GASSER BURNS NEAR HOUSTON

(By Associated Press)
HOUSTON, June 11.—A gas well in the Pierce-Junction field near here, described by workers as the largest on the Gulf coast, caught fire today.
Efforts are being made to bring it under control.

CATTLE STAMPEDE FLATTENS 5-STRAND FENCE

(By Associated Press)
SAN ANGELO, June 11.—A stampede of many cattle, a frequent thing of yore, but of late existent largely in works of fiction, lived again on the Bar S Ranch in Reagan county recently.
Two thousand steers belonging to Frank Harris and Ralph H. Harris, of San Angelo, being trailed from the Harris brothers' ranch in the center of Reagan, Crockett and Upton counties to a ranch near Water Valley, became frightened about day-break, presumably by the shouts of a cowboy rounding up horses for the day's drive.
In the mad rush, a five-strand wire fence was flattened out, but the only damage done was to a number of the steers who were cut by the wire and to the feelings of the herders who put in the better part of a day rounding up the steers in brush land. Some of herd leaders ran six miles before being headed off.

Government Chiefs Welcome Hero

Emblems of Europe's Highest Honors Return with Lindbergh

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, June 11.—With the world as his chess board Charles A. Lindbergh surpassed even Wonderland's Alice at the game by moving from pawn to King's row in three jumps.
And, like the chess queens who move any distance in any direction, the aviator returns to his starting point aboard a warship, unhampered even by the custom's red tape that annoys ordinary mortals, to be the guest of President Coolidge and the nation.
The first jump of the obscure air mail carrier was from San Diego to St. Louis. He made the 1,550 mile trip in the record time of 14 hours and five minutes, and landed on the inside pages of newspapers whose attention was concentrated on the Mississippi flood and the more elaborate preparations of other proposed New York to Paris expeditions.
The second jump, from St. Louis to New York, also broke a speed record. He made this 950 mile trip in little more than seven hours, and landed on the first pages of the newspapers.

The last and hardest jump, 3,600 miles mostly over sea from New York to Paris, he made in the amazing time of 33 hours and 29 minutes. He landed on top of the world.
A New York clipping bureau cut 300,000 news articles—nearly four times as many as for the death of President Wilson—on the feat of the youth who set out for Paris with letters of introduction so he would not be unknown. Kings, president and premiers vied with uncontrollable throngs of their subjects and fellow citizens to do him honor.
When he landed at Le Bourget flying field, fearful that he would not be recognized, his first words were, "I am Charles Lind-

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Lindbergh, the Conqueror, came back to his native shores today amid such welcome as few returning heroes had received before him.

From the moment the cruiser bringing him home again, came to her berth in the navy yard, swarming thousands surged against the lightly drawn police lines, joyously acclaiming the smiling pilot.

Keeping close to her schedule, the Memphis and her distinguished passenger came alongside the pier at 11:00 o'clock.

Dressed in civilian clothes, Lindbergh stood on the bridge. He surveyed the crowd without giving any sign. Then as a cheer went up from the throng, the flyer waved his hand in response.

The aviator was first greeted by his mother, aboard the Memphis.

The trip to the Washington monument then started, where the hero was welcomed by President Coolidge on behalf of the nation.

Secretary of War Davis handed the Distinguished Flying Cross to the president who pinned it, the first of its kind, to the lapel of the world hero's coat, below the French Legion of Honor decoration.

Then Lindbergh advanced to the microphones to reply, the crowd stopping him with a roaring demonstration. When he had quieted them, he said:

"At every meeting I attended in Europe, they told me 'you have seen the affection of the people of Europe for the people of America. On your return to your country, take back our message as it was given you'."

At that all the crowd cheered. They cheered again as the president and Lindbergh shook hands. President and Mrs. Coolidge took Lindbergh and his mother to the White House, where they will be guests while in Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh was welcomed home today by President Coolidge as "in illustrious citizen of our republic, a conqueror of the air, and a strengthener of the tie which binds us to our sister nations across the seas."

Concluding his brief address of welcome, the president bestowed upon the aviator a Distinguished Flying Cross as a symbol of appreciation for what he is and for what he has done.

$250,000 WORTH OF BREAD
FOR SANTONE SOLDIERS

(By Associated Press)

SAN ANTONIO, June 11.—More than a quarter of a million dollars worth of bread is made by the army to feed San Antonio soldiers every year, a check of the two bakeries at Ft. Sam Houston reveals. Most of it is made at the bakery school, but a great deal is produced daily by Bakery Company No. 1 at Fort Sam Houston.

