Committee Will Order 2nd Primary be Held

County Democratic Chairman A. O. Strother stated Thursday afternoon that he would call the entire county executive committee together on the day the primary ticket committee meets to discuss the question of holding a second primary.

Mr. Strother stated that he was sure the entire committee expected to hold this election for county officers and that it was an oversight that the election was not ordered at the first meeting of the executive committee. The second primary will have to be held for state and district officers and it will cost no more to include county officers. When assessments were made last Monday the committee estimated the expense of the two primaries in making up the amounts.

Mr. Strother said he was positive it would be legal for the committee to meet later and order the election and that everything would be attended to. The law as he interpreted it demands that affirmative action be taken by the committee in case a second primary is held but does not designate the time when the committee must take such action. This being the case he feels that the meeting here July 2 will be early enough.

Golf Tournament Rules Announced

R. W. Earnshaw, chairman of the Fourth of July golf tournament, stated Thursday morning that twenty golfers had already registered for the holiday play and these have been paired by the committee and will be expected to play their qualifying rounds between now and July 2. Registration has not stopped by any means and as soon as another twenty have registered they will be paired off and announced.

The pairs already made up are as follows:
D. C. Middleton and Harry Lynn, A. Giesecke and M. S. Karmany, R. W. Earnshaw and W. A. Nance, Jr., E. R. Griffis and C. F. Bailey, Troy Simpson and W. A. Nance, Sr., J. G. Douglass and A. J. Thorp, Neil McAlpine and M. C. Atkins, A. McGregor and W. B. Halley, R. E. Bruce and C. R. Stephens, C. R. Stone and A. R. Murchison.

Score cards have been prepared for each pair and before playing their qualifying round players are asked to secure them. After playing, the score will be turned in to the committee, signed by both players and this score will be used in arranging flights for the opening play on July 4th.

A number of prizes have already been donated and others will be secured before the day of the tournament.

Rules for the tourney and qualifying rounds will be as follows: Improve lie in fairway. No tees to be used except in teeing off. Lost ball counts one stroke; out of bounds one stroke. Ball on green must not be touched by hand or one stroke penalty. All balls must be holed out regardless of length of putt.

SINGERS WILL MEET HERE SUNDAY AFTERNOON

365 Unemployed in County on April 1

The fifteenth federal census recently completed shows a total of 365 people in Runnels county unemployed on April 1st. These persons usually are busy but were without work at that time. The census report lists these persons as being without work, able to work, and looking for a job.

Ballinger had 153 in this class on April 1st. Other divisions of the county were listed as follows: 25 in precinct No. 1; 24 in precinct No. 3; 8 in precinct No. 4; 103 in the town of Winters; 23 in precinct No. 5; 2 in the town of Miles; 7 in precinct No. 6; 20 in precinct No. 7.

This condition prevailed on April 1st but since that time much construction has opened in this county and very few today are without employment. Municipal construction in Ballinger begun since that time has given employment to several large gangs of labor. The city hall building has created work for a number, the water distribution system improvements are working a large force, and another big gang is at work on the new city reservoir.

W. S. Thompson, contractor, is using a large number on the new Colorado River bridge and drivers and helpers for fifty teams are employed in grading highway No. 4 from Ballinger to the Concho county line.

EARNSHAW IS GIVEN SURPRISE DINNER

R. W. Earnshaw received a surprise on his birthday anniversary Tuesday evening when he arrived home to find twenty odd friends awaiting him. Tables were arranged in the beautiful yard at the John A. Weeks home for forty-two and as soon as all guests had arrived a delicious dinner was served consisting of barbecued chicken, salad, hot rolls, deviled eggs and drinks. Dessert of brick combination cream and ice was served with angel food.

A beautiful birthday cake was brought to Mr. Earnshaw's table just before the dessert was served with candles burning for each year of his life. The number is unknown and not of any particular interest, but after cutting the cake each guest was served a piece.

