MAN KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

(San Angelo Standard)
John E. Hogue, 19 years old, a truck driver, died at 12:40 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the San Angelo hospital from injuries sustained last midnight when he with three companions was hurled from an automobile in an accident about five miles north of San Angelo on the Carlsbad road. Leonard Bates is still in the hospital with a hole torn in the back of his head, but has a good chance of recovery, it is stated by hospital attendants. Bryan Lane, driver of the car, a Stradbaker, and Pruitt Cagle escaped without serious injury. Turning to avoid a cotton wagon at a sharp curve is said to have caused the machine to turn over, throwing all four occupants clear of the wreckage.

Hogue was a truck driver for Roy Smith and resided at 6 West Seventh Street. Leonard Bates is a son of Walter Bates, who carries the mail from the railway station to the federal building. Lane is driver of a bus from San Angelo to Del Rio. Pruitt Cagle is an employe of Armstrong Bros. Lumber Company.

The men had taken the car without the permission of the bus line operator, J. B. Lee, the owner stated Thursday. They were not on any business of the company and were driving the car on a pleasure trip, he said. The car was almost completely wrecked. Mr. Lee did not have crash insurance on the automobile, which is one of the cars operated between San Angelo and Del Rio.

THREE SHOWMEN SERIOUSLY HURT

A fall from a truck at Brownwood may cost the lives of two show men, while a third man was hurt in the accident. The men were thrown backwards from a truck when the end-gate gave way. The Brownwood Bulletin gives the following account of the accident:

"H. B. Rexroat, age 38, of Chicago, an advertising man for the Sells-Floto Circus, is in a very serious condition at a local hospital following a fall to the pavement on Main Avenue this morning about 8:00 o'clock from a truck. Rexroat is suffering with a fractured skull and physicians hold out little hope for his recovery.

"B. T. Clements, injured at the same time, is also in a serious condition. It is not known whether his skull is fractured, but the physicians are doubtful of his recovery.

"Ed O'Malley, the third victim of the fall is resting very well. He will recover.

"The showmen are in a local hospital suffering with what is believed to be serious injuries, received this morning about 8:00 o'clock on Main Avenue near the Looney ward school, when the end-gate of the truck in which they were riding gave way and they fell to the ground on their heads.

"The three men are with Frank Mahery, one of the advance advertising men for the Sells-Floto Circus which is to show in Brownwood the latter part of this month. They had just started out to put up posters advertising the circus and were going out Main Avenue when the accident occurred. They were riding in the rear end of the truck and leaning against the end-gate for support when the chain broke, letting the end-gate down and all three men fell backwards to the ground and landed on their heads."

A new lamp, consuming 95 per cent air, has been invented. This is almost as much as an auto salesman.

MITCHELL WILL FACE ACTION

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, October 1.—Disciplinary action against Col. William S. Mitchell, air service storm center, will be renewed by the war department as soon as Mitchell completes his testimony before the president's aircraft probe board. It is expected that Mitchell will complete his testimony within the next day or two.

As soon as the investigating board is through with the officer he will be directed to report to the inspector general of the army in connection with the investigation previously ordered as to whether the language he employed in a statement made public at San Antonio, and which precipitated the appointment of a special air board, constitutes conduct to prejudice good order and military discipline.

WASHINGTON, October 1.—Commander John Rogers, hero of the thrilling adventures of the seaplane PN-9 No. 1, told the president's aircraft investigation board today that the development of the airplane had made it necessary for the establishment of a department of national defense, which would include both the army and navy.

The need for a proper scientific organization of national defense, Rogers said, was plainly apparent, declaring that the recent naval disasters were not due to any blame on the part of the navy, but he declared, "there is something vitally wrong with the navy department."

The commander, however, opposed either a united air force or a separate air corps, such as had been urged by various witnesses before the board, declaring that the problems engaging the study of the board was one involving essentially the revision of the present organizations.

LAKEHURST, N. J., Oct. 2.—In approving the gas valve system change in the airship Shenandoah, the bureau of aeronautics warned those on the ship that the new system was not as "fool proof" as the original installation and that extreme care should be taken in operation of the dirigible. This was disclosed today before the naval court of inquiry here by the reading into the records of official correspondence that passed on the subject between Commander Lansdowne and the bureau of aeronautics.

