Big Decrease in all Livestock Shown in U. S. Gov. Report

(By Associated Press)

HOUSTON, Jan. 26.—A marked decrease in number of head of range cattle, sheep and swine on hand Jan. 1, 1923, as compared with the number on that date a year ago, is the outstanding feature of the Texas livestock report for January, issued by the Division of Crop and Livestock Estimates of the United States Department of Agriculture today.

Prices on all kinds of stock, except swine, have been unattractive, the report says. For swine the markets in this state have been the most attractive of any of the important markets, ranging from 50 cents to 75 cents above other points.

The number of horses, including colts, on hand Jan. 1, this year as compared with a year ago, is shown to be 101 per cent, or 1,001,000 head. The average price Jan. 1 varied from $22 for animals under one year, to $56 for those more than two years old. In the same manner the number of mules showed 103 per cent, a total of 889,000 head, prices ranging from $33 to $83.

The average decrease in numbers of range and beef cattle, including calves, for the state as a whole was estimated at 13 per cent, or 4,666,000 in actual numbers on Jan. 1, 1923. Sales were heavy throughout the year in the fact of unattractive prices. The factors having a bearing on this condition were unfavorable range and feed conditions over a large part of the range section of the state, financial difficulties in which the stockman was placed, a comparatively short and high-priced feed crop and the need of a longer period of credit at reasonable rate of interest, the report continues. The average price per head for the several classes obtaining on Jan. 1, were: under one year $13; for one year and under two, $19; two years and over, $27.

The number of milch cows in the state Jan. 1, was 1,062,000 or 99 per cent of the number last year. The average prevailing price the first of this year was $39 per head.

Compared with a year previous the number of head of swine of all ages on Jan. 1, 1923, was found to be 89 per cent, or 2,203,000

LIEUT. GOVERNOR VOTES IN FAVOR FERGUSON OFFER

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Jan. 26.—An attempt to reject and return former Gov. Ferguson's proposal to lease the state penitentiary system to Mr. Ferguson without comment, was voted down in the Senate today, and the proposition was referred to the committee on penitentiaries. The vote on the motion to return the proposal was a tie and Lieut. Gov. Davidson cast the deciding vote, voting against returning Ferguson's proposal.

The House turned down the proposition yesterday when it voted to return the proposition without comment, the House vote being 79 to 34.

The House passed to engrossment the bill providing for the establishment of a Texas technological college in West Texas, the bill carrying with it an appropriation of one million dollars for the new college. The vote was 100 to 20.

AUSTIN, Jan. 26.—Consolidation of the State Marketing and Agricultural departments, and abolition of the Livestock Sanitary Commission, was expressed in the legislative program of the Texas Farm Bureau organization, it was announced today. The organizations voicing opposition to the consolidation of the two departments and the abolition of the livestock board include the Farm Bureau Federation, Farmers Union, Cattle Raisers Association, and the Sheep and Goat Raisers Association.

The organizations' program also favors an appropriation for enabling greater preventative means against the cotton boll weevil, and the establishment of a West Texas A. & M. college.

PRO OFFICERS ARE SUSPENDED

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Several federal prohibition enforcement officers in Texas have been suspended by the headquarters here pending further investigation. It is indicated that further separations from the service in Texas might be expected later.

An inquiry into the enforcement of the prohibition law throughout Texas resulted in charges being filed against certain members of the field force now operating under acting Director Frank B. Cole. The nature of the charges are closely guarded by prohibition bureau officials, who declined to discuss the case. It is understood however, that the facts so far disclosed are known to Commissioner Haynes, who is in the West, and upon whom will rest the responsibility in the final decision.

AUSTIN, Jan. 26.—Elmer McClure, stationed at Houston, and T. J. Bender, stationed at Linden, prohibition enforcement officers, were suspended today, it was announced at prohibition enforcement headquarters here.

Mrs. W. L. Brown was called to Eldorado Thursday to be at the home of her parents on account of sickness in the family.

MASKED BAND TRIAL POSTPONED

(By Associated Press)

ARDMORE, Okla., Jan. 26.—The trial of eleven prominent men living here and at Wilson, Oklahoma, charged with the murder growing out of the alleged operations of a band of masked men in December 1921, was postponed today until next Monday. The trial grew out of the fatal wounding of John Smith, Joe Carroll and C. G. Sims, who were shot when a band of more than fifty men, led by Sims, went to get Carroll for alleged dealings in illicit liquor.

