Officials to Complete '37 Fair Program Next Week

A representative of the Barnes-Carruthers Amusement Company will be in Ballinger September 13 to meet with the program committee of the Runnels County Fair and contract acts for features in front of the grandstand. This will be the last of the special bookings to be made and when these acts are contracted a complete announcement can be made of the full five days' program.

A crew of workmen are busy every day at Fair Park getting ready for the fall exposition. Both the main buildings have been remodeled and painters are completing the decoration of exhibit spaces this week. The new poultry building is well underway and a crew has started building the stock pens and judging stand.

The last booster trip to advertise the fair on October 9-16 was made last Friday evening when the largest group to make any trip in the series visited the citizens of the Talpa section. The trippers were received by a large crowd at Talpa and much interest was shown in the fair, especially the livestock department. Chester Cherry was in charge of the program with J. D. Motley extending greetings from Ballinger and John A. Barton telling the Talpa people about the 1937 fair.

Mr. Motley stated that no other booster trips would be made but that community meetings would be held with Mr. Barton, Miss Myra Tankersley and other fair association officials going to various communities to help them select products to place on exhibition and plan their exhibits.

Standing committees will be called early next week for a meeting to check up and see that all features are well arranged.

RUNNELS COUNTY PECAN GROWERS TO ATTEND BROWNWOOD MEETING

Several Runnels county pecan growers expect to go to Brownwood tomorrow to attend the convention of the West Texas Pecan Growers' Association. The meeting will be held at the bureau of entomology station near the city water works, starting at 10 a. m. After inspecting this station the delegates will go to the bureau of plant industry station to view the experimental work being done there. A barbecue lunch will be served at Lake Brownwood at noon. The remainder of the day's program, including talks by pecan experts, will be held at the lake.

The growers plan to devise means of advertising pecans nationally, to discuss plans for interesting the AAA in giving aid to pecan growers, and to hear of the operation of northwestern cooperatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Garvin and daughters, Misses Katherine and Grace Garvin, of Lawton, Oklahoma, spent the week-end in Ballinger, visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lynn and with other relatives and friends.

Mrs. E. D. Walker has returned from Houston, where she visited the past ten days with relatives.

Mrs. Thomas B. Hill returned Sunday from a three weeks' stay at Christoval.

McCulloch Sheriff Gets Youth Here After Confession

Sheriff Love Kimbrough, of McCulloch county, came here Tuesday and took a confession from Floyd Burrell in which he admitted the robbery of three Brady business houses on August 23. Burrell was arrested by Ballinger officers last Friday on a pistol carrying charge and after he was lodged in jail a number of cigarettes were found on his person and knowing that such merchandise was missing at Brady, local authorities called Sheriff Kimbrough, who came here and obtained the confession. The defendant was taken back to Brady after the pistol carrying charge here was dismissed.

The youth told of climbing on the roof of a building at Brady, letting himself down on the awning and entering a cafe through a window where he stole about $14 in cash and 16 cartons of cigarettes. This merchandise was left in an alley and he entered two adjoining buildings and took small sums of money and merchandise, which he also cached in the alley.

After leaving the buildings he went for his car, drove by, loaded the loot and left.

Burrell will be held at Brady until the next session of the grand jury investigates the case.

County is Divided Into 4 Districts For Health Work

Miss Beulah White, county health nurse, has divided Runnels county into four districts and will conduct her school health program through these divisions, starting in district No. 1 on October 1.

District No. 1 is in the northwestern portion of the county with Wingate as headquarters. A district lay leader will be in charge of the work in the district and is to conduct special educational programs in all schools included in the territory.

District No. 2 is a section west of Ballinger, extending all the way across the southern part of the county, with headquarters at Miles. Ballinger is headquarters of district No. 3, which includes territory east of this city. Headquarters for district 4 is at Winters and includes the northern and northeastern sections of the county.

The state also has been divided into sections for health work and district 6 headquarters are at San Angelo. Workers there will assist in the program in Runnels county. Dr. Thomas L. Wagoner is in direction of this district office; R. E. Weiss, sanitary engineer; Mrs. Zoe A. Jones, advisory nurse; and Miss Olga Buerst, supervisor. This district, the largest in the state, comprises 48 counties and yet has the smallest population.

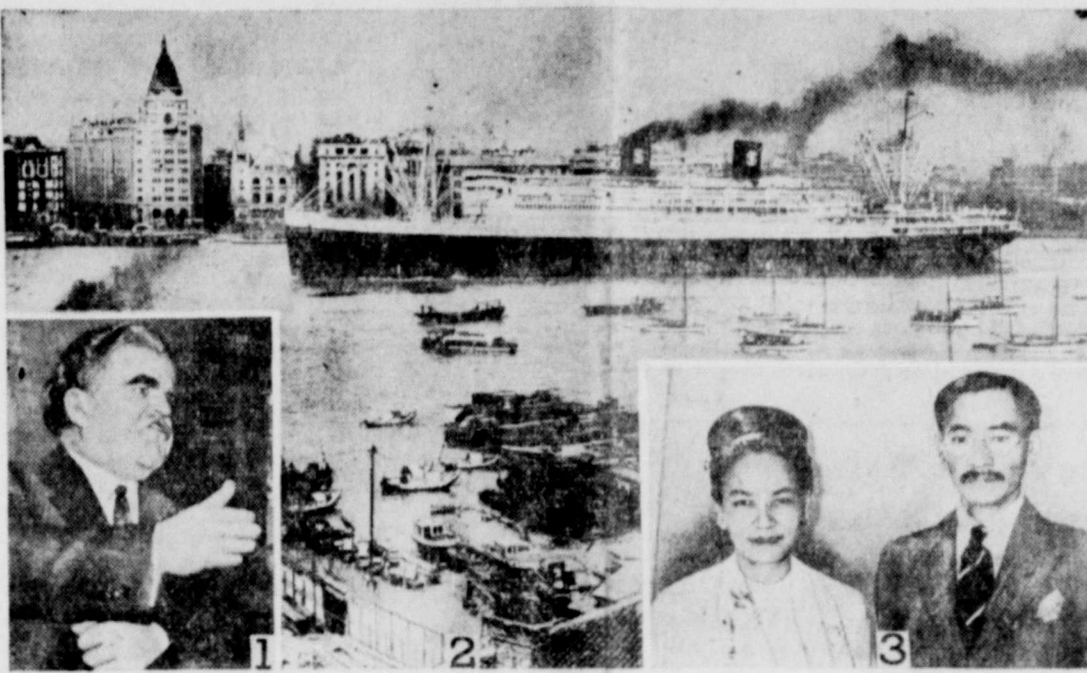

Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Boelsche returned Sunday night from Corpus Christi, where they spent last week on vacation.

