Club Women and Girls To Exhibit October 30

Plans are being completed for the annual exhibit of Rannels county home demonstration clubs and girls' 4-H clubs to be held in Ballinger Saturday, October 30. Every club in the county is to participate and Miss Ollie Chenoweth, county home demonstration agent, expects the 1948 showing to be the most extensive and most interesting ever made by the women and girls.

Work on the displays will be started Friday afternoon, October 29, and completed by 9:30 the next morning, when they will be ready for inspection by the public. 4-H girls will exhibit as clubs and are preparing to fill a rather large score card.

Home demonstration clubs will exhibit together and arrangements call for all similar articles on the same tables, each item bearing the tag of the individual and club to which it belongs.

A feature at the 1948 exhibit will be a sales department where women will have a large assortment of foods for sale to the public. This will include cakes, pies, and dressed chickens.

The showing will be in the Ballinger Truck & Tractor Co. building on Ninth Street and Manager Raymond Berryhill will provide a deep freeze unit where the women will keep perishables offered for sale.

The public is invited to attend the exhibit between 9:45 a. m. and 5:30 p. m. on October 30.

Catherine Dreyer Named 1948 4-H Gold Star Girl

Catherine Dreyer, member of St. Joseph's 4-H club, Rowena, has been chosen Rannels county gold star girl for 1948.

Catherine has been a 4-H girl since 1943, and has done some outstanding work each year.

In 1943 she equipped her sewing box, embroidered three scarves and made one dress and one scarf.

During 1944, '45 and '46 Catherine made ten dresses, five aprons, three skirts, seven scarves and seven cup towels.

Catherine has assisted her mother in canning 500 quarts of fruit and 100 quarts of m-at.

During Catherine's fifth year of club work she made six dresses, five skirts, two shirts, three blouses, one apron and one pair of pajamas. She also helped to paper one bedroom and the kitchen and helped varnish two floors and a bedroom suite. She also pieced three quilts and helped her mother quilt five quilts.

Last year Catherine was bedroom demonstrator for the St. Joseph's club. As bedroom demonstrator Catherine checked the slats in her bed to see that she had one slat for every row of coils in the springs. She had to add three slats. Her next problem was to make protectors for her springs and pillows. The springs protector was made from heavy black material which her aunt had sent her from a factory. She also added a rug, a bedspread and some curtains to her bedroom. The curtains had to be altered and Catherine took the surplus material and covered her dressing table stool. During the year she made four scarves for her vanity and a pair of pillow cases. She also pieced one quilt and helped quilt another.

Catherine was elected secretary of her 4-H club last year. She assisted with planning the 4-H parties, and assisted her club in making and carrying out plans for entertainment and financing the club.

Besides the bedroom work Catherine did this year she has made 15 dresses, 3 skirts, 6 sun suits and 8 shirts.

Being the only girl at home she assisted her mother with all housework and has worked some in the field.

Catherine says, "During my six years of 4-H work I have learned many things, and have accomplished much by the practice of these principles."

Catherine has attended the county encampment for girls each year. She has given five hair waves to relatives and friends.

This year Catherine learned to make a bed by the simplified method and taught ten girls how.

Besides all her 4-H work Catherine has done her school work and assisted in school activities.

Auxiliary-Sponsored Poppy Day Scheduled Here on November 6

The American Legion Auxiliary will conduct its sale of poppies in Ballinger Saturday, November 6. Texans are being asked to wear the little red flowers in honor of the war dead at that time and on Armistice Day. Shipments are being made from Legion Hospital, Kerrville, where the poppies were made by disabled veterans of both world wars.

The making of these flowers provides interesting employment for crippled veterans, helping to keep their hands and minds busy and contributing occupational therapy towards their recovery.

The veteran receives pay for each poppy made and this provides some badly needed income. Each flower is fashioned by hand, veterans working in bed, in wheel chairs or in occupational shops.

Twice a year members of the Auxiliary in most Texas towns offer these flowers for sale to the public. People are asked to buy cheerfully. The sponsors think all should consider it a privilege to buy and wear these emblems.

Selling for only ten cents each, the millions sold provide great financial help to disabled former service men and permit the Auxiliary to help veterans and members of their families in other ways.

City Officials Meeting At El Paso Attended By George Holman

George Holman, Ballinger city commissioner, has returned from El Paso, where he attended the annual meeting of the Texas League of Municipalities. Mr. Holman stated this was one of the largest meetings ever held by the league, more than 400 attending.

The first day called for sectional periods only and the Ballinger commissioner was able to attend group sessions for city managers, tax assessor-collectors and others. He stated he got more from these sessions than from the general meetings which followed.

Mr. Holman pointed out that nearly all towns, large and small, were experiencing trouble with their finances. The general theme of the entire convention was of securing more income, and efforts will be made at the next session of the legislature to get new taxation of sources not now levied on by cities. This plan, if permitted by the legislature, will give towns more income without changing taxable values or raising rates.

The last two days of the convention were devoted to general meetings for all groups operating city governments.

Boy Scout Finance Drive Scheduled; Captains Named

The annual Boy Scout finance drive will be conducted in Ballinger Wednesday, October 24. Team captains have been appointed and each will secure nine helpers to assist in making the solicitation.

Stanley Price, chairman of the finance committee, said yesterday that captains named are: Archie W. Gray, S. E. Cloninger, Malcolm Morgan, John Bradley, George Newby and Mrs. M. A. Foy.

All those to take part in the fund raising campaign will meet at the Central Hotel at 7:00 a. m. October 27 for a "kick off" breakfast and will receive their assignments of territory and other information. After the breakfast the solicitation will be started and every effort made to complete it in one day.

Team captains have been reminded that scouting has had a considerable growth in Ballinger during the past year and that more money is needed to carry on the planned activities for another twelve months.

1-Bale Cotton Show Scheduled at Winters Saturday, October 30

The Rannels county second annual junior 4-H and F. F. A. "One Bale Cotton Show" will be held at Winters Saturday, October 30. The show this year is sponsored by the Winters Chamber of Commerce and the county-wide committee sponsoring the five-year, six-point agricultural program.

According to John A. Barton, county agent, and Lloyd Rumsey, assistant agent, Rannels county 4-H club boys are now ginning and getting their bales ready for the show. The thirty boys who will enter, grew five acres of cotton from which they are gathering the bale.

