The only cases filed recently in the District Court here have been divorce suits, the docket in the office of Miss Georgia Singletary, District Clerk, shows today. Two divorce suits have been filed within the last week. Court does not convene here until in October and the attorneys still have plenty of time to file their suits. Only a few cases have been filed since the last term of court.

LEGION TO HAVE 4TH SERVICES

R. W. Earnshaw, Post Adjutant of the Pat Williams Post No. 8 of the American Legion will preside at the Independence Day services to be held today afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the court house lawn.
The principal address will be delivered by Frank Dickey, local attorney.

At 3 o'clock the names of the statesmen who signed the Declaration will be called and honor paid them.

Mary Pickford Plans Paris Home For "Declining Years"

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, June 30.—"I am looking for a Paris apartment where we can spend our declining years," Mary Pickford told Paris newspapermen.
"I don't necessarily mean old age when I say 'declining years,' she continued, "for one never knows when the public's taste in movie stars will change and our retirement might be closer than we expect."
Mary's choice of Paris principally is on account of its tree-lined avenues, according to her explanation. She declared that, next to Gifford Pinchot she is the most ardent conservationist in the United States and tree-planting is one of her hobbies.
Possibly the noted dressmaking shops of Paris have something to do with the apartment idea of the Fairbanks, because Mary is spending days and days in buying dresses. She says, however, she has not bought a Paris dress for two years and she must really have something to wear.

Donor of $10,000 Award Predicts Peace In Price Wars—Senator Capper Helps

Direct benefit to all lines of merchandising in which price wars are prevalent may result from a $10,000 Price Peace Plan contest, the winners in which will be decided by Senator Arthur Capper and a committee of seven other nationally known individuals.
The contest has as its aim the elimination of disastrous "price wars" and the stabilization of prices to the advantage of dealer and consumer alike.
Edward Plaut, of New York, who has provided the $10,000 in prize money, not only believes the winning suggestions will be a very definite help toward the solution of what many regard as the most difficult problem facing business today, but that the constructive thinking stimulated by the contest will in itself be a powerful factor toward bettering conditions.
"What we are after," said Mr. Plaut, "is a real solution to this problem, and it will be solved only by the combined thinking of the wholesalers, retailers and manufacturers."
"In most competitions the method of presentation of facts is considered important. We consider this of absolutely no importance, for we are after ideas, not rhetoric. In fact, I shouldn't be a bit surprised to see the jury make their first award of $3,000 to a plan written in pencil on a dealer's bill head."
"I believe that the real answer is going to come, sooner or later, from the men who sell the goods out in the field—the wholesaler and the retailer. That is why we opened the competition to every wholesaler and retailer in the United States, and that means any member of those firms from the owners down to salesmen or clerks."
In addition to the prizes for the best solution submitted from the trade, a special prize of $1,000 is offered for the best plan submitted by any professor or student of economics or marketing in any college.
Assisting Senator Capper in making the awards will be Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, Dr. Melvin T. Copeland, Nelson B. Gaakill, G. Barrett Moxley, A. W. Shaw, Dr. Frank T. Stone, and Herbert J. Tily. Mr. Plaut, contributor of the prize, is president of the Lahn & Plank Products Company, New York.

Princess Mary Only Real Race Fan in Royal Family

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, June 30.—Princess Mary is really the only member of the royal family who is an out-and-out racing fan.
The King primarily is a sailor. He raises thoroughbreds and is fond of horses, but racing is no passion with him, as it was with his father, King Edward VII. The King never bets on races.
Queen Mary has little taste for racing. She goes to the great races, however, as part of her official job. The Prince of Wales cares little for flat racing, but is much interested in hurdling and hunting. The same is true of the Duke of York.

NEW BALLOON STABILIZED BALLOON HAS USHERED IN NEW ERA TIRE MAKING

The new Dayton stabilized balloon, which the Dayton Rubber Manufacturing company of Dayton, Ohio, places on the market recently, has perhaps, attracted more general attention and created more discussion, not only of public nature, but also behind the scenes in the tire business, than any other single manufacturing innovation in the history of the tire industry, excepting, perhaps, only that which followed the announcement of the Dayton throbbed low air pressure cord, the pioneer of all low air pressure tires, which appeared originally in the prominent magazines of the country in March, 1923, following several years of experiment and development.

