Assassin of Obregon May Escape Death

(By International News Service)

MEXICO CITY, July 25.—A possibility that Jose de Leon Toral, slayer of President-elect Alvaro Obregon, may escape death for his deed, loomed today. Leaders of the Obregonista group believe that Toral was merely a tool in the hands of laborites. In a statement demanding the removal of labor party members from office, they declared that would be true justice and death of the assassin was not necessary.

SHOWERS HELP GROWING CROPS

Precipitation for the Ballinger sector since Saturday afternoon totals over 2 1/4 inches, with indications of still more rainfall. Local showers have been reported from over the entire county, ranging from a half to three inches. Heavy rains fell in sections Tuesday afternoon, three inches being recorded for a strip of territory surrounding Rowena. Miles had a half-inch shower Tuesday afternoon, and Paint Peak reported an inch and a half. Precipitation at Winters was between one and one-half inches, and the rain continued into Abilene.

The cotton crop of the county will be greatly benefited, and prospects for a fair feed crop in sections are brightened. Grazing lands will be greatly helped, and with a continuance of showers a bountiful supply of stock water will be accumulated.

Attendance at the Pecan Springs picnic was small, due to rains in that section. Persons in attendance dispersed at 2 o'clock, when a heavy downpour began. The entire northeast section of the county was swept by terrific rains, which extended to near Ballinger. Intermittent showers were falling at press time Wednesday afternoon.

Service of the local telephone system has been interrupted as a result of wet cables received by recent rains. More than a hundred telephones have been placed on the "trouble list," and linemen of the company are working rapidly toward repairing faults.

Texas produces about seven per cent of the total raw materials of the United States and manufactures 1.6 per cent, valued at a billion dollars per annum.

T. P. PERKINS IS VISITOR HERE

Hon. T. P. Perkins, of Mineral Wells, spent Tuesday night and a part of Wednesday morning in Ballinger. He was here in the interest of his candidacy for congress, having made a speech here several weeks ago. He was making a flying trip of the entire district and was scheduled for speeches in Rochelle, Cherokee, and Llano Wednesday.

"The people of Ballinger and county have been very me in this campaign," he said. "I want them to know I appreciate most sincerely all they have done in my behalf. I am confident I shall lead the ticket Saturday by a plurality over my opponents of three to five thousand votes."

Mr. Perkins is to speak in Abilene Thursday night and finish his campaign Friday night with a dress at Brownwood.

How They'll Look in the Ring

This picture shows how Champion Gene Tunney (left) and the "old rock from down under," otherwise Tom Heene, Australian challenger, will look a few brief seconds after they crawl through the ropes at the Yankee Stadium on the night of July 26. Both men are confident as they swing into the last lap of their training for the bout.

ACCEPTS ISSUE OF PROHIBITION

(By International News Service)

PALO ALTO, Calif., July 25.—Prohibition will be made a definite issue in the approaching presidential campaign, with Herbert Hoover taking the dry side in his speech accepting the Republican nomination.

He has completed his acceptance speech, and will come out strongly for enforcement of the eighteenth amendment. His closest advisers claim that the candidate will not pussyfoot on the subject, and his declaration will be more clear than his reply to Senator Borah's questionnaire some time ago, considered in many quarters as a "middle road" attitude.

CARPENTER IS KILLED TODAY

(By International News Service)

HOUSTON, July 25.—H. V. King, carpenter working on the new 35-story skyscraper being erected here by the Jesse Jones interests, was instantly killed today when a wheelbarrow fell fourteen floors through an elevator shaft, striking him.

BOOSTERS VISIT IN SAN ANGELO

A motortroop of seven automobiles bearing the local band and Ballinger boosters left here for San Angelo at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning, to pay that city a good will trip in recognition of the convention of the Sheep and Goat Raisers Association of Texas, and incidentally to advertise the Runnels County Fair, which opens October 9th.

H. H. Carney, band director, and J. D. Motley, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, were in charge of the delegation. This is the first of a series of trips that will be conducted for the purpose of advertising the county fair.

A concert was given by the band on the streets of San Angelo.

