GOVERNORS ARE DIVIDED ON ISSUE OF THE WHISKERS

(By Associated Press)
AUSTIN, Oct. 27.—Whiskers and smooth faces have had it nip and tuck among the governors of Texas throughout the history of the state. For a long period during and after the Civil War a luxuriant growth on the lower jaw seemed to be a qualification for the high office of chief executive, but portraits of governors hung lately in the rotunda of the capitol indicate the smooth faces are taking the lead.

The early republic was started on its way in 1836 with the aid of a good growth of the "facial alfalfa," for President Burnett of the Lone Star state, who held the reins of government in 1836 was one who present day barbers, with their electric clippers and their long shears, would have enjoyed tackling.

Whiskers seem to have fallen into immediate disrepute, however, for President Houston, and Lamar, Jones, Henderson and Wood, who sat in the chief executive's chair during the period of 1836 to 1849, appear to have been totally innocent of the hirsute appendage. Then, the whiskers came back into style for a period from 1853 to 1861, when Bell, Henderson, Pease, Rannels and Clark, all bewhiskered gentlemen, were in power.

Governor Lubbock from 1861 to 1863 did not wear whiskers, but as soon as his term expired, the whisker regime again came to the front and could not be dislodged for almost 30 years. From 1863 to 1891, all the governors wore this style of face adornment. Governors Murrah, Hamilton, Throckmorton, Davis, Coke, Hubbard, Roberts, Ireland, and Ross, all wore beards of varying lengths and colors.

In 1891 with the accession of Governor Hogg, a smooth faced reign set in, lasting through the terms of Hogg, Culberson and Sayers, being unseated only by Governor Lanham, whose pointed white beard is conspicuous among the beardless faces that hang from the rotunda wall. Since Governor Colquitt took the gubernatorial chair, the reign of the smooth-faced has been unbroken. Sixteen executives who supported whiskers are opposed to 14 who favored the razor.

WOULD RETURN TO GERMANY AT ANY COST

(By Associated Press)
DOORN, Holland, Oct. 27.—Former Emperor Wilhelm and Ex-Crown Prince Frederick Wilhelm, accompanied by two other personages, left the ex-kaiser's domicile here at six o'clock last evening traveling in an automobile in the direction of Arnheim, which is about ten miles from the German border. The party returned this morning about two o'clock, followed by three other automobiles, according to persons well informed regarding the affairs at the kaiser's chateau.

It is reported that the former crown prince wishes to return to Germany at any cost and has had conversations on this subject with representatives of the Dutch government.

RANNELS CO. MAN IN COLEMAN JAIL

(Coleman Democrat-Voice)
Sheriff Dick Pauley and Deputy Eric Tate of Talpa last Thursday seized the most complete copper still that has been seen in Coleman since Andrew Volstead began making dry history. Most of the whiskey-making apparatus previously found in this section was of crude workmanship.

The still seized last Thursday in the brush country Northwest of Coleman was a 55-gallon copper kettle and copper condensing vessel or jacket. A man and his wife and a Ford car were taken into custody. The man gave his name as C. R. McDonald and his home as Rannels county. The woman's name was given as Pearl McDonald. Both are held in jail. The Ford car shows to have been registered in a Northwest Texas county. Complaint has been filed by County Attorney T. H. Strong charging both the man and his wife with possession of still and manufacturing liquor.

The still was apprehended Northeast of Glen Cove in the brush, not far removed from a well and windmill, and was in the process of being operated when the officers appeared on the scene and made the arrests. The Ford car, equipped with camping outfit and accompanied by the woman in the case, was parked about 50 yards from where the still was in operation.

OKLAHOMA TO IMPEACH OTHERS

(By Associated Press)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 27.—The House investigating committee which submitted the charges of official misconduct against Governor J. C. Walton, was prepared today to extend its impeachment inquiry to other officials and state departments.

With Walton's trial scheduled to begin next Thursday the committee has before it a resolution requesting an investigation of the office of John A. Whitehurst, president of the state board of agriculture.

It is predicted by the close followers of the situation that other state officials will be made the object of possible impeachment proceedings.

Mrs. T. F. Cole came in Saturday at noon and will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Stuart L. Williams while en route to Pasadena from her home in Greenwich, Connecticut. She will be here two or three weeks.