PARIS, Jan. 26.—The allied reparations commission declared Germany in default of all her reparations obligations to France and Belgium under the agreement of the Versailles treaty. France, Belgium and Italy voted for the declaration while Great Britain did not vote.

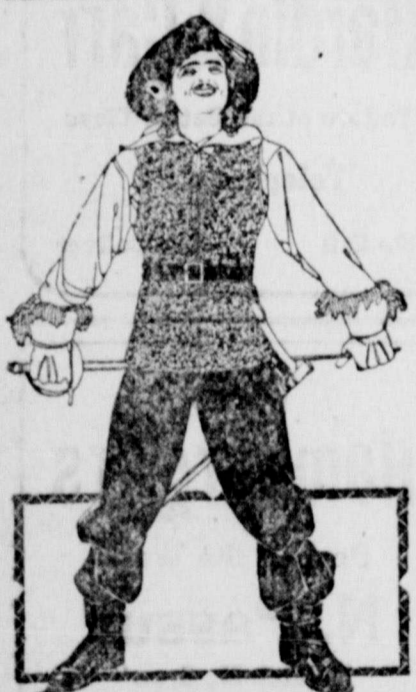

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—Action on a resolution offered by Senator Robinson, proposing a full American membership on the reparations commission, was postponed indefinitely by the Senate foreign relations committee today, after discussing confidential information obtained on the reparations problem which was submitted by Secretary Hughes.

ESSEN, Jan. 26.—Normal conditions prevail throughout the Ruhr valley so far as rioting is concerned, after a night of ebullitions throughout the hours of darkness. Unemployment is steadily increasing and the railroad strike continues to be effective, German railroad men refusing to allow coal trains to leave the industrial region for Paris.

Navigation is at a stop on the Rhine between Wesel and Cologne.

The coal miners are leaving the pits gradually and it is estimated that some 150,000 mine workers are now idle.

The German government has issued an appeal to the nation urging the people to renounce all luxuries and extravagance of every kind and to make the greatest sacrifice possible in conservation.

head, and the average prevailing price was $9.60 a head.

The number of sheep on hand, including lambs, Jan. 1, this year, as compared with the same date of 1922 was estimated to be 93 per cent, or 2,862,000 head. The decrease resulted from adverse winter and early spring conditions of 1922, during which there was little green feed or roughage to supplement the cake feeding, the losses from plant poisoning in early spring pasture, and heavy losses during a long dry summer.

The average prevailing prices on range or farms, Jan. 1, 1923, were, by classes: lambs, $4.30; ewes one year old and over, $6.15; wethers one year old and over, $5.50; rams, $14.00.

The general range conditions did not show much change from those in December. The open winter made it possible to take advantage of what pasture was afforded and prevented a much more severe condition than now prevailing. The sheep ranges were reported generally somewhat better than cattle ranges.

HOUSTON, Jan. 26.—On Jan. 1, 1923, the reduction of the number of cattle under the number on that date 1922, in the Panhandle proper of Texas runs about 23 per cent of the total numbers, in the January report of the Division of Crop and Livestock Estimates of the United States Department of Agriculture, read today. It is considerably greater for the South Plains sections of the district.

"The western half of the West of El Paso section shows a corresponding decrease in number, and the central and southern portions of the state would show some decreases, though not as material, were it not for heavy shipments into these sections from the worst favored sections of the state," the report reads.

Under the heading "General Items" the report sets forth:

"The present prospects do not point to a too favorable Spring outlook. Isolated portions of the state still report good conditions but the trend has been downward generally. There is practically no market for old cows. The great bulk of the calf crop and a large part of the steer stuff have been marketed, and where sold close there are many old cows left in herds.

"The Midland section reports prospects for an early calf crop. Generally the wheat and oat pasture over the state is insufficient. There are still some earlot movements of calves out of the Me-

Mullen section of South Texas and some fat steers to move to the spring market. In the South Plains 90 per cent of the calves are reported sold and 50 per cent of all cattle. Over most of the range section it appears that not more than 40 per cent of the calf crop is held. All fat steers are sold out of the Davis Mountain territory.

"In the San Angelo section reports state that 60 per cent of the calf crop has been sold to date and that 85 per cent of the aged steers are contracted for spring delivery to Kansas and Oklahoma points. Cows and coming yearlings are 80 per cent short in the Hemphill section. In the Coke county section some winter calves are reported coming. The dry summer and fall have resulted in poor calf prospects in many sections of the state."

