of the West Camp Community, was all candlelight. Silk roses and carnations were set off by candlelight ribbons that were worked in and around the flowers and fell down in streamers from behind.

For something old the bride wore her mother's gown; something new was her veil; something borrowed was a pair of gold cross earrings which were originally brought from England by the groom's great great grandmother; something blue was her mother's garter on which was sewn her grandmother and grandfather's first wedding bands.

Debra Stevens was maid of honor, bridesmaids were Pam Young and Frantonya Berryhill all of Muleshoe. They wore floor length gowns of rose colored shir-knit. Each gown was an empire waist design with waist length sleeves that delicately draped to a cape like effect in the back. The empire waist was appointed with a matching rose and the gowns had v-necklines.

Each girl wore a rose made from the same fabric as the dresses in their hair. Each rose was made by the maid of honor. They each carried a single deep pink rose centered in baby's breath and accented with pink ribbon streamers.

Robin Foster, niece of the groom of Oklahoma Lane, was flower girl. Candle lighters were Lucretia Foster of Oklahoma Lane and Michelle Foster of West Camp, both are nieces of the groom. They wore candlelight lace dresses with full skirts and puff sleeves. The skirts were draped with a lace overlay and accented with pink roses amidst pink ribbon bows. They wore small baby roses in their hair.

The flower girl's bouquet featured baby roses in shades of pink arranged in baby's breath and accented by pink ribbons and streamers made by the bride and her mother.

Michal Foster, nephew of the groom of West Camp, was ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore a street length dress of rose colored polyester crepe. Her corsage featured candlelight roses and baby's breath. The groom's mother chose a street length three piece suit of candlelight knit. Her corsage was made of pink roses enhanced by greenery and baby's breath.

A reception followed in the fellowship hall of the church. Cindy Cargile, Kim Williams, Tammy Wall, Ginger Bales, and ReNay Cooper served. Registering the guests were Shellie Foster, cousin of the groom and Coby Stewart, cousin of the bride.

After a wedding trip to the Dallas area they will make their home at Route Two, Muleshoe.

The bride graduated from Muleshoe High School in 1980, attended the fall semester at West Texas State University. She is presently working at Latrell's Fashions.

Foster graduated from Farwell High School in 1978 and is presently farming in the Oklahoma Lane area.

Miss Pate, Scott United In Marriage

Kathy Lynn Pate and Mark Allison Scott were united in marriage at 7 p.m. Saturday, January 17 in the sanctuary of Oakwood Baptist Church in Lubbock. The double ring ceremony was officiated by Rev. H.F. Scott, father of the groom and pastor of Bacon Heights Baptist Church in Lubbock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Pate of Muleshoe. The groom's parents are Rev. and Mrs. H.F. Scott of Lubbock.

The scene of the nuptials was decorated with three 15 point candelabra trees, accented with greenery interspersed with baby's breath. The altar rails were overlaid with green ivy, and large burgandy bows placed at intervals, four large hurricane lamps with lighted white tapers flanked each side of the altar rails. White lace bows draped with streamers and sprays of green ivy marked the pews.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride chose a gown of pleated white organza and chantilly lace. The bodice featured a Queen Ann neckline outlined in a rose patterned lace and buttoned up the back with small pearl buttons. A wide flounce of lace beginning in a vee in front, up across the shoulders and plunging to a deep vee in the back. The empire waistline in front fell to a natural waistline in back. The sheer lace bishop sleeves were shirred to finger tip lace cuffs. The pleated skirt, edged in a band of wide lace swept to a chapel length train.

To complete her ensemble, the bride chose a silk illusion veiling caught to a circlet of white satin trimmed with white silk orange blossoms and seed pearls. Baby's breath was ticked in among the blossoms. The waltz length veil was edged with narrow satin ribbon. Narrow burgandy streamers fell from the back of the veil.

She carried a cascade bouquet of silk burgandy rose buds, white gardenias and small burgandy orchids, intermixed with silk green and fresh baby's breath. A lace trimmed handkerchief, that belonged to her great grandmother, was artistically tucked among the arrangement. A picot bow of lace attached with streamers and love knots completed the arrangement.

The bride wore a gift from the groom, a gold chain and pearl necklace, for something borrowed, she wore her grandmother's diamond ear screws, she wore the traditional garter for something blue.

Matron of honor was Pam Lackey of Grapevine. Bridesmaids were Cynthia Earthman and Dee Dee Ketron of Lubbock. They wore long dresses of burgandy hue. The bodice was styled with a high neckline and featured a wide double ruffle of white lace centered with a narrow burgandy ribbon tied in a bow in front. The waist was buttoned up the front with white round pearl buttons. The long sleeves ended in a wide ruffle of white lace, finger tip length. Each attendant carried a lighted motif candle trimmed with miniature burgandy and white silk flowers with ribbon streamers.