These boys are working on the statewide program of "7 Steps to Face the Future with Cotton." These steps are:

1. Fit cotton into balanced farming
2. Take care of the soil
3. Get together on the best varieties
4. Make labor count
5. Control insects and diseases
6. Pick and gin for higher grades
7. Sell for grade, staple and variety value.

Of these seven steps the boys are paying special attention to planting their cotton on land best suited, determining the best varieties, studying the one that yields the highest and determining the one wanted by the trade.

Cotton insects and diseases are receiving special attention and in most cases the boys treated their seeds or delinted them before planting. This helps to control the angular leaf spot that costs Rannels county farmers thousands of dollars each year due to decreased yield and yellow spotted or tinged lint cotton. Picking at the right time assures a better grade of lint and is usually a determining factor in the prize winning bales.

Gins of the county have cooperated in the program in a number of cases, furnishing the boys with seed to plant as well as ginning their bales free. Several are growing the Stoneval 2-B variety which was the prize winner in 1947.

4-H club boys who expect to enter bales this year include: A. C. and Harvey Wessel, Alton and Ralph Hiller, Jerry and Maurice Holle, Billie and Roy Burton, Paul Jansa, David Burleson, Alton and Lee Allen Halfmann, Stanley Gleich, Leon Frerich, Dennis Rohmfield, Werner Halfmann, Clarence Hoelscher, Wilbert and Ray Gene Hoelscher, Vincent and David Halfmann, Roger Bryan, Larry Mosler, D. B. Underwood, Leo Minzenmayer, Elwood Hambricht, A. W. and Weldon Andrae, Lester and James Jansa, J. C. Werner, and Harmon Hilliard.

A special educational program will be presented the day of the show, from 11 a. m. to noon. At 2:00 p. m. the prizes will be announced and the auction sale started.

Merchants Suggest New Kind of Xmas Program

The Ballinger Chamber of Commerce has received a large number of letters from local business men in regard to the kind of Christmas program desired this year. The first tabulations showed approximately 60 per cent wanting a new program and more elaborate street decorations.

Roger Wheeler, secretary-manager of the chamber, stated that as soon as most of the letters were returned which were mailed last week, a committee of local business men would be called into a meeting to consider the various angles suggested in the letters and the cost. With the budget pledged in the letters a program will be arranged in keeping with the suggestions as nearly as possible.

Information on street decorations indicates that a rather large outlay will be needed to purchase commercial street pieces. Several West Texas firms are specializing in this material, but prices submitted to the local chamber have been high and $5 each. Other decorating firms are being contacted so that prices and samples will be available when the group is called together.

While most of the letters ask for a new program, only a few suggest features. Letters returned the first of the week had pledged about $200 for presenting the Christmas program and decorations.

Mr. Wheeler urges that every business manager in Ballinger who has received a letter to complete the form and return it to the chamber by this week-end. No personal solicitation will be made for the program or to raise money. Plans will be perfected within a short time based on the letters returned.

Legion Plans Work For Months Ahead, Armistice Meeting

The American Legion and Auxiliary held their regular October meetings Tuesday night and discussed a number of business matters.

Legionnaires heard a report from Tom Caudle, chairman of the building committee, on plans for securing a club home. Mr. Caudle reported on several proposals which have been before the committee, one the buying of a quonset hut and erecting it on a lot here, the purchasing of a building at Bruce Field and moving it to town, and on several local buildings which might be purchased. Up to this time the committee has not made a recommendation to the post in regard to an actual purchase. Investigations will be continued the next few weeks and the committee will then be ready for another report.

It was voted by the post to hold the annual Armistice Day breakfast at the Ballinger Country Club at 6 a. m. November 11. The affair will be on the same plan as last year with each member attending paying $1 for the meal. All members and any veterans who desire to attend are invited.

Walter Presson, membership chairman, talked to the veterans Tuesday night and urged the support of the entire post in the membership drive to be started at once. Notices are being mailed to all old members this week asking them to send in the 1949 dues. The price of dues has been raised to $4.25 for next year.

Commander R. E. Bruce named the following committee chairmen Tuesday night who will serve for the next twelve months. They are: Walter Presson, membership; Frankie Berryman, house; Price Middleton, legal; Troy Simpson, finance; Jack Nixon, Jr., public relations; D. G. Posey, secretary; Larry Gilbert, visiting; Troy Simpson, Americanism; James Parrish, athletics; O. C. Sykes, child welfare; Ray Tisdale, defense; Wilson Middleton, entertainment; Ed Curry, program; Tom Caudle, building; Robert Nicholson and Wilson Middleton, color guard; Clarence Richards, firing squad; Alex McGregor, setting up committee.

The Auxiliary made plans for the holding of the annual poppy sale on Saturday, November 6. Members have accepted tours during the day to remain with the booth downtown and salesgirls have been secured for each two-hour period. The Auxiliary also planned to launch a membership drive in the near future.

Wheat Varieties Best for County Urged by Barton

John A. Barton, county agricultural agent, is making suggestions to the farmers of this county in regard to the varieties of wheat to plant this fall and in the spring. Mr. Barton states that there are a number of varieties which do well here and others that are not desirable.

In a letter he says: "By planting Comanche, Pawnee and Westar varieties, you will secure the highest yield, and make the most dollars per acre. These varieties will create a strong demand for Rannels county wheat and will put this county back on a high standard for the right varieties that it formerly held."

Continuing, Mr. Barton reminds growers that 70 per cent of bread today is baked in commercial bakeries where mechanical mixtures require strong gluten flour. Figures recently compiled show Rannels county farmers raising 70 per cent of desirable varieties and 30 per cent which were less or not desirable.

Employees of the county agent's office will be glad to discuss varieties with any grower interested. Other suggestions are to reclean seed and treat with improved Ceresan before planting. This is good insurance against stinking smut and will increase yields.

Methodists to Have Program Tonight; Steinman Speaker

A church-wide meeting will be held this (Thursday) evening at the First Methodist Church when Methodist Men are joined by the Woman's Society of Christian Service for a dinner in the church basement to be followed by a program and entertainment.

