HATCHEL WINS FIRST IN COMMUNITY BOOTH

Hatchel citizens put in the prize winning community exhibit at the sixth annual Runnels County Fair, it was announced Thursday afternoon by the judges who scored the many community booths that were exhibited here this year.

Hatchel's exhibit scored 880 points out of a possible 1,000. This booth was one of the most beautifully arranged exhibits in the agricultural building and was one containing almost every product the scorecard called for.

Crews community exhibit was second with 851 points and South Ballinger was third with 810 points. Others were scored as follows: Wingate, 793; Drasco, 772; Bethel, 771; Rowena, 726; and Millersview, Concho county, 629. Winters, Tom Green county and Norton all had exhibits but the last three did not compete for the first awards.

C. W. Lehberg, county agricultural agent, and superintendent of this department, said that there were many more exhibits here this year than in previous fairs. The exhibits were all more complete and each is more beautifully arranged than in preceding celebrations.

"We are all well pleased with the exhibits of every department," Mr. Lehberg said, "and it is not our fault that it is raining and the crowds are not attending the fair. The livestock and poultry departments are overflowing with entries and we have the best in these two departments."

P. C. VanWinkle, of Dallas, poultry authority and judge, who judged the department here, has completed his work and returned to his home. Mr. VanWinkle also judged the poultry departments of the West Texas Fair at Abilene, the Amarillo fair, and the Texas-Oklahoma Fair at Wichita Falls.

"The quality of the poultry shown in Ballinger is much better than all that exhibited at any two of the other three shows," declared Mr. VanWinkle, "and there are also as many entries here as there were at either of the other three fairs."

Awards in the poultry department will be made later. They will be published in this paper as soon as a copy of the list of winners is prepared. All other awards will also be announced in The Ledger as soon as possible.

Judge of other departments were: Miss Helen Swift, A. & M. College; and Miss Mamie Lou Parr, Tom Green county home demonstration agent; for the women's department, and these two women with T. B. Thomas, of A. & M. College; and B. M. Whitaker, of Haskell, agricultural agent of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, judged the agricultural booths and community displays.

Mr. Nossitt, county agent from Menard; and Roy Terry, county agent from Paint Rock, were the judges in the livestock department.

The women's club of South Ballinger was the winner in the rural community club section, with a score of 84 out of a possible 100 points. Other fine showings were: Wingate, with 80 points; Hatchel, 78; Bethel, 77; Hagan, 72; and Oak Creek, 69.

In the school exhibits Bethel won first, and Norton was second. There were three school exhibits, but Winters, the third school, did not compete on account of being a Class A school.

There were sixteen agricultural booths in the agricultural building, eleven being community displays, one an individual exhibit, that of R. L. Bates, of Novice; the three schools, and the boys' and girls' clubs exhibit.

R. L. Bates, who lives in Runnels county, but gets his mail at Novice, was at the fair again this year with a prize winning dis-

HUNDREDS ATTEND FAIR IN SPITE OF RAINFALL

Rain, rain and then some rain, but all that has fallen has not yet been enough to keep the citizens of Runnels county away from their annual fair which entered its fourth rainy day Friday. Today there was by far a much larger crowd here for the fair than on any of the past three days.

The School Day parade held at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon was a feature of the day, together with the Winters-Santa Anna football game at 3:30 o'clock. There were many hundreds of school children in the parade, from six or more schools of the county, other schools being kept away on account of the rain.

With Sheriff R. E. McWilliams leading the way the Ballinger Chamber of Commerce Band in formation headed the procession which started at the foot of Eighth Street and down that street to Hutchings Avenue, West on Hutchings to Tenth Street, East on Hutchings to Broadway, and back West on Hutchings to Eighth, down South Eighth to Fair Park. The Ballinger band was followed by the Bearcat pep squad of some sixty girls of Senior high school. Following Ballinger's representation there were the various schools, Crews, Hatchel, Runnels and Herring showing representatives in the procession.

The school delegations were followed by the Ballinger Junior Band and then came the Winters Chamber of Commerce Band under the direction of Joe Ward. The Winters pep squad, niftily dressed, and other school children, followed the Winters band.

In the decorated car part of the parade, the Sophomore class was given first prize; the B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church was second; and the Junior class of the Ballinger high school ranked third.

The city fire department was represented, and following the two trucks were several students of the Senior high school dressed as representing teachers of the schools.

The Freshman, Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes of the Ballinger high school were each represented with decorated cars which showed much painstaking work, as was the B. Y. P. U., the Ballinger kindergarten, and an old model motor car, chain-driven, furnished much amusement. This car was the property of U. E. Hartman and was driven here many years ago. It was one of the first cars to make its appearance in Ballinger in the early days. This car was occupied by seven Ballinger women who had donned costumes suitable to the vehicle.