The change in the valve system was first suggested by Lansdowne in September, 1924, but was not approved by the bureau until May, 1925, and then only with the warning from Capt. E. S. Land, of the construction corps attached to the bureau.

C. I. A. WANTS INSTRUCTORS

(By Associated Press)
AUSTIN, Oct. 2.—Because the enrollment at the College of Industrial Arts at Denton, at the opening of the school, was unprecedented, President Blaney was in Austin today seeking provisions for more instructors and reported the condition of the institution as good.

Mr. Blaney declined to say anything about the recent controversy over the administration of the college.

RAINS IN DROUTH MORE BODIES RECOVERED

(By Associated Press)
HOUSTON, Oct. 2.—Rains which recently broke the long drouth in many sections of Texas had a tremendous moral effect, H. H. Schutz, government statistician here, said. The benefit to the late crops and soil also was great, but the greater effect was in changing discouragement and despair into hope and activity, he said.

The late cotton crop was helped and small bolls were given a chance to develop, but leaf worms, boll worms and weevils renewed their activities, largely offsetting the benefits. "The leafworm outbreak this season is the earliest and most severe in 10 years," Mr. Schutz said.

Covering agricultural and other activities, Mr. Schutz's recapitulation said, "An increased acreage of oats and wheat is being sown, largely to supply needed pasturage. The cattle industry is feeling the greatest activity since the 1920 disaster. The demand and price is good and stock is improving with the greening of the range.

"A good mohair and wool clip is being made and sheep and goats will enter the winter in satisfactory condition. Improvement in the hog situation is delayed by shortage of feed. Thousands of earloads of hay and corn are being shipped into Texas and more will be needed when spring work begins. The flow of milk has been cut severely by lack of green feed, while sales of canned milk show a corresponding increase, particularly in those sections which formerly raised little sorghums or hay.

"At least one good result has come from the drouth in the awakening of the people to the benefits and possibilities of irrigation. The immediate consequence has been a great demand for pumps and engines. A significant development is the purchase of large quantities of power machinery for cotton farming. It is fraught with untold possibilities.

Turning to the state of business, Mr. Schutz found building material is enjoying a good volume. Country yards are buying and exports continue active.

Wholesale dealers report net sales below those of last month and a year ago. Sale of fall goods is slow, particularly in South Central counties. In a number of lines collections are slow with less discounting of bills but bank deposits are showing a steady increase with early marketing of cotton.

ON BOARD U. S. STEAMSHIP

CAMDEN OFF BLOCK ISLAND, Oct. 2.—(By wireless to the Associated Press)—The toll of known dead on the submarine S-51 was raised to four today when divers recovered the bodies of two of the crew in the engine room compartment of the undersea boat.

The men were identified as Walter Lawton, electrician's mate, first-class, of Somerville, Massachusetts; and B. D. Lindsay, engine room second-class, of Pensacola, Florida.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Oct. 2.—The body of an officer or chief petty officer, believed to have been washed over board from the submarine S-51, was picked up by a fisherman off Stonington, Connecticut, today.

WILL NOT TRY TO RAISE SUB

(By Associated Press)
NEW LONDON, Conn., Oct. 2.—Rear Admiral Christy, who is in charge of the rescue operations at the scene of the wrecked submarine S-51, today recommended the release of the two big floating cranes which yesterday made an unsuccessful effort to raise the undersea craft.

This is taken to mean that no further effort will be made at this time to raise the submarine.

OFFICERS GET BOAT LOADED WITH BOOZE

RANGER LEARNS OF ENGLISH LAW

(By Associated Press)
AUSTIN, Oct. 2.—When Ranger Captain Tom Hickman, erstwhile cowboy and wild west show performer, was one of the three judges in the rodeo of the International Stock Show at London last year, he learned something about the English courts. And he was not a judge at that time, but a witness.