Bruce Fowler of Brownwood attended the groom as best man, Ricky Ketrow and Mike Woodward were groomsmen.

Serving as ushers were Brad Pate, Littlefield, brother of the bride; Jimmy Williams, Keith Long, Mark Ivey, all of Lubbock, and Lonie Asebedo of Brownfield.

Musical selections were presented by Mrs. Bruce Anderson, Lubbock. Soloist Shelia Scott of Lubbock, sister of the groom, and Bobby Miller of Floydada, performed "Here We Are" "There Will Never Be Another" and "Surely The Presence of the Lord is in This Place", during the ceremony.

Assisting with the reception in the fellowship hall were Miss Nancy Durham, Miss Lynn Middleton, Miss Diana Arthburn, Miss Kathy Wilman and Mrs. Cliff Sims. Mrs. Russ Lasater presided at the register.

The bride's table featured a silver candelabra with burgandy candles, the traditional tiered wedding cake which was adorned with fresh burgandy carnations and rosebuds and a cut glass punch bowl. Acting as a centerpiece was the bride's bouquet atop her family Bible which rested on an ornamental lectern. Cut glass serving pieces completed the arrangement. Another table featured a silver coffee service with a silk flower arrangement and silver candelabra.

Michelle Rackley of Lubbock, cousin of the bride, offered colorful burgandy and white satin rice bags to the guests.

Following a wedding trip the couple will make their home in Wilson, where the groom is pastor of the First Baptist Church.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents, the night before the wedding in their home. A bridesmaid's luncheon was given Saturday at noon preceding the wedding at Applegate's Landing Restaurant. Hostesses were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Louis Rackley, Hale Center and Mrs. Jerald Hulette, Lubbock.

Pre nuptial courtesies included a miscellaneous shower in the home of Mrs. Grady Lackey; a lingerie shower in the home of Mrs. Jerald Hulette; a get acquainted coffee hosted by Mrs. H.F. Scott, all of Lubbock. Also a reception in the home of Mrs. Roy Kahlick, Wilson, Texas.

Grandparents of the couple are Mrs. Louis Rackley, Hale Center; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pate, Plainview and Mrs. Ernest Allison of Lubbock.

The Jaycees said that 'what they're all about' can best be summed up in the Jaycee Creed:

We Believe: That Faith in God gives meaning and purpose of human life; That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations; That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise; That government should be of laws rather than of men; That earth's greatest treasure lies in human personality and That service to humanity is the best work of life.

Water Depth To Be Checked

High Plains Water District has begun its annual program of measuring the depth to water levels in more than 900 observation wells scattered throughout the fifteen county District area.

Bailey County irrigators may see a blue and white Water District vehicle in the vicinity of their property in the coming weeks while Dwight Adams of the District staff measures the 74 wells in the District's observation network in Bailey County.

Since most of the wells to be measured are operational irrigation wells, the month of January was chosen to begin observations in order to allow for a dormant period and well recovery from the cone of depression developed during the pumping season. Wells will be measured to find the depth of 'static' water level. After measuring, each well will receive a red District identification tag for the owner's information.

Data gained from this program is used for decline rate projections, determining the amount of water left in storage, and very importantly, as a basis for the income-tax depletion allowance claims on landowner's tax returns.

The annual measurement program is expected to be completed in February, weather permitting. Data on individual wells will be available within a few days of completed readings, but tabulated data on the entire network is not expected until mid year.

Big Bang whisper

AUSTIN, Texas (Spl.) — A University of Texas physicist is co-winner of the John Price Wetherill Medal of the Franklin Institute of Philadelphia for pioneering work done more than 30 years ago in physical cosmology and nucleosynthesis.

The prediction (confirmed years later) of Dr. Robert Herman of UT Austin and Dr. Ralph Alpher of General Electric of what is now referred to as the whisper of the Big Bang or the echo of the early universe ranks as a major milestone in understanding the universe.

Their work is superseded perhaps only by Einstein's theory of general relativity and Hubble's interpretation of galactic red-shifts percent of the school population.

"This program is one that provides for the special educational needs of those students with extraordinary abilities," concludes Horne. "The program is designed to provide the maximum challenge of a student's ability and develop the student into a person who can contribute greatly to society."

In the training column, 473 indicated they would be interested in training for a better job, and 78 indicated they have received technical training.