Mertzon Grand Jury Indicts B. C. Ringer For Theft of Sheep

B. C. Ringer, Mason county ranchman, was arrested and held in the Tom Green county jail Tuesday on a charge of stealing sheep after being indicted by the 51st district court grand jury at Mertzon. Ringer and his cousin, John Ringer, were acquitted in 19th district court here recently on charges of receiving and concealing stolen sheep. They are under a four-year sentence assessed in a case tried at Sweetwater several months ago.

In the indictment returned at Mertzon the Ringers are alleged to have stolen sheep from Tom Ault, of Arden. A special officer of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association and the sheriff of Irion county made the arrest at San Angelo. Bond was set at $1,000.

Fire Prevention And Clean-Up Week Slated October 3-9

Mayor E. M. Lynn signed a proclamation today announcing the week of October 3 to 9 as Fire Prevention and Clean-Up Week. All forces of the city and the Ballinger fire department will stress fire prevention in every possible way during the special period and citizens will be asked to cooperate.

Fire prevention and cleaning up go hand in hand and to insure elimination of fire hazards a thorough clean-up campaign is necessary.

Ballinger citizens will be pleased to learn that the special campaign comes the week before the opening of the Runnels County Fair and will make the city more attractive to the many visitors who will throng here the following week.

The proclamation is issued early to give all notice of the work to be done and also give time to make a good job of it. Local leaders in the campaign stated that it was not necessary to wait until the opening of the campaign to start work and that all vacant lots, yards and alleys should be cleaned between now and the end of the special week.

Following is the mayor's proclamation: "Know All Men, Women and Children, by These Presents: That, WHEREAS the health, happiness, life and safety and general welfare of each citizen are dependent upon existing living conditions, and

"WHEREAS, the lives and property of our people are endangered by fire caused by rubbish accumulations in homes, offices, stores, factories, alleys and streets, and

"WHEREAS, a city is judged largely by its general appearance of cleanliness, freshness and beauty, and

"WHEREAS, fire to a very large degree is preventable by the proper application of education in fire prevention and fire protection; NOW, THEREFORE, I, as Mayor of the city of Ballinger, do hereby proclaim the week of October 3 to 9 as FIRE PREVENTION and CLEAN-UP WEEK, during which week I most respectfully urge our civic and commercial organizations, our school officials and teachers, and our citizenship as a whole, to continue to cooperate and work with the fire chief, fire marshal and city officials in an effort to control this useless loss of life and property by fire. Every home, office and place of business should be inspected carefully and all fire hazards removed. The fine record thus far this year is an inspiration for our continued efforts.

"IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I hereunto sign my name and affix my seal of office on this 2nd day of September, A. D. 1937.

"ESTES M. LYNN, Mayor."

Dove Hunting Season in This Zone Will Begin Wednesday

The dove shooting season will open in this zone on September 15 and merchants who sell guns and ammunition are getting ready to supply hunters. There are perhaps more doves in Runnels county this year than ever before and for several days good hunting will be had in the late afternoons.

Water holes will not be so good this year as recent rains have filled creeks and branches and the birds can water almost any place. Grain fields will provide good afternoon hunting while the birds are feeding, and mesquite thickets will be better during the middle of the day.

The same bag limit will be in force this year in this zone. Each hunter will be allowed 15 birds per day and hunters are not permitted to shoot after sundown. Hunters are also warned about shooting on roads. The law prohibits shooting along, on, or across a public road.

Hunters will find a slight advance on most shells this year but local hardware dealers expect a rush business and are ready to supply all types of loads.

A number of farmers and ranchmen in this vicinity have posted their places against hunting and the careful hunter will obtain permission before shooting birds.

Grindstaff Receives Many New Books For 1937-38 Term

County Superintendent E. C. Grindstaff is receiving several tons of new text books at his office this week. The books will be classified in the library room and will be ready for distribution when rural schools begin opening the first week in October.

The work is very heavy this year because in addition to the regular fill-in books for all courses taught in the rural schools, a number of text books have been changed and new books are being received to supply the grades affected by the changes.

New arithmetics have been received for use in the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades and will be issued to pupils when their schools open. New readers will also be used in the first, second and third grades, and a full supply has been shipped here.

A new dictionary for use in the sixth and seventh grades and other text books are supplied this year. One dictionary is to be issued for every two students in these grades in the rural schools.

At the end of the last term many books were condemned on account of bad condition and new books have been shipped here to take their place.

Five independent district schools, Ballinger, Winters, Miles, Norton and Wingate, were opened this week, and both the public school and St. Joseph's parochial school at Rowena will be opened next Monday.

BYLER SELLS LAMBS TO HARRIS MULLINS

Hamp Byler this week sold to Harris Mullins 373 lambs which weighed out more than 75 pounds each and netted him $6 per head. The lambs proved to be top notchers and this is one of the best sales reported in this section recently.

Mr. Byler lambed 371 lambs from 335 ewes in March, 76 sets of twins being produced in the bunch. He ran the animals on sudan for about two months and recently had them on his pasture, 4 miles northwest of Ballinger. A number of the lambs sold weigh more than 80 pounds. The 75-pound average weight was at the pens in Ballinger after about a twelve-hour shrinkage.

600 Steers to be Fed in Pens Here; Feed Contracted

W. A. Davis, of Eldorado, has contracted with the West Texas Cotton Oil Co. mill here for feed to fatten 600 head of steers in Ballinger this fall and winter. The first bunch of 300 will be put on feed about September 15 and will be kept in the pens for 120 days before they are shipped, and as soon as they are sold another 300 will be fed.

Harris Mullins will have charge of feeding the animals and they will be taken care of at the Mullins feed pens across Elm Creek from town.

Rations of meal, hulls and ground maize will be used in fattening the steers and the feed will be a large contract. Mr. Mullins has been feeding cattle and sheep here for several years and is thoroughly experienced in the business. Water is piped to the pens and the stock will be pushed as fast as possible until ready for market.

A carload of calves will be fed by club boys of this county as a part of their 1937-38 program, and the animals exhibited here next spring at a special show. Club boys will also feed sheep and hogs during the winter.

