VOLUME NO. 23. NUMBER 163 BALLINGER, TEXAS, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1928 MEMBER INTERNATIONAL NEWS

More Money Paid for Cotton on Local Market

The farmer who brings his cotton to the Ballinger market receives from a fraction of a cent to three-quarters of a cent more for his staple here than in most places, owing to the fact that Ballinger buyers are now paying for cotton according to staple and not according to mere looks of the sample.

It is pointed out that while most cities in the territory are paying only 17½ to 18¼ cents per pound that Ballinger is paying from 18 to 19 cents for all cotton offered.

The local yard is nearing the 5000 mark and the promise of a better outturn than was at first expected is now certain, although the crop is estimated to be nearly three-fourths or less harvested. The fact that the local yards has received only 5000 bales is not indication that this is all the cotton which has been marketed in Ballinger, as the Farm Bureau handles perhaps a third of the crop, and independent and big buyers send much of the cotton from the streets to the compress and this cotton is not recorded at the cotton yard.

Produce Market High

The produce market is holding up well with a general tendency to show an increase. The following prices were being paid at the week's end:

Heavy hens 15 cents.
Leghorns 13 cents.
Heavy fryers 24 cents.
Eggs 35 to 38 cents per dozen.
Pecans 10 cents up.
Sweet cream 45 cents.
Sour cream 40 cents.

While turkeys are not quoted, it was reported from Fort Worth that the Texas crop is about one-third short and of course this will force the price upward and it is expected that this year's turkey prices will perhaps set a record.

It will be noted that while straight run pecans are bringing 10 cents, a higher price is paid for the better grades and nuts that have been graded.

Eggs led the general run of stuff for a raise in prices for the past week and you will doubtless buy at least another nickel for this item in about another week.

Beef prices are the highest since war days and hog prices are also holding up well.

Two Injured in Car Accidents

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Esmond, their ten-year-old daughter, June Marie, and Mrs. C. C. Smith, while returning home from the fair grounds Friday night, about 11 o'clock, ran over the side of a concrete culvert in front of the S. H. Daugherty home on Eleventh Street, and wrecked the car in which they were driving. Mrs. Smith was painfully, but not seriously injured, and little June Marie was severely cut and bruised. It was necessary to take the young lady to the sanitarium, where several stitches were taken and medical aid given to ease her pain. At last reports she was resting very well.

Two cars collided at the corner of Eighth Street and Phillips Avenue Friday evening at about 7 o'clock, but no one was seriously injured. The delivery of John Weeks' Drug Store with Mr. Weeks at the wheel collided with a light car driven by E. C. Tinsley. After taking the cars to garages and having repairs made, both parties were well pleased that the accident was not of a more serious nature. That we have not had some serious accidents during fair week is indeed miraculous, but thus far nothing of a serious nature has been called to our attention.

Thilie Carter is today driving a new Whippet sedan bought of the Sykes Motor Company.

Kirk Acquitted of Murder Charge

The trial of L. Paul Kirk, which had been in progress at Sweetwater for the past ten days, ended Friday night with the jury giving him an acquittal.

The case had been tried at two previous terms of court, once in Runnels county and once in Nolan county, where it was transferred on a change of venue, both resulting in a hung jury.

It was brought out in all the trials that Kirk was a Ku Klux Klan organizer at the time of the charge against him, 1924, when the Klan was at the height of its strength in this country. It was also shown that Kirk and a party of Klansmen had gone to give Tabor, who was killed, an initiation in a field near the Wells home in the Norton country, when Tabor was called to help repair a broken down car and upon this pretense, against the wishes of Tabor's father-in-law, J. N. Wells, Tabor was to have been drawn from the house for the initiation, but Wells accompanied him and when confronted by the parties who accompanied Kirk, a pitched battle ensued, in which Tabor lost his life.

Kirk testified that he was an organizer for the Klan and was sent to Runnels county for the purpose of increasing the membership in the county, and upon the objection of Tabor's father-in-law the ruse was used in calling him from the house the night of the fatal shooting, with the stated result.

