Author of Brannon Plan Speaks to Farmers Union

More than 250 people attending the annual meeting of the Foard County Farmers Union, saw the present slate of officers re-elected for another year, and heard former Secretary of Agriculture Charles Brannon speak at a barbecue held at the Country Club last Saturday evening.

Mr. Brannon, now general counsel for Farmers Union and a resident of Denver, Colo., was introduced by Joe Berg of Amarillo, vice president of the Texas Farmers Union.

Warren Haynie, who has served as president of the local Farmers Union since its organization about a year ago, was master of ceremonies and introduced the guests who were from Cottle, Wilbarger, Hardeman and Crosby Counties.

In the election of officers, Mr. Haynie was elected as president for a second year, Grady Halbert as vice president, and Mrs. W. F. Statter, secretary-treasurer.

Delegates elected to the state convention are the officers plus Kenneth Halbert, Cecil Carroll, Buster Borchardt, James Sandlin and Mr. Statter. Alternates named were Mrs. Grady Halbert, Glenn Shook, T. S. Haney, Claude Callaway, Merl Kincaid, Henry Black, A. V. McCombs, J. M. Barker and J. F. Matthews Jr.

John Cogdell, chairman of the resolutions committee, read that committee's report which included the following: urged continuation of the wheat program, commended the administration for selling wheat abroad, urged federal support of the screwworm program, urged the government to curb meat imports; continuation of R. E. A. program, protection of co-operatives; more and better farm roads.

Mr. Brannon in his remarks said that it is the responsibility of the federal government to provide an opportunity for the farmer to secure a fair price for the things that he produces and offers in the market place.

Mr. Brannon began his work with the U. S. Department of Agriculture when he was appointed assistant Secretary of Agriculture by the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt. He served as Secretary of Agriculture under President Harry Truman from 1948 until 1952. He was author of the ill-fated Brannon Plan which was rejected by Congress. However, some of the features of that plan are now being used in the sugar and wool federal programs.

Mr. Brannon commended the local Farmers Union for its growth during the past year, and said that there was never a time when Texas more needed an effective farm organization.

Urging and predicting a smashing victory for President Johnson in November, Mr. Brannon said that this nation has enjoyed 43 consecutive months of prosperity under the Kennedy-Johnson administrations.

Stating that the concept that farmers can or should operate entirely without the stabilizing influence of government is unrealistic these days, he added, "Few businesses in this country do not at some time seek the assistance of their government in providing stability for their industry. Laboring people have the Wagner act to give them an opportunity to bargain . . . Steel companies, the auto industry have tariffs which prevent foreign products from overrunning their markets. For the same reason farmers need the assistance of the federal government in providing a fair opportunity in the market place."

New Fords on Display Friday at Harris Ford Sales

Friday is show day for the 1965 line of Ford cars at Harris Ford Sales in Crowell.

A new super luxury Galaxie 500 LTD joins the sporty 5000 XL's at the top of the Ford line. The new LTD 2-door and 4-door hardtops compare in luxury with the most expensive cars. The LTDs have paneled interiors, decorator fabrics, nylon carpeting. There's even a safety-convenience control panel that has a vacuum door lock switch, lights that flash when doors ajar or fuel's low, a seat belt reminder light.

Eight new Fairlane models are available and 13 new Falcons are being introduced this year.

A new Fastback "2 plus 2" has joined the Mustang hardtop and convertible. A new feature on the '65 Thunderbird is the sequential taillight turn signals. Three lights in each taillight flash in sequence towards the direction you turn.

Each of the cars in the Ford line is crammed with its own exciting innovations . . . like the new longer-life alternator, a new cooler running battery, new super-traction "low profile" tires, butyl window seals that eliminate the old black rubber molding and keep moisture out even under the heaviest downpours, and durable, no-wax finishes.

Matador Tops Wildcats 16-8

The Crowell Wildcats suffered their second defeat of the season Friday night as the mighty Matadors gained a 16-8 victory in a non-conference game at Matador.

Gary Campbell, the 212-pound Matador fullback, and his cousin, Richard Campbell, tallied eight points in the first quarter. This scoring combination was repeated in the second quarter with Gary carrying over from the 2 for six points and Richard scoring the extra two points.

The Crowell Wildcats retaliated in the second quarter when fullback Mike Payne climaxed a drive with a four-yard gain over right guard. Quarterback Dan Mike Bird ran the extra two points over.

In the second quarter, it was Richard Campbell who scored from the 12-yard line to break the tie, and Gary ran it over for the two extra points.

The Wildcat offense was led by Dan Mike Bird, who by his passing and running, kept the Wildcats a constant threat to the Matadors.

The game was highlighted by outstanding defensive performances by the Wildcats. Rick Traweck, Mike Payne, Dan Mike Bird and Otis Johnson starred in this area. Toye McCurley, Randy Smith, Ronnie Clifton, Steve Kraus, Gary Taylor, George Myers, Glenn Doyle Goodwin, Tommy Carpenter, Don Ray Borchardt and Steve Bell also played outstanding ball for the Wildcats.

Two Minutes With the Bible

Campaign Excitement

Well, the Republican and Democratic conventions are past and we're in the midst of the 1964 Presidential Campaign. It's bound to get more exciting all the time.

We hope our readers are interested in our government and in what policies it pursues, but there is something even more important than this—important to you and me personally.

God has put each man on the spot, as it were, by offering justification from sin and eternal life as a free gift, through Christ, who died for our sins. Rom. 6:23 clearly states: "The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Now the question is: Will you accept this gift, or will you reject it? You reply: "I won't do anything about it; I'll take my time and think it over." But you can't; you can't just do nothing about an offer of a free gift. If you do not accept it, you thereby reject it.

God purposely puts us on the spot in this matter, for the consequences are truly great. God's Word says, at John 3:35,36:

"The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into His hand.

"He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life; but he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

God does not take it lightly when He offers forgiveness and all the riches of His grace as a gift, and this gift is spurned. Unbelievers are not condemned only because they have sinned, but because they have spurned and rejected salvation through the Christ who died to save them. Thus it is written in John 3:18: "He that believeth on Him is not condemned, but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God." Which will you do, accept or reject Christ, the Gift of God?

Prize Hunt Seen Ahead for Texans

Charles Lanham of Vernon spent Saturday night with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Matthews.

Mr. and Mrs. John Matus and family and Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Matus and family visited their son and brother, Robert Matus, and family of Vernon Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Kajs and family visited Mrs. George Petrus of Vernon Sunday.

