THIRTEEN KILLED IN COAL MINERS' WAR

By Associated Press

WHEELING, W. Va., July 17.—Sheriff W. H. Duvall and 12 other persons were killed, and not less than twenty-five wounded, in a fight at the Standard mine of the Rock Island Coal Co. two miles from Weisburg, this morning, according to a report sent in by the correspondent of the Wheeling News.

The mine, which had been working on an open shop basis, is reported to have been attacked by a large party of men. The men arrived at the mine from points over the Pennsylvania lines.

After the fight the strikers set fire to the mine.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—A specific program designed to end the coal strike, is understood to have been discussed today at the White House conference between President Harding and Governor Sproul, Senator Pepper and Attorney General Alter of Pennsylvania. No announcement of the result of the conference was made.

R. W. Gilliam, of Hereford, is here looking after business and visiting friends.

TEXAS ELECTION BUREAU IS BUSY

DALLAS, July 17.—The Texas Election Bureau announces that plans for handling the returns from the Democratic primary in this state next Saturday night have been perfected, and the papers of the state will be supplied with the returns. The Bureau will also handle the returns for the second primary in August.

The bureau is a co-operative enterprise organized by the Texas Managing Editors' Association for the purpose of supplying the returns to its member papers at cost.

This year a leased wire will connect 25 of the largest papers in the state for transmitting the returns, and about 50 of the smaller papers will receive the returns over the commercial wires.

Returns compiled by the bureau are supplied to newspapers only. The bureau is overwhelmed every two years with requests from drug stores, moving picture theatres and other concerns asking for the returns, but it has been obliged to turn down all such requests for the reason that the bureau's facilities are limited to supplying returns to the newspapers only, and the newspapers are given exclusive rights.

The Daily Ledger is a member of the Texas Election Bureau, and will receive returns on all state offices next Saturday night. The bulletins on the most important races will be flashed on the bulletin board, and complete returns up to a late hour carried in a special edition of the paper to be issued Sunday morning.

HURT WHILE EN ROUTE TO BALLINGER

Dave Fentress, of St. Louis, was the victim of a jitney accident while en route to Ballinger to visit his sister, Mrs. J. McGregor, Saturday afternoon. Mr. Fentress was making the trip from Abilene to Ballinger in an auto and was thrown thru the windshield and considerably bruised up when the jitney driver ran into a ditch with the car. He secured passage in other autos and made the trip thru after some delay, and called a physician to patch him up after reaching Ballinger.

Mrs. John G. Glass and children returned to their home at Houston, Saturday afternoon. They had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ira Sims at Pony.

Five Americans Travel 800 Miles Overland on $1.35 Each

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Eight hundred miles of hard overland travel for $1.35 is a record that sneaks of the fishy, but is the actual feat accomplished by five enterprising American college boys seeking adventure in foreign lands.

They are W. J. Ash, Russell Ragan, F. J. Selvage and R. P. Cushman, of Indianapolis, and G. W. Stasand, of Harvey, Ill., all students of Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Indiana, who are intent on showing how resourceful young Americans can travel without money.

Their arrival in Washington recently, after about eight hundred miles in what they called "an antiquated model of popular automobile," was at the expense of just $1.35 apiece. Of that, they boasted, 12 cents was expended in a tip to a garage hand who allowed them to sleep over night in the back seats of cars stored there. They were on their way to Newport News, there to ship as "chamber maids to the cows," on a cattle boat bound for Liverpool.

The trip to Washington took five days, during which they slept only one night in beds, springing what is believed to be a brand new wrinkle in hoboism.

Following out their plan of economy, two of them went to a hotel, engaged a room with two beds. Later the other three, "dropped in casually for a visit," stayed the rest of the night, and so all five enjoyed the room and hotel bills for three had been saved.

They are going to stay in Europe as long as their slim funds hold out, they say, and are going to tour as much of the world as they can. If they spring more plans like the hotel one, they are sure to be successful.

But maybe ordinary people

GERMANY IS NOW PAYING THE BILL

PARIS, July 17.—The reparations commission was officially notified today that Germany had deposited thirty-two million gold marks in the bank designated to receive payments of reparation, and this amount will be credited to the allies to meet the reparations payment which was due July 15th. The commission recently declined to include this payment in the moratorium which the Germans had requested and which is pending final action.

