

Chamber of Commerce Considering Secretary

Directors of the Ballinger Chamber of Commerce will meet Tuesday night of next week for a very important session. It is hoped to submit applications for the position of manager by that time but if not possible the directors will consider hiring a part-time secretary to direct some important committee work.

O. C. Sykes, president of the chamber, stated that everything possible was being done to employ a man for this job as soon as possible but that the committee wanted to be sure it was getting the right man. Several applicants have been here during the past several weeks but have either declined the job or the committee did not give them a favorable report to the directors.

Since the resignation of Jack Rudd a number of important matters have come up which need to be cleared soon. For this reason it is necessary that a secretary be employed as soon as possible. In the meantime Miss Juanita Danitt is carrying on the work of the chamber and the Red Cross home service office but lack of time will prevent her from doing any but the actual office work.

Mr. Sykes expects a man here this week-end to look over the field and meet members of the advisory committee.

All directors are urged to reserve Tuesday night of next week so they can be present at the regular May meeting.

Rayburn Named City Secretary; To Replace Flynt

John B. Rayburn has accepted the position of city secretary and assumed the duties this week. He succeeds Lanham Flynt, who recently tendered his resignation to engage in another line of work.

Mr. Rayburn served the county as clerk for a number of years and prior to that was district clerk of Runnels county. He is thoroughly familiar with the kind of work he has taken over and after a short time to get acquainted with the system followed by the city will be at home on his new job.

For the past several months Mr. Rayburn has been engaged in the real estate business here and has made a number of sales of city and county property. The position was tendered him last week and he accepted it start work May 6 or 7, when he could close his real estate office.

One other city employee is to be replaced. C. G. Cape having resigned from the fire department as station keeper and driver of the No. 1 truck to enter business.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wood, of Hamilton, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wood, the past week-end.

BALLINGER IS SECOND HOTTEST IN THIS AREA
Ballinger was reported as the second hottest spot in Texas Sunday, the reading being 105 degrees F. Colorado City had a high of 106.

Summer hit here with a bang Saturday when the mercury climbed to almost 100 and Sunday the weather was at mid-summer heat. A light shower fell late in the afternoon, however, which cooled the atmosphere.

Cats 31, Sports 5

The Ballinger Cats, kicked around by other clubs of the Longhorn League since the opening of the season, turned Wednesday night and the Sweetwater Sports suffered a humiliating defeat, 31 to 5. The Cats amassed a total of 32 hits, ten for extra bases, drew seven passes, and three batters were put on by being hit. It was a slugging spree from the start of the contest, every man on the local team having a share in the run getting. Manager Stu Williams led the attack with six hits out of seven trips and was safe the other time at first base on a fielder's choice.

Bill Gage, on the mound for Ballinger, pitched a good game, allowing 7 hits, several of the scratchy variety which bounced off the hard ground over the heads of infielders, and walked only two men. His strikeouts for the evening totaled ten.

Scherhelm, Mathis and Dickerson, Sweetwater moundsmen, were unable to stop the concerted offense.

Score by innings: Sweetwater 100 112 000 Ballinger 070 550 71*

The Ballinger Cats came from behind Monday night to defeat the Sweetwater Sports by the score of 12 to 11. With the count tied at the end of the ninth inning the Cats went into their half of the tenth with Allinder singling and McClain doubling against the right fielder to score Allinder and provide the winning tally.

It was the Cats' second win of the season and fans welcomed the victory with as much pleasure as the players.

Williams led the hitting attack for the locals with two doubles and a triple. F. and L. Geiger both delivered safe blows in the sixth stanza with runners on the sacks and it was L. Geiger's hit which put the Cats in front for the first time during the game. Smithhart, McClain, F. Geiger, Allinder and Hutto each got two hits.

Work Moving Fast At City Lake Site; Fencing Completed

Crews working at the municipal lake site on Valley Creek are making good progress. A large amount of machinery and many workmen are engaged on the job and last week noticeable results were shown.

The lake basin is 90 per cent cleared of timber and brush. The core trench has been completed and a large amount of back fills finished. The big shovel is being operated on the spillway and dirt work on this part of the job will be continued as fast as possible. The fill across the stream channel will be the last gap to be closed.

The city has fenced all land purchased for the reservoir site. A total of 550 acres is included in the basin area and the fence has been erected on surveyed lines. Only a few gates remain to be hung before this part of the work is completed.

The intake tower is three-fourths completed and the third section was being poured the first of the week. One other section is to be poured.

No work has been done on the new sewer system. Plans and specifications have been prepared and approved by the state health department, pipe has been bought for October delivery, and Engineer Ray Davis, of Longview, was here the past week-end looking after local angles.

STREETS IN BUSINESS DISTRICT IMPROVED
Business streets of Ballinger have been mended up this week but the final work will give a new asphalt surfacing to the brick pavement.

A crew of the state highway department began spreading the asphalt Monday. An application of asphalt was sprayed on the pavement after it was swept and this caused downtown workers inconvenience until the rock asphalt was spread. A number of store floors were damaged as the oil was tracked into the buildings.

All the business district where streets are used as highways will get the new surfacing.

Youth Council Will Conduct 2 Services Here Sunday Night

The Interdenominational Youth Council had charge of evening services at the First Presbyterian and First Christian Churches last Sunday. They were in an early service at the First Presbyterian Church and then went to the First Christian Church for the 8 o'clock hour.

Mrs. John I. Gulon was at the organ and the First Presbyterian youth choir of 22 voices, directed by Mrs. Henry Biecluk, sang an anthem.

Betty Lou Stuart, council worship chairman, was leader and Charles Miller, Jr., council president, led the opening prayer. Jack Hampton, publicity chairman, gave the devotional and Rodney Balke spoke on "The Organization and Achievement of the Youth Council." Walter Hill talked on "The Proposed Recreation Center for Ballinger Young People."

Another member appealed to the members of the two churches for financial support in the operation of a recreation center here during the summer months.

