

THE BALLINGER LEDGER

BALLINGER, TEXAS, THURSDAY, JUNE 19, 1958

Small Grain Movement Slows Down This Week

The movement of small grain was slowed down Monday due to moisture falling over the county. The Ballinger Co-op Gin & Elevator caught up to some extent Sunday and were cleaning out the elevator and moving a large pile of oats into a shelter Monday.

Jack Fry stated that all their storage was full and that they would continue to buy oats and barley and ship them. Wheat is still being handled at the elevator on Tenth Street and Railroad Avenue and shipped to storage at Fort Worth. This arrangement on wheat will be continued until all the crop has been gathered.

It was estimated Monday that about 75 per cent of the wheat in the county has been combined and that the oats are about 80 per cent harvested. In some instances, oats have been piled up on the farm and have not been hauled in for sale yet. The movement is expected to continue brisk for another week before the crop is harvested.

The quality of the grain brought here for storage and for sale has been good with oats running from 32 to 37 pounds per bushel and wheat running 60 pounds or better.

Plans will be started at once to try and arrange more storage space to take care of milo maize later in the summer.

Regular shipments are being made of small grain over the Santa Fe and Abilene & Southern Railways. Reports from farm leaders indicate that practically all farm storage has been used with the oat crop.

Three Teachers Named By Board In Local School

The Ballinger school has named three new teachers for the local faculty and will try and find another to complete the teaching force. Unless there are resignations later in the year, the Ballinger school will be in excellent condition as far as instructors are concerned.

Supt. Ernest Caskey is anxious to secure one high-school teacher and plans a number of visits at once to interview prospects.

At the last board meeting, the following were elected: James E. Barr to teach arithmetic in junior high. Mrs. Barr has five years of teaching experience and comes highly recommended for the job assigned her in the local school.

Mrs. Mary Bagwell has been named to teach commercial work in junior high. Mrs. George Lange, an experienced teacher, has been elected to teach a first grade room in the elementary school. The resignation of Mrs. John Miller has been accepted and she will move with her family to San Angelo.

All other members of the local faculty have indicated they will be back this fall.

Big Crowd Hears McLaurin Sunday At Local Church

A large crowd was on hand at the First Presbyterian Church on Broadway Sunday to attend "Eugene McLaurin Day." Dr. McLaurin, pastor of the local church from 1923 to 1938, has retired from the faculty of the Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary and he and Mrs. McLaurin are making their home at Waskom in East Texas.

In addition to the regular membership of the church, friends from most of the other churches of the city attended the morning service, and the fellowship dinner which followed.

Dr. McLaurin brought the morning sermon on "Stopping the Drifts," and pointed out a number of the damaging drifts which can be stopped by a Godly man.

At the noon hour the crowd gathered in the fellowship hall for a covered dish luncheon served by the ladies of the church. There were also a number of out of town visitors present, families who were members of the church during the years when Dr. McLaurin was pastor.

Lavender Greets Methodists Sunday In First Service

Rev. Garland Lavender began his work as pastor of the First Methodist Church last Sunday. He was assigned to the Ballinger church at the close of the annual Central Texas Conference in Fort Worth to replace Rev. E. R. Gordon who served here for two years.

Rev. Lavender was born in Hill County, nine miles east of Hillsboro and attended school at Brandon and later completed high school at Hillsboro. He attended Weatherford Junior College and received his B. A. degree from Georgetown University at Georgetown in 1935. He received his B. His first appointment was to the Boyce Circuit in Ellis County. He served the church at Whitney one year and was there in 1942 when he volunteered for Chaplain's service with the U. S. Army. He arrived in Olan, North Africa, February 21, 1943, and served with the 133rd Infantry, 34th Division through parts of the North African and Italian campaigns. He returned to the United States in November 1945 after serving 33 months overseas.

Since World War II he has served the following churches: Associate pastor, Austin Avenue Methodist, Waco; Englewood Methodist, Fort Worth; First Methodist, Ranger; Couts Memorial Methodist, Weatherford; River Oaks Methodist, Fort Worth. He has built new churches at Englewood and River Oaks, and a new educational building at Couts Memorial. During the four years he served the River Oaks Church, 832 new members were received into the church, 407 on profession of faith and vows.