GREEK COINS FOR U. S. SLOT MACHINES

SALONIKA, Greece, July 17.—American sailors calling at this port are collecting quantities of a Greek coin worth in exchange less than one cent. A frank seafarer explained the habit by saying that the coins just fitted the slot machines in the United States.

Miss Lucille Moore, of Temple, is here visiting Miss Edwy Bailey.

TREASURY CLERK GETS TWO YEARS

AUSTIN, July 17.—The jury in the case of Lon D. Morgan, former chief clerk in the state treasury department, who was on trial for alleged misappropriation of state funds, returned a verdict of guilty today and assessed his punishment at two years in the state penitentiary. Morgan has yet to face trial on nine other indictments charging the same offense as that for which he was convicted this morning.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Superintendent Drauer of the railway mail service at Chicago, today notified Postmaster General Work that the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy train No. 27 left the track late yesterday at Lovilla, Iowa, and that strikers were preventing the train wrecking crew from clearing the track.

The report to the postmaster general's department stated that striking coal miners and striking shopmen's sympathizers had persistently refused to permit the wrecking crew to work and that passengers and members of the train wrecking crews had been driven away from the scene of the wreck.

The report added that failure to clear the wreck on account of the strikers driving the wrecking crews away was delaying mail movement and asked the department to take some action.

2 YEGGS KILLED BY A POSSE

FT. WORTH, July 17.—In a battle at Valley View early today between citizens and several men who attempted to rob the postoffice, two alleged bandits were shot down and captured. Others made their escape but are being chased by a posse. Ft. Worth officers are en route to Valley View to identify the wounded prisoners as it is believed that they are from this city.

FT. WORTH, July 17.—Two of the alleged Valley View robbers who were wounded this morning in a gun fight, are in a hospital at Gainesville, and a third is in jail. The wounded gave their names as Joe Turner, of Ripley, Tennessee, and Chas. Maggio of Fort Worth.

BAPTISTS BEGIN NEW BUILDING

In a special conference of the Baptist congregation, which was held Sunday night, steps were taken by which the work of erecting their new church building will begin at once. It was announced a short time ago that the work would be done by contract, but an agreement between the building committee and the lowest bidder was never perfected, and the committee, in connection with the board of deacons, decided to not wait any longer, but to begin the work at once by the day. This decision was approved unanimously by the congregation Sunday night. W. B. Dunlap, of this city, has been chosen as superintendent of the work. The building committee and the superintendent of construction had a meeting early Monday morning to work out some necessary details, and Mr. Dunlap is at work now getting matters in hand for immediate action.

The above report was given out Monday morning by the pastor of this church, Rev. Alvin Swindell.

CARTER SPEAKS HERE ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Claude E. Carter, candidate for representative from this district, announces that he will speak on the court house lawn in Ballinger Wednesday night at eight thirty. He solicits the presence of those who wish to hear him discuss his platform and bear his views on the issues of the campaign.

DENISON, July 17.—Captain Hickman of the state Ranger force arrived here today to resume an investigation of the strike situation and keep in close touch with the situation and report developments to the state government.

SHERMAN, July 17.—After chasing a strike breaker here this morning, a mob captured him and rapidly drove to the country with the man. Officers are investigating the attack on the man and his sudden disappearance.

DALLAS, July 17.—Attempts to operate the Katy shops at Denison are to be abandoned temporarily and the repair base will be established in Dallas, according to reports in railroad circles here. This action will be taken upon the recommendation of Gov. Neff and federal officers, it was said.

DALLAS, July 17.—A protest has been made to Governor Neff against the use of state troops at Denison or any other Texas points for the purpose of protecting strike breakers. General Chairman Wilson, of the Katy shopmen, filed the protest against the use of state troops.

DETROIT, Mich., July 17.—Members of the maintenance of way union who engaged in an unauthorized strike, will not be expelled from the union "for the moment," but brotherhood organizers will be sent to interview the strikers and attempt to persuade them to remain at work pending final decision as to the national strike move. President Grable said here today.

CHICAGO, July 17.—Approximately twenty-five thousand maintenance of way men have struck without permission of President Grable, and vice-President Smoek, of the Maintenance of Way Union, it was reported today. Smoek said it was probable that the strike would be outlawed by the national officials of the union, as they struck without any authority from the union.

