STATE IS FIGHTING NEW INJUNCTION

Veteran Train Robber Killed In Frisco Passenger Hold Up

(By Associated Press)
WATKINSBURG, Mo., Nov. 3.—Jack Kennedy, veteran Missouri train robber, and Harvey Logan, former railroad man, were shot and killed early today by officers after they had robbed the mail car on a South bound Frisco passenger train and stolen about one hundred registered letters. The registered mail was recovered.

Postoffice inspectors, Frisco special agents, and deputy sheriffs were waiting near the scene of the robbery which had been anticipated through the previous watching of Kennedy's movements.

Kennedy had been representing himself as a quail hunter in this section and had been hunting here for several weeks. He and his pal, Harvey Logan, stopped the train, cut off the mail and express cars and ordered the engineer and fireman to get off. They took charge of the engine and pulled the cars down the track where they completed the robbery and leaped from the train. They were shot while making for their automobile, which had been parked for their convenience. The officers were near the auto and shot the two men as they tried to escape. Kennedy had a record of seven train robberies within three years time. He served twelve years in the Missouri penitentiary for the last robbery he committed, but had been out for some time, having served out his term.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Nov. 3.—William T. Deboe, former railroad worker, was arrested today at West Memphis, Arkansas, and brought to Memphis for questioning in connection with the Frisco robbery, in which Jack Kennedy and Harvey Logan were killed. He was ordered held for federal authorities after he had been questioned. The robbery which resulted in the death of the two bandits occurred near Station 76 in Missouri.

WILL ANSWER PEDDY'S SPEECH HERE TOMORROW

A committee of local democrats met Friday and issued a call for a democratic rally at Ballinger Saturday afternoon at 2:30. There will be a number of short talks, but the feature part of the program as briefly outlined for the rally, will be an address by Rev. Pleasant J. Taylor. Rev. Taylor will reply to the speech delivered here by George Peddy Thursday afternoon.

Rev. Taylor is a native Texan, a life-long democrat, and was a delegate from Idaho to the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco in 1920. He is not a "slacker," as he furnished two boys for the late war—one never came home. He took notes as Peddy talked Thursday, is well posted on the issues now before the voters of Texas and will handle the questions without gloves. Ladies are especially invited.

FT. WORTH—A degree of music is being offered for the first time this year at the Texas Christian University. Professor H. Guelick expects to establish the courses in music on the same basis as in Yale University and the University of Chicago, that is, to put them on such a schedule as to make some of the courses entitled to credit toward the A. B. degree.

Crowd Waits Patiently to Hear George Peddy

Those who came here from different sections of the county to hear George Peddy Thursday afternoon waited patiently for the arrival of their political hero, and listened attentively to Mr. Peddy as he charged Earle Mayfield with being unfit to represent the people of Texas in the United States senate on account of his affiliation with the Ku Klux Klan.

The speaker arrived here an hour and a half late, coming from Coleman in an auto. The crowd which heard him filled the court room and quite a number filled the doorway and stood in the hall. It was about five-twenty when the speaker concluded, and several who lived at a distance, left the court room before the speaker closed his address.

Mr. Peddy was introduced by

C. A. Doose, Mr. Doose calling the meeting to order and stating that it was a pleasure for him to present "a native son of the South—a native Texan—who came to espouse the cause of the common people, and a man whose character is above reproach."

Mr. Doose began his introductory remarks by referring to the discovery of America by Columbus in 1492, and the later coming of the Puritan forefathers, whom he stated, came to this country to get away from the tyrannical government of their native land. He said that the world had drifted apart from the early training, and the time had come when some one must rally to the front and fight for the cause of the com-

Pleasant J. Taylor SATURDAY, NOV. 4

2:30 P. M. at Court House

Rev. Taylor is a native Texan, a life-long Democrat, was a delegate from Idaho at the Democratic National Convention, 1920, at San Francisco. He is not a "slacker," as he furnished two boys for the late war—one never came home.

He is well posted on the issues now before Texas and can and will handle the situation without gloves.

Ladies are especially invited and he will tell them why all true men and women who went in the primary should support Mayfield. Come out and hear the truth and nothing but the truth.

MAYFIELD SUPPORTERS AND TRUE DEMOCRATS

AUSTIN, Nov. 3.—Immediate action by the state to dissolve the latest Mayfield injunction which was granted at Groesbeck, is planned, it was indicated this morning. Secretary of State Staples telegraphed a number of county officials stating that relief from the new injunction is expected soon through further proceedings.

