DRILLING RESUMED IN TWO OIL WELL

The big walking beams at the Russell oil well and at the Rowena oil well have been hooked on the cable which controls the drill, and drilling is underway again in both of these wells, after a delay of three or four days.

The open hole in the Russell well has been cased and the drilling resumed in that well Thursday afternoon, the bit going down to the bottom of the hole after the cave in had been cleaned out.

From time to time oil and gas continues to gush from this well, but the pressure is not so strong as it was Thursday morning when a shower of oil shot twenty feet above the derrick.

The writer was on the scene about five o'clock Thursday afternoon when the bit was drawn from the well after operating about thirty minutes, and oil shot up about twenty feet following the pulling of the bit. The bucket was let down and another spray of oil followed the pulling of the bucket.

The operations in the Russell well are still in the speculative stage. The well may prove a big gusher, or it may prove a failure.

However, odds are in favor of the well coming in with a strong flow

KEEPING THE HOME FIRES BURNING

Here is a little bit of home which may be found in any Army Y. M. C. A. building in the Southern Department. The big open fireplace, the curtained windows, the cozy corner, and the little feminine touches which have been added by friends of the "Y," all contribute to the comfort and morale of the soldier away from home.

Here the soldier will find a happy substitute for the home fireside, with music if he prefers it—the home paper—good magazines—a game of checkers with his chum, and a lot of other things that help to make life interesting for the soldier. This is the social room which may be found in nearly every Army Y. M. C. A. hut. This particular one is enjoyed by soldiers from the Southwestern states at a Texas camp.

The headquarters offices of the Southern Department, Army Y. M. C. A., are at San Antonio, Texas. William E. Adams is the executive secretary.

as the hole is only 2300 feet, while it was not expected to strike a rich flow of oil under 2700 or 3000 feet.

After fishing for three or four days, the bit which had been lost in the Rowena well, was recovered Thursday afternoon, and drilling resumed Friday. This well is down about 1250 feet, and the optimism of the promoters remains considerably above par.

The Schultz well continues to increase in oil, while the gas pressure is not as strong as at the Russell well. Drilling is again under way in that well after a delay caused by placing casing.

From day to day new faces appear on the curb, and speculation continues. Quite a number of transfers are being made and forfeits are up on large acreages in this and Concho county, and there is talk of more drilling.

AUTOS COLLIDE ON OIL WELL ROAD

A head on collision between E. C. Ryan, a Kansas City oil man, and Robert Herring, a local stockman occurred on the Russell oil well road between Ballinger and the oil well, Thursday. Mr. Herring was returning from the well and Mr. Ryan was going out from town when the two cars collided. Occupants of the cars received a good shaking up, and both cars were badly damaged, the front wheels being smashed off. Both cars are in the auto hospital.

B. C. Kirk left for Brownwood, Friday morning and will probably visit other places on business before returning home.

QUOTAS ALLOTTED FOR LOCAL BANKS

Judge O. L. Parish, county chair man of the Liberty Loan campaign received the following letter from the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, Friday:

"By direction of Mr. Hoops, I am answering your letter of Oct. 1st, concerning the Fourth Liberty Loan quotas for your county, for your convenience I give you below the quotas for the various banks in your county:

Ballinger State Bank and Trust Co. $ 6,900
Farmers and Merchants State Bank 14,500
First National Bank 26,000
Miles National, Miles 13,300
First State, Rowena 5,000
First National, Winters 5,100
Winters State, Winters 14,400
Security Bank, Wingate 7,600

Total $92,800

The entire quota was figured on a basis of 27 per cent of the banks deposits after deducting 20 per cent of the total amount of loans; also in the case of Rummels County, a flat deduction of $150,000.00 was made on account of drought conditions obtaining in your county."

OIL BOOM SHOULD PUT US OVER TOP

In view of the fact that Rummels County's Liberty Loan quota has been cut to the minimum on account of the drought, and in view of the fact that an oil boom is threatened in the county, this county should go over the top with her quota just as easy as the boys are going over the top on the Western front, and that's some easy.

The county's quota is $92,800. The campaign closes on October 19th—two weeks from date.