Kelly Field, Brooks Field, Camp Normoyle, Duncan Field, Camp Stanley and Fort Sam Houston are supplied from these bakeries. In addition to bread the bakeries make buns, parker house rolls, cinnamon rolls, coffee cake, buttered buns, finger rolls, cakes, pies and a variety of fancy pastries.

MINERAL WELLS, June 11.—A hen egg measuring 6-1/2 by 7-1/2 inches in diameter and weighing a quarter of a pound, one of the largest seen here in a long time, was exhibited on the streets recently by John Holland. The egg was laid by an Ardelean hen, Holland said.

bergh. Then he had to be rescued from a mob of thousands that fought for a glimpse of him.

LINDBERGH'S MEDALS

Cross of the Legion of Honor—France.

Medal and Pin of American Lafayette Escadrille.

Royal Air Force—Great Britain.

The Order of Leopold—Belgium.

Aero Club of France Gold Medal.

Swedish Aero Club Gold Plaque.

Distinguished Flying Cross—United States.

Medal of Valor—New York State.

Various other clubs and societies have proposed awarding their badges of merit to Lindbergh, several of which are expected to materialize during his American receptions.

A movement already has been started to give him the Congressional Medal of Honor when Congress convenes.

himself to the French people by his first official act when he visited the mother of Charles Nungesser, for whom France was mourning.

Medals were showered on him. France gave him the cross of the Legion of Honor; England the Royal Air Force Cross; Belgium the Order of Leopold; the Aero Club of France its gold medal and the Swedish Aero Club its gold plaque. His own country decided promptly to bestow the Distinguished Flying Cross, the first to be struck; New York state offered him its medal of valor; a movement was started to have congress give him the Congressional Medal of Honor when it convenes.

France broke all precedents to accord him the honors of royalty. The American flag was raised at the foreign office, an honor shown ordinarily only to visiting sovereigns. He was received on the floor of the Senate Chamber, given a municipal reception, kissed on both cheeks by President Doumergue and others, and songs about him were sold on the streets like newspapers.

From Paris he went to Belgium, where King Albert not only received him in state and decorated him, but returned his call. Then he went to England where the King received him, and he was entertained by the Prince of Wales.

The youth who set out in a $13,000 plane, on a $20,000 expedition, partly financed by $2,000 of his savings, won nearly $100,000 in prizes, of which $25,000 was the Raymond Orteig prize for the first plane to cross the Atlantic. He was offered millions—one motion picture offer alone was for one million—to go into the movies or vaudeville. He rejected or postponed decision on all offers.

"We are not actors," he said of himself and plane. "I am an aviator and expect to keep on flying. I think I can get my old job."

Postmaster General New in Washington said to this: "He can have anything in the shop."

New York and Washington were rivals for the honor of being first to entertain him on his return. Washington won when President Coolidge invited him to return on the cruiser Memphis.

And of the flight that brought the honors, even Orville Wright declares that there was only one chance in three of success. But Lindbergh was more confident, giving all credit to his machine, equipped with a Wright whirlwind motor, and an earth inductor compass which he claims made navigation easy.

TRIO ENJOYS GOLF AT EXPENSE OF TWO

Friday afternoon much interest centered around a matched game of golf played on the links of the Ballinger Country Club by five of its most enthusiastic members: A. J. Thorp, J. G. Douglass, C. L. Baker, W. A. Nance and W. B. Halley.

The flag started at 5:00 o'clock and was refereed by Bob Herring, who was elected by the quintet as a non-interested party. At the third hole the flag stood: Nance, 13; Baker, 14; Halley, 15; Douglass, 16; and Thorp, 16.

At the finish of the sixth hole the flag stood: Nance, 28; Baker, 29; Halley, 29; Thorp, 32; and Douglass, 33.

At the ninth hole, Thorp was on the green at two while other players were in at three. Thorp here, had a chance to tie the score, but the little white pill went awry, owing to the extreme nervous tension of the player and failed to settle in the cup.

The score at the end of the game was as follows: Baker, 43; Nance, 43; Halley, 43; Thorp, 44; and Douglass, 45.

Dr. Halley says his locker is well lined with golf equipment for the tournament at the club on the Fourth of July.

FIREMEN LEAVES FOR CONVENTION

Chief Louis Cohen, Chester Cherry, J. D. Motley, president, and family, representing the Ballinger Volunteer Fire Department, will leave Sunday for San Antonio to attend the annual convention of the State Firemen's Association to be held in that city next week.

Chief Cohen, a fire chief of considerable experience in Texas, is a candidate for the fourth vice-presidency of the state organization. Members of the local department have been boosting Mr. Cohen during the past few months for this office and expect him to be one of the leaders in the race for fourth vice-president.