TURKISH SULTAN IS DETHRONED

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, Nov. 3.—A report that the Turkish National Assembly at Angora has passed a law suppressing the sultanate of Turkey, and the law of succession to the throne, is contained in a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from its Constantinople correspondent, who quotes the dispatch from Angora.

Such action would mean that the sultan of Turkey has been deposed. In the future, according to the dispatches, only the caliph in Turkey will be periodically elected, without government prerogative, all the power being in the hands of the National Assembly.

ANGORA, Nov. 3.—The Turkish nationalist government has announced that it considers null and void all the treaties of conventions concluded since March 16, 1920, by the Constantinople administration. The resolution regarding the suppression of the sultanate says that the caliphate is vested in the imperial family of the Osman dynasty, but that the Turkish government remains the keystone of the caliphate.

MISTAKES MAN FOR BURGLAR

The Coleman Democrat-Voice reports the shooting of Ross Copeland by a young man by the name of Slaughter, at that place Thursday night, which came about in a peculiar manner. Copeland is in a hospital at Brownwood. It was first reported that he was brought to Ballinger.

According to the report as given by the Coleman Democrat-Voice, Copeland had formerly roomed at the home of a Mrs. Peck in Coleman. He occupied a room with one of Mrs. Peck's sons. He returned to Coleman Thursday night from Ford county, where he went to visit his brother, arriving on a late train about 11:30. He went to the home of Mrs. Peck, where he expected to retire in the room with Mrs. Peck's son.

However, since the young man had left Coleman, Mrs. Peck had rented the room to a Mr. and Mrs. Fred Slaughter. Going to the Peck home young Copeland placed his suit case on the porch and finding the screen latched, went to the window to arouse the Peck boy. Rattling the window he failed to get a response. Mr. Slaughter stated that he called to know who was at the window, but it is presumed that the Copeland boy did not hear him. Young Copeland filled his pipe with tobacco and was in the act of striking a match on the window screen when Slaughter fired. A bullet from a .45 calibre Colts passed thru the boy's uplifted forearm, passed thru his body and lodged in the other arm.

Copeland was carried to Brownwood and the latest reports from him stated that he was suffering with blood hemorrhages and there was little hope for his recovery. The young man's parents live near Burkett, in Coleman county, and they are both at his bedside.

DALLAS, Nov. 3.—Lawyers today differed as to opinions on the status of the litigation seeking to keep Earle B. Mayfield's name off the ballot. Another temporary order restraining the placing of Mayfield's name on the ballot was issued at Groesbeck by Judge A. M. Blackmon of the Seventy-Seventh District Court late yesterday.

A writ of mandamus, directing the election officials of Tarrant county to place the name of Mayfield on the ballot in that county was issued at Fort Worth. Attorneys for Mayfield say that the Tarrant county election board must obey the mandamus mandate. Attorneys for Mayfield's opponent say that the Groesbeck court's order are in effect.

M'NAMARA NOW OFFICIALLY OUT

(By Associated Press)
AUSTIN, Nov. 3.—The dismissal of Mike McNamara, deputy supervisor of the oil and gas division of the Texas Railroad Commission, was officially approved today when Commissioner Gilmore issued a statement sustaining the action of Supervisor Hassel in discharging McNamara.

Earle B. Mayfield, a member of the commission, and against whom McNamara testified at Corsicana, approved the action in a telegram to the commission yesterday.

Allison Mayfield, chairman of the commission, filed a memorandum with the commission asking that McNamara be reinstated in the present position.

SLUSH FUNDS

In his address here Thursday afternoon, George Peddy, candidate for United States senator on the republican ticket, stated that he was not able to pay what it would have cost him to get his name on the independent ticket, and therefore his friends attempted to get it on the republican ticket.

Mr. Peddy stated that in order to get his name on the independent ticket he would have had to presented a petition to the secretary of state bearing the names of 48,000 voters, and that each voter signing the petition would have had to certify to same before a notary public, and this would have cost him $4,000, and that other expenses would have run the cost up to $15,000, which he says he was not able to pay. He posed before his audience as a poor man.

Every voter who has sense enough to cast an intelligent ballot knows that $15,000 would not be a starter towards paying what the Peddy campaign committee is turning loose in Texas today to defeat the democratic nominee, and these same intelligent voters also know that this money was sent into Texas from the North, where the chairman of the Peddy committee went to confer with the enemies of the democratic party prior to launching the Peddy campaign.