The opportunity is great for the people at home to keep faith with the boys in France. Let us strive to send the message to the boys on the battle line that Rummels County is behind them and over the top with them. Encouragement is necessary if our boys win this victory as quick as we would like to see them, so they can return to us. Don't wait until the last day, get busy and add your name to the following honor roll:

Sold through the First National Bank:
W. E. Allen $ 100.00
Walker Smith Co. 1000.00
W. T. Crockett 100.00
W. E. Middleton 100.00
Mrs. O. D. Drisdale 100.00
Sole by the Ballinger State Bank
W. W. Farmer 100.00
Ballinger State Bank 1000.00

Sends $500 Bond Application

C. A. Doose received a letter from H. Clemens, of Austin, enclosing an application for $500 worth of Liberty bonds. Mr. Clemens sends the application from Cambridge, Mass., where he has been with his son, who has been in college there for some time.

The Ledger is also in receipt of a letter from Mr. Clemens stating that he is returning to his home at Austin, and that his son will sail for France.

London, Oct. 4.—British troops are today on high ground northeast of Sequehart, having routed the huns with great success. In close fighting yesterday, they beat off German counter attacks on Gouy Lecalelet, Gen Haig, reports.

North of St. Quentin more than four thousand prisoners were taken in yesterday's fighting. The British cavalry tearing through the breach of the German defense northeast of St. Quentin and advancing beyond Fresnay, British troops occupying that city.

The country where the cavalry is reported to be operating is ideal for maneuvering, as it places the allies beyond the last real system of enemy defense and the enemy is not able to build another, and their lines are for the present badly shattered.

With the American Army, Oct. 4.—The American troops attacking east of Rhemis, in conjunction with the French, have advanced nearly three miles. Battles on this front have been in progress since yesterday and continue today. The Americans gained their objectives before noon yesterday, completely surprising the enemy.

Paris, Oct. 4.—The German defense lines are fast breaking down, and the allies are advancing at many points on the western front. Important cities are falling in the hands of the allies, the French now being near Lille. The enemy fortifications have been smashed and hasty retreats left the cities of Lens, Armentieres easy goals for the French.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOT BALL SEASON OPEN

The local high school foot ball team went to San Angelo today, where they will lock horns with the San Angelo high school eleven at four o'clock this afternoon.

The Angelo team was Ballinger's strongest contestants for the pig skin honors last season, and the locals are entering the season with a determination to play even this year.

The trip to Angelo today was made in autos, quite a number of fans going along to see the thing well done.

The locals have a game scheduled on the local gridiron next Friday, at which time Coleman will come here for a good wallop.

STOP YOUR CLOCK, DON'T TURN IT BACK

Chicago, Oct 3.—When the nation yawns and takes an extra hour's sleep on October 27, the date set for ending the daylight saving season, there is grave danger of causing a great waste in the clockmaking industry.

There must be no turning back the hands of the clock, time-recording experts declare, in a warning to the public. Such action would fairly shatter the morale of the time recording and master clock and all clocks striking the hour and would require the service of an army of repair men, thus causing an unnecessary waste of man power.

"Clocks should be stopped for one hour at 2 a. m. on October 27; the hands should not be turned back," said Charles H. Crooks of the Cincinnati Time Recorder Co.

"There are approximately 20,000 time recorders and 10,000 master and controlling clocks in Chicago, and if these were turned back the resulting trouble calls would swamp every repair man in the city. The same conditions apply to other cities."

The time service department of the Western Union Telegraph Co., offers what they consider a better plan.

"Turn the hands around 11 hours," is the advice of this company. "While it is all right to stop clocks some difficulty will be found in starting them properly again. By turning the hands forward until the time indicated is one hour less than at the start of the change, the same result as stomping will be had."

The clockmakers say: "Just as surely as was Lot's wife turned into a pillar of salt when she turned back to gaze upon Sodom, Father Time will be turned into a repair shop if he turns back to bemoan the fact that he must quit saving to help win the war."

MEN MUST GIVE UP NON-ESSENTIAL JOBS

To The Ledger:

Tabulations of the U. S. Employment Service show that the nation faces a shortage of approximately one million unskilled laborers in war industries, and an equally serious shortage in the skilled trades. The situation will become even more critical with the increase of our armies.