Mrs. L. H. Hammonds, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hammonds and Mr. and Mrs. Merle Moore have been visiting Mrs. Keith Maxwell and infant son in the Crowell hospital.

Mrs. Leon Taylor of Quanah visited her mother and sister, Mrs. T. L. Ward, and Mrs. Sam Kuehn Saturday.

The annual pre-harvest survey by the Parks and Wildlife Department indicates Texas will have one of the most bountiful fall hunts in modern times, according to J. Weldon Watson, executive director.

Wildlife biologists and game wardens who made the field studies report that big game numbers are particularly abundant.

The small game season, just launched with opening of the north zone mourning dove shoot, likewise carries great promise, said Watson.

Only the antelope and pheasant outlook is temporarily off, he noted. Inland waterfowl habitat also suffered during the extremely dry spring and summer but recent rains have restored some areas that ordinarily accommodate ducks during the migration to Texas wintering grounds, where conditions were described as fair to very good.

Of the overall hunting prospects, ten field men said they were "excellent," 61 said they were "very good," 87 said "good," 63 said "fair" and only five of the 226 reporting noted that the outlook was "poor."

Watson said the deer prospects "seldom have been better. We may even have to go up on our estimates of a combined deer herd of 2,250,000 head," he said. "Certainly the 1963 harvest total of 225,000 deer is likely to be adjusted upward this fall."

All indications are that the deer will be "fat and lively" in most sections, said Watson, although he observed that late summer rains did miss some heavily populated areas.

In the survey, 95 per cent of the deer range was reported as having more or the same number of animals as last year. Ninety-seven of the 211 field men reporting reported more white-tailed deer and 103 reported the same numbers as last year, which provided highly successful hunting. Only 11 observers reported fewer white-tails.

For mule deer, 30 field men participated in the estimate, with 14 reporting a higher number, 14 reporting the same as last year and two showing a lower population, for a comparative percentage of 93 per cent.

In the upland game bracket, 95 field men showed numbers higher than last year and 99 indicated the numbers were the same. Thirty stated the population was lower.

Erroneous Folk Beliefs About Plants Need to Be Corrected

Erroneous folk beliefs about plants need to be corrected to prevent accidental poisonings, according to an article by Shirley Baughman O'Leary which appears in an American Medical Association publication. She warns that there are no safe tests for poisonous plants; that what birds and animals may safely eat is not necessarily harmless to man; that heating and cooking do not always destroy the poison—it depends on the poison and some of the most deadly are unaffected, and there is probably no locality that has no poisonous plants.

EDITORIAL

Wildcats Have School Spirit

That I see you do speaks so that I can't hear what you say is a cliché which could be applied to almost anything. A coach can apply it to his student, a president, to his club members, but I want to apply it to you—Crowell students and people. In the last few years enthusiasm and spirit for our school team and other school activities has been on the down-slope. Our interests towards school functions have seemed to stand still, but now the picture is improving. The student body as a whole seems to be more united, and the crowd seems to sense the same things. The crowd which gathered for the first All-School Variety Show was a perfect example of another was the enthusiasm shown by the CHS students last night in our pep rally before the football game. I, for one, could not help but feel the togetherness which exists between students and students, teachers and students. Of course, there are those who experience this enthusiasm; people often say, "It doesn't make any difference whether or not you yell every time a touchdown is scored," but it does, if you are a well student or an adult who wants to support our boys. Six hundred people; it takes everyone's cooperation to make this pep rally lasting. Let me challenge you to participate in our school functions and to anticipate greater school spirit throughout this year; a very good beginning would be to attend the game this Friday night. Let's show the Quannah people what real spirit is!

Cafeteria Offers "Surprise Table"

A new feature has been added to the cafeteria service—it has been named the "surprise table." There are always some students who "could eat just a little bit more." Maybe these students are just "hard to fill up," or maybe they "don't like all the food served on the menu." No matter the reason, they should not have to leave the cafeteria hungry. The cafeteria personnel said, "On this 'surprise table' are various foods which you may have for the 'getting' at no additional cost. We hope you may enjoy this little extra service. We also wish to thank each of you for being so well-behaved in the cafeteria and for being so patient these first few weeks while we have been trying to get the schedule worked out so that you will not have to wait very long in line. Each week, beginning with this issue, the menu for the following week will be published."

Wildcats Bow to Matadors 16-8

Last Friday night at Matador, the Crowell Wildcats lost a hard fought battle with the Matadors. The final score was 16-8. The two Campbell cousins were largely responsible for Matador's victory. Gary Campbell made the first touchdown of the game in the first quarter with his cousin, Richard Campbell, making the two extra points. Crowell retaliated when Mike Payne came through with a touchdown also in the first quarter. Then Dan Mike Bird ran Crowell's extra points to tie the score. In the second quarter, the "cousins" reversed the tactics; Richard made the touchdown; Gary the two extra points. The Wildcats and Matadors kept fighting during the second half, but neither was able to make another touchdown. The Crowell stadium should be overflowing Friday night when the Crowell Wildcats tangle with their old rival, the Quannah Indians, in the first home game of the season. The Wildcats will be fighting hard to tie a record with the Indians. During the past seven years, the Indians have won four games, the Wildcats three. They will be needing real support from all the Wildcat fans.

Introducing CHS's Music Directors

Last week, the Wildcat gave recognition to the new teachers in the school, but now it wants to bring you up to date on the two, Terry Garrett and Darrel Dick, who have not previously lived in this community. "Prying into Mr. Garrett's background," reports Gayle Smith, "was not easy, and even he may be surprised at some of the things I learned!" He told me that his home town is Kingsville, but when I asked him about his high school days, his comment was "not printable!" He attended college at Texas A&I, and after graduation he served in the Army. There he found time for his "first love," band, serving sometimes as its director. He also has a "knack" for playing in dance bands. He is a member of the American Federation of Musicians. His "second love" is bowling, and (I hear) he is almost a professional in this sport. His "new love" was acquired last week when he was honored to be chosen sponsor of the Senior Class (He perhaps does not yet know just what all that job involves, but the seniors are counting on him.) Mr. Dick comes from Wichita Falls, and during his attendance at Midwestern he was quite a busy man. He was a member of the French Club, Business Club, Music Club, BSU, ROTC, Officers Club, and University Theatre. Someday people will be privileged to listen to some opera music he is writing for publication. In moments of relaxation, he is busy writing his family tree or practicing photography. If I had asked him to name his proudest possessions he, no doubt, would have said, "My wife, Andrea, and our daughter, Lori."

CHS is indeed fortunate to have such talented young men as directors of music, and the community will also profit from their being located here.