ELABORATE RECEPTION FOR WARDLAW PLANNED

REMUS GRANTED TIME EXTENSION

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, July 25.—The labor department today granted George Remus, "king of the bootleggers," recently acquitted on grounds of insanity in connection with his trial on charges of murdering his wife, until October 1st to furnish proof that he is a citizen of the United States, and not subject to deportation as an undesirable alien.

Remus was born in Germany, and brought here as an infant by his parents.

SET EXECUTION DATE OF NEGRO

(By International News Service)

NACOGDOCHES, July 25.—Judge C. A. Hodges today set August 27 as the date for the execution of Tom Ross, negro convicted of the ambush slaying of Dave Patterson, paymaster for the Frost Lumber Industries, near here last August.

The negro shot and instantly killed Patterson, who was en route to a hardwood camp of the company, with a payroll of about $1300, and escaped with a dummy money bag which was carried as a decoy by the paymaster.

A Mexican toreador has just been granted a pension of $15,000 a year, but there won't be any great rush of American bullthrowers to Mexico.—Uniontown Herald.

Through the materialization of plans inaugurated at a meeting of more than 30 men in the office of County Judge Paul Trimmer Tuesday night one of the most elaborate home-coming rallies witnessed in West Texas will be staged here Friday night, when Judge Louis J. Wardlaw closes his campaign for governor of Texas. An audience of at least 3,000 persons, coming from every point in the county and surrounding counties, is expected.

The gubernatorial candidate will be met by the Ballinger Booster Band and reception committees, and a rousing welcome will be given for the home-coming of the first Runnels county native entering the race for governor. A spirit of loyal friendliness toward this West Texas son will prevail, and every effort will be made to extend the most significant welcome to Judge Wardlaw.

An intensive advertising campaign in the entire surrounding territory was launched Wednesday morning, and several committees were active in making arrangements for the appearance of the candidate. Coneho, Coke, Coleman, and Tom Green counties will participate in the reception, and other counties will cooperate in making it a most successful event.

The following committees were appointed Tuesday night: Advertising committee: Edwin Day, W. C. Penn, Joe Ostertag, and Judge Paul Trimmer.

Arrangements committee: E. F. Batts, Malcolm Wardlaw, and J. D. Johnson.

Finance committee: Louis Cohen, Jack McGregor, and Lon Mapes.

Entertainment committee: G. G. Odom, Oscar Pearson, and Frank C. Dickey.

SOUTH TO RUN TRUE TO DEMOCRATIC TRADITION

(By International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 25.—The Democratic national campaign in the solid South will be waged under the personal direction of Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, from national headquarters here, following John J. Raskob's announcement that he saw no reason for an independent southern headquarters.

The brilliant Mississippi senator, a member of the national advisory committee, brought Chairman Raskob renewed assurances that "there is no doubt about the South running true to Democratic tradition."

Senator Harrison's selection to conduct the southern campaign followed, and he stated: "The party has a finer chance for success than in any general election in a generation."

NEW YORK, July 25.—First-hand reports that the religious question had been raised against Gov. Alfred E. Smith in Oklahoma were brought to the Democratic national headquarters by J. J. Shouse, of Kansas, a member of the national advisory committee.

Shouse, McAdoo leader four years ago, declared that were it not for the religious question, there would not be any fight in Oklahoma.

The Democratic chief offered the prediction, however, that Smith will carry the state, because of the nature of the campaign against him.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Robert L. Owen, for 18 years Democratic United States senator from Oklahoma, today came out in support of Herbert Hoover, Republican presidential nominee.

Owen's renunciation of the Democratic ticket was announced in a typewritten statement handed out personally by him at Republican headquarters in the Waldorf Hotel. He declared that Hoover was the best qualified man presented by either party during his life time, and said that Oklahoma will vote overwhelmingly against the Democratic ticket as fear of Tammany Hall's extension through the nation.

ALBANY, July 25.—Governor Alfred E. Smith announced today that he would leave Albany Friday afternoon for New York city to confer with Gov. Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland on the situation in his state and other border states.

SHIP SHAD TO JAPAN IN PROPAGATION PLAN

(By International News Service)

ST. HELEN, Ore., July 21.—The United States Bureau of Fisheries, in response to a request made by M. Tokuhisa, of the agriculture and forestry department at Tokyo and who is here studying American fisheries, have seined a number of healthy shad from the Columbia River and are preparing to ship them to Japan for propagation purposes.