Young people of the church have been given a special invitation to attend and preparations are being made for several hundred. Dr. George Steinman, head of the religious education department at McMurry College, will be the guest speaker, presenting his hobby lecture. Illustrating the talk he will display a large collection of articles he has made in recent years.

Musical numbers will be sung by a group of high school boys who compose the school quartet.

The program committee arranging for this event is composed of Marvin Davies, Al Dallinger and George Newby.

Men of the church will prepare the meat course and side dishes and the women will furnish the salads and desserts.

BALLINGERITES ATTEND FIRST MEETING OF MILES LIONS CLUB

E. C. Grindstaff, Jack Nixon, Jr. and Ed Curry went to Miles Friday night to attend an organizational meeting for a Lions club in that city.

The Ballingerites reported a good meeting with 23 men taking membership in the new club. C. S. Coleman was elected president and Harry Moynihan, secretary-treasurer, to serve with a full slate of officials.

J. C. Welch, of Lions International, conducted the business until after the organization was perfected and officers elected. The Ballinger Lions made short talks on service, rendered the community and the international program.

Smiths Close Cafe; Moving to Artesia

G. E. and Ernest Smith closed the American Cafe here Monday and began preparing the fixtures to be shipped to Artesia, New Mexico, where they will open a cafe.

The American Cafe has been operated here for a number of years and since before World War II has been in the same location on Hutchings Avenue.

F. M. Pearce, owner of the building where the restaurant has been operated, is out of town this week and no information on a possible lessee could be obtained. Several local men are said to be seeking the location and will make improvements to suit their requirements in opening a new business.

Ballinger Stores Aid Wool Growers In Area Contest

Mrs. M. L. Stone, co-chairman of the "Make it Yourself-with Wool" contest being sponsored by the woman's auxiliary of the National Wool Growers' Association, was in Ballinger Tuesday to check with local merchants who are cooperating in the movement and on entries from this county.

Mrs. Stone said the time for completion of garments had been extended until October 22 and that the style show and judging for this area would be held at Coleman October 30. Those entering must have their completed garments at Coleman by 10 a. m. the day of the show. Luncheon will be served the girls at the noon hour and at 2:30 p. m. all girls will model their dresses, suits or sports clothes.

Several Rannels county girls have entered and a list will be prepared by Miss Ollie Chenoweth, county home demonstration agent, and the home economics teachers of the county. The contest is open to all girls 14 through 21 years of age.

The following prizes will be given in the area show: first six winners, a wool blanket; second six, a dress length of wool; third six, sweaters. Winners at the area exhibit will go to San Angelo for the state contest and winners there will go to San Antonio for the national judging.

Ballinger merchants cooperating in the contest and their gifts are: Bettis & Sturges, one dress length and scarf of 100 per cent wool; Woodrooff's, one dress length; Ballinger Dry Goods Co., wool scarf; Rubin's, one dress length.

Entry blanks can be obtained from the above stores or from the home demonstration agent or homemaking teachers.

School Lunch Rooms Of County Feeding 1,550 Students Daily

A check-up in Rannels county discloses that approximately 1,550 pupils are eating noon meals in the school lunch rooms of the county.

In the check-up of this service it was revealed that the Ballinger school cafeteria was feeding about 500 students daily; Winters, 375; Miles, 285; Rowena public school, 80; Rowena St. Joseph's, 130; and the common district schools, 260.

Supt. W. E. Elkins stated Tuesday that he had received notice of additional food shipments for the lunch rooms of the county which would be divided and delivered as soon as received here.

Supt. Elkins has received invoices for shipments as follows: 75 cases of cheese, 30 pounds to the case; 71 cases of dried milk, six 4 1/2-pound cans to the case; 20 cases of concentrated orange juice, six one-gallon cans to the case; and a quantity of apple sauce.

Approximately 3,000,000 Texas school children are being fed in lunch rooms, Supt. Elkins said, most of them at 20 and 25 cents a meal.

Sonny Davenport returned home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Davenport, to spend Sunday after the Howard Payne-Austin football game at Brownwood Saturday night. Sonny is a freshman at Howard Payne and is seeing action on the Yellow Jacket team.

F. M. Pearce is in the Rio Grande valley this week, looking after property interests.

VALLEY VIEW CHURCH TO ORDAIN DEACONS

The Valley View Baptist Church will ordain three men as deacons at 3 p. m. Sunday, according to Rev. Ralph E. Perkins, pastor. The church has issued a cordial invitation to all the pastors and members of the Rannels Baptist Association to assist in this service.

The following pastors are to assist in this way: Rev. Fred Blake, of Robert Lee, will interrogate the candidates; Rev. Lawrence Trot, of Winters, will give the charge of the deacons; Rev. B. J. Martin, of Ballinger, will bring the message to the church.

Valley View is five miles northwest of Ballinger on the Bronie highway.

Visitors in the home of Mrs. C. E. Lowry this week were her sister, Mrs. Lena Gross, of Sennett, Oklahoma; Mrs. Minnie Irvin, of Wichita Falls; her brother, Orion Barnett, and Mrs. Barnett, of San Francisco; and her daughters, Mrs. Ruth Kevil, of Odessa, and Mrs. Pauline Paske, of Ballinger, and three grandchildren.

Production Depth Expected to be Hit Soon in King No. 1

Drilling today was around 3,500 feet on the Gardner sand test on the King estate, four miles north of Ballinger. Regular tours are being operated and the producing sand should be encountered between 3,800 and 3,900 feet.

This well, an offset to the producer on the Beddo farm, is being watched closely by a large number of oil men and additional activity in the area is expected soon.

Surface pipe was set last week in the test on the Fowler farm, south of the Beddo producer. Work remained inactive most of the week but will get underway shortly.

Local oil men are expecting other locations to be staked in Rannels county in the near future as several blocks have been completed with the exception of titles.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Grindstaff spent Sunday at Abilene, visiting relatives.

Four Bearcats at McMurry

Here Are The Brady Bulldogs

The Brady Bulldogs, strong contenders for the championship of football district 7A, will be here tomorrow (Friday) to meet the Bearcats at 8:15 p. m. The Bulldogs have six wins and no losses for the season and have scored 187 points to their opponents 30.

SPORTS

The Ballinger Bearcats have finished their travelling for the season and will be at home for four straight weeks with conference tilts.