PREACHING MISSION FOR FORMER PASTOR Dr. W. LeRay Fowler, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Sweetwater, and a former pastor here, left Sweetwater Monday for a preaching mission with the U. S. Air Force.

The Ballinger Jaycees are getting their annual Ballinger Birthday anniversary program completed as fast as possible. Many of the special features have been definitely secured and others are to be added until June 27.

The program is being staged two days ahead of the actual birthday date, June 29, because it falls on Sunday. All the program will be presented on Friday, June 27.

Jaycees have announced that Miss Lynn Herring has been selected as duchess and will assist with the entertainment here for the program and later will represent Ballinger at the Brady July Jubilee on July 3, 4, 5 and 6.

Primary Ballots Will Be Arranged At Meeting Mon.

The Runnels County Democratic Committee will meet here Monday to arrange the primary election ballot and make arrangements to have them printed in time for absentee balloting which starts on July 5.

At the last meeting of the committee in May assessments against each office which has a candidate this year were made. This assessment was set at 10 per cent of the annual salary which ran as high as $630 for some of the county officials.

The committee has received a list of the state and district candidates and the order in which they are to be printed. Offices in the county and various precincts that have more than one candidate will determine the order by drawing the names from a hat. This will apply only to a few in this county. Two candidates are seeking the office of county treasurer, two for justice of the peace, Precinct 1, and there are four candidates for the office of county commissioner in Precinct 2.

Absentee voting will start on July 5 and July 22 will be the final date to cast such a ballot. All election supplies will be made ready in July for delivery to the election managers and judges for the voting to be held on July 26 in the first primary.

Homer Hudgins of Winters is the county democratic chairman. The Ballinger Country Club is completing plans for their annual July 4 program for all members and families of the club. This will include the annual golf tournament, a bridge tournament, barbecue dinner and numerous other entertainment features during the day.

Local Guard Men Will Return Home Sunday From Camp

Members of Company I, Ballinger's unit of the Texas National Guard, will return home Sunday after completing two weeks of basic combat training at North Fort Hood, Texas. The program has been in full swing for the past two weeks and many men have received the tough training, the first of the kind ever given a guard unit in peace time.

Col. Everett S. Simpson, commander of the 142 infantry regiment, stated that the most outstanding thing in regard to the 1958 training program was the spirit and enthusiasm in which the men go about their training. Comments from the soldiers is that they are learning more than at any previous camp. On the whole the men have been working longer hours but their morale has remained high.

Most of the men will return by chartered bus Sunday, however, a few will bring back the company equipment and will arrive about the same time. Members will not be released until all equipment has been unloaded and placed in the armory.

The work at camp has included a division review and the awarding of a number of medals by Gov. Price Daniel.

FIRE WEDNESDAY NOON DAMAGES LOCAL HOME

Ballinger firemen were called to the 900 block on Ninth Street Wednesday shortly after noon, where a fire damaged a house belonging to Sid Jones. A portion of it was occupied by Mrs. H. O. Andrews.

Much of the roof and ceiling was blazing when firemen arrived and considerable damage resulted to the house, fixtures and furnishings. A few items were taken from the house by neighbors before they were damaged by heat or smoke.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gray Jr. and children, Bobo, Teresa, Zane and Jane, were in Rosenberg the past week-end to attend the 50th wedding anniversary of Mrs. Gray's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Mikovsky. Rev. and Mrs. Mikovsky are former residents of Ballinger. Eight of the couple's nine children were present for the celebration. Lt. Arthur Mikovsky is in submarine service in the Middle East, and he was unable to be with his parents on this occasion.

Farmers Killing Hoppers In Area; Results Are Good

C. T. Parker, county farm agent, stated Tuesday that the response by farmers in a fight against hoppers has been excellent and that the conditions look much better this week.

Following a warning last week, many farmers made inspections on their places and found hoppers. They followed instructions in spraying and have reported that a good kill resulted in most cases. A large number are continuing the work this week and are using the spray treatment when large numbers of hoppers are discovered.

Mr. Parker urges that everyone make an inspection on their farms, along fence rows and in pastures. If hoppers are found, they can be handled at this time with ease before they start spreading and get into the growing crops.

The agent had been in a number of sections of the county and was delighted with the cooperation of the farmers and ranchmen in halting the spread of hoppers so quickly.