Large barrels filled with Columbia River water will contain the funny tribe while they are being transported to Japanese waters aboard a fast steamer. Other shipments will be made, Tokuhisa predicted, if this experiment proves successful.

Many voters ponder upon the expression "the choice of the people." When the people have no voice in saying who shall be a candidate, what choice do they have, other than the approval of one of a few self-appointed office seekers?

The Texas Democratic primary of 1928 will soon be history, but before it passes into that transitory state the voters will have thrust upon them countless alibis by defeated candidates. After all, what purpose does such alibis serve? The fact remains that the candidate was defeated. However, it is not the deserving candidate who always wins; in a day of political trickery oftentimes the most corrupt is given the honor of holding high office. Democracy will have been in existence several hundred years before a more desirable condition will be witnessed.

Baby Dorothy Moore
Texas Mother Proves Claim

Children don't ordinarily take to medicines but here's one that all of them love. Perhaps it shouldn't be called a medicine at all. It's more like a rich, concentrated food. It's pure, wholesome, sweet to the taste and sweet in your child's little stomach. It builds up and strengthens weak, puny, underweight children, makes them eat heartily, brings the roses back to their cheeks, makes them playful, energetic, full of life. And no bilious, headachy, constipated, feverish, fretful baby or child ever failed to respond to the gentle influence of California Fig Syrup on their little bowels. It starts lazy bowels quick, cleans them out thoroughly, tones and strengthens them so they continue to act normally of their own accord.

Millions of mothers know about California Fig Syrup from experience. A Texas mother, Mrs. J. G. Moore, 119 Cliff Ave., San Antonio, says: "California Fig Syrup is certainly all that's claimed for it. I have proved that with my little Dorothy. She was a bottle baby and very delicate. Her bowels were weak. I started her on Fig Syrup when she was a few months old and it regulated her quick. I have used it with her ever since for colds and every little set back and her wonderful condition tells better than words how it helps."

Don't be imposed on. See that the Fig Syrup you buy bears the name "California" so you'll get the genuine, famous for 50 years.

SCIENCE PLANS ERADICATION OF WHITE PLAGUE

By George L. Scott
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

PORTLAND, Ore., July 25.—Those who toil with microscope and test tubes in a ceaseless struggle to overcome the ravages of the "white plague" are being slowly rewarded with success for their efforts and today science is looking at the disease as a "curable thing," according to Dr. H. J. Corper, chairman of the pathological section of the National Tuberculosis Association.

Dr. Corper in an interview here gave a message of hope to the thousands now afflicted with the malady. "The reports of research work now in progress point hopefully to control of this problem," he said.

"Today we are looking at the disease as a curable thing. Its mortality toll is decreasing. We know tubercle bacilli can be destroyed and that tuberculosis in favorable cases can be arrested."

Seek Eradication

"Science is working toward eradication of tuberculosis. It will come by first appreciating that the disease is curable and then striking at the heart of the germ both in and outside the body. The campaign against tuberculosis has two fundamental aims: The destruction of bacillus at its source and the building up of the health of the individual."

"We have passed historically speaking, through the period when tuberculosis was believed to be an always fatal and hopeless disease. Today we are concerned more with the healing processes, their mechanisms and how we can bring the balance to bear on this side of the equation."

"Studies on the protein fraction have provided a purified protein tuberculin fraction which has been studied with gratifying results and will soon be available for use to replace the former, impure old tuberculin."

Near a Solution

"The separation of definite fat fractions from the human tubercle bacillus have led to the isolation of the saturated fatty acid unit possessing the property of rapidly stimulating the multiplication of the monocyte in which the tubercle bacillus lives" during its early residence in the body. Later studies indicate that preliminary treatment with this fraction greatly augments the rapidity with which tuberculosis develops in certain animals. If this is true," he concluded, "it may be assumed the opposite is true and it may be we are on the threshold of our final journey."

HOME OF EMERSON HOUGH HAS "FOR RENT" SIGN AS RELICS ARE SCATTERED

(By International News Service)
NEWTON, Ia., July 25.—Hopes of civic organizations for preserving the old home of the late Emerson Hough as a shrine perpetuating his memory have been shattered.