Organizations Sponsor Summer Travelers

Recognition should be extended to various CHS students who made trips, sponsored by some organization, to different places over the United States this summer. Attending the National Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge, Pa., were Steve Bell, Ken Ferguson, Larry Hughston, Steven Kralicke, Bob Shirley and Paul Stapp. Representatives of the Foard County Farmers Union who attended the Texas Farmers Union Camp in Bailey, Colo., were Don Ray Borchardt, Hollis Halbert, Joylyn Haynie, Stanley Shook and Don Bill Statser. The students who went to a joint district 4-H leadership camp at Leuders as representatives were Bob Bird, Joe Ray Burkett, Junior Mechell, Jean Burkett, Suzetta Abston, Charlotte Drabek and Betty Ann Welch. Jean Burkett was a delegate to the state 4-H Council that was held for one week in Houston. Jon Ann Carter represented District III at the state 4-H contest at College Station in the vegetable-fruit group and Suzetta Abston was representative in a clothing demonstration. Patricia Jackson represented

Foard County in the Texas Bureau Citizenship Seminar at Sam Houston State Teachers College in Huntsville. Paul Campbell and Jimmy Gillespie were delegates to the state FFA convention in San Antonio. Jill Cooper, representing Larry Henry, entered the queen contest at the Greenbelt Bowl game at Childress. Gayle Smith, a winner in an essay contest sponsored by the Southwest Rural Electric Association, was awarded a free trip to Washington, D. C. Betty Ann Welch, one of 170 delegates from Texas, attended the national FHA convention in Chicago, Ill. For the fourth year, Joe Ray Burkett spent four weeks at Big Baseball Camp in Dallas. CHIROPRACTORS EXPLAIN "MISERY AND MYSTERY OF BACKACHE"

Backache can be very painful . . . What's more it can lead to serious disorders not immediately associated with the pain itself.

Pain is nature's way of warning that something is wrong. Frequently pain in any part of the back is caused by misaligned vertebrae somewhere in the spinal column which places pressure on nerves. Permanent relief is not possible in this type of case until the vertebrae is restored to normal position.

Most people don't realize that a simple case of backache often leads to more serious troubles later. Subluxations (misalignments of vertebrae) set up interference to flow of energy thru the nervous system. Thus vital organs of the body do not receive normal nerve energy supply, and fail to perform their body function properly. The particular organ affected depends upon which nerves in the central nervous system are involved.

Your chiropractor is able to locate the exact point of interference in the spinal column, and to adjust the vertebrae or vertebrae which are at fault.

Two Minutes With the Bible

Campaign Excitement

Well, the Republican and Democratic conventions are past and we're in the midst of the 1964 Presidential Campaign. It's bound to get more exciting all the time.

We hope our readers are interested in our government and in what policies it pursues, but there is something even more important than this—important to you and me personally.

God has put each man on the spot, as it were, by offering justification from sin and eternal life as a free gift, through Christ, who died for our sins. Rom. 6:23 clearly states: "The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Now the question is: Will you accept this gift, or will you reject it? You reply: "I won't do anything about it; I'll take my time and think it over." But you can't; you can't just do nothing about an offer of a free gift. If you do not accept it, you thereby reject it.

God purposely puts us on the spot in this matter, for the consequences are truly great. God's Word says, at John 3:35,36:

"The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into His hand."

"He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life; but he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him."

God does not take it lightly when He offers forgiveness and all the riches of His grace as a gift, and this gift is spurned. Unbelievers are not condemned only because they have sinned, but because they have spurned and rejected salvation through the Christ who died to save them. Thus it is written in John 3:18: "He that believeth on Him is not condemned, but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

Which will you do, accept or reject Christ, the Gift of God?

Prize Hunt Seen Ahead for Texans

The annual pre-harvest survey by the Parks and Wildlife Department indicates Texas will have one of the most bountiful fall hunts in modern times, according to J. Weldon Watson, executive director.

Wildlife biologists and game wardens who made the field studies report that big game numbers are particularly abundant.

The small game season, just launched with opening of the north zone mourning dove shoot, likewise carries great promise, said Watson.

Only the antelope and pheasant outlook is temporarily off, he noted. Inland waterfowl habitat also suffered during the extremely dry spring and summer but recent rains have restored some areas that ordinarily accommodate ducks during the migration to Texas wintering grounds, where conditions were described as fair to very good.

Of the overall hunting prospects, ten field men said they were "excellent," 61 said they were "very good," 87 said "good," 63 said "fair" and only five of the 226 reporting noted that the outlook was "poor."

Watson said the deer prospects "seldom have been better. We may even have to go up on our estimates of a combined deer herd of 2,250,000 head," he said. "Certainly the 1963 harvest total of 225,000 deer is likely to be adjusted upward this fall."

All indications are that the deer will be "fat and lively" in most sections, said Watson, although he observed that late summer rains did miss some heavily populated areas.

In the survey, 95 per cent of the deer range was reported as having more or the same number of animals as last year. Ninety-seven of the 211 field men reporting reported more white-tailed deer and 103 reported the same numbers as last year, which provided highly successful hunting. Only 11 observers reported fewer white-tails.

For mule deer, 30 field men participated in the estimate, with 14 reporting a higher number, 14 reporting the same as last year and two showing a lower population, for a comparative percentage of 93 per cent.

In the upland game bracket, 95 field men showed numbers higher than last year and 99 indicated the numbers were the same. Thirty stated the population was lower.

Erroneous Folk Beliefs About Plants Need to Be Corrected

Erroneous folk beliefs about plants need to be corrected to prevent accidental poisonings, according to an article by Shirley Baughman O'Leary which appears in an American Medical Association publication. She warns that there are no safe tests for poisonous plants; that what birds and animals may safely eat is not necessarily harmless to man; that heating and cooking do not always destroy the poison—it depends on the poison and some of the most deadly are unaffected, and there is probably no locality that has no poisonous plants.

EDITORIAL

Students Have School Spirit

What I see you do speaks so loud that I can't hear what you say. This is a cliché which could be applied to almost anything. A student can apply it to his studies; a coach, to the boys on the team; a president, to his club members; but I want to apply it to you—Crowell students and teachers. In the last few years enthusiasm and spirit for our school team and other school activities has been on the down-swing. Our interests towards school functions have seemed to stand still, but now the picture is improving. The student body as a whole seems to be more united, and they seem to sense the same things. The crowd which gathered for the first All-School Variety Show was a perfect example of another was the enthusiasm shown by the CHS students last night in our pep rally before the football game. I, for one, could not help but notice the togetherness which exists between students and students, teachers and students. Of course, there are those who experience this enthusiasm; people often say, "It doesn't make any difference whether or not I yell every time a touchdown is made," but it does, if you are a well student or an adult who wants to support our boys. Six hundred people; it takes everyone's cooperation to make this spirit lasting. Let me challenge you to participate in our school functions and to anticipate greater school spirit throughout this year; a very good beginning would be to attend the game this Friday night. Let's show the Quannah people what real spirit is!