Tomorrow night the city of Brady will move into Bearcat Field to engage the locals in the outstanding game of the district. Undeafated, the Brady Bulldogs are gunning for the district 7A championship this year and the Bearcats have always been a rival. For several years the Bearcats have held the upper edge but this time Coach Russ Holland's Bulldogs expect to change things.

The Brady band and pep squad will make the trip to Ballinger and these groups will be accompanied by several hundred fans. It will be a big night at the local field and the color will equal any grid contest in this section. Both schools will present acts between the halves which will be worth seeing.

The Bulldogs have played few push-overs this season and their record of wins shows some strong teams knocked down. The Brady lads use a varied running attack with plenty of good passing thrown in to keep the defense loose. Here is their record for the season:
Brady 19, San Saba 6
Brady 46, Llano 0
Brady 35, Hamilton 12
Brady 40, Thomas Edison, San Antonio, 12

Brady 34, Lake View 0
Brady 13, Georgetown 0

The record of the Ballinger team is not so impressive. The Bearcats have lost games to the Stephenville and Rotan teams and last Friday night were tied by the Haskell team. In the tilt at Haskell the Bearcats were without the services of Big Walter Hill.

District 7A teams have shown about equal power this year, Lake View having about the weakest squad on the list. The Ballinger, Winters, Coleman and Brady elevens have been picked as the best in the group and it will take the full schedule to determine the ultimate winner.

Follows the Bearcats' record for the season:
Ballinger 6, Stephenville 34
Ballinger 13, Dublin 6
Ballinger 13, Roscoe 0
Ballinger 41, Comanche 0
Ballinger 6, Rotan 18
Ballinger 6, Haskell 6.

Douglas Cox, assistant coach, scouted the Brady-Georgetown game last Friday night and reported the Brady team looked good but could be defeated. He rated the Bulldogs with Rotan, a team that defeated the Bearcats 18 to 6. Both coaches said the injured list was their biggest worry this week.

Haskell Indians, Bearcats Play 6 to 6 Tie Game

The Ballinger Bearcats, playing without the help of Water Hill, were forced to settle for a 6 to 6 tie at Haskell last Friday night.

The Bearcats started several touchdown drives only to lose the scoring opportunity one way or another. Once they were held for downs on the Haskell 10-yard line and as the half ended they had carried the ball to the Haskell one-yard line when time ran out. Reese, Bell and Hallmark were standouts in the Ballinger play during the evening and the entire line turned in a good game.

The Indians scored early when Lusk climaxed a touchdown drive by passing 14 yards to Price over the goal line.

The Bearcats rode back with a sustained downfield drive, Bell going over for the score from the three-yard stripe. Both teams failed in their kick attempts for the extra point.

Fans saw a hot offensive sortie in the fourth quarter as each field fought up and down the field in trying to score and win the game.

Mrs. Joe Huffman, of Ventura, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gardner, of Newcastle, are guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gentry. Miss Dorothy Huffman, of Mexia, has also been a visitor in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gentry. Mr. and Mrs. Gardner recently spent several months in California and were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Huffman on a trip into Canada.

Longhorn League Heads Will Meet October 24

Howard Green, president of the Longhorn Baseball League, transacted business in Ballinger Saturday morning and left soon after noon for San Angelo to meet with directors of the club there. Mr. Green announced the fall meeting of the league for next Sunday afternoon at Abilene, for which all owners, managers and others interested in the eight franchises will assemble to talk business. At this meeting several new items of business dealing with the operation of the league will be brought up for approval or rejection by the league directors. One important proposition is in regard to the number of class men, limited service men and rookies to be carried next season. Some favor cutting class men to two, cutting rookies to six or seven and adding to the number of limited service players on each club. Plans for a more rigid check on payrolls will be suggested. Mr. Green said it was a known fact that most lower class league clubs were paying over in one way or another, but no check-ups were authorized which would prove it.

Bogart, Four Other Top Raters In Explosive Drama, 'Key Largo'

"Key Largo," Warners' newest dramatic masterpiece, is keyed to excitement.

This filmization of Maxwell Anderson's celebrated stage play, which opens Sunday at the Texas Theatre, is top-league fare all the way down. Five stars, Humphrey Bogart, Edward G. Robinson, Lauren Bacall, Lionel Barrymore and Claire Trevor, top the cast, which gives off sparks by itself.

Many bits stand out in the vivid drama set against the tropical Florida keys. Bogart engages in stiff combat with a flock of mobsters, Robinson tries a special brand of whispering conquest in making a play for Miss Bacall, Barrymore fairly bursts with insults when the gangsters take over his hotel. And Miss Trevor, as a faded beauty, makes her bit unforgettable, especially when she is promised a drink to sing "Moanin' Low," and is then refused.

When the action gathers momentum, a hurricane strikes and the drama takes on new excitement. The closing scenes with Bogart eliminating the mobsters provides a thrilling climax to the entire proceedings. "Key Largo" is said to be strong drama, beautifully acted by a skilled cast, and directed by John Huston with marked distinction. The concluding presentation at the Texas will be Tuesday night, October 26.

"Montana Mike," an unusual western, and "Caged Fury," melodramatic circus yarn, make up the double-feature program at the Texas tomorrow and Saturday, October 22, 23.

"Montana Mike" sports a hero as tough as they come who never takes a gun yet always gets his way. And Robert Cummings, in the part of Mike, delivers a top-drawer performance right down the line. Brian Donlevy, who thought he would be Mike's nemesis, (but thought wrong) matches him every inch of the way. Beautiful Jorja Curtright, Texas' latest gift to the movies, supplies the love interest.

Richard Denning, Sheila Ryan, Buster Crabbe and Mary Beth Hughes head the cast in "Caged Fury," an action thriller. The plot is built around a homicidal maniac in clown's clothing. The film also features a spectacular circus fire climax, reminiscent of a recent similar tragedy in Connecticut.

Famous Sea Story Commences Today On Palace Screen

After 106 years as one of America's favorite literary classics of the sea, Richard Henry Dana's "Two Years Before the Mast" has been screened for the first time by Paramount, and is being shown today, tomorrow and Saturday at the Palace Theatre in conjunction with another feature, "The Dead Don't Dream."