The council will be in charge of the services at the First Methodist Church Sunday evening at 8:00 o'clock and prior to that will be at the Eighth Street Presbyterian Church in a 7:00 o'clock service. At the Methodist church the high school choral club, directed by Mrs. A. McGregor, will sing two special numbers.

TALPA HOME TALENT WILL PRESENT SHOW

Home talent will present a negro minstrel at the Talpa high school auditorium tomorrow (Friday) evening. A cast has been rehearsing for some time and will offer singing, dancing and comedy. Eight end-men and an interloper will provide much of the fun and a large chorus will support the principals.

Coach Wayman Wilson and four Ballinger track men returned Saturday night from Austin, where they had been to take part in the state meet. Carl Black, Jr., was entered in the 220-yard dash, and Edgar Payne, Junior Curry, John Reese and Black in the one-mile relay.

None of the Ballinger boys qualified for the finals, but in each event set good time. The relay team ran its heat in 3:31 but was fourteenth when the preliminaries ended.

Coach Wilson said it was a fine meet with many state records shattered and in at least one case a national record was tied.

LOCAL FIREMEN CALLED TO PAUL PETTY HOME

Ballinger firemen were called to the Paul Petty residence on Sixth Street Monday morning but the flames had been extinguished when they arrived and no damage was reported. A short circuit in a washing machine was the cause.

BALLINGER GOLFERS PLAY AT COLEMAN

Ballinger golfers went to Coleman Sunday afternoon for the first contests in the league schedule for this summer, with Ballinger, Coleman and Brady clubs participating. The Brady team emerged with the first match and Coleman was second. The Ballinger team was short of players and had to forfeit a number of matches which did not give them a chance to win.

Other games have been slated and the teams are to meet every two weeks in a three-way match. An effort will be made to get all local players interested in the league games for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Parrish left Monday morning for Des Moines, Iowa, where they will visit their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Chababa. After a visit there they will be accompanied by the Chababas on a trip to Duluth, continuing on into Canada.

Rural Gas Patrons Victims of Racket

A new kind of racket in this area was uncovered this week by J. A. Schnable, manager of the Lone Star Gas Co. A man went to the home of a rural customer, posed as a gas inspector and after making changes in the equipment informed the housewife she had trouble. He agreed to repair the leak for $50 and accepted a check for his services. She reported the incident to the office here and a check was started to determine whether others had been victimized.

Mr. Schnable had received information through the Lone Star paper that the racket was being worked. In practically every case the racketeers have posed as inspectors and have found leaks in equipment or piping and set a charge for repairing.

Mr. Schnable asks that any patron of the company who is approached by an unidentified person to call the office and notify him so the stranger can be checked. In all instances reported by the company at other places there were no leaks and the high rate for repairing was charged for doing nothing.

Seventh Grade Has Its Annual Exhibit

Members of the seventh grade of the Ballinger junior high school assembled in their social study room last Friday for their annual exhibit of their yearly projects. On display were scrap books of themes and pictures about the countries they were most interested in during the year.

In addition to the scrap books, handcraft, gaily colored salt maps, tiny handmade flags, water color paintings, tiny lambs of cotton, miniature houses, handmade rag dolls, dolls of other nations dressed in native costumes, and other items were shown.

The exhibit was left intact this week so that all the students might see it.

A committee composed of pupils and Mrs. Endacott, Miss Freeland, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Parker selected the best from each class. Winners were:

Seven B
Gale Hays, first; Lurene Turner, second; Bob Bruce third

Seven A
Doris Davis, first; Stella Flippen, second; Peggy Corde, third.

The work was culminated by having each pupil in the English class write a newspaper report, the best one to be sent to The Ledger to be published.

LUMP-SUM SOCIAL SECURITY DEATH PAYMENTS MAY BE MADE IN SOME INSTANCES

An important change in the method of handling lump-sum death payments under the social security act was effective on January 1, 1947, according to a statement made today by George D. Clark, manager of the San Angelo office of the social security administration. Lump-sum death payments are made when an insured worker dies leaving no survivor immediately eligible for monthly payments. In the past, lump-sum death payments have been made to the spouse, child, grandchild or parent—in that order. Burial expenses were considered only if there was no survivor in any of these classes.

In the case of a worker who dies on or after January 1, 1947, a lump-sum death payment will be made to the husband or wife who was living with the worker at the time of death. If payment cannot be made on this basis, the lump-sum payment can be made only to repay or partially repay the person or persons who have paid the funeral expenses. Thus a lump-sum payment may be made to a child, grandchild, or parent only if that individual paid the funeral expenses.

Any questions arising from this change in the law should be directed to the social security administration in San Angelo.

If the cold weather did not get your pecan crop, and you want to protect them from the case bearer worm, the application of DDT is the complete answer. This new material is safe, effective and probably a little more costly than lead arsenate, but gets much better results.

Where one uses a 50% wettable DDDT powder, 3 lbs. per 100 gallons of water applied at the proper time will get results. There is a possibility of not only getting the little worm, but no doubt it will kill a number of the moths that lay the eggs in the little cluster of pecans. From the 10th to the 15th would probably be a very good time to apply this material.

In a limited survey of the cold injury it was found that many pecans were killed, but some of the trees on upper slopes and late blooming varieties may have escaped and may produce a fair crop. The little nuts develop on this year's growth at the ends of the limbs, and when the nutlets have turned brown or dark on the end it indicates they have been pollinated and will with favorable weather mature a crop. This is the stage when the nut case bearer enters the pecan, and it is necessary if one spray before this period if results in controlling the worm are to be expected.

Best results are obtained by a power sprayer that will generate 200 to 400 lbs. pressure for the DDT material must be forced into the cluster of nuts if good results are to be expected.