The house, built by the author's father, Joseph Hough, is almost entirely of black walnut construction. The son installed modern improvements but his parents' old furnishings were kept intact.

On Emerson's death his sister, Ella, still stayed on in charge of the homestead. Now she, too, has passed away. And the furniture, books and antique glassware the author loved so well have been sold or given to relatives and friends.

Able Support for Harry Langdon in Latest Laugh Special

Harry Langdon, king-pin comedian, gets able support in his latest comedy-frolic, "The Chaser," which is amusing audiences at the Palace Theatre today and tomorrow.

Langdon is cast as a much-married man who suffers from too little affection and too much mother-in-law. This, coupled with that irresistible patomime for which he is famous, makes the picture one of the outstanding comedy hits of the year. Seldom has a production lived up to its bright promise as does the last Langdon show, which might well be termed a "scream-line model."

Gladys McConnell, former Wampas baby star, is once more seen as Harry's leading woman, while Helen Hayward takes the part of the mother. Bud Jamison is the boy friend with whom Harry is continually getting into trouble, and twenty-five of Hollywood's most beautiful bathing girls help to make the screamingly funny picnic scenes a riot of merriment.

DOES THE SHOE PINCH?
The shoe bill pinches all but the favored few—so does the new shoe. Why not give your feet a real treat and buy new soles from our shop, instead of new shoes?

They will look as good as new—and feel better. There is as much difference in the quality of Resoles and the skill in applying them, as between good and cheap new shoes—more perhaps.

Skilled workmen in our shop, rebuild shoes with the most modern shoe factory machinery.

Hard, flinty, heavy weighing, acid-swelled, thick soles are dear at any price. In our shop, we resole with the same weight of leather that your shoe was originally built to carry. We do not "cobble"—we rebuild.

If you look in your closet tonight you will probably find several pairs of shoes needing new soles or new heels.

Bring them in to us and save the price of a new pair of shoes.

PIONEER PEACE OFFICER DIES

Mrs. A. K. Doss received information of the death of her father, J. K. P. Yeary, 84, at the home of his son, John W. Yeary, at Chickasha, Oklahoma, at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. The body is being sent to San Angelo for burial, which will be Thursday morning. Funeral arrangements are under the direction of the Masonic lodge of San Angelo, and funeral services will be held from the Robert Massie undertaking parlors there Thursday morning.

Mr. Yeary was a pioneer peace officer, Indian fighter, and Texas ranger. He was born in Collin county, and was among the earliest natives of that county. He lived in Central Texas until about ten years ago, at which time he moved to San Angelo, where he resided until he moved to Oklahoma, to make his home with his son, three years ago. He was a member of the San Angelo camp of Confederate veterans.

Besides his son, John W. Yeary, of Chickasha, and his daughter, Mrs. A. K. Doss, of this city, he is survived by three other children, Mrs. J. R. Bertrand, of Dallas; Joe Yeary, of Ft. Worth; and W. B. Yeary, of San Antonio. He had been in ill health for some time.

NEW ENGLAND APPLE CROP SUFFERS FROM COLD, RAINY PERIOD

(By International News Service)

BOSTON, July 25.—Rainy and cloudy spring and early summer weather will result in a poor crop of apples in New England, according to the local bureau of the department of agriculture. Despite the remarkably heavy bloom, the bureau authorities said, the reports from apple growers indicated that the crop will be somewhat below the average of the past five years.

The McIntosh crop was reported as especially light. All the New England states reported lower condition for McIntosh than in either of the past two years. The McIntosh crop in Massachusetts and New Hampshire is likely to be a very short one.

Baldwins, it was said at the local bureau, were reported in good condition, and indications are for a Baldwin crop almost as large as two years ago. Scab was reported as rather prevalent this year throughout the section.

The total commercial production of apples in New England this year was forecast at 1,802,000 barrels. This is 110 per cent of last year and 94 per cent of the average production in 1923-27. The commercial production in the principal barrel apple states outside of New England, including New York, Pennsylvania, Virginia, West Virginia, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois and Missouri, was forecast at 12,362,000 barrels or 140 per cent of last year and 94 per cent of the past five year's average.