Cafeteria Offers "Surprise Table"

A new feature has been added to the cafeteria service—it has been named the "surprise table." There are always some students who "could eat just a little bit more." Maybe these students are just "hard to fill up," or maybe they "don't like all the food served on the menu." No matter the reason, they should not have to leave the cafeteria hungry. The cafeteria personnel said, "On this 'surprise table' are various foods which you may have for the 'getting' at no additional cost. We hope you may enjoy this little extra service. We also wish to thank each of you for being so well-behaved in the cafeteria and for being so patient these first few weeks while we have been trying to get the schedule worked out so that you will not have to wait very long in line. Each week, beginning with this issue, the menu for the following week will be published."

Wildcats Bow to Matadors 16-8

Last Friday night at Matador, the Crowell Wildcats lost a hard fought battle with the Matadors. The final score was 16-8. The two Campbell cousins were largely responsible for Matador's victory. Gary Campbell made the first touchdown of the game in the first quarter with his cousin, Richard Campbell, making the two extra points. Crowell retaliated when Mike Payne came through with a touchdown also in the first quarter. Then Dan Mike Bird ran Crowell's extra points to tie the score. In the second quarter, the "cousins" reversed the tactics. Richard made the touchdown; Gary the two extra points. The Wildcats and Matadors kept fighting during the second half, but neither was able to make another touchdown. The Crowell stadium should be overflowing Friday night when the Crowell Wildcats tangle with their old rival, the Quannah Indians, in the first home game of the season. The Wildcats will be fighting hard to tie a record with the Indians. During the past seven years, the Indians have won four games, the Wildcats three. They will be needing real support from all the Wildcat fans.

Introducing CHS's Music Directors

Last week, the Wildcat gave recognition to the new teachers in the school, but now it wants to bring you up to date on the two, Terry Garrett and Darrel Dick, who have not previously lived in this community. "Prying into Mr. Garrett's background," reports Gayle Smith, "was not easy, and even he may be surprised at some of the things I learned!" him to name his proudest possessions he, no doubt, would have said, "My wife, Andrea, and our daughter, Lori." CHS is indeed fortunate to have such talented young men as directors of music, and the community will also profit from their being located here.

Juniors Enter National Survey

On Tuesday, Sept. 8, each junior filled out an information slip including the student's choice of college, a list of activities in which he is particularly interested, his religious affiliation, etc.

This survey, sponsored and paid for by the Beta Club, located at Spartanburg, S. C., will be made available to state departments of education, governmental agencies, and educational institutions which are constantly on the "look out" for students with particular interests.

This is indeed a valuable service to the student for it gets his name on the mailing lists of the colleges and agencies in which he is interested.

Seniors Ask Your Support

"Popcorn! Corny dogs! Cold drinks! Step right this way, please!" This will be the shout coming from the seniors and their class parents working at the CHS senior stand at the ball game next Friday night.

Much hard work has been done in setting the stand up for business. Last Saturday, 12 seniors painted the outside of the stand and then put some extra gravel on the floor inside. The seniors wish to thank Cicero Smith Lumber Co. for donating the paint and the Highway Department for donating the gravel.

Sandwiches, coffee, cold drinks, candy, and many other "goodies" will be served at all grade school and high school home ball games.

The seniors solicit your support!

F. F. A.
 The Crowell Chapter of Future Farmers of America met Friday, Sept. 18, at 11:30 a. m. and elected the following officers: president, Jimmy Gillespie; vice president, Paul Campbell; secretary, Randy Smith; treasurer, Doyle Goodwin; reporter, Larry Wright; sentinel, Mike Payne. It was decided that the "greenhands" will be initiated Tuesday, Sept. 22, at 7:30 p. m.

Band Report
 Last Friday night the marching Wildcat Band and Wildcettes presented a show entitled "Precision Drills." After the introduction of the majorettes and the drill team and the playing of the fanfare, the band marched downfield to "Bells Across the Gridiron." On the 40-yard line, the band formed six-man, revolving pin wheel. Then they presented a "step-4" movement. To the beat of "King-Size," the pin-wheel drills were then repeated. The band then marched off the field in a one-man company front.

Chorus
 During the activity period on Wednesday, Sept. 16, the high school chorus elected the following club officers for the 1964-65 school year: president, Mike Gamble; vice president, Jackie Eddy; secretary, Scherry Goodwin; treasurer, Lanette Lemons; reporter, Sherry Sandlin.

The Club also elected section leaders: bass, Freddie Wehba; tenor, Rick Traweek; alto, Mary Ann Ramsey; soprano, Betty Ann Welch. The choir also elected six boys to be on the riser committee: Ronnie Denton, David Denton, Bill Harris, Seth Halbert, Larry Wright and Tommy Franklin. The executive committee, consisting of all the officers, met Thursday afternoon and drew up a constitution for the club.

Mrs. James Welch, sponsor, distributed yearbook manuals to each editor; she also instructed staff members to continue the sale of advertisements. It is hard to see every business firm and each individual who may wish to have an ad in the yearbook. If no one has contacted you about placing an ad, feel free to call Mike Gamble, Mike Manard or Freddie Wehba, members of the advertising staff, or any person on the staff, and some one will see you immediately.

Wednesday, Sept. 23, a representative of the News Photo Publishing Co. of San Angelo met with the staff to lay plans for the year's publication. Each member was inspired to work hard in order that the 1964-65 yearbook will be the best CHS has ever had.

Library
 Mrs. E. C. King, CHS librarian, and Mr. King were in Haskell Saturday for a four-hour workshop for District VII, Texas State Teachers Association. A total of 169 school teachers and administrators and 70 members of future teachers of America chapters from more than 30 towns attended.

Robert R. King, president of the Oilbert Teachers, superintendent of Vernon schools and former superintendent in Haskell, was in charge of the meeting. Dr. W. R. Carmichael, faculty member of Sam Houston State College in Huntsville and vice president of TSTA, was the keynote speaker.

