GENERAL ELECTRIC Refrigerator

Unusually roomy and substantial

Lots of space to store food—that's what you want in an electric refrigerator. The smallest model of the General Electric Refrigerators (the one illustrated) has the unusually large shelf area of nine square feet. And, automatically an even temperature is maintained—perfect for ideal refrigeration.

There isn't a single belt, fan, drain-pipe, or stuffing box in the General Electric Refrigerator. There's nothing to get out of order. All the mechanism, built with General Electric skill and tested in the General Electric laboratories, is hermetically sealed in a single steel casing. A permanent supply of special oil is enclosed. This absolutely eliminates the task of oiling—for all time.

You are cordially invited to come in and see the refrigerators. Ask as many questions as you wish. Look in, under and behind them. And meanwhile, if you wish, the coupon below will bring you an illustrated booklet which tells more about these remarkable refrigerators.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—A new strike of more than 350,000 union miners in twelve states threatens for April 1, the United Mine Workers' officials reported today to the special coal committee which returned from a week's investigation in the Pennsylvania fields.
Texas miners are included in the expected strike.
The committee believes that some legislative remedy must be found before the great unrest spreads to other industries.
The committee denounced the alleged misuses of injunctions in labor disputes, characterizing them as "outrages."
An injunction has been issued forbidding strikers to congregate to sing hymns in a little church at Rossiter, Pennsylvania.

Just two more days and the month of March will be ushered in by Papa Time. Here is hoping it comes and goes like a lamb.

Many people will have a birthday tomorrow, February 29. It will be their first in four years.

Ballinger's forward progress continues with first one thing and then another. At present oil activities are pushing this city gradually and not with a boom.

West Texas is to have an eight-club baseball league this year with almost every neighboring town having a team. Coleman is going into the league, it is understood. Ballinger citizens know why Ballinger is not in this league, and Coleman citizens will probably find out why after being a member three or four weeks.

Plans for the 1928 Fair are to be started Wednesday afternoon at a meeting of the stockholders here. We understand there is much work to be done and that all directors and department heads are to help do this work. The Fair has reached the point where it would mean a great loss to Ballinger if it did not grow as much as the remainder of the county institutions.

It looks as if there still might be some interest in the county political races this year, with incumbents of two offices now having opponents. There may be others. Some of you "slackers" who failed to pay your poll tax and won't get a vote now, will probably wish you had taken the free advice offered about the latter part of January which read something like this: "Pay your poll tax."

The Rotary Club, Ballinger's newest service organization, meets every Wednesday at 12:30 o'clock at the Central Hotel. This club has done wonderful work in almost every city where it was chartered and time will tell just how much good it will do in Ballinger. This city has needed

SAVE VALUABLE LOGS BURIED IN RIVER 50 YEARS

(By International News Service) PITTSBURGH, Feb. 28.—Millions of finest white pine timber will be dug up from the bottom of the Allegheny river here where it has been buried as "piling" a half century or more.

Approximately 52 years ago some of the best white pine along the banks of the Allegheny river was cut down to make timbers sixteen inches square to be driven into the river bed so as to form the base of piers on which could be built Old Point Bridge, landmark where the Monongahela and Allegheny rivers join to form the Ohio river.

But the old bridge was torn down recently. The piers on which it rested were removed, and a new bridge was built close by.

Recalled By Old Timers

Steamboat men and veteran river pilots recalled the huge pieces of timber had been imbedded under the bridge piers to form a base upon which they could be constructed.

At first it was believed the pine was waterlogged and would never bother river traffic. The War Department has issued orders concerning the removal of the bridge, but nothing had been said about the timber.

One day one of the huge logs was loosened from its bed. It immediately shot up to the surface and floated down stream. Steamboat captains and rivermen became frightened lest the river's constant surge around the piles should loosen more logs, and some boats damaged or destroyed.

An appeal was made to the City Council, and rather than to endanger the lives of the boatmen it was decided to remove the old logs.

Profit To Contractor

The piers rested on bases 34 by 94 feet square, and the depth to which the old piles were driven is not known, but believed to be anywhere from 25 to 50 feet or more. There will be millions of feet of perfectly good lumber brought to the surface, it was stated.