Constipation

Constipation of the bowels is a stoppage of the sewerage system that removes waste matter from the body. It is as necessary that your bowels move regularly once each day, to carry off this waste, as it is that the waste pipes of your home be kept open and carry off the waste from the house. If you would enjoy good health, keep your bowels regular by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed.

FRIENDS ACCOMPANY REMAINS TO ABILENE

Quite a crowd gathered at the Tinnin home on Seventh Street Friday morning where Dr. Alvin Swindell conducted the funeral services, following which the remains of G. O. Tinnin were carried to Abilene for burial.

Mr. Tinnin died at eight o'clock Thursday morning. The remains will be laid to rest in the cemetery at Abilene. The funeral party left Ballinger about ten o'clock and it was expected that the burial would take place at two o'clock Friday afternoon. Quite a number of friends accompanied the remains to Abilene, among the party being Dr. Alvin Swindell, H. C. King, B. C. Kirk, A. F. Brock, Harry Lynn, M. C. McBride and family, W. A. Francis, and several employes of the Walker-Smith Company, and the relatives of the family who arrived here following the death of Mr. Tinnin.

Bilious Headache

When you have a severe headache, a disordered stomach and constipation, take three of Chamberlain's Tablets. They will correct the disorders of the liver and bowels, effectually curing the headache.

Mrs. Caro Howard returned to her home at Lott, Thursday afternoon. She had been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. C. Carter, at Norton.

PREBYTERIANS PLAN FOR ENCAMPMENT

A meeting of the board of directors of the Young People's Encampment which is held at Buffalo Gap each summer, will be held at the Gap next Monday morning.

The meeting has been called for the purpose of planning for the coming encampment and to fix dates, etc. This encampment is under the direction, or includes Presbyterians in the Abilene and Brownwood Presbyteries, U. S. A., and this year the Amarillo Presbytery and the Panhandle country are coming and have assured the directors of their support with a large attendance from the Plains country. This makes the encampment include all of Central West Texas and the Plains country.

There were over one thousand in attendance at the encampment last year, but it is expected that there will be at least three thousand and next summer, and big plans are being made. The following business and professional men compose the board of directors: R. L. Bland, Merkel; C. S. Guin, Ballinger; W. B. Webb, Albany; Dave Floyd, Buffalo Gap; J. Q. McAdams, Winters; L. W. Green, Baird; and three ministers, Revs. Jess. Mitchell, J. A. Owen and R. B. Twitty.

France is being criticised, but even the dead beat admires a good bill collector.

Jane Addams says men have made a mess of running the world. Maybe so, but Jane must give some of us credit for bringing home the pay envelope.

The Abilene city commission made a contract with a citizen to furnish him water to irrigate 30 acres of land for $5 per acre. It is certainly true that some people are born lucky.

The politicians have succeeded in giving men and women equal franchise rights, but that is about as far as they can go. There are some other rights which cannot be equalized.

Making chicken stealing a felony offense is all right, for the man who will steal a chicken will steal a bank if he has the same chance, but while the legislature is at it they should make it a death penalty for the chicken which gets in your neighbor's garden.

The best servant of the people is the servant who does not spend all his time trying to get in the limelight. We have in mind Al-ison Mayfield, who served his state as a public officer for about thirty years, and yet he was never known to play to the galleries. His efficient service maintained his good standing with the people.

Listening in on the radio is like feasting from a table supplied with a varied menu; you can pick out what you want and let the other alone. You can tune in and get jazz, grand opera, band concerts, sermons, crop reports, sporting news, police reports, artist recitals, latest news from the world's centers, etc., and all for the same price.

After all, judging from reports of the flu epidemic at other places, Ballinger got off light. District court at Coleman could not get a quorum Monday on account of the epidemic in that county. Only fifteen petit jurors out of thirty-six answered, and only eight out of sixteen grand jury veniremen were present for roll call.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
This is a pleasant, safe and reliable medicine for coughs and colds. It has been in use for many years and is held in high esteem in those households where its good qualities are best known. It is a favorite with mothers of young children, as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. Try it when you have need of such a remedy.

TOO MANY WOMEN "PAN-HANDLING" THE PUBLIC.
Judging from the frequent visits of representatives of a certain would-be band of "rescue workers," this city is an easy mark when it comes to jarring loose from the coin. Within the last two weeks, two women have worked Ballinger, passing around the tamborine, and that too after the public had been warned that they were being "panhandled" out of their money.