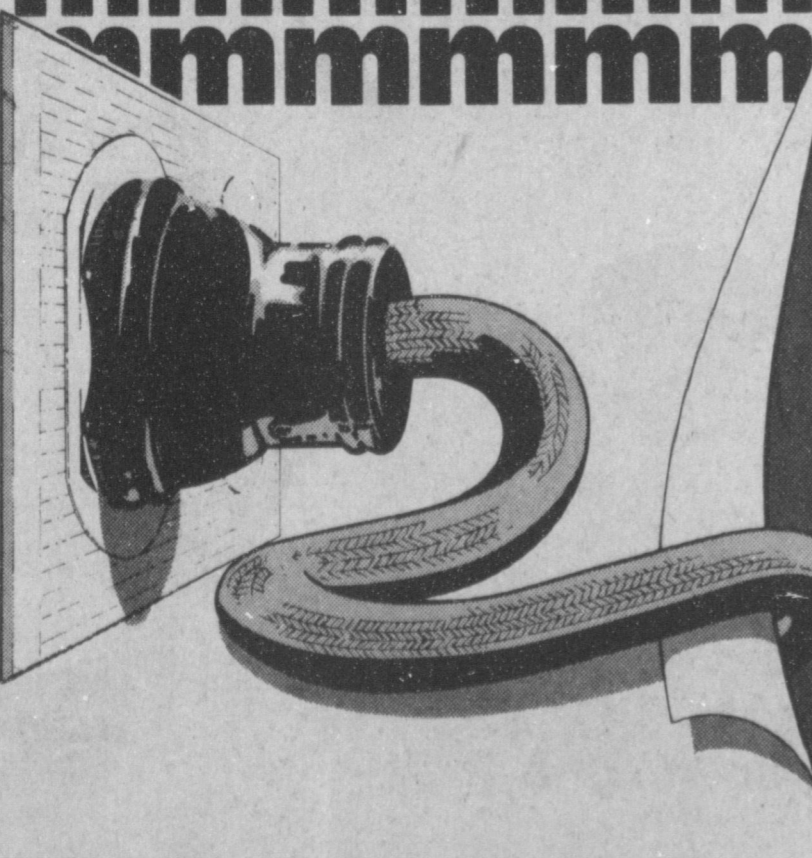

Although most, 423, said they have not worked in a manufacturing plant, 126, said they have worked previously in a manufacturing plant.

A total of 221 said they would be willing to work any shift, while 335 indicated a willingness to work the day shift only.

As far as skills are concerned, 18 checked they had been involved in mobile home assembly; 35 have done bench-type electronics assembly; 144 know welding; 103 have been involved in food packaging; 65 in industrial sewing; 119 in secretarial; 49 with metal fabricating experience; 128 in book-keeping; 52 quality control inspectors; 93 in building trades; 139 heavy equipment operators; 111 with woodworking experience; and 160 who have general maintenance experience.

John Gulley and Jeff Smith predicted a response from the electronics industry as to their decision on a new location within the next two to four months.

AGRI-FACTS
A GOOD MATCH is the single most important key to fuel savings. That match is between tractor gear ratio, engine speed and load. The rule to follow is: Don't overload the engine by using too high a gear ratio. Pulling the maximum load your tractor can handle dictates operation of the engine at rated speeds and with the gear ratio indicated by the load. In other words: Don't ask the machine to do more than it's capable of. When doing drawbar work, matching the tractor with the implement isn't as critical from a fuel efficiency point of view as when doing PTO work. The engine rpm can be reduced, and the tractor shifted up to a higher gear to obtain good fuel economy when working with low loads. Research indicates that matching the tool and the tractor saves fuel and increases the number of acres worked per hour. Next week, saving fuel by "keeping 'em down on the farm."

With energy costs zooming just any center pivot won't do.

The whole equation changes. The few hundred you can save buying a cheaper pivot can be eaten up in the first year by rising energy costs alone. That's why the right match-up of power, pipe sizes and pressure can make all the difference in the world.

At Valley, we have the latest technology. We'd like to talk to you and show you before you buy any center pivot. Because just any center pivot won't do, especially if rising energy costs are a concern.

A well of water...

Many important events have taken place at the well. In days long ago it was a meeting place, where all came because of the necessity to obtain life-sustaining water.
Jacob met his beloved Rachel at the well. Moses met the daughters of his future father-in-law at the well in Midian. Much later Jesus Christ met a woman of Samaria at the well and said, "Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life."
The church of God today is a meeting place where many come to obtain this life-giving and life-sustaining water of which Jesus spoke.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