The picturization of Dana's famous novel of the hardships and cruelties inflicted upon American seamen in the early 18th century is enacted by a top cast headed by Alan Ladd, William Bendix, Brian Donlevy and Barry Fitzgerald.

An intimate story of the private life of an unscrupulous industrialist who tries to use some of his shady business tactics in affairs of the heart, will be discussed at the Palace next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 25, 26, 27, in Producing Artists' "Ruthless." Starred are Zachary Scott, Louis Hayward, Diana Lynn, Sydney Greenstreet, Martha Vickers and Lucille Bremer. Supporting players are headed by Dennis Hoey, Edith Barrett and Raymond Burr.

On the same double-feature program, Eddie Dean and his perennial comedy sidekick, Roscoe Ates, are pitted against a female villain in order to gain control of a ranch in "The Hawk of Powder River."

'The Search' First Drama Filmed In American Zone of Germany

"The Search," much-discussed M-G-M drama coming to the Ford Theatre Saturday, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, October 23, 24, 25, 26, is seventh in the list of famous Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer pictures for which stars and production units have been sent to photograph not only backgrounds but the actual dramatic incidents of a story in lands overseas.

Beginning with "Ben Hur," released in 1926, which was partly filmed in Italy, the list comprises "White Shadows in the South Seas," "Trader Horn," "A Yank at Oxford," "The Citadel," "Goodbye Mr. Chips," and now "The Search," first post-war feature picture to be filmed in the American zone of occupied Germany.

"The Search" was directed by Fred Zinnemann, who, after being responsible for "The Seventh Cross" and other successful films, went to Europe to work with Lazar Wechsler on this moving story of courage and triumph.

Montgomery Clift, Aline MacMahon, Jarmila Novotna and

Wendell Corey are featured in the cast. All the other characters are played by personnel selected by Zinnemann and Wechsler on the spot, mainly from people who lived through the stormy years of the recent past, and from American and British field organizations.

Ivan Jandl, 9-year-old boy who is seen in the central role of Karel Malik, was "discovered" while singing with an amateur group of children in Prague, where his parents live. Leopold Borkowski, who plays the lad who finds refuge in the guise of a choir-boy, was selected in Warsaw.

Montgomery Clift, popular young Broadway actor, and Miss MacMahon, distinguished on the stage and screen, were sent to Europe by M-G-M especially to appear in the film and were there approximately three months under Zinnemann's direction. Jarmila Novotna, of the Metropolitan Opera Co., consented to play the role of the mother who is separated by the tides of war from her little son.

Jennifer Holt, who plays the Hawk, murders her uncle and is about to do away with her cousin when Eddie steps in. In addition to coping with the Hawk and her gang, Eddie sings four songs accompanied by Andy Perker and "The Plainsmen."

Preacher-Farmer Builds Grassland Slowly but Surely

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 20.—"This is how I thresh grass seed like little bluestem," said Rev. Olen E. Waldrip to Limestone County Agent M. H. Brown, Jr. Rev. Waldrip is pastor of the First Baptist Church at Groesbeck and a Limestone county farmer.

Rev. Waldrip picked up a handful of seed hay and struck it against 20 six-penny nails that were driven in the wall. The downy little bluestem seeds were stripped from the stems and settled to the floor when the stems were pulled through the nails.

After threshing a while, he swept up the seed and sacked it. "All this grass came from the park," said Mr. Waldrip. He goes out there every few days, cuts the ripe seed hay by hand and stacks it in a dry shed. Mr. Waldrip says he plans to use this seed in a reproduction plot next spring, and will put the straw out on the pasture. The straw still contains some seed.

Mr. Waldrip has a badly eroded hillside pasture on his farm that he is experimenting with. This hillside grows bluebonnets, Johnson grass, bur clover and weeds of all kind. He has already seeded sweet clover, and plans to improve the grasses as he produces the seeds.

Little bluestem is only one of several Mr. Waldrip now has a plot of subterranean clover, and the seeds for an acre of KK bluestem. Last spring with a garden rake he harvested about 100 pounds of spotted bur clover seeds on a vacant lot in town.

"I'm going to build the best pasture in Limestone county," says Rev. Waldrip. And County Agent Brown says he probably will if he keeps up at the present rate.

Because people don't spend enough time making little things grow into big ones, harvesting, testing to local conditions, and multiplying seeds, many new grasses have never got into production from the experimental plots.

The excellence of yellow beard grass has been known in the experimental plots for a quarter of a century, says Robert R. Lancaster, extension pasture specialist of Texas A. & M. College. It needed someone like Rev. Waldrip to get it started. Lancaster highly commends the preacher-farmer's work.

Veronica Lake and Joan Caulfield Portray Swindlers in Fast Comedy, 'Sainted Sisters'

A picture that promises plenty of laughter is due at the Texas Theatre Wednesday and Thursday of next week, October 27, 28. It is Paramount's romantic comedy, "The Sainted Sisters," which co-stars Veronica Lake, Joan Caulfield and Barry Fitzgerald, and features William Demarest, George Reeves and Beulah Bondi.

The story concerns the hilarious adventures of a couple of beautiful, swindling sisters, played by Veronica and Joan. En route to Canada with $25,000 of a rich sucker's money, they are forced to stop off in a little New England town, where they make the mistake of seeking shelter in the home of Fitzgerald.

Fitzgerald, a philosophical tombstone sculptor, gets wind of their booty and how they came by it. He proceeds to teach the girls some things about life they never knew before and, according to all reports, they are not only highly original lessons, but hilariously funny as well.

Outstanding quartets from San Angelo, Coleman and Abilene will be heard at the county gathering.

Mrs. Oscar Pearson, after a visit with relatives in Alabama, has returned to Ballinger.

Mrs. L. R. Tigner and Mrs. A. J. Thorp spent several days last week at Dallas, attending the state fair and visiting relatives.

THIRD SUNDAY SINGING TO BE HELD OCTOBER 24 The regular Third Sunday Singing Association meeting, scheduled October 17, was postponed and will be held coincident with the regular semi-annual Runnels County Singing Association convention beginning at 1:30 p. m. next Sunday, October 24, at the Grace Baptist Church.