Sensation Created in Casting Of Selznick's 'Duel in Sun'

Greatest casting news of many years is the parade of dramatic stars which David O. Selznick has selected from Hollywood's Hall of Fame for his brilliant technicolor production, "Duel in the Sun," to be presented at the Texas Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday of next week, May 14, 15.

Jennifer Jones, Academy Award-winner who rose to screen fame in sensitive, restrained roles, now gives full vent to her dramatic talent in the powerful, emotional role of Pearl Chavez, half-breed Indian girl.

For the first time in his years of screen triumph, Gregory Peck plays the villain, Lewt McCandles, a lawless, hard-living, rough-riding cowpuncher.
Joseph Cotton, screen favorite, plays the upright Harvard-bred lawyer who looks with disdain upon his brother Lewt's wild ways and vies with him for the affections of Miss Jones.
The dynamic role of power-mad Senator McCandles, lord of a cattle empire, is played brilliantly by the venerable Lionel Barrymore, and the renowned actress of stage and screen, Lillian Gish, portrays his wife—aristocratic, gentle but bitterly unhappy in the charged atmosphere of unruly 1880 Texas.

Herbert Marshall, with a deep sense of understanding, plays the role of Pearl's father, an ex-aristocrat, who tries his luck at gambling in love and cards and falls at both.
The shouting foe of evil spirits, the "Sinkiller," is portrayed by a master of the drama, Walter Huston.
The glittering array of top-notch movie favorites continues with the names of Tilly Losch,

'Margie,' Gal Everyone Loves Inspiration to American Male

Everyone's home town is the setting for "Margie," refreshingly different technicolor comedy-drama concerning flaming youth in America's hey-bey days during the fabulous twenties, which is the attraction at the Texas Theatre next Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, May 11, 12, 13.
Because it is always fun to conjure up adolescent recollections, 20th Century-Fox filmed the story of life in an average midwestern town. But that's all that's average. The studio put into the film glorious songs, happy youth, love and infatuation, laughter, warmth and the enchanting wonders which famed Viennese dancer; Harry D. Carey, Otto Kruger, Charles Bickford, Butterfly McQueen, Scott McKay, and an import from the Broadway stage, Joan Tetzel.

Never before in screen history has such an eminent cast been given the opportunity to display their acting talent in roles of force and action as those in the epic production, "Duel in the Sun."

were prominent 18 and 20 years ago. The lilting melodies, from "Margie" to "Ain't She Sweet," and such smash hit numbers as "I'll See You in My Dreams," "Three o'Clock in the Morning," "April Showers" and "Avalon" were added, too.
The nostalgic story stars lovely Jeanne Crain, who in a dual role enacts the part of a 34-year-old mother of a teen-age girl, and as a 16-year-old high school student, herself. But what a student! Despite her neatly braided hair, thick-rib stockings and a sacklike overcoat, Jeanne is adorable, even inspirational.
Glenn Langlan, one of Hollywood's more recent romantic leading men, plays the part of the handsome, dashing new high school French teacher with whom Jeanne falls desperately in love. Also featured are Lynn Bari, who portrays the school's attractive librarian, and the top radio and stage comedian, Alan Young.

"Last Frontier Uprising," Republic thriller film, "Genius at Work" starring Wally Brown and Alan Carney, Anne Jeffreys has the feminine romantic lead with Marc Cramer playing opposite her.

Annual May Dinner Held for Bearcettes

Ballinger High School Bearcettes were entertained Friday evening at the annual May dinner given at the high school cafeteria under the direction of the sponsor, Miss Elizabeth Dodge, assisted by Bonnie Davis, pep squad president, and other officers for the general dinner arrangements.

High school colors, red and black, along with football symbols, gave clever emphasis to table decorations. The speaker's table, with a runner of red and black crepe paper, was lighted with red candles and centered with a low bowl of red amaryllis, and a miniature basketball court and football field were at each end. Other tables were arranged with red blossoms and candles. Programs and place cards were in the shape of red megaphones which included the names of the officers: president, Bonnie Davis, vice-president, Jerlene Buxkemper, secretary, Betty Parrish, treasurer, Jo Cervenska, drum major, June Woodson, assistant drum major, Martha Saunders, twirlers, June Chapman Wisepape and Jerlene Buxkemper, senior cheer leaders, Laverne Dankworth and Nancy Guynes, junior leader, Marilyn Agnew, sophomore leader, Peggy Fox, mascots, Peggy Sweeney and Bobby Estes, reporter, Marilyn Bowden.

Toastmistress for the dinner was Bonnie Davis, who gave the welcome and introduced the program numbers. Joe Forester, principal of senior high school, gave the invocation. Martha Saunders read an original poem, "The Pep Squad," two numbers were sung by the high school sextet, Louise Smith, June Woodson, Helen Reese, Irene and Billie Bob Dodson, Elnita Faubion, piano selections were played by Mary Brian Woody, and Cynthia Tuckey gave the pep squad prophecy. New officers were presented, as follows: president, Pat Caudie, vice-president, Sylvia Maeller, secretary, Susie Harris, treasurer, LaRita Price, reporter, Sallyne McGahey; sergeants-at-arms, Wanda Zuehike and Irene Dodson; flag bearers, Dorothy Ann Dankworth and Betsy Coffey; cheer leaders, Marilyn Agnew, Arlene Miller, Jessie Mae Henderson and Claudine Coward. A gift was presented Miss Dodge by the president, Bonnie Davis, and Miss Dodge presented gifts to all outgoing officers, and awards to cheer leaders, twirlers, the drum major, assistant drum major and mascots. The group sang "Toast to the Bearcats" and "Auld Lang Syne" to conclude the program.

The three-course menu was served by Mrs. W. E. Elkins and co-workers of the lunch room and served by members of the Junior High School pep squad.

About sixty girls attended the dinner. Added guests were: Supt. and Mrs. Ernest Caskey, Messrs. and Mrs. Joe Forester, M. A. Sweeney, Troy Simpson, and Bob Estes.