A car table filled with gifts was set in front of Mr. Earnshaw and as he unwrapped each one much merriment ensued. Some of the gifts were tops, whistles, toy pistols and such articles that were greatly enjoyed by John Weeks Earnshaw.

A number of games of progressive forty-two followed the dinner until a late hour. The affair was a complete surprise to Mr. Earnshaw, the first inkling he received being when he arrived home to find the yard filled with his friends.

"Juneteenth" Draws Large Crowd to City

Ballinger colored people had a large number of visitors Thursday to attend their "Juneteenth" celebration. Negroes began arriving Wednesday from Midland, Stamford, and San Angelo, and many others continued to arrive Thursday for the big emancipation proclamation celebration.

The holiday was unofficially opened Wednesday afternoon when the Ballinger Black Bearcats met and defeated the Marlin Nehi Giants by a score of 4 to 2. The evening's entertainment included a dance, with Griffins' Band, of Midland, furnishing the music.

The program for Thursday commenced at noon when a big free barbecue was served to all local citizens and visitors at Fair Park. A large crowd gathered for the barbecue and heard Rev. Calhoun, pastor of the A. M. E. Church, deliver the address of welcome. Following this address barbecue, pickles, onions, coffee and hot rolls were served to several hundred.

At 2:00 o'clock the Ballinger baseball team and the Marlin team met in a double-header which consumed the entire afternoon. Griffins' Band played for the game and announcements were made of the dance Thursday night for which the band will furnish music.

A large dance platform has been erected near the barbecue pit and open air dancing will be enjoyed by the darkies until a late hour. The celebration will continue Friday with baseball games in the afternoon and dancing at night.

A large group of colored folks from Midland accompanied their band and will remain for the three-day soiree. The largest attendance for the three days is expected Thursday afternoon and night.

Most of the colored population of Ballinger were taking the day off and very little help could be obtained from this class while the festivities were in progress.

Science Explains Mental Clockwork

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, June 19—

When a person goes to bed with his mind fixed on getting up at a certain time he often wakes at that time without the aid of an alarm clock.

This is one of the mysteries of sleep explained by Dr. Otto Kauders, Austrian psychiatrist.

When sleep comes Dr. Kauders says, the sleeper is divided into three or four persons.

There is the waking ego, the dream ego, and the sleep ego. The latter is unconscious. The second is semi-conscious with a sort of uncontrolled contact with the outside world which results in weird images, lovely dreams and horrible nightmares.

But the first, like a sentry, stays awake and keeps watch. It challenges all stimuli coming to the brain and if any of them look suspicious it warns the dreamer and awakens the sleeper whereupon all three become one person again, ready to run or to fight.

Before splitting up for the night, Dr. Kauders says the whole personality, acting as camp commander, gives the sentries to their special orders. Such would be the order to awaken the others at a certain time.

Be wise and advertise.

"TRY CARDUI AGAIN"

Mother's Advice to Daughter Was Followed, and She Soon Got Better.

North Little Rock, Ark.—"Shortly after my marriage, my health wasn't very good," writes Mrs. W. E. Burgin, 315 West Second Street, this city. "I had severe cramping spells, and at times I would have to go to bed. This would be very weakening."

"I took about five bottles of Cardui at this time and my strength came back. I did not have any more trouble for some time."

Several years later, Mrs. Burgin found herself debilitated by heavy home responsibilities, and she explains: "I seemed very slow in getting my strength back. I was too weak to do anything but just lie around. I would get very nervous over my condition."

"My mother told me I ought to try Cardui again. I did, and soon was getting better. When I had taken about four bottles of Cardui, I was able to do my work again, and haven't had to take it any more."

If you are run-down, nervous, or suffer every month, take Cardui, a medicine used by women for over fifty years. As your health improves, you will share the enthusiasm of thousands of others who have praised Cardui for the benefits they have felt after taking it. Get a bottle, today. NC-228

French Medics Down Tze-Tze Fly in Africa

(By Associated Press)

AYOS, Cameroon, Central Africa, June 19.—The tze-tze fly, carrier of the terrible sleeping sickness germ, has been fought to a standstill by a little group of doctors who are given credit for saving hundreds of thousands of lives in this French mandated territory.

