NO NEWS FROM MISSING FLYERS

(By Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—It has been fifteen hours after the last word has been received from the missing seaplane PN-9 No. 1, which failed in its flight from San Francisco to Honolulu because of a shortage of fuel.
Captain Moses, commander of the flight project, is without any word as to the fate of the plane and its crew, but is maintaining optimism which he has felt since the seaplane was reported missing. Capt. Moses expressed the belief that the plane and its personnel would be found soon. The last word from the plane was at 4:12 yesterday afternoon and it was then believed to be in the water about 150 miles from the island of Maui.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2.—The PN-9 No. 3, in two pieces, on the U. S. destroyer William Jones, arrived here today. The plane was forced down 300 miles off the California coast in its attempted non-stop flight from San Francisco to Honolulu on account of broken oil pipes.
Mechanics immediately set to work repairing the plane preparatory to making another effort to span the Pacific.

INCREASE IN IRRIGATION MAY SUGGEST MISTAKES

Special to The Ledger:
COLLEGE STATION, Texas, Sept. 1.—The increase of individual irrigation plants being reported to A. & M. College from many counties of the state is a hopeful sign of advancement but also presages many expensive mistakes. This is an observation of M. R. Bentley, farm engineer of the A. & M. Extension Service. Some farms can be put under irrigation cheaper than others; investment in systems that are to be used only one year must palpably be less than those to be used annually; where irrigation is to be used occasional seasons only the most favorable locations should be used. These are some basic facts to be remembered to prevent costly blunders. If they are known and understood, however, it will be found that the farm income can be greatly improved by use of irrigation, all or partly.

Carl Wilson, who looks after the Ballinger Country Club property, is taking a few days vacation, and left Wednesday for Ft. Worth to join the Legion men and meet with the buddies. Carl went overseas during the war, and expects to meet some of his old comrades at the Legion convention.

Rev. and Mrs. E. W. McLaurin returned Monday from Kerrville, where they attended the synodical meeting of the Presbyterian Church U. S. Rev. McLaurin reports a very successful meeting with good attendance.

CHIROPRACTOR'S FATE WITH JURY

The State of Texas vs. Dr. C. L. Andrus, of Miles, is the style of a case on trial in the criminal county court here Wednesday. The case went to trial at 10:00 o'clock Wednesday morning, most of the forenoon being consumed in preliminary work and in selecting the jury.

The jury selected to try the case is composed of E. J. Carroll, M. L. Northington, J. W. Black, J. A. Williams, George Kerley and H. C. Hoppe.
This is one of five cases filed in the county court charging chiropractors with practicing medicine without license. Dr. Andrus lives at Miles, where it is alleged he maintains an office and carries on his practice.

Several witnesses, most of them from Miles, were placed on the stand and all testified that Andrus had given them adjustments, and that he received pay for his services. Several witnesses were used after noon, and the case bid fair to go to the jury before court recessed for the day. Two other cases, Dr. Nettie Montgomery, of Ballinger, and Dr. Craig of Winters, are yet to be disposed of.

Quite an array of legal talent is involved on both sides in the cases. Judge Lee Pierson, of Dallas, is here assisting Judges A. K. Doss and C. P. Shepherd in the prosecution, and Judge Ben Cox, of Abilene, and Judge W. D. Jennings, of Miles, are here assisting Judges Parish & Crager for the defense.

LEGIONNAIRES IN ANNUAL MEET

(By Associated Press)
FT. WORTH, Sept. 2.—The seventh annual convention of the Texas division of the American Legion opened here this morning with more than 1,000 ex-service men here for the meeting.
The Thirty-Sixth and Nintyeth divisions are holding their annual gatherings along with the Legion convention.

NORTON COUPLE COME HERE TO WED

At the Eighth Street Presbyterian manse at 8:00 o'clock Saturday night, Rev. R. B. Twitty spoke the words which united as man and wife Cecil Roper and Miss Nina Mackey, both prominent young people of the Norton country. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Henry Wilson of Ballinger.
After the ceremony had been performed the happy couple returned to Norton, where a home had already been provided for them, and where they will continue to make their home.

MEXICO ON GOOD TERMS WITH U.S.

(By Associated Press)
CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 2.—The United States and Mexico are walking in the path of cordial and sincere understanding, and it is the intention of the Mexican government to use her utmost endeavors to augment this friendship.
This statement was made last night by President Calles in an address to the members of the Mexican congress at the opening of the new session. President Calles also declared that the present prospects were that Mexico would resume payment of her foreign debts within the shortest possible period consistent with certain unavoidable national needs which he said must be fulfilled first.

