

Methodist Pastor To Preach Sunday

A telegram sent from here to v. C. P. Jones at Biloxi, Mississippi, was returned Wednesday with the notation that the addressee had departed for some part in Texas. Rev. Jones will arrive here Friday and will preach morning and evening Sunday, according to a telephone conversation with a church official.

Rev. T. E. Bowman closed his tour here Wednesday night and he and his wife left Thursday morning for Fort Worth to attend to their duties with Trinity church of that city. Rev. Bowman stated that he never hated to leave a place any worse than he did Ballinger and would always be a tender place in his heart and his wife made while here. Bowman asked to be transferred to a church near Denton that his wife could be nearer to her health and that she could be nearer to Temple for a serious operation. Consideration of her health and that she should be nearer her mother than she was granted by the conference.

Rev. Jones is coming to Texas to attend the Mississippi conference, which served the past several weeks at Biloxi, a city of 15,000 inhabitants. He did not seek a transfer to this section but would move when a Texas church sought a transfer to the Mississippi conference. According to v. Sory, Rev. Jones is a man out 40 and has a fine record in the ministry. He will be the local congregation for the first time next Sunday.

Rev. Bowman will begin his tour in Fort Worth Sunday, leaving both morning and evening.

1/2s cigaret tax netted almost 600 in its first 60 days of operation.

BETHEL NEWS

Rev. L. D. Hardt was here Sunday to fill his first appointment for this new conference year. Everyone is very glad he and his splendid family will be with us another year. Good crowds attended both morning and evening services.

Everybody come to the play Friday night, "The Womanless Wedding," at the Methodist church. There will be at least 25 characters in the cast, with lots of fun for everyone. So come and laugh away the blues.

John Shelburne Greenhill was given a surprise birthday party at his home Thursday night. Those attending report a pleasant time.

A large crowd was out on Armistice Day, last Wednesday. A real picnic dinner was spread at the noon hour. A number of ball games kept the crowd interested until the work on the grounds was postponed. C. A. Womack, chairman of the committee, called a meeting directly after the noon hour and plans were made and more committees appointed to build a walk or driveway from the entrance to the school grounds around the building, with cement curbing and flower beds. This will add beauty to the campus, also prevent the grounds from washing away. Another working day will be set later. The first ball game in the morning, between Ballinger Scouts and Bethel boys was well matched as no scores were made on either side. The basketball game between the school girls and outsiders ended in favor of the students. The indoor baseball game between the stout and slender ladies was 9 to 5 in favor of the slenders.

Misses Alma and Velma Lampe, Dora May Smith, Lois and Berna Carroll and Fay Muncey, students of Ballinger high school, were here to help celebrate the holiday Wednesday.

The social in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hedrick Shelburne Friday night was enjoyed by all present. Delicious hot cocoa and cake were served.

Members of the B. Y. P. U. were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood Friday night. All report a pleasant time.

J. A. Fletcher, Mrs. M. E. Casey and two children, Dorothy and Billy Casey, and Miss Rose Mack Fletcher, of Mullin, spent Saturday night and Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Crockett and family.

Mrs. D. W. Duke spent the past week-end with relatives at San Angelo.

Miss Rhoda Howell, of Eden, was the guest of her brother, Halley Howell, and family, the past week.

Mrs. W. M. Davenport has been very sick the past week. She was taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Vernon Webb, of Ballinger, so she would be close to the doctor. Her many friends here are hoping for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. John Lee Simmons and Miss Ada Simmons were joint hostesses to quite a number of little ladies Sunday and Sunday night until church time. All kinds of good eats were served and a very pleasant day was spent. The guest list included: Miss Mable Bigby, Merle and Geraldine Lee, Lillian May and Louise McShan, Lois, Maurine and Johnnie Fay Batts, Carmine and Loreas Hardt, Virginia and Mamie Lou Womack, Ina and Nina Crockett, Junius Nunnally, Flora Irene Greenhill, Opal Bradshaw, Maybelle Whitworth and Virginia McShan.