Being the only judge of the rodeo from America, the second judge coming from the Argentine and the third from the Canadian cow country, Captain Hickman was regarded as the most important witness at the trial of the rodeo operators, who were charged with cruelty to animals used in the performances. Many of the English people objected to the bull-dogging and steer roping, especially when the leg of one steer was broken and another steer lost a horn.

Called to the stand, Captain Hickman was sworn in, while standing in the witness box. Immediately thereafter he sat on the bench therein. The bailiff of the court motioned to the Texan to stand which he did. After answering several questions propounded by the attorneys, the ranger again took his seat. Once more he was told to arise. This performance was repeated several times, as Captain Hickman was on the stand for a lengthy period. Finally, the court turned to the captain and with the deepest concern evidenced in his voice asked, "Are you ill, sir?" "No," replied the tall, rangy Texan, as he sat down again.

"Stand up then," commanded the court. Somewhat surprised at the laughter from the audience, Captain Hickman asked for an explanation. He was told that unlike in the United States, the witness in England had to remain standing throughout the interrogation.

Fifty-eight persons were taken in custody today in a raid at Masonville. The arrests were made on a barge containing liquor valued at $500,000, and all those arrested in the raid were brought to the county jail here early this morning.

The crew in charge of the barge made an effort to burn the boat when the officers appeared, but state police frustrated their efforts.

MEXICAN COMMERCE THRU LAREDO ON THE INCREASE

(By Associated Press)

LAREDO, Oct. 2.—Official statistics of Mexican imports and exports through the 23rd Customs District indicate Laredo is an important gateway into Mexico. The total imports and exports for the fiscal year from July 1, 1924 through June 30, 1925 were valued at $48,772,062, 1925 were valued at $48,772,062, while for the previous year total values reached $41,326,126, or an increase for 1924-25 of $7,445,936.

Domestic merchandise exported through Laredo during the year ending June 30, 1925 reached the value of $38,714,589, or three-fourths of the total value of exports to Mexico through Laredo. Value of merchandise imported for the same period amounted to $2,306,874 out of a total of $3,332,217 worth of imports through the 23rd Customs District, an increase of close to a million dollars over imports of the previous year.

Business men here say that ending of revolutionary troubles in Mexico is the major cause for an increasing business.

Elephants with Barnes Circus

"Ain't we got fun?" Ruth and the other big pachyderms, romping with the movie stars, have just joined the Al G. Barnes big 4-ring circus, coming to Ballinger next Monday, October 5th, and is having the time of her life.

Hobnobbing with pretty motion picture actresses is a privilege which is not accorded everyone, but Ruth can't see anything to prevent her being as sociable as she likes; especially since the movie stars are getting to be her companions on the road this year.

The most resplendent and historic American extravaganza the show world has evolved, the elephants have the pleasure of "looking on." They get more pleasure and enjoyment out of one evening's part played before admiring audiences than they would out of a lifetime spent in the jungles.

One hundred fair equestriennes upon dancing horses with coats of pure gold—their natural color—one hundred baller and chorus girls from "sunkist" Southern California, former bathing beauties for the West Coast movies; three tribes of Indians from Arizona, New Mexico and Nevada, and 2,000 wild, educated, performing animals, including Lotus, five-ton, largest and only performing blood-sweating hippopotamus in the world, and a staff of 1080 people with the nationally famous Barnes 30-piece orchestra are in the big offering of the Al G. Barnes Circus this year.

You will be personally introduced to Joe Martin, the most popular movie star of them all—"The Grand Old Man of the Screen" who will be glad to give you his autograph, when the Al G. Barnes Circus comes to Ballinger.

Youngest Entrant State Fair Rodeo

Fred M. Clancey, Jr., a youngster who is attracting much attention at the Northern rodeos with his clever roping and trick riding, will be one of the entrants in the State Fair of Texas rodeo, Oct. 18 to Oct. 25 inclusive. He is the eldest son of "Fog Horn" Clancey, and a few years ago got his name in the papers because of his mysterious disappearance from home. They found him after a week or so, on an Oklahoma ranch. His love for the great open spaces had been a lure too strong. He had joined up with the cowboys during a big round-up.