Giant Graf Zeppelin is Damaged in Storm

(By International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—The mighty Graf Zeppelin, en route from Friedrichshafen to New York with 60 persons aboard, met with an accident today when it ran into a sudden squall, according to a radiogram direct from the ship. The covering of the stabilizer was torn off but repairs were started immediately.

The message sent today at noon said that all aboard were safe and there was no cause for alarm. The dirigible is proceeding at a reduced speed of 40 miles per hour.

The message was sent from the liner to the New York American by Karl Von Wiegand, its staff correspondent aboard the dirigible.

MIAMI TO NEW YORK AIR PASSENGER LINE

(By International News Service)

MIAMI, Oct. 12.—The possibility of a Miami-New York passenger air line loomed here when officials of the National Air Transport, Inc., started an investigation of facilities here and points between New York. The national company operates the New York-Chicago and the Chicago-Dallas lines now.

Howard E. Coffin, president of the air line, personally made the request that aviation data be supplied by Walter Kohlhepp of the Carl G. Fisher Development company.

Should the plan materialize Miami would be removed by only 12 hours from New York. One stop would be made at a landing field and passenger station near Brunswick, Ga. Mr. Coffin, it is reported, is interested in the development of an island near there on which the airport and passenger station would be built.

NOTICE

My boiler machine and all cleaners have been trained out and are ready for this season.—Mrs. W. E. Harvey. 12-6d-w1

That ever-smiling countenance of Albert Spill, Winters merchant, was seen on the fairgrounds Friday.

The Winters Blizzards trampled the Mountaineers from Santa Anna underfoot Friday at Fair Park to the tune of 21 to 0. The Santa Anna team played on defensive all afternoon and never once had a look-in for the heavy end of the count. The Blizzard line stood like a stone wall against the line plunges of Captain Wise of Santa Anna and never once did they give up a first down.

Winters was successful with all kinds of play and made many first downs through the line, with aerial attacks and around ends. A total of nine passes were completed for an average of 15 yards each, making a nice day for the Winters passers. Hill, quarter, did most of the passing for Winters, and he was very deliberate and accurate with the flings. Hardigree, right end for the Blizzards, thrilled the big crowd with his receiving, and many were heard to remark that he was the best receiver seen on the local grid this season. He leaped into the air to take the ball; caught them laying down and every other conceivable way. Hill and Hardigree are a dangerous combination and any team they meet will have to watch them.

Sullivan, left tackle for the Winters club played a mighty game in the line and was in almost every play until he was removed from the game in the last quarter with a broken collar bone. Sullivan is a charging linesman who hits low and keeps his man moving and out of the way of the play. Captain Orr of Winters was the brilliant outstanding star of the day. His return of a punt from his own ten yard line for a 90 yard trip and a touchdown was one of the prettiest runs ever made here. In the first quarter the ball had been advanced to the 14 yard line he hit off tackle for a touchdown side-stepping three tacklers.

The first point of the game came early in the first quarter when Santa Anna held Winters on the five yard line. The Mountaineers attempted to kick out of danger and the ball blew back across the goal and a Santa Anna man was downed behind his own goal for a safety and two points. The star for Santa Anna was Captain Wise. He was the only man able to make anything on the Winters line and he was in practically every defensive play.

The Winters pep squad, 88 in number, was on the side line in their uniforms of blue and white and they showed that they are well drilled and can make lots of noise. In charge of the squad as leaders were Bernie Robertson, Ruth Woodrow, Wilna Cooke and Betty Ann Hancock.

The Ballinger pep squad lined up by the side of Winters and helped the Blizzards on to victory throughout the entire game. The Winters squad was here Wednesday helping Ballinger.

Following is a line-up of the two teams at the start:

Winters	Position	Santa Anna
Collingsworth	LE	Johns
Sullivan	LT	Traylor
Rogers	LG	Simpson
Smith	C	Keeler
Williams	RG	Fenney
Kelley	RT	Burris
Hardigree	RE	McDonald
Hill	QB	Turner
Baldwin	RH	Hill
Bishop	LH	Oakes
Orr (c)	FB	Wise (c)

Referee—Wright of Ballinger; Umpire—Earnshaw of Ballinger; Head Linesman—Mullins of Winters.

