Texas Group Of Utilities Being Probed

(By International News Service) WASHINGTON, June 13.—Methods used by Texas utility companies to spread propaganda for the electrification of farming sections of Texas are being investigated by the Federal Trade Commission.

Charles W. Davis, vice-president of the Dallas Power & Light Company, and chairman of the Texas Public Service Information Bureau, principal witness in the investigation, revealed that in campaigning in rural communities the utility companies obtained strong support from A. & M. College and other institutions, adding that contact between power companies and the educational system of the state is of 30 years standing.

W. A. Bridwell and Joe Huffman went to Dallas Wednesday to procure new Fords for the Harwell Motor Company.

Crews Man to Get $11 Bounty For First Wolf

R. W. Damron, who resides four miles south of Crews, bagged the first grown wolf reported for the county since June 1, at which time the bounty offer went into effect. Mr. Damron was awarded $11 for his shot.

The Rummels County Wolf Club pays $10 of the bounty and the Commissioners Court pays $1. The bounty for wolf pup scalps is $3. This scale will remain in effect until July 1, when the bounty will be increased to $5.

Funds of the wolf club have been raised by a self-assessed tax of one cent per acre of land owned by the members. The treasury now contains approximately $1,000, and additional funds are being donated by ranch owners. Individual offers as high as $25 per scalp have been made.

Coronation of Epworth League Carnival Queen

A fair-sized crowd attended the Epworth League carnival at the Methodist Church Tuesday afternoon and night, and a large audience witnessed the coronation of a queen of the carnival at 8:30 o'clock.

Miss Claudia Smith was declared queen, winning the election by a large majority. Coronation ceremonies were presided over by Rev. R. B. Hooper, pastor of the Methodist Church, who crowned the queen.

Queen Claudia of the House of Smith was seated by Princesses Ollie Gene Cordill, Margaret Morley, Frances Cotton, and Mabel Bigby. Little Mary Simpson was a flower girl, and Anna Katherine Doss was crown bearer. The queen was followed by Ben Denny and Jennie Lee Denny as train bearers.

A variety program was given in connection with the coronation ceremonies. This represented the principal feature of the carnival.

Attractions characteristic of the well known concessions of the midway were provided, such features as mystery shows, wild animal shows, and illusions being arranged.

Proceeds derived from the carnival were assigned to the Epworth League funds.

Anti-Creager Delegates Of Texas Ousted

(By International News Service) KANSAS CITY, June 13.—A test vote on accepting a minority report of the credentials committee which involved the seating of the anti-Creager delegates from Texas lost by a vote of 395 1-2 to 676 1-2. This vote constituted the first test of Herbert Hoover's strength.

KANSAS CITY, June 13.—When Mabel Walker Willebrandt, chairman of the credentials committee, presented a report of the committee, the Republican National Committee adopted it by viva voce vote. The Texas anti-Hoover delegates started a stampede for a roll call on the minority report, carrying their fight against R. B. Creager of Brownsville to the floor. The roll call was granted, and when preparations to start were begun, at 1 o'clock Chairman Fess ruled that the Creager delegates could not vote.

Ballinger Boy Yellow Jacket Track Captain

Clarence ("Nig") McCarver, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McCarver, of this city, was elected captain of the Yellow Jacket track team of Howard Payne College, Brownwood, for the coming year, according to a news story appearing in a recent issue of the college publication.

"At a recent meeting of the lettermen in track," the article reads, "Nig McCarver, stellar sprint and hurdle man of Coach Shelton's track team, was elected to head the Yellow Jacket track destinies for the forthcoming year."

"Nig McCarver won eighteen points in the conference meet held in Abilene recently, and barely missed winning twenty points. He set two new records, one in the 100-yard dash and another in the high hurdles. He also won first place in the low hurdles and took second in the 220-yard dash, being nosed out of first place by T. McCollum of Simmons by a very few inches."

"McCarver is expected to have a fine season next spring, and with the number of old men returning, besides the new ones that will come in, should captain a championship team."

Nig was a member of the 1926 graduating class of Ballinger high, and will be in the Junior class in Howard Payne next year. He was active in high school athletics, serving as captain of the football team, and playing a prominent part in track.

Disastrous Landing of Italia Is Detailed for First Time

(By International News Service) ROME, June 13.—After several hours of silence, another radio message was received today from General Umberto Nobile, commander of the wrecked polar dirigible Italia, which for the first time revealed additional details of the disastrous landing of the ship.

The crash occurred at 10:30 o'clock on the morning of May 25. The gondola housing Nobile and six others was splintered, and two of the crew sustained broken legs.