Dr. Carmichael indicated the teaching profession today in Texas is presenting a "negative attitude to the people" when it declares, "Give us more money, and we will give you more teachers." Rather, he said, the stand of the teachers should read, "Give us more money, and we will give you better teachers."

Sophomore Hay Ride

All the noise you might have heard late Saturday afternoon was coming from thirty sophomores, gathered at the school, to begin an hilarious hay ride to Pease River. The farther they rode, the hungrier they got, and before they had reached their destination, they begged Mr. Welch, their sponsor who was driving the pickup pulling the trailer, to stop so that they could get to the food!

The parents who accompanied them were Mr. and Mrs. Newell Looney, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde James, Mrs. Jack Spikes, Mrs. Fred Borchart and Mrs. Cecil Carpenter. No doubt the sophomores will be wanting to eat again before long!

This Is CHS

Did you know:
 The tallest boy in CHS is Ken Ferguson; the tallest girl, Evelyn Fiske; the shortest boy is Junior Vegera; the shortest girl, Mary Frances Adams; the youngest boy in the senior class is Otis Smith; the youngest girl, Mary Sue Speer; the oldest boy in the senior class is Billy Sokora; the oldest girl, Elaine Crowell; the youngest teacher is Mary Garrett; the oldest teacher (we don't dare!)

There are three generations of teachers in CHS. Mr. Black, Mrs. King and Mrs. Manard taught Mr. Welch (poor guy), and Mr. Welch taught Mrs. Wall.

There are only 97 more shopping days until Christmas.

The following incidents happened on Wednesday of last week: Mrs. Wall talked with her students about the "pickens and the chigs;" Mrs. Welch really insisted that the girls in cooking class bring their sewing boxes the next day; Mrs. Bursley, explaining the pronunciation of "often" put the word on the board, marked through the "t" and said, "this 't' is always silent; Mrs. Manard asked her pupils to bring their "poetry outline" so that they could begin the study of pronouns. We've tried to account for all these things having happened; all we've come up with is that the teachers were acting like Bill Harris looked the night before in "The Golden Wedding" skit after he had been kicked by a mule.

The proceeds from the CHS Variety Show sponsored by the Drama Club last week came to $201.29. The total expense was $1.95. How is that? The drama club again wishes to say "thanks to you who were in the program, and also to those who attended the performance." They promise to use the money wisely, and because of the interest shown by the large attendance, they will have another program for you before too long.

Mrs. Manard is offering for sale two well-worn, slightly torn half-sheets that she no longer needs to hang over the blackboard on exam day. No, it wasn't Santa Claus who came to her relief, but it was Ray Quintero, the custodian, who put up some shades that could be rolled down.

Helpful Hints for Home Shoppers

Attention to the food market situation may provide helpful hints for many shoppers, reports Mrs. Gwen Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist.

Wholesale beef costs are a bit higher but this has had little influence on general retail meat pricing. Beef steaks and roasts and pork spareribs, cured hams and picnics continue as featured items, she says.

Franks, summer sausage and other cold cuts which received promotional emphasis for August Sandwich Month remain good buys. The vacuum pack in which many of these come will extend the shelf life of the meat for several weeks provided they remain unopened and cold. Once the vacuum packs have been opened, however, quick use is advisable.

Fryers and eggs continue to rate high on the list of attractive summer offerings. Turkey parts are becoming increasingly popular but a whole turkey has points in its favor. A large turkey is generally lower per pound and, once cooked, it will provide a tasty main dish and leave ample leftover meat for sandwiches, salads or cold plates, says the specialist.

families in Munday Sunday.

The HD club will meet Sept. 24 at the Truscott community center. The three ladies who attended the HD Association convention in Houston will give reports.

School Dropouts Can Be Reduced

Reducing the number of school dropouts is a big job, yet it can be accomplished by adequate placement of guidance, training and Extension Service specialists in family life education.

Great Britain has only one percent of the unemployment rate for 19-year-olds as the United States has. And in this nation, six million educated workers who are qualified for new fields of work are in demand, the specialist says.

Planners for rural youth consider that occupations change as new jobs develop and old disappear. These resulting occupations are more complex.

Three ways which might change the levels achieved by young people, Miss Reynolds says are:

1. Improve schools, particularly the guidance services, to help reduce the effects of geographic isolation.
2. Work to motivate able youth who hold low occupational and educational goals.
3. Help rural youth and their parents face the facts of farm and industrial opportunity.

The Industrial Foundation - Tool for Community Development

In little more than ten years Industrial Foundations have been established in 182 Texas communities. These are communities — both large and very small — which have recognized the vital need for a community financing group in securing new industry.

Called by various names, the Industrial Foundation is a community-wide organization with the prime objective of creating payrolls. Its functions vary from community to community, but basically its purpose is to provide development funds for the land, brick and mortar required for new industry.

It is one of the best ways to show favorable community attitude towards new industry or to help finance the expansion of an existing local industry. By having community money invested in an industry the community becomes more interested in seeing that the industry profits and grows.

The Community Industrial Development Foundation is another PATTERN FOR PROGRESS.

WTU's area development representatives have information about the creation of industrial foundations. These facts are available to growth-conscious communities on request through your WTU local manager.

Senator Humphrey Spoke at Wichita Falls Press Conference

Bill Klepper of the News attended a press conference by Vice-Presidential Candidate Hubert Humphrey in Wichita Falls last Thursday morning.

The Democratic Veep nominee answered a number of questions presented by the newsmen.

The first question asked the Senator was from a reporter on the Baltimore Sun who asked Mr. Humphrey to comment on the defection of Senator Strom Thurmond from the Democratic to the Republican party. He replied that Thurmond's voting record in the Senate more nearly paralleled that of Senator Goldwater than that of the Democratic party. He went on to say that there are now two Republican parties: the regular and the Goldwater.

In reply to another question, the candidate said that in spite of his strong stand on Civil Rights, he felt perfectly at ease coming to Texas. He said Texans had proved to be friendly, hospitable and courteous to him.

Replying to a question concerning the nation's farm programs, Mr. Humphrey stated that agriculture is so important to the country that farm payments should not be charged to farmers any more than national defense spending should be charged to retired generals.

Mr. Humphrey said that he did not think any changes should be made in the Civil Rights law at the present time. He said the nation must first be given time to adjust to the present law.

Accompanying Mr. Humphrey at the press conference were Senator Ralph Yarborough and Congressman Graham Parcell.

Among the noted newsmen attending were Piers Andron of ABC News, Ned Calmer of NBC, Dawson Duncan of The Dallas News, Martin Agronsky and Ray Shearer of NBC News. Representatives were also on hand from the Washington Post, Baltimore Sun and Time Magazine.