Tuesday he said the condition of Runnels County crops was excellent. He admitted that a good general rain would help the growing maize and cotton but added that the hot, dry days had helped the plants get a good root growth.

Golf Qualifying Rounds To Start At Club Sunday

The Ballinger Country Club is completing plans for their annual July 4 program for all members and families of the club. This will include the annual golf tournament, a bridge tournament, barbecue dinner and numerous other entertainment features during the day.

All golf rounds will be played on July 4, starting early that morning and the finals being played after noon. The first two rounds will be nine-hole matches and finals will be 18.

A flight for out of town visitors will be made up on the morning of July 4. All local members and visitors will pay an entrance fee of $1.50. This will be used to provide trophies and prizes.

The bridge tournament will start in the club house at 9 a. m. and be concluded before the noon hour. There will also be games of dominoes and practically anything else desired by guests not entering the golf or bridge play.

A large improvement program to the clubhouse and lake has been voted on by the directors but may not be completed by the annual party on July 4.

The Anderson operator, the Anderson & Graham No. 1-Michaelis was brought in on June 4 and gauged 264.96 barrels in the Palo Pinto and 336.72 in the Jennings.

G. W. Strake of Houston will drill the No. 2-J H. Mitchell, a location step-out to the five-well Mitchell (Fry) field, 4 1/2 miles southeast of Wingate. Contract depth is for 4,500 feet.

Midwest Oil Corp. will drill the No. 1-W B. Guy 1/4 mile north of production in the Sanford (Fry) field, but separated by dry holes. Location is 1 1/2 miles north-northeast of Wingate and contract depth is 4,700 feet.

Robinson-Puckett, Inc. and W. P. Luse of Abilene will drill the No. 2-C N. Kornegay, 1 1/2 miles southwest of Winters. Contract depth for the test is 4,900 feet. It is two miles east of the recently completed opener of the Winters, West (King sand) field which produces from 2,820 feet.

Dickinson Given Contract On Job By City Tuesday

The city commission was in session Tuesday morning to open bids on the proposed sewer improvements here. Only one bid was submitted and that by R. T. Dickinson for a price of $6,722. This was considerably less than the engineers estimate for the job and, on the engineers recommendation, the city gave the contract to Mr. Dickinson.

There will be a thirty day waiting period during which the State Health Department will make an inspection of the proposed work. This is necessary since the city has filed application for federal assistance on the project.

The work when completed will bring the local disposal plant up to meet state requirements. Since its construction complaints have been filed with the city each year until it has been demanded that the job be completed. When the present job is completed, the water from the plant will be absolutely pure and will not create any contamination in the Colorado River below the plant.

The State Health Department officials have been notified that a bid has been accepted and a contract awarded for the proposed work and the inspection requested.

RUBLES RETURN FROM BOSTON CONVENTION Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ruble returned home Thursday of last week after attending the Edison Electric Institute meeting in Boston, Massachusetts. They left Dallas by air on June 8 and returned home on June 12.

Dr. Wayne C. Reynolds, former Methodist pastor here and now located at Waco, was in Ballinger Wednesday visiting his many friends here. He is at Talpa this week holding a revival meeting for the Methodist and Presbyterian Churches.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Pearce is Pr. Donald L. Pearce who was discharged from the U. S. Marine Corps on May 3. He has been visiting in California with relatives for the past five weeks.

Mrs. Willie Campbell and children of Levelland are here for a visit in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Nance.

Melinda Malone of Pampa is here for a visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Malone.

The Runnels County ASC office is getting into their busy season and within the next two months will distribute a large sum of money in this county.

Crews are busy now taking samples and measuring small grain stored on the farm where farmers desire to place it in the government loan program. The crews inspect the type of storage and send samples to Lubbock. When the report is received on samples, grain that is in storage that meets requirements is subject to loans.

Reporters are also measuring wheat and cotton acreage in the soil bank program and movement of these checks will start the latter part of June and continue on into July. Employees of the local office stated that about $35,000 in payments were being processed now and checks would be placed in the mail within a short time.

Payments on wool and lambs will also be started in July. Last year the wool payments amounted to about $108,000 and lambs around $10,000. It is expected that this will be less for this year.

As soon as measurements of wheat and cotton acreage are completed, the payments will be processed and checks placed in the mail to farmers and ranchmen of the area.