Keeping Shrubs Healthy Year-Around Job

By Miss Ollie Chenoweth
County Home Demonstration Agent

It is well for home-owners interested in the landscaping problems of their homes to bear in mind that keeping their shrubs healthy and attractive is a year-around job, and though winter is the time to give the shrubbery a general pruning, several prunings may also be needed during the growing season. After shrubs bloom early in the spring they should be cut back immediately so that they may begin to form flower buds for the next spring.

Shrubs and trees neglected during the winter may be pruned until the middle of July. However, heavy pruning during the summer, which produces an abundance of new growth late in the year, is dangerous. Suckers on tree trunks should be cut off, and if a second crop of flowers is desired from crepe myrtle, vitex and other late blooming plants, the flower tips should be removed before seeds are formed. When summer flowers such as petunias may be cut back. New growth will bloom before frost. Some kinds of pruning may be done any time during the year. Dead limbs, diseased limbs, limbs that rub and injure each other should be removed regardless of season.

Several rules should be kept in mind when pruning. For example, plan all large cuts before taking off any small limbs, use sharp tools, and leave no stubs as all cuts should be sharp and clean. Cut all dead, dying, diseased or injured limbs first. Prune roots with a spade, by thrusting the spade into the ground to a depth of 8 to 14 inches. Clip the roots, and repack the soil.

Practice and study are necessary for satisfactory results in pruning, but mistakes for the beginner should not cause discouragement, as vigorous plants will soon cover them up, and the beginner will know how to do better next time.

Protection of Foods And Drugs Goes Back To Far Distant Past

COLLEGE STATION, May 9.—Although the protection of foods and drugs for customers dates back almost to antiquity, methods of this protection have only recently become highly effective, according to Myrtle Murray, extension home marketing specialist.

Miss Murray cites an instance in the early days of an Indian tribe, which each year set out a guard to warn fishermen to stay away from clamfish when the water was red, a sign that poisonous plankton were present.

Miss Murray says that even though the food and drug act was passed in 1906, first inspectors were really sample collectors who picked up suspected goods at random. Today, she says, the inspector is a specialist with scientific equipment to do the job. For instance, these inspectors make use of ultra-violet light which shows up certain signs of filth.

Some results and advantages of the food and drug act listed by Miss Murray are: Industry has profited by this act as well as consumers through research done; better techniques for producing better products have been developed; public confidence in food, drugs and cosmetics on the market today has been strengthened; the consumer has learned to buy more wisely through information given on the label; and interest in the grading of products has lived.

The food and drug act was originally administered by the department of agriculture's bureau of chemistry. Now it is a separate agency under the federal security agency. Miss Murray says that in 1940, only about 100,000 products valued at a few million dollars were under the control of this act; however, in 1946 its scope expanded greatly with more than a million products affected which were valued at 25 billion dollars.

VANDALISM, DEFACEMENT OF FEDERAL BUILDINGS DECRIED IN MEMORANDUM

Postmaster Tom Caudle has received a memorandum from the post office department asking that citizens be urged to cooperate in every way possible to keep government buildings and to avoid vandalism.

The memorandum has been sent all postmasters following a house of representatives committee report, in part as follows: "A drive should be instituted to prevent defacing and other acts of vandalism in federal buildings. The tendency to damage post offices in this way is not only costing the country large sums of money each year, but is also an unfortunate indication of the respect which many citizens consider their government's property."

Mr. Caudle stated that only minor infractions have occurred at the local office, pointing out that some damage had resulted to items in the lobby, however, and that few people had little respect for the upkeep and proper care of the building.

Civic organizations, boards of trade and chambers of commerce are being solicited to help in eliminating vandalism.

NO BASIS FOR USING LIME ON WEST TEXAS LAWNS. A. & M. SPECIALIST SAYS

COLLEGE STATION, May 9.—Every spring many people in Central and West Texas make the mistake of applying lime on lawn grasses to promote good growth.

Lime is not a fertilizer, as many people suppose, but a material for "sweetening" acid soil. Miss Sadie Hatfield, extension landscape gardening specialist of Texas A. & M. College, explains that lime will be helpful to lawn grasses only if the soil is definitely "sour." Sour soils are largely in East Texas, where rainfall is heavy and the soil has a high vegetable matter content. Liming lawns in East Texas probably will help to some extent, the specialist says, but it is safe to say that nowhere in Central and West Texas does soil need lime for better lawns.

Most Texas soils already have enough, and "in many cases too much lime for the healthy growth of lawn grasses. A smart procedure in liming lawns is to make a check on whether crops in the area are limed, as they are in East Texas. If crops need lime, then the lawn needs it, Miss Hatfield says.

In sections where lawns do need lime, it is often applied at the wrong time and in the wrong way. Landscape gardeners have found that acid lawn soils are sweetened to best advantage when lime is applied in late fall, so that freezing and thawing during the winter can help work it into the soil. A good treatment for lawns now is a light top dressing of fine loam and fertilizer, to help get the grass off to a good start.

Methodist Annual Conference to be Held at Ft. Worth

Annual conference for Methodist churches of the Central Texas conference will be held at Fort Worth starting June 5. The 1947 conference comes at the end of the first seven months. At a meeting last fall dates for the annual conference were changed to the vacation period so that preachers making moves could do so between school terms and not have to take their children out of one school and enter them in another during the school year.

Officials of the First Methodist Church have started work to get finances, reports and all other work closed for the year to that the pastor, Rev. H. B. Loyd, and churchmen can take a complete report of the work of the local church to the annual conference.

During the seven months this year the local church has completed a fine record. A number of special improvements have been finished, the annual revival held, and numerous other activities carried out. Rev. Loyd will take his third report to the conference from the local church in June.

Two's Smart Company

Six is no crowd

Look at it like this:

When you and your best girl roll up in this tidy number, how can folks help saying: "Who's the smart couple in the slick new Buick?"