Dr. A. B. Rutledge, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Marshall, arrived last Monday and has been bringing the messages at each service this week. Rev. B. J. Martin opened the revival last Sunday, preaching Sunday and the Monday morning service.

The young people of the church have been meeting daily at 7 a. m. for breakfast and Dr. Rutledge has been bringing a message to the group at each service. Prayer services are also held at the church each evening at 7 o'clock.

Lions Preparing To Present Show On November 26

The Ballinger Lions Club has set November 26 as the tentative date for its annual minstrel show this year. All committees have been appointed to handle various phases of the presentation and in the first part of November will launch a drive to put over the show in grand fashion.

Rehearsals on the performance will be started about November 10 and a cast committee will soon select a large group of popular local entertainers for the various roles. Every effort will be made to make the show the best yet presented by the club and special feature acts are already being planned.

This will be the third show to be staged in the high school auditorium and the proceeds will be used for some worthy local undertaking. Two years ago two blocks of paving in front of the junior high school and the football field were made possible and last year a baby incubator was purchased for installation in the Bailey Clinic-Hospital.

The club has decided that no reserved seat tickets will be sold this year and those who come to the show early will be able to get the best seats.

A general review of the program and list of the committees will be made within the next two weeks.

$800 Left in Fund For County-Wide Agricultural Day

A check-up reveals that about $800 was left in the fund for the one-day soil and water conservation meeting recently held on the Garland Nunn and Wesley Wood places near Ballinger. This program was sponsored by the chambers of commerce in the county, the AAA office and the A. & M. extension service, and money for the barbecue dinner and other expenses were contributed by business men in all communities of Runnels county.

The balance is to be left in a special account and used in the future to help carry on the five-year agricultural program in this county.

Wide publicity given the one-day meeting drew a crowd of approximately 3,000, about 1,000 more than expected. The program was proclaimed one of the best presented and attended of any ever held in this region.

Other work in the five-year program will be undertaken in the near future by committees and cooperating agencies.

Mrs. Hill Hampton and Mrs. C. F. Bailey left Saturday for Amarillo, where they will spend the week.

Oil Progress Day Is Observed Here

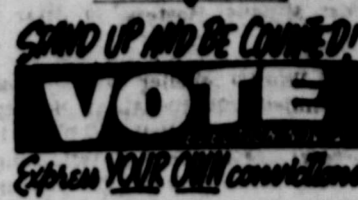

Ballinger oil agents and consignees cooperated in the promotion of Oil Progress Day here on October 14. The observance, nation-wide in scope, called attention to the contribution and service oil men are rendering to the communities of the entire United States.

In Ballinger Cal Adair, S. E.

Cloninger, W. O. Irby, A. O. Bartless, E. P. Talbott and P. G. Fuller placed posters in store show windows calling attention to the special day.

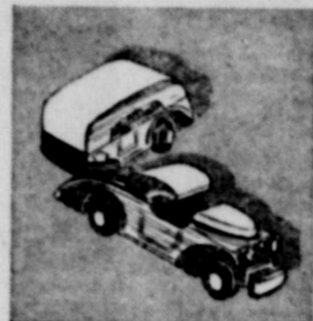

Mayor J. W. Moore issued a proclamation the first of the week calling upon local people to hear the programs and read stories informing how free, competitive enterprise, typified by the oil industry, supplies Americans with the good things of life, the benefits to public welfare, to the schools and other institutions.

Those sponsoring the observance here called attention to the fact that since 1941 the oil industry has increased the volume of its products delivered to consumers at a rate twice the average of all industry.

Dierschke-Fuchs Wedding Rites Performed at Westphalia

Miss Regina Fuchs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alois Fuchs, and Monroe Dierschke, son of Mrs. G. H. Dierschke, were united in marriage on Tuesday morning, October 19, at 8:30 o'clock at the Church of Visitation, Westphalia, Texas. Rev. Robert Fuchs, cousin of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony and officiated at the nuptial high Mass. The altars were beautifully decorated with tall white candles in golden candelabra and mixed flowers of tuberose, ferns and ivies. Frank Buckholt presided at the organ and accompanied the choir. The Ave Maria was sung at the offertory.

The bride wore a gown of white slipper satin designed with a fitted bodice, long fitted sleeves ending in points over the wrist, and the skirt was adorned with three lace inserts which ended in a cathedral train. Her finger-tip veil which had a hand rolled edge was held in place by a crown of seeded pearls. For an ornament she wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her long tapered bouquet was of white gladioli, maline and satin puffs.

Miss Anita Fuchs, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a gown of white taffeta designed with a round neckline, trimmed with lace ruffles, short puff sleeves, and fitted bodice. Her skirt was of Victorian style. Miss Bernice Lange and Miss Dolores Dierschke, nieces of the groom, were bridesmaids and wore white gowns identical to that of the maid of honor. The attendants' headresses were white pompons, maline and satin ribbons. Their colonial bouquets were of chrysanthemums, maline, and ribbon.

James Braden, nephew of the groom, was best man. Ray Fuchs, brother of the bride, and Lee Allen Roessler, nephew of the bride, were ushers.

After the Mass, Miss Ruth Marie Beach and Miss Elizabeth Roessler presented the bride with a statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary as a gift of the Children of Mary of which the bride was a member.

Immediately after the ceremony an all-day reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The lace-laid dining table was centered with a three-tiered cake topped with a miniature bridal couple.

The couple left for a week's trip through the southern states. For traveling the bride chose a gray gabardine suit with black accessories and a dahila corsage.

Mr. Dierschke is engaged in farming and is a veteran of World War II, having been in the Air Corps and served for three years.

Voters visiting the polling places November 2 will be confronted by one of the bulkiest ballots ever handed out by election judges in this county. The man or woman who intends to vote the ticket "straight" will have no difficulty with the candidates but at the bottom of the ticket will be found eight important constitutional amendments which will need to be left "for" or "against." More than ever before, local people are said intending to "split" their ballots, voting for state, district and county candidates who are the Democratic nominees, but for the presidential and vice-presidential candidates of other parties. Such voting will complicate the tabulations and those who help with the election may have a long, hard job before the final reports are made.

