A. & S. AGENT AT BRADSHAW DIES

Undertaker C. R. Crews was of L. E. Robbins, whose body was found in the station at that place about three-thirty o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Robbins was agent for the Abilene & Southern Railroad at Bradshaw, and was apparently in good health. When the North bound train arrived from Ballinger, members of the train erew found the man dead in his office, the body on the floor, face down. He had been dead but a short while and the physician declared that death was due to apoplexy.

Deceased was sixty-five years of age, and had been agent for the A. & S. at Bradshaw for some time. The body was removed to the "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly home in Bradshaw, prepared for that corn stops hurting, then shortly burial and will be laid to rest at