ONLY FOUR MEN ATTEND FUNERAL

Rev. E. W. McLaurin conducted the funeral service at the funeral of E. D. Wright, a stranger, who died in a camp in the Southern part of the city Monday afternoon. The Ledger stated Tuesday that Rev. Alvin Swindell conducted the funeral, but Dr. Swindell was out of the city at the time.
The attendance at the funeral did not speak well for Ballinger. The citizens had contributed towards helping the distressed family, giving of their means, but there were only four men present at the funeral, hardly a sufficient number to act as pall bearers.
The deceased was a refugee from the drought district, and came to this country seeking work, bringing his family consisting of wife and several children. He was stricken ill and died in a tent on the river. A son-in-law of the deceased arrived here Tuesday and rendered some aid, and it is expected that the family will be able to make their own way as they have been promised work in the cotton fields.

Miss Opal Chumley, of Bronte, was brought to the Halley & Love sanitarium Tuesday for an operation. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Chumley, of near Robert Lee, and Craig Chumley, another brother of Miss Chumley, of Bronte, are here to be with her.

FLEE FROM RISE IN RIO GRANDE

(By Associated Press)
EL PASO, Sept. 2.—Scores of families in Sambrano, Collingsworth and Alameda Aeres, suburban residence sections below this city, are leaving their homes today as the waters from the Rio Grande pour through the broken river dykes opposite Valverde. This condition prevails now and the crest of the flood is not expected to reach here for twenty-four hours.

AMERICAN BAR HEARS HUGHES

(By Associated Press)
DETROIT, Sept. 2.—Liberty and law are a combination which our political alchemists seem to find increasingly difficult to successfully achieving. Charles E. Hughes said today in the opening address of the forty-ninth meeting of the American Bar Association of which Mr. Hughes is president.

Problems presented by a multiplicity of laws encroaching upon liberty, inadequate payment of judges, inordinate latitude granted lawyers, especially in sensational cases; the need of proper standards of legal education for admission to the bar, were among the other things which sparkled in Mr. Hughes' address.

CHIROPRACTOR IS CONVICTED AT MCKINNEY

(McKinney Courier-Gazette)
J. M. Cox, a chiropractor, of Plano, was found guilty of violating the medical practice act by practicing medicine without a license, by a jury in Judge A. M. Wolford's court here Friday.
The defense was represented by John Doyle, of McKinney, and J. A. Carlisle, of Sherman. County Attorney H. Grady Chandler was assisted in the prosecution by Lee P. Pierson of Dallas.
Cox was sentenced to one day in jail and was fined $50.

Judge Lee Pierson, who assisted in prosecuting the chiropractic case at McKinney, is here assisting the local county attorney in prosecuting cases filed here against chiropractors.

Fred Kiechle, cashier of the F & M Bank, returned home from a business trip to Dallas Tuesday night.

THROWS BOMB IN AIR SERVICE

(By Associated Press)
SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 2.—Col. William Mitchell threw a bombshell into military circles today when the war department officials began reviewing his book, "Winged Defense," which had been published against the war department's orders.
"The truth about the United States air service is not going to be suppressed any longer," Mitchell declared. "The truth of our deplorable situation is going to be put before the American people, come what may." Col. Mitchell added.

S. W. Hughes, of Brady, was here Wednesday looking after his abstract business. Mr. Hughes reported that the farmers in the Brady country were complaining about too much rain, and there was also considerable complaint of the cotton worm.

JUNIOR HIGH TO GO TO WESTWARD

Tentative plans for opening the public schools of this city on September 14th provides for housing the Junior High School in the West Ward building pending the completion of the new high school building. Six teachers will be in charge at West End with Prof. Horace Oliver as principal. As soon as the new building is completed the senior high will be transferred from the old building to the new, and junior high will take possession of the old high school building, and thereafter this building will be known as the Junior High building.

Both the junior high building and the Central Ward building have been put in good shape during the vacation. The interior of both buildings have been repainted throughout, and the furniture revarnished.

The contractors on the new building are speeding up on the work of the ground floor. The school board expects to utilize four rooms on the first floor of the new structure with the opening of school. These rooms are necessary to inaugurate two new branches, domestic science and manual training. The contractors have promised to turn the ground floor, or at least four rooms, over to the school board for their use early next week, and in time to be furnished and made ready for the commencing of school.

The board of trustees will meet Friday night to work out final details looking to the opening of school.

DISTRICT JUDGE ENDS OWN LIFE

(By Associated Press)
HOUSTON, Sept. 2.—Erwin Clark, age 48, attorney and former district judge at Waco, died suddenly at his home here this morning.

Justice of the Peace Overstreet held an inquest and returned a verdict that Clark had committed suicide. His body was found locked in a room and death had taken place about eight hours before the family was attracted to the room by escaping gas. The man opened the gas jets, which asphyxiated him.