Dr. Jamiot, former chief of the Pasteur Institute at Brazzaville in the French Congo, for several years, has worked with such success that he feels sleeping sickness mortality has been reduced to what might be called normal proportions for this country. His aim now is to stamp it out.

When France, after the war, took over this German colony, sleeping sickness was spreading and in one district there were 200,000 deaths. In another district of 40,000 square miles, there still are 350,000 persons affected.

Dr. Jamiot, with a group of young French doctors, has trained a native staff so that the white man's capacity is multiplied many times. A school to train natives to fight the disease, furnishes men and women skilled in the several simple things needed to be done.

The French doctors diagnose the disease as the natives file by them and, with chalk, mark on the natives' chests the treatment to be given. Those who come from distant villages, after preliminary injections, return to their homes, where trained natives continue the treatment.

The microscope plays a big part in the work and a dozen natives have been trained to operate the instrument.

Faith in the foreign doctors' ability has grown until now thousands of affected persons come from afar, some of them carried in rude cloth hammocks hitched to poles which two persons carry.

Ayos is the last town on a road 75 miles inland from the capital, Yaounde, where the railroad ends. From here there are only paths into the jungle.

FARMERS FIGHT CITY'S CONTROL OF MUNY MARKET

(By Associated Press)
HOUSTON, June 19.—Ed Roberts has set out to help break, if possible, the city's present control over the farmers' municipal market. His application for an injunction against the administration to restrain it from ordering him kept out of the market will be heard in district court of June 27.

The trouble started on Robert's refusal to sign an affidavit, as required by the ordinance that he had raised the produce he offered for sale in the market.

When the affidavit regulation, and another changing the closing hours, went into effect there was wide protest from the farmers and on the first night they protested loudly the new closing law. Police officers were stationed about but there was no violence.

Miss Bryce Moreland of Wilmett is here this week visiting friends for several days.

TRIALS OF A DOG'S LIFE
By Hazel Reavis

PARIS, June 19.—It seems that canine globe trotters, like humans frequently crack up in Paris and have to go into seclusion.

Take the case of Coco. According to Dr. Fernand Mery, veterinary diagnostician, beauty doctor and surgeon his case is typical.

The doc informed the young lady from New York who is usually at the other end of Coco's leash:

"Your dog is suffering from a nervous breakdown brought on by travel and too much Montparnasse. Take him home and keep him in a dark room. No visitors and complete quiet. Regular meals but no rich food. Bring him back in a week's time and I'll give him another injection. Pay at the desk as you go out."

Coco is an Aberdeen terrier, from New York, home of noise and hubbub. Life on the Atlantic did not seem to bother him.

In Paris life was just to Coco's liking. The food was all it was cracked up to be.

Then one day a taxi driver honked a horn behind Coco and he went to pieces.

You know the rest.

Another dog story, a sad one.

concerns Yoo Loo, Chinese lady of high degree and pedigree whom Miss Barbara Harrison brought from Peking to Paris via the trans-Siberian railway.

Miss Harrison is the wealthy daughter of Francis Burton Harrison, former governor general of the Philippines.

Mishap one occurred when Miss Harrison's Mercedes car collided with an army truck on the road between Paris and Rambouillet. They came together with an awful whack and when noses were counted Yoo Loo was missing. The dog was found the next day wandering in the woods miles from the scene of the accident.

Several months later the Harrison car in which Yoo Loo was a passenger was again struck by a truck, with serious but not fatal consequences.

That time Yoo Loo disappeared for good and has not been seen since.

IT'S SIMPLY INEXCUSABLE

You cannot expect to make friends socially or in business if you have halitosis (bad breath). Since you cannot detect it yourself, the one way of making sure you do not offend is to gargle often with Listerine. It instantly destroys odors, improves mouth hygiene and checks infection.