The entire state has been circularized in the interest of Mr. Peddy's candidacy, the circulars being sent out with a four cent stamp, and enclosing a two cent stamped envelope for reply. In this item alone the cost was six cents to each voter, to say nothing of the cost of the printed matter enclosed. This one item alone cost the committee $72,000, and counting the cost of printing amounted to more than $120,000, to say nothing of the clerk hire.

Practically every paper in Texas is carrying advertising for Peddy, the state dailies carrying full-page ads. The moving pictures are showing him, and his headquarters at Dallas has sent out agents to do personal work, and the railroads are getting some of the money for hauling these agents, and hotels are getting some of it for feeding them. Bands are playing for him at so much per play.

When the fracas is over, and all bills are paid, if the sum expended could be held up to the public gaze, it would make the Newberry and Lorimer campaign expense accounts look like thirty cents.

Where did this slush fund come from, and who is putting it up, and why? If that question was frankly answered Peddy stood could be bought at a discount.

How Not to Take Cold

Some persons are subject to frequent colds, while others, seldom, if ever, have a cold. You will find that the latter take good care of themselves. They take a shower or cold sponge bath every day in a warm room, avoid over heated rooms, sleep with a window open or partly open, avoid excesses, over eating, becoming over heated and then getting the feet wet. Then, when they feel the first indication of a cold, they take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy without delay and it is soon over.

ECHOES FROM PEDDY'S SPEECH

Mr. Peddy made a speech for Jim Ferguson at Nacogdoches during the second primary campaign, and he said: "All honorable people will support the nominee, and if Earle Mayfield is chosen in the run-off election on August 26, I shall support him, as all honorable men should do."

In his speech here Thursday afternoon Mr. Peddy made light of the fact that Gov. Neff and Senator Sheppard did not attend the democratic rally at Dallas last Saturday, leaving the impression that the two party leaders were not supporting Mayfield. In a telegram to that meeting Gov. Neff said: "Please bear my greetings to the democratic mass meeting tonight and express to it the hope that at the coming general election no democrat will make a mockery of his party allegiance by voting against the regular nominee of the party."

Senator Sheppard wired the mass meeting as follows: "Regret illness prevents me from being with you tonight to join in democratic rally and in urging the election of Mayfield and all other democratic nominees."

Mr. Peddy spoke for more than an hour and a half at Ballinger, and he did not make one promise as to what he could do, or would promise to do, if elected to the United States senate. He devoted the entire time to lambasting Mayfield and ridiculing the Ku Klux Klan. Let's admit that the democratic party needs cleaning up, but what method is he offering for the house cleaning, and who is he calling on his aid to help do it? While some good men are supporting him, it goes without saying, and cannot be denied, that he will make a clean sweep of the other class.

Mr. Peddy paused long enough in his attack on the democratic nominee to defend his own political record, and declared that he had always been a democrat, and that his forefathers were democrats, but he did not say anything about the company he is keeping now. How can a man, born and reared in grand old Texas, the banner democratic state of the nation, and by which vote Woodrow Wilson was nominated, so forget his duties to his native land and the principles for which our fathers fought and died, as to desert the party that has always stood for the rights of the Southern people against the republican party of the North, which has always legislated against the interests of the Southern people, and run for office on a hybrid-republican ticket, to say nothing of the crime of violating the party pledge, is more than we can understand and is enough to shake the faith of man in humanity.

Chamberlain's Tablets Have Done Her a World of Good

"Chamberlain's Tablets have done me a world of good," writes Mrs. Ella L. Button, Kirksville, N. Y. "I have recommended them to a number of my friends, and all who have used them praise them highly." When troubled with indigestion or constipation, give them a trial and realize for yourself what an excellent medicine it is.

RADIO MESSAGES FROM FAR AWAY

G. P. Teague enjoyed a good evening with his radiophone Thursday evening. Mr. Teague tuned in on more than a dozen stations, some of which were in Canada, and on the Pacific coast. Some of the reports received were concerning business, some governmental affairs and some programs of entertainment and other straight news bulletins. Mr. Teague stated that the report from Winnipeg, Canada, was amusing and interesting as it dealt with matters pertaining to governmental affairs. During the evening he tuned in on Winnipeg, Canada; Los Angeles, Catalina Island, Cincinnati, Chicago, Minneapolis, Schenectady, New York, Atlanta, Kansas City, Dayton, Iowa, Superior, Wisconsin, San Diego, Calif., and the Texas broadcasting stations.