"The Dayton stabilized balloon" said Tommie Hall of the Hicks Rubber company, "is truly ushering in a new era in balloon tire construction. Certainly, an entirely new conception of value and expected results on the part of the public in balloon tires.

"The new Dayton stabilized balloon is specially built to give smoothness of motion, strength, safety, ease of steering, long mileage, economy and comfort.
It is built of rubber tempered by a special Dayton process, extra wide and with a semi-flat tread which gives complete road contact at deflections as low as 5 per cent, a quick grip tread that does not sing or cause rumbling."

Building Great Aqueduct

Hadrian aqueduct, built by the famous Emperor of that name 140 years after the death of Christ.

Thought Malaria Still in System

Until Dodson's Liver Tonic Drove Out Quarts of Sour Bile and Other Poisons

There are entire sections where every one seems to think they have malaria. I believe they never fully got the malarial poison out of their systems. Arnold Whitson says: "For years I was calmed for the aches, biliousness, headache, constipation and the deathly feeling associated with what we believed malaria. Last year I heard about Dodson's Liver Tonic and bought a bottle for a few cents. I took it and in a few days I felt better. I got back my appetite for food, I raced right up and haven't had a sick spell since. Whenever I feel a little bilious or the stomach gets sour, one dose of Dodson's Liver Tonic is all I need. It is surely a blessing." Hundreds of others tell the same experience. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tonic tonight and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tonic acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.

The high banked turns which were added to the track this spring are in perfect condition. Engineers and race drivers who recently inspected the track, say that it is the fastest dirt track in America.

Kentucky Race Recalls Betting Once Was prohibited in State

LOUISVILLE, July 1.—Kentucky, now one of the few states in the union, where pari-mutual horse race betting is legal, in its early days frowned upon "playing the ponies." This year millions were bet on the races by Kentuckians, who little realized that 143 years ago, a man of Revolutionary War fame, bet a mare on a horse race, was arrested and deemed, "an infamous gambler." When Bubbling Over came home ahead of the pack to win the 1926 Kentucky Derby, more than two millions had been bet thru the pari-mutuals. E. R. Brantley, owner of Bubbling Over is quoted as saying the day before the race, "if Bubbling Over wins he will be worth $500,000 to me." In May 1783, Hugh McGary, who achieved fame at Blue Licks battleground, bet the mare on a race at Higgins Path at Harrods-

Badger Predicts Fast Progress in Motion Picture Production

HOLLYWOOD, July 1.—Scientific progress in motion picture production is rapidly doing away with the idea that pictures can be made only in Hollywood or where it is sunny, Clarence G. Badger avers. Badger, who has directed many pictures for Gloria Swanson, Will Rogers and Raymond Griffith, made some predictions, with regard to what the making of movies a few years hence will be like. Quick transportation will enable movie companies to reach places where nature, or possibly man already has prepared the scenery for some desired set. North Pole pictures will be made at the North pole and not on some studio lot in southern California with artificial snow and trick polar bears. TERRIBLE PAIN

Alabama Lady Tells How She Obtained Relief by Taking Cardui. Feels Fine and Enjoys Life Now, She Says.

Talladega, Ala.—Mrs. Mary Hardy, 406 Henderson Avenue, this city, says that seven years ago she "got down sick" and was unable to attend to her household.

"I have never been so weak before or since," she says. "I had a terrible pain in my side—so sore in my side and the lower part of my body.

"Across my back ached, and I was so nervous I couldn't stand up. I had just about given up when some one who came to see me began talking about Cardui. This caused me to get it. I took about two bottles before I saw much improvement.

"After this, though, I picked up right away. I slept better at night. I was hungry, enjoyed my food, which I hadn't done for some time.

"The pain and soreness gradually left my side. I regained my strength. I took about six bottles and left off for awhile, then took two or three more. . . I feel just fine, enjoy life and can work now, too."