The Clown Band was almost omitted in writing this story, but they were all there again today, playing those old familiar tunes such as "Stepped Upon a Banana Peeling," "Nobody Knows How Dry I Am," etc. The bucking Ford was also on the streets again and created hysterical fear and amusement.

A slight sprinkle started falling immediately after the parade had passed. The hippodrome

AMARILLO, Oct. 15.—Early developments in stamping out of lawlessness in Borger, boom oil town, are expected soon with the arrival of federal and state authorities last night.

To make work easier, the places found violating the law will be padlocked. An order for such enforcement was issued by District Attorney Henry Zweifel, who is among the federal officers at Borger investigating the crime wave situation.

No official announcement has been made in connection with the slaying of Mildred Pothman, 16-year-old Amarillo high school girl, Tuesday night, although it is rumored that two men are being held in connection with the crime.

The buy-a-bale movement will not set the world on fire.

Yes, there is a hell. There must be, to punish the man who waylaid and shot to death a fifteen-year-old boy near Brownwood.

A few more pig and poultry clubs, a few more egg-laying contests, a few more milk buckets on the farm, will help to solve the cotton problem.

The prosecution is seeking an alibi in the Amice McPherson case. It is now claimed that somebody stole the documentary evidence in the case. Our guess is that the court will give the woman evangelist a clean bill of health.

DRINK WATER WHEN KIDNEYS HURT YOU

Take Glass of Salts if Your Back Aches or Bladder
Troubles You

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it may mean you have been eating foods which create acids, says a well-known authority. An excess of such acids over-works the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels, removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water seals and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.
This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the system, so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.
Drink lots of soft water.

WORK COMPLETE IN LEGION HALL

Mr. Taylor, representing the King Scenic Company of Dallas, is here installing three complete sets of pictures in the auditorium of the American Legion Hall on Eighth Street. Mr. Taylor arrived in Ballinger Thursday at noon and immediately went to work grouping the paintings on the walls of the auditorium.

Pat Williams Post No. 8, American Legion, has been busy during the past few months making improvements in the Legion home and the work is expected to be completed in the near future when entertainments are scheduled to take place in the hall.

The stage has been remodeled and is now much larger and more convenient than it was before the Legion took over the Carnegie Library on a 30-year lease.

STYLE

Its $ & c Value

The average man pays around $10 for his dress shoes. For $3.50 or less he can buy a work shoe that will give him more service.
The $6.50 difference represents the $ and cents cost of the stylish good looks he receives.

It costs more to build style into the shoe than it does to build service.

We pride ourselves on the fact that we are fully equipped to preserve that $6.50 worth of dressy appearance in your shoes combined with long wear.

We preserve the style that you bought in your new shoes.

New seats have been purchased and installed in the auditorium.
This work was done by the members during the past few weeks during evenings and off times.
The auditorium has been remodeled and its seating capacity has been increased. The view from the rear seats has also been made better.

New electrical equipment has been installed and the effect of the lights on the stage is very pleasing. A few connections are yet to be made in this work.

All work is about completed with the exception of installing shades and curtains for the windows, both in the auditorium and in the reception and billiard rooms on the lower floor.

The Legion is to be highly commended on their improvement of this property. The local post is the largest memberships of any

Curious Wedding Custom
BERLIN, Oct. 9.—A curious wedding custom is observed in the industrial city of Goerlitz, about mid-way between Berlin and Breslau. On the day before the wedding ceremony bride and groom walk to the cemetery and visit the graves of all departed relatives. The visit is regarded as an invitation to the deceased to be present in spirit at the wedding. It is considered that unless departed relatives are so invited, the marriage will be unhappy.

Oil Calls the Kilowatt

The estimated monthly production of oil in the field embracing the counties of Shackelford and Callahan, and the northern portion of Coleman and Brown counties, is 800,000 barrels.

Thirty-five per cent of this production, or approximately 280,- 000 barrels, is pumped by electricity furnished over the lines of company. There are 750 wells in this field equipped with electrically driven pumps. And in addition electricity is driving numerous pipe line pumping stations, machinery in gasoline plants, carbon black plants, and gas compressor stations, is driving two drilling rigs at this time and is furnishing light throughout the field.

Here is a striking example of the diverse usage of electricity in industry—and that, too, in an industry where fuel (one of the major items of expense in power production) is extremely cheap.
In a field where unlimited quantities of natural gas are available at virtually no expense, electricity, produced at generating stations many miles away, comes in to compete on an equal footing and holds its own.

