AMERICAN COLLEGE GIRLS MURDERED

LIVE STOCK FEATURES SECOND DAY AT FAIR

The feature of the Runnels County Fair program for tonight will be the fire works display at 7:30 on North Broadway, near the home of Mrs. R. A. Nicholson. This is a free attraction and will be worth witnessing. The stage for the pyrotechnic display will be set and ready to go by 7:30, and every effort has been made to avoid a delay.

The second day of the Runnels County Fair was featured by a livestock parade shortly after noon Friday, and following the livestock parade a water fight was staged on the streets.

The livestock parade attracted much attention as the fine blooded stock were led thru the streets with the band heading the procession. Horses, mules, cattle and sheep for the most part made up the parade. The exhibiting of the livestock on the streets created interest in that part of the fair and people began to flock to the livestock pens on Tenth Street.

Immediately after the parade the fire boys appeared on the streets rigged out in their fire fighting uniforms. The fire truck parked at the fire plug at the corner of the Ballinger Loan Company building, and two connections were made with new fire hose, and with two streams of water the teams went into combat. Losing control of their guns several times during the fight the water fighters shot a deluge over the crowd which packed the streets, causing people to scatter and scramble for shelter.

The water fight was an amusing feature of the afternoon's entertainment and the large crowd enjoyed it hugely.

The agricultural exhibit hall and livestock pens were closed for a couple of hours Friday morning while the judges did their work. A complete list of the winners and special mention of the exhibits in these departments will be published in a later issue of The Ledger.

The livestock parade, water fight and street stunts were the amusement features for Friday afternoon. The acrobatic acts by the little strong man, C. H. Blanks, held the attention of the large throngs Friday afternoon.

Band concerts by the 142nd Infantry Regimental Band were given on the court house lawn from eight to nine o'clock Thursday evening, and street concerts given throughout the day Friday. The attendance for the first day was beyond the expectation of the fair management and people from distant points in the county began to arrive early Friday morning, swelling the attendance for the second day to equal that of the first day, and Saturday will no doubt bring the largest crowds to visit this city in many years.

Radio Exhibit

The radio station in the booth of the Ballinger Electric Company was the center of attraction for a large crowd throughout the first evening of the fair. G. P. Teague was in charge of the station, and despite the bad condition of the atmosphere on account of storms raging in the East, messages were received from Atlanta, Ga., St. Louis and Kansas City and other distant points. Speeches, songs and instrumental music were received, and many who heard the first voice through the air thousands of miles away stood and listened with amazement. This will be a feature of the fair every evening, and throughout the day when broadcasting stations at other places are sending out anything.

Style Show Feature in Merchants' Exposition Building

The staging of a style show by Higginbotham Bros. & Co. in their booth in the Merchants' Exposition building was a drawing card in that building Thursday evening. Mrs. M. S. Karmony was in charge of the show, and living models displayed the latest in hats, dresses, coat suits, furs, etc. Despite the crowded condition of the hall many people packed around the Higginbotham booth and wedged themselves thru the crowd to get a glimpse of the showing of fall and winter fashions. The orchestra furnished music during the style exhibit, and many men showed as much interest in the late fashions as women.

Fifty dollars in cash prizes offered for best decorated cars in the automobile parade on the first day of the fair was distributed

EXAMINING TRIAL OPEN PORT CASE IN SEALY KILLING GOES TO JURY

(By Associated Press) HOUSTON, Sept. 15.—The examining trial of six men held in connection with the sheriff's probe into the killing of four men in a pistol battle at Sealy a week ago Tuesday night, started at eleven o'clock this morning before Justice of the Peace Wammel at Bellville.

Murder charges have been filed against Foster Bell, William Andrews, Burch Bradshaw, John Miller, Ollie Vierick and Lawrence Kurtz. Kurtz was the last to be arrested and jailed. He was arrested yesterday.

Ernest Schaffner is recovering from wounds sustained in the shooting when his father and his brother were killed. He is not able to appear in person as a witness at the hearing. State rangers attending the trial stated that Schaffner was recovering slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Havenhill, of Winters, were here Friday attending the Runnels County Fair.