- ✓ STOMACH GAS
- ✓ SOUR FOOD TASTE
- ✓ ACID INDIGESTION

Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief from this nervous distress. Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment, sour, food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, lousy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness. To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients. Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better. merce to give suggestions for the kind of commercial Christmas program wanted this year. For a number of years the chamber of commerce has sponsored about the same type of program in the effort to engender early gift buying and to attract people to this city for their holiday needs. Some have complained that the program needs some new features and this year all merchants have received a letter asking for suggestions and later a committee will take the suggestions that best express the wishes of all and from these make up a program. In order to present any kind of program some expense is necessary and the chamber's budget will not permit this added expense. Merchants also are asked in the letter that they will be willing to donate towards the Christmas program. No personal solicitation will be made and everyone receiving a letter is urged to answer at once, giving suggestions and also pledging a specific amount of money for the expenses.

Captain of Industry

Meet Butch—Pres., Treas., and Field Force of the One Man Odd Jobs Co., Uninc. Take a good look at him—for Butch is America. Butch wants a bicycle. Lots of lawn and lemonade and baby-sitting lie between Butch and that bike, but we're betting on the boy. He has energy, vision, and our national habit of working hard for what he wants. He's American business—in miniature. There are many names for Butch's philosophy. You can call it Free Enterprise, Opportunity, Democracy, or Capitalism, if you want. But, whatever the name, America owes it much. For our most valuable natural resource lies in the ambition and initiative of Americans like Butch. As great publications have grown from the dreams of young men with old handpresses—and great industries from the products of grubby little cellar workshops—the electric industry had small beginnings, too. Like our own company. A few men with vision strung the first small lines. People with faith risked their savings. Better and better service, at lower and lower cost, created more and more jobs—and carried the benefits of electric living to more and more people. Free enterprise and hard work will bring Butch and his bike together. They are what built America and the American way of life, which is the highest standard of living in the world. No nation on earth has found a satisfactory substitute for that combination.

"The New Ford knocked my hat off!"

"I knew it would be the fine car of its field. But that '49 Ford is clear out of its class. It's the car of the year."

"Take those 'Magic Action' Brakes, the 'Mid Ship' Ride, the new 'Picture Window' Visibility. They're all the type of features you'd expect in the highest priced cars."

"My dealer took me out for a ride. Those 'Hydra-Coil' Front Springs and 'Para-Flex' Rear Springs are mighty smooth! And what room! ... those seats are sofa white."

"—and my hat's off to Ford Service too!"

"I've got my order in. But, till that Ford in my future is in my garage, I'm getting real Ford Service at my Ford Dealer's. He knows how to keep my Ford safe, peppy and comfortable. And some day he'll own it ... so, naturally, he's keeping up its trade-in value."

EIGHTH STREET AND STRONG AVENUE

You Can't Swim the Mississippi with a Million Head of Cattle

The Mississippi River always has been the "continental divide" in the geography of the livestock industry. In the old days the great herds of longhorns trailing north from Texas had many rivers to cross. The Red. The Canadian. The Big Blue. The Platte ... but there was never a trail that ended east of the Father of Waters. The Mississippi was, and is, one river you couldn't swim with a million head of cattle.

It's a staggering job to get the nation's meat from producer to consumer. Two-thirds of the meat animals are produced west of the Mississippi ... two-thirds of the meat is eaten east of it. On the average, meat has to be transported more than 1,000 miles. It's a big job—a huge job. Just consider: in 1947 alone, this job of getting the nation's meat from the farm and range to the cooking range involved 32,158,000 beef animals, 24,044,000 sheep and lambs, 82,579,000 hogs!

Harvesting any national crop—from wheat to meat—is a big job. Big machines are needed. Who uses binders when combines are more efficient? Similarly, in the processing and nationwide distribution of meat it takes large-scale, efficient "machinery." There's a need for all of us—producers and meat packers; shippers and marketing people; transportation lines; wholesalers and retailers. We all play a part—whether we are individuals or companies, whether we operate locally or on a nationwide basis.

Over the years, we at Swift have worked to perfect our nationwide system of marketing. We, and 26,000 other commercial slaughterers, provide a competitive cash market for your livestock. We buy your animals and dress them. We process and refrigerate them. Then, we distribute the meat to retail store men everywhere. (Our earnings for all these essential services are only a fraction of a cent a pound.) Because this big job is done efficiently, you producers are assured of markets ... consumers everywhere are assured of meat. We at Swift & Company are proud of our part in building the "1,000-mile bridge," the "bridge" which carries meat from the point of surplus production to the point of consumption. So long as all America wants meat it will take efficient nationwide organizations to bridge that 1,000-mile gap.

Tally and Cull "Newcomers" in Breeding Ewe Flocks

by Clair E. Terrill

Clair E. Terrill

As you swing the cut gate, you can increase total salable lamb weight, your margin of profit. For here you can cull ewes that are barren in their first lambing season. You can also cut out those unable to raise singles in their first lambing year. These ewes often get by on their appearance alone. For frequently they are heavier woolled and in better condition than nursing ewes. But they do not always pay their way.

Recent research has proved that subsequent market lamb production from such dry ewes may not justify keeping them in efficient commercial breeding bands. Experiments with Columbia range ewes at the U. S. Sheep Experiment Station, Dubois, Idaho, established this fact. There is a definite relationship between the total weaning weight of lambs produced in the first year and in the three following years of lambing.

All ewes that twinned the first year, regardless of whether the lambs were raised, weaned 19 pounds more lamb weight in the three years of study than ewes that failed to lamb—five pounds more than that dropped and raised singles had 16 pounds greater annual lamb yield thereafter than ewes which did not lamb. And ewes that did not rear their first lamb later produced 14 pounds more lamb weight yearly than ewes which were barren their first lambing season.

So, to increase efficiency in market lamb production, tally "newcomers" in ewe herds at breeding time. Then mark barren low-producing ewes for culling after the lambing season.

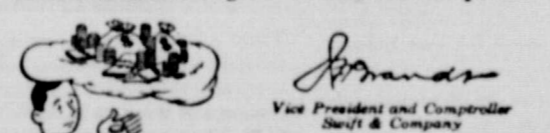

All That Glitters Isn't Profit

Government reports tell of farm and ranch income from livestock that totals more than 17 billion dollars. Many folks read those reports and say—"No wonder meat is so high. Livestock producers must be coining money."