WHOOPEE! WORLD'S PRIZE FORM COMING

Waco, Tex.—A noted theatrical magazine last year offered a gold medal for the finest world. Miss Sterling, the piece of attractive femininity in the Lohse and Sterling acrobatic act which comes to the Texas Cotton Palace this year, won the prize in a walkaway.

One of Miss Sterling's favorite stunts, when playing the very best vaudeville houses, like the Palace in Chicago, was to momentarily step in on one, first entrance, before the audience saw the apparatus, and just simply bow. That was enough, plenty—in the fraction of a second the audience rendered homage to class and shape—WOW!

Combine this million dollar lock with the fact that she is an acrobat of the first class, and that she appears with one of the slickest, fastest, and neatest acrobats in the game and you have more than a feature act.

FAIR DECORATOR IS COMING HERE

The decoration committee of the Runnels County Fair Association have entered into a contract with a professional decorator to come here and decorate the streets and grounds for the coming fair which opens in Ballinger October 13th. The decorator will bring a solid car load of material with him to Ballinger and when the opening parade commences the streets and Fair Park will be flying Old Glory in view of everybody.

Those who desire special decorations will be able to contract with the decorator to furnish the material and do the embellishment on anything from floats and cars to street work and store fronts.

Zulus Drown When Miracle Fails to Part Torrent

A recent attempt to perform a miracle similar to one described in Exodus and shown in the Paramount picture, "The Ten Commandments," ended disastrously, according to a cable dispatch by Associated Press from London which reads:

"Fifty Christian Zulus drowned in a spring torrent when they attempted to apply the Hebraic miracle of the Red Sea to modern waters. Coming to the nameless torrent, the natives recalled the Biblical wonders of the parting of the Red Sea to permit the fleeing Jews led by Moses to escape the Egyptians. The native leader called his men to join him in prayer. On the bank the Zulus prayed God to stay the waters so that they might go home. Then the leader advanced to the bank and struck the water with his walking staff, commanding the flood to recede. The fifty walked boldly into the water behind their leader and were drowned."

In "The Ten Commandments" to be shown on the screen at the Queen Theatre next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 7th, 8th and 9th, a modern miracle actually is performed. As the Hebrews reach the Red Sea, the Egyptian charioteers are almost upon them. A wall of fire is thrown between the two forces as Moses calls upon God to help his people in their distress. By means of a modern miracle of photography, a tremendous upheaval divides it before your eyes and two huge walls of water form a dry path between them. The Israelites pass safely to the opposite shore, but as the Egyptians attempt to follow, the waters come together and they are drowned in the deluge. These stirring scenes are among the many thrills in "The Ten Commandments."

Kenneth Harlan is more or less a peaceful young man, but has quite a good knowledge of how to handle himself when he has to. In making "The Ranger of the Big Pines," the Vitagraph picture now at the Queen Theatre, where it will be seen today and Saturday, he had to lay the villain out "cold" before going on with his business. But he did not fare so well, as the battle occurred in the open on rather rocky ground, and by the time the scene was finished both he and the "heavy" were not pretty specimens to attend an afternoon tea.

That is one thing about Harlan—when he fights he fights. He believes in making it realistic, and if his opponent wants to take things a little easy he is soon goaded into making it worth while. It is seldom that either he or his opponent doesn't emerge from the melee with some sort of damage.

"The Ranger of the Big Pines" is a fast, Western drama of the big woods. The fighting hero role is just the kind that Harlan revels in. He makes an imposing figure and gives an excellent performance.

WEBB COUNTY PAVING HAS BEEN ACCEPTED

(By Associated Press)

LAREDO, Sept. 30.—Work of paving the Webb county highway from Laredo northward 33 miles to the LaSalle county line near Cotulla has been completed and was received September 29 by state and federal engineers. This Highway No. 2 is 16 feet wide, with a one foot shoulder on each side and is considered one of the best paved highways in Texas. Its cost was $325,000.

This highway provides a connecting link from the Rio Grande and Mexico at Laredo with the Meridian Highway northward to San Antonio, with exception of the gap in La Salle county. It forms a connection with highways leading to all points of the country. Webb county paid one-third of the cost, while the other two-thirds was paid by the state and federal highway departments.