A. F. Harkins, of the Wingate country, was looking after business in Ballinger Wednesday. Mr. Harkins stated that crops were first class in his country, with little damage being reported from the worm pest. He stated that pickers were camped around over the country, many already having engaged cotton picking and were located, waiting for the cotton to open. Farmers are furnishing little work to hands, sufficient to help them buy groceries and get by until picking time. "I don't think we will experience any trouble in getting hands to help gather the crop," said Mr. Harkins.

National budget for next year is put at $3,080,000,000. It's those little naughts that count.

OPPOSES CUT IN OIL FREIGHT

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—A proposed revision of the freight rates from the mid-continent field in Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Texas on traffic to points beyond Kansas and St. Louis, were disapproved in a report to the Interstate Commerce Commission today.
Charles Seals, examiner, disapproved the proposed revision in a report to the commission.

COAL STRIKE TO HURT BUSINESS

(By Associated Press)
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—The anthracite coal region today began to feel the effects of suspension of operation in the coal mines of this region, which for twenty-four hours has padlocked the basis of industry for the anthracite region.

Throwing a demobilized army of 148,000 miners out of work has made itself felt in all lines of business in the region affected.
All the outbound tonnage of coal has practically been cleaned up, and is on its way to market. It is predicted that at least 10,000 railroad men would follow the miners into idleness by the end of the week, because of the suspension and it appeared that the strike was justified in reports made to the railroad men. It is expected that 5,000 railroad men at Scranton, Pennsylvania, will be idle by the end of the week.

SCARCE FEED INCREASES VALUE OF FAIR EXHIBITS

Special to The Ledger:
COLLEGE STATION, Texas, Sept. 1.—Scarcity of feed in some sections emphasizes the need of care and economy in the feeding of farm animals and makes more important the showing of both breeding hogs and market types of swine in the fall fairs. This is the advice of A. L. Ward, extension swine husbandman of the A. & M. College. The conditions now being faced in some parts of the state emphasize the need of better hogs to displace the large number of scrubs and cold bloods that are now consuming more feed than they will pay for when sold. Farmers in the Texas Ton Litter Club have found that purebred hogs can make money on a pork basis, when feed is as high as it is today. The purebred hog is a necessity for Texas farmers and the breeders in Texas should seize this opportunity and exhibit their herds to the farmers throughout the state this coming fall.

Mayor S. B. Raby returned home from Dallas Wednesday afternoon, where he spent two or three days on business.

Mrs. George McCulley, of Brownwood, is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Skinner, and will be joined by Mr. McCulley here following the state American Legion convention at Fort Worth.

ANOTHER PROOF THAT ADVERTISING PAYS

A certain party in Ballinger placed an advertisement in a Houston paper, seeking a housekeeper. The ad carried the wrong address, to which the replies were delivered in Ballinger.
The replies all came addressed to 60 Tenth Street, and the postman delivered them to 600 Tenth Street, which is the home of Judge J. W. Powell. There is no
60 Tenth Street address in Ballinger. Judge Powell brought the letters down and left them at The Ledger office. We inserted a little notice, notifying the person who placed the ad in the Houston paper to call at The Ledger office and get the replies. The advertiser called and we delivered to her twenty-three letters, answers to her advertisement. The advertisement placed in the Houston paper got results, but it required The Ledger to deliver the goods at this end of the line.

A Wise and Righteous Law
Is Being Flagrantly Violated in this County Every Day

The Courts are Conscientious and Competent; Public Opinion Must Support Them

Any person who treats sick people for any trouble or disease by any method, whether by prescribing drugs or using a mechanical means or by giving advice, one or all or any method whatsoever, should have knowledge of the human body and its diseases. If he does not know what is the matter with a sick man, he cannot know what treatment is best nor when any particular form or method should be used.

It is against the law in this State for any person to treat or minister to the sick, charging for services, unless he has passed the State Board appointed by the Governor, obtained a license, and registered it with the District Clerk. Any person so treating people by any method or system, whether a regular doctor, a homeopath, eclectic, osteopath, magnetic healer, chiropractor or whatnot, is violating this law.

Contagious diseases spread because unrecognized, children die that ought to have an anti-toxin, cancer goes to incurable stages when early scientific treatment might have cured. In short enforcement of the Medical Practice Act will lessen human suffering and save life.

Human life is sacred. The State owes a duty to citizens which it wants to perform. Public opinion must co-operate with the courts.

The medical profession of Runnels County, believing in law enforcement and knowing the dangers of ignorance in the sick room, are supporting the courts in performing their sworn duty.