Others from Crowell who attended the Humphrey visit to Wichita Falls were James Sandlin, Warren Haynie and Kenneth Halbert.

Five Accidents in County in August Reported by Patrol

The Highway Patrol investigated five rural traffic accidents in Foard County during the month of August, according to Sgt. D. E. Dowdy, Highway Patrol Supervisor of this area.

These wrecks accounted for four persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $1,977.00.

The rural traffic accident summary for Foard County from January through August shows a total of 23 crashes resulting in one person killed, 13 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $12,632.00.

The statistics compiled as a result of these accidents and their consequences are very alarming. However, they are increasing and more people are being killed or injured each year as a result of someone's inadequate driving procedures. In addition, crimes of all kinds including murder, rape, armed robbery and burglaries are increasing at an alarming rate nationally as well as in our own state of Texas.

In order to try and save some of the lives lost each year and help combat the increasing crime rate, the Patrol Sergeant requests everyone to examine eligible young men to inquire about a position with the DPS as a law enforcement officer.

According to the sergeant, there are over one hundred vacancies in the patrol services of the department and a training school is scheduled to start in November. Men between the ages of 21-35 years who have a high school education and desire more information about a career in law enforcement are invited to contact any member of the DPS for the additional requirements as well as job benefits and an application form.

The sergeant stated that the examinations will be given the second Saturday in October, throughout the state, for the November training school.

Litterbugs Are Tax Liability

Litter thrown on streets and highways by pedestrian and motorists is more than paper, trash, cans and bottles. It is taxpayers' money, says Reagan Brown, sociologist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Where does the taxpayer come in? He has to foot the bill for the clean-up job, explains Brown. In addition, when trash is allowed to collect along streets and highways, gutters and sewers may be clogged and during heavy rains flooding may occur. The damage resulting from the overflow often means further expense to the city, county and state governments and it can also be expensive to property owners, says Brown.

Texas is being judged every day in competition with other states for industrial location sites and the record can be improved, says the specialist. In some states, the state government is being asked to pass laws to prevent the marketing of any product in disposable containers or cartons and to increase the fines for "litterbugs."

Brown believes Texans can correct the situation without legislation. It will take teamwork, he says, and a real desire on the part of all citizens to make their state the cleanest and most beautiful in the nation.

A litterbug in every car, pickup and truck is suggested as a starting point. And finally, says Brown, it may take some crusading by neighborhood leaders and others to make the public more conscious of the fact that it is their money they are wasting when they scatter litter everywhere they go.

Nutrition Nonsense

The older population of the United States has become the target of many health swindles. And one of the most expensive is the promotion of unusual foods and "food supplements" as cure-alls for disease and to guarantee good health. It has been estimated by the Food and Drug Administration that 10 million Americans waste half a billion dollars a year on this form of attempted self-medication.

If you're tempted to spend your money on such products it would be wise to remember this—according to leading nutritionists there is no substitute for a well-balanced diet as a basis for good health. Pills cannot take the place of food.

It's true that at certain age levels and under certain conditions, infants, youngsters, and some adults may need extra vitamins and minerals. But the only safe, sure, economical way to know whether you need them, and what to take, is to see your doctor. If you do need them, most vitamins can be bought at reasonable prices without a prescription.

Of course, there are many recognized dietary foods for people suffering from certain diseases. These include low sodium and salt-free foods for heart conditions and high blood pressure; and special foods for diabetics and for people with allergies. These legitimate products should not be confused with the many products promoted as dietary cure-alls and usually touted as "health foods."

As a matter of fact, the very term "health foods" is misleading. It implies that the products have special health-giving properties—when all they really contain are the very same nutrients that can be found in regular food products—which are much less expensive. For example:

1. Yogurt may be recommended for certain intestinal conditions but nutritionally it is the same as milk, which costs much less.
  2. The "minerals" in blackstrap molasses are mainly impurities that get in during the sugar refining process, and have no health importance.
  3. Kelp tablets or sea salt are unnecessary. The iodine in them is adequately supplied by sea foods and iodized salt.
  4. Wheat germ is a useful cereal food, but it does not perform any nutritional miracles.
- As for older people, their nutritional needs are much like those of any other age group. With few exceptions, they do not have any special requirements for vitamins, minerals, proteins, etc., that cannot be supplied by inexpensive, everyday foods. These include vegetables, fruits, milk, eggs, meats, fish, and enriched bread and cereals.

Guardsman Urges Priority Units

Major General James Cantwell as president of the National Guard Association feels that high priority guard units should be distributed more widely.

"Presently the six National Guard divisions are located in the eastern United States," he told the American Legion's national security commission Friday in Dallas.

"In mid-August, I recommended to the secretary of defense a plan assigning to each state a reasonable share of the immediate reserve element of the National Guard," he said.

He said a broader dispersion would strengthen ability to cope with national disasters or civil disturbances, lessen possible losses from thermonuclear attack and aid in civil defense planning.

Gen. Cantwell from Trenton, N. J., is the son-in-law of Mrs. J. H. Minnick of Crowell. Mrs. Cantwell is the former Blanche Minnick. Gen. Cantwell is secretary of defense for the state of New Jersey.

Should Have Had the Beatles

"Following is a tale of woe which should be of interest to all you American taxpayers: The U. S. Government has seen fit to spend a half million dollars sending a raft of modern ballet-type dancers on an extended tour of Southeast Asia . . . Throughout the tour, $5,000 came and saw, which, taken at a tour cost of $541,000, average about $6.30 a head or $12.60 per couple cover charge, for our Asian brothers—which you and I footed. For those prices we should have had the Beatles!"—Lovington, N. M., Leader.

Shows Weaknesses and Miserable Failures of Communism

"Czechoslovakia provides an up-to-date illustration showing the inherent weaknesses and miserable failures of Communism as a political and economic system. At the end of World War II, Czechoslovakia was a highly industrialized society. Its factories were less damaged than other European countries. . . . Over the past 10 years the Czech government has consistently invested from 30 to 35 per cent of the national budget in the economy. Billions have been spent on new plans. But maintenance costs increased geometrically with plant expansion. Quality of workmanship has fallen so low that last year $200 million worth of Czech products were rejected because of shoddy work. A rigid central planning system continues to turn out vast amounts nobody wants to buy."—Riverton, Wyo., Ranger.