REAL ESTATE DEALS REPORTED AT WINTERS

There is considerable activity in real estate in the Winters country, according to deeds filed for record in the county clerk's office at Ballinger. During recent days deals aggregating about $200,000 have been consummated at Winters.

E. H. Colburn sold his 100-acre farm six miles Southeast of Winters, to J. W. Hendrick, of Hatfield, for $100 per acre. W. D. Donham sold 100 acres adjoining the city of Winters for $125 per acre. J. J. Bedford sold to Chism Bros., 215 acres of land East of Winters at $70 per acre. The land east Mr. Bedford about $30 per acre six or seven years ago.

B. C. Kirk left Thursday afternoon for Waco, where he will spend a day or two at the Cotton Palace and visit his son, and witness the football game between Baylor and A. & M. Mr. Kirk's son, George, is the star center for the Baylor eleven.

At a joint meeting of the National Committee of the American Red Cross and the National Tuberculosis Association, held recently, an agreement with regard to the campaigns conducted annually by each organization, which follows each other only a day apart this year, was reached. The American Red Cross will conduct its Roll Call from November 11th to November 30th. The National Tuberculosis Association will conduct its nation-wide sale of Christmas Seals from December 1st to January 1st.

A statement issued jointly by the two organizations says that undoubtedly the effectiveness of the mutual understanding depends in large measure upon the extent to which the local workers of both organizations adhere to the agreement. Overlapping of effort will be injurious to both causes, the two national organizations believe, and it is of great importance that this idea be thoroughly understood by the local workers in both, according to John Barton Payne, chairman of the American Red Cross, and Dr. Alexander Miller, president of the National Tuberculosis Association.

The official statement of the two organizations follows:

1. There is no official connection between the campaign of the National Tuberculosis Association and that of the American Red Cross.
2. There is to be no use of the Red Cross emblem by the National Tuberculosis Association.
3. The title of the American Red Cross is not to be used in the sale of Tuberculosis Seals.
4. The dates of the American Red Cross Roll Call are to be November 11th to November 30th, inclusive, and the National Tuberculosis Association's sale of seals begins December 1st and continues until January 1st.

GUARD IN NEED OF 10 NEW MEN

The local National Guard is launching a campaign for new members, which within itself will create interest in the military organization. Capt. Newt Wardlaw stated Friday that ten new members were needed to run the membership up to its full strength of sixty-five.

With a membership of sixty-five the payroll will run from $1500 to $2000 per quarter. The Headquarters Company is doing good work, most of the members meeting for regular drill once each week without asking for excuse, or requests for leave of absence.

A move is on foot to add athletics to the program, and C. S. Guin has already donated some athletic equipment, and this part of the work will be brought up to where in the near future the personnel expects to be able to put on a program for the public, and thereby create a fund for improving the social feature of the military organization.

The company is getting in some good training and by the next encampment time it expects to be in condition to make a good showing at the annual encampment. Two new members were recruited this week, and any others wishing to get in should confer with the officers of the company.

BAND MAKES FIRST PUBLIC APPEARANCE

The Ballinger band shared in Peddy patronage Thursday, having been engaged by the Peddy committee to make music for the occasion, and in this the new band made its first appearance. The band played a number of pieces down town and gave a brief concert from the band stand preceding the hour fixed for the speaking. The music prompted favorable comment from many who gathered around the music makers, and for so short a time at practice, the band made a most favorable showing.

LUXURY OF WARMTH IN KNITTED SCARF WRAPS

RUMOR has it that this is to be a very cold winter. Such a prophecy is an urge to preparedness, especially in the matter of comfortable wraps. There is, for instance, the fashionable knitted scarf-wrap, interesting types of which appear in the illustrations. In their long-napped woolen depths they offer a luxury of warmth which is a challenge to every wintry wind, for most of these shawl-like knitted wraps are either in shaggy brush effect, or of finest camel's hair.

When it comes to color, the knitted scarf-wrap is supposed to be the gayest of the gay, and these shawl-like affairs radiate a real cheer in their bright and beautiful plaids and stripes. One may be ultra conservative in one's wardrobe selection until it comes to the knitted scarf and then discretion ceases, for here it is expected that one indulge in a veritable orgy of brilliant hues.

Some of the handsomest color combinations in the season's modish scarf-wraps include: Tangerine with sand; navy with cerise; lavender with stripes of emerald green and lacquer red; orange with gray, and there are some wonderful new scarfs in solid jade green, also turquoise blue. Hennas, browns, and tabs with colorful plaids, checks and stripes are in greatest demand of all. There are also some stunning black and white combinations, some having a black patent leather belt instead of the usual cord and tassel or wide knitted band.