In his sermon on the moral character of candidates, Rev. Mitchell said that no candidate should be elected to office who is not morally fit. The minister is right. A wise head and a rotten heart is a bad combination in public office.

Biographical Sketch of Clarence Ousley

Hon. Clarence Ousley, candidate for U. S. Senator, was born in Lowndes county, Georgia. He is a graduate of the Agricultural & Mechanical College of Alabama, and has been a citizen of Texas for forty-one years, coming here at tutor in Old Marvin College at Waxahachie. He was first Superintendent of Public Schools at Waxahachie, and later entered the field of journalism. He was successively editor of Farm & Ranch, editor of Semi-Weekly Dallas Farm News, Managing Editor Galveston News, President and Editor Galveston Tribune, Managing Editor Houston Post, founder and Editor of Fort Worth Record.

Clarence Ousley

Since the early nineties he has been an admitted leader in all Texas' educational and agricultural movements. He was chairman of the Conference for Education in Texas which conducted a campaign for rural school betterment for several years. He was Chairman of the Board of Regents of the College of Industrial Arts and later Chairman for a number of years of the Board of Regents of the University of Texas and did more for this great educational institution than any other man has ever done except those great philanthropists, Col. Brackenridge and Maj. Littlefield, who gave to the State University vast sums of money and lands. Col. Ousley not having the money and land to give, gave the University several years of his best thought, untiring zeal and diligent attention to its most vital interests. He was also Director of Extension of the A. & M. College for six years, where he likewise did great and effective service for that great educational institution.

As a student of agricultural problems, particularly marketing and rural credits, he came into national prominence some fifteen years ago. He was a member of the American Commission appointed by President Wilson to study Rural Credit and Co-operative Marketing in Europe. Upon the research and reports of that commission the Federal Farm Loan Bank system was constructed. Mr. Ousley had a conspicuous part in the European investigations and also in framing the Farm Loan Act. In 1917 he was called to Washington as Assistant Secretary of Agriculture under President Wilson where he served during and after the war. In that position he was charged with the responsibility of stimulating an increase of agricultural production in the United States to meet the needs of war, and was charged with administrative responsibilities touching nearly every phase of American agricultural life. He was a member of the agricultural conference called by President Harding in January last to serve on the Committee of Credits with such men as Eugene Meyer Jr., of the War Finance Corporation; A. S. Lever, of the Farm Loan Board; and Mr. Miller, of the Federal Reserve Board. This was a distinct compliment to Col. Ousley's administrative genius, and practically an admission that his equal could not be found within the ranks of the Republican party. He is better equipped perhaps than any other man in the South to construct a companion system of Co-operative Credit for Agricultural and Livestock Raising, so essential to the welfare of Texas producers. During his term of service as Assistant Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, Mr. Ousley was in intimate contact with the leaders of both the House and the Senate and is credited with having been consulted by them oftener perhaps than any other man in Washington. He is leader, not a follower. He does this own thinking, and he thinks in terms of the welfare of the whole people—not in the interest of classes and factions. Both capital and labor recognize him as a fair man, desiring to do justice to both but refusing to give special favors to either. He is devoted to the principles of State and community rights and is resolutely opposed to interference by the Federal Government in the control of State and local affairs.

He recognizes prohibition, woman suffrage and related issues of the recent past as settled beyond the possibility of revival and is firm for their enforcement. (Political Advertisement)

LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring Back its Color and Lustre With Grandma's Sage Tea Recipe.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is trouble some. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a comb or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

"SONS OF REPUBLIC" CALLING FOR MEMBERS

There is a move on foot to form an order of the "Sons of the Republic." Anyone born in Texas, or who came to Texas, prior to 1846, are eligible to become members. Should there be such persons now living in Runnels county, please give in their names to S. D. Williams, Ballinger, Texas. A meeting will be called as soon as there are a sufficient number of names handed in to perfect the organization. There are several pioneers in Runnels county who are known to have been born in Texas before the state was admitted to the union.

HOUSTON—For the first time in history Texas mohair is being graded in the state, according to J. E. Boag-Scott, of Fort Worth, president of the Southern Wool and Mohair Growers' Association. A government grader has been secured by the association for the grading work. The executive committee of the association has just held an adjourned meeting here.