A number of other members of the company will go down next week to attend the convention, but the three men named above are going early to do a little electioneering before the meeting gets under way. Members of other departments from all over Texas will also be in San Antonio ahead of time and the local firemen hope to get the other delegates lined up.

Summer White House

In the South Dakota state park in the Black Hills, where President Coolidge and his family will spend the summer, it will not be difficult for the executive to have complete privacy. This close-up glimpse of the lodge is the first the tourist gets upon entering the park.

Movies

"The Love Thief" is Gripping and Flashy

Drama, comedy and a gorgeous background are the outstanding remembrances of the opening performance of "The Love Thief," at the Palace Theatre yesterday. The picture closes a two-day run tonight.

Rapid action, a sweet love story, and some clever comedy to relieve the dramatic moments are the "makings" of this pot pourri of entertainment.

Norman Kerry and Greta Nissen are the featured stars.

Duels, fights, disgrace, escape and final happiness occur in rapid succession to the impressive background of lively court scenes, beautiful sets and attractively uniformed men.

Gene Stratton Porter Novel Coming to Palace Screen

With little Gene Stratton, granddaughter of the famous novelist, heading a beautifully balanced cast of players and stealing many of the acting honors, the most recent Gene Stratton Porter novel to reach the screen comes to the Palace Theatre Monday and Tuesday of next week when "Laddie" will have its initial premiere in Ballinger.

James Leo Meehan is responsible for the handling of his celebrated mother-in-law's work, and the photoplay version of this perennially popular story is a masterpiece of faithful and skillful reproduction of that spirit and warmth which animated the book. "Laddie" as a book had a circulation of more than a million copies.

Bess Flowers, as Pamela, is a radiantly beautiful English girl, while the work of John Bowers in the title role is superb. The remainder of the supporting players is up to this standard.

Mrs. George McCulley and young son came in Friday from Brownwood and Coleman, where she had been on short visits to relatives and friends, and is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Skinner.

Mother First to Greet Lindbergh

tues, has endeared him to everyone.

"He has returned unspoiled," Mr. Coolidge said, "and has brought his unsullied fame home."

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The dreams of mothers came true today for Evangeline Lodge Lindbergh greeted her son who had been laden with honors by all the world.

Just one among millions seeking sight of the famous New York to Paris flyer, the mother honored her offspring today, traveling from the White House to the navy yard to see her boy arrive in triumph and eagerly sought his eye from the crowd which gazed upon the tall figure of Lindbergh on the bridge of the cruiser Memphis, while the son in turn sought his mother among the throngs.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Even after Lindbergh had disappeared into the temporary White House, there were many who were not satisfied and an immense throng formed in front of the house, clamoring for a sight of their hero.

Lindbergh at last responded, leaving the presidential dinner waiting and a few moments afterward President and Mrs. Coolidge and Mrs. Lindbergh also appeared on the balcony with the flyer.

Lindy, however, did not speak again.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Over a triumphal way lined with cheering throngs and leading to the highest honors a nation can bestow on heroes of the air, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh came back today to America.

Smiling and waving his acknowledgement, the young air mail pilot, who spanned the Atlantic and reaped reward in adoration of foreign lands, stepped ashore shortly after 12:00 o'clock from the cruiser Memphis.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—A batch of 52,000 telegrams addressed to Charles A. Lindbergh, in care of President Coolidge, was delivered to the White House today in one load.

He made out the application and returned them to the fish commissioner who in turn sent the order to the San Marcos hatchery for filling.

J. S. Neeley and Dr. Fred Tinkle, of Winters, also received fish for lakes in their section of the county.

ACHED ALL OVER

Was Suffering Dreadfully, Just "Wasting Away," Took Cardui, and Says It Helped Her.

Arlington, Texas.—A resident of this town for many years, Mrs. J. H. Jackson, says:

"I had suffered dreadfully with an aching all over my body. At times my head would give me so much trouble I could hardly stand it. I had been in bed for weeks and it looked like I was just wasting away. I took 9 bottles of Cardui and my strength began to slowly return."

"Since that time I have used this medicine a good many times and it has always helped me."

"At one time I took Cardui for several months regularly. I would be afflicted with sudden spells of dizziness when I could not stand on my feet. Everything would turn black before my eyes and I would feel as if I were going to faint. At times I would be quite nauseated. I turned at once to Cardui and took it till I was safely through."

Cardui is a mild, medicinal tonic, made from purely vegetable ingredients. It has been in use for over 50 years, and in that time thousands of women have written that Cardui helped them back to good health. Sold by all druggists. NC-152

(By Associated Press) GREENCASTLE, Ind., June 11.—Among students who fall asleep in classes at DePauw University faculty members never have found a woman.