Clyde Simmons and friend, Lonnie Cooper, of Ballinger, spent Sunday with home folks.

Herbert Davenport returned to his home in Sterling City the latter part of last week. He had been visiting relatives here recently.

The Bethel football boys have a game scheduled with the Paint Rock team Tuesday afternoon, if rainy weather does not interfere.

FEW LAWS IN GOVERNMENT OF SCHOOL'S TENT TOWN

(By Associated Press)
MADISON, Wis., Nov. 19.—Some 200 persons from all parts of the country "roughed it" while attending the University of Wisconsin summer school by living in tents on the shore of Lake Mendota.

Tents were pitched on permanent platforms provided by the university. Inhabitants of the colony lived under a pseudo-government consisting of a mayor, aldermen, treasurer, sheriff and city clerk. But except for "quiet hours" during five nights of the week there were no laws.

The Cook family, now in the fourth generation, has operated a drug store at Chardon, O., for 85 years.

Thrifty HOUSEWIVES HAVE TOLD US... HOW TO SAVE MONEY ON YOUR GAS BILLS

AND NOW WE TELL YOU!

Gas is so easy to use that many waste it without realizing it. Ever eager to cooperate with our customers in making gas their most economical as well as most convenient servant, we asked many thrifty housewives, "How do you save money on your gas bill?" They gladly told us, and we now take pleasure in passing the information on to you:

1. See that your equipment is in good condition, with burners clean. The flame should be blue.
- HOUSE HEATING...
2. Don't turn flame so high that it goes over top of the heater... this not only wastes gas, but fills the room with bad air.
3. Use a wall thermometer and keep an even temperature of about 70 degrees. If the room becomes overheated, don't open the doors and windows... turn the gas down.
4. In extremely cold weather, keep the windows and doors closed. Proper ventilation can be obtained by lowering a window slightly from the top.
- COOKING...
5. Don't light burners on your cook stove until you are ready to use them. Frequently you may light the gas and then be called to the telephone or the door before putting the food on to cook. In this case turn off the gas before leaving the kitchen. Gas is an instant heat and requires no wait for maximum temperature.
6. Don't use a large burner when a smaller one will do... When boiling point is reached, move container to simmer-burner.
7. Don't overheat the oven... use oven regulator... plan oven-cooked meals... make the gas you burn yield a maximum of service.
- WATER HEATING...
8. Don't turn on hot water faucet to wash your hands unless you have the time to wait for the water to run warm or hot. Many people turn on the hot water, and then turn it off again before the water runs hot.
9. Don't let hot water run to wash or rinse the dishes... draw the needed amount in a dish pan and then turn the water off.
10. Don't let hot water run over the bottle to warm baby's milk... draw water in a stew pan to cover bottle and put over small burner. This is a quicker and more economical method.

The above suggestions are but a few of the many gas-saving methods that can be practiced... A little thought on your part will enable you to save a few pennies here and there each day... and thus reduce your gas bill quite a bit over the month.

HOW'S your HEALTH

Edited by Dr. Jago Galdston, Academy of Medicine NIGHTMARES

Some years ago the comic pages of our papers displayed the amusing and highly imaginative adventures of a boy named Nemo. Nemo would go through many experiences, not a few of which were in the nature of nightmares.

Thanksgiving comes next week. The holiday will be observed in Ballinger in the regular custom. Business will be suspended by most firms and people will visit, attend football games, eat turkey dinners and find opportunity for hunting and outings.

Adults so affected require the help of an understanding physician, and in the more serious conditions, treatment by a trained specialist, a psychiatrist.

Not uncommonly, however, the night terror represents the child's elaboration of an actual and frightening experience.

It may be that the child has been attacked or hurt by some animal or has witnessed some painful experience undergone by another.

Children affected with night terrors should be encouraged to discuss them. A clue to their cause may thus be found. Stubborn cases require close and expert study.