At the outset passengers will only be carried between Cairo and Basra. The route, just under 2,500 miles in length, will be from Kantara via Ramleh and Amman to Baghdad, thence to Basra and Karachi. To prevent forced landings, especially designed 3-engined aircraft will be used.

(By Associated Press)

TOKYO, Oct. 1.—Reports from Seoul, Korea, state that more than 3,000 residents of that place are dwelling in caves just as their ancestors did in a primitive age. It is believed that most of these cave-dwellers are members of the poverty-stricken, unemployed class which has been greatly augmented lately because of the industrial depression.

The Seoul authorities are declared to be somewhat perturbed over the situation and are planning relief measures in order to halt the cave-digging tendencies of the inhabitants.

Sweden's Automobile Imports Mounting

(By Associated Press)

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 1.—The number of automobiles in Sweden, government statistics show, increased from 8,506, or one for each 705 inhabitants in 1919, to 62,820, or one for each 95 inhabitants at the end of 1924. The cars are mostly American made.

The government's income from motor business last year included $1,423,314 taxes on automobiles; $774,043 on tires and $1,347,046 on gasoline.

Two thousand bars of hotel soap were found in the trunk of a woman who was recently murdered in San Antonio. The hotel have lost a good customer.

It is about time you were writing your wife's infatals to come to see you during the fair. The show promises to be a big one this year, and considerably on a larger scale than last year.

The Texas Tech opened with an enrollment of 701. Pretty good for a starter. The enrollment would no doubt have been larger had the school been located at Ballinger, the "logical" place.

A riot almost resulted in a Chicago court when the judge called for volunteers to come forward to sample a quantity of confiscated booze. Booze has been pretty well banished, but the thirst lingers.

Pecans are ripening rapidly, but you should not forget that it is just as much a violation of the law to pick pecans off the other man's trees as it is to steal his corn or cotton, and pecan growers have become more vigilant in prosecuting for such an offense.

Local bank employees are making up for time lost last summer when business was not quite so rushing around the money counters. The money is coming in and the cotton crop has hardly begun to move. Bank deposits promise to set a new record.

THE DALLAS NEWS' BIRTHDAY

The Dallas News received here Thursday, October 1st, was an anniversary edition of that popular paper. The News being forty years old—just entering the prime of its life in this most wonderful history-making epoch.

Different from most special editions, the birthday issue of The News was not a great massive volume of advertising, but was devoted exclusively to pictures and stories of today and forty years ago.

Some of the men who are making The News today helped to make the first issue of the paper, and some of them have been with that publishing company more than fifty years, being connected with the old mother paper, The Galveston News, before the Dallas office was opened.

Many pictures were used in the birthday edition showing the growth of Dallas from a country town of forty years ago to the metropolis of the Southwest today. Reminiscences of early days were also related in the historical edition, among which was the account of a hold-up in which a young man, single handed, who held up and robbed the stage between Abilene and San Angelo, which is still fresh in the memory of the old timers at Ballinger.

In its earlier life The News catered more to the development of North and East Texas, but today it spreads over the entire state and carries the news of the development of the Southwest to every country.

HERE'S SOMETHING THAT'S REALLY FREE

Texas Cotton Palace Has Unique Feature.

Waco, Tex.—Daredevils, skilled men and women, who risk their lives and limbs for the entertainment of the public, have been contracted for the Texas Cotton Palace exposition this year. No charge is made for these free acts, they being usually presented twice daily.

These acts are the ones that are truly "free" in every sense to the public but which are not free in any sense to the Cotton Palace management.

Performers who risk their lives in breath-taking and novel stunts for the entertainment of the public must be men and women of a high mentality, men and women who have had years of training at their acts, and men and women who possess an abundance of nerve.

Such performers are quite naturally hard to get, and high-priced once they are obtained.

At great expense the management has carded several high-class free acts which will be presented on every one of the sixteen days the exposition is in progress.

It has been announced that these acts will be totally new for Texas; far more enthralling and gripping than ever before.

