Varied spring blooms decorated the young people's assembly room where bowls of roses, lilies, and pansies were interspersed with white tapers in white holders along the entire length of the T-shaped table. The affair was planned by Mrs. Carl Black, society president; Mrs. Ernest Moody, educational chairman; Miss Gladys Kemp, young people's superintendent; and Mrs. C. W. Jennings, social chairman.

U. S. Planes on Way to Harass Enemy

An unpleasant sight for Axis eyes is this cargo of planes on the way to battlefields, where they will harass the enemy. As they near their destination the accompanying vessels of the convoy swing astern of the carrier with its precious cargo. Army mechanics can be seen giving the planes a final checkup.

Agnew Home Again Scene of Cadet Wedding

The pretty Wilke Terrace home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Agnew was again the scene of a cadet wedding on Saturday evening when Miss Phyllis Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney L. Myers of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, became the bride of aviation cadet, John K. Bonnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben S. Bonnell of Eldridge, Iowa. The double ring ceremony was read before a group of friends by the Rev. John C. Johnson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

The altar, improvised before the triple arched living room windows, was of tall baskets of pink delphinium, madonna lilies and mock orange against a background of ferns in graduated heights and branched floor candelabra holding white candles. All other floral arrangements were in the bride's chosen colors of pink and white.

Mrs. Alex McGregor, pianist for the nuptial music, played Liebestraum and "Just a Song at Twilight" as candles were lighted and accompanied Mrs. J. A. Schanble who sang "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" and d'Hardelot's "Because." She used the traditional Lohengrin and Mendelssohn marches.

The bride wore a two-piece dress of seafoam sheer with cocoa brown accessories and corsage of gardenias and pink sweetheart roses.

The bride's mother, who attended her daughter as matron of honor, wore a two-piece dress of lucite sandune crepe with black accessories and corsage of salmon pink carnations. Aviation Cadet Robert Butler was best man.

Mrs. Bonnell received her bachelor of music degree from Iowa University in April. She was a member of Alpha Chi Omega. Cadet Bonnell attended Iowa University three years and is a member of Class 431 at Bruce Field.

For the informal reception, which immediately followed the ceremony, the lace-laid table was centered with a low bowl of pink and white blooms. The all-white decorated tiered cake, which was topped with a miniature bride and soldier groom under a tiny arch, was placed at one end and the crystal punch bowl at the other. Mrs. J. H. Endacott ladled punch and Mrs. E. L. Carter cut the cake. Dorothy Bruce and Marilyn Agnew presided at the guest register.

Pressure Cooker Rationing Plan Being Drafted

COLLEGE STATION, May 12.—Suggestions for making the best use of Texas' quota of rationed pressure cookers were drafted here recently by the state advisory committee on pressure cooker rationing after a conference with representatives of the Texas USDA war board.

Members of the committee present included Mildred Horton, of the A. & M. College extension service, chairman; Mattie A. Trickey, Dallas, of the farm security administration; Ruth Huey, Austin, of the department of homemaking education; and Ed Voltin, war board assistant, AAA.

Thus far the Texas USDA war board has not been advised what Texas' share will be of the 150,000 war model cookers being manufactured by authority of the war production board. County farm rationing committees of the county USDA war boards will be responsible for the pressure cooker rationing program, but they may obtain assistance of advisory committees composed of three women familiar with rural and urban needs for cookers.

In addition, county consultant committees may be set up, consisting of the county home demonstration agent, the FSA home supervisor, and a homemaking teacher to be designated by the department of homemaking education. The state advisory committee is suggesting to these representatives that they give instructions on the use and care of the war-model pressure cookers to all persons and groups obtaining them.

"We recommend use of the steam pressure cooker as the only safe method for canning non-acid vegetables and meats," members of the committee said following their conference. "Home Canning of Fruits and Vegetables," a publication of the Texas A. & M. extension service, will be used by the three agencies as the technical guide in canning.

C. R. Stone returned Tuesday from Ft. Worth and Dallas, where he had been to buy merchandise for his store.

"Hey, Mister, You Dropped a Watt!"