Chocolate Milled from Monday till Thursday

THERE is no mystery about the excellence of Norris Candies. They are better because of the way they are made and because of the things of which they are made.

For instance, the chocolate. On Monday noon, let us say, a batch of selected cocoa-beans goes into a ponderous "miller."

Then, day and night, until noon of Thursday, this chocolate is milled and re-milled, over and over again. This repeated pulverizing makes the chocolate exceedingly fine, and wondrously smooth in consistency. Every chocolate-covered piece in a Norris Variety Box is coated with this uniformly super-smooth chocolate, never varying in its quality.

And every other ingredient in Norris Candies is treated with the same thorough determination to make these candies as good as can be.

Then the Norris Variety Box encases these jewels of the candy-maker's art with fitting daintiness and beauty, that the box shall give promise of the delights within.

Several went down on the morning train and others left on the afternoon train. Among those going from Ballinger were: Mrs. Tom Trail, Mrs. J. M. Skinner, Mrs. Max Russell, Mr. and Mrs. A. McGregor, Misses Louise Orgain and Nell Alexander, Mrs. F. C. Miller, Miss Olga Zappe, Judge and Mrs. A. K. Doss, Mrs. Fannie Johnson, Mrs. W. L. Brown, Mrs. R. G. Parks, Mrs. Floyd Carr, Mrs. C. L. AUTO LICENSE TO BE RAISED

It is a little early to mention such unpleasant subjects, but for the benefit of those who are not already wise on the subject of 1924 automobile licenses, let us remind you that your 1924 tag will cost you considerably more than heretofore.

The Ford continues to be the poor man's car, and will hold the minimum registration fee. The present price of the Ford registration is $7.50. The new price will be $11.20. This is in keeping with the new autoregistration law which becomes effective on January 1st. The new law as applying to trucks is already in effect.

The new schedule of registration fees is based on weight as well as on horse power, and the minimum weight is taken at 1800 pounds, with a charge of 40 cents a hundred, making $7.20, and to this must be added the horse power, which is figured at a minimum of $4 on 22-h.p. cars.

To give the joy rider some idea of the new schedule of fees, following is the way it will run for the cheaper cars, and the heavier cars will come proportionately higher:

Chevrolet: old fee $7.70; new fee $13.00

Dodge touring: old fee $7.70; new fee $17.70

Reo touring: old fee $8.40; new fee $20.70

Essex touring: old fee $7.50; new fee $18.00

Buick six, 40 h.p.: old fee $14.00; new fee $23.00.

A Remarkable Record

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for colds, croup and whooping cough for almost half a century and has constantly grown in favor and popularity as its good qualities became better known. It is the standard and main reliance for these diseases in thousands of homes. The facts that it can always be depended upon and is safe and pleasant to take are greatly in its favor when it is wanted for children.

ELECTED GRAND CONDUCTRESS OF EASTERN STAR

Dr. W. B. Halley and Mrs. J. G. Douglass and Mrs. H. M. Josey returned home Friday evening from Amarillo, where they had been to attend the meeting of the Grand Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Mrs. Halley, who also attended the meeting, stopped at Canyon for a visit. Walter Parker went to Tuscola Friday afternoon and met the party there and brought them home in a car, eliminating the transfer and wait at Coleman.

Mrs. Halley was chosen as one of the grand officers of the Eastern Star at the Amarillo meeting, being elected Grand Conductress.

R. T. Williams returned from Temple Friday at noon, where he had been at the bedside of his son, Robert Louis, who is in a hospital at that place. We regret to report that Robert Louis is not improving as fast as was hoped for, and it is probable that he will yet have to undergo a very serious operation. He was thought to be improving last week and it was reported that an operation would not be necessary.

REPORT AUTO DEALERS ARE ABUSING PRIVILEGES

AUSTIN, Oct. 27.—Reports have been received at the State Highway Department that many motor vehicle dealers of Texas are abusing the privilege accorded them by the highway laws in permitting the use of dealer's demonstrating licenses on new cars. According to an announcement by State Highway Engineer J. D. Fauntleroy it has been found that certain dealers are using the demonstrating licenses on their personal cars and permitting the use of such licenses on the cars of their employees. Capt. Fauntleroy also said that there are many instances where dealer's licenses are used on second-hand cars. All such actions are violations of highway laws whereby the State Highway Department and the counties are losing their respective portions of the motor vehicle fees which should be collected. Such violations are punishable by fines.