Last November a woman started out to get the coin for her organization, fifty per cent of which it is alleged the collectors retain, but she did not get very far before the police halted her and carried her before the board of censors of the Retail Merchants Association. The board applied the test which the lady failed to meet—and she left for greener fields. Since that time several women representing the same organization have canvassed the town, and so far as we know got away with the liberal spirit of giving to such causes which prevails here.

A lady worked the town again Thursday, and when she passed the tamborine under the writer's nose she had sufficient money to make a good rattle, and no doubt had "dumped" it several times before appealing to our deaf ear.

It is said upon pretty good authority that these collectors work on a fifty-fifty basis, and are their own bookkeepers, and too frequently do such impostors make it hard when the call comes for aid for worthy institutions and deserving causes.

The Salvation Army is supported by annual drives, and every cent of the funds raised go to the organization. Representatives of orphans' homes and deserving institutions have no trouble in identifying themselves when they go out and call on the public for funds, and those who give to every transient who comes along are throwing their money away and helping to keep up a band of grafters. Don't do it.

RESCUES BABY GIRL FROM DEEP CISTERN

ABILENE, Jan. 26.—The heroism of O. J. Cotton brought back to life the little three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Bowers yesterday. The baby had been in a cistern fifteen minutes when discovered and the alarm given, and Mr Cotton, who was working a short distance from the residence rushed to the scene and by means of a rope was lowered into the cistern which contained eighteen feet of water. He found the child and resuscitation was successful after heroic work. The little girl had a doll almost as large as she was in her arms when she fell into the cistern, and when rescued she was still holding the doll in her death grip. The water ruined the doll, but friends of the family went to town and purchased a new doll and the child was restored to happiness as well as to life.

TOWNS HAVE NO WATER: NO TANK CARS TO HAUL IT

STAMFORD, Tex., Jan. 26.—Wenert, 27 miles North of here on the Wichita Valley railroad, and Peacock, 60 miles Northwest of Stamford on the Stamford & Northwestern railway, are entirely without drinking water, according to a report reaching here today. It is understood that the towns appealed to officials of the railroads to furnish them with tankers to haul water from nearby towns, but the railroads declined on the plea that no cars were available. The matter has been taken up with the railroad commission. The rainfall of the first of the week was insufficient to relieve the water shortage.

The situation in both places is reported as very serious. Weinert has been obtaining its supply from a small lake, as has been the case at Peacock.

WANTS TO SEE SOUTH BALLINGER WATER TEST

Scott H. Mack is one of the enthusiastic believers in the South Ballinger water proposition. Mr. Mack was present when the Wardlaw well was tested out a few days ago, and he says that he firmly believes that a string of such wells will supply Ballinger with all the water she needs, and reported as very serious. Weinert has been obtaining its supply from a small lake, as has been the case at Peacock.

is no question in my mind but that the water problem can be solved if water from several wells can be concentrated into a reservoir and piped into the city." Mr. Mack is in favor of making a thorough test to determine the South Ballinger supply.

There is real money---more than interest---in buying printed matter in quantities. For instance 1000 letter heads or 1000 bill heads last you three months, why not buy enough for a year and note the saving. You'll readily agree that it pays big.

A Review of the Movies

Scene from DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS' 'THE THREE MUSKETEERS'

'THE THREE MUSKETEERS' GAVE FAIRBANKS GREATEST CHANCE IN PICTURE MAKING

When Douglas Fairbanks filmed "The Three Musketeers," he fulfilled the ambition of his life. Undoubtedly no vehicle is so typically Fairbanksian or offers so fine an opportunity to play up the entire gamut of things histrionic as does this, his sixth United Artists production.

The film version of "The Three Musketeers" is based not only upon the famous novel of Alexander Dumas, but also upon the memoirs of D'Artagnan himself. In fact, much of the material upon which the "business" of the photoplay is built, much that gives it the human touch, was found in D'Artagnan's memoirs and not in the novel, although it was from the Dumas story that the foundation stones for the picture plot were obtained.

The management of the Fo-to-sho Theatre announces "The Three Musketeers" for presentation on January 31st and February 1st.

There are many reasons which give authority to the bid for everlasting fame made on behalf of this photoplay. First of all, the Dumas novel and the memoirs of D'Artagnan embody the greatest wealth of filmable material ever uncovered. Only the imagination of a Dumas could devise the amazing experiences participated in by those four inseparable comrades, D'Artagnan and the three musketeers, Athos, Porthos and Aramis. And the part of the dashing D'Artagnan is made to order for the indomitable Doug.