REDDY: What on earth are you going to do with all those candles?
MAN: Light my home. I'm cutting down expenses.
REDDY: H-h-u-u-m-mm. Then you need about 500 pounds of candles a month to give you the same kind of good light. D'you know what that'd cost?
MAN: Nope. But I guess it'd save me money.
REDDY: Well, let's do some figuring. That many candles would cost you about $200—
MAN: Wow! I couldn't afford that. My monthly electric bill is only three dollars or so.
REDDY: Well, that's just about average. But remember that only about 85¢ of it goes for light. The rest pays for electricity to run your radio and refrigerator—
MAN: Say, that's not so much when you come to think of it.
REDDY: Right! Electricity's cheaper than it's ever been. You're getting about twice as much for your money as just 10 or 15 years ago.
MAN: How can that be? My bill hasn't changed.
REDDY: Maybe not. Think of the bigger and better lamps you're using and the electric appliances you've added. Fifteen years ago, did you have an electric refrigerator?
MAN: No-o-o.
REDDY: Radio? Electric mixer? Air conditioner?
MAN: No... Say, how come I get so much more electricity for about the same money I used to pay?
REDDY: That's easy. Experience. Training. Well-balanced business methods.

MAN: I don't get it.
REDDY: It's like this. The men and women who run the West Texas Utilities know their job. That job is to give you the best possible service at the lowest possible cost. And they're doing it! Today—when most everything else is going up—ELECTRICITY IS STILL CHEAP!

Wheless Bros. Hosts To Hundreds Sunday

Wheless Bros. officially closed their feeding season Sunday when they were hosts to their workers, a group of Bruce Field cadets and their wives, and a large number of other invited guests at a barbecue dinner on the Hays place south of Ballinger on the Colorado River.

This is an annual affair which is staged each year at the end of the season but this year was enlarged to include a large number of soldiers and their wives who were away from home on Mother's Day. Robert Wheless said they hoped to make the day a little better for the men in uniform and asked that they let local people take the place of their home folk for the day.

The dinner was the highpoint of the entire day with beef, mutton and all side dishes prepared to perfection. The choicest meats had been selected for the barbecue and experts watched the meat all the morning to have it just right when the group was served at noon. Housewives had prepared salads and other delicacies and at noon large tables were arranged on which the meal was served.

After the noon meal was served there was still a large amount of food left and busses were sent to town to bring out 100 more cadets for the afternoon lunch.

Wheless Bros. will soon ship the last of the livestock in their pens west of Ballinger. The season has been a very successful one, although they have experienced considerable trouble in getting enough feed to keep the large herds in good condition. Feed was hauled here from other sections of Texas during the feeding period and large shipments of corn, maize, etc., have been bought wherever they could be found. Wheless Bros. also have purchased large quantities of commercial feed and proteins have been secured from whatever source was available.

Some feeding has been done for ranchmen who were not shipping to market but getting their livestock in condition to be moved to other sections. During the season approximately 26,000 head of sheep and many thousand calves and steers have passed through the pens. Only recently 400 head of fat cattle were shipped to California where they were to be butchered for the navy.

The Runnels county men have been doing a good job in the war effort by keeping the right kind of food rolling to market for use by the armed forces of this country. They were joined in the celebration Sunday by a number of livestock men of this area, feed dealers, truckers and others who have assisted them in carrying on their major feeder program the past winter and spring.

YOUR DENTAL I. Q.

Q: I recently had two upper back molar teeth filled, yet when hot or cold food touches them, they hurt. I understood my dentist to say that the sensitiveness was due to the fact that the fillings were very deep and that they were pressing on the nerve, but in a couple of months or so, they won't bother me. Is this true or should I have those teeth taken out?

A: Large metallic fillings in deep seated cavities usually act as good conductors of heat and cold. When first inserted, they may cause the teeth to ache momentarily when hot or cold foods are taken into the mouth. Nature usually overcomes this within a few weeks by depositing secondary dentin in the pulp chamber. The secondary dentin protects the pulp from thermal shock. In all probability, the unpleasantness will soon cease and it will not be necessary to have the teeth removed. If it does not cease soon, your dentist will probably remove the fillings, place a cement base in the cavities and new fillings over the cement.

The business executive, the merchant, the salesman and even the ambitious office boy who greets you with a smile, consciously or unconsciously influences you. The condition of the teeth is an economic factor not only from an appearance standpoint, but from a health standpoint as well.