4 Liquor Violation Cases Filed Here; To be Heard Soon

County Attorney Roy L. Hill filed four liquor cases in county court here Monday and each have been set for trial on September 20. Three of the cases developed in Winters late Saturday afternoon when officers made raids.

W. A. Reeves, of Winters, was charged with possession of liquor for the purpose of sale. His bond was fixed at $250.

T. E. Vaughn, of Winters, was charged with possession of liquor for the purpose of sale. He made bond of $250 to appear for trial in county court September 20.

Mrs. Ivy Green, of Winters, was charged with a liquor violation and was released on $250 bond until her trial on September 20. A charge of selling whiskey was filed Monday afternoon against Mrs. Dan Liverman, of Ballinger.

Compliance Work On County's Farms Starts This Week

Soil Conservation Agent Thomas B. Hill will start training men for the compliance check-up of Runnels county farms under the 1937 government farm program. This week he will begin actual compliance inspections and will take two or three with him to give them instruction in the use of aerial maps and instruments. He will continue this work until a crew of ten or twelve men have been trained to do the work.

A questionnaire has been sent to all farmers who signed 1937 contracts to determine if they have tried to comply with the program. Those who state they have will be placed on the work sheets for check-up by the compliance crew and a section of the aerial maps will be taken by the crew to the farm for further measurements and inspections.

Mr. Hill stated that the county agent's office has received no forms for farmers to keep their records on cotton sales so they can secure subsidy payments in 1938. He stated that all farmers who expected to participate in the 1938 government program were asked to keep receipts of all bales sold, showing the date of sale, weight, price and buyer. When blanks are received for making application for subsidy payments, farmers will be notified.

Walker-Smith Co. Loses Cigarettes, Cash to Burglars

Burglars broke into the Walker-Smith Company warehouse here Friday night, knocked the knob from the safe and pried it open, taking $406.70 in endorsed checks and $26.76 in cash. The knob-knockers then took cigarettes valued at $190 from the warehouse and left by a rear door. Wires connecting the burglar alarm had been cut.

Local officers believe more than one man was on the "job." They sealed the wall of the building and sawed a hole in the top of the elevator shaft to gain entrance.

Although endorsed, the checks were subject to deposit only to the Walker-Smith Co. A check-up revealed that 133 cartons of Lucky Strikes, Chesterfields, Camels, Old Golds and Kools were stolen.

Drawers to the safe were left on the office floor and the safe door was closed. An expert opened it Saturday.

J. W. Craig, cashier, said that he worked on the books in the office until about 10:30 Friday night. The robbery was discovered by L. C. Tinsley Saturday morning when he opened the warehouse for the day.

A finger-print expert came here from San Angelo Saturday to look over the safe and office for clues. Officers are making an investigation but no arrests have been made.

Ballinger schools opened Monday morning with 1,055 students enrolling for work in the six buildings. The first day number will increase daily during the week and many others will enter school when the cotton season is nearly ended.

Enrollment at the Mexican school was light and only one teacher is on the job at this time but the assistant will begin his duties about the first part of November when the enrollment will probably jump to about 150. The four buildings housing white students experienced a slight gain for first day enrollment. There are still a large number of children who must ride busses here from other districts who will enroll later in the term.

All teachers except one were on duty this week and classes began regular study Tuesday morning. Downtown stores handling school supplies experienced a rush Monday when hundreds of children began purchasing stationery and other equipment.

Teachers were busy Tuesday afternoon working out schedule changes to forestall conflicts and to permit outside music study if possible. Extra work in pep squad, choral club, football and band was initiated this week and little confusion was experienced in getting the full program underway.

Enrollment by buildings was as follows:

Primary No. 2	143

RUNNELS COUNTY AGENTS AT COLLEGE CONFERENCE

County Agent John A. Barton left Saturday for College Station and Miss Myra Tankersley, home demonstration agent left Sunday for the same place. The Runnels county agents will be there all week attending the state conference of extension service agents.

This conference is usually held during the farm short course each summer but the program was cancelled at the same time the short course was called off on account of infantile paralysis. Agents from the entire state have been ordered there this week to make plans for another year's work and to hear discussions by leaders of special legislation regarding the farm program.

CITY COMMISSION SETS 1937 TAX RATE AT $1.10

The Ballinger city commission in session Wednesday afternoon set the municipal tax rate the same as it was last year, $1.10 on the $100 valuation. The 1937 tax rolls show a loss of about $30,000, the renditions totalling $2,780,000. Practically all this loss was in personal property, according to K. V. Northington, city secretary.

Tax levies will be computed on the $1.10 rate and property owners can begin paying their city taxes on October 1.

Ronald Colman is Starred In Capra's 'Lost Horizon'

Frank Capra's long-awaited film that it was decided to test it thoroughly with preview engagements in most of the large cities of the country before it was released generally.

For six months these limited preview engagements at advanced prices were booked. Most of the nation's more important motion picture critics saw the picture and found it worthy. Without exception they praised "Lost Horizon" and hailed it as one of the most important pictures ever to come out of Hollywood.

The mile-a-minute pace that Capra set in unfolding the thrilling and adventurous Hilton story won their cheers. The awesome beauty of the snowscapes and the contrasting charm of peaceful Shangri-La was hailed as the best photography of the year. The eminent fitness of Ronald Colman for the role of Conway and the splendid work of his supporting cast all came in for its full share of laudatory comment.

"Lost Horizon" stars Ronald Colman and the supporting players include Jane Wyatt, Edward Everett Horton, Isabel Jewell, Thomas Mitchell, Margo, H. B. Warner, John Howard and Sam Jaffe.

Three Royal Ex's All on One Spot

Although royalty is ever clannish, whether they retain their crowns or not, it is unusual to photograph three royal "ex's" in a group. They are at Lausanne, Switzerland. Left to right: ex-Queen Americo of Portugal, ex-King Ferdinand of Bulgaria and ex-King Alfonso of Spain. The occasion was the marriage of Princess Marie-Dolores, niece of ex-King Alfonso, to Prince August Czartoryski, descendant of an old Polish family.

Clark Gable, Jean Harlow In Racing Epic, 'Saratoga'

A complete horse farm, stocked with animals ranging from veteran race horses to colts, was constructed at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios that Lionel Barrymore might turn horse-breeder. This was one of the largest sets in "Saratoga," which will be shown at the Ritz Theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, September 12-13-14, with Clark Gable and Jean Harlow co-starred.