Cardui is purely vegetable, and contains no harmful drugs. It has helped thousands of suffering women and should help you, too. NC-168

Each year several hundred young people and some times old people gather at the camp grounds of Buffalo Gap for one week of recreation and outing. A large delegation from Ballinger will attend the encampment, it has been announced.

An abundance of pure water, plenty of electric lights and power is available, telephone service, is also to be had with plenty of conveniences over last year's camp. The camping advantages of this place are numerous and each year outside of several hundred tourist spend several days in this beautiful grove over the town.

A $2,500 swimming pool is being completed and swimming in this pool will go along with other social activities of the encampment.

A daily program has been prepared and will be carried out every day of the encampment with the exception of Sunday when special services are to be held.

Some of the most prominent leaders of the Presbyterian church will be present for addresses at the encampment.

Wingate "Peppy" Workers

Wingate has 35 "Peppy Workers" and on Wednesday afternoon, June 24th the Peppy Workers met at the home of Mrs. B. J. Smith. Roll call was answered by eighteen members. During the business session of the meeting a new president was elected, our former president, Mrs. George Miller having resigned. Mrs. Clyde Dunn was elected by a unanimous vote. We feel sure Mrs. Dunn will make a fine president and will appreciate the co-operation of the members of our club. One new member was added to the club at this meeting, which makes us a total of 35 members. Miss Key was unable to meet with us at this time, but Mrs. James Smithson, nee Miss Alvis Shaffer, who has had a course in this work at Baylor college, very ably gave demonstrations on summer beverages and desserts. Fruit punch, lemon ice and Philadelphia ice cream were demonstrated and to say the least were enjoyed by all.

The last meeting in each month has been set by this club as the time to hand our individual reports to the secretary, so she may be able to give our club report at the council meeting which takes place at Ballinger the last Saturday in each month. This time the secretary was able to get full reports from only four members and partial reports from two. Of course there is no way of finding out what our club is doing if the work is not reported to the secretary.

Miss Key urges that each member makes a special effort and have a good report ready the last meeting of this month.

Mrs. W. D. Rogers, Mrs. C. A. and B. J. Smith were appointed delegates to the Council meeting for June. The two Mrs. Smith's attended and report an enjoyable trip. Members present at the meeting on June 24 were: Mesdames Bill Dean, R. V. Rogers, Clyde Dunn, James Smithson, W. G. Barnett, M. T. Hensley, B. J. Smith, J. B. Moore, J. O. Sanford, C. A. Smith, J. L. and B. P. Ragsdale, J. B. Miller, M. D. Barron, Geo. Sietz, Dewey Whitfield, W. J. Smith, W. D. Rogers and Misses Guyrene Mott, Iris Rogers and Dickey Wilson.

Our next regular meeting will be July 14th at the home of Mrs. Dewey Whitfield. Miss Key will demonstrate yeast breads and give an instructive talk on shoes.

On June 28, part of the club met with Mrs. Charlie Smith's to watch the contestants of the biscuit contest try out to see who goes to Ballinger. We were glad to have Mrs. Barnes with us, who did the biscuit judging.

More plans were made for the encampment, colors were chosen yell and songs were practiced. Our club colors are scarlet and white. We hope our club will be well represented, especially the first afternoon, night and second day. Those present at the call meeting were mesdames, Geo. Sietz, Dewey Elza Renfro, Leonard Phillips, Clyde Dunn, Bill Dean, B. J. Smith, R. V. Rogers, B. P. Ragsdale, Barnes, J. L. Ragsdale, Miss Key and hostess, Mrs. C. A. Smith.

no doubt about it, P. A. is great makin's THE instant you open a tidy red tin or a tippy red bag of Prince Albert and get a whiff of that real tobacco, you know you are in for some grand cigarette-sessions. Yes, indeed. You take out a makin's paper and proceed to roll a cigarette that's a sure-fire winner. Because P. A. is crimp-cut and doesn't flutter all around, it rolls easier. It burns better for the same reason. And then the big thrill . . . that glorious taste! No other home-rolled cigarette can hold a candle to that. Cool. Sweet. Fragrant. Every inch a smoke! Morning to midnight, you'll roll 'em and smoke 'em. Because every wonderful puff invites another. Your taste just never wearies of this mild, mellow tobacco—good old P. A. Try this better cigarette tobacco today. It will be a smoke-experience, for a fact. If you have a pipe and want to see how much pleasure it can deliver, tamp a load of Prince Albert into the bowl. Men who thought they were all set on a smoke-program have followed this formula and have become converts overnight. No other tobacco is like this, Men.