TUSCOLA WOMAN HELD FOR KILLING HUSBAND

TEXAS IN FRONT AS BIG VEGETABLE PRODUCER
By Associated Press

DALLAS, July 17.—Texas will ship more than 19,000 cars of early vegetables this year and this amount with other shipments of later vegetables and truck crops probably will bring the total to 60,000 cars, according to Texas Chamber of Commerce officials here today.

"Texas is rapidly becoming a strong rival of California and Florida as an early shipper to the Eastern markets," a chamber official said recently. "This state is the premier Bermuda onion shipping state of the union. Cabbage, white potatoes, spinach, tomatoes, strawberries, watermelons, cantaloupes, and mixed vegetables are other important early crops."

Citrus fruit growing in the Rio Grande valley now represents an investment of more than $10,000,000, in some 1,500,000 trees, according to W. H. McGrath, of Brownsville.

One Dollar Saved Represents Ten Dollars Earned

The average man does not save to exceed ten per cent of his earnings. He must spend nine dollars in living expenses for every dollar saved. That being the case he can not be too careful about unnecessary expenses. Very often a few cents properly invested, like buying seeds for his garden, will save several dollars outlay later on. It is the same in buying Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. It costs but a few cents, and a bottle of it in the house often saves a doctor's bill of several dollars.

Bill Ingram returned to his home in Brownwood Monday morning after a visit here to friends.

A. R. Crews and little son, of San Angelo, came down Monday morning to visit Mr. Crews, father, C. R. Crews.

Dr. Sanders, of Winters, was in Ballinger Sunday.

Special to The Ledger:

TUSCOLA, Taylor Co., Tex., July 17.—Mrs. I. D. Flannigan, age 30, is under $2,500 bond to await the action of the grand jury on a charge of killing her husband Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Flannigan appeared before Justice of the Peace McCormick at Tuscola shortly after the tragedy and waived preliminary hearing and she was carried to Abilene and bond fixed.

Flannigan, age about 35, operator of a motor bus between Abilene, Tuscola and other points, was shot and killed about four-thirty Saturday afternoon at his home in Tuscola. An inquest was held by the local justice of the peace.

An examination of the body showed that Flannigan received three wounds in the body. One bullet lodged in the stomach and one in each side. A wound was also noted on the dead man's hand. He lived for about thirty minutes. Two guns were found on the floor of the room where Flannigan's body was found. Only one of the guns had been fired.

Flannigan is survived by his wife and three children, the oldest child being twelve years of age.

LITTLE BLAZE IN SOUTH BALLINGER

A blaze which threatened to destroy the home of Radford E. Brown, in South Ballinger, about six o'clock Monday morning was nipped in the bud when the volunteer fire company responded to the alarm call and with a few dashes of chemicals extinguished the flames. The fire was burning thru one corner of the roof when the city company reached the scene. The damage consists of a few burnt shingles, and can be replaced for a few dollars.

Mrs. Frank Drews and children came in Sunday from Dallas, and will visit Mrs. Drews' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Roeder.

THE course of apparel has been set for many a season steadily toward daintiness, both for outer and undergarments and from "top to toe." When good sense dictates a sturdy fabric, with dependable wearing qualities for a frock, designers immediately put their wits to work to give it an airy touch somehow, either by means of accessories to be worn with it, or by combinations of materials or by its decorations. Manufacturers of gingham have made things easy for them. The neat prettiness of checked gingham and their beautiful colors prove an inspiration that accounts for an endless variety of adorable mid-summer frocks.