A dramatic story of racing, "Saratoga" is replete with racing thrills that required intensive technical work. Careening race horses were followed by cameras at all the big tracks in the United States, especially Saratoga.

A special camera car, capable of 100 miles an hour while carrying eight cameras on special mounts, was designed for the filming of race track and such thrills, the cameras being kept ahead of the horses.

Location trips were made by company and principals to tracks including Santa Anita, Caliente, Tanforan and Bay Meadows, and a special production unit was sent to Saratoga and Lexington, Kentucky.

Miss Harlow plays the spoiled daughter of a wealthy horse owner, and Gable is seen as a bookmaker whom she first hates, then learns to love. They battle, argue and fight their way to romance in episodes sometimes dramatic, sometimes hilariously funny.

The story is by Anita Loos and Robert Hopkins, authors of "San Francisco," a former Gable hit. The notable cast surrounding Miss Harlow and Gable includes Lionel Barrymore as Grandpa Clayton, the old horse breeder; Frank Morgan, Walter Pidgeon, Una Merkel, Cliff Edwards, George Zucco, Jonathan Hale, Hattie McDaniels,

REV. RAMEY REJECTS CALL TO LOCAL CHURCH

Rev. M. E. Ramey, of Edmond, Oklahoma, recently called to the Ballinger Baptist Church as pastor, notified the membership Sunday that it would be impossible for him to accept and that he would remain with the church at Edmond.

The church extended Rev. Ramey the call after a number of visiting preachers were heard in trial sermons here. At a church conference three weeks ago the membership accepted the recommendation of the pulpit committee and voted to extend the call to Rev. Ramey. He spent several days here last week looking over the field and meeting citizens of Ballinger.

E. Shepper, chairman of the pulpit committee, stated Monday morning that another recommendation would be made within a short time and a pastor obtained for the church as soon as possible.

The group of paintings include a number of landscapes of West Texas scenes, still life work, and pictures of flowers.

Mr. Nicholson will leave soon for Chicago where he will enter the University of Chicago for a course in graduate art. He has studied several years with Gonzales both in New Orleans and at the summer schools.

MANY MEXICAN PICKERS ARRIVING IN BALLINGER

Large numbers of cotton pickers, mostly Mexicans, began arriving here the past week-end and continued to come in this week. Some of the bigger crews were hauled on from four to seven trucks and numbered as many as 70 in the group. These large crews are contracting to gather entire crops, attend to hauling cotton to gins, and other details of getting out the crop.

There were so many pickers in Ballinger Tuesday that some lingered in town all day before jobs were found for them.

Pickers Rush Gins in This U. S. Forecast is 16,000

A partial check-up of Runnels county gins today revealed that between 6,000 and 7,000 bales of cotton had already been ginned in this county. Cotton men who were over the county this week stated that pickers were found in almost every field and many others were arriving to push the output. The bolls were reported opening fast and next week the gathering season will be in full blast with plenty of open cotton on all farms.

Following the announcement of the government forecast Wednesday the market here dropped 21 points but today's close was 9 points up.

The second government forecast on 1937 cotton production was released Wednesday morning, setting the total at 16,098,000 bales. This was an increase of 505,000 bales over the estimate on August 8 and caused the price to drop $1 a bale.

The census bureau of the department of commerce announced that 1,871,403 bales of this year's crop had already been ginned to September 1 as compared to 1,374,247 bales on the same date a year ago.

The condition of the crop on September 1 was estimated as 75 per cent normal. Last year on the same date the crop was declared 50 per cent normal.

Texas has 12,967,000 acres in cotton, estimated 76 per cent normal, and the production of 4,622,000 bales is predicted.

Crop conditions in Runnels county remain about the same as on August 8 when the first government forecast of the year was announced. Picking is well underway and the county's crop is expected to average about a third of a bale to the acre. Local forecasts on the county's production remain around 65,000 bales, with some chance of exceeding that if late cotton produces well.

Bearcats Take Two Games from Bronte; Still Leading Loop

The league leading Ballinger Bearcats took two lachrymose games from the Bronte Buckaroos Sunday, playing on the local diamond. Overcoming an early lead, the locals took the first stanza 19 to 9, and perked up in the second to win 6 to 2.

On the same date the San Angelo Sheeppardians took a double bill from Winters' Blizzards to finish up their season's playing one game behind Ballinger in league standing. The Herders took the first contest 14 to 6, and the nightcap 6 to 2.

The Miles team having dropped out, Rowena's Saints tangled with the Black Shepherders from San Angelo, downing the dusky players 4 to 3.

The Ballinger club will wind up the season next Sunday by playing Rowena at Rowena. If the Bearcats win both games, everything will be ducky but if they lose them, a playoff with the San Angelo lads will be necessary to decide the second-half winner. The winner of the second half will play the Brontemen, first half champs, probably September 19.

FORMER BALLINGER MAN DIES

Frank B. Creighton died at his home in Wichita Falls Tuesday afternoon. Decedent formerly lived in this county and married Miss Inez Newman in Ballinger. The widow was a nurse in this section for a number of years, assisting Drs. A. S. Love and W. B. Halley on many cases.

Miss Mayola Jacob has returned to Ballinger after a two weeks' stay with relatives in Temple.

Local Pep Squad Begins Training; Bugles Are Added

The Ballinger high school pep squad started work this week as one of the first school organizations to get underway. Miss Elizabeth Parker is in charge of the girls and leaders are Miss Virginia McShan, Miss Cordelia Lynn and Miss Mary Simpson. The squad will be limited to fifty girls and the members of the drum and bugle corps.

The girls will get their uniforms this week and expect to take the first bow at the Ballinger-Mozelle football game on September 17 in full force.

Last year eight drums were added to the pep squad and before the end of the season the girls were making a nice showing on the field. This year four bugles will be added and the eight drums retained. Six of the eight drummers are new this year but already are learning their strokes.

Another new feature added this year will be a novelty for the fans here. The school has never had an alma mater song. This year the song will be introduced at chapel periods and the squad and band will give it just before the kick-off of the first game. Ballinger citizens are asked to learn the song and always be ready to stand and help sing it. The words are as follows:

"Here's a toast to the old Bearcats,
Hail to the grand old boys;
Fight, fight is our motto,
Fight until the end.