Add to this fact that the adaptation, costuming and required research were under the supervision of that celebrated playwright and scholar of history, Edward Knoblock, author of "Milestones," "Kismet," "Tiger, Tiger," "My Lady's Dress" and "Shulamite," and the direction was in the hands of Fred Niblo, himself a born adventurer, and a man who has achieved fame in the direction of adventure stories. In guiding the directorial destinies of Douglas Fairbanks' "The Mark of Zorro," Niblo established himself a firm place on the ladder of fame, which is reinforced by his handling of this Fairbanks' offering.

To Arthur Edson, camera artist extraordinary, must go the credit of bringing to the screen an unprecedented wealth of photographic art. The superior quality of his work will do much to make "The Three Musketeers" live long as a standard in the cinema world.

Professors of history and experts of the period depicted in this film-tale all unite in stating that the settings are superb and the types admirably chosen. It is their opinion that the Fairbanks' version of "The Three Musketeers" will stand not only as an entertainment masterpiece, but also as an historical document done in celluloid.

BEAUTIFUL SCENES OF GLAMOROUS MIAMI IN THIS FILM PRODUCTION

The millions of photoplay-goers to whom the winter resorts of Florida will ever remain unexplored may, however, thru the camera's eye glean a very graphic idea of their attractions and attractiveness in "Destiny's Isle," a Wm. P. S. Earle production which is to be seen on the silver-sheet at the Maeroy Theatre today and tonight only. In this offering are to be found some very beautiful vistas of Miami, including one very sweeping panorama taken from a seaplane.

Miami is credited with being the leading winter resort on the Florida east coast and the most beautiful. Millionaires from all over the United States have cottages there, the balmy climate of that region giving it summer weather when the rest of the country is wrapped in furs. In "Destiny's Isle" one sees the resort at the height of its fashionable season, its outdoor sports, bathing beaches and bathing pools. The action of the story is laid there, a story which tells of the flight of a disappointed lover and an accident at sea which results in his finding a balm for his aching heart on a lonely isle, this in turn bringing distress to an innocent maid, then to the scheming girl whom he made a mess of her love affairs.

The story is a highly interesting one, rendered more so by the beauty of its setting, and the sterling portrayals of its characters by Virginia Lee, Ward Crane, Florence Billings, George Fawcett and Arthur Housman.

'THE GREATEST LOVE' FEATURES VERA GORDON

"The Greatest Love," the latest Select Pictures Corp. production which is showing today only at the Fo-to-sho Theatre, is said to give a realistic representation of the hardships, joys and sorrows of life as lived in the slums of a large city. In the latter part of the picture is given a glimpse behind the scenes of a musical comedy performance, and danger and disgrace are seen to overtake their victims when all seems to be prosperous and successful. Mother love triumphs where the money of friends and the learning of counsel have failed, and the unexpected climax is said to be both artistic and novel.

SHIRLEY MASON in "The Ragged Princess," at Maeroy Theatre Wednesday and Thursday, Jan. 31-Feb. 1st. Next Week.

As Mrs. Lantini, the mother of the little family whose fortunes form the back ground of the story, Vera Gordon plays a role similar to that which made her name a household word in "Humoresque." With her in the cast are Sally Crute, William H. Tooker, Fannie Shelton, and Jessie Simpson, Bobby Connelly and Dot Williams take the children's roles. The story was pictured by Edward J. Montague, author of "The Bad Girl from Broadway," and other best sellers, and the credit for the direction belongs to Henry Kolker.

'CLASSIC' FILM DIRECTOR MAKES NEW MASTERPIECE

Once more has Maurice Tourneur gone back to the classics of childhood. This time the director of "Treasure Island," "The Blue Bird," and others, has given the screen a masterpiece in "The Last of the Mohicans," the J. Fenimore Cooper story, which comes to the Maeroy Theatre on January 29th and 30th.

This "Leatherstocking" tale is said to be Cooper's best novel of early American life, and able direction was given by Tourneur. The production will be shown at the Maeroy for the two days, and special school children's matinees have been arranged each day at 4:00 p. m. Admission of ten cents is the price for all school children.

DRINK WATER WHEN KIDNEYS HURT YOU

Take Glass of Salts if Your Back Aches or Bladder Troubles You

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells, your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, chances often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so they no longer irritate thus often ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia water drink. Drink lots of soft water. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.