AUSSIES NOW CAN BUY AT AMERICAN CANTEENS

MELBOURNE, May 12.—Australian troops in Melbourne scored a victory over officialdom when they gained the right to enter United States canteens. Pressure of public opinion backed by requests from United States army chiefs forced a relaxation of the ban. Instead of paying high prices for most goods and in particular 20 cents for the cheapest brand of Australian cigarettes, the Australians now buy American brands for ten cents a pack of twenty. Australian authorities gave in grudgingly. For a long time they insisted that duty-free cigarettes and tobacco could be sold only to United States servicemen. When the ban was removed, Australian military police lined up the soldiers and made them produce passes before they could be served. And those with passes were required to have the passes stamped to prevent any serviceman from buying more than twenty cigarettes a day. The Australian excise tax on a package of twenty cigarettes is about twelve cents.

NEW ZEALAND TROOPS LOSE $60,000 IN CASH

WELLINGTON, N. Z., May 12.—New Zealand troops lost $60,000 in cash in the Greek and Crete campaigns, it is revealed in the annual report of C. G. Collins, controller and auditor general, issued here recently. This sum, represented chiefly cash unaccounted for or destroyed to prevent its falling into enemy hands. Some field cashiers for troops were captured in Greece and it has been necessary to reconstruct many records.

City Bakery Opens With Good Business; Herrons to Manage

The City Bakery began operation here this week with Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Herron, formerly of Junction, in charge. The first run was made Tuesday on cakes, pies, cookies and doughnuts, and customers, hungry for sweets, were keeping clerks busy counting out the items that have practically been prohibited from home menus because of sugar rationing.

Mr. Herron stated that he would begin baking bread this week and would keep a stock at the bakery as well as placing it in the local food stores. The "Victory" loaf, to be featured by the Ballinger bakery, will be attractively wrapped and sold fresh from the ovens.

Mr. Herron has been engaged in the bakery business for 31 years and brings to Ballinger a modern plant in every particular. The location is on Eighth Street in the building formerly occupied by Tunnell's Grocery.

In addition to the regular stock of breads, cakes, pies, cookies, doughnuts, rolls, etc., the bakery will accept special orders for parties and other social affairs. In moving the machinery from Junction to Ballinger part of the equipment was broken in an accident but Mr. Herron stated that it would be repaired and put in service within a short time. In the meantime the oven has been installed and is being operated daily to turn out fresh bakery products.

Ballinger has been without a bakery for more than two years since the plant operated here by W. V. Connelly burned.

Parrett, civil engineer for the navy construction battalion, Lt. Parrett, in company with a navy medical doctor, will be in the San Angelo navy recruiting sub-station all day Saturday.

Ballinger students are in the final days of the present term, and within a few weeks a large number will begin their summer vacation. Many of the senior boys are having to decide where they will go to continue their education and have several opportunities before them in the army, navy and marine corps. These boys are nearing the induction age and must consider their military status in making future plans, and all students of high school age being faced with the demand to help carry on the war effort. In some places groups are being organized to aid in the farm program.

Runnels county is reaching the critical stage of the year and an abundance of rain, enough to put out stock water and give a planting "season" is needed. Farmers are anxious to finish planting their crops and get down to the job of cultivating and meeting the demands for increased feed and food. In several communities stock water has become short and heavy rains are needed to fill surface tanks. Rainfall the past weekend, amounting to less than one inch, will do much good but is still not ample for all requirements.

The national civilian defense director has announced that service bars will soon be available for civilians just as they are for men in the service. There will be six different kinds, representing from 500 to 5,000 hours of war work done by the individual. A large number of Runnels county men and women will be eligible for these marks of honor. Since the beginning of the war and even before America's entry local people put in much time in various kinds of war work, starting with aid for refugees of other nations when Europe was being overrun by the Germans. The wards of service bars to civilians is a fine way of showing appreciation for the great amount of work done by the people one the home front.

Denton a Cappella Choir Sings Tonight At School Auditorium

Ballinger citizens have the opportunity to hear one of the best musical organizations in the country tonight when the a cappella choir of North Texas State Teachers' College is to present a program in the Ballinger school auditorium.
 This group, under the direction of Dr. Wilfred C. Bain, is nationally known. The Ballinger engagement is sponsored by the music department of the Ballinger schools, teachers in the department, Misses Kay Evans and Luna Belle Beacham, being former members of the choir.