Urges that Narcotic Addicts Be Treated as Sick Persons

The Advisory Council of Judges of the National Council on Crime and Delinquency urges that narcotic addicts be treated as sick persons instead of as criminals. The Council said that the weight of medical experience in Great Britain in treatment of drug addiction "supports the view that the British program has been successful in avoiding a rise in addiction . . ."

RUFFLED WINDOW FRAME—Cut cotton bag fabric 7" wide and 2 1/2 times the height and width of the window. Stitch narrow hem all around strip, trim with rick rack or bias tape. Machine stitch four or five times through center of strip, using elastic thread (rows 3/8" apart). Attach finished ruffle to hooks at four corners of the window. Very decorative for children's rooms or kitchen.

Bighorn Sheep Boom in Black Gap

Another apparently successful restoration project by the Parks and Wildlife Department is reported by Tommy Hailey, staff biologist.

He said the original bighorn sheep brood stock, which included three rams and six ewes wild trapped in Arizona in 1958, has grown to 22 head. "Reproduction," he added, "has been beyond our expectation."

The experimental herd is contained in a 427-acre holding pasture, at the 2,800 foot level, on the Black Gap Wildlife Management Area in the Big Bend country.

Bighorn sheep originally were fairly numerous in far west Texas but they were virtually exterminated many years ago.

E. A. Walker, assistant director for wildlife, said the effort to restore the trophy herd is in keeping with the Department's policy to provide a varied animal kingdom populace.

Biologist Hailey reports the Black Gap bighorns are doing so well that within another three or four years surplus sheep are expected to be trapped from the enclosure and released to the surrounding area.

The sprawling Black Gap Management Area, lying in Brewster County and comprising 100,000 acres, was established by the Department about fifteen years ago, and already has been the scene of successful fall deer hunts to harvest surplus mule deer and javelina.

YOUNG TEXAN FOR AUGUST—Kirk Houston Cameron, 1964 graduate of Robert E. Lee High School in San Antonio, has been selected by Texas Optimist Clubs to receive the Young Texan of the Month. Kirk, 18, was president of the 1900-member student body, a National Honor Society student and a star football lineman. He plans to attend Texas Western in the fall. Kirk will also compete with the 11 other monthly Young Texan winners for one of three valuable scholarships to be awarded at a statewide banquet in early 1965. He was chosen Young Texan of the Month in competition with nominees throughout the state by a panel of state leaders headed by U. S. Supreme Court Justice Tom C. Clark.

They Didn't Want to Get Involved

"They didn't want to get involved in the sordid business, so none of the forty turned a hand to help the Bronx telephone operator who was being attacked in the vestibule of an office building. They stood and watched the bruised and bleeding young woman, shockingly indifferent to her screams for help. This almost unbelievable display of callousness occurred two months after the fatal stabbing of a woman in Queens—a 35-minute attack which, detectives found, had been witnessed by 38 persons who neither gave help nor summoned police . . . The two incidents referred to above may have one good effect. They may cause Americans to do some soul-searching on this matter of apathy and pretended or real indifference to the pain of others. Out of this may come a re-awakening of conscience, and of the realization that we are all in this—that is, in life—together."—El Dorado, Kas., Times.

Columbian Club

Youth activities in Foard County were reviewed for members of the Columbian Club at the Sept. 16 meeting in the home of Mrs. R. J. Thomas. Guest speakers were Miss Betty Ann Welch, Future Homemakers of America; Miss Jean Burkett, Rifle Club; Miss Sara Bell, Camp Fire Girls; and Paul Stapp, Boy Scouts.

Miss Welch was a district delegate to the FHA Chicago convention in July. She showed the dress with which she won a prize in Vernon and which will be entered in Dallas competition in October.

Miss Jean Burkett, an expert marksman, explained the organization and activities of the Rifle Club.

The purpose, activities and achievements of Camp Fire Girls was explained by Sara Bell in a question and answer exchange with her mother, Mrs. Howard Bell. She also described the activities at Camp Letoli near St. Jo.

Paul Stapp concluded the "Youth in Our Community" program with a report of the Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge.

Mrs. John Ray, vice president, presided at the business meeting. She made a short talk in memory of Mrs. A. L. Daniel. Mrs. M. N. Kenner led the pledge of allegiance, and Mrs. Marion Crowell was program leader.

Refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table by Mrs. Thomas, with the assistance of her granddaughter, Miss Cheryl Thompson.

Adelphian Club

Mrs. Mike Bird was hostess to the Adelphian Club on Wednesday, Sept. 16, at the Adelphian Club House. After the business session, Mrs. Robert Kincaid presented Mrs. Jack Turner who led the group in the pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States. Each member answered roll call with "what I did this summer."

Mrs. Ramon Rasberry had for her subject, "Our U. S. A." She traced events in this nation from the time the Mayflower dropped anchor in Plymouth Bay to the twentieth century space age. Measured by natural resources, the United States has always been a land of plenty, and because no limitations have been placed on the individual's ambition and ingenuity, she mentioned a number of people whose inventions and discoveries have contributed to the economic and cultural progress of the nation.

Fourteen members were present, one of whom was Mrs. Bill Cates, a new member.

Riverside H. D. Club

Mrs. Grover Moore brought some very interesting tips on sewing for the opening exercises when the Riverside Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Felix Taylor Tuesday, Sept. 15. The president, Mrs. H. L. Ayers Jr., conducted the business meeting at which time the club voted to give $5.00 to the Foard County Library.

The program, "New Ideas in Sewing," was given by the agent, Mrs. Virginia Hseng. The club is glad to have one new member, Mrs. Ira Tole.

Mrs. Taylor served refreshments of drinks and cookies to ten members, 1 visitor and Mrs. Hseng. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Ewald Schroeder of Vernon.

Camp Fire Girls

The Ki Nun Ka Camp Fire girls met Friday, Sept. 18, at the Little House. Peggy Raspberry presided over a short business meeting, after which Charlotte Walker served refreshments to the group.

Their leader, Mrs. Shirley, then took them for a tour through the court house.

Soil Temperature Right for Planting Winter Legumes

A recent test of the soil temperature in Foard County was found to be 76 degrees. According to this test, now would be a safe time to plant winter legumes such as Austrian Winter peas or vetch. Sowing these legumes with small grain, such as barley, oats, wheat or rye, will help hold peas and vetch more uniformly on the ground during windy weather.

A protective cover on the soil reduces soil losses from water, by breaking the force of the rain drops and thereby preventing the splashing of the soil particles. This enables better penetration of water and results in less water runoff and soil erosion.

In addition to improving the physical condition of the soil and preventing washing, a winter cover crop prevents leaching of plant food during the winter season.