As a result of this shortage, the U. S. Employment Service is faced with the necessity of combing the country for literally every laborer available. These men must come from non-essential industries in order to supply labor to the manufacturers of war materials, and to the mines, farms, shipyards, and railroads—this for the reason that the reservoir of available unemployed is practically exhausted.

You are aware of the fact that the Community Labor Boards are now seeking to draw from less essential industries in order to fill vacancies in essential groups, and are also aware of the fact that the War Industries Board is making rigorous rulings against supplying certain non-essential plants with raw materials.

War industries must have the though non-essential business has though non-essential business has to close down. Non-war employees must be shown in an unmistakeable manner that they are faced with the paramount necessity of giving up men required for war work, and public opinion must force the release of workers where employees place their own selfish interests above the needs of the nation.

Every man not engaged in a task vitally connected with the war must realize that the nation faces a serious alternative: Either we must make war the whole business of the nation; disregarding everything not essential to the life and war-making power of our country, or our soldiers will be impelled by lack of equipment. What we delay to contribute in shells, we shall have to make good in lives of our young men.

The work of the Community Labor Boards undoubtedly will meet with some opposition, particularly on the decision as to what local industries shall be called up on to contribute men for war work. There will undoubtedly be certain employers who will prove recalcitrant and either through ignorance or selfishness, refuse to respond to calls made upon them. It should then be the duty of the entire community to exert the full force of public opinion upon any such employer.

N. A. Smyth, assistant director general of the U. S. Employment Service, asks that the various county councils be asked to approach the banks of their community and ask that they scrutinize carefully any applications for loans which would provide funds with which non-essential industries could, during this war emergency, divert necessary labor from necessary plants for non-essential work.

He asks also, that the various councils take up with the county and municipal authorities the question of postponing any unnecessary work in order that men employed or to be employed thereon may be released for war service. There are instances all over the country where public work is being carried on which might be postponed and there are, on the public payrolls, in parks, in streets, in public buildings, and in numerous other places, a large number of men who should be released for essential employment.

In a word, it is asked that the various organizations give their full support to the Community Labor Boards and to the U. S. Employment Service to the end that there may be built up a spirit in this section which will make it impossible for any non-essential industry or group of industries to fail to comply fully and freely with the various appeals of the Community Labor Board in its effort to secure men from less essential industries.

The State, County and City officials should understand this problem fully and take the proper steps to aid this service in supplying the labor needs of this nation.

Very earnestly,
CAPT. J. D. DICKSON
Examiner in Charge B. wood. Dist

TEXAS BOY BAGS

FIFTY-TWO HUNS

With the Americans on St Quentin Front, Oct. 3.—Private John Rawlinson, of Kingsville, Texas seeing Germans disappear into a dugout during the fighting yesterday, stood at the door and called upon all of them to come out. Fifty-two Germans, including 3 officers, filed out. Rawlinson proudly marched them to the rear and now has a receipt for them.

This act of a Texas soldier has been officially recorded in the military records, and will doubtless be cited in the future as one of the many outstanding events of the war.

W. T. Routh and sons Tom, Clarence and Oscar, left Friday morning for Glasscock county, where they go to look after some cattle they have on the range in that county.

BIBB DRAWS 99 YEARS SECOND TIME

San Angelo, Oct. 4.—The jury in the Bibb murder case returned a verdict of guilty and fixed the penalty for murdering E. W. Stokes at 99 years in the pen.

This was the second trial for Bibb, a verdict of guilty and 99 year penalty having been assessed in the first trial and the higher court reversed the case.

Attorneys for the defendant announced that an appeal would be made.

Self defense was the plea of M. H. Bibb, former local stockman, when he took the witness stand in district court Wednesday afternoon in his trial upon a charge of murder in connection with the killing of Ed W. Stokes on December 6, 1916.

Evidence introduced by the state tended to show that no weapons of any kind were found upon Stokes. The defense had no witness to corroborate Bibb's statement that Stokes said, "There he is, I will get him now."

Arguments in the case began about 10:30 Thursday morning. J. A. Thomas, district attorney, addressing the jury before noon. W. A. Anderson spoke immediately after the noon hour, and Judge Thomas closed.