PASSES COAL EMERGENCY BILL

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—By a vote of 228 to 70 the House today passed the conference report on the administration's coal distribution and anti-profiteering bill, with a provision limiting its life to one year, unless the president in the meanwhile declares the present emergency passed. The bill goes to the senate, with the assurance of its early passage.

(By Associated Press) SHERMAN, Sept. 15.—The "open port" case involving the prosecution of four men charged with violating the open port law, will be in the hands of the jury by tonight, unless unforeseen interruption develops. Judge Wilcock of the 59th District Court, delivered his charge to the jury this morning.

Major Simpson and Captain Wynne, representing the state, argued the case. Capt. Smith, a former United States district attorney for the Eastern District of Texas, and Charles Reasonover, presented the argument for the defense. Six hours were required in arguing the case and the argument is expected to close when court takes a recess this afternoon. This case is the first to be tried under the open port law, which was passed as a result of the strike at Galveston two years ago, and the four men on trial are accused of taking part in the kidnaping and hogging of several Katy railroad guards.

HOUSTON MAN HELD FOR MURDER

(By Associated Press) HOUSTON, Sept. 15.—Thomas A. Goodlad, age 28, formerly of Port Arthur, is in jail here today on a charge of the murder of Dr. Max Kahn, age 39, formerly of Hallettsville. Dr. Kahn is dead as the result of a shooting at the Heights Boulevard last night.

Miss Mary Phillips came in Friday at noon to visit home folks during the fair. Miss Mary is now living in Brownwood.

(Associated Press Dispatch) LONDON, Sept. 15.—From one thousand to two thousand Christians have been massacred in Smyrna by the Turks before the fire which swept Armenian and other quarters, it is charged in semi-official and other Greek messages from Athens which were received here today.

Among the outrages charged against the Turks was the carrying off of many girl pupils of the American Girls' College. The Greeks believe that the fire was started by the Turks to conceal the traces of their alleged misdeeds.

The fire did great damage, the loss estimated at $75,000,000, and a considerable share of it fell on American firms doing business in Smyrna.

PUSHING U. S. ATTORNEY CASE

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Impeachment charges against Attorney General Daugherty as result of his petition for the injunction cases against the striking railway employees was presented to the House Monday by Congressman Keller, Republican, of Minnesota, and the impeachment charge will be considered by the judiciary committee meeting tomorrow with Keller present. A call for the meeting was issued today by Chairman Volstead. The hearing will be public. Keller told the House that he was prepared to go before the committee and present evidence to support his charges.

AUTO THIEF GETS FORD AT FAIR MAKES CONTRACT WITH TRAINMEN

(By Associated Press) NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The entire New York Central railway system today signed an agreement with its conductors and trainmen covering working conditions, wages, rules, etc., for one year, beginning Sept. 30th. A statement issued by the New York Central said that the direct settlement agreement would provide immediate withdrawal of all controversial matters pending before the United States Railroad Labor Board.

The theft of the Ford makes the third stolen here within the last few weeks, and the thieves seem to have made a clean getaway with them all, leaving no clue for the officers to follow up. Mr. Spoons's car was a 1922 model, and he had not used it very long. He was protected by insurance.

A. B. Forbus, one of the citizens of the Winters country, was here Thursday on business and took advantage of the opportunity to see some of the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Poe, of Winters, were among the visitors to the county fair Friday.

(By Associated Press) CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 15. The Turkish Nationalist army is now within thirty-five miles of Constantinople. The population of the city is in a state of nervous tension and fear for the worst. The city is rife with rumors of designs upon the capital. The ports on the sea are choked with refugees, who are arriving by the tens of thousands and the throngs being packed at the ports are in an appalling state of misery. Hundreds are dying before being landed.

Mrs. Stuart L. Williams returned home from Fort Worth Thursday, having been in that city for three weeks following an operation for appendicitis.

Silliman Evans came in Thursday at noon to get a story of the Runnels County Fair for the Ft. Worth Star-Telegram.