ACCOMMODATION

The local postoffice has sold its supply of one cent postal cards which it had requisitioned for the quarter in such a short time that it was necessary to re-order on this item. The Ballinger Printing company, which firm prints thousands of stamped postal cards for its customers, placed an order for 1000 cards Saturday morning and the postmaster, being inclined not to inconvenience his patrons, made a flying trip over to Winters, procured the cards and delivered them, all in a period of 55 minutes. Thanks to the postmaster for the accommodation.

BIG SHOW COMING TO TOWN

Schell Bros. Trained Wild Animal exhibition is to be here for two performances on Saturday, October 27.

The advertising cars for Schell Bros. Trained Wild Animal Exhibition were in our city this week in charge of Roy Roberts, with a crew of 20 billposters, lithographers, bannermen and programmers, and gave the show all the publicity possible. They not only posted bills on all available places possible in town but men were sent out on routes in the country in all directions from the city for from 20 to 30 miles.

Mr. Roberts has had years of experience in the management of advertising cars for the biggest shows on the road and knows how to advertise his show to the best advantage.

He says there is only one Schell Bros. Trained Wild Animal Show and it is in a class by itself when merit, novelty and quality are considered. This famous show gives a varied program of two hours, consisting of wild and domestic animal acts interwoven with dozens of high class European and American arenic acts. Twenty funny, foolish clowns under the leadership of "Happy" Ole Larson keep the audience in good humor throughout the long program.

The performance will be presented in three rings, a stage, and a large steel arena. There will be only one Schell Bros. show day this season and on that day plenty of amusing and instructive sights will be found and for once it must be conceded that at least one show not only exhibits all it advertises but ten times more.

E. E. Garretson, the veteran show agent, was in the city some ten days ago and made all contracts and arrangements and a record breaking crowd may be expected on Oct. 27—Schell Bros. Show day.

The representative showing of Winters' people here Friday, was indicative of a warmer friendship between the two cities and the unity with which the two pep squads from the two schools rooted for the Winters team is a thing long to be remembered both by the Ballinger and Winters citizens. "Love thy neighbor as thyself."

A GREAT ACHIEVEMENT

IMPROVED COLD WEATHER PERFORMANCE Resulting from the

CROSS-FLOW RADIATOR

The cross-flow radiators in the cooling systems of the Pontiac Six and the Oakland All-American Six reduce to a minimum the evaporation of water and alcohol. An automatic thermostat prevents water circulation until the engine reaches correct operating temperature. As a consequence the engine warms up quickly and less choking is needed, reducing dilution of crankcase oil. Because of the protection the cross-flow radiator provides against losses of water and alcohol, the Pontiac Six and the All-American Six require less attention in winter than other cars. Also, through their thermostatic control, they reveal far better performance than other cars in their fields when the temperature is low. . . . The cross-flow radiator is available only on the Pontiac Six and the All-American Six. Come in and see it. And learn while you're here of the many other advancements which only these two great General Motors Sixes provide.

3000 Persons See Feature Style Show

A crowd estimated at more than 3000 people witnessed the program in front of the grandstand Friday night and the big feature style show which was the high-light on the Runnels County Fair program for the year. The crowd started to filling the grandstand before 7 o'clock and long before the hour for the show to begin all available seats were filled with from five to six hundred people standing around the sides. Gate keepers and ticket sellers stated Saturday morning that many more came to the gate but turned away when they saw they would have to stand.

The West Texas Utilities orchestra arrived early and set up on the stage ready to furnish music for the style show. The Doc Holland acts opened the evening entertainment 15 minutes before the advertised time on account of the crowd coming early. After two acts the platform was cleared and made ready for the living models.

The orchestra played an overture and following this 78 models passed in front of the grandstand to the strains of sweet music by the orchestra. At the conclusion of the show it was easy to tell that the models had made a big hit with the crowd. On every hand was heard, "The best ever," "It was a big event," "The best feature night we ever had," and many other such remarks.

Five Ballinger firms entered the show and were designated by numbers worn by the models. No. 1 was The Hub; No. 2 Stone's; No. 3 Bettis & Sturges; No. 4 Higginbotham Bros. & Co., and No. 5 the Fit-U-Well Style Shop. The show consisted of 23 coat models and 63 dresses, with all accessories which could be used such as scarfs, furs, hand bags, shoes, hats, hose, jewelry, hair ornaments, etc.