About NEW YORK

By William Gaines NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—(P)—The dream of every young musician is a debut at Carnegie hall. To fulfill this ambition costs in the neighborhood of $1,500, including advertising and sundry small fees.

The chances are the recitals will gaze at a disheartening spectacle when he or she comes on the stage—for a few people in that barn-like and depressing auditorium look mighty lonesome.

But the mere fact that one has appeared there means something in selling talent elsewhere—particularly out of town.

Once, so my musical adviser, Willie Perceval Monger, tells me, a young girl violinist from the middle west made her debut there before a scant 50 people.

Probably no other young talent suffers so much in New York as the musically inclined who are short of funds. Practice requirements are apt to involve disagreeable experiences with neighbors in cheap, cramped lodging quarters—which is just one of many griefs.

Of course, there are reasonable lodging houses which accommodate music pupils only, but usually they are filled with waiting lists.

And the chances of the young musician being able to do anything with his art to help him along financially are even less than those of the painter, Monger says.

Standing In Line I was third in line at the box office of the biggest of movie palaces last night. Two men were ahead of me—strangers to each other. The women who accompanied them were waiting at one side.

In making the first man's change, the girl in the booth loosed a very old quarter from the change chute. The fellow examined it and grumbled: "You can't pass that off on me."

The girl apologized, she hadn't noticed the quarter, of course, as it fell from the mechanical contrivance.

"I'd like to trade you another one for it," he said. "Old coins are good luck."

"Lemme see it again, will you?" the first gentleman said to the second one. "Is it real?"

The second assured him it was genuine, but refused to part with the coin because he had laid another on the counter in exchange.

And if it hadn't been for the big doorman bawling at them to quit blocking the line, there might have been an argument sure enough, for the first gentleman began to insist that the quarter had been given to him first and now he wanted it!

Spurt in Grains Laid to Effect Of Bullish News

By Frank I. Weller (Associated Press Farm Editor) WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—"Front page psychology" is part of some market observers' explanation of the upturn in wheat.

They explain that the public eye, so long steeped in gloom, could not resist following the flicker of light in those headlines heralding a new day in grain.

The open interest at Chicago has increased 30,000,000 bushels in the last month.

That means, they say, that new buying to the amount of the increase has come into the market and indicated the willingness of the public to follow operators on the bull side.

It has increased the volume of trade tremendously.

Much of the evidence of increased speculative interest is said to owe its existence to front page accounts of "dollar wheat" predictions and estimates that the successive rises which added 50 per cent to wheat values in less than 30 days had increased the worth of the crop by millions of dollars.

Grains held in the face of heavy profit-taking and pretty substantial denial of reports that Russia would withdraw from the export market for two years.

While the story about Russia may have been only a rocket there is a chance that on its way up it sufficiently illuminated long-latent bull factors in wheat to maintain the new level.

There still is plenty of wheat in the world. The visible supply on October 1 was 500,000,000 bushels, which may be added pair for stockings.

33,000,000 bushels of United States wheat held in bond in Canada. That would make the total only 16,000,000 bushels less than the visible on October 1, 1930, when exporting countries held a record carryover.

The bright spot is that most of the visible is in the United States and Canada and must be called upon by the rest of the world in what appears now to be a bull market. However, a new crop is under way in the southern hemisphere. Cutting has started in Australia and by December exports should be getting heavy.

WOMEN: watch your BOWELS

What should women do to keep their bowels moving freely? A doctor should know the answer. That is why pure Syrup Pepsin is so good for women. It just suits their delicate organism. It is the prescription of an old family doctor who has treated thousands of women patients, and who made a special study of bowel troubles.

It is fine for children, too. They love its taste. Let them have it every time their tongues are coated or their skin is sallow. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is made from fresh laxative herbs, pure pepsin and other harmless ingredients. When you've a sick headache, can't eat, are bilious or sluggish; and at the times when you are most apt to be constipated, take a little of the famous prescription (all drug stores keep it ready in big bottles), and you'll know why Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the favorite laxative of over a million women!