That is a thoughtless comment, based on misunderstanding. That 17 billion dollars is not profit—it is gross income. Many expenses must come out of your gross livestock income before you can make any profit on it. There's the cost of breeding stock and feeding stock ... of your hired labor ... of feed, machinery, equipment. All these costs are at all-time high levels. Out of your gross income also must come property and income taxes, interest; insurance premiums; repairs; new buildings; fences; death losses, etc. After you've paid all those necessary business expenses, you're lucky if you end up with 10 or 15 per cent profit.

A lot of people are just as wrong about Swift's profit as they are about yours. They look at our total sales of 24 billion dollars last year and say—"That's a barrel of money. No wonder meat is high!" But the fact is that competition in both buying and selling is so keen that from those 24 billion sales dollars an average of 79¢ went to pay you for your livestock ... 10¢ for pay to our employees ... 6½¢ for supplies and other necessary business costs. 3¢ for taxes and transportation. All we had left as earnings was 1½¢.

Yes, in our business, as in yours, there's a big difference between gross income and net profit!

Tax Payments Here Heavy This Month; May be New Record

W. A. Forgy, county tax assessor-collector, stated last week that early payments of taxes at his office were as heavy as in past years with possibly a slightly increased volume this year, although no tabulations have been made on payments to date.

Many of the larger tax payers are taking advantage of the 3 per cent discount for October payments and totals for this month probably will be the heaviest of the year. During November 2 per cent discounts will be allowed and 1 per cent will be offered for paying in December.

As many take advantage of the discount offered on county and state tax bills, they are also paying accounts with the school district and city, although these two collecting offices offer no discounts.

January will be the final month for the payment of taxes and no discounts will be offered at the county-state office for payments that month. After the last day of January taxes unpaid will go on the delinquent lists.

COMPASS STUDY HIKE TAKEN BY BOY SCOUT TROOP NO. 42

With the weather ideal and a brilliant moon, and an open football date, members of Boy Scout troop 42 took to the woods Friday afternoon for an overnight outing. The main objective was to apply to open country knowledge gained in regular troop meetings on the compass.

Friday evening, October 15, was spent in pitching camp and preparing supper over improvised campfires with the patrol leader supervising. Time after supper was given to activities of the members own selection. Some tramped through the woods along the river on the Tom Egan place, where the outing was held. Others preferred fishing, some collected special stones for their patrol den.

Saturday morning, October 16, was principally spent in working out a different compass trail laid out by Rev. Edward B. Postert, scoutmaster. The trail consisted of eleven stations set up over a wide area. At each station the scout found the next compass direction. The stations were made up of the following points: N W 320°, S W 196°, NNW 350°, NW 290°, NE 45° N; W. WSW 227°; ESE 105°; and SE 135°. Assistant Patrol Leader Paul Jenkins and his team won with a perfect score. Marvin Clark, patrol leader of the Panthers, won second place with his patrol. Jimmie Williams, patrol leader of the Foxes, came in third, Harold McDonald and his patrol came in last. A suitable award was given for a perfect score.

After completion of the compass trail, boys having permission of their parents were permitted to take a short swim. Others went rowing in a boat loaned by Mr. Egan.

Attending the outing were: Marvin Clark, Glen Hoelscher, Buddy Clark, Jimmie Williams, Harold McDonald, Billy Ueckert, Weidon Brevard, Clarence Halfmann, Paul Jenkins, Wayne Johnson, Lanny Maedgen, Billy Watkins, Billy Maedgen, Pete Bryan. Visitors were Paul Halfmann and Pee Wee Hoelscher, and in charge were Rev. Postert and Lynn Neill, senior patrol leader.

Carl S. Guin, of Abilene, visited and attended to business in Ballinger the past week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lynn left Tuesday for Dallas to attend the state fair and visit relatives.

Roy Worley was at home from Big Spring to spend the week-end with his family.

At the meeting Saturday plans for advertising highway 83 were proposed. The route originates at the Canadian border where it makes connection with the highway to Alaska and runs through the United States to the Mexican border.

The Ballinger men stated the meeting Saturday was well attended and plans for raising advertising funds were considered, with each town along the route to contribute a specific amount.

J. W. Moore left Tuesday for Waco to attend a commission meeting at the Methodist Home for Children. Mr. Moore, serving as commissioner for this district, was joined at Brownwood by Rev. A. S. Gafford, who also attended the meeting.

1 1/2 Billion Dollar Road Block!

RAILROADS MUST OPERATE around the clock every day and night of the year.

Although they know this, leaders of 16 railroad unions are demanding a five-day, Monday through Friday, week for one million railroad employees.

They want 48 hours pay for 40 hours work—in itself a 20% wage increase.

They also demand a minimum of 12 hours pay for any work performed on Saturdays, and 16 hours pay for any work performed on Sundays and holidays.

On top of all this they want an additional increase of 25¢ an hour for every employee!

You'd Pay the Bill!

Summing up these demands, they mean that these union leaders seek to force the railroads to give one million employees an annual raise which would average $1500 per employee!

The total cost of this would be no less than 1 1/2 billion dollars per year, which is more than twice the expected net income of the railroads this year.

You'd pay the bill, because if these increased costs are forced on the railroads, they must have still further rate and fare increases.

Demands Unreasonable

These employees have had substantial raises during and since the war. Their average weekly earnings are higher than the average weekly earnings of workers in manufacturing industries. They have more job security than the average worker in American industry. They also enjoy paid vacations, a retirement system and other advantages more generous than the average worker receives.

In contrast with the demands of these 16 unions, which add up to the equivalent of 48¢ an hour, the Conductors and Trainmen recently settled their wage request for an increase of 10¢ an hour.

Railroads Run for Everybody—Not Employees Alone

The railroad industry must serve not one but many groups—producers, businessmen, shippers, passengers and the general public—night and day, every day of the year. These unions are proceeding in utter disregard of this important difference between railroads and other industries. Industrial plants can be shut down over weekends and holidays, but freight, mail, express and passengers must continue to move. Everybody who enters railroad employment knows this.

Strike Threat

On September 18, 1948, the leaders of these 16 unions began taking a strike vote. But the threat of a strike will not alter the opposition of the railroads to such unreasonable demands!