BALLINGER MAN WEDS IN SOUTH DAKOTA

D. C. Underwood received a message from his son, DeWitt, Friday, announcing the marriage of DeWitt to Miss Florence House at Huron, South Dakota. The message stated that the newlyweds would be at home at Bancroft, South Dakota. DeWitt Underwood was born and raised in Ballinger. He has been away several years, and most of the time since leaving here he has been making his home in the Dakotas. His friends here will wish him continued prosperity and much happiness.

FORMER CITIZEN ENDS LIFE AT GALVESTON

(By Associated Press) GALVESTON, Sept. 15.—A verdict of death by gunshot wounds, with suicidal intent, was rendered by Justice of Peace Kupa today in the case of J. D. Creath, a prominent groceryman of Galveston. Mr. Creath was found dead Thursday.

J. D. Creath was a former citizen of Ballinger. He was manager of the local wholesale house for the Walker-Smith Co., being succeeded here by Tom Watkins about eighteen years ago. While living at Ballinger he married Miss McGruder, the daughter of a prominent physician of San Angelo. Mr. Creath left Ballinger to manage a wholesale grocery house for Walker-Smith at Galveston. He was very successful at Galveston, according to reports coming back to Ballinger, and a few years ago he engaged in the wholesale grocery business for himself.

The above story sent out by the Associated Press Friday is the only report of the tragedy received in Ballinger, and it is believed here that the J. D. Creath referred to is the J. D. Creath who formerly lived here.

STUDENT AID PLANS

The Texas Student Aid Association is fostering four methods for the aid of students who may need encouragement or financial assistance in securing high school or college education:

First. To secure gifts from individuals and organizations for boys and girls who need only a little help in attending high school or college.

Second. To get men and women, clubs or societies, to "adopt" a boy or girl during the years of high school or college courses.

Third. To promote Community and County Student Aid Associations which will provide scholarship funds for boys and girls of the community and county.

Fourth. To increase the present loan fund of the Texas Student Aid Association.

Those wishing to make a gift should find a student needing aid or send the gift to the student aid fund of the school, college or university in which the donor is most interested.

Every organization of men or women or both men and women is asked to appoint an education chairman and undertake some student aid work if this is not already a part of the plan of the club or society.

The superintendent of public instruction of each county has been asked to serve as chairman of county organization; and some teacher of each community, as community chairman.

Those wishing their contribution used as a loan fund may send to the loan fund of any state or denominational school or to Mrs. A. C. Buchanan of Temple, treasurer of Texas Student Aid Association, naming school or student to be aided; or write to Mrs. E. G. Townsend, of Belton.

LESS MEAT IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder troubles you.

No man or woman who eats too much meat can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Big meat eating may develop uric acid, which excites the kidneys; they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood; then we get sick. Rheumatism, headache, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleepiness and urinary disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys, or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of sealding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys may act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus often ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby often avoiding serious kidney complications.

DOROTHY DALTON AGAIN HERE AT MAEROY TODAY

Dorothy Dalton is back again in the role of a daughter of the great Canadian Northwest, a similar character to that in which she made such a success in "The Flame of the Yukon" several years ago. It was in such a role as she has in "The Idol of the North," J. Clarke on Miller's story, which will be seen at the Maeroy Theatre today and tonight, that Miss Dalton gained her reputation as a screen star.

Miss Dalton plays Colette Brisac, daughter of a French-Canadian miner, who fled to the wilderness to escape arrest for having killed a man. She is left without father and mother in a mining town built up over night, and obtains a position in the Aurora Borealis, a saloon and dance hall of the town. She soon becomes one of the biggest drawing cards of the saloon and plays unmercifully with the miners "trimming" them for all they are worth, but still remaining the most desired of all the girls.

In the dance hall she meets Martin Bates, a young engineer who has come from New York after a series of financial difficulties, and who fast becomes a worthless drunkard. In order to get even with the way she has treated them the miners force her to marry Bates. After the first shock Colette decides to make the best of it and determines to make a man of him. After many incidents of dramatic interest she succeeds not only in regenerating Bates but also in winning his love.

Everett Hardgrave, a former Ballinger boy, who was born and raised here, but went wrong and moved to San Angelo, came back Thursday to attend the fair.