"If you think we don't have spirit,
Just watch that grand old drive;
Fight, fight until the end,
And victory is ours."

Clements is Made Head Rotary Club For Rest of Year

George Clements is the new president of the Ballinger Rotary Club, succeeding Horace Sessions, who resigned last week to move to Midland. Mr. Clements has been a member of the board of directors of the club this year and was elected to fill the executive position for the remainder of the year.

At the Tuesday noon luncheon the program theme was "Back to School," and three speakers were presented by the program chairman. Miss Mary Talbot, supervisor of public school music, discussed the aims in her work for the Ballinger schools this year. She will have supervision of music from the first to the eleventh grade and in addition to regular classes, will direct and develop four choral clubs. A club for boys and girls will be started at the junior high school, and for the first time a separate club for boys and girls will be organized in the senior high school.

Billy Jack May, member of the high school football team, told the Rotarians something of what to expect from the Bearcats this season. He said 25 youths were ready to put the fight into the game that would bring wins.

Miss Virginia McShan, senior pep squad leader, told of the preparations underway for the 1937 squad and how the girls would support the boys in all games this fall.

Gerald Steed, formerly of Houston, has accepted a position with Higginbotham Bros. & Co. and will do office work and help out in the gents' furnishings department.

IN MEMORIAM

In Memory of Olan Strickland "Little Strick," as most of us knew and loved, is gone. The Lord needed him up above, and called him from his earthly home; yes, we'll all miss him, but we're happy to know that he will be contented and happy with his Heavenly Father, away from all the grief and pain of this world. And to his family, who'll miss him most, let me say, just remember that some day, bye and bye, when the Lord calls all His children Home, Olan will be there to greet his loved ones, and be with them forever. So, friends, don't weep, just think of our friend as being asleep, and that some sweet day, we'll all meet in a happy reunion.

CONSERVATION PROGRAM WILL EQUAL RESULTS OBTAINED DURING 1936

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 8.—The 1937 agricultural conservation program will be more successful than the 1936 program, George Slaughter, chairman of the Texas agricultural conservation committee, predicted here after a meeting of the committee.

The AAA office has received 23,084 applications for entry in the current program, within a hundred of the number received in 1936, Slaughter said. The fact that farmers are more familiar with the program than they were last year leads him to believe that a greater number will comply with the terms under which grants are made.

Of the more than 239,000 farmers who filled out work sheets in 1936, some 198,400 fulfilled provisions of the program. These farmers diverted 4,338,000 acres from soil-depleting crops to soil building uses, and employed soil building practices, such as terracing, on an additional 4,901,881 acres.

The state office has suspended 52,560 work sheets and returned them to the counties for correction. All except 402 have been corrected and returned to College Station, Slaughter said.

Work sheets have been sent to 123 counties for final adjustments, according to Slaughter, and some 60 additional counties will have their quotas released within the next few days.

More than 18,000 applications for appraisals under the range conservation feature of the program are in the state office, Slaughter said. These applications cover in excess of 62 million acres. Range supervisors are checking range improving practices completed by ranchmen in 137 counties.

Miss Coral Clark Writes of Conditions in China

Letters received here from Miss Coral Clark, former Ballinger high school teacher, stationed at Boone Compound, Wuchang, China, relate many interesting incidents which occurred during several months. The letters were started on September 27, 1936, and the last finished on January 25, 1937.

Miss Clark tells about living conditions, parties, growing flowers, work of her church, and personal matters about her health. Below are excerpts from the letters that will be of interest to local citizens:

"Every few days recently someone has shot a Japanese policeman or a soldier and Japan is getting very upset about it so we may wake up some day to the big gun music. The only thing that has kept Japan off so far I think is that she is so upset at home and that she fears to start anything else. Also, she has found that Manchuria has cost far more than she has been able to exploit it. You may have seen where American grown soy beans have taken the market against the ones grown in Manchuria, which has been the source of bean products so long. Here is hoping that Japan's internal troubles continue so that she lets us alone. Chiang Kai Shek has done more to unify China than anyone for ages and with modern means of communication he may be able to hold it better than the others have done.

"Right now Wuchang is having a perfect orgy of road building in every direction and when you start out somewhere you are never certain any more how you are going to get there because of the torn up roads. Boone has at last got city water and it is so nice to have enough.

"I have had my first strike this week and by a class to whom I had been particularly nice. They assured me it was not on my account but because they had too much to do. Then went to camp last spring, thereby losing at least two months' work and now they have to make it up, as the government requires that they do just as much if they had been here all the time.

"October 4, 1936—Wang sz-fu came back from Huang Pi just now and he came to report that the country is full of soldiers carrying ammunition, etc. I went out afterwards to see what my neighbors knew and found that all Wang said was true. Troops have been pouring into this center from the south and for several days they have been stationed here and there so as to show as little as possible. In one night in Hankow they surrounded the Japanese concession with fortifications to protect Japanese citizens' according to Chiang Kai Shek's orders. The Japanese papers said next day they were bottled up, which of course is what the Chinese aimed to do for every Japanese concession in China has been made a center for supplying ammunition in case of

FIRST, THERE'S AN IDEA

All good things begin with an idea. Improved motor fuels, better motor oils are no exception to that rule. So Humble's continuous improvement policy puts a premium on ideas. First, a technician gets an idea; he and his fellows elaborate it, theorize about it, satisfy themselves it's sound. Then they test it in the laboratory, that graveyard of many ideas which look good on paper. If the idea passes the laboratory test, the supreme test of all awaits it—the open road. The new product, the improved product, goes through a gruelling grind no ordinary driving would ever give it. Then—if it stands up—it's offered to you.

When, therefore, we invite you to test our Humble products in your car, we're confident you'll like them. We have tested them ourselves and we know they're good!

The SNAPSHOT GUILD SCHOOL DAYS ARE HERE

The many school activities offer countless opportunities for snapping pictures that you will enjoy in years to come.

If there was ever a snapshotter's paradise, it's school for those who attend it. It may be a one-room school or it may be a great university. Wherever, whatever it may be, it's crammed with unbeatable picture possibilities.

Yet we might as well face the fact of the matter—few snapshotters make the most of school's snapshotting opportunities. Perhaps they are dazzled by the very wealth of the material at hand. More likely, they assume that somebody else is going to take the pictures. And that's a fatal mistake. For nobody else can see things as you see them. And it's what you see that means most to you—and to the folks at home, now or years from now.