The dresses ranged from street dress to extreme evening gowns and one showing of pajamas and negligee. Space here forbids each dress shown and a personal paragraph of each model. They were all good and each model entered in the show looked like a professional. The children were particularly good and brought a large applause from the crowd as they did their curtsy to the stands.

A special runway was built from the stage to the front, along the grandstand and back to the stage. Three elevations were built on the runway and the West Texas Utilities company placed large flood lights over each of these elevations making them as bright as day and giving the model an opportunity to show everyone in the crowd the costume she wore.

The Hub was represented by the following models: Mrs. Robert Bruce, Miss Francis Trail, Mrs. A. H. Parks, Miss Kathryn Penn and Miss Margaret Kirk.

Stone's was represented by Mrs. Bob Galbraith, Miss Verda Nell

Trail, Miss Ludric Strobe and Miss Naomi McWilliams.

Bettis and Sturges were represented by Miss Lucile Sledge, Mrs. Ross Murchison, Mrs. E. A. Giesecke, Mrs. C. B. Penn, Miss Frances Harvey, Miss Thelma Vogelsang, Mrs. Arthur Richardson, Miss Opal McWilliams, Dorothy Lynn, Bitsy Lynn, Mary Simpson, Mildred Watson, Jean Bozzell, Katie Lou Schumate and Misses Dorothy Jean and Christine Gobbs of Brownwood.

Higginbotham Bros. & Co. were represented by Mrs. H. C. Spencer, Miss Jewell Chaney, Miss Blanche Yeager, Miss Virginia Holman, Miss Louise Shepperd, Eleanor Williams and Jane Cheatham.

The Fit-U-Well Style Shop was represented by Evelyn Brewer, Claudia Smith, Ollie Jean Cordill, Mrs. Schumate, Cathryn Grant, Athalee Gill and Eva Ruth Forgye.

Day and Night Service

Dollar Day Next Week

After careful consideration of the proposition and a discussion with all firms concerned, it has been decided to stage an old-time Dollar Day in Ballinger for two days, Saturday, October 20 and Monday, Oct. 22.

Arrangements have been made for an additional shipment of news print for The Ledger to use in this undertaking. Experiencing wonderful results in times gone by, the dollar day idea has proven one of the most important business ventures ever attempted by a few or by the community as a whole.

It is expected that the move will be universal so far as Ballinger merchants are concerned and a special effort will be made to enlist in the movement every business in the city and the co-operation of the chamber of commerce will be asked if necessary, to make it the biggest trades event of a decade.

Coming, as it does, at a season when cotton, turkeys and all farm products are coming on the market in big quantities, this dollar day should be the outstanding event of all times. Too, it is expected that some articles will be offered for one dollar, that it would be impossible to replace for twice that amount.

If you are a reader and a buyer of commodities, look forward to The Daily Ledger of the afternoon of October 18 and the weekly issue of the 19th for the greatest line of bargains ever offered the Ballinger buying public.

If you are a man in business or a business man, prepare now for the greatest event of the year and above all means get your copy ready for these papers promptly, the time in which to do this being very short and the opportunity offered you very big.

Business men from other cities in this section see in Ballinger wonderful business opportunities and to think that we should do a job like this one only half way would be to acknowledge a weakness and a lack of interest in our community. Let us all pull together for the biggest trades event of the decade by preparing now for the biggest dollar day ever staged in any West Texas town.

"Nothing So Clearly Marks a Failure"

"That last man seemed to have just the experience and other qualifications you were looking for. Why did you pass him up?"

"I thought so, too, at first but did you see his shoes? Nothing so clearly marks a failure, and we have no time for failures!"

Many a worthy fellow goes plodding through life, little realizing the unimportant points upon which he is judged and which, unknown to him, are continually neglected.

That's one of the insidious things about HOLLISOLIS. Though it is easily corrected when recognized, even your best friends won't remind you of so personal a thing. And yet it may be an important item that stands between you and success!