Few choral organizations have won such instant recognition as has the N. T. S. T. a cappella choir. The organization was founded by its present conductor, Dr. Wilfred C. Bain, who selects forty superior singers chosen in open competition from a student body of 3,000.

The secret of the choir's success lies in the rigid discipline that the conductor imposes during the long hours of rehearsal and in the intense concentration required during the performance itself.

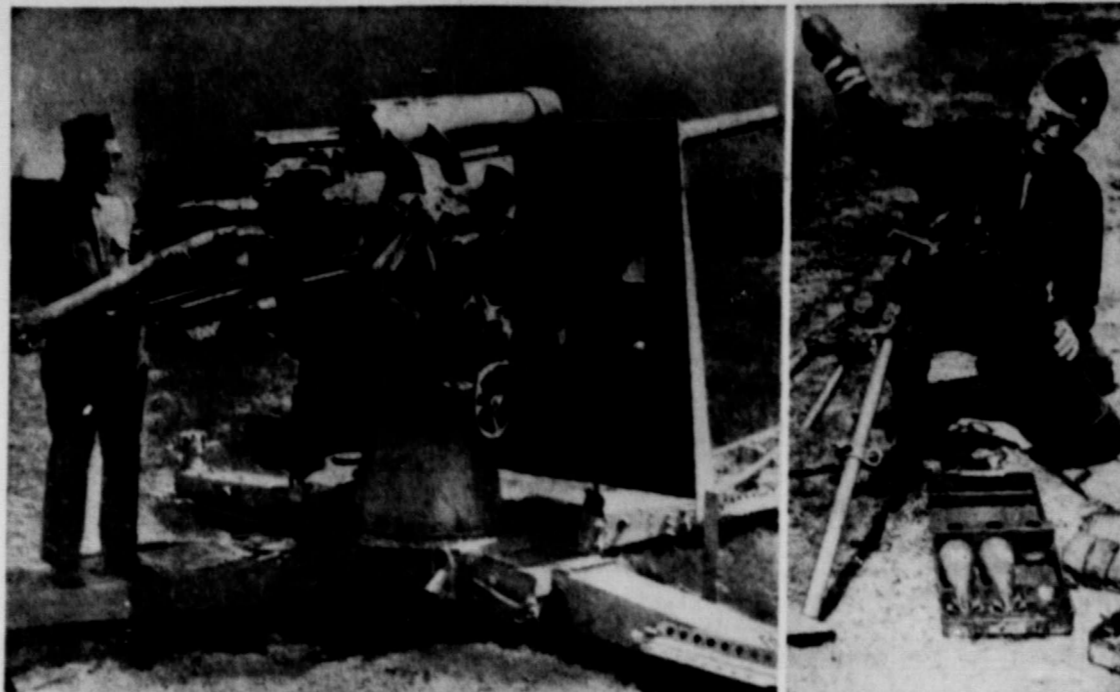

Concert programs are an hour and ten minutes in length. The music is unaccompanied, at no time during the performance is any instrument used, either for accompaniment or for securing the starting pitch.

Although many of the compositions of the finest a cappella music has been written for the church, the concert program is arranged to appeal to the widest possible public. The program is designed to give a panoramic view of choral music from the time of Bach to the present. Numbers range from the most elevated church music, such as the great motet for double choir, J. S. Bach's "Sing Ye to the Lord," to negro spirituals and the stirring "Ballad for Americans."

BEAR BEATS HASTY RETREAT WHEN ATTACKED BY RAM

SUSSEX, Canada, May 12.—This time the lamb turned and the bear was on the receiving end. When Angus MacCollam, agent for the Canadian Railway at Sussex, and a farmer in his off-duty hours, tied a ram near his barn, a black bear came out of the woods and made for the mutton-on-the-hoof. Apparently reasoning that offense is the best defense, the ram butted the bear in the head. Bruin went down for a short count, struggled to its feet and beat a retreat.

Enemy Weapons Compared at Aberdeen, Md.

The foreign material branch of the ordnance department of the U. S. army has in its possession many enemy weapons that they have brought to this country for comparison purposes with our own weapons. At right Lieut. Edwin Davis holds a shell at the breech of the "mystery" 88-mm. anti-aircraft and anti-tank gun that was talked about so much in the beginning of the war in Africa. Right: Colonel Jarrett holds a mortar shell for the German 81-mm. mortar, which almost compares with the American mortar in design.