LOWEST RATE SINCE WAR MADE PY R. R.'S

Cotton Palace at Waco Easily Accessible.

Waco, Tex.—Texas railroads have co-operated admirably with officials of the Texas Cotton Palace to make the South's most unique exposition accessible to all parts of the state at a minimum of expense. Lowest rates of recent history have been granted.

Excursions will be run over the various roads on all three week-ends of the exposition. For these excursions the ridiculously low rate of 75 per cent of one-way fare has been granted.

Your ticket agent can give you figures on the rate from the place you live to Waco during the exposition. Needless to say this rate is low—very much more so than in other recent years.

These concessions by the railroads were made at a meeting of representatives of the Waco Chamber of Commerce, the Texas Cotton Palace, and railroad passenger agents in Galveston early in August.

With the seven great railroad systems that enter Waco covering the state of Texas like a big net, there is hardly a section does not have direct rail connection.

WHAT IS EXPOSITION WITHOUT A CARNIVAL?

Splendid entertainment at Cotton Palace, Waco.

Waco, Tex.—What is an exposition without its carnival features?

The answer is simply that it isn't a real exposition. The exhibits and the merry-making apparatus are inseparably linked together.

As in former years the Texas Cotton Palace exposition is well fortified in the matter of carnival entertainment. A warpath show—the Dodson attractions—that has never before visited this section will bring entertainment of a new and elevated plane from that of other years.

The ferris wheel, with its refreshing ride and its panoramic view of the grounds, the "flying genny" with its fascination for the kiddies, the "whip" with its thrills for young and old, the "caterpillar" with its novelty, and the latest of riding and pleasure devices are included in this show.

In addition there are the side shows, with freaks and curiosities gathered from all corners of the earth.

The babble of the peanut and novelty vendors, the yells from the hamburger stands and the roading of those who operate the concessions and side shows all add together to give the Warpath of the Cotton Palace an appeal at once alluring and irresistible; a fun carnival for those of all ages.

RURAL SCHOOLS TO BE DISCUSSED BY TEACHERS

(By Associated Press) FT. WORTH, Oct. 2.—What Texas should do to strengthen rural schools will be considered at the annual meeting of the Texas State Teachers' Association at Dallas, Nov. 26-28. The rural school section of the association has completed its program, an announcement from association headquarters here said today. Burl Bryant, of Wichita county, president of the section, is urging all rural teachers to attend.

A. F. Harman, superintendent of Montgomery county, Alabama schools, will direct the discussion and is on the program for the principal address. S. M. N. Marrs, of Austin, state superintendent of public instruction, is to outline the Texas high school program for rural schools. H. L. Goernor, superintendent of Dallas county schools, will discuss the Texas School Survey, and J. R. Stedman of Valley View is to talk on rural school transportation.

Growth of the association is indicated in another statement from headquarters. Cherokee and Brooks counties are leading the state this fall, with 100 per cent enrollment in the association. Several other counties have reported high percentages of enrollment. M. S. Erwin, of Rusk, is superintendent of Cherokee county schools, and J. T. Ferguson, of Falfurrias, reported the Brooks county enrollment.

Three Things to Be Sure of in Building a Home

1. The Plan. Better safe than sorry. Be sure your plan is perfect in every detail before you build. Unconvenient and unsatisfactory arrangements, too little closet space, too few built-ins, etc., can prove a constant source of regret. They can be remedied only at considerable expense. We may be able to help you in planning your home.
2. Materials. Trying to save on first cost by using cheap, inferior materials, always proves costly in the end. It is the most unwise of all courses to take. Buy materials that will last.
3. Construction. A good contractor and skilled workmen offer the best insurance against being a victim of "the high cost of cheap construction." Improper construction is apt to result in constant expense, worry and dissatisfaction. We can put you in touch with reliable workmen.

When you build, build to last. Be sure of these three things. Bring your building problems to us. Let us tell you about our roof that lasts for fifty years.