The question, then, is how to make the most of school's picture possibilities. A little planning will do the trick.

First, about the right camera for school. Any camera will do, providing it is clean and in good order and uses a size of film that is easily available anywhere. If yours has a fast lens and a fast shutter, you'll have an advantage in taking shots at sporting events, but such a camera is not at all essential. With a little care you can make even the simplest box camera turn out entirely satisfactory pictures. Then, how can snapshotting be planned? All of it, of course, cannot be planned, but many of the most important shots can be. Why not work out a scenario, Hollywood fashion?

First of all, whether school's just around the corner or a thousand miles away, you'll want a few good shots of home. Then a view or two taken on the way to school. Maybe those views seem commonplace now, but wait a few years.

At school, of course, there are the obvious shots of the buildings, the grounds, new classmates, teachers, old friends, sports, picnics, class ceremonies, and so on. It's a good idea to take them so as to form a kind of continued story. Then, when they are mounted in your album, the pictorial story will flow along evenly.

A really good collection of school pictures is hard to find, as any school yearbook editor will tell you. Yet there's nothing much easier to take; and few snapshots increase in value, year after year, as surely as those taken at school. John van Gulder

Strange But True

Where the Heart is

The bugaboo of high costs is keeping many people from owning homes. We like to talk to people like that, because it is such a simple matter to show them the error of their ways. Our building materials are priced right, and we furnish the plans for building the house, as well.

CLAY

There is No Substitute for Quality

trouble. I hear that the bishop is quite worried and is looking for an old temple in the country to which he can take us in case of air raids which are greatly feared at this time. I said to him that I hated to think of soldiers being stationed in my newly painted kitchen and he said that I need not worry of that but it might happen that a bomb might land in it. Of course there is telling what may happen but I remember that during the siege of Wuchang that bombs burst everywhere but not a single Chinese Christian or a missionary was hurt. When I was running to get my hat and scarf to escape from the mob in Nanking I found myself singing softly 'But the Lord is Mindful of His Own.'

"December 13, 1936—We have just heard that Chang Liang, son of the bandit chieftain who used to rule Manchuria before the Japanese killed him, captured and is holding General and Madam Chiang Kai Shek. Poor, poor China, what will happen next nobody knows.

"Christmas Day—Christmas day and the first beautiful day we have had in weeks. The drought broke about two weeks ago and with the exception of a few hours of sunlight, we have had rain or snow and overcast skies all the time. The only cloud that mars our happiness today, is that we have had no news from General

Chiang Kai Shek since his wife, brother-in-law, T. V. Soong; and Mr. Donald arrived in Sianfu three days ago. We don't trust Chang Hsueh Liang one bit. Ever since he captured the generalissimo the whole of China, natives and foreigners alike, have waited in suspense for news. The whole country has risen up in condemnation of Chang Hsueh Liang and he has received hundreds of telegrams from all parts of the country telling him just what people really thought of him. Generals who two months ago were in the rebellion themselves, have sworn their allegiance to Chiang and when a rumor which apparently came from reliable sources said Chiang had been released, Canton, which was the headquarters of the recent rebellion, simply went wild with joy. Last Monday a rumor came here through government officials saying Chiang had arrived in Nanking on Sunday and the Boone boys popped quantities of firecrackers only to find out later that their money had been burned for nothing.

"Another beautiful day, but best of all the news which came last night that Chiang Kai Shek had been released and that he had arrived in Loyang at 5 o'clock accompanied by Madam Chiang in a plane piloted by his American pilot. Chiang's release was the climax to Christmas for all for deep down in our hearts I think that was what everyone wanted more than anything. He isn't perfect of course but he seems to be the one man who can hold China together and only those who have lived out here for many years can appreciate the changes that have taken place during his regime. Good roads connect the outlying provinces with the center of culture and even poor people travel more than folks of their class ever did before, thus tending to unify the language and customs. In times past each place had a dialect and customs of its own. People from the north could not understand people from the south and no one had any interest in anyone outside his own family. While there is still much to be done you cannot help being amazed at the changes which has taken place in the interests of the people of the whole country. The other day my cook quite proudly showed me a newspaper in which were the names of cooks on the compound who had contributed to the Suiyuen campaign in the north. In these days of strain he and I regularly compare notes on the news which comes out in the foreign and Chinese papers. A few years ago a newspaper-reading cook who contributed to armies fighting in provinces miles and miles away would have been impossible. We do not yet know the terms of Chiang's release but you may sure that it was paid for and the Chinese have a keener sense of values than we, for no matter what apparently large sum was paid, it will be less than the cost of a civil war which would certainly in time turn into a more general conflict not to mention the value that Chiang is to the country."

Water Consumption Heavy for August; Collections Boosted

Water consumption in Ballinger during August reached the high peak for the year, a total of 12,786,000 gallons being furnished local consumers. The average daily consumption was 412,000 gallons and the highest day was 709,000 gallons. This required an average daily pumping time for the month of 10 hours and 10 minutes.

The use of city water for irrigation will slump during September as many yards will not be watered further this year and cooler nights will make the need of irrigation less for growing shrubs.

Abilene Boosters Advertise Free Fair In Hour Stop Here

The Young Men's Boosters Club of Abilene, headed by the Abilene high school band, invaded Ballinger at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon on the second day of their trips to 65 West Texas towns to advertise the West Texas Fair, October 4-9.

After parading through the streets, a short program was presented at the intersection of Seventh Street and Hutchings Avenue. D. H. Jefferies, president of the West Texas Fair Association, presided, and after extending greetings, introduced Gray Brown, Abilene attorney, who told something of what might be expected at the 1937 fair.

Mr. Brown stated that the first three days should be of interest to every person in this county as it would center around cotton production and development. Afternoon and night programs for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will include pageants closing with the coronation of King Queen Cotton on Wednesday night. An invitation was extended to Ballinger to select a princess to take part in these pageants.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday of fair week, the speaker said, would feature horse racing in the afternoon with rodeo features at night. A free gate will be something new at the West Texas Fair this fall and the only admission charge will be for entrance to the grandstand.

As a special feature Gene Estes offered an accordion and whistling number. The Abilene band completed the program of entertainment here.

After their downtown program the boosters took dinner at the Central Hotel and left for other stops on the afternoon schedule.

The Abilenians are making five trips to advertise the fair and will cover more than 1,200 miles. C. D. Knight is in charge of all trips.