No source of power known to industry is so convenient, so flexible, so safe, so sure, so economical as electricity. The preeminence of American industry is predicated on this modern miracle. Electric power is essential to its continued growth and prosperity.

That is why this company knows that it must without fail, always be ready to furnish to the territory it serves electric energy in unlimited quantities and at reasonable rates. It must do this if it is to fulfill its duty in furthering the growth of the industries of West Texas.

And it is doing that.

SECOND LYCEUM NUMBER IS SAT.

The second number of the Ballinger Parent-Teachers Association will be presented at the high school auditorium Saturday evening at 7:00 o'clock, it was announced Friday. This program will be completed before the Merchants' Carnival and Exposition to be held in front of the grandstand at Fair Park 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening.

Members of the local organization have been busy advertising the second number and a large number no doubt will attend this program before going to Fair Park to see the feature of the sixth annual fair. The association has already met the guarantee and every cent taken in for the remaining four lyceum performances will be kept at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wells of the Apollo Concert Company, compose the Apollo Duo. The duo will entertain with a program that has never been presented here before.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells gained fame and recognition as the leading members of the Apollo Concert Company, which for 18 years was one of the most popular lyceum attractions on the platform. This is the fourth year they have appeared as a duo, and their program is as entertaining and altogether enjoyable as was that of the larger group.

Mr. Wells is a very fat, jolly gentleman, who plays banjo, saxophone and bassoon. He also tells dialect stories and gives other readings that are a feature of the entertainment.

Mrs. Wells has a charming personality and her rich contralto voice lends a delightful part to the program. Her pianologues are always received with the greatest enjoyment. She, too, is an accomplished saxophonist.

They have appeared successfully in cities and towns all over the United States, Canada, Panama and Australia, and from everywhere their press notices bespeak the greatest delight with their program.

"The Riddle Rider" New Serial Starts at Queen Today

Waging a desperate hand-to-hand battle to stop a careening stage coach, the runaway horses drawing it hurling the conveyance over a high cliff, is one of the feats performed by William Desmond as a thrill in "The Riddle Rider," astounding new Universal chapter play, the first episode of which will be shown at the Queen Theatre today and Saturday.

Desmond and William H. Gould perform this thrill, with Eileen Sedgwick, co-star with Desmond, on the whirling coach in the episode. Their rescue is an amazing trick of filmdraft.

Desperate rides, sensational adventures and hair breadth escapes mark every moment in this hard-riding, swift-moving new Western story, which is built around the battle between the old-time range riders and the oil sharpers invading their territory.

Desmond plays a dual role, appearing as the editor of a newspaper and also as the mystery rider who terrifies the oil land plotters.

"Kentucky Pride" Fox Film at Palacae Today-Saturday

A unique story, entertainingly told by a thoroughbred, two thrilling horse races, a superb cast—both equine and human—unite to give powerful appeal to the William Fox romance of the turf, "Kentucky Pride." This novel attraction which gives intimate glimpses of such world-famous race horses as Man o' War, Fair Play, Negofol, Mervich and others is the feature attraction at the Palacae Theatre today and Saturday.

J. Farrell MacDonald, Henry Walthall, and Gertrude Astor are seen in the principal roles.

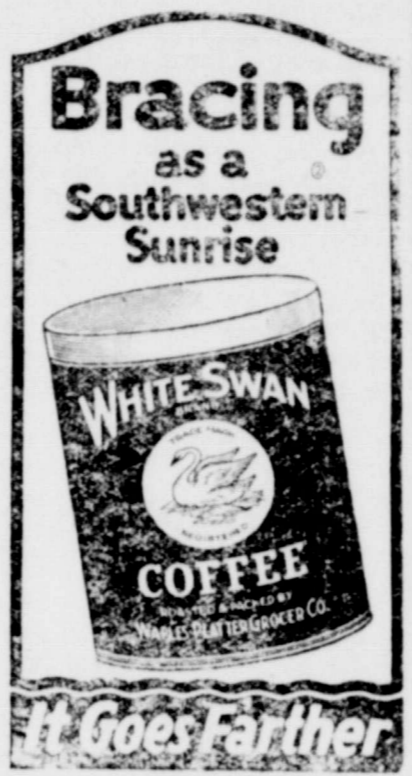

As told by herself, the appealing story of "Kentucky Pride" concerns the thrilling, adventurous, tragic and triumphant career of a thoroughbred filly. She reveals with heart-touching pathos the sorrows of her defeat when, with the responsibility of her master's daughter's future vested in her, she falls and breaks a leg in a sensational and thrilling finish to a whirlwind race. How years later her own daughter effaces her disgrace and restores shattered fortunes is depicted in a tremendous and thrilling climax—another breath-taking and nerve-tingling horse race.