Although the City of Pittsburgh will spend in the neighborhood of $2,500 to have the timbers removed, it will not profit by the sale of the lumber after they have been thoroughly dried and prepared for marketing, it was stated here. The contractor who has agreed to undertake the task of digging up the huge logs will derive the entire benefit from their resale.

Fireman Lived Eight Years With Broken Spine

(By International News Service) LONDON, Feb. 28.—After astonishing the medical profession by living nearly eight years with a broken spine, James Sinfield, a London fireman, has died at the age of 54.

While fighting a fire in May, 1920, a floor on which he was standing collapsed and he was precipitated 25 feet.

He was taken to a hospital seriously ill, and given 24 hours to live.

But he made a recovery which doctors regard as miraculous, and lived to draw a handsome pension from the Fire Brigade for eight years.

L. B. Campbell, representing the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, has been in Brady the past few days and, in company with C. A. Blasig, local C. of C. secretary, has not only been seeking renewal of local memberships in the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, but has been endeavoring to secure new ones in addition, in order that Brady may have membership and standing in the West Texas body in keeping with her rank among the cities of Texas, and in line with that of her neighbors.

Good progress was reported by the committee at the luncheon club yesterday, as the service of the West Texas C. of C. is becoming recognized by merchants and business men as of vital benefit and importance.

Coleman has 45 memberships and Ballinger 45 memberships in the W. T. C. of C., and it is hoped that Brady will take memberships comparing favorably with these.—Brady Standard.

Acid Stomach

"Phillips Milk of Magnesia"
Better than Soda

Hereafter, instead of gods take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly. For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. It neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges the soiling waste from the system without purging. Besides, it is more pleasant to take than soda. Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty-five cent and fifty cent bottles, any drugstore. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Charles H. Phillips Chemical Co. and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.

RABBIT DRIVE IN HAGAN COMMUNITY NEXT WEEK

There will be a rabbit drive in the Hagan community next Tuesday and Wednesday, March 7 and 8, it was announced by residents of that section in town on Monday, here shopping.

Dinner will be served both days but the exact place has not yet been decided.

The first day's drive will be started from the D. Oliver place. Ballinger people and everybody are invited to help staph the rabbit pests.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Schleyer and baby of San Angelo visited relatives in Ballinger on Sunday.

Paving Program May Be On Three More Streets

Three other streets in Ballinger may be paved or partially paved, City Secretary J. R. Lusk said Tuesday morning, when asked if citizens on Tenth and Eleventh streets had yet presented a petition to the city commission asking the program to be extended over these two streets.

It is understood that petitions will be presented to the commission before the present program is completed and that many of the residents on both streets are very much in favor of the plan to pave these two streets.

At present Tenth street is open across the Santa Fe tracks but Eleventh street is closed and if it is decided to pave Eleventh street, a crossing will probably be made over the tracks to open the passage to the south end.

Harris Avenue, running in front of the Senior High School, will more than likely be paved. Residents and property owners, it is understood, have agreed to pave this avenue and it is believed that all are in favor of this program. The avenue is used very much, and the city commission will probably see fit to pave the street.

The city is busy opening up a new street this week. It is between the school property and Broadway, which is being put in to condition to be paved.

An appropriate name for the new two block drive would be School Drive. The city street force is grading this short drive and is putting it into excellent condition. Until the new Senior High School was erected, this was only an alley.

Much of the curb has been laid on Eighth street, while excavation on Broadway is well under way. Broadway will be paved from Sharp Avenue to Bousal Avenue, the full width of 50 feet while from Bousal Avenue to Park Avenue, it will have an 18-foot strip, but from Park Avenue back to the Santa Fe tracks which is connecting with the downtown paving, it will again be 50 feet wide.

The city has definitely decided to pave this street this way due to the fact that property owners on the first three blocks off Broadway, just north of the Santa Fe tracks, do not want the paving as decided on by the commission, and the Citizens Committee, which consisted of citizens residing on Broadway and Eighth streets.

The city water expansion program for the present has been completed, Mr. Lusk said. It is not known yet just what action will be taken on the paving of West Hutchings Avenue, where some of the citizens are opposed due to the cost of the storm sewer which must be built with the paving in order to take care of the waters from the hill when it rains.

Copper connections have been made in all other parts of the city where the paving is to be laid under the city's first program.