Other members of the expedition aboard the dirigible at the time of the crash drifted with the bag until a landing was effected several miles away. Swedish Professor Malgrin and Italian Naval Commanders Zappi and Mariona left for Cape North seeking rescue, and are unheard from yet.

Heavy rains were reported from points south and west of Ballinger. Windstorms of threatening proportions struck in places, and rains of unprecedented intensity were experienced in some sections.

Creeks were reported to be swollen, and still rising Wednesday morning. The Colorado River reached a 5-foot increase in depth here Wednesday, and tributaries upstream were reported to be pouring immense volumes of muddy water into it.

A diagnosis at the hospital revealed that Mr. Reeder's condition was not as serious as had at first been feared, and surgeons stated that he would be out within a week.

(By International News Service) TREPASSEY, New Foundland, June 13.—Miss Amelia Earhart, Boston aviatrix, and her two flying companions again today made two ineffectual attempts to hop for Europe in the monoplane Friendship. Winston Hooper Enters Olympic Race In Boston

Winston Hooper, son of Rev. and Mrs. R. B. Hooper of this city and graduate middle-distance star, will go to the national final Olympic try-outs at Boston next month, according to a Dallas News story quoting Dr. R. N. Blackwell, business manager of athletics of Southern Methodist University.

Hooper holds the Southwestern Conference record for the mile run. He will enter the 800-meters run at Boston, however, as it was this event in which he qualified in the divisional trials at Dallas last week.

Hooper will leave Dallas this week for Iowa State College, where he will train with Ray Conger, star from that school, who will accompany him to Boston.

Rev. and Mrs. Hooper have made their home here during the past two years, during which time Winston has visited them, and become acquainted with many Ballinger people.

(By International News Service) KANSAS CITY, June 13.—An embittered crowd embracing hundreds of anti-Hoover farmers made an unsuccessful attempt to storm the Republican National Convention today at assembly hour when they were barred from entering by policemen. The irate farmers attempted to force an entrance, but were repulsed by the policemen.

Permanent Chairman Moses flatly refused the farmers permission to march through the hall, so they marched around on the outside to the accompaniment of a funeral dirge.

KANSAS CITY, June 13.—Republican platform committee adopted a plank calling for vigorous enforcement of the national prohibition law. The wording of the plank characterizes it as the most sweeping dry program ever adopted by the major party.

Senator William E. Borah led the fight for adoption of the plank, and Senator-Elect William S. Vare led the opposition.

KANSAS CITY, June 13.—The program of the day for the Republican National Convention was announced as follows: Opens at 10:30; receives reports of committees on resolutions; credentials, rules, and permanent organization; elects permanent chairman.

Jack Chancey, 7-year-old grandson of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Chancey, is here from Ft. Worth to spend the summer with them.

Mrs. C. W. Lehmberg is visiting in Fort Worth.

Senator George H. Moses, of New Hampshire, in accepting the chairmanship, revealed that the Republican leaders envision Gov. Alfred E. Smith of New York as the Democratic nominee.

Attacking Tammany Hall, Smith's "dampness," the disfranchisement of the negro in the South, Democratic fiscal parties, and graft, Senator Moses called upon the Democrats to bring on their candidate, declaring: "We welcome him with hospitable hands to a bloody grave, and we care not whether his name be Brown, Jones, Robinson, or Smith."

Homer Shanks Is Candidate For Congress

Homer Shanks, of Clyde, has announced his candidacy for congress from the 17th district, subject to the Democratic primaries. Mr. Shanks has opened his campaign headquarters in Abilene, where he is keeping in close contact with the voters of this district. He was here in the interest of his campaign Tuesday.

Mr. Shanks was born near Rockdale, Milam county, Texas, July 27, 1886. His father died when he was only 14 years of age, leaving his mother with eight children to support and heavily in debt.

Through floods and insects, crops were short and prices low and the bare necessities of life were all the large family could have during the early years of childhood, yet Homer was always a student and went to the country school and normal schools and Simmons summer school until he qualified himself to teach in the public schools where he worked through six successive terms. He was also a student at Draughon's Business College at Abilene.

He was then elected tax collector of Callahan county, later moved to Cottonwood to run a country bank, then came to Clyde to organize the First State Bank, where the deposits grew within six months after he took over the bank from $13,000.00 to $130,000.00.

He then organized the Callahan County Farm Loan Association which has loaned more than a half million dollars to farmers on long time and low rates. He has also organized other stock companies and co-operative enterprises in his home town, which include gin companies. He was twice elected president of the West Texas Ginners Association, at Abilene, and last year was elected president of the State Ginners Association at Dallas, where he has made thousands of friends. He was also last year elected vice-president of the West Texas Farm Loan Men's Association at Big Spring.