When there is no growing crop on the land, the plant-food elements that become available through decomposition are otherwise lost. A growing crop takes up these elements and they are again made available when it is turned into the soil. In this way a green manure cover crop conserves fertilizer. It not only takes up the plant food that otherwise would leach from the soil, but also adds nitrogen. Nitrogen is added directly from the air through the working of bacteria on the roots.

A mixture of either Austrian winter peas or vetch with a winter grain crop supplies an excellent and nutritious grazing crop, rich in protein.

Visible and Dramatic Proof That Minority Was Right

Columnist Max Freedman writes: "The uproar in Congress over reapportionment is the visible and dramatic proof that the minority on the Supreme Court was right in its forebodings that serious problems would be created by the court's decision. With unavailing logic and legal scholarship, Justice Frankfurter (now retired) and Justice Harlan led the opposition on the court to the judicial settlement of these reapportionment problems. . . . They foresaw the new problems that would arise once the court began to work in these political thickets."

Far Cry from Their Farm Purposes

“Senator John J. Williams, the Delaware Republican who first opposed the Bobby Baker scandal, charges that the Farmers Home Administration has been lending more than $1,000 an acre to convert croplands into golf courses, country clubs and hunting preserves—a far cry from their farm purposes. . . . There is a recreation program and it is going through the legislative mill now. The House has approved it and it is heading for the Senate. This is a 25-year land and water conservation program to meet the needs for outdoor recreation facilities. It would be largely a pay-as-you-go project, with funds advanced on a sharing basis with the states, to be repaid from receipts after 10 years. Thus the taxpayer will have recreation lending where it belongs, and it will not be used by the Agriculture Department to perpetuate a bureaucratic agency which has evidently run out of legitimate places where it can get rid of our money.”—Corvallis, Ore., Gazette-Times.

Objective Worth Working For!

“The current race riots gripping many of the larger cities throughout the country are causing immeasurable harm to everyone concerned and to the nation as a whole. While it may be too much to ask if coolness and real leadership can be accomplished in achieving this objective of freedom and brotherhood, we as a people and a nation can gain a position in modern society unparalleled in the history of the world. This is an objective well worth working for.”—Alma, Mich., Record.

Some Food Prices Edge Up Slightly

The average homemaker will spend a bit more money than usual for the family's food this week end, as some prices edge up seasonally.
Best beef buys this week and next are expected on ground beef, arm and blade pot roasts and steaks, short ribs and round steaks. Pork values include smoked hams and picnics. Fryers remain an excellent bargain in most retail meat departments, and frozen turkeys are available at economical prices.
Grade A medium and large eggs are nip and tuck for the egg bargain of the week, reports Mrs. Gwen Clyatt, Extension Service consumer information specialist.
Fresh fruit and vegetable items moderate to economical in price include bananas, lemons, cantaloupes, plums, peaches, nectarines, grapes, lettuce, celery, cabbage, tomatoes, green peppers, squash, dry yellow onions, sweet corn, okra and carrots.
The continuing hot weather is causing a reduction in vegetable supplies of top quality, the specialist says.

Let Us Deserve Government 'by the People'

"When we sit back and do not express our viewpoint or raise objection to ideas that we do not believe in, we are hastening the time when we will not have the privilege of expressing our views. If we fall into the habit of taking the path of least resistance or if we fail to say no when we feel no is the right answer—even if it is not the popular one then we are saying that the ideals that our forefathers died for were not important. . . . Express yourself! Whatever the results, whether they go for the moment more in the direction of extremism or away from it, we will know in our own hearts that our own attitudes and actions contributed to the results. A nation gets the kind of government it deserves! Let us deserve government 'by the people.'"—Giddings, Texas, Star.

Contract Awarded for Construction of Greenbelt Pipeline

On a low bid of $3,014,302.20, a pipeline contract was awarded by the Greenbelt Municipal and Industrial Water Authority to R. H. Fulton Company of Lubbock at a special meeting in Childress last week.
The contract is for a 79-mile pipeline from Lelia Lake Creek northeast of Clarendon to Quanah to supply water from the creek to Quanah and Childress. Crowell is also to receive a water supply from the Greenbelt Authority at a later date.
The Fulton firm was among nine bidders from several states who submitted bids Sept. 3 at Childress. Letting of the contract was contingent upon completion of financing and sale of bonds to the Texas Water Development Board at Austin.
Completion of the project is scheduled by June 1, 1965.

Is to Descend into Socialism

"We hope we can make it clear. The great problem of our time centers around private property and the inroads being made against it by government. Ever since the socialist movement began, economic theorists have toyed with the idea that the world would be a better place if people didn't own property privately. Essentially, this is all that Karl Marx was interested in promoting when he launched the communist movement. . . . In a free society, both welfare and protection, as services, can thrive and, indeed, will for both of these things are humanly necessary. But to establish a system wherein everyone in society can be systematically looted in order to provide services some may not want, is to descend into socialism."—Harlingen, Texas, Star.

Coin-Operated Machines Increase Food Sales

Food sales through coin-operated vending machines have increased greatly during the past 15 years, reports Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist.
It is estimated that by next year, total dollar sales will be up to $4 billion, compared with $2.5 billion in 1960, she said.
Soft drinks make up about a third of the automatically vended products. Candy, gum, cookies and crackers account for another quarter of the sales. Milk and ice cream have been popular items for years, and coffee, soup and sandwiches have increased in importance.
Dollar sales of hot canned foods, of which soups made up 60 percent of the total, increased by more than one-third from 1959 to 1960.
Vending machines appearing in new locations and handling many new food items are being adapted to new uses. One of the most promising is frozen, pre-cooked foods that are reheated in special ovens at the time and place of consumption.
Automatic cafeterias have been installed in a number of in-plant feeding operations. The U. S. Department of Agriculture reported in 1959 that 90 per cent of all in-plant food service operations feeding 250 or more persons dispensed some items by automatic vending machines.
Besides hot platter vending machines, there are hot and cold sandwiches, soup, desserts, pastry, candy, ice cream, milk, soda and fresh coffee vendors. Automatic bill changers that accept $1 and $5 are other additions.

Only Justification for Foreign Aid Program

In Senator Strom Thurmond's opinion: "The basic fallacy underlying our foreign aid program is the notion that friendships can be purchased. Another basic fault lies in the gross mismanagement which has been evident in this program since its inception. Then there is also the inordinate leeway which the administrators have been permitted to . . . Foreign aid has its place when made available to friendly nations in a measured amount, preferably through to help them help us in tide against communism in favor of freedom. This only justification for a aid program."