Boys in U. S. Learn What Others Think

(By Associated Press)
BOSTON, Oct. 14.—If steamships carrying the mails from foreign countries find the letter bags unusually heavy they can blame some of it on Dr. Sven V. Knudsen.

Dr. Knudsen is government inspector of the national schools of Denmark and is in America on a two year leave of absence. While here he conceived the idea of boys in various countries of the world writing to boys in other countries. His idea is that international understanding can be accomplished only if started with the youths of nations.

"Older folks already are set in their ways," said Dr. Knudsen. "They are unable to grasp the viewpoint of the foreigner. The boy, however, has an open mind and he is eager to learn how boys of other countries do things."

"Perhaps it is surprising to an American boy to find that a youngster in Egypt thinks along the same lines that he does, and that they have much in common. The more than 3,000 letters that have been interchanged between American boys and boys of other countries shows that boys of different nations are interested in one another."

Dr. Knudsen, who was professor of education at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio during the past year, obtained the co-operation of "The Open Road," a magazine for boys published in Boston, and in its columns published the names of boys in foreign countries to whom American boys could write and receive replies in English. These names he obtained from Danish consuls and from friends in educational work in the various countries.

Dr. Knudsen believes the exchange will promote an understanding that will last through the years. He hopes to publish a world directory of boys that will be available in school rooms and libraries throughout the world.

The girls, well, Dr. Knudsen thinks they should be able to write letters to each other, too. But just now he has his hands full taking care of the boys.

Airplanes For Sale

Cheap—by the Pound (By Associated Press)
DAYTON, O., Oct. 15.—When Uncle Sam moves the engineering division of the Army Air Corps, now at McCook Field, to the new Wright Field, he is going to sell a lot of airplanes, cheap. But they will sell by the pound of wood or metal to the junkman.

On the "dump" at the salvage depot there are upwards of 20 discarded ships, and the number probably will be swelled to 30 when moving day comes.

These airplane include American, English, French and German ships, grim trophies of aerial battles in France. Their war paint—battleship gray with red,

CAPTURES GAMBLERS WITH HELP OF BREAD WAGON

Sheriff Earl McWilliams, Deputies John White and Calvin Robertson raided the Dentler barn, South of Ballinger Thursday evening and corralled eight men who were enjoying a dice game.

Sheriff McWilliams said he had been trying to catch the bunch for several weeks but alleged spies of the group were out and tipped off the dice shooters each time. Thursday afternoon the sheriff's mind came into action and he chartered a bread wagon for the trip.

The sheriff took his seat in the rear-end of the truck and the driver drove the truck right up to the door of the room where the game was in progress. The officer jumped out of the rear end of the vehicle and entered the door, finding the eight around the circle and rolling the bones. Two escaped, but eight were corralled and brought back to the city where fines of $22.70 were assessed against each one.

Some paid off while others made arrangements to pay off in the near future.

DR. W. B. CALDWELL AT THE AGE OF 83

Mother! It's Cruel to "Physic" Your Child

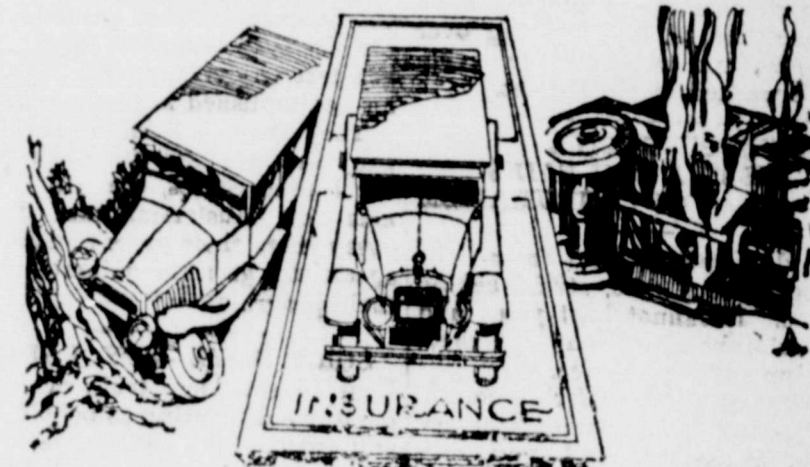

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated infants and children had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all children's little ills, he did not believe that a sickening "purge" or "physic" was necessary.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which helps to establish natural bowel "regularity" even if the child is chronically constipated. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but, best of all, it never gripes, sickens or upsets the most delicate system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless, and so pleasant that even a cross, feverish, bilious, sick child gladly takes it.

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine or write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE and just see for yourself.