Or when it's up to you to do the generous thing, what quartet wouldn't be glad to ride with the two of you — in the neatest, freshest bit of automobile styling on the roads today?

Under your treadle foot, there's all the eager, velvety power your heart desires, and each light-stepping wheel rides on its own soft cushion of jartaming coiled steel.

There's huskiness to level your going — room for arms, heads and legs — lightness of handling you wouldn't think possible in a car so impressive and so sizable.

So come take a look. See, firsthand, why this is America's most wanted automobile.

See too why it's smart to settle your mind on Buick — and get your order in now. You can place yours with or without a car to trade.

TUCK AWAY PLENTY!
Roomy luggage compartments hold plenty — and high-lifting lids make it easy to get at any place.

Fact is, this trim Buick Sedanet combines topmost smartness and companionship with an amazing amount of room.

Back of its big, Fireball-filled bonnet there's room for six — cloaked in sleek, fade-away lines that suggest a coupe.

Gift Tea Compliments Miss Mapes

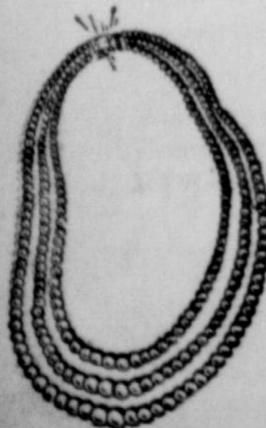

Miss Betty Mapes, who will be married to Elmo Harrell on May 24, was paid a pretty compliment late Thursday afternoon when Miss Joyce Boswell and Miss Margie Morgan were hostesses at a beautifully-appointed gift tea in the Ruel Boswell home on Eighth Street, including about ninety friends of the honoree. The bride-elect's chosen colors, yellow and white, were given attractive emphasis in all details with yellow irises being used to decorate the living room where Miss Boswell extended welcome and presented Miss Mapes and her mother, Mrs. Fred Mapes, and Mrs. W. F. Harrell, mother of the bridegroom-to-be.

Miss Addie Manske invited guests into the dining room where the tea table, laid in lace, was centered with a reflected arrangement of yellow and white columbine combined with lace fern. Tall white candles burned in two-branch crystal candelabra on the table and on the buffet. Miss Morgan presided at the punch bowl and Miss Jean McAden served cake squares iced in white. Mrs. Ruel Boswell and Miss Bobbie Tunnell assisted in serving. Miss Dorothy Harrell, sister of the bridegroom-to-be, registered guests in the bride's book and gifts were displayed by Miss Callie Mae Beard. Love medlies were played on the record-player during the calling hours between five and eight o'clock.

Engagement of Miss Dickson Announced at Waxahachie

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Burson Dickson of Valley View, Texas, announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Lois Nell, to William Rex Nixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nixon, Sr., at a dinner party Saturday evening at the home of the bride-elect's aunt, Mrs. R. U. Pierce, in Waxahachie.

The wedding will take place at 9 a. m. June 8 at the Presbyterian Church in Valley View. Mrs. Powell Wear will be matron of honor, and Misses Pauline Witter, Nancy Guynes, Marilyn Agnew and Jane Nixon will be attendants. The nuptial music will be played by Miss Elizabeth Wear, and Mrs. Jack Nixon, Jr., will be the soloist. Powell Wear will be best man, and ushers will be brothers of the bridegroom-to-be, Tony, Myles, Loyd, and Jack Nixon, Jr.

The linen-laid dining table at the Pierce home was centered with a white basket of white stock, daisies, and gypsophila, festooned with white maline. A wedding ring formed the handle for the basket. White tapers in crystal candelabra were at each side. Four-square tables in the living room were centered with white rosebuds in bud vases.

Crystal gazing balls attached to place cards which were decorated in the bridal motif revealed the wedding date to the guests.

Those attending from Ballinger besides the bride-elect and bridegroom-to-be were: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nixon, Sr., Mrs. Powell Wear, Mrs. Jack Nixon, Jr.; Misses Nancy Guynes, Marilyn Agnew, Elizabeth Wear, and Jane Nixon.

Mrs. J. G. Douglass, Iris Authority, Speaks at Garden Club Meeting

The garden rainbow that can be created with the myriad tints of irises was described Tuesday afternoon for the meeting of the Civic-Garden Club by Mrs. J. G. Douglass.

Mrs. Douglass named the arities, the groupings and harmony, in colors, and also told of the pollination of the anther to the stigma of a flower. There were many arrangements of irises for the show of which Mrs. Elmer Shepperd was chairman. Mrs. A. B. Stobaugh discussed rose culture.

There were 26 entries for the spring hat parade. Members wore hats made of baskets decorated with vegetables and flowers, one very clever turban being decorated with bananas. Mrs. Shepperd was awarded first prize for her creation which was made of a Mexican basket massed with broccoli, mustard greens, green peppers, radishes, string beans, limes and carrot tops. Mrs. T. J. McCaughan won second prize with a hat made of wire strands fashioned with red roses. Sink strainers designed with daisies and other garden flowers made lovely hats. Decorated bags were also used as a combination with the hats. Judges were Mrs. Leo Malloy and Mrs. Ellen Sims, of the Paint Rock Study Club. Pot plants were the prize awards.

At the social hour, Mrs. A. J. McDaniel, president of the local club, presided at the lace-laid table which was centered with a lovely arrangement of columbine blossoms. Punch was served with cookies. There were about forty present. Besides members, others were: Mmes. W. J. Wilke, C. M. Gibson, Pearl Gustavus, J. W. Barr, Bill Clark and daughter; and Miss Pearl Currie of Paint

Rock. Iris arrangements were displayed by Mmes. Alex Saunders, Lennie Harris, O. R. Lasater, E. P. Talbott, Chester Cherry, O. C. Sykes, F. M. Pearce, Leonard Stallings, Dr. and Mrs. Douglass, and Melvin Patterson.