Relatives here were notified of his serious condition last Thursday and rushed to his bedside and remained until his death.

Ballinger friends who attended the last rites included: W. A. Forgey, George Clements, E. E. King, J. D. Motley, Corkill Motley, G. P. Teague, C. J. Bell, H. M. Sledge, Tom Greig, Fred Holliday, Mrs. C. W. Cheatham and Miss Bobbie Johnson.

Ledger subscribers are requested to notify the publisher of any change in their addresses promptly. Under the new postal laws newspapers and periodicals must pay postage due for notices of any change in addresses furnished by the postoffice. The best plan for all concerned is to send the change of address in advance.

White, Mexican and negro cotton pickers are pouring into Runnels county to help gather the 1937 crop which is estimated at 60,000 to 70,000 bales. All gins were kept busy to nearly capacity last week and more pickers arrived the past week-end to boost farm labor ranks in the county. The towns were jammed with shoppers the past week-end and many Mexicans remained until late Sunday before returning to the fields.

Ballinger school campuses were the busiest spots in town Monday morning when students assembled to receive books and assignments for regular classwork. All teachers except one were on the job and first day enrollment was on a par with that of recent years. Buses began operations Monday morning and all those arriving here were filled with pupils, most of them coming for high school courses.

Ballinger citizens will be largely responsible for the success of the 1937 Runnels County Fair. A few officials of the fair association have been doing most of the work to date but with only one month left it is a job for every person in Ballinger who has the interest of the fair at heart. Trade trippers have told this entire section about the revival of the fair to the equal of the pre-depression era and have invited thousands to see the biggest show ever attempted in Ballinger. Our neighbors are interested and will place exhibits in the halls to make that part of the exposition a success. Still there are entertainment and parade committees, ticket sellers, concessionaires, chairmen of various departments and other workers to help with the actual running of the fair to be supplied. Not less than 100 local citizens will be needed in presenting this big celebration.

"LEND A HAND"

This year Fire Prevention Week will be observed from October 3 to 9. The slogan for the week featured in posters and news releases issued by the national board of fire underwriters, is "Lend a Hand."

This slogan is particularly apt. For if fire is to be prevented and controlled—and the hundreds of millions of dollars and thousands of lives fire destroys each year are to be saved—all of us must lend a hand. Fire is largely an individual problem—each one of us, with the exercise of a little effort and care, can easily eliminate the common hazards on our property.

Fire Prevention Week is nearly a month away—but no one need wait for it. It is a simple matter to put on an individualized fire prevention period of your own, starting today. How long has it been since you cleaned out basement and attic—old newspapers, furniture, clothing and other odds and ends that are prolific sources of fire. In a few months maximum demands will be made upon your heating devices—before then, have them inspected by an expert, and if necessary, repair and replace parts. Remember that

NOTES

[Clipped from Our Exchanges]

A Dallas concern, with a low bid of $27,680, was awarded the contract for construction of a municipal butane gas system at Menard last week. It is anticipated that work will begin on the new plant within two weeks. The contract price is less than the amount at first thought necessary for construction of the plant. Approximately 1,000 feet of pipe included in the original plans will not be laid until necessary.

Two new school buses have been added to the fleet used to bring children to the Junction schools during the current school year. The Tea Cup school will be included in the Junction district for the first time. The teacher of that school will continue to live at Tea Cup and will ride the bus with the children.

C. M. Gay, for the past three years farm agent of Lipscomb county, arrived at Fort Stockton last week to take up his duties as Pecos county agent, replacing L. E. Bailey, who was transferred to Karnes City last July. Mr. Gay is a graduate of Texas A. & M. College and before going to Lipscomb county, was with a packing company in El Paso.

Formal opening of the new farmers' market on the trading block in Stephenville was held Saturday. Letters were mailed to farmers inviting them to bring their produce in early Saturday and have it ready for the one-cent sale which lasted all day. Watermelons, vegetables, and fruits were offered for sale and the addition of one cent to the purchase price entitled the customer to two of the same kind of product.

The first sale of fall mohair was made in Mason county last week when the Hoffmann Dry Goods Company bought 20,000 pounds contracted at 60 and 70 cents.

The H. L. Knight gin at Comanche last week ginned a 484-pound bale of cotton in 18 minutes. It was the second bale ginned in Comanche county this season. Gin officials said if the fleece had been completely dry, the bale could have been ginned in 12 minutes.

Brownwood turkey growers may soon be realizing another profit from their birds. The Brownwood Chamber of Commerce recently amateur electrical repairs may be the cause of turning your home into a heap of ash and wreckage, unless properly installed and inspected.

Yes, it's always time to "Lend a Hand" when fire is involved.

The selection of adequate and appropriate clothing and the proper care of this clothing are receiving a great deal of attention from West Texas home demonstration club women and 4-H club girls, reports from county home demonstration agents in this territory indicate.

Mrs. Palmer West, of Schleicher county, has built a closet 8 feet by 3 1/2 feet by 2 feet with three removable shelves across one end; a top space for storing quilts, luggage, and out of season things; a shoe rack; a hat rack; and a rod for hanging clothes. The inside of the closet is papered to match the room and the woodwork is varnished. The closet cost $7.65.

Mrs. West has made 15 garments. For these she either cut the garments by a foundation pattern or checked them by one. They consisted of nine dresses, a suit made from one of her husband's suits; a pair of pajamas; a slip; a house coat; and a dress made from an old evening dress.

"I'm so proud of my new clothes closet. Now I can take good care of my clothes," says Christine Holland, Ward county 4-H club girl. Her closet is made of three ply veneer wood, reaches to the ceiling, and has a rod for hanging clothes and also has plenty of shelf space.

Fifty-one Brown county 4-H club girls report having achieved all of their clothing goals. Individual clothing accounts were kept by 35 girls who spent $265.47 for their clothes. These girls made 59 cotton dresses and 20 silk and wool dresses with a total value of $204. They also built 8 new clothes closets at a cost of $7.74 and remodeled 11 others at a cost of $3.99.

SPORTS

The Ballinger Bearcats stepped a notch nearer the championship of the second half in the Concho Basin League Sunday afternoon by annexing two games from the Bronte club, winner of the first half. Both games were rather slow and uninteresting, the locals finally overcoming an early lead held by the visitors.