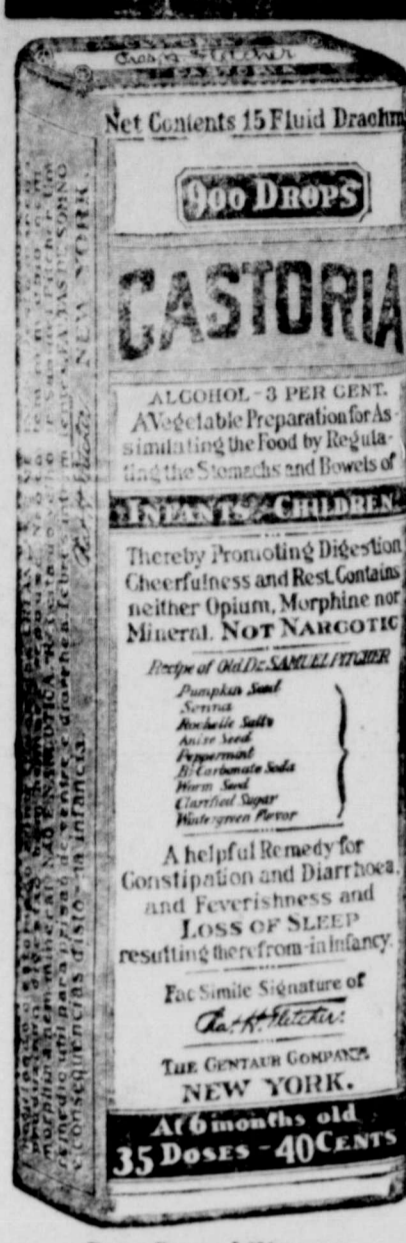

Everywhere gingham, joining forces with organdie, makes morning and outing frocks of unrivaled freshness, and every week sees new developments of this combination. Two of the last to be launched on the seas of midsummer fashions are shown here. In both of them gingham, showing a small check in a color with white, is combined with white organdie, and the dresses are attractive in any of the fashionable colors and in black and white. The designs are novel and the picture tells all their simple but delightful story. The use of flat pearl buttons, as a decorative feature, is worth noting in them (it has been cleverly done) and the importance of making the gingham up partly on the bias and partly on the straight of the material.

The frock at the left makes new departures with a bias ruffle about the hips and a long organdie sash bound with the gingham and tied at the left side. The bodice fastens under the close-set row of buttons down the front. The imagination of the designer of this little frock caused her to make effective use of shallow scallops about the bottom of the overskirt and bodice and on the double collar and cuffs, and to accent a new variation of them with flat pearl buttons. One of the best things about these pretty frocks, for any time of day, is that anyone may make them. The materials are to be had everywhere and are inexpensive. The designs are simple and easy to make.

STATE FARM BUREAU COTTON MAN HERE

F. R. Shanks, representing the Cotton Association of the Farm Bureau, arrived in Ballinger Monday at noon, and two o'clock he began addressing the farmers and a number of other citizens in the interest of the cotton department of the Farm Bureau.

The Farm Bureau has closed its first year's work in handling cotton under the pool system, and speakers are now in the field making reports and presenting plans for enlarging and continuing the work. According to the report the system of selling cotton in pool lots was proven satisfactory and the farmers realized a better price than where cotton was sold independently and in small lots.

INVITED TO ATTEND PICNICS

The people of the Offen community, several miles South of Ballinger, will have a corner stone laying for their new church Tuesday, and in connection with the ceremony attending the laying of the stone, will serve a barbecue dinner.

Two picnics are scheduled for Thursday, one at Wingate and the other at Miles. County Commissioner Geo. Miller from the Wingate precinct, was in the Y. M. B. L. office Monday and issued an invitation to the Ballinger people to spend Thursday in Wingate and help swell their crowds.

Local boosters attending either of the above events will be furnished Ballinger badges and Runnels County Fair advertising at the office of the business league. The picnics which are being staged in various parts of the Ballinger trade territory during these quiet summer months offer excellent opportunities to local business men to have a day's outing in the country, get on better terms with our rural neighbors and to extend their personal invitations to spend three days in Ballinger in September while the County Fair is in progress.

JUAREZ SALOONMEN START THE FREE LUNCH SYSTEM

By Associated Press
JUAREZ, Chihuahua, Mexico, July 17.—Juarez has been taught another step in American ways, and saloonmen have been the teachers again. The American free lunch system has entered the city.

Because there are too many saloons for the number of patrons, keen competition, including price cutting, prevails among the saloon men. An American recently instituted the free lunch system in his emporium in order to draw crowds.

A "hot dog" sandwich or a bowl of chili with a tall "cold one," was served for ten cents.

A Mexican cantina nearby saw the success of the American plan and promptly initiated it, serving a cold plate lunch consisting of several kinds of meat, cheese, crackers, dried fish, green onions and radishes, the whole combination being calculated to stimulate thirst. His patrons began standing in line waiting.