Pronounced Success

The uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the relief and cure of bowel complaints, both for children and adults, has brought it into almost universal use, so that it is practically without a rival and as everyone who has used it knows it is without an equal.

Miss Alice Smith, superintendent of the Halley & Love sanitarium has just returned to her duties after a three week's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Crews of San Angelo, were among the former Ballinger people coming for the opening of the fair.

The new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord

A Real Cord Tire for Small Cars at a Popular Price

The new Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord in the 30 x 3 1/2 inch clincher type is a tire that the small car owner will warmly welcome.

It gives him, at a price lower than the net price he is asked to pay for many "long discount" tires, every advantage of quality cord tire performance, for it is a quality tire through and through.

It is made of high-grade long-staple cotton; it embodies the reliable Goodyear quality of materials; its clean-cut tread engages the road like a cogwheel.

The scientific distribution of rubber in this tread—the wide center rib and the semi-flat contour—gives a thick, broad surface that is exceedingly slow to wear.

The tough tread stock in this tire is carried down the side-walls clear to the bead, making it rut-proof to an extraordinary degree.

In every particular it is a representative Goodyear product, built to safeguard the world-wide Goodyear reputation.

Despite its high quality, and the expertness of its construction, it sells at a price as low or lower than that of tires which lack its important features.

The 30 x 3 1/2 inch Cross-Rib Cord clincher $12.50

This price includes manufacturer's excise tax
Goodyear Cross-Rib Tread Cord Tires are also made in 6, 7 and 8 inch sizes for trucks

Thad Thomson, of San Angelo, was among the Tom Green county visitors to the fair on the first day.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE consists of an ointment which quickly relieves by local application, and the Internal Medicine, a Tonic, which assists in improving the General Health. Sold by druggists for over 40 years. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

EUROPE SENDS OVER SOME NOVELTIES IN BLOUSES

TWO novel blouses for present wear are among the new arrivals from Europe that have found a warm welcome here. They have not been changed or "adapted," but are presented as examples of art characteristic of the countries from which they come. Each of them is well suited for wear now and all during the fall season. "Czechoslovakia" is brilliantly written on the graceful blouse of white voile, gaily embroidered in colored floss, shown at the right of the illustration. These blouses are presumably embroidered by peasants and made in styles typical of their country. Many of them display the use of one color with white, while many more employ three or more colors in their embroidery. There are several slightly varied styles, but the blouse pictured is typically Czechoslovakian and handsome. It is very full at the neck, and this fullness is disposed of by fine smocking with colored floss which forms a narrow round yoke. A standing collar is attached to the yoke with needlework and is ornamented with embroidery. The full sleeves are gathered in at the wrist, forming a band like the yoke and are finished with a narrow ruffled edged with buttonholing.

The blouse at the left is made of crepe de chine with a litlework of narrow ribbon covering it, except where needlework motifs are set in. Where the ribbons intersect a cross stitch of silk floss holds them together, and the blouse can be imagined in many beautiful color combinations. It is a very simple design, but the painstaking handwork lavished on it gives it a strong French accent. In the long slash of crepe de chine the designer has varied the decoration by placing the narrow ribbon in parallel lines and an important feature appears in the split over the hips.

Making 20 Years of Racing Serve Car Owners Today

IN the early days of automobile contests, Barney Oldfield—out to win every race—studied tires. His consistent success led other drivers to ask for tires constructed to his specifications.

Twenty years of road and track victories—with a steady and increasing demand for tires as he built them—convinced Barney Oldfield that these speed tests pointed the way to a better tire for everyday use.

The enthusiastic reception of Oldfield Cords by the public proved he was right. Scores of the most prominent dealers in the country—and many thousands of car owners, experienced in the use of tires—bear witness by their decided preference that Oldfield is doing a bigger and better job of tire making.

This volume, handled in an effective way in every phase of manufacture and distribution, has resulted in price quotations far below what you'd expect on tires known to be better built and more enduring.

Practically every important race event for three years has been won on Oldfields. The Wichita Test Run in which an entire set of Oldfield Cords covered 34,625 miles on rough roads proves the mettle of the Most Trustworthy Tires Built in every-day driving.