It now appears that Sunday, September 19, will be the date of the play-off with the Ballinger and Bronte teams fighting for the league championship. The Bearcats will go to Rowena Sunday for two games. They now hold a one game lead over San Angelo and Manager W. A. Hampton will send a strong array of players into the games Sunday in an effort to win the second half.

The Bearcats are strong with five good pitchers and plenty of other material to put a good team in the field during the play-off series. Lee, White, Ray, Day and Virden are ready for mound duty with Landers in good condition to do the receiving. Landers hit two home-runs in one inning Sunday afternoon to top hitting honors for the day.

Fans are dividing their interest between baseball and football just now and every movement at high school field is being watched with interest to see just what kind of a football machine will take part in district 25-B games this fall. Coaches Wright and Gibbs are putting more than three teams through daily workouts to get the boys in condition as fast as possible.

According to sports writers and quarterbacks, the season is about ready to close and it has settled down to either Winters or Brady for the championship. The Blizzards have been advertised as ready to duplicate for the championship, forfeited last year because of playing an ineligible, and sports writers at Brady say the Bulldogs are on their way, but several other coaches feel differently.

Bearcat coaches think they also have the makings of a fair ball club and present as evidence a bunch of lettermen and other athletes who had seven weeks' spring training. May, Fritz, Powers, Morris, Krempin, Allen and others provide a strong backfield against any kind of a threat. Carter, Gresett and Flanagan at tackle positions offer about 600 pounds of beef with a year's experience. Barnett and Roe at ends will have to step to keep their seats and numerous fast guards are showing plenty of speed and blocking. At center are Parrish, Jones and Davis, with each youth exhibiting about the same stuff at this stage of the game.

Coach Frederick Kingsbury at junior high will start a large squad of boys to training this week. He will work under the high school coaches, converting the juniors into players that will make a splendid high school team in a few years.

DEPARTMENT STORE SALES CONTINUE UPWARD TREND

AUSTIN, Sept. 8.—Department store sales in Texas, as measured in dollars, during July were well above those of the corresponding month last year and the decline from June was considerably less than the usual seasonal drop, the University of Texas bureau of business research has announced.

Reports from 108 representative Texas establishments show an increase in sales during July of 4.5 per cent over a year ago. The decline from June was 17.6 per cent, whereas the normal seasonal recession is nearly 22 per cent. There was a slight increase in the percentage of credit sales as compared with a year ago, while the percentage of outstanding accounts collected remained virtually the same.

Less Monthly Discomfort

Many women, who formerly suffered from a weak, run-down condition as a result of poor assimilation of food, say they benefited by taking CARDUI, a special medicine for women. They found it helped to increase the appetite and improve digestion, thereby bringing them more strength from their food.

Naturally there is less discomfort at monthly periods when the system has been strengthened and the various functions restored and regulated.

Cardui, praised by thousands of women, is well worth trying. Of course, if not benefited, consult a physician.

Cheaper Feeds for Livestock Prove Profitable

(This is one of a series of short, authentic articles on livestock production and feeding, published as a service to farmers and stockmen in cooperation with the West Texas Cottonseed Co. mills.)

With more abundant supplies, prices of many farm crops are lower this fall than a year ago or than last spring, analysis of government and market reports reveals. On the other hand, prices of livestock and their products are generally higher, making livestock feeding especially profitable at this time.

On August 15 this year, says the department of agriculture, the index of all farm products prices was 2 points lower than a month ago and 1 point under a year ago. Prices of two leading Southern crops—cotton and cottonseed—showed less decline than several other farm products, dropping only 16 points against 20 points decline for all grains and 22 points for fruit. Prices of meat animals and animal products, however, rose from July to August.

Cottonseed is an example of a major crop whose value has been cut by lower prices of its products. Due to decreases of 25 to 45 per cent in prices of cottonseed meal, hulls, oil and linters—the products which determine the value of the seed itself—the value of cottonseed is less than a year ago. As a result of this reduction in products' prices, cottonseed has dropped in value along with corn, wheat, oats, fruits and many other farm crops.

In addition to reduced prices of products, the low quality of some seed has been a factor in limiting its value in many localities. Chemical analyses show cottonseed to be 40 to 80 pounds, or more, lower in oil in certain areas than the average for the Cotton Belt as a whole. This, alone, may cut the value of seed by several dollars per ton.

Cotton growers who sell their seed, or exchange it, and obtain meal and hulls are obtaining their meal and hulls for considerably less than a year ago. In many cases, the cotton grower can eliminate entirely any difference between the money value of his seed this year and last if he uses the products from the seed. For example, if a ton of seed last year purchased 18 sacks of meal, and a ton of seed this year will purchase 18 sacks of meal, the farmer who uses meal obtains the same feeding value as a year ago. In fact, because of higher livestock prices, he probably will receive a higher return from his seed than a year ago.

Cottonseed meal not only is cheaper than a year ago, but also is relatively cheaper than most other feedstuffs of similar feeding value. By using cottonseed meal to supplement and replace part of the higher-priced farm grains in livestock rations, Southern cotton growers and ranchmen can take advantage of present favorable livestock markets.

Livestock prices are well above a year ago, which should encourage increased livestock feeding throughout the South, where cheap feed is available. Prices of beef cattle are approximately 36 per cent above a year ago, of hogs 10 per cent higher, and of lambs 8 per cent higher.

The low cost of meal and hulls this year, compared to the relatively high value of beef, mutton and pork, makes it possible for Southern farmers to use meal and hulls and get higher returns from a ton of seed exchanged for meal and hulls than could be realized from a ton of seed last year—even though seed sells for less on the market this year. Intelligent use of the products of cottonseed will put money in the pockets of Southern farmers.

Federal Marihuana Law Now in Effect

Effective September 1 the marihuana bill became a federal law. Before that time the sale of marihuana had been regulated by state laws in only a few states.

The federal law defines marihuana as "all parts of the plant Cannabis sativa L., whether growing or not; the seeds thereof; the resin extracted from any part of such plants; and every compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, mixture or preparation of such plant, its seeds or resin."

Retailers, wholesalers, physicians and all others who handle any product containing cannabis must pay an excise tax. Every physician, dentist, veterinarian, etc., must pay $1 a year and all others who deal in, or dispense the drug, must pay $3. Retailers will be required to pay $3 per year with a separate tax on each place where the product is sold. The law also imposes a tax of $1 per ounce on the sale or transfer of any product containing cannabis or any form of cannabis itself.