"That after troubles between himself and wife at various times, reconciliations were had, and they went back together and lived as man and wife. On Saturday prior to the killing on Wednesday, Dec. 6th, 1916, witness stated, he came to San Angelo from Mertzon, where he was engaged in building a house; that he talked with the officers here with a view of obtaining a consultation with Ed Stokes; that he was successful in arranging a meeting with Mr. Stokes, and that he had three conversations with him that day, one of which was in the morning and the other two in the afternoon. That the last conversation was late in the afternoon.

Defendant stated (by reason of a statement from his wife that Ed Stokes had told her he would kill her husband if she even talked with him) he was forced to call his wife over the telephone in another name than his own and have her meet him away from the hotel where she was staying in order to talk with her. At the time defendant met Ed Stokes late Saturday afternoon, that he had better let Mrs. Bibb alone and that if he did not leave town he would kill him, and that he (Stokes) and Mrs. Bibb were going to leave San Angelo that night, and that her trunk was already at the depot. Defendant stated that his wife agreed to again live with him.

The defendant stated that he went to the depot as soon as Stokes would permit him to leave the place where they were then talking, at the corner of the court yard, and found that Mrs. Bibb's trunk was at the Santa Fe depot.

He went to the Melton House where he was stopping and spent the night. Sunday morning he went back to Mertzon and finished his work on the house he was building and returned to San Angelo on the Orient Wednesday evening. That when he arrived, he took supper at the Melton House. That after supper he walked up to town with Ambrose Grayson; that Mr. Grayson stated to him that he had better leave town that Stokes would kill him.

That he went and got the gun went back to the Melton House and got his old clothes and went to his room north of the hotel, preparatory to entering into work with Joe Chane, a contractor, the following morning, that when he reached his room, he remembered having left his carpenter tools at the Melton House and returned immediately to get them, that on his way back, just as he reached the crossing at College avenue and North Chadbourne street, he discovered the deceased and his wife coming out of the confectionery store at the corner of Harris avenue and North Chadbourne, that that was the first time he had seen either of them since returning, and that he presumed they were not here, but that they had left on the Saturday night before.

That he walked on up the sidewalk meeting them, and did meet them at the big sign board. That as he walked up, approaching them, Ed Stokes exclaimed: "There he is, I will get him now," at the same time grabbing Mrs. Bibb and shoving her between himself and the defendant, and made a motion in the direction of his hip pocket. Defendant stated that he saw something in the hand of the deceased, and that he thought it was the same pistol again, that he fired immediately and killing the deceased.

Increase in Muskrats.

As an illustration of how rapidly the muskrats increase in some districts, the Bavarian commission which reports on the matter says in Schleswig-Holstein in 1911 there were ten muskrats—we don't know who counted them—while in 1913 the number had increased to about 300, and in 1916 to more than 1,000. In some places it is said the energetic muskrats had driven away the water birds, "after destroying the eggs and young had taken possession of the floating nests and converted them to their own use."—Farm Life.

The empty space in the bottle will become luminous. When the light becomes dim, uncork the bottle for a few seconds.

MOLLIE BAILEY DEAD AT HOUSTON

Mrs. A. H. Hardesty, more widely known as Mollie Bailey, the pioneer show woman of Texas, died at 12:45 o'clock Wednesday, at St. Joseph's Infirmary as the results of injuries she received when she fell at her home 1215 Oak St., about three weeks ago. She suffered a stroke of paralysis after the fall.

Mrs. Hardesty was 82 years old and had resided in Texas ever since she was a small girl. She started in the show business when 16 years old and married a showman, and for many years the Mollie Bailey Tent Show was widely known through the South. During the civil war Mrs. Hardesty was a nurse in the Confederate army, and her first husband was a Confederate soldier.

She retired from the show business actively in 1913, on account of the illness of a daughter, but continued the ownership of the Bailey Southern Shows. The daughter, Mrs. Birdie Dickens, died a year ago to day, and relatives of Mrs. Hardesty say she has grieved constantly since.

Mrs. Hardesty's first husband died in 1901 in Houston. Four sons, Eugene, Allie, Willie and Fred, have since conducted the show, and are expected in Houston Wednesday night. The show is now in Montgomery County. Mrs. Hardesty is also survived by three grand daughters and a sister at Texarkana.