The Master Driver and Tire Builder has given the public a new standard of tire wear and tire cost—a true economy that every car owner should know about.

Your Oldfield dealer has these facts—talk to him.

immediately following the parade Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. R. A. Perry, of Miles, won first prize of $25 for the best decorated community car. Mrs. Perry's car was decorated with evergreen ferns and Wisteria flowers, and Mrs. Perry, who drove the car, and Misses Ina Hunton, Lelia Farmer, Corine Baker and Thelma Mitchell, were dressed in costumes of Wisteria colored paper with hats to correspond.

The first prize of $17.50 for the best car representing a business firm went to VanPelt-Pyburn. This car was driven by Mrs. Worth Clauch. The decorations consisted of white background with yellow trimmings, and white strips of paper draped over silver stars. This car was driven by Mrs. Worth Clauch. Decorations consisted of white background with yellow trimmings and white strips. This car was a beauty and attracted much attention and comment.

The first money of $7.50 for the best comic car went to R. L. Harwell. An old model Ford roadster, almost stripped, but loaded with comically dressed kiddies and driven by Mr. Harwell, dressed as an old woman and wearing a sunbonnet, furnished clown acts for the parade.

During the parade the various exhibit halls were closed and business was practically at a standstill and the streets lined throughout the business district. The parade followed Hutchings Ave., Eighth and Seventh streets and

Following the parade the 142nd Regimental Band assembled for a concert on the streets, while the crowd gathered to witness a free acrobatic performance and the free open air performance put on by the little strong man, C. H. Blanks. Mr. Blanks will give a free performance on the streets each afternoon at about three o'clock.

The fair crowds are the best humored ever seen here, and all seem to be getting their money's worth. Every building has been crowded since the fair opened, the sightseers lingering late at night and milling from exhibit to exhibit and thronging the streets, and the carnival grounds where the Donald McGregor Shows hold forth in novel and varied attractions.

The livestock exhibit is declared to be the best ever made in this county, and there is strong competition for first money in all entries. Cattle, mules, horses, hogs, goats, sheep, and the poultry show are all coming in for much attention.

The automobile exhibit in the Cameron Garage is well arranged and many makes of cars are on display. The exhibits are scattered, due to lack of display room, but all put together like a real big show, and it is a full day's job to see them all.

F. J. Vavra is one of Runnels county's progressive young farmers who believes in pure bred stock and diversified farming. Mr. Vavra won three blue ribbons and two red ribbons at the agricultural exhibition and says he is going to try to improve his grade of entries for next year. His awards were made on cotton for staple and quality and fruited stalks. Cash and Boyken cotton were exhibited.

Mr. Vavra expects to gather an average crop this year despite the weather conditions from his forty two acres planted to cotton. Besides cotton planting, Mr. Vavra has gone into hog raising and there are to be found on his farm registered hogs, chickens and cattle. He uses improved farm implements and spares no pains or labor to keep his stock and planting seeds up to the highest standard.

Mr. Vavra says the hardest task that confronts him is the bachelor plan of life that he pursues, but even this he hopes to correct in the course of time.

DEMONSTRATION OF COOKING AT COUNTY FAIR

The art of biscuit making was demonstrated Friday morning and afternoon at the Hall Hardware Company booth, Merchants' Exposition hall by Mrs. J. L. Landrum, when she mixed and baked and served several hundred biscuits to the exhibition visitors. Calumet baking powder was featured in the baking demonstration and hundreds of slips of information pertaining to the merits of this product were given out. Liberty flour and Crescent shortening, furnished by the E. A. Jones Company played an important second to Calumet baking powder in the demonstration. A handsome Florence coal oil stove, carried by Hall Hardware Company, was used in the cooking program and its merits as a quick method of turning out the finished product were easily proven to the numerous visitors who thronged the exhibition space where the demonstration was given.

Mrs. Landrum will present Calumet baking powder and the other products of her cookery program again Saturday morning and afternoon at the same place.

The Key that Unlocks the Door to Long Living

The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund, well-fed, but thin, spare men, who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, causing indigestion or constipation and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets to move his bowels and invigorate his stomach. When this is done, there is no reason why the average man should not live to a ripe old age.