Will you not, as good citizens, give your Courts the same moral support? Signed:

How will the future judge of America in its present era of social dissolution which came as a reaction to the anxiety and agitation of the last war?

That is the question evoked by Milton Sills and Doris Kenyon in their latest First National offering, "I Want My Man," which opens a two-day engagement at the Queen Theatre today.

Will they see it with the eyes of Sills in his role of Gullian Eyre—a man returning after eight years' seclusion in France, during which he was seeking cure from blindness incurred in the war?

As Earl Hudson has produced it, "I Want My Man" is well acted, well directed and well told. It is a drama well worth seeing with a story of weight and moment. The film was adapted from Struthers Burt's novel, "The Interpreter's House."

The picture has been well cast. Phyllis Haver, May Allison and Paul Nicholson give excellent renditions as the victims of jazz mania. Kate Bruce and Theresa Maxwell Conover, as a pair of mothers, give contrasting portrayals of equal merit. Little Frankie Evans shows promise as a child actor.

PETE DAVIS IS NOT A BOOTLEGGER

The Ledger recently carried an account of the arrest of a man by the name of Pete Davis, the story stating that Davis was from Winters, and was charged with violating the prohibition law. The man in question was placed under $1,000 bond.

Pete Davis, of Winters, whom almost everyone knows, was not the Pete Davis referred to in the bootlegging case. There are two men at Winters by the name of Pete Davis, the one against whom there are no charges having lived in this county twenty-three years, and is numbered among the best citizens of the county. The man arrested, who also goes by the name of Pete Davis, is a new-comer and is not related to our old time friend P. M. Davis, who is better known as Pete Davis.

The editor of The Ledger knows Pete Davis who has lived here for almost a quarter of a century, and we knew at the time that he was in no ways connected with the booze case, and knowing the man as we do we naturally expected that no one else would accuse him of bootlegging. W. S. Davis didn't raise that kind of boys.

However, in this instance Pete was a little unfortunate in not having a copyright on his name.

BALLINGER SOLD OUT TO THE DEVIL

"Ballinger sold out to the devil, lock, stock and barrel, hunting dog, ram rod, shot sack and powder can," or words to that effect, was the subject announced by Evangelist Crimm for Tuesday night, and the evangelist drew another record breaking crowd. Between 2,500 and 3,000 people made up the audience which heard Rev. Crimm lambast sin.

Relating how Jacob sold his birthright for a mess of pottage, Evangelist Crimm told how people in Ballinger were selling out to the devil by living a life of sin. The preacher did not mince words in handling his subject. Using plain language, language which he said any "rough neck" could understand, the evangelist hit the most common sins of the day a solar plexus blow.

Cursing, gambling, boozing and dancing all came in for attention and the evangelist did not hesitate to express his opinion of those who indulged in such things. He stated that while Jacob sold his birthright for a mess of pottage, people in Ballinger were selling out for less. Rev. Crimm devoted more time to discussing the sin of cursing than any of the others mentioned. "Some of you are begging God to damn your soul every day," said the evangelist, "and some day he is going to do it." The preacher was unusually caustic in his attack on the habit of cursing, and declared that religion would cure any man of cursing.

While the evangelist did not devote as much time of his sermon to gambling, boozing and dancing as he did to cursing, he did not want for words in his attacks on these forms of sin, and a chorus of amens went up from time to time, indicating that members of his audience endorse what he said. If rough preaching will cause the sinner to stop, stand up and take notice, the evangelist will no doubt witness a great turning away from sin in his revival here.

is in session at Valley View, five miles West of Ballinger, dismissed for the Crimm revival, and the delegates came in. This brought in quite a number of ministers, and practically every community in the county was represented at the service Tuesday night. In addition to the delegates to the association, crowds came from Winters, Miles and other points.

The evangelist in dismissing the congregation said, "If I didn't hit you tonight, come back tomorrow night." He announced that he would continue his discussion of sin, and announced as his subject for tonight, "The Inevitable Results of Sin," and on Thursday night he will preach on "God's Remedy for Sin."

Good reports were given of the services being held each day for the children, and for the women's service each afternoon at 4:00 o'clock, with Mrs. Armstrong in charge. The choir director, Mr. Armstrong, has organized a large Sunshine Choir, and the children are taking part in the musical program.

A SMOOTH SHAVE!

You may not need a shave now, but probably will tomorrow.

When you do, remember us. Our barbers are not only skilled in the modern art of using a razor and hair cutting, but they have wonderful memories. They have a way of remembering your face and the next time you come in, will probably know just how to cut your hair and shave you without your having the annoyance of instructing them explicitly how you want it done.

Our prices are conservative and our service is faultless. It will pay you to try it at