Picture OF A HAPPY FAMILY

Yes, sir, this is the picture of a happy family—one whose home will always be on the same street... in the neighborhood where Daddy and Mother want their youngster to grow up—a happy family whose present and future are both protected by Southwestern Life Insurance.

It's the picture of a family that didn't stop with building a home. Mother and Daddy both realized that unforeseen circumstances beyond their control might stop Dad's pay check. They wanted the mortgage on the home paid, in any event... an income for life for Mother... a retirement "nest egg" with a guaranteed return. They wanted baby's education assured, all the way through high school and college. So they arranged a complete program of protection through Southwestern Life Insurance.

How about the future financial picture of your family? Have you guaranteed it? Southwestern Life protection can be patterned to fit your needs, at a cost so reasonable you'll never miss the few dollars a month you put away to make it possible. Start your family plan of guaranteed protection today.

Next Sunday is the day set aside to honor mothers. This observance has grown in recent years until it is a planned program in practically every church in the land and is accepted by practically every living soul who takes a delight in some act which would do honor to his mother. It has become a day of remembrance with greetings, gifts and in general conduct. Ballinger churches will feature Mother's Day at morning services and the general public is invited to attend. Flowers will be provided for those who do not have the suitable kind to wear in honor of their mothers.

At last a long sought deal has been accomplished in which the city of Ballinger acquires all the properties at Bruce Field. Now the problem is to what purpose the properties can be put to be most beneficial. If let stand idle the buildings and equipment will be a big expense and the upkeep will make the field a liability instead of an asset. For many months the civic leaders have thought that some industry might be induced to come to Ballinger if suitable buildings were available. Part of the plant might be put to this use and almost any kind of a factory could be housed there with all utilities available. There are unlimited possibilities at the field if local leaders can make the right contacts and bring industries to Ballinger which will be assets to the city and provided needed pay-rolls. It is up to every citizen to help the city commission in every way possible to make these facilities serve the community in the best way possible.

 Ballinger merchants are fast hanging out the "unwelcome" sign for rats. Ratproofing crews are working full time to make all local business buildings meet the strict requirements of the city ordinance which is an approved form of the state health department. The amount of work necessary to make Ballinger safe from rats is enormous but when completed will at least keep these pests from finding a place to harbor and food supplies. The ordinance was enacted as a health safety measure and by eliminating rodents and the fleas they carry, health authorities expect to rid the city of typhus fever and other diseases which have been prevalent here in the past. A big percentage of business house owners are complying with the ordinance as fast as possible and without question.

All for a penny!

LOOK what Grandma got for a penny when she was a little girl—a trained dog act! Tower grips the coin in his iron jaws, leaps merrily through the clown's hoop, and deposits the little red cent neatly in the little red barrel.

Quite a show for a penny! But nothing to the show your present-day electrical penny puts on for you. That penny does a lot. It will:

- Tell you the correct time for four days or vacuum-clean six large room-size rugs or bring you an evening's radio entertainment, or run your sewing-machine for eight hours, or wash three heaping tubfuls of clothes for you!

Grandma's gay little bank may be a collector's item today, but electricity puts on a bigger and better show as it takes more and more work out of your household.

It costs so little—and it does so much! Dollar values for penny prices—that's the record of the friendly folks in this company, under local business management.

Culminating almost a year's effort on the part of Egean Shield, the Coleman city commission voted last week to grant his and J. B. Dibrell's request to sell natural gas in Coleman. The request for the franchise had been previously denied by the same commission. City officials state that in the agreement, the city of Coleman has first option if Shield and Dibrell ever decide to sell the company which they plan to form.

In a meeting of farmers at Rising Star last week plans were made for holding a conservation field day on May 15. Committees were appointed to arrange a program, schedule the trips, and prepare a barbecue dinner. Highlight of the program will be a full day tour of all vetch and rye fields in the vicinity. Experts will deliver after-dinner talks in the middle of the trips.

A campaign to raise $20,000 for Daniel Baker College to purchase science equipment, library source material and to carry on an expansion program, was launched at Brownwood last week. The drive started with workers meeting for a breakfast and thirty-five two-man teams began the solicitation immediately afterward. Daniel Baker has been recognized as a full four-year college by the state department of education.

C. L. Green, Winters grain dealer, was elected a director of the Texas Grain and Feed Dealers' Association at the closing business session of the state convention at Galveston last week. It was the 49th annual meeting of the organization. Mr. Green has been a grain dealer at Winters for many years and is a long-time member of the state association.

The Brady planning commission in session last week voted that the board go on record in favor of changing the administration for the city of Brady to a city manager form of government. The chamber of commerce and the junior chamber of commerce were asked to feel out the sentiment of the people by holding meetings for open discussion. Neither organization was asked to endorse the action of the planning commission but merely to get the reaction of the citizens.

Sweetwater merchants in a mass meeting last week announced that the lowest prices possible would be charged in that city under a new policy cooperating with the request of President Truman. The meeting was attended by all merchants and wholesale dealers of Sweetwater and all the discussion centered around the cutting of retail prices.

Seniors Leave Today On Annual Class Trip

About eighty members of the senior class of the Ballinger high school loaded into two busses this morning and left on their annual trip to the Carlsbad Caverns, New Mexico. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Forester and Miss Lois Dickson accompanied the class and will be in charge for the three days.

The group got an early start and was due to arrive at Carlsbad this afternoon and go on to Black River Village, where quarters were reserved. They will spend the night at the village and enter the caverns on the first trip tomorrow morning, getting out and back to their quarters Friday afternoon in time for a sightseeing tour in and around Carlsbad.

The seniors will have special entertainment the two nights they are in Black River Village and Saturday morning will return home, arriving here late in the afternoon.

Members of the class started planning the annual trip at the beginning of school and have staged a number of special entertainments to raise money for the expenses.

Returning home the seniors will have one more full week of classwork before commencement programs are scheduled.