There is a lot of grain stored on the farm but a large amount will be kept for feed and not placed in the loan. The employees of the local ASC office had no estimate of the amount of farm stored grain that would be handled through the loan program. Farm storage will meet requirements if it gives grain proper protection from weather and in case the samples meet requirements. Practically all grain harvested this year in the county will grade out as high quality.

An Ancient Profession

PHARMACY is one of the oldest of all the professions. It had its beginning more than four thousand years ago and has been practiced in one form or another ever since. The modern drug store bears little resemblance to the apothecary shop of old, but today's pharmacist is inspired by the same honorable principles that governed the conduct of his forebears. The pharmacist's interest, now as then, are the relief of suffering, the prolongation of life. Prescriptions are not written in pharisee, but he will never compound a prescription for profit, only for us.

PRO WRESTLING DEBUT—Olympic weight-lifting champion Paul Anderson, right, of Toccoa, Ga., huris his opponent, Ben Sharpe, across the ring in San Francisco. Anderson, weighing 340 pounds, made his pro wrestling debut by teaming up with San Francisco 49'er Leo Nomellini for a tag team match against Sharpe and his brother, Mike. Anderson and Nomellini won.

white candles completed the formal altar setting while white tapers burned in branched candelabra entwined with emerald foliage in the sanctuary. Mrs. Bob Bartlett, organist, played a program of selections appropriate to the nuptial hour as guests assembled in the church, and accompanied Miss Martha Gallant as she sang "Because, 'I Love You Truly' and 'The Lord's Prayer.'" Mr. Nix escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She was attired in a gown of Alencon lace over satin. The mounted bodice was fashioned with a wide sweetheart neckline and long fitted sleeves which came to petal points at the back of the hands. The waltz length skirt was bouffant and was designed with an apron overlay of lace which originated across the front and garlanded to a panel of nylon net ruffles which extended to the hemline at the back. Her hand rolled fingertip veil of silk illusion, appliqued with lace flower motifs, fell in tiers from a petal shaped cap of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible centered with white orchids nestled in nylon tulle showered with stephanotis and satin love knots. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom, and for the traditional something old, she carried a linen and lace handkerchief belonging to her friend, Mrs. F. C. Karling of Austin.

Remember his first great adventure?

With full heart and watchful eyes you helped him enjoy his very first taste of independence. And how proud you were when he achieved his goal, all by himself, and then, laughing, ran to your waiting arms to share his triumph with you! Nothing you can give your child is half so precious as this wonderful opportunity to be himself. All through life you want him to be free to choose his way. That's why it's so important to be on the watch for ideas or ideologies that could set limits to his independence. The idea, for instance, that government should own and run more and more businesses, services, institutions. Don't forget that when government runs more and more things, the individual has less and less freedom and independence! Think of your son's first "independence day" when you hear talk like that. Point out that in countries where government does control almost everything, the individual is controlled, also. And the loss of anybody's independence is a threat to everybody's freedom. Very much aware of this danger are the independent electric light and power companies, because government already runs part of the electric business. And powerful people are pressing to take over more.

Ballinger grain dealers and handlers have done a good job with the rush of the 1958 harvest. It has meant working around the clock for many but every effort has been put forth to serve the people and help them speed the cutting of small grain as fast as possible. Ballinger has been in a favorable position because of the large amount of storage provided by the Ballinger Co-op Gin and Elevator Co. This storage has made possible the handling of much of the oat crop locally and this firm, along with others, will continue to buy and ship as long as the movement of oats continues locally. The big problem may come later in case a good maize crop is made in this area. Practically all the storage has been used and a bumper crop would create a problem of handling locally because storage over the entire state has been filled with small grain. Farmers will also experience the same trouble, as practically all farm storage has been filled with small grain which will be kept and fed to livestock later. Such a rush is acidom experienced in Runnels County but the small grain crop this year has meant much to the economy of this entire area.

It costs a lot of money to try and make people do right and obey the laws of the land. The nation, state, county and city have law enforcement officers working around the clock. Court officials are busy all the time and yet crime continues with no let up, but perhaps a big increase in most sections. Trying to get something for nothing, causes many people to get into jams with the law that takes away their freedom. Those who do right must pay and pay to get protection for their businesses and possessions. Many people who feel they are law-abiding citizens do not hesitate to violate speed laws and other

WEST TEXAS NOTES

M. J. Green, mayor of Eden, placed the first long distance telephone call Wednesday when the exchange of the General Telephone Co. completed the change over to dial operation. The change over was made from 12 noon until 2 p. m. A number of company officials were on hand for the short program held with city officials and customers. A barbeque dinner was served at the exchange at the noon traffic rules. This takes an annual toll of lives and property that is staggering.