NATION'S FINEST AT QUEEN'S BALL

Waco, Tex.—The elite of the nation, the top layer of the nation's society, will be witnessed in the most gorgeous and most elaborate Queen's ball yet to be presented at the Texas Cotton Palace Exposition, dates of which are this year, October 24 to November 9.

The Queen's ball is a feature which is entirely without a parallel in the nation—it is unique with the Cotton Palace. The honor of representing one's state at this carnival of splendor, is one that is highly sought by the debutantes of the various states.

More States to Be Represented. Already assurance has been received by the Queen's ball committee that more states than ever before will be represented. Mexico will have its representative as was the case last year.

More Texas towns will be represented by their duchesses than has been the case in former years.

Great mystery surrounds the Queen's ball preparations. The mystic atmosphere enshrouding this glamorous pageant is one of its chief features. No one knows the setting or the other details until the week of the Queen's ball. No one knows who the Queen will be until the night of the ball. Queen's ball honors—the choice of being selected to reign over the cream of the nation's society—is the highest gift that the southwestern social world can bestow.

Mystery Surrounds Ball. In addition to the identity of the Queen herself, great interest likewise attends the announcement of the various maids of honor, duchesses, debutantes, pages, and the scores of other attendants that go to make the Queen's ball a true picture of a royal court.

The elaborate settings that have always featured the Queen's ball will be observed again this year. Tremendous expense, the total running into five figures, is annually incurred by the Cotton Palace management to present to the people of Texas this colorful and unparalleled pageant.

No Charge Made. No charge is made for the Queen's ball. The surest attest to its popularity is to be found in the fact that many Waco people will come out three or four hours ahead of opening time in order to assure themselves of a seat.

The huge coliseum, with its 10,000 seating capacity has never been able to care for all of the crowds who wish to witness this pageant.

Neither is the Queen's ball the only coliseum attraction that bids for favors among the Cotton Palace throngs.

Other Pageants. The children have their day. The pageants which have been presented in the past by thousands upon thousands of Waco school children have always vied with the Queen's ball in popularity. The children rehearse for weeks preceding the exposition for their parts in this huge pageant.

"Trades balls" that have been presented in the past have likewise drawn high in popular favor. Manufacturing and business firms of Waco enter a novel and interesting exhibit and these form the "ball." These have been conducted in past years by the Young Men's Business League and since the consolidation of that organization with the Chamber of Commerce, the function has been taken over by the latter organization.

WORK PUBLIC SCHOOL CHILDREN FEATURED

At Texas Cotton Palace Exposition, Waco.

Waco, Tex.—The work of Waco's public school children as displayed in the extensive public school exhibits at the Texas Cotton Palace exposition has always been one of the most salient features of this big show.

Generous space is accorded for the school displays. Here one sees work which might have been his own back in the "good old days." Posters, drawings, penmanship specimens, mechanical figures, domestic science specimens, etc.—these kind of articles are always interesting

DR. A. S. LOVE WILL ERECT MODERN HOME

Dr. A. S. Love has started wrecking the old Victor Miller place on the corner of Fourth Street and Phillips Avenue, and will erect a brick veneer residence as soon as the lot is cleared. His old home adjoining the Halley & Love Sanitarium has been sold to the sanitarium and is now being used as a home for the nurses.

The nurses' home will be under the control of a matron and is an ideal arrangement, being near the sanitarium yet far enough away so that home life can be enjoyed without disturbing patients.

GOVERNMENT COTTON BULLETIN IS TRIMMED

(By Associated Press)

HOUSTON, Sept. 30.—Beginning October 1, the daily cotton region bulletin issued by L. H. Daingerfield government meteorologist stationed here, was trimmed to exclude the Southern counties of the state. Cotton is so far advanced in that section of the state that continuation of the bulletin for its benefit would be of little value, he said. Trimming of the bulletin will exclude from the report weather conditions for 17 stations in the Southern part of Texas.

Mr. Daingerfield said the service would be continued through October for the Northern part of Texas—that part of the state North of a line drawn through Lampasas and Temple. Cotton is later in this territory.

VICTOR HERBERT'S LAST WALTZ TO BE STATE FAIR OFFERING.