Now that the world series is over footballers come to pass.

NEWS FROM COUNTY SITE OF COLEMAN COUNTY

(Gleaned from the Coleman Democrat-Voice)

The most complete copper still seen in Coleman since the dry law went into effect was captured by Sheriff Pauley this week. Two arrests were made.

On account of the demand for circus tickets at the Barnes show at Coleman, no tickets were sold to the colored folks for the afternoon performance, and the night show was negroes' night.

Sixteen dogs were found dead in the streets of Coleman last Saturday morning. They included all kinds from the common cur to the dog that moves in high society. Poison was attributed as the cause.

The Rose gin at Santa Anna, owned and operated by J. D. Simpson, was destroyed by fire Thursday morning. The loss was given at $15,000, and only partially insured.

The Central West Texas Wolf Hunters Association will engage in a four day chase in Coleman county, and the dates have been set for November 26 to 30.

L. W. Dyer, of Oklahoma, arrived in Santa Anna this week, and met his father, A. L. Dyer, of the Jim Ned country, for the first time in 36 years. The son was two years old when he and his father last saw each other, and he is now 38. They were introduced to each other on the streets of Santa Anna.

Louisiana Lady Says She Has "Never Found Anything Better Than Cardui for a Run-Down Condition."

Morgan City, La.—"It would be hard for me to tell how much benefit I have derived from the use of Cardui," said Mrs. I. G. Bowman, of 1319 Front Street, this city.

"I was so run-down in health I could hardly go. I was thin, I had no appetite. Could not rest or sleep well. I was so weak, and so very nervous, I was no pleasure to myself.

"I suffered some pain, but the worst of my trouble was from being so weak and easy to get tired and out of heart.

"This nervous condition was worse than pain.

"Some one told me of Cardui, and I decided to use it.

"After using a few bottles, I regained my strength. I wasn't so nervous, and began to eat and sleep, and grew stronger and was soon well.

"I have never found anything better for a run-down condition."

DRILL WORKING IN BLACK SLATE

The Safety First well is "still looking good," according to one of the promoters of the drilling, and there will be no let up until the 4,000 foot mark has been reached.

The drill is working in black slate at a depth of 3870 feet, and the formation is favorable for going into pay dirt at any time. The hole is dry, no water being in the way. Casing is set to a depth of 3845, leaving only about 25 feet of open hole and it is in good condition.

Little has been said about this well since it put on a show several months ago and spouted oil freely for about thirty minutes. The company which was formed and money raised by about two hundred men subscribing small amounts, has been going right ahead with the development, and the present program calls for a 4,000 foot hole or oil in paying quantities.

By MARGARET BOYD

(© by Margaret Boyd.)

"It's what I think to myself sometimes, as there need nobody run short o' victuals if the land was made the most on, and there was never a morsel but what could find its way to a mouth."—Silas Marner.

When political reformers and political economists speak of this subject, they use the terms "production" and "distribution." One faction says no one would need go hungry if all the land were made the most of. They say the reason some people never get enough to eat is because there isn't enough food in the world to go around—that is, they say the fault is with production. These people believe that there should be no heavy a tax on land that no one could afford to own any waste land. They believe that if taxes were assessed according to the number of acres a man owns instead of according to the assessed value of the land he owns that no man could afford to own more land that he could farm intensively. They believe that the present owners of large farms and ranches would have to sell their land to men who would farm it as intensively as the European peasant farms his little plot. These people believe that when all the land in the country is properly cultivated everybody will have enough to eat. They forget the natural law recorded by Solomon centuries ago, "When goods increase, they are increased that eat them."

The other faction says the fault is with distribution. They say there is plenty of food in the world if we could just get it to those that need it.

We can appreciate this phase of the problem when we go into any average kitchen. The common statement is that the American family throws into the garbage can enough to feed the European family. Certainly the scraps of bread thrown away, the gravy and sauce left sticking to the sides of the kettles and pans, the peelings so thick as to waste the vegetables or fruit, the butter container with butter sticking to it, the bones filled with marrow, and the scraps of fat meat thrown away are all wastes of food. On every farm there are windfalls, fruit that the farmer cannot sell in the fields are potatoes too small to gather; heads of cabbage too small to market or to store for winter use; tomatoes that would spoil before they could be sold; and the like.