Mrs. Hardesty was also the owner of some property in Houston. Up until the death of her daughter she was active and, although past 80 years of age, attended to her business affairs.—Houston Chronicle.

"I SUFFERED SEVEN YEARS"

Was Eventually Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I suffered for seven long years with a lame back, irregularities and pain. I had one physician after another but they did me no good. I read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and gave it a trial and in a short time I felt benefited and am now feeling fine, and without weakness or pain. Many of my friends have also taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and been helped by it."—Mrs. MARGARET NESS, 1840 E. Hazzard St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Women who suffer from displacements, irregularities, inflammation, ulceration, backache, sideache, headaches or "the blues" should not rest until they have given this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. If complications exist, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for special suggestions. The result of its long experience is at your service.

HERE'S A LETTER WORTH READING

My Dear Mr. Hoops:

Yours of the second received. You will also see by the papers that I am advertising bonds, and I want to let you know that the country has gotten my all, four boys.

If a poor devil ever wanted to clean up good and forever on the dam huns, I do. I told my boys not to come back until the job was finished. I have borrowed a lot of money and bought five thousand dollars in bonds and two thousand dollars in war savings stamps. We have about ten thousand dollars in our lumber business and one automobile that I would gladly let the government have and take the amount in stamps and bonds. If they can use me, I am ready. What more can I do, please say.

Jake Thomas,

San Marcos, Texas.

At Brazoria, Texas, a number of Italians crowded into the Liberty Loan train impatient to make their bond subscriptions. One swarthy skinned little fellow was gesticulating wildly and in an excited voice said, "a beeg fellow," jerking his thumb toward the crowd. "he calla me wop dago, I buy a leeberty bon sir, I American."

French miners at an Oklahoma town where the Liberty train made a short stop yesterday, already wild with enthusiasm over the recapture of their native city,

St. Quentin, by the allies, went delirious with joy when the French soldiers, Feraneois Kerkean, member of the Foreign Legion, and Jacob Jacobson, an American Jew appeared on the steps of the Liberty train with their arms entwined, and Kerkean shouting in a raging voice the immortal words

Roachambers. We are your brothers and we should act as such with you.

We should fight your enemies by your side as if we were one and the same nation."

An aged Belgian woman, Madam De Lanoire, who lost many grand sons in the war, threw her arms about Kerkean, giving him the French greeting, a kiss on either cheek, spontaneously, the Frenchnmen broke in to the stirring words of the Marsellas.

It is needless to say this Oklahoma town made up largely of foreigners, went over the top with their Liberty Loan.

David Reins, of Vivian, La., is a true southerner hero. He owns a farm and recently found out the royalty which began to pour in. When he heard the call of the Liberty Loan he went to the Vivian bank and said, "turn all my money over to the government to help win this war." Reins had $100,000 on deposit and his entire balance was turned into Liberty bonds at this remand.

PROFESSIONAL NURSE

Tells What to Do to Regain Strength After Sickness

New York City.—"I am a professional nurse,—the grippe and bronchial pneumonia left me with a cough and in a depleted, anaemic condition, and no appetite. I cannot take cod liver in any other form than in Vinol and in a short time after taking it my appetite improved, my cough left me, I gained strength and weight. That is why I recommend Vinol to others!"—Mrs. E. M. Walker, R. N. 35 W. 38th St.

It is the beef and cod liver pep-tones aided by the iron and manganese peptonates and glycerophosphates contained in Vinol which makes it so wonderfully successful.

Can Now Eat and Sleep in Comfort

If troubled with indigestion or sleeplessness you should read what Miss Agnes Turner, Chicago, Ill., has to say: "Overwork, irregular meals and carelessness regarding the ordinary rules of health, gradually undermined it until last fall I became a wreck of my former self. I suffered from continual headache, was unable to digest my food, which seemed to lay as a dead weight on my stomach. I was very constipated and my complexion became dark, yellow and mucky as I felt. Sleeplessness was added to my misery, and I would awake as tired as when I went to sleep. I heard of Chamberlain's Tablets and found such relief after taking them that I kept up the treatment for nearly two months. They cleansed my stomach, invigorated my system, and since that time I can eat and sleep in comfort. I am today entirely well."
