Don't Guess On Social Security Claims Matters

Residents of Eastland county were urged today by R. R. Tuley, Jr., district manager, to get in touch with the Abilene office of the Social Security Administration for information regarding payments under the old-age and survivors insurance program. Tuley stated that his office encounters numerous instances of applicants for benefits who have relied on erroneous or misleading advice received from friends or relatives. As a result they have mistaken ideas about requirements for social security payments which they will receive. In several recent cases, failure to obtain correct information before reaching retirement age has had serious effects on the applicant's plans for retirement, he added. The Abilene office of the Social Security Administration receives

Eastland Man Named Baptist Father Of Year

Joseph Carroll Allison, tax assessor-collector of Eastland County, has been named Texas Baptist Father of the Year. Mr. Allison, who has worked as schoolteacher, newspaperman, accountant and now as tax assessor, has reared nine children, eight of whom graduated from college. A deacon in the Baptist church for 32 years, Mr. Allison has three sons who are preachers and a daughter who married a preacher. Six of his children graduated from Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, one from Howard Payne College in Brownwood, and one from Texas Western College in El Paso. The eldest son trained at a technical school in California before joining Douglas Aircraft. Mr. Allison is active in his church, Bethel Baptist Church in Eastland, and in the Baptist denomination. He has served as treasurer of the Cisco Baptist Association for several years. Allison has held many offices in his church.

Active in the community, Mr. Allison has helped in conducting city and county elections. His election as tax assessor in 1955 he was ineligible for the office.

Mr. and Mrs. Allison's children are Carroll Allison, aircraft production supervisor, Downey, California; the Rev. Joe W. Allison, pastor, First Baptist Church, Estelline, Texas; Verne Allison, secretary, Eastland; John L. Allison, chemist, El Paso; Edith M. Allison, secretary, Abilene; the Rev. Grady N. Allison, pastor, First Baptist Church, Munday; Nelson Allison, school teacher, Odessa; Betty L. Beaty, Funston; and the Rev. James Allison, pastor, Bryce Baptist Church, Bryce.

Don't Guess On Retirement and Survivors Payments from Residents of 15 Counties

In addition to the office receives applications in and around Taylor county for disability payments from qualified workers 50 years of age or more and applications to "freeze" the wage records of disabled workers under age 50. As of May 8, in 1958, the Abilene office had forwarded 2513 applications for retirement or survivors payments and 297 applications for disability payments. Informational material including all phases of the Social Security insurance program is available and a representative of the office is normally available to meet with groups desiring a speaker. Tuley suggested that all students who plan to work during the summer vacation, and who have not obtained a social security card, do so immediately. Application blanks for cards can be obtained at the Abilene office or at the post office nearest their homes.

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit: This is a trespass to try title suit involving the following tract of land:

160 acres of land, more or less, in Eastland County, Texas, being all of a survey antedated to E. E. Head, assignee of J. Kilpatrick, Patent No. 8,888, J. Abstract No. 1156.

BEGINNING at the SE corner of Pre-emption Survey for Griffith, a stake; THENCE 950 vrs. to a stake THENCE North 950 v' stake corner; THENCE 90 vrs. to corner; THENCE 950 vrs. to the place of beginning bearings marked X. That the following named persons those claiming under them the following undivided interest in the oil, gas and other minerals in said above described land, H. V. Caldwell, a 1/64 interest; N. N. Rosenquest, a 2/64 interest; J. J. Taylor, a 1/64 interest; J. A. Meaders, Jr., a 1/64 interest; S. G. Tomlinson, a 1/64 interest; W. L. Robeson, a 1/128 interest; A. A. Hutton, a 2/64 interest; J. E. Tomlinson, a 1/128 interest; W. M. Adams, a 2/64 interest; J. H. Reynolds, a 1/160 interest; D. E. White, a 3/32 and 3/256 interest; J. E. Luce, a 74/160 interest; H. B. Furr, a 1/32 interest; D. K. Scott, a 2/64 interest; C. E. Mayhew, a 1/2 interest; Wm. S. Bailey, Jr., a 1/2 interest; Dilday, a 1/2 interest.

Plaintiffs allege that the above described land was conveyed to them by deed of trust while two deeds of trust were pending which covered the entire tract of land and that when said two deeds of trust were foreclosed and the lands were conveyed to persons under whom these plaintiffs now claim, that the interests of all of these defendants, their heirs, successors, assigns, and legal representatives were void and of no further force and effect and that now the premises are owned in fee simple in the entirety by Plaintiff, Burlie Paul McCowen, except for the interest in fee simple in the Central Life Insurance Company of an undivided 1/2 interest in all oil, gas, and other minerals beneath the surface and an undivided 1/2 interest in the royalties, proceeds therefrom, leases thereon as shown by Plaintiff's file in this suit.

If this citation is not served within 10 days after the date of its issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

The officer executing this writ shall promptly serve the same according to requirements of law, and the provisions hereof, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the seal of said court at Eastland, Texas, this the 15th day of May A. D. 1958. Attest: Roy L. Lane Clerk, 91st District Court of Eastland County, Texas. By Nelda Rutherford, Deputy.

Contour Farming

Contour farming on terraced lands holds the maximum rainfall in place for crop production and reduces soil erosion resulting from run-off. A good vegetation program makes the above practices more effective.