"During the next few days we will probably start a water line toward Hillcrest Addition," Mr. Lusk said. "Roy Reeder, of the Reeder Realty Company says the firm is ready to take the water line on as soon as the city has laid a line to the city limits."

ORANG OUTANG AND TOM CAT ARE PALS IN ZOO AT ST. LOUIS

(By International News Service) ST. LOUIS, Feb. 28.—Down in jungle town at the local zoo all is well, but it took the arrival of Tommy from New York to dispel the gloom surrounding the cage of Bimbo, a new orang outang, also from the metropolis.

Tommy is just an ordinary cat to the casual observer but to Bimbo he is solace from a life of imprisonment. Bimbo was purchased in New York a few weeks ago for $1,100, but when brought here, she drooped and George P. Vierheller, director of the zoological exhibit here, feared Bimbo might worry herself to death.

Investigation showed that Bimbo during her stay in New York en route from her native jungles had struck up an acquaintance with Tommy by first grabbing the cat and yanking him into her cell and later by exchanging the anecdotes that a homesick simian and a housecat will. So Tommy was brought here.

When Tommy arrived, Bimbo pulled him from his crate and the two friends had a reunion celebration. Now they are playing together daily and both are happy.

MOTION PICTURE PEACE MESSAGE TO ALL NATIONS

By William Parker (International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Feb. 28. The motion picture as a messenger of peace and good will to every land was exemplified here when the first American-made pro-German film settled down for a "run" in one of the important theatres.

It was "Four Sons," which Hollywood has been hearing for some time, was written around Madame Ernestine Schumann-Heink and her four sons, three of whom fought on the German side and one with the American forces.

Story in Film In the film story the mother is a Bavarian woman, a housewife, no attempt being made to make her appear to be a concert singer.

The picture had its premier performance before a cosmopolitan audience representing Los Angeles and Hollywood. There were tears and cheers and no disapproval in the Carthay Circle Theatre when the invited guests rose to go home.

The theme of the story was expressed by an American "dough-boy," on the battlefield who spoke a title:

"I guess those Heinies have mothers too."

In the cast was Ferdinand Schumann-Heink, son of the

OLD GERMAN WAR HERO TRAVELED OVER WORLD TO SEE BUFFALO BILL

(By International News Service)

CLEVELAND, Feb. 28.—Taking for his inspiration, the late "Buffalo Bill," Count Felix Von Luckner, picturesque German war hero, who sank many allied ships during the World War, related on a visit here, how, at the age of 13, he started for America to find his hero.

This famous German war hero asserted he reached Col. Cody's Denver home only after he (Von Luckner) became a champion prize fighter in an Australian province, sailed in British, Russian and Norwegian ships and became a member of the Salvation Army. "In my endeavor to keep my promise to my parents that some day I would be a lieutenant." When he arrived at Buffalo Bill's home he found his idol was in Germany. More years of travel and Von Luckner finally gained a lieutenantcy in the German army, the first German naval officer to rise from the ranks in the Imperial Navy of his country.

He told how he transformed an old sailing ship into a famous raider, sank $25,000,000 worth of allied shipping without the loss of a single life, either of his own forces or of the enemy.

WORLD'S GREAT VOICES SAVED FOR POSTERITY BY BRITISH MUSEUM

LONDON, Feb. 28.—The voices of Caruso, Melba, Tetrazzini, McCormack and other world-famous singers of today and yesterday will not be lost to posterity.

Recognizing the historical significance of the phonograph, the authorities of the British Museum have set aside a fire-proof chamber containing receptacles in which repose phonograph discs upon which are engraven the voices of the world's great singers.

Side by side with those of singers rest discs of the voices of Kings and Queens, statesmen and soldiers.

Among the voices so preserved are those of statesmen like Asquith and Lloyd George, soldiers like Earl Roberts and Earl Kitchener, explorers such as Perry and Shackleton, and unforgettable singers like Caruso and Patti.

In an adjoining room the Museum authorities are collecting a series of films depicting life as it exists today, including State processions, great feats of strength and war, and other notable ceremonies.

COWBOYS WILL PLAY IN N. Y.

ABILENE, Feb. 28. — West Texas will be represented on Broadway this summer.

The Cowboy Band of Simmons University, the original and only cowboy band in the world, has been booked by Gilbert Sandifer, manager, to appear at the leading theatres of Manhattan from July 1 to September 20.