After the recent death of Victor Herbert, America's greatest composer, the manuscript of a waltz song entitled "Give Your Heart to June," was found among his effects. It is declared to be a beautiful thing, typical of the master musician, and has been made a part of the score of "Sky High," the big Schubert musical comedy offering to be given in the new Fair Park Auditorium. State Fair of Texas, Dallas, Oct. 10-25.

W. B. Woodruff and son, of Uvalde, are here seeking a location. Mr. Woodruff formerly lived at Paint Rock, leaving there in 1912. He stated that he was coming back to this country and would either locate in Ballinger or San Angelo, but was experiencing difficulty in getting a home in either place.

EAST TEXAS PLANS BIG THINGS IN STATE FAIR AGRICULTURAL DISPLAY

Although East Texas counties are in larger number than ever before this year, and are admittedly planning big things in an exhibit way, West Texas still leads in the number of reservations already made for display space in the State Fair of Texas Agricultural Show, at Dallas, Oct. 10-25.

Up to August 29, space had been assigned to thirty-one counties, of which seventeen were located in West Texas and five in the eastern portion of the state.

It is expected that a number of Texas railroads will also make comprehensive displays, independent of the exhibits by the counties traversed by their lines. Inquiries have been received from the agricultural departments of several roads, according to Superintendent J. A. Moore of the State Fair Agricultural division.

Counties assigned exhibit space among the thirty-one referred to, include the following: Foard, Donley, Lynn, Lamb, Haskell, Hale, Hartley, Lubbock, Parmer, Crosby, Randall, Dawson, Deaf Smith, Dallam, Floyd, Garza, Midland and Mitchell. In West Texas: Smith, Harrison, Gregg, Henderson, Anderson and Wood. In East Texas: Collin, Hill and Eastland. In North, Central and West-Central, and Colorado in Southern Texas: Early returns of contracts from Atascosa and Brazoria are expected, and Franklin county has already announced that it will have a big display, in connection with the visit to the State Fair of nearly a thousand of its boy and girl farm club members.

Entries for county exhibits will close Oct. 9 and all exhibits must be in place not later than 10 a. m. Saturday, Oct. 10. Forty-eight county premiums are offered this year, ranging from $250 for first to $50 each for the last thirty.

TALPA SHEEPMEN WIN RIBBONS AT ABILENE

Roy Clayton passed through Coleman early Monday morning with a truck load of Delaine sheep, the property of F. E. Clayton & Son, of Talpa, en route to Brokenridge where they are this week being exhibited at the fair in that town and county. The sheep were on display at the West Texas Fair at Abilene last week and the truck in which they were riding Monday morning gave evidence that they had commanded admiration—and ribbons.

Mr. Clayton says that Coleman county sheep men fared well at Abilene. Will Hale, I. N. Bridges and F. E. Clayton, of Talpa, showing Delaines, won ribbons galore and Edgar Jayroe of Novice, got all the prizes they had to dispose of for the best Rambouillet.

Talpa is rapidly becoming one of the best sheep sections in Central West Texas and breeders there seldom overlook an opportunity to display and exhibit their choice animals.—Coleman Democrat-Voice.

There is no better sheep raising section in West Texas than the Talpa, Novice and Crews country. Some of the best sheep exhibited at the Runnels County Fair comes from this district.

Cotton Palace Women's Department Varied and Unique.

Waco, Tex.—From the depths of the Chinese palaces, from mystic India, from the battlefields of France, from famed art galleries, and from thousands of other places are congregated the versatile array of exhibits which, taken all together, compose the woman's department at the Texas Cotton Palace. Dates of the exposition are from October 24 to November 9, this year.

Under the general heading of woman's department there is grouped a variety of exhibits: the best specimens of art, the domestic sciences, cutlery, glassware, curics, novelties, laces, tapestries, Oriental products, furniture, flowers, and numerous other interesting and unique articles.

Scores of Waco women work up the exhibit. Each year these women strive to surpass the work of the preceding year. They work untiringly, without thought of reward. It is this unselfish work and sacrifice, carried on year after year, that has made the women's department—it occupies all the second floor of the main building—such an interesting place to spend one's time.