A marvelous new garment is the depth of a shawl! It has a high collar which buttons up about the ears, if desired. A clever cord with buttons clasps each side edge about the wrist into a shawl effect. Of course it has pockets as these scarf-wraps should have, and there is a large knitted girdle.

Notice the knitted scarfs here portrayed. One is all of camel's hair with two brown stripes at end and brown tassels. The other which is also in the favorite brown has a camel's hair border with one camel's hair pocket at each end.

OFFICER SHOOTS AT CAR THIEVES

Night Watchman Watson opened fire at two auto thieves as they passed through Ballinger with a stolen Ford during the early hours of Friday morning, and Sheriff Flynt chased the thieves to a point on the Ballinger-Abilene road about four miles from town, where the thieves abandoned the automobile, took to the brush and made a getaway.

Officers here were notified about one o'clock Friday morning to watch out for a stolen Ford. About two o'clock two men traveling in a Ford arrived here, coming from towards San Angelo. As they were passing through the city at the intersection of Hutchings Avenue and Eighth Street, Night Watchman Watson attempted to stop them. The driver stepped on the gas and made a race track out of Hutchings Avenue, notwithstanding that there are a few bumps in the street. The night watchman fired his gun in an attempt to stop the thieves, but the report of the gun had a tendency to stimulate the gas, and the thieves rattled out of the city at a rapid rate, making distance.

The thieves were playing in hard luck, and had to abandon the Ford after traveling some distance on one rim. The officers were crowding them so they did not have time to make tire repairs, and the car was abandoned near Old Runnels. The Ford was stolen at San Angelo about ten o'clock, and not passing thru Ballinger until about two o'clock indicated that the thieves either got off the road, or had car trouble.

LESS MEAT IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder troubles you.

No man or woman who eats too much meat can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Big meat eating may develop uric acid, which excites the kidneys; they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood; then we get sick. Rheumatism, head-aches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleepiness and urinary disorders often come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys, or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, and in a few days your kidneys may act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus often ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia water drink, which everyone should take now and then to help keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby often avoiding serious kidney complications.

WOMEN WORKING FOR GOOD CAUSE

The committee with work in hand for putting over a four attraction lyceum course, did not receive the encouragement when they went out Thursday afternoon that the undertaking is entitled to. The public will be given further opportunities to back up this most worthy work.

Some time ago the Shakespeare Club contracted for the lyceum course, booking the four attractions at a very reasonable figure, and they are offering season tickets for sale for $1.50 for the four attractions, which is only thirty-seven and one-half cents for each entertainment. All that the club makes out of it will go to the High School library, and the library needs the money. The school will be endangered of losing its affiliation if the library is not kept up.

The entertainments to be brought here under contract are all high class and said to be good. The first engagement will be filled next Tuesday night when Clyde Wilson McCord, dramatic orator, appears here. Following Mr. McCord, the Croatian Tamburica Orchestra, the Collins Novelty Duo, and Beatrice Weller, crayon artist. The press and clubs throughout the country where this course has been staged recommend the entertainments all most highly. The Tamburica Orchestra, composed of five musicians, playing a variety of instruments, should more than bring what the four attractions are costing.

Two of the attractions will be staged this month, one in December and the fourth some time in January, the exact date not yet having been fixed.

HARDING CALLS THANKSGIVING

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—President Harding, in annual Thanksgiving proclamation issued today, calls upon the American people to observe Thursday, November 30, as day of Thanksgiving, supplication, and devotion. He declared that the condition of the nation presents very much to justify a nation wide and most sincere testimony of gratitude for the bountiful blessings which have been bestowed upon us.

"THE LONE HAND" AT THE FO-TO-SHO THEATRE

"The Lone Hand," a Universal five part comedy-drama is showing at the Fo-to-sho Theatre, Ballinger Friday and Saturday, Nov. 3rd and 4th.

They've mixed in a generous assortment of thrills and laughs for Ed Gibson's latest release, "The Lone Hand," thus making it a fit companion piece to "The Galloping Kid." The Universal star has come along so fast in the last few weeks that the spectator doubtless looks forward to seeing him on every possible occasion. His popularity is firmly established now, because he is sincere in his work and his stories are not the cut and dried patterns which have made so many patrons tired of Westerns. Gibson would have you understand too, that he has discarded his nickname of Hoot—now that his pictures are dignified with real merit.