If we could stop all waste in kitchen and store and field, the food saved would certainly go far towards feeding all those who now go hungry.

THRILLING STORY OF SMALL TOWN LIFE AT MAEROY NEXT WEEK

"The Town That Forgot God," the latest special production announced by Wm. Fox, possesses a universal appeal in its compelling delineation of life in the average small American town.

This production, which is to be seen at the Maeroy Theatre next Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 29th-30th, deals almost entirely with the provincial community and the cast consists of the best known portrayers of small town character-types of the stage and screen.

Salient among the many spectacular features of this unusual production is the sensation storm and flood scene in which an entire town is destroyed. Harry Millarde, who directed "Over the Hill," and other sensational William Fox productions, and who directed "The Town That Forgot God," has again given proof of his mastery of the artifices which must be used to depict the raging of the elements on the silver-sheet.

Unlike the majority of special productions which are characterized by the spectacular scenes and tremendous mob scenes, Mr. Millarde has used the sensational storm and flood scenes merely as vehicles for the theme of the narrative. "The Town That Forgot God" depends entirely and justly so, upon its exceptional dramatic and gripping story for its success.

ENTIRE CAST MADE UP OF "TERRIBLE" KIDS

Regular boys that would be respected by any gang holding forth on that most magic spot of childhood—the back lot—furnish with the clever animals the fun in "The Champen," the first two-reel comedy of the second series of Pathe's "Our Gang" comedies, produced by Hal Roach. "The Champen" will be seen at the Fo-to-sho Theatre, Ballinger, on Saturday, matinee and night. In addition will be "The Steel Trail" serial, and other short subjects.

"Sunshine Sammy," who has been seen with Harold Lloyd and "Snub" Pollard in different successful comedies, lends his broad grin to the offering and is leader of the "gang." Mickey Daniels, the freckled-faced kid, is one of the mainstays, as is Jackie Davis, brother of Mildred Davis. Jackie Condon, three years old, with his wistful baby face and mop of tousled hair, is the youngest of the "terribles." Little Mary Kirman, is the "baby vamp" of the picture, usually designated as "the cause of it all."

A recent find of Hal Roach is Little Farina, nineteen months of age, and one of the funniest kiddlets that ever graced the silver-sheet. It is needless to say that Farina is not aware of the fact. Of course, the Hal Roach zoo of domestic animals do their bit, with the outstanding work in the current offering being performed by "Bill," the sad-faced bull dog. "The Champen" is said to be a riot of mirth from start to finish, with a prize fight between Mickey Daniels and Jackie Davis the outstanding feature. "Sunshine Sammy" is the promoter of the fight. He tells each boxer that the other one will lay down at the end of the second round, and there is great consternation when neither of them do.

It pays to see, that you see well. Drs. Kahn, optometrists.

RUNNING A HOUSEHOLD IS A BUSINESS

Is Yours Run On Business Principles?

Wise buying is the first step to success in any business. So is it the first requirement for a household to be well conducted on an economical basis. Big business concerns have purchasing agents who are experts in knowing what, when and where to buy. They study goods and concerns which have goods to sell. They watch the markets. They read carefully the advertisements of concerns in their particular lines.

The manager of a household must be purchasing agent for a large proportion of the family needs. She should run her business on business principles in order to make the most of the family income.

Information is the basis for intelligent purchasing. And the right way to get the greatest amount of necessary information is to read advertisements.

Advertising today is the voice of business. Advertisements tell you what is new and good in merchandise; they reveal improvements and inventions; they give you information about things that are useful and interesting.

Every manager of a household—every person in the household who shares the responsibility for the family's welfare—should make a practice of reading advertisements.

How Better Than Pills? The question has been asked—in what way are Chamberlain's Tablets superior to the ordinary eathartic and liver pills? Our answer is, they are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then, they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.

(By Associated Press) AUSTIN, Oct. 27.—Bright colored costumes worn by the dancers has increased enrollment in the girls dancing class of the University of Texas 25 per cent, according to Miss Susie Fisher, instructor in dancing.

"The girls are delighted with the pretty, vari-colored costumes, and they keep card of their dancing uniforms," declared Miss Fisher. "In other years, when the girls were required to wear dark uniforms, they took but little pride in their appearance on the dancing floor. But now it is changed. The bright colors are responsible."