Previous to the New York engagements, the band will play along the road on the way, being booked by Frank T. Kintzing, nationally known agent who handles engagements for Creators and other large bands. They leave Abilene June 1 in new 34 passenger parlor buses to arrive in time for the New York dates.

Sandifer had no difficulty in interesting the theatrical men of the great city in the band. That "cowboy idea" was something new to them and they told the Simmons representative that his band could stay on Broadway as long as it liked.

While in New York, Sandifer also signed a contract bringing Galli-Curei, world's greatest soprano, to Abilene. She will sing at the university auditorium on the evening of April 2.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Mrs. Annie Kwinski of 525 1st Avenue Milwaukee Wis., writes that she became so weak and run-down that she was not able to do her housework. She saw the name Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the paper and said to her husband, "I will try that medicine and see if it will help me." She says she took six bottles and is feeling much better.

Mrs. Mattie Adams, who lives in Downing Street, Brewton, Ala., writes as follows: "A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and since taking it I feel like a different woman."

With her children grown up, the middle-aged woman finds time to do the things she never had time to do before—read the new books, see the new plays, enjoy her grand-children, take an active part in church and civic affairs. Far from being pushed aside by the younger set, she finds a full, rich life of her own. That is, if her health is good.

Thousands of women past fifty say they owe their vigor and health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and are recommending it to their friends and neighbors.

"LUCKY LINDY" CLUB ORGANIZED

Hatchel High School recently divided her pupils into two divisions from which two Literary clubs should be organized. The most enthusiastic object of these clubs are to compete with each other. They will be sponsored by Mrs. Leora Richardson, the elementary teacher, and Miss Inez Esmond, the primary teacher.

A meeting was called Friday, 3:30 p. m. for the purpose of organizing. First, in order to create life in our club, we gave it the peppy name of "Lucky Lindy." The following officers were elected by majority vote: Ernestine Moore, president; Wilens Hoppe, vice-president; Louise Bales, secretary-treasurer, and Rosmund Pruser, reporter. President Moore then nominated Lola Henniger, Lillian Reams, Lesla Reams, and Mrs. Richardson as the program committee.

The next meeting will be held Monday at 4:10 p. m. at which a program will be arranged, and club motto, colors and flowers will be selected.

Watch our progress. —Reporter.

S. D. WILLIAMS CLUB

The S. D. Williams Club of Hatchel met February 24, 1928, for the purpose of electing officers. The following were elected: President, Ran Honeycutt; secretary, Miss Otelia Mae Bowen; program committee, Misses Inez Esmond, Opal Lett, and Eula Bowen.

W. H. Esmond made an interesting talk about why he did not want girls to use paint. Miss Irene Wessells talked on the same subject.

The reason we gave our club the name it has is because every one loves Mr. Williams as if he were their grandfather. He has been to every opening of the Hatchel school ever since it was begun, excepting the opening of 1927, when he was attending court. He comes to the school during the year and tells stories to the children and they enjoy it. Every child was glad that we named our club the S. D. Williams Club, and I am sure he will be.

The club has two sides. One has thirty-five members, and the other has thirty-eight. The name of the other club is the "Lucky Lindy."

ANN ARBOR TO REPEAL ORDINANCES AFFECTING HORSE CAB AND SALOON

(By International News Service)

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Feb. 28.—Ordinances of the city of Ann Arbor which designate the hours saloons may be open, define the boundaries of the districts in which they operate, and which order horse drawn cabs to be

"securely tied unless under the absolute control of the driver will be repealed soon if the plans of Roscoe Bonisteel, city attorney, are carried out.

These and other equally antiquated laws are on the city statute today, and are being widely attacked.

Getting a Loan from Your Bank

Some persons think that getting a loan from the bank depends upon the humor the banker happens to be in or upon the influence of the intending borrower.

Nothing could be farther from fact.

A banker is handling the community's money as well as the bank's own capital.

He is under both moral and legal compulsion to apply principles that govern the extension of credit. He cannot allow personality, friendship, or bias to influence his decisions one way or the other.

The officers of this institution have a live interest in the development of business enterprises in this community as our commercial depositors well know. While decisions must always be based upon sound banking principles, a sympathetic hearing is assured every application for accommodation.