Photoplay Stars Live for Months as "Berth Dwellers"

The entire company of many hundred "locationists" under the direction of John Ford, transplanted from Hollywood to the middle of the Nevada desert in the heart of the Pyramid Lake Indian Reservation for the filming of the big dramatic moments in "The Iron Horse" bunked during the entire duration of the location in sleeping cars.

The "movie" towns used in the film production were built far out on the desert at the foot of the Sierra Nevada mountains, making it impossible for the group to be quartered in Reno, Nevada, fifty miles distant, and the nearest city with accommodations sufficient to house the entire company.

Twenty standard sleeping cars were leased from the A. G. Barnes circus, and in these cars all members of the company made their temporary homes during the many months stay away from Hollywood.

Included in the company were Madge Bellamy, George O'Brien, Gladys Hulette, Cyril Chadwick, Will Waling and Fred Kohler, who play featured roles in the Fox special at the Queen theatre for the last time tonight.

Boring Holes in Volcano In Search of Information

(By Associated Press)
HONOLULU, June 30.—Scientists who desire to know more about volcanoes and especially the Kilauea volcano on the island of Hawaii, are boring a net work of holes around the vast crater.

The holes are being bored with compressed air drills, and are ten feet deep. There will be one every 1,000 feet.

Dr. Thomas A. Jaggar, in charge of the Kilauea volcano observatory, who is directing the work, expects to learn something about subterranean heat in its relation to volcano activity.

The holes will be encased around the top and capped so that temperature tests may be made at any time. It is thought that a rise in temperature in the holes may presage an eruption and thus serve as a log of the life of the volcano.

Experimental holes previously drilled disclosed a wide variety in temperature, seemingly without reference to the proximity of Halemanu volcano. This convinced scientists that systematic temperature observations would be valuable.

TWO FINED FOR INJURING ROAD

M. B. Bounds and C. D. Bounds sand haulers, entered pleas of guilty in the Justice Court here Wednesday, after charges of injuring the public highway had been filed against them by County officers. These two men entered pleas of guilty and each were fined $12.70.

Six other men were arrested Wednesday by Sheriff Earl McWilliams for, but it was announced at the Justices of Peace office this morning that they would fight their cases.

Acting on these cases are awaiting the return of County Attorney C. P. Shepherd who has been out of the city for the past few days.

A short time ago six San Angelo sand haulers were arrested under similar offenses and all paid fines of $12.70 each in this county. These charges were preferred by Elmer Shepperd of the Cemetery Association. The recent arrest in this situation were made by the sheriff's force after they had been notified of the sand haulers taking sand from the public high way near the Evergreen Cemetery, south of Ballinger on the Ballinger-San Angelo highway.

'The Iron Horse'

Lo! The Iron Horse! exclaimed Sitting Bull the famous war chief of the Sioux Indians when he first saw the white man's engine steaming across the plains. The phrase coined by the Indian Chief is now used by all writers as a synonym for the locomotive—the authority for this historical fact is the famous scout, Buffalo Bill.

Helped in Caring for them by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Glasgow, Ky.—"I am the mother of seven children, the eldest being only 12 years and I feel that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has helped to pull me through the roughest places of my married life. At one time I was so downhearted that life was a misery. A friend in Indianapolis, Indiana, told me of the Vegetable Compound, and after taking a few bottles of it I became myself again and it was a pleasure to do my housework and gardening. Since then I always use your medicine when I feel weak from overwork and it straightens me out."
