Making a Battery Over

To hear some folks talk you'd think an old battery could be made over into a brand new one, but it can't be done.

But we do go the limit in helping you keep your battery in fighting trim. We're headquarters for the Still Better Willard Battery with Threaded Rubber Insulation the kind selected by 152 passengercar and motor-truck builders.

Ballinger. Every day should be Library Day. We believe that a greater demand can be created for the library through a campaign of education. And when the demand is created this city will experience no trouble in financing the proposition. Ballinger people will pay for anything they want, but are mighty slow in paying for something they do not want. A series of public entertainments, socia gatherings, or some program which will call the library into play, will cause the people to get behind the proposition.

Getting Rid of a Knot.

It is often a difficult business to get rid of knots, especially if these are of long standing. By following the plan indicated it is a simple matter to free the hardest knots, whether these be in straps, harness, rope, cord or anything of a similar nature. As a first step place the knot on some hard surface and give it a good hammering on all sides with a mallet or a thick piece of wood. Now boil up a little water with soap in it sufficient to make rather a cloudy solution. Then sonk the knot for two or three minutes in the liquid. At the end of this time it will be found that it can be quite easily antied, often enough with the fingers. The loosening can be done with some sharp implement.

Profitable Companionship. Among the most curious and interesting of natural phenomena are those pertaining to the mutual relationships of common organisms. Two plants, two animals, or a plant and an animal, may live together for their mutual benefit. Very often one of the partners gets food for the combination, while the other receives protection. This is the arrangement that subsists between tropical plants and certain species of ants which live and feed in their hollow stems, and in return drive away other insects that would do damage.

HAD GENIUS FOR INVENTION

Man Who Began Life as a Prairie Sheep Herder Made Most Remarkable Record.

It is probable that Walter Tuner was the world's most prolific inventor. Starting life as a shepherd on a prairie sheep ranch in the far West he knew nothing of the mechanics of without our knowing that ever, while tending his sheep on the prairie in the neighborhood of a railway, Turner came to where the ruins of a train were scattered, and among Declares This Lady of a train were scattered, and among the fragments he picked up as a curidone that it will please the osity a vital part of the Westinghouse brake. This he was allowed to carry away. During his lonely life on the prairie he would ponder over the came when, having failed as a sheep farmer, he got a job as a whool on the rallway, ultimately being promoted to the engine shops. A series of inventions, improving brakes patented by the company, led to his further advancement. Mr. Westinghouse who took him into his works, finally made him the head of the engineering department. Westinghouse patented two hundred inventions, but the shepherd from the prairies patented four hundred. Westinghouse made an airbrake that would control fifty railway carriages; Turner improved it till !! would control a hundred. When he died it was said that the value of the shepherd's inventions to the world was over thirty-five million dollars in

NEXT JOB IS WHAT COUNTS

Done, and Look Forward to Something Else. James J. Hill, who possessed a phe-one ought to be interested in, and then forget the others. That sounds easy, but it isn't easy, as we all know. However, if we try, we may accomplish something. If we don't, we won't.

Let's see, therefore, what are some of the things we ought to forget. First, and most important of all, forget that brilliant record you made at school or that wonderful sale you made which caused all the beys to talk, or that remarkable piece of work you did which won your raise of pay

Forget the big things you did yesterday or last year. Forget all about the time you

As he ran there seemed to come back to him the memory of a forgotten dream, if it were a dream, in which he lay in another land on a chill hillside. Overhead in the darkness passed a burst singing of voices not of this earth. From that day the trumpet notes of the wild geese bring back through the fog of the drifting years that same dream to him who heard them first in that far away, long ago clover field,

NEGRO IN AUTO CAUSES CRASH

A Ford roadster, driven by Suffer? negro, and a Studebaker car, driven by Herman Spill, son of August Spill of Winters, crashed together at the intersection of Eighth Street and Hutchings Avenue Thursday morning, resulting in considerable damage to both ears.

The accident was caused by the negro driving on the wrong side time with womanly weak-ness," says Mrs. J. R of the street. He was going South Simpson, of 57 Spruce St., Asheville, N. C. "I finally got to the place where it was an effort for me to go. I would have and traveling on the left hand side of the street, while the big ear was coming North on the right hand side. The two cars met at the intersection of the street just as the negro was try my side and back — esing to turn, and the Ford smash pecially severe across my back, and down in my ed into the side of the Studeoaker with sufficinet force to cave in the fender, break the deal of soreness. I was nervous and easily upspring, bend the axle and smash he radiator. The Ford radiator was smashed and the Ford othervise was damaged.

A traffic officer appeared on the scene and carried the negro pefore the court to answer for rooked" driving, and in the eantime Mr. Spill began to figre who was going to pay the amagé on his car.