He holds the position of Secretary of the Clyde Chamber of Commerce which place he has held for several years where he has accomplished a great success in advertising the Clyde fruit and truck section and in organization of the various industries of the Clyde country for mutual benefit. He has led the movement to clean up the fence-rows and plant the large acreage to young fruit trees in the Clyde section where it is estimated some 125,000 trees have been planted within the last three years, Shanks leading the planting with more than 6,000 trees.

His experience in business covers farming, dry goods, general mercantile, banking, farm loans, gins, cotton buying, abstractor.

He is in close contact with agriculture and takes a great interest in its progress as is evidenced by his platform in his race for congress.

Being a close student of politics and government all his life gives him a vast fund of information along these lines which he is using to advantage in his active campaign.

Mr. Shanks offers the following as his platform:

1. Opposes market manipulations.
2. Will work for a plan to handle surplus crops, stabilizing prices.
3. Will actively work to bring factories to West Texas, supporting measures for building large dams, such as Elephant Butte and Roosevelt.
4. For improvement of roads.
5. For protection of producers.
6. For equal pay for women who do same work as men.
7. Against cancellation of foreign debts.
8. For strict enforcement of 18th amendment.
9. For assistance of all disabled veterans.
10. For active, prompt, efficient, personal service to constituents.

"The Valley of the Giants," with Milton Sills, at Palace Today

Milton Sills has made his first picture among the huge redwoods of California. It is "The Valley of the Giants," First National release, which is showing today and Thursday at the Palace Theatre. The production is the picturization of Peter B. Kyne's romantic story of the big trees. With a company of fifty, Sills went on location at Scotia, California, near Eureka, and in the heart of the redwoods. Amid trees towering 300 feet into the air, the oldest living things on this continent, Sills worked in scenes for the story.

"The Valley of the Giants" was produced for First National by Wild Gunning, with Charles Brabin directing. Doris Kenyon plays opposite Sills, and the company includes Arthur Stone, Paul Hurst, Yola d'Avril, Charles Selton, George Fawcett, Phil Brady, and many others.

Sills has an ideal role as the hero of Kyne's virile story, and First National spared no efforts in making the production one of the finest of the year.

One big feature of the picture is the wreck of a loaded logging train, with train and logs actually plunging into the Eel River.

Severe Wind Is Reported at Christoval

E. E. King learned through a telephone communication with his wife Wednesday morning that a terrific windstorm swept the Christoval vicinity shortly after 12 o'clock Wednesday morning. Several trees were uprooted and broken off, and telephone posts were crashed. No casualties nor serious property damage had been reported, however, she said.

Mrs. King with her father is accompanying her niece, Miss Hortense Holt, and Mrs. Frank Swafford, who are attending the art colony session in Christoval. Other art students from Ballinger include Mrs. W. B. Halley and Mrs. H. H. Thomson.

Students and visitors at the art colony are quartered in buildings provided for the Baptist encampment of this district. A number of the buildings are equipped only as summer lodges, and those quartered in such buildings were thoroughly drenched by the rains which poured in sheets, Mrs. King declared. Mrs. Halley and Mrs. Thomson were among the students who were veritably soaked, she said.

Mrs. King stated that a report received there early in the morning indicated that considerable damage resulted from the storm at Eldorado. The gale preceded rains of great intensity there, she said, and the creek at Christoval is swelling rapidly.

Millions of Families Depend on Dr. Caldwell's Prescription

When Dr. Caldwell started to practice medicine, back in 1875, the needs for a laxative were not as great as they are today. People lived normal, quiet lives, ate plain, wholesome food, and got plenty of fresh air and sunshine. But even that early there were drastic physics and purges for the relief of constipation which Dr. Caldwell did not believe were good for human beings to put into their system. So he wrote a prescription for a laxative to be used by his patients.

J. B. Caldwell M.D. AT AGE 93

The prescription for constipation that he used early in his practice, and which he put in drug stores in 1892 under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a liquid vegetable remedy, intended for women, children and elderly people, and they need just such a mild, safe, gentle bowel stimulant as Syrup Pepsin. Under successful management this prescription has proven its worth and is now the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. The fact that millions of bottles are used a year proves that it has won the confidence of people who needed it to get relief from headaches, biliousness, flatulence, indigestion, loss of appetite and sleep, bad breath, dizziness, colds and fevers. Millions of families are now never without Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and if you will once start using it you will also always have a bottle handy for emergencies. It is particularly pleasing to know that the most of it is bought by mothers for themselves and the children, though Syrup Pepsin is just as valuable for elderly people. All drug stores have the generous bottles. We would be glad to have you prove at our expense how much Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can mean to you and yours. Just write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, and we will send you prepaid a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE.