Seventy Boy Scouts Attend Camporee; Hold Campfire Rites

The Boy Scout camporee held here Friday and Saturday was well attended with members of three troops reporting. Troops 30 and 42 and the Rowena scouts registered at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon and were assigned territory at the Ballinger Country Club. Camp was set up so that the boys were ready to prepare and eat supper shortly after 6 o'clock.

The highlight of the Friday evening program was the campfire ceremony in which all the boys took part. Following this each troop presented two stunts each and then two teams from all the troops entered a contest, "capture the flag."

Breakfast was at 6 a. m. Saturday and soon afterward the boys began their regular contest work which included fire building, cooking, hatchet demonstrations and numerous other required work.

This phase of the program was completed about 11 o'clock and camp was broken shortly before noon so the boys could return home before meal time.

About 70 boys of the three troops attended the camporee and leaders in charge were well pleased with the results.

Straley Gives Details Of Texas City Blast

Bob Straley, of Texas City, here for the week-end to visit relatives and friends, gave details of the recent terrible disaster which caused a very heavy life and property loss. Employed in a chemical plant at Texas City, Bob was at his home, four miles away, on the morning of the explosion. He and all members of his family escaped without injury and their house also survived the blast without apparent damage.

Straley had gone off his shift in the early morning and had been away from the plant about 40 minutes when the French ship exploded. He was asleep when this blast occurred. He said he thought it was a door that had slammed in his house but when his wife called to him he arose just as the big blast occurred and that it knocked him down.

The Straley home was opened for airing that morning, probably accounting for the lack of damage. Other dwellings nearby and even farther away were splintered and windows were shattered.

Straley witnessed many horrors in the stricken city and told how families were separated, some of the children not being located for a week or longer. Stranded children were taken into homes. Some were too young to give their names and it required time to get them back to their parents.

The only thing that saved part of the city was the north wind that prevailed several days, Mr. Straley said, this blowing out to the gulf instead of towards the main part of the city.

MIDLAND AND ODESSA CLUBS HERE FOR GAMES WITH CATS

The Ballinger Cats came home Monday for an eight-game stand after losing four straights on the road, two to Midland and two to Vernon.

The Cats open a three-game series with the Midland club here tonight and will also play the same team Friday and Saturday nights. The Odessa Oilers are to be here Sunday and Monday, with a double-header scheduled Sunday afternoon starting at 2:00 o'clock. The double-header is to make up a game not played here on account of rain.

After Monday night the locals will take to the road again and will not return home until May 30.

The Cats have been playing in hard luck, losing by one and two scores in well played contests. During their home stand they are expected to receive some recruits and to start winning their share of games.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Cox, of Abilene, spent the week-end here, visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Cox will receive his degree at McMurry College in June and has accepted a coaching position at Colorado City.

MRS. FORD TAYLOR HURT IN AUTOMOBILE COLLISION

Mr. and Mrs. H. Ford Taylor returned Monday from a trip to points in Florida, Cuba, Kentucky and the East Coast. En route home they were in an automobile crash which made it necessary for them to leave their car at Hope, Arkansas. Meeting another car, a dog walked into the road and both drivers attempted to miss the animal and collided.

Mrs. Taylor sustained injuries about the shoulders and it was first thought her arms were broken. X-rays at a hospital determined she was only bruised and suffering from shock.

Mr. Taylor said that until the wreck they had experienced a wonderful trip and had enjoyed every minute of it.

Cal Adair transacted business at Houston the past week-end.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Truly left Sunday for Dallas, where she was to join a group en route to St. Louis to attend the Southern Baptist General convention.

Medical Monopoly

Somebody should remind the leaders of the medical profession that, as magnificent as its record of service to humanity is, as truly great as its contribution to human wellbeing and welfare has been, it hasn't so great a backlog of respect and affection in the minds of the American people that it can afford to browbeat and bulldoze its way to an absolute dictatorship over public health in this free democracy.

Although the profession denounces advertising as unethical, the masters of American medicine managed to fill the columns of American newspapers with free publicity blarney against what they called socialized medicine, and did not hesitate to employ billboards and ether waves to denounce the government for trying to do for the people what the profession itself has failed to do—that is, carry health and healing to the people who needed service, at a scale that could afford to pay. One of the great tragic failures of our public health system was reflected in the draft records, when approximately 40 per cent of all draftees failed to pass their physicals.

Currently the medical profession in Texas is pushing for passage of a basic science bill which, after all is said and done, would place in the hands of the medical profession the right of life and death over all forms of treatment not recognized by the medicals.

If this bill becomes law, it will give the medical profession a potential if not absolute monopoly over all methods of treatment now in vogue.

The leaders of medicine who cried out against bureaucratic or socialized medicine do much to cause the legislature of Texas, "Give us complete control over the health of Texas citizens; give us the power to say to any Texan, 'You cannot choose your doctor, we'll do it for you'."

All honor to the faithful doctor who sticks to his patient through thick and thin; to the men of medicine who have come so much to advance the cause of healing; to the self-sacrificing men and women who have had much to do with lengthening the American life-span to an un-dreamed of 67 years. No professional class has more deservedly held the respect and confidence of the people, next to ministers of the gospel, than medical practitioners.

But Americans would fight to the death against giving to any one religious faith the power to decide for them how they should worship God. They would resent just as bitterly any law that would deliver into the hands of the medical profession the power of refusing them the ministrations of any non-medical practitioners they might choose. Maybe they're wrong about their choice of method. Maybe they'd be wrong in their choice of religious faith and practice. That is beside the point.

In recent years every attempt of chiropractors, to name only one rival method of treatment for the ills that afflict humanity, to raise the standards of their profession by creating a license that would exclude the charlatans and ill-prepared has been beaten down in the Texas legislature. If this law should finally be passed, and the proposed basic science bill were superimposed upon its board of examiners and upon all other boards of examiners, there would be a type of monopoly control over the people of Texas that would deny them the service of any practitioner save what the medical profession condescended to permit them to have.