School administrators are getting their summer work started and during most of their vacation period will be traveling far and wide looking for teachers to complete faculties. At the end of each school year, a number of instructors quit the profession, others resign and move to better jobs and the constant increase of students makes it necessary to add new teachers to the staffs. Superintendents look for teachers with the right qualifications for the jobs they have open. This search goes on all during the summer and at the last minute they settle for what they can get and in some cases not what they want. Ballinger has been fortunate in that most of the faculty remains on the job year after year. A few new teachers have been secured for jobs that are open next year and others have already been secured as they are located. This does not mean that others will not resign later in the year. Often the larger schools, capable of paying more money, rob the smaller schools at the last minute in order to get their teaching forces ready for the September opening.

In case you have forgotten, summer does not start until June 21. Something must be off schedule for the temperature of last week, which reached 110 degrees, is pretty hot for any season of the year and fits in pretty well with the peak of summer.

hour for company officials and a few guests. About 500 telephones of the Eden exchange were affected by the change over and this included some 150 rural telephones.

Brady is getting ready for their annual July Jubilee which will be held July 3, 4, 5 and 6. Announcement was made last week that stables are filling up with some of the finest race horses in the south. Practically all stables have been reserved and about 50 horses were on hand for work on the Brady track. Those in charge stated this represented some of the finest horses in Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico. A full racing program will be arranged for the four days.

The Haskell Warehouse Co. of Brownwood announced last week that seven large warehouses in the Camp Bowie area have been leased to handle stored oats. They started receiving, storing and issuing warehouse receipts for oats last Thursday and reported that some oats were unloaded from as far away as Breckenridge. Two other warehouses have been leased and will be used for handling government commodity grain. Brownwood is one of the few towns in West Texas with oat storage still available.

The Bronte area in Coke County has about completed the harvesting of one of the biggest small grain crops in their history. Yields in the area on oats run from 50 to 65 bushels per acre and most of the crop was extremely heavy. One farmer stated he bought 400 bushels that averaged 41 pounds. Stockmen in that part of the county have stored as much as possible on their places and plan to use it for feed in the future. A small amount has been hauled to storage and will be placed in the government loan program.

week and work will start at once getting the plot ready for airplanes. A 3,500 foot landing strip was to be made ready along with another 1,000 foot strip and most of the work will be done by the county and equipment owned by the county. A bank account of $11,000 in an old airport bond issue is available and is expected to be sufficient for the purchase of the land and the grading and building of the two strips. The land to be acquired will make possible future expanding and the building of hangars.

The ASC office in Concho County has announced that they will start mailing wheat and cotton soil bank checks during June. There are approximately $303,000 such payments due the farmers of that county. Crop reporters are now making final checks on all farms and if everything is in order, checks will be made out and placed in the mails. The $303,000 will be added to the large payments being received for a bumper small grain crop just harvested in Concho County.

Coleman County had a new centenarian on Thursday of last week. W. Z. Harman became 100 years old on that date and is likely the oldest person in the county. He was born in Arkansas and moved to Coleman in 1906. His wife is now 93 and the couple live with a daughter, Mrs. Ruby Poole. No special celebration was held Thursday but a family reunion was staged Sunday at the Coleman city park. Mr. Harman is a retired farmer and has been active since his retirement, being up and around every day.

Calvin Campbell of Santa Anna lost a field of wheat last week by fire. The field contained 50 acres and after the flames were brought under control it was estimated that 40 acres had been destroyed. The field is located five miles east of Santa Anna in the Liberty community. Two combines had moved to the field to harvest the wheat and one had cut one round when the fire started.

The movement of small grain from Winters over the Abilene & Southern Railway was still in high last week-end with every possible boxcar being used. Daily shipments had been running about 12 to 15 cars and up to Thursday morning of last week 128 car loads had been shipped. J. C. Jarrell, station agent, said there had been no shortage in boxcars but that they were using all they could get. He estimated that about one-half of the 1958 crop had been handled at that date.