WEST TEXAS NOTES

The Comanche Chief issued a special school edition last week, fifty-six seniors helping to get out the edition. The 16-page paper was filled with congratulatory ads and also carried several pages of school news along with pictures of each member of the class.

Army inspectors have just concluded inspection of the R. O. T. C. unit at John Tarleton College, Stephenville. The visiting officers' report was complimentary, the unit being compared with the best they had inspected. Military training is being featured at the school to get men ready for the armed forces.

The Rising Star city council was recently reorganized for the year and has named standing committees, which include street, ordinances, sanitation, utilities and taxes, and purchases and claims.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Heyman, of Menard, have received a letter from their son, who is in a German prison camp. Young Heyman wrote his parents that he went to Berlin the wrong way but added that he was well and all right. He was captured while fighting with the American army in North Africa.

McCulloch county citizens are being urged to vote whether they favor holding a one-day patriotic program on July 5. The query is posed by the Brady July Jubilee committee and if enough people are interested a big one-day program is to be staged instead of the usual three-day celebration.

Farms in the Melvin community are being photographed from the air and aerial maps soon will be available at the AAA office in Brady. The maps are used for measuring land in the government farm program.

The Eden city council has let a contract for a second deep water well and contractors have started the hole, a short distance from the city water tower. Growth of the town has made an additional supply necessary and other wells at a depth of about 4,000 feet have provided a steady flow of excellent water.

The Paint Rock school district voted Saturday to authorize the issuance of $5,000 in bonds for rebuilding the gymnasium which was wrecked in an explosion several months ago. Work is slated to begin soon so the building will be ready at the opening of the next term in September.

citizens made a similar trip.

Construction of the Camp Bowie airport was completed last week and the army air corps has taken over. The new field will provide air support for the huge military reservation. Fighter planes will be based there and tactical training will be continued as new officers are prepared for combat.

Fort Stockton students are preparing for the commencement programs, a total of forty seniors to receive diplomas. Speakers have been secured and the final exercises at which diplomas will be issued is scheduled on May 21.

Coleman residents have been asked to stop watering lawns and to conserve water in a number of other ways. City officials issued a statement that there was plenty of water in the city lake but the pumps were not able to provide sufficient water for all purposes. Growth of the city caused by the air school has made pumping facilities inadequate to handle the load.

WATERPROOF BAGS GUARD ARMY GEAR

WASHINGTON, May 12.—A new type of waterproof bag, for the protection of medical supplies and sensitive radio and electrical equipment during American landing operations in the North African campaign, was developed by quartermaster corps technicians for the campaign within a period of two weeks, the war department revealed recently.

Despite excellent facilities of the plant where the bags were manufactured in five sizes a number of production problems had to be overcome. A special rubber cement had to be developed and procured. Several of the employees developed an allergy to rubber cement and had to be replaced. Owing to the size of the bags and the weight of equipment and materials they were designed to hold, special tackle had to be devised. This required teaching the art of ropesplicing to workmen in the plant.

ENGLISH VILLAGE TURNS CITY; FAMED FOR HIGH BIRTHRATE

CORBY, England, May 12.—Corby, the village that turned into a city overnight, when thousands of Scots folk settled here to found a steel industry, is famous again. Now it is the birthrate. So many babies have been born in the last six months that there are no baby buggies, no cots, no clothes for the tots. Soon there will not be enough school room for them.

When Corby stepped up its population from 1,000 to 12,000, the newcomers were young married couples. Most of their children have been born since 1936. Visitors say it is almost uncanny to see so many children of the same age, size and height.

Handle with Care

★ The shallow pan protects the oven floor, in case of accidental boil-overs

Especially in Canning

4. In canning on the top burners, handling pressure cooker, water bath, or open kettle, do not set anything hot or wet directly on the enamel spaces. Use cork mats, or asbestos mats.
5. If anything drips on the range, wipe it off immediately with a DRY cloth. (The damp cloth comes later when the range has cooled).

6. Your cheap natural gas is very rich in heat units, so that a little of it goes a long way. But use it wisely; do not waste it.