We doubt if the medical profession has reached such a state of perfectibility that it is no longer in need of the impact of new ideas, new methods, new rivalries. We fear that if it is granted a monopoly it will become arrogant in its own conceit, and fail to carry on the incessant research and study it is accustomed to. We are not yet prepared to say that medicine and surgery have found the answer to all the grave problems with which they have been preoccupied, such as cancer and infantile paralysis. Even within the profession the innovator and experimenter is often unable to overcome the opposition of his elders in a profession notably conservative. Look what happened to Sister Kenney.

Any citizen who during the last few years has met with medical callousness or indifference is entitled to ask of the medical profession: Is it my health you're interested in at Austin, or your own?" (Paid Advertisement) be renewed thereafter by examination as it expires, such subsequent examination to be conducted the same as if the applicant had not taken the examination previously.

If any person fails to pass said examination, he must wait at least 30 days before taking a second examination and if he fails a second time, he may not take another examination before the expiration of a sixty-day period from the date of the second examination.

No person shall engage in the installation of gas appliances, gas piping, plumbing fixtures, sewage fixtures, cesspool fixtures, or septic tank fixtures, without being licensed under the authority, terms, and provisions of this ordinance; except that one may install his own plumbing or gas fixtures at his home, provided that before such fixtures are put into use actual use operation they shall be inspected by the city plumbing inspector and approved by him as meeting all of the requirements of law and if same fail to meet such requirements they shall not be used unless and until the defects therein which render same illegal have been fully removed and remedied in writing.

Hereafter, all connections in the city of Ballinger from any waste line to any fixture shall be of brass and lead wiped together by what is known as wiped joints. It shall be unlawful to use combination iron and lead ferrules. Lavatory and sink traps may be soldered or wiped to lead waste line. Bathtubs shall have a drum trap of lead, size to be not less than four inches by eight inches with outlet side to be of one and one-half inch lead waste pipe ferrule and caulked to soil connection or wiped into commode waste. Inlet side of lead drum trap may be of one and one-fourth inch or one and one-half inch lead. There must be six inch water seal off at all times in drum trap. Plumbing fixtures shall hereafter be installed in the city of Ballinger in accordance with the foregoing requirements.

Any person who shall hereafter practice any of the plumbing or other work in the city of Ballinger mentioned in this ordinance without holding a license as herein provided, or who shall otherwise violate any provision of this ordinance shall upon conviction be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not more than $100.00 and costs. Each day on which a violation of this ordinance shall occur shall constitute a separate offense.

The fact that the public interest and welfare demand the immediate passage of this ordinance creates an imperative public necessity requiring that this ordinance shall be in force and effect immediately upon passage and publication, and it is so ordered.

Passed and approved on this the 23rd day of April, 1947.

Youth Accident Toll In U. S. 20,000 Year, Parents are Warned

COLLEGE STATION, May 9.—Each year, almost 20,000 boys and girls under 20 years of age die in the United States as a result of accidents.

That sad fact is brought to light by Mrs. Eloise T. Johnson, family life education specialist of the Texas A. & M. College extension service, in an effort to make Texas parents realize that something must be done about it.

Over half of these 20,000 fatal accidents take place in the home, Mrs. Johnson says, and most of them could be avoided.

Here are the principal causes of child accidents in the home: Burns, most of which are kitchen accidents; falls, due mostly to infants left unattended; poisoning from eating household poisons or overdoses of medicines; wounds, often from knives, scissors and other dangerous articles left within reach of children; internal injuries, caused to a great extent from swallowing toy parts or lollipop sticks; injuries from foreign bodies, such as pins that the child swallows or sticks into his eyes or ears; electric shock, from playing around electric outlets and fixtures; suffocation, particularly among infants that become entangled in loose bed clothes; drowning, in the "old swimming hole" and even in the bathtub; gunshot wounds due to firearms left within reach of the child.

Mrs. Johnson offers the following points as good methods of preventing these accidents. Protect the child, she says, by making his environment free of accident hazards. And of course, he must be restrained in many cases; there are certain dangerous activities in which he simply should not engage. Also provide the child with a chance to develop himself, to learn things by doing. And condition him by training; teach him the correct method of doing things while his habits are being formed. Finally, teach him to recognize danger and meet it, since all hazards are not avoidable.

INTEREST SAID GROWING IN WEED KILLING PLAN

County Agent John A. Barton is spending much of his time just now with 4-H clubs and at community meetings giving information and demonstrations on killing weeds by spraying and on insect control.

At all club meetings two motion pictures are being shown which deal with these subjects and interest is increasing in these methods. Mr. Barton said a number of farmers have made inquiry about equipment and the right formula to use in combatting weeds.

The special program has been presented in a number of communities in the county.

Crews Public School
To Close Tomorrow;
Equipment Bought
The Crews public school, first in the county to complete its work for the year, will be closed tomorrow (Friday). Arrangements have been made for the graduation exercise this week-end.

County Superintendent W. E.
Elkins stated that the Drasco and Groenwald schools would be closed on May 16, and that all other common district schools in the county would complete their year's work on May 23, the same date the independent district schools are to be closed.

Common district schools of the county have been operated this year with 37 teachers on their faculties. At this time it appears the number will be greatly reduced and discuss these matters with him.

Supt. Elkins stated that the county's schools have purchased approximately $1,000 in equipment this year, securing the item through the non-food aid section of the lunch room department.
Under this plan the government is to pay 60 to 80 per cent of the cost depending on the enrollment.
Most of the purchases have been stoves, refrigerators and other lunch room equipment.

Week-end guests in the W. M.
Ashton home were Mr. and Mrs.
J. B. Ashton and Mr. and Mrs.
Bob Mays, of Healdton, Oklahoma.

Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Loyd will go to Waco Sunday to attend the organ recital of their daughter.

Carl Williams, of Coleman, was here Wednesday to attend to business and visit friends.