In the east with Gibson are Marjorie Daw, Helen Holmes, Hayden Stevenson, Jack Pratt, Wm. Welch and Bob Kurtman. The story is by Ralph Cummings, the scenario by A. P. Younger, and the direction by Reeves Eason.

The easy performance of the star, the well-rounded cast, the excellent exteriors, the snap and ginger of the story, and good direction help to make this Western one of the best seen here.

A Timely Suggestion

This is the season of the year when the prudent and careful housewife replenishes her supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed before the winter is over and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the first indication of a cold appears and before it has become settled in the system. There is no danger in giving it to children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug.

GEORGE PEDDY

Fusion Candidate for U. S. Senate Who Delivered a Speech at the Court House Thursday.

mon people. "I am proud to be classed among the common people—the bread winners of the world," said Mr. Doose, "and I am proud to present to you one who has seen fit to espouse the cause of the common people."

Mr. Peddy began his address by defending his democratic record. "They tell us where the democrats are in the majority that I am a republican," said the speaker, "and where the republicans are in the majority they say I am a democrat. I have been a democrat all my life. I held office as a democrat, and my parents were democrats, democrats of the brass collar kind. But I refuse to let my democracy be measured by a yard stick made in the imperial castle in Atlanta, Georgia."

The speaker reviewed the fight made to keep his name off the ticket, and defended the convention which he said met in Dallas and nominated him to run against Mayfield, who he referred to as the Klan candidate. He stated that he did not want to use the name Mayfield any more than he could possibly help in discussing the case, and that he wished that he could substitute the "X" and let that stand for Mayfield. He reviewed the Corsicana case which was brought to keep Mayfield's name off the ticket and charged that Mayfield swore falsely and perjured himself in that trial, and he defended the court which passed on the case and criticized the democratic rally held in Dallas last Saturday, stating that it was a Ku Klux Klan rally.

Mr. Peddy devoted most of his time in discussing Mayfield's alleged connection with the Ku Klux Klan and repeated the proposition which he has used in almost all of his speeches of asking all Klansmen present to hold up their hands, following up the proposition with an attack on the Klan.

Mr. Peddy spoke along the usual lines followed at other places during the campaign when he referred to the Ku Klux Klan. He referred to the democratic rally at Dallas last Saturday as a straight out and out Ku Klux rally.

He declared that the Klan had made men afraid to give their views on matters of common concern. He defended the action of the Corsicana court, and asked his hearers if the time had come in Texas when a judge dare not do his duty as an officer for fear of punishment at the hands of a mob.

"This campaign against the insidious and contemptible invisible empire," said the speaker, "was not launched until Texas was torn with evil ugliness. The price of independent thought and action now is the price of one's business and prosperity. The Ku Klux Klan has injected the idea into its membership that it is honorable to tell a falsehood and that it is all right to go into the court house and on the witness stand and perjure the souls before God and man."

"God forbid that the day has ever when mobs can stalk abroad in the land under the cloak of democracy and repudiate our courts and slander our officials and still go unchallenged by all true and courageous citizens. The call rings out for patriotic men and women to answer the threats and the vituperation of the organization and its 'spokesman' by marching to the polls on Nov. 17th with their pencils as their bayonets, with the battle cry ringing out, 'they shall not pass.'"

LEDGER TO POST ELECTION NEWS

Following its usual rule of giving the news while it is news, The Ledger will keep open house next Tuesday night and flash to the crowd which might gather, bulletins giving the election returns. Arrangements have been perfected for receiving bulletins from both the Texas election and elections in other states.

The bulletins will probably begin to come in from the Eastern states by six o'clock and bulletins will be received every few minutes until some idea is given as to who is who.

While local interest is centered more on the senatorial race in Texas, the vote on both the senatorial and gubernatorial races will be given and the returns from congressional contests in the North and East will be announced.

The public is invited to come and cheer for the winner, or take their medicine of defeat.

Mrs. R. A. Smith is leaving for Austin, where she will be until after Christmas.

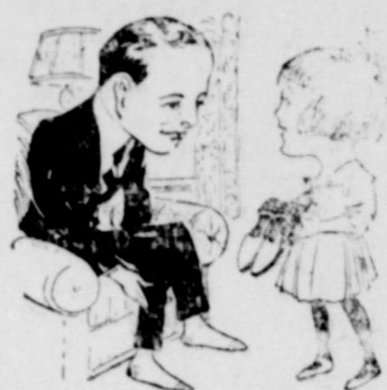

Bob Massey is here from San Antonio visiting his mother, Mrs. H. A. Massey, and family.