NAME LEFT OUT OF CANDIDATE LIST

The name of Edgar Jayroe, which appears on the primary ticket as a candidate for county commissioner from Precinct No. 2, the Winters-Crews precinct, was through an oversight left out of the announcement column, and some of Mr. Jayroe's friends became skeptical for fear that he had balked on them again. Mr. Jayroe was solicited to make the race for the commission two years ago, and declined. He was solicited again this year and declined to make an active campaign, but finally agreed to serve, if the people elected him, and his friends are active in his behalf.

HERE TO LOOK AFTER SICK SHEEP

Dr. Thaxton, of the Livestock Sanitary Commission, spent two or three days here last week investigating the new disease that is prevalent among the sheep in this county. Complaints from several sheepmen of Runnels county called Dr. Thaxton to this part of the state. ## R. R. MACHINISTS UNION ONE OF THE STRONGEST

By Associated Press
WASHINGTON, July 17.—The International Association of Machinists, one of the most important of the organizations participating in the railroad shopmen's strike, numbers on its rolls approximately 250,000 men, officials declare, of which almost 100,000 are employed in railroad shops or in shops doing railroad work. The rest are scattered through various other industries.

The organization is among the oldest of the country, it is claimed, altho its present title does not date farther back than 1889. In 1858 groups of skilled blacksmiths and machinists banded together to form their first organization. The union thrived for some years, and became a part of the famous Knights of Labor when that body was organized, about fifty years ago.

So important a part did the railroad machinists take in that body that they became the dominant faction. In the eighties, leaders recalled, when the nights of Labor went under the ban, the members, especially in the West, had to change their names and seek jobs elsewhere hiding their union membership to avoid persecution.

The Knights were finally disrupted and the machinists got along as best they could until, in 1868, the railroad machinists in the shops at Atlanta, Georgia, met and reorganized.

At the first yearly convention machinists representatives from various sections of the country attended, and the name was fixed as the National Association of Machinists. The next year delegates from Canada, practically the entire country, and elsewhere, attended, the organization was extended into an international body, and the name changed to the present title.

The membership, composed for the most part of the highest type of skilled mechanics, has always taken a leading part in the railroading, both in this country and Canada, though to little extent in Mexico. While the various local sections of the union have been embroiled in constant trouble of one sort or another with the railroad executives, union officials declared, the present walk-out is only the second general strike of the entire body.

PICKPOCKETS INVEST FOR BIG RETURNS

By Associated Press
NEW YORK, July 17.—The modern pickpocket in New York is a speculator. He invests a little change in the hope of getting large returns. And here, according to that fountain-head of information, the police, is the way he does it.

Having selected a potential victim, the pickpocket drops a coin in front of him. Then he calls the stranger's attention to it, solicitously inquiring if perhaps he did not drop the coin. More often than not the stranger reckons it possible he might have, and stoops over to pick up the money. Whereupon the pickpocket lifts the wallet from the stranger's hip-pocket.

GOOD SUNDAY FOR NAZARENE REVIVAL

The interest in the revival meeting at the Church of the Nazarene continues to grow. Yesterday proved to be a good day, with good attendance upon both services, especially last night, when almost every available seat in the auditorium was taken.

The singing was very inspiring and enjoyed by all this being the main feature of the meeting and was entered into with much freedom and enthusiasm.

Services each night throughout the week, beginning promptly at 8:30, with the first thirty minutes given over to the song service.

Biliousness and Constipation

"For years I was troubled with biliousness and constipation, which made life miserable for me. My appetite failed me. I lost my usual force and vitality. Pepsin preparations and cathartics only made matters worse. I do not know where I should have been today had I not tried Chamberlain's Tablets. The tablets relieve the feeling at once, strengthen the digestive functions, helping the system to do its work naturally." writes Mrs. Rosa Potts, Birmingham, Ala.

Cut Down Your Feed Bills!

Hundreds of dollars lost on many farms each year in wasted feed. This can easily be prevented if stock are provided a dry place for feeding. In wet weather much of the feed is lost if thrown on the ground.

Every successful stockman knows the best results are obtained from feeding if stock have a clean dry place for their feed and are sheltered from cold rains, snow and driving gales. The best arranged shelters give this protection and at the same time allow plenty of ventilation.
